OF

MINNESOTA

PUBLISHED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE
LEGISLATURE BY VIRTUE OF AN ACT
APPROVED APRIL 20, 1911
(LAWS 1911, CH. 299)

COMPILED AND EDITED BY

8515. Acquittal on part of charge—Whenever any person indicted for felony is acquitted by verdict of part of the offence charged and convicted on the residue, such verdict may be received and recorded by the court, and thereupon he shall be adjudged guilty of the offence, if any, which appears to be substantially charged by the residue of the indictment, and sentenced accordingly. (4791)

8516. Acquittal—When a bar—Whenever a defendant shall be acquitted or convicted upon an indictment for a crime consisting of different degrees, he cannot thereafter be indicted or tried for the same crime in any other degree, nor for an attempt to commit the crime so charged, or any degree thereof. (4792)

See note to Const. art. 1 § 7.

CHAPTER 95

CRIMES AGAINST THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE STATE

8517. Treason—Every person who shall commit treason against the state shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life. (4793)

Petit treason does not exist in this state (3-246, 169).

8518. Misprision of treason—Every person having knowledge of the commission of treason, who conceals the same, and does not, as soon as may be, disclose such treason to the governor or a judge of the supreme or a district court, shall be guilty of misprision of treason, and punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in a common jail not exceeding two years. (4794)

8519. Levying war—To constitute levying war against the state, an actual act of war must be committed. To conspire to levy war is not enough. Where persons rise in insurrection, with intent to prevent, in general, by force and intimidation, the execution of a statute of the state, or to force its repeal, they shall be guilty of levying war. But an endeavor, although by numbers and force of arms, to resist the execution of a law in a single instance and for a private purpose, is not levying war. (4795)

8520. Wilful neglect of official duty—Whenever any duty is enjoined by law upon any public officer or person holding public trust or employment, every wilful neglect to perform such duty, and every malfeasance in office, for the punishment of which no special provision has been made, shall be a gross misdemeanor, and punished by fine and imprisonment. (4796)

8521. Acting in public office without having qualified—Every person who performs any of the functions of a public office without having executed and duly filed the required security shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and, in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, he shall forfeit his right to the office. (4797)

CHAPTER 96

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

8522. Definitions—The following words and terms, as used in this chapter, shall be construed as follows: The word "juror" shall include a talesman, and extend to jurors in all courts, whether of record or not, in special proceedings, and before any officer authorized to impanel a jury in any case or proceeding; the word "prison" shall mean any place designated by law for the keeping of persons held in custody under process of law or under lawful arrest; the word "prisoner," any person held in custody under process of law or under lawful arrest; the term "subornation of perjury" shall mean the wilful procuring or inducing another to commit perjury; the term "common barratry" shall mean the practice of exciting groundless judicial proceedings. (4798)

Subornation of perjury defined (85-19, 88+22).

8523. Bribery of public officer or legislator—Every person who gives or offers a bribe to any executive or administrative officer of the state, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, opinion, or other proceeding as such officer; or who gives, offers, or causes to be given or offered, a bribe, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a member of the legislature, or attempts, directly or indirectly, by menace, deceit, suppression of truth, or other corrupt means, to influence such member to give or withhold his vote, or to absent himself from the house of which he is a member, or from any committee thereof; or who gives, offers, or causes to be given or offered, a bribe, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, or assessor, or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any question, matter, cause, proceeding, or controversy, with intent to influence his action, vote, opinion, or decision thereupon; or who gives, offers, or causes to be given or offered, a bribe, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a person executing any of the functions of a public office, other than those hereinbefore specified, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, or other proceeding in the exercise of his powers or functions—shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. (4799)

See §§ 8524, 8525.

1. What constitutes—The essential elements of the crime of offering a bribe to a juror or judicial officer include knowledge on the part of the accused of the official character or capacity of the person to whom the bribe is offered, the fact that the thing offered is something of value, and that it is offered with the intent to influence the officer's official action (66-309, 68+1096, 34 L. R. A. 178, 61 Am. St. Rep. 403).

2. Indictment—An indictment for offering a bribe to a juror must allege that the person to whom the bribe was offered was a juror; that the accused knew it; what was offered; that it was of value, and was offered with intent to influence the action of the juror as such (66-309, 68+1096, 34 L. R. A. 178, 61 Am. St. Rep. 403).

8524. Bribery of member of Legislature—A person who gives or offers, or causes to be given or offered a bribe or any money, property or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a member of the legislature, or any person who has been elected a member of the legislature, or attempts, directly or indirectly, by menace, deceit, suppression of truth, or other corrupt means, to influence a member or person who has been so elected a member, to give or withhold his vote or to absent himself from the house of which he is a member or to which he has been elected a member, or from any committee thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years or by a fine of not more than $5,000, or both. (G. S. 1894 § 6343, amended '05 c. 31 § 1)

Historical—G. S. 1894 § 6343 was Pen. Code § 59 (see 1885 c. 240). 1885 c. 240 was repealed by § 9446; the provisions of said section 6343 being incorporated in the preceding section. So far as the above section differs from the Revised Laws, it is to be construed, by virtue of § 9398, as amendatory or supplementary. See § 8525.

8525. Bribery of public officer or legislator—Every person who gives or offers a bribe, or any consideration, to any executive or administrative officer of the state, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, opinion, or other proceeding as such officer; or who gives, offers or causes to be given or offered a bribe, or any consideration, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a member of the legislature, or attempts, directly or indirectly, by menace, deceit, suppression of truth, or other corrupt means, to influence such member to give or withhold his vote, or to absent himself from the house of which he is a member, or from any committee thereof, or who gives, offers, or causes to be given or offered, a bribe, or any consideration, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, to a judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, or assessor, or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any question, matter, cause, proceeding, or controversy, with intent to influence his action, vote, opinion, or decision thereupon; or who gives, offers or causes to be given or offered, a bribe, or any consideration, or any money, property or value of any kind or any promise or agreement therefor, to a person executing any of the functions of a public officer, other than those hereinbefore specified, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, or other proceeding, in the exercise of his powers or functions—shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or by both. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying before any court or magistrate upon an investigation, proceeding or trial for a violation of any of the provisions of this act upon the ground, or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding. ('07 c. 353 § 1)

See §§ 8523, 8524.

8526. Asking or receiving bribes—Every executive or administrative officer, or person elected or appointed to an executive or administrative office, who asks, receives, or agrees to receive any bribe upon an agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, or action upon any matter then pending or which may by law be brought before him in his official capacity shall be influenced thereby; every member of either house of the legislature of the state who asks, receives, or agrees to receive any bribe upon any understanding that his official vote, opinion, judgment, or action shall be influenced thereby, or shall be given in any particular manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, or who gives, offers, or promises to give any official vote in consideration that another member of the legislature shall give any such vote, either upon the same or another question; every judicial officer, every person who executes any of the functions of a public office, not hereinbefore specified, and every person employed by or acting for the state, or for any public officer in the business of the state, who asks, receives, or agrees to receive a bribe, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision, or other official proceeding shall be influenced thereby, or that he will do or omit any act or proceeding, or in any way neglect or violate any official duty—shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both; and, in addition thereto, he shall forfeit his office, and be forever disqualified from holding any public office under the state. (4800)

See §§ 8527, 8528.

1. What constitutes—A police officer of a municipality is an executive officer within this section (88-130, 92+529). To constitute the crime of asking for a bribe by a public officer "with the understanding or agreement that his vote," etc., "shall be influenced thereby" it is not necessary that the party solicited for the bribe shall consent to give it, or that there shall be any meeting of minds or mutual understanding or agreement between him and the party asking for a bribe. It is sufficient if the latter is ready and willing to enter into a corrupt agreement or understanding that his vote, etc., shall be influenced by the bribe (73-150, 75+1127). Two persons must necessarily co-operate in bribery—the bribe-giver and the bribe-taker. Asking for a bribe and offering or giving a bribe are distinct offences. The asking for a bribe by a member of a city council, with the understanding that he will corruptly use it to bribe or influence the votes or official action of his colleagues is a bribe under this section (73-150, 75+1127).

2. Indictment—An indictment charging a police officer with accepting a bribe from swindlers held sufficient (88-130, 92+529). An indictment charging a mayor with accepting bribes from prostitutes held not double (91-365, 98+190).

3. Cited—88-130, 93+529; 90-183, 96+330; 110-304, 125+272.

8527. Receiving bribe by member of legislature—A member of either of the houses composing the legislature of this state, or any person who has been elected to membership therein, who asks, receives or agrees to receive, any bribe upon any understanding that his official vote, opinion, judgment or action shall be influenced thereby, or shall be given in any particular manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, or who gives or offers, or promises to give any official vote in consideration that another member of the legislature or person elected to membership therein shall give any such vote either upon the same or another question, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both. (G. S. 1894 § 6344, amended '05 c. 32 § 1)

Historical—G. S. 1894 § 6344 was Pen. Code § 60 the provisions of which were incorporated in the preceding section. As to construction of the above section, see note under § 8524. See, also, § 8528.

8528. Accepting or receiving bribes—Every executive or administrative officer, or person elected or appointed to an executive or administrative office, who asks, receives, or agrees to receive any bribe, or any consideration, upon an agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, or action upon any matter then pending, or which may by law be brought before him in his official capacity shall be influenced thereby; every member of either house of the legislature of the state who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe, or any consideration, upon any understanding that his official vote, opinion, judgment, or action shall be influenced thereby, or shall be given in any particular manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, or who gives, offers or promises to give any official vote in consideration that another member of the legislature shall give any such vote, either upon the same or another question; every judicial officer, every person who executes any of the functions of a public office, not hereinbefore specified, and every person employed by or acting for the state, or for any public officer in the business of the state, who asks, receives or agrees to receive a bribe, or any consideration, or any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement, therefor, upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or other official proceeding shall be influenced thereby, or that he will do or omit any act or proceeding, or in any way neglect or violate any official duty—shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both, and in addition thereto he shall forfeit his office and be forever disqualified from holding any public office under the state. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying before any court or magistrate upon an investigation, proceeding or trial for a violation of any of the provisions of this act upon the ground, or for the reason, that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify, or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding. ('07 c. 325 § 1)

See §§ 8526, 8527.

8529. Jurors, etc., accepting bribes—Every juror, referee, arbitrator, appraiser, assessor, or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any question, matter, cause, controversy, or proceeding, who asks, receives, or agrees to receive any money, property, or value of any kind, or any promise or agreement therefor, upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, action, judgment, or decision shall be influenced thereby, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years, or by fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both. (4803)

71-28, 73+626.

8532. Influencing juror, etc.—Every person who shall influence or attempt to influence improperly a juror in a civil or criminal action or proceeding, or one drawn or summoned to attend as such juror, or one chosen an arbitrator or appointed a referee, in respect to his verdict, judgment, report, award, or decision in any cause or matter pending or about to be brought before him, in any case or in any manner not hereinbefore provided for, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. A statement in an affidavit for an attachment that affiant is plaintiff's attorney is material, and if false, may be the basis of a charge of perjury. There must be an oath actually administered. Merely subscribing an affidavit is not sufficient (57-425, 59+490). There must be a wilful intention to swear falsely (see 29-156, 12+448). The crime of perjury was not defined by statute prior to the Penal Code (48-466, 51+474). At common law a charge of perjury could be made only upon an oath before a court of justice (41-59, 42+599).

2. Indictment—It must contain "assignments of perjury" and the former statutory form (G. S. 1894 § 7239 No. 24) was insufficient in this regard (74-409, 77+223, overruling 19-484, 418). An allegation that the testimony of the accused was wilfully and corruptly false is equivalent to an allegation that he wilfully and knowingly testified falsely. A description of a justice court in which the offence was committed held sufficient (48-466, 51+474). It must be alleged that the accused was duly sworn, but no set form of words need be used. A document verified by an attached affidavit held to be sufficiently identified. An assignment of perjury held sufficient. An indictment under 1895 c. 175 § 104 for perjury in connection with the annual report of an insurance company held not double (78-311, 81+3). It is not necessary to aver that matter assigned as perjury is material where its materiality appears from the facts alleged. Where it is assigned as perjury that the accused in an affidavit for attachment swore falsely that he was the attorney for the plaintiff in the attachment suit held not necessary to allege that accused was an attorney at law (57-425, 59+490). See § 9148.

8560. It shall be sufficient that he was actually permitted to give such testimony or make such deposition or certificate. (4832)

Irregularity in taking oath (108-121, 121+611).

8561. Knowledge of materiality not necessary—It shall be no defence to a prosecution for perjury that defendant did not know the materiality of his false statement, or that it did not, in fact, affect the proceeding in or for which it was made. It shall be sufficient that it was material, and might have affected such proceeding. (4833)

8562. Deposition—When complete—The making of a deposition or certificate shall be deemed to be complete, within the provisions of this chapter, from the time when it is subscribed, sworn to, or affirmed by the defendant, with intent that it be uttered or published as true. (4834)
