TITLE I.

1868-135-

JURISDICTION.

SECTION 1. The jurisdiction of a justice of the peace is co-extensive with the limits of the county in which he resides, except in the following cases :

Jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

First. Writs of attachment may be directed to the proper officer in any county for the purpose of causing an attachment of property therein.

1872-163

Second. Garnishee process issued in an action before a justice may run into and be served on the garnishee in any county in the state.

SEC. 2. Every justice of the peace shall keep his office in the town, city or ward for which he is elected; but he may issue process in any place in the county.

Justice shall keep his office, where.

1868-13

SEC. 3. No justice of the peace shall hold his office in the same room with a practicing attorney, unless such attorney is his law partner; and in that case, such partner shall not appear or practice as an attorney, in any case tried before such justice.

Office in room with practicing attorney, effect

SEC. 4. A justice of the peace is authorized to hold a court for the trial of all actions in the next section enumerated, and to hear, try, and determine the same; and for that purpose, where no special provision is otherwise made by law, such court is vested with all the necessary powers which are possessed by courts of record in this state; and all laws of a general nature apply to such justice's court, so far as the same are applicable, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this title; but no justice of the peace shall charge the jury.

Powers of justice—laws applicable to justice's court.

SEC. 5. Such justice has jurisdiction of the following actions and proceedings :

Jurisdiction of certain actions and proceedings.

First. Of an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, if the sum claimed does not exceed one hundred dollars.

2 Min., 86.
4 Min., 451.

Second. Of an action for damages for an injury to the person or to real property, or for taking, detaining or injuring personal property, if the damages claimed, or, in replevin, the value of the property in controversy, does not exceed one hundred dollars.

Third. Of an action for a penalty given by statute not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Fourth. Of an action upon a bond, conditioned for the payment of money not exceeding one hundred dollars, though the penalty exceeds that sum, the judgment to be given for the sum actually due. When the payments are to be made by installments, an action may be brought for each installment as it becomes due.

Fifth. Of an action upon an official bond or bond taken by him, if the penalty does not exceed one hundred dollars.

Sixth. To take and enter judgment on the confession of a defendant when the amount does not exceed one hundred dollars.

Limitation of jurisdiction conferred by last section.

SEC. 6. The jurisdiction conferred by the last section does not extend, however, to a civil action:

First. In a cause involving the title to real estate.

Second. Nor for false imprisonment, libel, slander, malicious prosecution, criminal conversation, or seduction, or upon a promise to marry.

Third. Nor for an action against an executor or administrator as such.

TITLE II.

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS; SERVICE AND RETURN OF PROCESS.

Justice to keep docket.

SEC. 7. Every justice of the peace shall keep a docket in which he shall enter:

What docket shall contain

First. The title of all causes commenced before him.

Second. The time when the process issued, the nature thereof, when returnable, and the return of the officer.

Third. The time when the parties appeared before him.

Fourth. A brief statement of the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and the amount claimed, and if any set-off was pleaded, a similar statement of the set-off.

Fifth. Every adjournment, stating at whose request, and to what time and place.

Sixth. The time when the trial was had, stating whether the same was by jury or by the justice.

Seventh. The verdict of the jury and when rendered.

Eighth. The judgment, time of issuing execution, the name of the officer to whom delivered, an account of the debt, damages and costs, and the fees due to each person separately.

Ninth. The fact that an appeal was taken and allowed, and the time hereof.

Tenth. Satisfaction of judgment when made.

Eleventh. All questions of law raised by either of the parties to any action or proceeding, the order made by the court thereon, any exception taken to such order by any party, and all other matters that are material.

Action, how commenced.

SEC. 8. Actions may be instituted before a justice of the peace, either by the voluntary appearance and agreement of the parties, or by the usual process; when the name of the defendant is not known to the plaintiff an action may be commenced against him by a fictitious name, and his true name shall be inserted when discovered.

1876-25

SEC. 9. Any justice of the peace in this state may in all actions instituted before him, before or after the process issues, require of the plaintiff security for costs; and the person giving such security shall sign a memorandum in writing to that effect, which such justice shall keep as a part of the record in the cause, and an action may be maintained thereon before said justice to recover the costs, and if the plaintiff refuses to give such security, the justice shall dismiss the action.

Justice may require security for costs.

SEC. 10. Every summons or process issued by a justice of the peace, shall run in the name of the state of Minnesota, be dated on the day it issues, be signed by the justice issuing the same, and be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county. It shall be entirely filled up, and have no blank either in date, or otherwise at the time of its delivery to an officer to be executed; every such process which is issued and delivered to an officer to be executed, contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void.

Process, form of, how issued and when void.

SEC. 11. In all cases not otherwise provided for, the first process is by summons, commanding the officer to summon the defendant to appear before such justice at a time and place expressed in such summons, not less than six nor more than twenty days from the date thereof, to answer to the plaintiff in a civil action, which summons shall be served at least six days before the time of appearance therein mentioned, by reading the same to the defendant, and delivering a copy thereof to him, if requested, if such defendant can be found, and if not found, by leaving a copy thereof at his or her last usual place of abode.

Summons, first process, shall contain what.

SEC. 12. When the plaintiff or his agent makes an affidavit stating that the plaintiff has a just cause of action against the defendant, founded upon contract express or implied, and that the defendant can not be found in the state, a justice may order that service be made on the defendant by publication of the summons in the form hereinafter prescribed in either of the following cases:

Summons served by publication, when.

First. When the defendant is a foreign corporation.

Second. When the defendant, being a resident of the state, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors or to evade the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent.

Third. When the defendant is not a resident of the state but has property, real or personal, therein, and the justice has jurisdiction of the action.

SEC. 13. The order shall direct the publication to be made in a newspaper published in the county where the action is brought, and if there is no newspaper published in the county, in a newspaper published at the capital of the state, not less than once a week for three weeks. In case of publication the summons shall be made returnable in not less than six nor more than twenty days from the expiration of the period of publication, and the justice shall direct a copy of the summons and complaint to be forthwith deposited in the post office, directed to the defendant at his place of residence unless it is stated in the affidavit, that such residence is not known to the party making the application.

Order of publication.

Summons returnable, when—deposit in post office.

SEC. 14. Every justice issuing any process authorized by this title, upon being satisfied that such process will not be executed, for want of an officer to be had in time to execute the same, may empower any suitable person, not a party to the action, to execute the same, by an indorsement upon the process to the following effect: "At the request and risk of the plaintiff, I authorize A. B. to execute and return this writ. E. F., justice of the peace;" and the person so empowered shall thereupon possess all the authority of a constable in relation to the execution of such process, and be subject to the same obligations.

Justice may empower person to serve process, when.

Officer failing to execute process or making false return—penalty.

SEC. 15. If any officer without showing good cause therefor, fails to execute any process to him delivered, and make due return thereof, or makes false return, such officer, for every such offense, shall pay to the party injured, ten dollars, and all damages such party may have sustained by reason thereof, to be recovered in a civil action.

Next friend to be appointed for infant plaintiff.

SEC. 16. No action shall be instituted by an infant plaintiff until a next friend for such infant is appointed. Whenever requested, the justice shall appoint some suitable person, who consents thereto in writing, to be named by such plaintiff, to act as his next friend in such action, who shall be responsible for the costs therein.

Guardian for infant defendant to be appointed.

SEC. 17. After the service and return of process against an infant defendant, the action shall not be further prosecuted until a guardian for such defendant is appointed. Upon the request of such defendant, the justice shall appoint some person, who consents thereto in writing, to be guardian of the defendant in defence of the action; and if the defendant does not appear on the return day of the process, or if he neglects or refuses to nominate such guardian, the justice may at the request of the plaintiff, appoint any discreet person as such guardian; the consent of such guardian or next friend shall be filed with the justice, and the guardian for the defendant, shall not be liable for any cost in the action.

Action may be transferred to another justice—when.

SEC. 18. If, on the return of the process, or at any time before the trial commences in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, either party, his agent or attorney, makes affidavit that the justice before whom the same is pending is a material witness for said defendant, without whose testimony he cannot safely proceed to trial; or that from prejudice, bias, or other cause, he believes such justice will not decide impartially in the matter; or if it is proven that the justice is near of kin to the plaintiff, the justice shall transfer said action, and all papers appertaining to the same, to some other justice of the same or an adjoining election district, who may thereupon proceed to hear and determine the same in the same manner as the justice, before whom the said action or proceeding was commenced, might have done, but no cause or proceeding shall be removed more than once, and no justice is required to transfer any civil action until all his costs in the same are paid.

Time to appear.

SEC. 19. The parties are entitled to one hour in which to make their appearance after the time mentioned in the summons for appearance; but are not bound to remain longer than that time, unless both parties appear, and the justice being present, is actually engaged in the trial of another action, or a special proceeding; in such case he may postpone the time of appearance until the close of the trial.

Failure to appear—proceedings. 8 Min. 243.

SEC. 20. If either party fails to appear within one hour after the time specified for the return of the process, or after the hour to which the cause is adjourned, the justice shall dismiss the action, or proceed to hear the evidence of the party present, and render judgment thereon.

1872-135

TITLE III.

PLEADINGS AND TRIAL.

Pleadings shall take place—when. 8 Min. 243.

SEC. 21. The pleadings in justices' courts must take place at the time mentioned in the summons for the appearance of the parties, or at such time thereafter, not exceeding one week, as the justice may appoint, for the convenience of the parties, and by their consent.

Pleadings—what are.

SEC. 22. The pleadings in justices' court are:
First. The complaint stating the cause of action:

Second. The answer stating the grounds of defense.

5 Min. 455.

Third. When the answer sets up a counter claim by way of a set-off, the reply.

SEC. 23. The pleadings may be oral, or in writing; if oral, the substance of them shall be entered by the justice in his docket; if in writing, they shall be filed in his office, and a reference to them made in his docket.

May be oral and entered in docket, or in writing, and filed.

SEC. 24. The complaint shall state in a plain and direct manner the facts constituting the cause of action.

Complaint, what to contain.

SEC. 25. The answer shall contain a denial of all the material facts stated in the complaint which the defendant believes to be untrue, and also a statement in a plain and direct manner of any other facts constituting a defence or counter claim, by way of set-off, upon which an action might be brought by the defendant against the plaintiff in a justice's court.

Answer what to contain.
1 Min. 225.

SEC. 26. When the answer contains a counter claim, the plaintiff may reply, denying any of the material allegations relating thereto.

Reply allowed—when.
5 Min. 455.

SEC. 27. A statement in an answer or reply that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information in respect to a particular allegation in the previous pleading of the adverse party to form a belief, is equivalent to a denial.

Denial in answer or reply, what is equivalent to.

SEC. 28. When the cause of action or counter claim arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it is sufficient for the party to deliver the account or instrument to the court; and to state that there is due to him thereon from the adverse party, a specified sum which he claims to recover, or set off; the court may at the time of pleading, require that such writing or account be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party, with liberty to copy the same; or if not so exhibited, may prohibit its being afterward given in evidence.

Rules for producing in certain cases.

SEC. 29. Every complaint, answer or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he is not present, by the oath of his agent or attorney, to the effect that he believes it to be true; the verification shall be oral or in writing, in conformity with the pleadings verified.

Pleading to be verified.
1 Min. 225.

SEC. 30. Every material allegation in a complaint, or relating to a counter claim in an answer, not denied by the pleading of the adverse party, shall, on the trial, be taken to be true, except that when a defendant, who has not been served with a copy of the complaint with the summons, fails to appear and answer, the plaintiff cannot recover without proving his case.

Material allegations not denied, to be taken as true—exception.
5 Min. 455.

SEC. 31. Either party may object to a pleading of his adversary, or to any part thereof, that it is not sufficiently explicit to enable him to understand it, or that it contains no cause of action or defence. If the court deems the objection well founded, it shall order the pleadings to be amended, and if the party refuses to amend, the defective pleading shall be disregarded.

Objections to pleadings.

SEC. 32. A variance between the evidence and the allegations in the pleadings shall be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court is satisfied that the adverse party is prejudiced thereby.

Variance.

SEC. 33. The pleadings may be amended at any time before the trial, or during the trial, to supply any deficiency or omission in the allegations, necessary to support the action or defence. If the amendment is made after the issue, and it appears to the satisfaction of the court, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, an adjournment may be granted.

Amendments.

SEC. 34. When the pleadings are closed, the justice on the application of either party shall adjourn the case for not exceeding one week, or may upon application, upon oath, adjourn the case for any further time not exceeding thirty days; and upon an adjournment, all costs of travel, attendance of witnesses, serving of subpoenas, &c., shall be taxed in the same manner as if no actual trial had been had, upon the day originally fixed for the trial of the action, and may be required to be paid as a condition of such adjournment in the discretion of the justice.

When title to real estate is involved, justice shall proceed—how.
 8 Min. 387.
 9 Min. 40.

SEC. 35. If it appears on the trial of any action before a justice of the peace, from the evidence of either party, that the title to real estate is involved, which title is disputed by the other party, the justice shall immediately make an entry thereof, in his docket, and cease all other proceedings in the cause, and shall certify and return to the district court of the county, a transcript of all the entries made in his docket relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the action, in the same manner, and within the same time as upon an appeal; and thereupon the district court shall proceed in the cause to final judgment and execution, the same as if the action had been originally commenced therein.

Adjournments subsequent to the first shall be for what time.

SEC. 36. Every adjournment after the first, shall be for such reasonable time as will enable the party to procure such absent testimony or witness, as is necessary and material, which the party applying for the adjournment has not been able to procure by the use of proper diligence.

TITLE IV.

SET-OFFS.

Set-Offs.

SEC. 37. Counter claims may be set off in the following cases:

First. A demand arising upon a judgment, or contract, express, or implied, and if it is founded upon a bond or other contract having a penalty, the sum equitably due by virtue of the condition, only shall be set-off.

Second. It must be due to him in his own right, either as the original creditor or payee, or as the assignee and owner of the demand;

Third. It must be for real estate sold, or for personal property sold, or for money paid, or services done; or if it is not such a demand, the amount must be liquidated, or be capable of being liquidated by calculation;

Fourth. It must exist at the time of the commencement of the action, and then belong to the defendant;

Fifth. It can only be allowed in actions founded upon demands which could themselves be the subject of set-off;

Sixth. If there are several defendants the demands set off must be due to all of them jointly;

Seventh. It must be a demand existing against the plaintiff, unless the action is brought in the name of a plaintiff who has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, in which case no set-off of a demand against the plaintiff shall be allowed except as hereinafter specified;

Eighth. If the action is founded upon a contract, other than a negotiable promissory note, or a bill of exchange, which has been assigned by the plaintiff, a demand against such plaintiff, or any assignee of such contract existing at the time of assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, may be set off, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if the demand is such as might have been set-off against such plaintiff or assignee, while the contract belonged to him.

SEC. 38. If the action is upon a negotiable promissory note, or bill of exchange which has been assigned to the plaintiff, after it becomes due, a set-off to the amount of the plaintiff's demand may be made of a demand existing against any person who has assigned or transferred such note or bill after it became due, if the demand is such as might have been set off against the assignor, while the note or bill belonged to him.

Set-offs against assignees in certain cases.

SEC. 39. If the plaintiff is a trustee for any other, or if the action is in the name of the plaintiff who has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents, or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, if the same might have been set-off in an action brought by those beneficially interested.

Set-offs against trustees and nominal plaintiffs.

SEC. 40. To entitle a defendant to set off a counter claim, he shall specifically and clearly allege the same in his answer, stating the particular items of such counter claim.

Counter claim not allowed unless pleaded.

SEC. 41. If the amount of the counter claim duly established is equal to the plaintiff's demand, judgment shall be entered for the defendant for his costs; if it is less than the plaintiff's demand, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue only.

Judgment in case counter-claim is established.

SEC. 42. If a balance is found due from the plaintiff to the defendant, judgment shall be rendered for the defendant for the amount thereof; but no such judgment shall be rendered against the plaintiff where the contract which is the subject of the action, has been assigned before the commencement of such action, nor for any balance due from any other person than the plaintiff.

Judgment in case balance is found due defendant.

TITLE V.

WITNESSES AND DEPOSITIONS.

SEC. 43. A subpoena may be served by any person by reading it to the witness or by delivering a copy thereof to him.

Subpoenas, how served.

SEC. 44. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the justice by proof made before him that any person duly subpoenaed to appear before him in an action has failed without just cause to attend as a witness in conformity to such subpoena, and the party in whose behalf such subpoena was issued, or his agent, makes oath that the testimony of such witness is material, the justice has power to issue an attachment to compel the attendance of such witness; but no attachment shall issue against a witness unless his mileage and one day's attendance has been tendered or paid in advance.

Witness failing to appear, attachment may issue, when.

SEC. 45. Every such attachment shall be executed by arresting the party named therein and taking him before the justice issuing the warrant, and the fees for issuing and serving the same, shall be paid by such person, unless he shows reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the justice for his omission to attend, in which case the party procuring such attachment, shall pay all costs accruing thereon.

Attachment, how executed.

SEC. 46. Every person subpoenaed as aforesaid, and neglecting to appear, is also liable to the party in whose behalf he was subpoenaed, for damages which such party has sustained by his non-appearance: provided, that said witness had one day's attendance and mileage tendered or paid him in advance.

Delinquent witness liable for damages.

SEC. 47. Either party in any civil action pending before a justice, may, upon notice, cause the deposition of any witness therein, to be taken by any judge or justice of the peace, of any county in this state where the said witness may be.

Depositions.

How taken, certified and returned.

May be read on trial of cause, when.

SEC. 48. The deposition shall be taken, certified, and returned according to the law concerning depositions.

SEC. 49. The justice shall allow every deposition, taken, certified, and returned according to the provisions of this title, to be read on the trial of the cause in which it is taken, in all cases where the same testimony, if given verbally in court, could have been received; but no such deposition shall be read on the trial, unless it appears to the justice that the witness whose deposition is offered:

First. Is dead, or resides out of the county.

Second. Is unable, or cannot easily attend before the justice on account of sickness, age, or other bodily infirmity.

Third. Has gone out of the county, without the consent or collusion of the party offering the deposition.

Commission to examine witness, when awarded.

SEC. 50. Whenever an issue of fact is joined in any action before a justice, and it appears on the application of either party, that any witness not residing within the state where such action is pending, is material in the prosecution or defence of such action, the justice may award a commission to one or more competent persons, authorizing them or any of them to examine such witness on oath, upon the interrogatories, settled and approved by the justice, or by the written agreement or assent of the parties annexed to such commission, to take and certify the deposition of such witness, and to return the same according to the directions given, with such commission, in which commission both parties may unite.

Commission, at whose instance and how granted.

SEC. 51. Such commission may be granted at the instance of either party by such justice at any time, upon proof that due notice of application for such commission was served on the adverse party at least two days before the time of making such application; and whenever the defendant neglects to appear or plead in such action, and the plaintiff makes application for a commission to take the deposition of a material witness, the justice may award a commission without notice to one or more competent persons, to examine such witness on oath, upon interrogatories proposed by the plaintiff to be settled by the justice, and certify the deposition, and return the same according to the directions given in such commission.

How executed and returned.

SEC. 52. The commission shall be executed and returned to the justice as is prescribed by statute when a commission issues out of a court of record, and the deposition and testimony taken in pursuance thereof, shall be received on the trial, as testimony in the cause, with the like effect as if such witness was personally examined at such trial.

Commission issued, action may be adjourned.

SEC. 53. Whenever such commission is issued by any justice, the action may be adjourned for not more than ninety days, unless by consent and agreement of the parties to such action.

TITLE VI.

TRIAL BY JURY

Jury, how impaneled.

SEC. 54. In all civil actions before a justice in which either party demands a trial by jury, such jury shall be impaneled by said justice in the manner following, to wit: The justice shall direct the sheriff, or any constable of the county, to make a list in writing of the names of twenty-four inhabitants of the county, qualified to serve as jurors in the district court.

1868-133

SEC. 55. The parties may each strike out six names; in case of the refusal or neglect of either party so to strike out such names, the justice shall strike out the names for either or both; and upon such names being stricken out, the justice shall issue a venire directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, directing him to summon the twelve persons whose names remain upon such list, to appear before such court at the time and place named therein, as a jury for the trial of such action: provided, that upon consent of both parties entered on the record, a jury of six may be ordered by the justice, and in such case a list of eighteen names shall be made, from which each party may strike six, and the said jury shall be selected, impaneled and summoned as provided in this section.

Names how selected.

SEC. 56. If, in the opinion of the justice, the jurors above required cannot appear forthwith for the trial of the cause, the justice shall adjourn the same for such reasonable time as he deems proper, to enable the officer to summon the said jurors, and for them to appear. And if any of said jurors shall not attend at the time, or in case there are legal objections raised to any of those who appear, the officer shall summon a sufficient number of talesmen to supply the deficiency. The jury so selected shall take the oath required by law, and after the cause is submitted to them, they shall be kept together in some convenient place until they all agree upon a verdict, or are discharged by the justice, for which purpose an officer shall be sworn to take charge of them.

Adjournment to await summoning of jury.

SEC. 57. When the jurors have agreed on their verdict, they shall deliver the same to the justice, who shall give judgment thereupon, and award execution.

Verdict and judgment.

SEC. 58. Whenever a justice is satisfied that a jury sworn in any action before him, after having been out a reasonable time, cannot agree on a verdict, he may discharge them and issue a new venire, unless the parties consent that the justice may render judgment.

Justice may discharge jury, when.

SEC. 59. Every person who is duly summoned as a juror and does not appear, nor render a reasonable excuse for his default, is subject to a fine not exceeding ten dollars.

Juror failing to appear may be fined.

TITLE VII.

JUDGMENTS.

1891-131

SEC. 60. If there are mutual justices' judgments between the same parties, upon which the time for appealing has expired, on which there is no existing execution, one judgment, on the application of either party, and reasonable notice given to the adverse party, may be set off against the other, by the justice before whom the judgment against which the set-off is proposed was rendered.

Mutual judgment may be set off.
3 Min. 419.
6 Min. 273.

SEC. 61. If the judgment proposed as a set-off, was rendered before another justice, the party proposing such set-off shall produce before the justice, a transcript of such judgment, upon which there is a certificate of the justice rendering the judgment, that it is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that there is no appeal or existing execution thereon, and that such transcript was obtained for the purpose of being a set-off against the judgment to which it is offered as a set-off. The justice granting such transcript, shall make an entry thereof in his docket, and all further proceedings on such judgment shall be stayed, unless such transcript is returned with the proper justice's certificate thereon, that it has not been allowed in set-off.

Set-off, how obtained.

SEC. 62. If any justice shall set off one judgment against another, he allowing set-off. shall make an entry thereof in his docket, and execution shall issue only for the balance due after such set-off. If a justice allows a transcript of a judgment rendered by another justice to be set off, he shall file such transcript among the papers relating to the judgment in which it is allowed in set-off; if he refuses such transcript as a set-off, he shall so certify on the transcript, and return the same to the party who offered it.

Duty of justice

Judgment by confession. SEC. 63. Any justice may enter a judgment by confession of the defendant in any case when the debt or damage does not exceed one hundred dollars.

Conditions precedent to judgment by confession. SEC. 64. No confession shall be taken, or judgment rendered thereon, unless the following requisites are complied with:

First. The defendant shall personally appear before the justice.

Second. The confession shall be in writing, signed by the defendant, and verified by his oath, and filed with the justice.

Third. If it is for money due, or to become due, the confession shall state concisely the facts out of which it arose; and show that the sum confessed therefor is honestly due, or to become due. If it is for the purpose of securing a contingent liability, it shall state concisely the facts constituting the liability, and show that the sum confessed therefor does not exceed the same.

Papers to be filed—costs—judgment roll. SEC. 65. The statement and affidavit shall be filed with the justice, who shall indorse upon it the time of filing, and enter upon his judgment book a judgment for the amount confessed, with one dollar costs. The statement and affidavit, with the judgment indorsed, thereupon become the judgment roll.

Judgment shall be entered, when. SEC. 66. In cases where the plaintiff is nonsuited, or withdraws his action, or where judgment is confessed, and in all cases where a verdict is rendered, the justice shall forthwith render judgment, and enter the same in his docket. In all other cases, he shall render judgment, and enter the same in his docket within three days after the action is submitted to him for decision.

Judgment and execution for costs. SEC. 67. Whenever an action is dismissed for any cause, judgment shall be rendered for costs, and execution may issue to enforce such judgment, in the same manner and with the same effect as in other cases.

Security shall be given before judgment, when. SEC. 68. Before judgment is rendered in an action where the service of the summons is by publication, the plaintiff shall file with the justice a bond with surety to be approved by the justice in double the amount of the judgment, conditioned, that if the defendant within one year from the rendition of the judgment appears and disproves the debt, or damages, or any part thereof, the plaintiff will refund the whole or any part thereof which may be found not justly due him on a review of the case.

Appearance by defendant after judgment. SEC. 69. The defendant or his representative may be allowed to appear and defend any judgment obtained as provided in the preceding section, within one year after the rendition of such judgment or such time as may be just, in like manner as judgments are re-opened and defended in actions originally commenced in the district court.

Justice to give transcripts—clerk of district court to enter same on docket. SEC. 70. Every justice on demand of any person in whose favor he has rendered judgment for more than ten dollars exclusive of costs, shall give to such person a certified transcript of such judgment; and the clerk of the district court of the county in which the judgment was rendered, shall upon the production of any such transcript, file the same in his office, and forthwith enter such judgment in the docket of the district court judgments and shall note therein the time of filing such transcript; and every justice having custody, by virtue of his office, of the docket of any former justice shall give a transcript of any judgment therein appearing, with like effect as if such judgment had been rendered before him.

SEC. 71. Every such judgment from the time of filing the transcript thereof shall become a lien on the real estate of the defendant in the county, to the same extent as a judgment of the district court of the same county, shall be equally under the control of the district court, and be carried into execution in the same manner and with like effect as the judgment of such district court; and upon filing with the clerk of the district court of any other county, a transcript of the original docket of a justice's judgment in the district court of the county where it was rendered, the same shall be therein docketed, and thereupon become a lien upon the real property in such county, in the same manner as provided upon the filing of transcripts of judgments in the district court; but no execution shall be issued thereon out of any district court, until an execution has been issued by the justice, and returned that the defendant has no goods or chattels whereon to levy the same, which shall appear by a certificate from the justice, filed with the clerk of the district court.

Effect of filing transcript.

Execution issued when.

SEC. 72. Every judgment, when a transcript thereof is filed in the clerk's office of any district court shall become a lien upon the real estate of the defendant as in other cases, but in cases where the service of the summons, was by publication, any execution issued out of the district or justice court, shall be enforced only against the real estate upon which such judgment is a lien, or in case any property, money, effects or credits of the defendant have been seized or attached by virtue of any writ of attachment or garnishee process issued in the action, then upon the property, money, effects or credits, seized, attached or held by virtue of such process.

Execution, on what estate leviable.

TITLE VIII.

1871-127

EXECUTION AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON.

SEC. 73. Upon every judgment rendered by a justice, execution shall be issued by such justice, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, at any time on demand, after the expiration of the period allowed by law for taking an appeal from said judgment.

Execution, when issuable.

SEC. 74. The execution shall command the officer to levy the debt or damages, together with the interest thereon and the costs, upon the goods and chattels of the person against whom the execution is granted, except such articles as are exempt by law, from execution, and to pay the money within thirty days from date, to the justice who issued the execution.

Form of execution.

SEC. 75. Before any execution is delivered, the justice shall state in his docket, and also on the back of the execution, the amount of the debt or damages and costs separately, and the officer receiving such execution, shall indorse thereon the time of the reception of the same.

Justice to make certain entries before delivering execution.

SEC. 76. If any execution is not satisfied, it may, at the request of the plaintiff, be renewed from time to time, by the justice issuing the same, by an indorsement to that effect, dated and signed by him; if any part of such execution has been satisfied, the indorsement of renewal shall express the sum due on the execution; every such indorsement shall renew the execution in full force, in all respects for thirty days, and no longer. An entry of such renewal shall be made in the docket of the justice.

Execution may be renewed.

SEC. 77. The officer after taking goods and chattels into his custody by virtue of an execution, shall without delay give public notice, by at least three advertisements, posted in three public places in the election district where the property is to be sold, of the time and place when and where the same will be exposed for sale. Such notice shall describe the goods and chattels taken, and be posted at least ten days before the day of sale.

Notice of sale of property taken in execution.

Sale, how made. SEC. 78. At the time so appointed, the officer shall expose the goods and chattels to sale at public vendue to the highest bidder. The officer shall in all cases return the execution, and have the money before the justice at the time of making such return.

Return of execution. SEC. 79. No officer shall, directly or indirectly, purchase any goods and chattels at any sale made by him upon execution.

Officer not to be purchaser. SEC. 80. The officer who holds an execution, shall receive all money tendered to him in payment thereof, and indorse the same on the execution, and give the person paying the same a receipt therefor, in which shall be specified on what account the same was paid.

Officer to receive money tendered, and give receipt.

TITLE IX.

REPLEVIN.

Writ of replevin may issue, when. SEC. 81. When the object of the action is to recover the possession of personal property, the plaintiff or some other person shall, before any writ is issued, make an affidavit, and file the same with the justice.

Affidavit shall state what. SEC. 82. Such affidavit shall state that the property (describing it) is wrongfully detained by the defendant, that the plaintiff is entitled to the immediate possession thereof, that it was not taken from him by any process legally and properly issued against him, or if so taken, that it was exempt from seizure on such process; it shall also state the value of the property according to the best knowledge and belief of the affiant.

Plaintiff shall execute bond, which shall be filed—action on bond maintainable, when. SEC. 83. The plaintiff shall also execute a bond to the defendant, with sureties, to be approved by the justice, in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought, conditioned that he will appear at the return day of the writ and prosecute his action to judgment, and return the property to the defendant, if a return thereof is ordered by the court, and also pay all costs and damages that may be adjudged against him; the bond shall be filed with the justice for the use of any person injured by the proceeding, and an action may be maintained on such bond to recover the amount of any judgment rendered on dismissal of the action for want of jurisdiction or other cause, or for failure to abide by any such judgment, or to return the property when ordered by the court upon such dismissal.

Justice shall issue writ. SEC. 84. The justice shall thereupon issue a writ, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to take the property therein described and deliver the same to the plaintiff, and summon the defendant to appear and answer the same on the return day mentioned in the writ.

Duty of officer. SEC. 85. In obedience to such writ, the officer shall forthwith take possession of the property mentioned in the writ, if the same is in the possession of the defendant or his agent, for which purpose he may break open any dwelling-house or other inclosure, having first demanded entrance, and exhibited his authority if required.

Claimant made co-defendant. SEC. 86. If a third person claims the property, he shall be made a co-defendant.

SEC. 87. If the property sought is not obtained, the plaintiff, if he establishes his right thereto, shall recover the value of that right; whether obtained or not, he shall recover the damages he has sustained in consequence of the illegal detention, or taking and withholding thereof. Value of plaintiff's right recoverable, and damages.

SEC. 88. If the plaintiff fails to establish his right to the property, the defendant shall recover such damages as under the circumstances he shows himself entitled to; and in addition thereto may have judgment for the return of the property, or the value thereof, if the same has been taken out of his possession, or delivered to the plaintiff. Judgment for defendant, for what rendered.

SEC. 89. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the action is dismissed before answer, or the defendant in his answer claims a return thereof, the defendant shall have judgment for a return of the property, and damages, if any, for the detention or taking and withholding thereof, but such judgment shall not be a bar to another action for the same property or any part thereof. Judgment, what shall be in certain cases.

TITLE X. 1891-129

PROCEEDINGS BY ATTACHMENT.

SEC. 90. Any creditor is entitled to proceed by attachment in a justice's court, against the property of his debtor, in the cases, upon the conditions, and in the manner provided in this title. Attachment allowed, when.

SEC. 91. Before a writ of attachment is issued, the plaintiff, or some person in his behalf, shall make and file with the justice, an affidavit stating that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff, in a sum exceeding five dollars, and specifying the amount of such indebtedness, as near as may be, over and above all legal set-offs, and that the same is due upon contract, express or implied, or upon judgment or decree of some court, and containing a further statement that the affiant has good reason to believe either— Affidavit for attachment shall state, what.
3 Min. 29.

First. That the defendant is a non-resident corporation; or

Second. That the defendant is not a resident of this state, and has not resided therein three months immediately preceding the time of making such affidavit;

Third. That the defendant has absconded, or is about to abscond from the state;

Fourth. That the defendant has removed, or is about to remove any of his property out of this state, with intent to defraud his creditors;

Fifth. That the defendant resides in any other county, and more than one hundred miles from the residence of the justice;

Sixth. That the defendant contracted the debt under fraudulent representations;

Seventh. That the defendant so conceals himself that the summons cannot be served upon him; or

Eighth. That the defendant has fraudulently conveyed or disposed of, or is about fraudulently to convey or dispose of, any of his property or effects, so as to hinder, delay or defraud his creditors.

SEC. 92. In the first five cases mentioned in the preceding section the writ of attachment shall be returnable in three days; but in all other cases, it shall be returnable as an ordinary summons. Writ, when returnable.

SEC. 93. Before issuing a writ of attachment, the justice shall require a bond on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient surety, conditioned that if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs Plaintiff shall file bond.

that may be adjudged against him, and all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars.

Writ, how executed.

SEC. 94. The writ of attachment shall be returnable as an ordinary summons, and the officer shall execute the same by summoning the defendant, if to be found within the county, and by attaching the goods and chattels, moneys and credits, of the defendant, not exempt by law. In case the defendant cannot be found in the state, he may be summoned by the publication of the summons, as in other cases.

Defendant may re-bond property seized.

SEC. 95. When property of the defendant is actually seized on attachment, the defendant, or any other person for him, may obtain possession thereof, by giving bond with sureties, to the satisfaction of the officer executing the writ, in double the value of the property attached, conditioned that the same shall be forthcoming, when and where the justice shall direct, and shall abide the judgment of the justice.

Third person in possession of property attached, may retain possession, when.

SEC. 96. When the property of the defendant, found in the hands or possession of any other person than the defendant, is attached, such person may retain the possession thereof, by giving bond with sureties, to the satisfaction of the officer executing the writ, in double the value of the property attached, conditioned that the same shall be forthcoming when and where the justice shall direct, and shall abide the judgment of the justice.

Perishable property sold, when, and how.

SEC. 97. When property is seized on attachment, which is likely to perish or depreciate in value before the probable end of the action, or the keeping of which would be attended with much loss or expense, the justice may order the same to be sold by the officer, in the same manner and on the same notice, as goods are required to be sold on an execution; and the proceeds of such sale shall remain in the hands of the officer, subject to be disposed of as the property would have been if seized upon in specie.

Officer's compensation.

SEC. 98. When property is seized on attachment, the justice may allow to the officer having charge thereof, such compensation for his trouble and expense in keeping and maintaining the same, as is reasonable and just.

Actions commenced by attachment, how governed.

SEC. 99. Like pleadings and proceedings shall be had, as far as practicable, in actions commenced by attachment, and actions founded on contracts and commenced by summons.

Dissolution of attachments.

SEC. 100. Attachments may be dissolved, on motion, at any time before final judgment, if the defendant appears and pleads to the action and gives bond to the plaintiff, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the justice, in double the amount of property, effects and credits attached, conditioned that if judgment is rendered against him, he will pay the amount thereof, with costs and interest thereon.

Effect of dissolution of attachment.

SEC. 101. When any attachment is dissolved, the property and effects attached shall be released, and the action proceed as if it had been commenced by a summons only.

Execution—sale of attached property.

SEC. 102. When judgment is rendered in any attachment case, execution may issue thereon, and the property attached may be sold in the same manner as in other cases, except as otherwise provided in this title.

TITLE XI.

1867-130

A P P E A L S .

SEC. 103. Any person aggrieved by any judgment rendered by any justice, when the judgment exceeds fifteen dollars, or in an action of replevin, when the value of the property as sworn to in the affidavit exceeds fifteen dollars, or when the amount claimed in the complaint exceeds thirty dollars, may appeal by himself or agent to the district court of the county where the same was rendered, but this does not apply to an action of forcible entry and detainer: provided, that an appeal upon questions of law as herein provided, may be taken in any action without reference to the amount in controversy, or the amount of the judgment.

Appeal may be taken, when. 1 Min. 289.

SEC. 104. No appeal shall be allowed in any case unless the following requisites are complied with, within ten days after judgment rendered, viz:

Conditions precedent to allowance of an appeal. 10 Min. 383.

1868-13

First. An affidavit shall be filed with the justice before whom the cause was tried, stating that the appeal is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

Second. A bond shall be executed by the party appealing, his agent or attorney, to the adverse party in a sum sufficient to secure such judgment and costs of appeal, with one or more sureties, to be approved by the justice, conditioned that the appellant shall prosecute his appeal with effect and abide the order of the court therein.

Third. The party appealing shall serve a notice upon the opposite party, his agent or attorney, who appeared for him on the trial, specifying the ground of the appeal generally as follows: That the appeal is taken upon questions of law alone, or, upon questions of fact alone, or, upon questions of both law and fact. Said notice shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the person upon whom service is made, or by leaving a copy at the residence of such person, and the original notice with proof of service thereof, shall be filed with the justice who rendered the judgment appealed from, within ten days after such service is made.

SEC. 105. Upon a compliance with the foregoing provisions, the justice shall allow the appeal, and make an entry of such allowance in his docket; and all further proceedings on the judgment before the justice shall be suspended by the allowance of the appeal.

Justice to allow appeal, when—further proceedings stayed.

SEC. 106. On or before the first day of the term of the district court next after the appeal is allowed, the justice shall file in the office of the clerk of said court, a transcript of all the entries made in his docket, together with all the process and other papers relating to the action and filed with the justice; and upon the filing of his return the district court shall become possessed of the action, and shall proceed therein in the same manner as near as may be as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as herein otherwise provided.

Justice to file transcript and papers with clerk of district court.

1872-133

SEC. 107. Upon an appeal upon questions of law alone, the action shall be tried in the district court, upon the return of the justice. Upon an appeal taken upon questions of fact alone, the action shall be tried in the same manner as actions originally commenced in the district court. Upon an appeal upon questions of both law and fact, the action shall be tried in the same manner as if originally commenced in the district court: provided, that no question of law shall be tried or raised in the district court, except those tried or raised in the court below, and to which an exception was taken to the order made thereon by the justice, except objections to the jurisdiction of the court, and that the complaint or answer does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action or defense.

Appellant to cause appeal to be entered—penalty for default. 8 Min. 258.

1891-135-

SEC. 108. The appellant shall cause an entry of the appeal to be made by the clerk of the court on or before the second day of the term; unless otherwise ordered by the court, and the plaintiff in the court below shall be the plaintiff in the court above: provided, that if the appellant fails or neglects to enter the appeal as aforesaid, the appellee may have the same entered at any time during that or some succeeding term, and the judgment of the court below shall be entered against the appellant for the same, with interest and the cost of both courts.

District court may compel justice to file return.

SEC. 109. Upon an appeal being made and allowed, the district court may, by attachment, compel a return by a justice of the proceedings in the action, and of the papers required of him to be returned.

May compel justice to allow appeal, when.

SEC. 110. If a justice fails to allow an appeal in a cause, when the same ought to have been allowed, the district court, on such fact satisfactorily appearing, may, by attachment, compel him to allow the same, and to return his proceedings in the action, together with all papers required to be returned by him.

May compel him to amend his return.

SEC. 111. Whenever the court is satisfied that the return of the justice is essentially erroneous or defective, the court may, by attachment, compel him to amend the same.

Appeal not to be dismissed, when.

SEC. 112. No appeal allowed by a justice shall be dismissed on account of there being no bond, or that the bond given is defective, if the appellant will before the motion to dismiss is determined, execute such bond as he ought to have executed before the allowance of the appeal, and pay all costs that shall be incurred by reason of such default or omission.

Appeal triable, when.

SEC. 113. All appeals allowed thirty days before the first day of the term of the district court next after the appeal allowed, shall be determined at such term, unless continued for cause.

Power of district court in cases of appeal. 8 Min. 258.

SEC. 114. In all cases of appeal from a justice's court, the district court has power to affirm the judgment of the justice upon any default of the appellant to appear and prosecute his appeal; and in all cases if the judgment is against the appellant, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties in the bond.

Execution enforced against sureties, when.

SEC. 115. If upon an execution issued upon such judgment, the principal shall not pay the amount thereof, and the officer can not find sufficient property of said principal to satisfy the same, such execution shall be enforced against the sureties, and the officer shall specify on his return by whom the money was paid, and the time thereof.

Rights of parties paying execution.

SEC. 116. After the return of an execution satisfied in whole or in part out of the property of the surety, such surety is entitled to a judgment on motion against the principal for the amount so paid by him, together with interest from the time of payment; such motion shall be made within one year after the return day of the execution, and the return of the officer is evidence, upon the hearing of such motion, of the facts therein stated.

888-135-

Appeal not to be allowed unless costs are paid. 10 Min. 220.

SEC. 117. No appeal shall be allowed by any justice, until the appellant pays all costs which have accrued in the justice's court, including his fees for the return.

Justice shall make return to appeal after term of office expires.

SEC. 118. Whenever an appeal is taken after any justice has gone out of office, from a judgment rendered by him while in office, such person shall make return to such appeal, in like manner and with like effect as if such appeal had been taken while he was in office.

TITLE XII.

PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTEMPT BEFORE JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

SEC. 119. In the following cases a justice may punish for contempt:

Justice may punish for contempt, when.

First. Persons guilty of disorderly, contemptuous and insolent behavior toward such justice, whilst engaged in the trial of an action, or in rendering judgment, or in any judicial proceeding, which tends to interrupt such proceedings, or to impair the respect due to his authority;

Second. Persons guilty of any breach of the peace, noise or disturbance, tending to interrupt the official proceedings of such justice;

Third. Persons guilty of resistance or disobedience to any lawful order or process made or issued by him.

SEC. 120. Punishment for contempt may be by fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail, not exceeding two days.

Contempt, how punished.

SEC. 121. No person shall be punished for contempt before a justice of the peace, until an opportunity is given him to be heard in his defence; and for that purpose the justice may issue his warrant to bring the offender before him.

Trial to be first had.

SEC. 122. If the offender is present he may be summarily arraigned by the justice, and proceeded against in the same manner as if a warrant had been previously issued, and the offender arrested thereon.

Proceedings summary, when.

SEC. 123. Upon the conviction of any person for contempt, the justice shall make up a record of the proceedings on the conviction, stating the particular circumstances of the offense, and the judgment rendered thereon, and shall file the same in the office of the clerk of the district court, and shall also enter the same in his docket as in civil cases.

Duty of justice on conviction.

SEC. 124. The warrant of commitment for any constable shall set forth the particular circumstances of the offense, or it shall be void.

Warrant of commitment, what to set forth.

SEC. 125. When any witness attending before a justice of the peace, in any cause, refuses to be sworn in some form prescribed by law, or to answer any pertinent or proper question, such justice may, by order, commit such witness to the jail of the county.

Witness refusing to be sworn or to testify, may be committed.

SEC. 126. Such order shall specify the cause for which the same is issued; and if it is for refusing to answer any question, such question shall be specified therein; and such witness shall be closely confined pursuant to such order, until he submits to be sworn, or to answer, as the case may be.

Order of commitment to specify, what.

SEC. 127. The justice shall thereupon adjourn such case, at the request of the party, for such time as shall be reasonable, or until such witness shall testify in the case.

Court to be adjourned, how long.

SEC. 128. If any person duly subpoenaed, and obliged to attend as a witness, fails to do so, he shall be considered guilty of a contempt, and shall be fined all the costs for his apprehension, unless he shows reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the justice, for his omission to attend; in which case the party requiring such appearance, shall pay the costs thereof.

Witness failing to attend, guilty of contempt—how punished—costs.

TITLE XIV.

JURISDICTION OF JUSTICES IN CRIMINAL CASES, AND THE PROCEEDINGS THEREIN.

Jurisdiction of justices in criminal cases.

SEC. 130. Justices of the peace have power and jurisdiction throughout their respective counties, as follows:

First. To cause to be kept all laws made for the preservation of the peace;

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1866

Second. To cause to come before them, or any of them, persons who break the peace, and commit them to jail, or bail them, as the case may require;

Third. To arrest and cause to come before them, persons who attempt to break the peace, persons who keep houses of ill fame, or frequenters of the same, or common prostitutes, and compel them to give security for their good behavior, and to keep the peace;

Fourth. To cause to come before them, persons who are charged with committing any criminal offense, and commit them to jail, or bail them, as the case may require.

SEC. 131. Justices of the peace have power to hold a court subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, to hear, try, and determine all charges for offenses arising within their respective counties, where the punishment prescribed by law does not exceed a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment for three months. Limitation of jurisdiction.

SEC. 132. Upon complaint made to any justice by any constable or other person, that any such offense has been committed within the county, he shall examine the complainant on oath, and the witnesses produced by him, and reduce the complaint to writing, and cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant; and if it appears that such offense has been committed, the said justice shall issue his warrant, reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it is directed forthwith to arrest the accused, and to bring him before such justice or some other justice of the same county, to be dealt with according to law; and in the same warrant, may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be named therein, to appear and give evidence at the trial. Proceedings on complaint made.

SEC. 133. The justice shall enter the action in his docket, in which the State of Minnesota shall be plaintiff, and the accused defendant, and he shall keep all such other entries as are required in civil actions. Title of action—entries in docket.

SEC. 134. On the return of the warrant with the accused, the said justice shall proceed to hear, try, and determine the action within one day, unless continued for cause. Time of trial.

SEC. 135. From the time of the return of the warrant, until the time of the trial, the accused may give bail, with one or more sufficient sureties for his appearance at the time fixed for the trial; or in the event of failure to do so he may be committed to jail for safe keeping, by order of said justice, or left in the custody of the arresting officer. Accused may give bail.

SEC. 136. The charge made against the accused, as stated in the warrant of arrest, shall be distinctly read to him, and he shall be required to plead thereto, which plea the justice shall enter in his minutes; if the accused refuses to plead the justice shall enter the fact with a plea of not guilty, in behalf of such accused, in his minutes. Charge shall be read and accused shall plead.

SEC. 137. If the plea of the accused is not guilty, and a jury is waived by him, the said justice shall proceed to try such issue, and to determine the same according to the evidence which may be produced against, and in behalf of, such accused. Proceedings on plea of not guilty.

SEC. 138. If the accused pleads guilty to such charge, the court shall thereupon convict him of the offense charged and render judgment thereon. Proceedings on plea of guilty.

SEC. 139. After the joining of issue, and before the court proceeds to an investigation of the merits of the action, unless the accused expressly waives his right to a trial by jury, the court shall direct the sheriff or any constable of the county, to make a list in writing of the names of twenty-four inhabitants of the county, qualified to serve as jurors in the district court, from which list the complainant and accused may each strike out six names. Jury to be summoned unless waived.

SEC. 140. In case the complainant or the accused neglects to strike Names of jurors, how obtained.      out such names, the justice shall direct some suitable disinterested person to strike out the names for either or both of the parties so neglecting; and upon such names being stricken out, the justice shall issue a venire, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, requiring him to summon the six persons whose names remain upon such list, to appear before such justice, at the time and place to be named herein, as a jury for the trial of such offense.

Duty of officer.      SEC. 141. The officer to whom such venire is delivered, shall summon such jury personally, and shall make a list of the persons summoned, which he shall certify and annex to the venire, and return the same with such venire to the justice within the time therein specified.

Deficiency of jurors supplied.      SEC. 142. If any of the jurors named in such venire fail to attend in pursuance thereof, or if there is any legal objection to any that appear, the justice shall supply the deficiency by directing the sheriff, or any constable who may be present and disinterested, to summon any of the bystanders or others who are competent, and against whom no cause of challenge appears, to act as jurors in the action.

New jury summoned, when.      SEC. 143. If the officer to whom the venire is delivered, fails to return the same, as thereby required, or if the jury fail to agree, and are discharged by the justice, a new jury shall be selected and summoned in the same manner, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had as herein prescribed in respect to the first jury, unless the accused consents to be tried by the justice; in which case the justice shall proceed to the trial of the issue, as if no jury had been demanded.

Challenge of Jurors.      SEC. 144. In all trials for criminal offenses before a justice, either party may challenge any juror for cause.

Trial to be public —jurors to be kept in charge of sworn officer until verdict or discharge.      SEC. 145. After the jury are sworn, they shall sit together and hear the evidence and allegations in the action, which shall be delivered in public, and in the presence of the accused; and after hearing the same, the jury shall be kept together in some convenient place, until they agree on a verdict or are discharged by the justice; and a sheriff or constable shall be sworn to take charge of the jury in like manner as upon trial in justices' courts in civil proceedings.

Verdict.      SEC. 146. When the jurors have agreed on their verdict, they shall deliver the same to the justice publicly, who shall enter it in his docket.

Judgment and punishment.      SEC. 147. Whenever the accused is tried under the preceding provisions of this title, and found guilty either by the justice or by a jury, or is convicted of the charge made against him on a plea of guilty, the justice shall render judgment thereon, and inflict such punishment, either by fine or imprisonment, or both, as the nature of the case may require.

Acquittal, complainant to pay costs, when.      SEC. 148. Whenever the accused, tried under the preceding provisions of this title, either by the justice or by a jury, is acquitted, he shall be immediately discharged; and if the justice before whom the trial is had, certifies in his docket that the complaint was willful and malicious, and without probable cause, he shall enter a judgment against the complainant for the costs that have accrued to the court and sheriff, or constable, and jury, in the proceedings had upon such complaint, and execution may issue therefor.

Party convicted may appeal, when      SEC. 149. The person charged with and convicted by any such justice of any such offense, may appeal from the judgment of such justice to the district court: provided, said person shall within twenty-four hours enter into a recognizance, with one or more sufficient sureties, conditioned to appear before said court and abide the judgment of the court therein; and in the mean time to keep the peace and be of good behavior; and the justice from whose judgment an appeal is taken, shall make a special return of the proceedings had before him, and cause the warrant and return, together with the recognizance to be filed in said district court, on or before the first day of the term thereof next to be holden for said county; and the complainant and witnesses may also be required to enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, in the discretion of the justice, to appear at said district court at the time last aforesaid, and to abide the order of the court therein.

SEC. 150. The party appealing shall, within ten days after such conviction, serve a notice upon the county attorney of the county, specifying generally the grounds of his appeal as follows, to wit: That the appeal is taken upon questions of law alone; or, upon questions of fact alone; or, upon questions of law and fact. If upon questions of law alone, the cause shall be tried in the district court upon the return of the justice. If upon questions of fact alone, the cause shall be tried in the same manner as if originally commenced in the district court. If upon questions of fact and law, it shall be tried in the same manner as if commenced in the district court: provided, that no question of law shall be raised or tried in the district court, unless the same was raised in the court below and fully excepted to, except objections to the jurisdiction of the court or that the complaint does not state facts constituting a public offense.

SEC. 151. The appellant shall not be required to advance any fees in claiming his appeal, or in prosecuting the same; but if convicted in the district court, or if sentenced for failing to prosecute his appeal, he may be required, as a part of his sentence, to pay the whole or any part of the costs of prosecution, in both courts.

Costs on taking appeal and after conviction.

SEC. 152. If the appellant fails to enter and prosecute his appeal, he shall be defaulted on his recognizance, and the district court may award sentence against him for the offense whereof he was convicted, in like manner as if he had been convicted thereof in that court, and if he is not then in custody, process may be issued to bring him into court to receive sentence.

Proceedings when appellant fails to prosecute appeal.

SEC. 153. If the judgment of the justice is affirmed, or upon any trial in the district court, the defendant is convicted, and any fine assessed, judgment shall be rendered for such fine and costs in both courts against the defendant and his sureties.

SEC. 154. In case any person summoned to appear before a justice, pursuant to the provisions of this title, as a juror or witness, fails to appear, or if any witness appearing refuses to be sworn or to testify, he is liable to the same penalties, and may be proceeded against in the same manner, as provided by law in respect to jurors and witnesses in justices' courts in civil actions.

Person in contempt, how proceeded against.

SEC. 155. Whenever any conviction is had before a justice, he shall make a certificate of such conviction under his hand, in which it shall be sufficient, briefly to state the offense charged, and the conviction and judgment thereon, and if any fine has been collected, the amount thereof.

Justice to make certificate of conviction.

SEC. 156. Within twenty days after such conviction, the said justice shall cause such certificate to be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the conviction was had.

Shall file certificate with clerk of district court.

SEC. 157. No assault, battery or affray is indictable, but all such offenses shall be prosecuted and determined in a summary manner, by complaint made before a justice of the peace, and on conviction thereof, the offender may be punished by fine not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Assaults, &c., how prosecuted.

SEC. 158. If any justice of the peace has any knowledge that any of the offenses mentioned in the last section are about to be committed, he shall issue his warrant and proceed as is directed when complaint has been made; and if any such offense is committed, threatened or attempted in his presence, he shall immediately arrest the offender, or cause it to be done, and for this purpose no warrant or process is necessary; but the justice may summon to his assistance any sheriff, coroner or constable, and all other persons there present, whose duty it shall be to aid the justice in preserving the peace, arresting and securing the offenders, and all such as obstruct or prevent the justice or any of his assistants in the performance of their duty; and any person who, when summoned to aid in arresting and securing an offender, refuses to give such assistance, shall forfeit five dollars to the use of the county.

May call persons to his aid.

Proceedings on breach of recognizance.

SEC. 159. In case of the breach of any recognizance entered into in a criminal case, the same shall be certified and returned to the district court, to be proceeded in according to law.

Justice shall certify cause to district court, when.

SEC. 160. If, in the progress of any trial before a justice, under the provisions of this title, it appears to the justice that he has not final jurisdiction in the case before him, and that the accused ought to be put upon his trial for an offense cognizable before the district court, the justice shall immediately stop all further proceedings before him and proceed as in other criminal cases cognizable before the district court.

Justice to summon necessary witnesses.

SEC. 161. In all cases arising under this title the justice shall summon the injured party, and all others whose testimony is deemed material, as witnesses at the trial, and enforce their attendance by attachment, if necessary.

Judgment on conviction, how entered.

SEC. 162. In all cases of conviction under the provisions of this title, the justice shall enter judgment for the fine and costs against the defendant, and may commit him until the judgment is satisfied, or issue execution on the judgment to the use of the county: provided, that no justice shall commit a defendant under the provisions of this section for a longer period than three months.

Witnesses summoned once need not be summoned again on adjournment of cause, but shall be verbally notified.

SEC. 163. When a trial under the provisions of this title is continued by the justice, it shall not be necessary for the justice to summon any witness who may be present to appear at the continuance, but the justice shall verbally notify such witnesses as either party may require, to attend before him to testify in the cause on the day set for trial.

Security may be required of complainant.

SEC. 164. The justice may require of the complainant to give security for costs, and if he refuses, the justice may dismiss the complaint.

Fines to be paid over to county treasurer by justice.

SEC. 165. All fines imposed by a justice if paid before the accused is committed, shall be received by the justice, and by him paid over to the county treasurer, within thirty days after the receipt thereof.

When accused is committed, fine to be paid to sheriff.

SEC. 166. If the accused is committed, payment of any fine imposed upon him shall be made to the sheriff of the county, who shall within thirty days after the receipt thereof, pay over the same to the county treasurer.
