General duties of attorneys.

SEC. 5. It is the duty of any attorney and counsellor:

First. To support the constitution and laws of the United States, and of this state;

Second. To maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers;

Third. To counsel or maintain such actions, proceedings or defences, only, as appear to him legal and just, except the defence of a person charged with a public offense;

Fourth. To employ, for the purpose of maintaining the cause confided to him, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never to seek to mislead the judges by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;

Fifth. To maintain inviolate the confidence, and at every peril to himself to preserve the secrets of his client;

Sixth. To abstain from all offensive personality and to advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which he is charged.

SEC. 10. If it is alleged by a party for whom an attorney appears, that he does so without authority, the court may at any stage of the proceedings relieve the party for whom the attorney has assumed to appear from the consequences of his acts; it may also summarily, upon motion, compel the attorney to repair the injury to either party consequent upon his assumption of authority. Court may require attorney to produce or prove his authority.

If attorney of one party dies, the other party shall require another attorney to be appointed—notice, how served.

SEC. 14.
