CHAPTER XXIV.

REGULATION OF LABOR.

SECTION

1. Ten hour rule to govern in certain cases—penalty for violation.

SECTION

2. Such rule to prevail in absence of contract.

Ten hour rule to govern—when.

SECTION. 1. In all manufactories, work-shops, and other places used for mechanical and manufacturing purposes in this state, where children under the age of eighteen years and women are employed, the time of labor of the persons aforesaid, shall not exceed ten hours for each day, and any owner, stockholder, or overseer, employer, clerk, or foreman, who compels any woman or any child under eighteen years of age to labor in any day exceeding ten hours, or permits any child under the age of fourteen, to labor in any factory, work-shop or other place used for mechanical or manufacturing purposes, for more than ten hours in any one day, where such owner, stockholder, overseer, employer, clerk, or foreman has control, such person so offending shall be liable to a prosecution in the name of the state of Minnesota, before any justice of the peace, or court of competent jurisdiction of the county where the same occurs, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than ten or more than one hundred dollars.

Rule in absence of contract.

SEC. 2. In all engagements to labor in any mechanical or manufacturing business, a day's work, when the contract of labor is silent upon the subject, or when there is no express contract, shall consist of ten hours, and all agreements, contracts, or engagements, in reference to such labor, shall be so construed.
