INDEX USER'S GUIDE

Main Headings

The index to Minnesota Rules 2001 is an alphabetical arrangement of main subject headings. The headings appear in boldface capitals. The words and phrases forming the main headings are selected from terminology used in the rules and reflect concepts associated with the rules or in common usage.

There is a main heading for DEFINITIONS. It lists words and phrases defined in a designated definition part or subpart in a rule and other definitions clearly designated as such within a rule.

References to Part Numbers

The numbers listed after an entry refer to rule part numbers. For example:

ACCIDENT REPORTS

Railroads, 8830.3100

means that a Department of Transportation rule requiring certain reports of accidents to be submitted by railroads can be found in part 8830.3100 of Minnesota Rules.

Alphabetization

Main headings and the entries under each main heading are arranged in letter-by-letter alphabetical order. For example:

ABANDONED AND UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

All-terrain vehicles, 6102.0010

Boundary waters canoe area, 6140.0800

Off-highway motorcycles, 6102.0010

Off-road vehicles, 6102.0010

Abbreviations and acronyms are alphabetized as though they are one word. For example:

DEFINITIONS

Campus

Veterans homes, 9050.0040

CAMV (corrective action management unit)

Hazardous waste, 7045.0020

Carrier

Disease control, 4605.7000

CAS RN (chemical abstract service registry number)

Health risk limits, 4717.7150

“SEE” and “SEE ALSO”

Two types of cross-references are used in the index. They are to either another main heading or to an entry within the same heading.

1. A “See” or “See also” reference under a main heading and a “see” reference within a subheading to an entry shown in all capital letters directs the user to another main heading. For example:

ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN

See MINNESOTA ZOO

The rules concerning the Minnesota Zoo will be found in the index under the main heading MINNESOTA ZOO.

WEATHERSTRIPPING

Energy audits, see ENERGY AUDITS

The rules concerning weatherstripping as required by energy audits will be found under the main heading ENERGY AUDITS

SILOS

See also AGRICULTURAL BUILDINGS

Because AGRICULTURAL BUILDINGS is a more general term than SILOS, rules about agricultural buildings could apply to silos as well. Readers should check both headings to find the relevant rules.

WATER POLLUTION CONTROL GRANTS

See also MUNICIPAL WASTEWATER AND STORM WATER TREATMENT FACILITIES

These two main headings are about related subjects, so readers may want to look at both.

A “see” reference is also used in the following way:

ABSENCE AND ABSENTEES

See specific index headings

This is a direction to look under a specific subject heading for information on absence or absentees. For example, for information about absentee voters look under the more specific heading ABSENTEE VOTING.

2. A lower-case “see” reference to an entry with the phrase “under this topic” directs the user to look within that main heading for an entry. For example:

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Aid, see Financial aid under this topic
