CHAPTER 73

Adoption and Change of Name

8624. Adoption—Petition and consent.

Evidence held to sustain oral contract to adopt a waif taken into home. Firle's Estate, 197M1, 265NW818. See Dun. Dig. 99a.

Specific performance of oral contract to adopt. 16 MinnLawRev578.

8626. Consent, when necessary.

When a child has a guardian of the person appointed by the probate court, the consent of such guardian is necessary to permit an adoption by proceedings in the district court. In re Martinson, 184M29, 237NW596. See Dun. Dig. 99.

Decree of adoption reversed for lack of evidence sustaining finding that infant had been abandoned by mother, there being no consent to adoption by either parent. Anderson, 189M85, 248NW657. See Dun. Dig. 99.

Possible pecuniary advantage to child is immaterial as against natural rights of parents. Id.

Consent by parent may be withdrawn at any time before adoption. Id.

Where board of control unreasonably withholds its consent to adoption of a child under its control, district court may grant petition for adoption, notwithstanding refusal of board to consent. McKenzie, 197M234, 266NW746. See Dun. Dig. 99.

8630. Status of adopted child.

When the name of an adopted child is omitted from the will of the parent, the presumption is that the omission was not intentional and was occasioned by accident or mistake. 175M193, 220NW601.

An oral contract to adopt, when executed creates same obligations and duties as an adoption legally executed. Firle's Estate, 197M1, 265NW818. See Dun. Dig. 99a.

Death certificate of an adopted child should show the natural parent and also the same information as to adoptive parents. Op. Atty. Gen. (2257), Dec. 11, 1935.

Alien child adopted by citizens does not acquire citizenship. Op. Atty. Gen. (68f), Nov. 5, 1936.

Specific performance of pre-adoption contract in derogation of adoptive parents' rights. 15MinnLawRev719.

8633. Change of name—Procedure—Penalty.

A person may change his name without any legal proceedings whatever and may give himself a nickname and have it printed on official ballot. Op. Atty. Gen. (28b-2), May 22, 1934.

CHAPTER 73A

Dependent, Neglected and Delinquent Children

Juvenile court procedure. July 16, 1937, Sp. Sess., c. 79, §§1-6.

See §§208-1 to 208-9.

8636. Definitions.

Juvenile delinquents are not criminals. State v. Zenzen, 178M394, 227NW356.

No appeal lies from a decision of a juvenile court under this chapter. State v. Zenzen, 178M394, 227NW356.

Sections 8636 to 8670 are constitutional. State v. Patterson, 247NW573, 188M492, 249NW187. See Dun. Dig. 1646, 4460a.

Dependent neglected, or delinquent children are proper subjects to be placed under guardianship by the probate court. Id. See Dun. Dig. 4460a, 4096.

Fact that maternal grandmother has money and would be able to support children does not negative a finding of dependency on the part of children and the right of mother to a pension. Op. Atty. Gen., Oct. 30, 1930.

Act does not contemplate any additional compensation by way of fees for making records per diem or for mileage to court. Op. Atty. Gen., Nov. 25, 1933.

8637. Jurisdiction of District Court—jurisdiction of Probate Court.—The District Court in counties now or hereafter having a population of more than 40,000 inhabitants except in such counties of the Seventh Judicial District shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction in all cases coming within the terms of this act. In all trials in the district court under this act, except as hereinafter provided, any person interested therein may demand a jury, or a judge of his own motion may order a jury to try the case. In counties now or hereafter having a population of not more than 40,000 inhabitants and in all counties of the Seventh Judicial District the probate court shall have jurisdiction over the appointment of guardians of dependent, neglected or delinquent children for the purpose of this act. The jurisdiction of both the district and probate courts over cases of dependency, neglect and delinquency arising under this act shall extend to all persons resident or found within the territorial limits of the court, although the evidentiary facts showing such dependency, neglect or delinquency may have occurred outside such territorial limits.

This Act shall apply to children under the age of eighteen years, except as hereinafter provided.

When jurisdiction shall have been obtained by the court in the case of any child, such child shall continue for the purposes of this Act under the jurisdiction of the court until he becomes twenty-one years of age, unless discharged prior thereto by the court. ('17, c. 397, §2; '27, c. 192, §2; Apr. 20, 1931, c. 250, §1; Apr. 8, 1933, c. 184.)

Laws 1931, c. 250, §1, amends the first paragraph of this section to read as above.

Fact that probate court committed neglected child to guardianship until she should reach age of 21 years did not warrant her release on habeas corpus before she attained age of 19 years. State v. Patterson, 247NW573, 188M492, 249NW187. See Dun. Dig. 4431.

Legislature may fix the age at which a delinquent child shall attain majority different from that fixed for other children. Id.

Probate judge, also acting as judge of juvenile court, has no jurisdiction of prosecution of adult. Op. Atty. Gen., Mar. 31, 1932.

Judge of probate obtaining jurisdiction of a child before he has reached age of 18 has jurisdiction over him until he reaches 21 years of age and he may commit him to state training school after he has reached age of 19 years. Op. Atty. Gen., Nov. 2, 1933.

Jurisdiction of dependent or neglected children rests in court of county where they are found or have their residence. Op. Atty. Gen. (840a-6), Apr. 12, 1937.

Delinquent girl committed to home school for girls is not entitled as a right to release because she is more than 18 years old. Op. Atty. Gen. (840a-5), Apr. 24, 1937.

8638. Judges of juvenile court.—In counties having more than 40,000 except the Fourth Judicial District, and the counties in the Seventh Judicial District the judges of the district court shall at such times as they shall determine designate one of their number whose duty it shall be to hear all cases arising under this act, unless absent or disabled, in which case another judge shall be temporarily assigned for said purposes; and such designation shall be for the period of one year unless otherwise ordered. The judge of the juvenile court so designated shall devote his first service and all necessary time to the business of the juvenile court, and this work shall have precedence over all his other court work. When deemed advisable the district judges may designate two judges for the purposes and subject to the provisions specified in this section. A special court room, to be designated as the juvenile court room, shall be provided for the hearing of such cases, and the findings of the court shall be entered in a book or books to be kept for that purpose, and known as the "juvenile record," and the court may for convenience be called the juvenile court of the appropriate county.
