

CHAPTER 74

PROTECTION OF BUILDINGS GENERALLY

74.01 CLASSIFICATION OF BUILDINGS.

A Minneapolis ordinance, requiring a permit from the city council for maintenance of structures or premises for storage of oil and other named purposes, is not so inconsistent with the building and safety code later adopted as to be impliedly repealed. State v N. W. Linseed Co., 209 M 422, 297 NW 635.

Validity of fire insurance policy covering property used for illegal purposes. 18 MLR 882.
