

CHAPTER 204

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

204.01 ELECTION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

A person to be eligible to vote for presidential electors, must have the same qualifications he must have in order to vote for candidates for state office, or senators or representatives to congress. If registration is required he must have registered. OAG Oct. 17, 1940 (183-Q).

204.02 NOMINATION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Secretary of state properly refused to accept an affidavit of candidacy of a candidate for presidential elector where it was stated in the affidavit, candidate's choice for president. State v Schmahl, 132 M 221, 156 NW 8.