Appointment of a commissioner for the ensuing term may be made by the incoming governor at any time after taking office in the year in which the current term expires, but such appointee shall not take office until the expiration of such current term nor until approved by the senate unless there is a vacancy. In case of a vacancy the governor may appoint a commissioner to serve at the pleasure of the governor but not later than the next following March 1 in an odd numbered year and until a successor is appointed and has qualified as in the case of the expiration of a regular term.
