APPENDICES
A. List of Statutes Superseded by Rules
B. Forms

TITLE I APPLICABILITY OF RULES
RULE 101
SCOPE OF RULES

These rules govern procedure in civil appeals to the Supreme Court of Minnesota; in proceedings in the Supreme Court for review of orders of administrative agencies, boards or commissions; and on applications for writs or other relief in civil proceedings which the Supreme Court or a justice thereof is competent to give. The term "trial court" as used in these rules shall refer to the court or agency whose decision is sought to be reviewed.

RULE 102
SUSPENSION OF RULES

In the interest of expediting decision upon any matter before it, or for other good cause shown, the Supreme Court, except as otherwise provided in Rule 126.02, may suspend the requirement or provisions of these rules on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

TITLE II APPEALS FROM JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

APPEAL AS OF RIGHT; HOW TAKEN

103.01 Manner of Making Appeal.

(1) An appeal shall be made by the service of a written notice of appeal on the adverse party. The notice shall specify the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken. Not more than five days after expiration of the time to appeal, the appellant shall file the notice of appeal and the cost bond required by Rule 107 with the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order was entered, together with a deposit of $15. The bond may be waived by stipulation of the parties.

(2) When a party in good faith serves notice of appeal from a judgment or an order, and omits, through inadvertence or mistake, to proceed further with the appeal, or to stay proceedings, the Supreme Court may grant relief on such terms as may be just.

(3) Upon compliance with subdivision (1) of this rule, the clerk of the trial court shall immediately transmit to the clerk of the Supreme Court $10 out of the prescribed fee together with a certified copy of the notice of appeal and bond or stipulation waiving such bond.

103.02 Joint Appeals.

If two or more parties are entitled to appeal from a judgment or order and their interests are such as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal, or may join in appeal after filing separate notice of appeal, and they may thereafter proceed on appeal as a single appellant.

103.03 Appealable Judgments and Orders.

An appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court:

- (a) From a judgment entered in the trial court;
- (b) From an order which grants, refuses, dissolves, or refuses to dissolve, an injunction;
- (c) From an order vacating or sustaining an attachment;
- (d) From an order involving the merits of the action or some part thereof;
- (e) From an order refusing a new trial, or from an order granting a new trial if the trial court expressly states therein, or in a memorandum attached thereto, that the order is based exclusively upon errors of law occurring at the trial, and upon no other ground; and the trial court shall specify such errors in its order or memorandum, but upon appeal, such order granting a new trial may be sustained for errors of law prejudicial to respondent other than those specified by the trial court;
- (f) From an order which, in effect, determines the action, and prevents a judgment from which an appeal might be taken;
- (g) From a final order or judgment made or rendered in proceedings supplementary to execution;
- (h) Except as otherwise provided by statute, from the final order or judgment affecting a substantial right made in a special proceeding, provided that the appeal must be taken within the time limited for appeal from an order;
- (i) If the trial court certifies that the question presented is important and doubtful, from an order which denies a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted or from an order which denies a motion for summary judgment.

(1) The Supreme Court upon an appeal may reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment or order appealed from, or take any other action as the interests of justice may require.

(2) On appeal from an order the Supreme Court may review any order affecting the order from which the appeal is taken and on appeal from a judgment may review any order involving the merits or affecting the judgment. It may review any other matter as the interests of justice may require.

merits or affecting the judgment. It may review any other matter as the interests of justice may require.

RULE 104
TIME FOR SERVICE OF NOTICE OF APPEAL
104.01 Judgments and Orders.

An appeal from a judgment may be taken within 90 days after the entry thereof, and from an order within 30 days after service of written notice of filing thereof by the adverse party.

104.02 Effect of Entry of Judgment.

No order made prior to the entry of judgment shall be appealable after the expiration of time to appeal from the judgment. Time to appeal from the judgment under this section shall not be extended by the subsequent insertion therein of the costs and disbursements of the prevailing party.

104.03 Special Proceedings.

Except as otherwise provided by statute, an appeal from the final order or judgment affecting a substantial right made in a special proceeding must be taken within the time limited for appeal from an order.

RULE 105
DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

105.01 Petition for Permission to Appeal; Time.

The Supreme Court, in the interest of justice and upon the petition of a party, may allow an appeal from an order not otherwise appealable under Rule 103.03 except an order made during trial. The petition shall be served on the adverse party within the time limited for appeal from an appealable order. Four copies of the petition, including the original, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court, but the Supreme Court may direct that additional copies be provided.

105.02 Content of Petition; Response.

The petition shall be entitled as in the trial court and shall contain a statement of facts necessary to an understanding of the questions of law or fact determined by the order of the trial court; a statement of the question itself; and a statement why an immediate appeal is necessary and desirable. The petition shall include or have annexed thereto a copy of the order from which appeal is sought and any findings of fact, conclusions of law and memorandum relating thereto. Within seven days after service of the petition, any adverse party may serve and file a response thereto, with copies in the number required for the petition. All papers may be typewritten.

(5) If the appeal is from a judgment directing the sale or delivery or possession of real property, the condition of the bond shall be the payment of the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the appeal until the delivery of the possession of the property if the judgment is affirmed, and the undertaking that the appellant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste on the property while it remains in his possession during the pendency of the appeal.

(6) In cases not specified in subdivisions (2) to (5) hereof, the giving of the bond specified in Rule 107 shall stay proceedings in the trial court.

108.02 Judgments Directing Conveyances.

Notwithstanding an appeal from a money judgment and security given for a stay of proceedings thereon, the trial court, on motion and notice to the adverse party, may grant leave to the respondent to enforce the judgment upon his giving bond to the appellant as herein provided, if it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the trial court that the appeal was taken for the purpose of delay. Such bond shall be executed by the respondent, or someone in his behalf, and shall be conditioned that if the judgment be reversed or modified the respondent will make such restitution as the Supreme Court shall direct.

THE RECORD ON APPEAL

110.01 Composition of the Record on Appeal.

The papers filed in the trial court, the offered exhibits, and the transcript of the proceedings, if any, shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

110.02 The Transcript of Proceedings; Duty of Appellant to Order; Notice to Respondent if Partial Transcript is Ordered; Duty of Reporter; Form of Transcript.

(1) Within 10 days after service of the notice of appeal appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already part of the record as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant, within said 10 days, shall file and serve on the respondent a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and the statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the respondent deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary he shall within 10 days of service of such description order such parts from the reporter or serve and file a motion in the trial court for an order requiring the appellant to do so.

(2) At the time of ordering, a party must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for the payment of the cost of the transcript and all necessary copies. The reporter shall promptly acknowledge receipt of said order and his acceptance of it, in writing, with copies to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and all counsel of record and in so doing shall state the date, not to exceed a period of sixty days, by which the transcript will be furnished. Upon delivery of the transcript to the appellant, the reporter shall file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court a certificate evidencing the date of delivery of the transcript.

(3) If any party deems the period of time set by the reporter to be excessive or insufficient, or if the reporter needs an extension of time for completion of the transcript, the party or reporter may request a different period of time within which the transcript must be delivered by written motion to the Supreme Court under Rule 127, showing good cause why said period of time is excessive or insufficient. The Administrative Assistant to the Supreme Court shall act as a referee in hearing said motion and shall file with the Court appropriate findings and recommendations for an order of the Court in said matter. A failure to comply with the order of the Court fixing a time within which the transcript must be delivered may be punished as a contempt of Court.

(4) The transcript shall be typewritten on 10½ x 8½ inches unglazed opaque paper with double-spacing between each line of text, shall be bound at the left-hand margin, and shall contain a table of contents. The name of each witness shall appear at the top of each page containing his testimony. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph. The original and first copy of the transcript shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court, and a copy shall be promptly transmitted to the attorney for each party to the appeal separately represented. All copies must be legible. The reporter shall certify the correctness of the transcript.

110.03 Statement of the Proceedings When No Report Was Made or When the Transcript is Unavailable.

If no report of all or any part of the proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may, within 15 days after service of the notice of appeal, prepare a statement of the proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 15 days after service. Thereupon the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the trial court and the statement as approved by the trial court shall be included in the record.

110.04 Agreed Statement as the Record.

In lieu of the record as defined in Rule 110.01, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the trial court may consider necessary to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the trial court and shall be the record on appeal.

110.05 Correction or Modification of the Record.

If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the trial court, the difference shall be submitted to and determined by the trial court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the Supreme Court, or the Supreme Court, on motion by a party or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be approved and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the Supreme Court.

The clerk shall transmit with the record a list, in duplicate, of the exhibits and the items comprising the record, identifying each with reasonable definiteness. Appellant's attorney has the duty to see that the clerk of the trial court complies with this rule. A party must make his own arrangements for the transportation of bulky or weighty exhibits to and from the clerk of the Supreme Court. Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the trial court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the Supreme Court.

111.03 Exhibits.

All exhibits sent to the clerk of the Supreme Court shall have endorsed thereon the title of the case to which they belong. All exhibits will be returned to the clerk of the trial court with the remittitur. All models will be so returned when necessary on a new trial, but where the decision of the Supreme Court is final and no new trial is to be had, such models will be destroyed by the clerk of the Supreme Court unless called for by the parties within 30 days after final decision is rendered.

111.04 Record for Preliminary Hearing in the Supreme Court.

If prior to the time the record is transmitted a party desires to make a motion for dismissal, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the bond on appeal or on a supersedeas bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the trial court at the request of any party shall transmit to the Supreme Court such parts of the original record as the party shall designate.

111.05 Disposition of Record after Appeal.

(1) Cases set for oral argument or submitted on the briefs will be heard either en banc or by a division of the court. The Chief Justice will sit with each division and will assign 4 associate justices, including any retired justice serving pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 2.724, Subdivision 2, to sit as a division of the court to hear and decide cases assigned to such division. The assignment of associate justices will be made on a rotating basis and may be changed as may be required by disqualification or illness of a justice.

(2) The administrative assistant to the court is hereby designated as a referee of the court for the purpose of reviewing the record, transcript, and briefs in all cases and submitting to all justices of the court his recommendations for the classification of cases for assignment to the en banc or to a division calendar, according to the legal and judicial significance of the issues raised. Any one justice of the court may order a case to be placed on the en banc calendar rather than a division calendar. The Chief Justice, in his discretion and according to the requirements of composing the calendar, shall accept, reject, or revise the recommended classification of cases. Thereafter, the clerk shall prepare the calendar.

(3) The decision of a case by a division of the court shall be by the concurrence of four justices. If four justices do not concur in the decision, the case shall be re-set for an en banc hearing. A copy of the tentative written opinion of a division in each case, prior to filing with the clerk, shall be circulated among the justices who did not sit on the case, and any two justices of the court, by questioning the decision, may signify their doubt as to the decision of the division, in which event the case, at a further conference of the court, may be re-set for an en banc hearing. An en banc hearing under this paragraph shall be scheduled at the earliest practicable date, at which hearing the argument time allotted by Rule 134 shall not apply, but counsel for the parties will appear to answer legal or factual questions posed by the court. No additional briefs need be filed unless requested by the court.

RULE 136
NOTICE OF DECISION; JUDGMENT;
REMITTITUR

136.01 Notice of Decision.

Upon the filing of a decision or order which determines the matter, the clerk shall mail a copy thereof to the attorneys for the parties and to the trial court. The mailing of such copy shall constitute notice of the filing.

136.02 Entry of Judgment; Stay.

The clerk shall enter judgment pursuant to the decision or order not less than ten days after the filing thereof. The service and filing of a petition for rehearing shall stay the entry of the judgment.

136.03 Remittitur.

The clerk of the Supreme Court shall transmit the remittitur to the clerk of the trial court when judgment is entered, unless the prevailing party files an objection to the remittitur pursuant to Rule 136.04. The remittitur shall contain a certified copy of the judgment of the Supreme Court signed by the clerk.

136.04 Objection to Remittitur.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, the prevailing party's properly taxed costs and disbursements shall be paid by the losing party before he shall be entitled to a remittitur. If the prevailing party serves and files a written objection to remittitur on or before the day set for the taxation of costs and disbursements, the clerk shall not transmit the remittitur to the clerk of the trial court until the costs and disbursements are paid. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court that the losing party is unable to pay the costs and disbursements, it may permit the remittitur.

RULE 137
JUDGMENT ROLL, EXECUTIONS

137.01 Judgment Roll.

In all cases the clerk shall attach together the bond and notice of appeal certified and returned by the clerk of the trial court and a certified copy of the judgment of the Supreme Court, signed by him; and these papers shall constitute the judgment roll.

137.02 Execution; Issuance and Satisfaction.

Executions to enforce any judgment of the Supreme Court may issue to the sheriff of any county in which a transcript of the judgment is filed and docketed. Such executions shall be returnable within 60 days from the receipt thereof by the officer. On the return of an execution satisfied in due form of law the clerk shall make an entry thereof upon the record.

RULE 138
DAMAGES FOR DELAY

If an appeal delays proceedings on the judgment of the trial court and appears to have been taken merely for delay, the Supreme Court may award just damages and single or double costs to the respondent.

RULE 139
COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

139.01 Costs.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, the prevailing party shall recover costs as follows: (1) Upon a judgment in his favor on the merits, $25; (2) Upon a dismissal, $10.

139.02 Disbursements.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, the prevailing party shall be allowed his disbursements necessarily paid or incurred.

139.03 Taxation of Costs and Disbursements; Time.

Costs and disbursements shall be taxed by the clerk upon 2 days' written notice served and filed by the prevailing party. The costs and disbursements so taxed shall be inserted in the judgment. Failure to tax costs and disbursements within 15 days after the filing of the decision or order shall constitute a waiver thereof.

139.04 Objections; Appeal.

Written objections to the taxation of costs and disbursements may be served and filed on or before the time set for the taxation thereof. A party may appeal to the Supreme Court from the clerk's taxation by serving and filing a notice of appeal within 6 days from the date of taxation by the clerk.

139.05 Disallowance of Costs and Disbursements.

The clerk, in the first instance, and the Supreme Court upon appeal from the clerk's taxation, or upon its own motion, may disallow the prevailing party's costs or disbursements or both, in whole or in part, for a violation of these rules or for other good cause. The prevailing party will not be allowed to tax as a disbursement the cost of reproducing parts of the record in the appendix which are not relevant to the issues on appeal.

RULE 140
PETITION FOR REHEARING

A petition for rehearing may be filed within 10 days after the filing of the decision or order unless the time is enlarged by order of the Supreme Court within the 10-day period. The petition shall set forth with particularity any controlling statute, decision, or principle of law, any material fact, or any material question in the case which, in the opinion of the petitioner, the Supreme Court has overlooked, failed to consider, misapplied, or misconceived. The petition shall be served upon the opposing party who may answer within 5 days thereafter. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. Eleven copies of the petition, produced and sized as required by Rule 132.01, shall be filed with the clerk, except that any duplicated copy, other than a carbon copy, of a typewritten original may also be filed. A filing fee of $25 shall accompany the petition for rehearing. The filing of a petition for rehearing stays the entry of judgment until disposition of such petition. It does not stay the taxation of costs.

RULE 142
DISMISSAL; DEFAULT

142.01 Voluntary Dismissal.

If the parties to an appeal or other proceeding shall sign and file with the clerk a stipulation that the proceedings be dismissed, the clerk shall enter an order of dismissal accordingly.

142.02 Default of Appellant.

The respondent may serve and file a motion for judgment of affirmance or dismissal if the appellant shall fail or neglect to serve and file his brief and appendix as required by these rules. If the appellant is in default for 30 days and respondent has not made a motion under this rule, the Supreme Court shall order the appeal dismissed without notice, subject to reinstatement upon motion to the Supreme Court for good cause shown.

142.03 Default of Respondent.

If the respondent shall fail or neglect to serve and file his brief, the case shall be determined on the merits. If a defaulting respondent has filed a notice of review pursuant to Rule 106, the appellant may serve and file a motion for judgment of affirmance of the judgment or order specified in the notice of review, or for a dismissal of respondent's review proceedings.

APPENDIX 6. SUPREME COURT RULES

RULE 143 PARTIES; SUBSTITUTION

143.01 Parties.

The party appealing shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the respondent. The title of the action shall not be changed in consequence of the appeal.

143.02 Death of a Party.

If any party to the appeal shall die while an appeal is pending in the Supreme Court, the surviving party or the legal representative or successor in interest of the deceased party, shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court an affidavit showing such death and the name and address of the legal representative or successor in interest. The clerk, after giving notice to the representative or successor in interest, shall substitute the name of such legal representative or successor in interest by or against whom the appeal shall thereafter proceed. If the deceased party has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record and proceedings shall then be had as the Supreme Court may direct. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of judgment or order in the trial court but before a notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this rule. If a party entitled to appeal shall die before filing a notice of appeal, the notice of appeal may be filed by his personal representative, or, if he has no personal representative, by his attorney of record within the time prescribed by these rules. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this rule.

143.03 Substitution for Other Causes.

If substitution of a party in the Supreme Court is necessary for any reason other than death, substitution shall be effected in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Rule 143.02.

143.04 Public Officers.

When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in the Supreme Court in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

RULE 144 CASES INVOLVING CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS WHERE STATE IS NOT A PARTY

When the constitutionality of an act of the legislature is drawn in question in any proceeding in the Supreme Court to which the state or an officer, agency, or employee of the state is not a party, the party asserting the unconstitutionality of the act shall notify the attorney general thereof.

RULE 145 APPENDIX OF FORMS

The forms contained in the Appendix of Forms are sufficient under the rules and are intended to indicate the simplicity and brevity of statement which the rules contemplate.

RULE 146 TITLE

These rules may be known and cited as Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure.

RULE 147 EFFECTIVE DATE; STATUTES SUPERSEDED

147.01 Effective Date and Application to Pending Proceedings.

These rules will take effect on February 1, 1968. They govern all civil appeals and proceedings brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the Supreme Court their application in a particular proceeding pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the proceeding was brought applies.

147.02 Statutes Superseded.

Upon the taking of effect of these rules the statutes listed in Appendix A are superseded with respect to practice and procedure in the Supreme Court.

OF PROHIBITION

To: The Supreme Court of the State of Minnesota:
The Petitioner, A. B., requests a writ of prohibition on the following grounds:

1. On January 2, 1966, A. B., as plaintiff, commenced an action against C. D., as defendant, in the District Court, County of ..... Judicial District, to recover damages for personal injuries sustained in an automobile accident and caused by the negligence of Defendant C. D.

2. On February 1, 1966, Defendant C. D. noticed the deposition of Mrs. A. B., the wife of petitioner, a copy of which is attached.

3. On February 3, 1966, Plaintiff A. B. moved said District Court for a protective order restraining C. D. from taking the deposition of Mrs. A. B., a copy of which is attached.

4. On February 14, 1966, the Honorable ..... Judge of said District Court, made and filed an order denying said motion and directing that the deposition of Mrs. A. B. be held on March 1, 1966, a copy of which order is attached.

5. A. B. has asserted and continues to assert the marital privilege afforded to him by M.S.A. §595.02(1). The issue presented by these proceedings is whether that privilege is applicable to discovery depositions.

6. The order of February 14, 1966, is in violation of said statute and contrary to law in that the District Court lacks power or authority to compel the testimony of Mrs. A. B. in the instant case. If the deposition is taken, irreparable harm will result to petitioner who has no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, the petitioner prays for a writ of prohibition restraining the District Court from enforcing the order of February 14, 1966.

LEGAL ISSUES

I. Does one who, without negligence, participates in the creation of a dangerous condition in a public highway, have a duty to exercise reasonable care to remove the condition or warn others of its presence?

Trial court held: In the affirmative.

II. Does the driver of a vehicle on an arterial highway have an obligation to reduce his otherwise legal speed until such time as he reasonably should have seen that the driver of an automobile on an intersecting street was not going to stop?

Trial court held: In the affirmative.

III. May a physician, who is called as an expert witness, give an opinion concerning the physical condition of a party which opinion is based, in part, on the opinions of other physicians who did not testify?

Trial court held: In the affirmative.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

This is an action to recover damages sustained by plaintiff as a result of an automobile accident which occurred on May 5, 1965, at an intersection of North Street and West Avenue in Saint Paul, Minnesota (A. 1, 2). The matter was tried in the District Court, _____ County, _____ Judicial District, Judge _____ presiding. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff in the amount of $17,000 (A. 7). The defendant appealed from an order denying his motion for a new trial (A. 11, 12).

The accident occurred at 11:30 p.m. (T. 4). It was raining heavily at the time (T. 11, 15). The defendant C. D. was driving his Jaguar automobile in an easterly direction on West Avenue (T. 24). Plaintiff was _____ (The remainder of the facts should be stated in compliance with Rule 123.01(3) accompanied by appropriate citations to the appendix and transcript.)

ARGUMENT

I. One who, without negligence, participates in the creation of a dangerous condition in a public highway does not have a duty to exercise reasonable care to remove the condition or warn others of its presence. (Each legal issue should be argued separately. See Rule 123.01(4).)

II. The driver of a vehicle on an arterial highway does not have an obligation to reduce his otherwise legal speed until such time as he reasonably should have seen that the driver of an automobile on an intersecting street was not going to stop.

APPENDIX 6. SUPREME COURT RULES

4. Graduation with a Bachelor of Laws or equivalent degree from an approved law school within a period of four years prior to making the application.

RULE VI

APPROVED LAW SCHOOLS. An approved law school, within the meaning of these rules, shall be such law school as is or may become approved by the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association.

RULE VII

TRANSFER OF STUDENTS FROM ONE LAW SCHOOL TO ANOTHER. Where a student transfers from one approved law school to another, the subsequent law school shall allow no greater scholastic credit for work done in the prior law school than said law school would itself allow if said student had not transferred.

RULE VIII

APPLICATION FOR EXAMINATION. Every person desiring permission to take the examination must make written application to the Board in the manner and in such form as the Board shall prescribe. Such application shall be filed with the Board in duplicate at least 90 days before the date of the examination and shall be accompanied by:

1. A fee of $50 in the form of a certified check, bank draft, or money order payable to the State Board of Law Examiners, which fee shall not be returnable in the event permission is denied.

2. Affidavits of at least two attorneys residing and practicing in Minnesota, setting forth how long a time, when and under what circumstances such persons have known the applicant, details respecting the applicant's habits and general reputation and such other facts as may be proper to enable the Board to determine the moral character of the applicant.

3. Evidence that he has been discharged under honorable conditions if the applicant has served in the armed forces.

The Board of Law Examiners shall have authority, in its discretion, to accept late filing of applications and late payment of the fee for good cause shown.

In addition to the above recommendations, it shall be the responsibility of said applicant to file or cause to be filed a certificate from an approved law school showing graduation with a Bachelor of Laws or equivalent degree at least 10 days prior to the date of the examination for which he has applied.

RULE IX

EXAMINATIONS. 1. For the purpose of aiding the State Board of Law Examiners in the preparation, administration and prompt grading of bar examinations, the board is authorized within the limits of its appropriations:

(a) Subject to the approval of the Supreme Court, to employ a Director of Bar Admissions on a full-time or part-time basis; to prescribe his duties; and to fix his compensation;

(b) To secure examination questions, together with analyses of the questions, from qualified law teachers outside the State of Minnesota, and to pay a reasonable compensation for such questions;

(c) To employ from among the members of the bar of the State of Minnesota lawyers of high ability to serve as readers to grade the answers to examinations upon the basis of standards determined by the board for each question after consultation with the director, the reader concerned with the particular question, and representatives of the approved law schools within the state.

2. Success or failure on the examination depends upon the average grade achieved on all questions required to be answered, and for success an applicant must earn an average not less than the minimum satisfactory grade. The State Board of Law Examiners shall establish from time to time the grade ranges to be assigned by the readers to answers of varying qualities and shall fix the minimum satisfactory grade.

3. The Supreme Court shall appoint annually a Review Committee consisting of three members of the State Board of Law Examiners. The State Board of Law Examiners shall refer to each member of the committee for independent grading the examination papers of not less than the top 20% of the applicants who fail to achieve a passing grade. Without knowing the grades assigned by the readers or by the other members of the Review Committee, each member of the Review Committee shall assign a grade to each answer pursuant to the established grade ranges, and shall thereby arrive at an average grade for each applicant. The final grade on review shall be the average of the grades assigned that applicant by the members of the Review Committee. An applicant shall be considered as having passed the examination if the final grade so determined is equal to or exceeds the minimum satisfactory grade fixed by the State Board of Law Examiners.

RULE X

RE-EXAMINATIONS. An applicant who has failed to pass the examination may take a re-examination at any regular examination date within the next ensuing two years upon presenting such additional affidavits or certificates as the board may require. He shall give to the board notice of his desire to take such examination by making application on the forms provided by the board for that purpose at least 30 days before the time for the commencement of such examination, and shall accompany the application with a fee of $50.00 payable to the State Board of Law Examiners as provided in Rule VIII. No applicant who has failed in three examinations shall be permitted to take a further examination.

RULE XI

ATTORNEYS FROM OTHER STATES: HOW ADMITTED. An attorney-at-law duly admitted to practice in another state or territory or in the District of Columbia desiring admission to the practice of law in this state shall submit his application to the board upon forms prescribed by the board. Upon proof that he has been admitted to practice in the highest court of such other jurisdiction or jurisdictions and has, as his principal occupation, been actively engaged in practicing law therein, or has been engaged in full-time law teaching in an approved law school or schools, or a combination of both, for at least five years next preceding his application, the examination may, upon the recommendation of the board, and in the discretion of the court, be waived and the applicant admitted to the practice of law upon motion without examination.

Such attorney shall accompany his application by the following:

1. A certificate of a judge of a court of record and affidavits of two practicing attorneys of said state, territory or district, that the judge and attorneys so certifying are well acquainted with such applicant, that he is a person of good moral character and that he has been actively engaged in practicing law or teaching in such state, territory or district for the period above prescribed.

2. Certificate of his admission to the bar in said state, territory or district.

3. Certificate from the proper court or body therein that he is in good standing and not under pending charges of misconduct.

4. A fee of $150.00 in form of check or money order payable to the order of the State Board of Law Examiners, no part of which shall be refunded should the application be denied.

If the board doubts the character or qualifications of the applicant it may impose such other tests as in its discretion may seem proper.

When an application for admission is made by a person admitted to practice law in other states or territories, the board may employ the National Conference of Bar Examiners to make investigation and report upon said application, and may pay to said National Conference of Bar Examiners a reasonable fee for its services in making such investigation and report.

An attorney-at-law duly admitted to practice in another state or territory or in the District of Columbia desiring admission to the practice of law in this state but who has not been actively engaged in the practice of law or full-time law teaching as his principal occupation for the period prescribed herein must be examined for admission in accordance with rules prescribed herein for those not admitted to practice of law anywhere (except that his application need not be made within four years of his graduation from law school) and in addition must meet all the requirements of this rule (except that the fee shall be $50.00).

RULE XII

ADDITIONAL INVESTIGATION OF APPLICANTS. As to any and all persons who apply to take examination, or who apply for admission without examination, the board may make such further inquiry and investigation, and require such further evidence regarding moral character and educational qualifications as it deems proper. In obtaining the required or desired information, the board will obtain the aid of the officers of or committees of bar associations whenever available.

RULE XIII

OPINION AS TO SUFFICIENCY OF QUALIFICATIONS. Any person or any approved law school may at any time request of the State Board of Law Examiners an opinion as to the sufficiency of educational or moral qualifications of an applicant. The board shall issue a ruling or opinion thereon, such to be, however, without prejudice to a later or different ruling of said board if additional evidence is obtained or changes occur in the applicant's qualifications prior to his sitting for the state bar examination.

RULE XIV

STATE BAR ADVISORY COUNCIL. The State Bar Advisory Council shall consist of the following:

1. The chairman of the Legal Education Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association.

4. The deans (or representatives appointed by them) of each of the approved law schools within the State of Minnesota.

5. The Secretary of the State Board of Law Examiners, who shall serve as the secretary of the State Bar Advisory Council.

Said council shall consider matters of general policy concerning admission to the bar, including proposed amendments to the rules for admission to the bar, and other matters either specifically referred to it or deemed worthy of consideration by it, and shall make such recommendations to the Supreme Court concerning matters under consideration as it deems advisable.

The secretary of the State Board of Law Examiners shall call a joint meeting of the council and the board at least once each year. In addition thereto, the council shall meet at such other time as it may be called together by the Supreme Court, the State Board of Law Examiners, or on its own motion.

The members of the State Bar Advisory Council shall receive no compensation by way of fees or expenses.

RULE XV

STUDENTS ENTERING ARMED SERVICES. A senior in an approved law school who has completed all of the work of previous years and not less than one-half of the work of the senior year and who is involuntarily inducted into the armed services of the United States may be admitted to the bar of this state without examination upon a certificate of the law school that he has maintained an average in his studies which places him in the highest eighty per cent of those to be graduated in his class, and which, if maintained to the end of the school year, would entitle him to a diploma in the degree of Bachelor of Laws, and a statement by such law school that in its opinion the candidate is of good moral character and otherwise in every respect qualified for admission to the bar.

A graduate of an approved law school who is involuntarily inducted into the armed services of the United States and who has maintained an average in his studies which places him in the highest eighty per cent of those who were graduated in his class may be admitted without examination upon a statement by such law school that he has been graduated from the school and the date of graduation and that in its opinion the applicant is of good moral character and otherwise in every respect qualified for admission to the bar; provided, however, that a graduate who has not taken the bar examination within a year after graduation, or who has unreasonably neglected an opportunity within said year to take the bar examination, shall not be so admitted.

Application for admission by such senior or graduate shall be made directly to the board on the usual form. The general requirements now in force as to prelegal education and affidavits from two practicing attorneys shall apply. The same fee shall be required as applies to all applicants for taking the regular bar examination.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT FOR APPEARANCE OF LAW STUDENTS

Any senior law student in a law school in this state accredited by The American Bar Association may, with the written approval of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, interview, advise, negotiate, and appear in any municipal or trial court on behalf of any indigent person accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or may represent any indigent person in a civil action; provided, however, that the conduct of the case is under the supervision of a member of the State Bar of Minnesota.

Before any student shall be eligible to appear in court for or on behalf of any indigent person accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or represent any indigent person in a civil action, the Dean of the accredited law school of which he is a student shall file with the Supreme Court a list of names of the enrolled students who have been selected by the faculty to participate in the program. Upon written approval by the Supreme Court of a student so certified, and the filing of such written approval, or a certified copy thereof, with the District Court wherein the law school is located, such approved student shall be, and is hereby, authorized to appear in any court of the State of Minnesota when under the supervision of a member of the State Bar of Minnesota, on behalf of such indigent persons accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or to represent indigent persons in any civil action as may be assigned to them. The expression "supervision" shall be construed to require the personal attendance of the supervising member of the bar during any trial, plea and sentence, or any other critical stage of any proceeding in or out of the court room. In all events representation afforded pursuant to this rule must comply with minimal standards required by the State and Federal Constitutions.

The written approval of each student by the Supreme Court of Minnesota shall remain in force and effect for a period of twelve months from the date of filing unless withdrawn earlier.

RULES FOR REGISTRATION OF ATTORNEYS

DECLARATION

WHEREAS, Minnesota does not have an integrated bar but does have an active and effective voluntary bar association in which a large percentage of all active attorneys at law practicing in this state are members, and

WHEREAS, In the past the expenses of conducting examinations for admissions to the practice of law and the expenses incident to conducting disciplinary proceedings have been paid in part by a biennial appropriation of the legislature out of the general tax sources of the state; in part by a fee exacted from applicants for admission to the bar; and in part by contributions received from the state bar association, and

WHEREAS, It is improper to continue accepting money for these purposes either from the general tax sources of the state or from contributions of a voluntary bar association that does not include as members all practicing attorneys of the state as these obligations ought of right to be borne by all members of the bar, whether associated with the state bar association or not, and

WHEREAS, There is now no current list of those who are authorized to practice law in this state;

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of and under the inherent power of this court to regulate the practice of law in this state, these rules are adopted in order that there may be on file annually a current list of all those authorized to practice law in this state and in order that the expenses of conducting examinations for admissions to the bar and conducting disciplinary proceedings may be borne by all attorneys at law authorized to practice law in this state.

RULE I

PROMULGATION OF RULES. Admission to the bar of the State of Minnesota and disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted according to rules promulgated by this court.

RULE II

ANNUAL REGISTRATION FEE. In order to defray the expenses of examinations and investigations for admission to the bar, disciplinary proceedings and expenses of committees appointed by the Supreme Court for the improvement of law, over and above the amount paid by applicants for such admission, each attorney admitted to practice law in this state and those members of the judiciary who are required to be admitted to practice as a prerequisite to holding office shall hereafter

RULE III

FAILURE TO PAY FEE; PENALTY. Upon failure to pay such fee, the right to practice law in this state shall be automatically suspended, and no individual shall be authorized to practice law in this state or to in any manner hold himself out as qualified or authorized to practice law while in default in the payment of such registration fee. Any individual who shall violate this rule shall be subject to all the penalties and remedies provided by law for the unauthorized practice of law in the State of Minnesota. It shall be the duty of each member of the judiciary to enjoin persons from appearing and practicing in his court whose failure to register has come to the attention of such court.

RULE IV

NOTICE. Annually on or before December 1 of each year, the clerk of the supreme court shall mail to each individual then authorized to practice law, who has not paid such registration fee, at his last known address, a statement showing the amount of the registration fee required for the next ensuing year. Failure to receive such notice shall not excuse payment of such fee. Every attorney at law shall immediately notify the clerk of this court of any change of address.

RULE V

REINSTATEMENT. The right to practice law may be reinstated by the court after suspension upon application and upon payment of all delinquent registration fees. This court may, in hardship cases, waive payment of delinquent dues.

RULE VI

Each year after issuance of the original certificate, the clerk shall, upon payment of the annual registration fee, deliver to the individual so paying the same a suitable sticker or certificate showing the current good standing of such attorney.

RULE VII

COLLECTIONS BY BAR ASSOCIATION. The Minnesota State Bar Association may, if it so desires, collect the registration fee provided herein from such of its members who consent thereto and remit the same to the clerk of this court in lieu of payment by the member individually. In the event such payment is to be so made, the association shall, on or before October 31 of each year, transmit such remittance to the clerk, together with a complete list of the names and addresses of all members for whom such payment is made. Upon receipt of such payment, each member for whom payment is made shall receive from the clerk of this court the same certificate of good standing as is received by an attorney at law individually making such payment.

RULE VIII

SPECIAL FUND. All money collected from applicants for admission to the bar or as an annual registration fee as provided herein shall be deposited by the clerk in a special fund, as directed by this court, and shall be disbursed therefrom only upon vouchers signed by a member of this court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT FOR DISCIPLINE AND REINSTATEMENT OF ATTORNEYS

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following rules for investigating complaints involving professional conduct of attorneys and for conducting disciplinary proceedings and proceedings upon application for reinstatement after suspension or disbarment of an attorney be, and the same hereby are, prescribed and adopted to become effective forthwith in lieu of rules heretofore promulgated, all of which are hereby repealed.

RULE I

DISCIPLINE OF ATTORNEYS. It is of primary importance to the members of the Bar and to the public that complaints involving alleged unprofessional conduct of attorneys be promptly investigated and disposed of, and that disciplinary proceedings be brought in those cases where investigation discloses it is warranted. Such investigations and proceedings shall be had under the supervision of the State Board of Law Examiners with the assistance of the Minnesota State Bar Association and the District Bar Associations of the State which are affiliated with the Minnesota State Bar Association, under the provisions of this Rule of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided. To carry out this Rule, it is the desire of the Supreme Court that the Minnesota State Bar Association request each District Bar Association to appoint an Ethics Committee of not less than five (5) attorneys at law then resident in each district; and that the State Bar Association appoint a Practice of Law Committee; such Committees of the State and District Bar Associations to be appointed and function under their respective Constitutions and By-Laws. In the event a District Bar Association fails to establish such local ethics committee a committee of not less than five members of the bar of such district shall be appointed by this court to serve in place thereof.

Except as hereinafter provided all complaints of alleged unprofessional conduct of attorneys shall, in the first instance, be referred to the Ethics Committee of the applicable District Bar Association for investigation. If the Ethics Committee of the District Bar Association determines that the complaint is without merit, the complaint may be disposed of by that Committee. If the Ethics Committee of the District Bar Association determines that the complaint should have further investigation or action, it shall refer the complaint, together with its file and recommendations, to the Practice of Law Committee of the State Bar Association. The Practice of Law Committee of the State Bar Association may conduct such further investigation as it deems the matter warrants. If the Practice of Law Committee of the State Bar Association then determines that the complaint is without merit, it may dispose of the complaint. If the Practice of Law Committee of the State Bar Association determines that the complaint warrants further investigation or action, it shall refer the complaint, together with its file and recommendations, to the State Board of Law Examiners. Thereafter the matter shall be under the supervision of the State Board of Law Examiners, which Board may conduct such further investigation as it deems necessary, under such rules as it may, from time to time, promulgate.

Any complainant dissatisfied with the disposition of a complaint by the District Ethics Committee or the State Practice of Law Committee may appeal to the State Board of Law Examiners.

The Board of Law Examiners, acting through its members or its duly constituted representative, is authorized and empowered to present to this court any order to show cause, petition, and accusation, or other pleading charging a member of the bar of Minnesota with unprofessional conduct in a case where, in its opinion and based upon the exercise of its discretion, disciplinary proceedings are warranted, and if this court authorized disciplinary proceedings in a particular case, thereafter to prosecute and proceed with the handling of the same with diligence and in such manner as it deems proper.

Whenever an attorney is convicted of a felony under Minnesota Statutes the Board of Law Examiners shall forthwith submit to the court a petition for his suspension from the practice of law. Upon a plea of guilty to the commission of such felony, or upon a final affirmation of a conviction of such felony, or expiration of the time for appeal, the Board shall forthwith institute proceedings for disbarment in accordance with these rules.

Upon final conviction of a felony under Federal Law or the laws of any other state the Board of Law Examiners shall proceed as otherwise provided in these rules.

For the purposes of the investigating, handling, and prosecuting complaints in disciplinary matters, including petitions for reinstatement, the State Board of Law Examiners is authorized and empowered to employ such persons as it may, from time to time, deem necessary at a per diem rate of pay which it may, after consultation with this court, fix as a fair compensation for the services so rendered. All payment of such services shall be made upon vouchers approved by this court from its funds now or hereafter to be deposited to its credit with the State of Minnesota or elsewhere. Other miscellaneous and necessary expenses of the Board of Law Examiners incurred from time to time and certified to this court as having been so incurred, while engaged in the matters herein provided, shall be paid in like manner.

When a member of the bar of this state is charged with misconduct and a verified accusation and petition praying that he be disciplined is submitted to this court, and an order is filed directing respondent to answer, such order and accusation shall be served upon respondent in the same manner as a summons in a civil action is served under the rules of this court. If such respondent have a resident guardian duly appointed for such person, service shall be made upon such guardian in like manner. Respondent shall, after service upon him, have twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, in which to comply with the order of the court.

If respondent cannot be found in the State of Minnesota and his place of residence is unknown, and the sheriff of the county in which respondent last resided or practiced law makes a return to that effect, the Board of Law Examiners, or its representative, shall file in this court an affidavit setting forth such facts. After the lapse of thirty days the board may apply to this court for an order suspending respondent from the practice of law. A copy of such order, when made and filed, shall be mailed to each judge of the district court in this state. Within a reasonable time thereafter respondent may petition this court for a vacation of such order of suspension and for leave to answer the accusation made against him.

After service of the petition and order as herein provided, respondent shall file in duplicate in this court a verified answer either denying or admitting the accusations contained in the petition as well as any defense that he may have thereto or in mitigation of discipline.

If respondent fails to file such answer within the time herein provided or such extension of time as may be granted by this court, he shall be held to be in default and an order of discipline entered upon the assumption that he is guilty as charged.

Upon filing of an answer denying the accusation in the petition or setting up matters in defense thereof, this court may appoint a judge of a district court of this state or a former judge of the district court or former justice of the supreme court as referee with directions to hear and report the evidence submitted for or against the accusations contained in such petition and answer. The referee shall have a court reporter make a stenographic report of all testimony given and all proceedings had before him as in civil cases. The reporter shall be paid his necessary expense, but no compensation except as hereinafter provided. Upon request of any person interested and payment or tender of his fees therefor, the reporter shall furnish a transcript of such record as in civil cases and shall be paid therefor the fee provided by law. The transcript of testimony shall be made upon paper 9 inches long and 7 inches wide to conform to the size of printed records and briefs in this court. It shall be the duty of the person ordering the transcript to see that the court reporter complies with this rule.

The referee shall make findings of fact, and conclusions and recommendations when so requested by this court, which shall be conclusive, unless a case shall be settled in accordance with and within the time limited by the provisions of the statutes and rules of this court pertaining to civil actions. The parties proposing such settled case shall first obtain and pay for a transcript of the testimony or the relevant portions thereof, and deliver the original to the referee and a copy to the adverse party.

After a settled case and the findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations when requested are filed, the matter shall be heard by this court upon the record, oral arguments, and such printed briefs as the parties desire to file. On oral argument petitioner shall be entitled to 45 minutes and respondent 30 minutes.

RULE II

REINSTATEMENT OF ATTORNEYS SUSPENDED OR DISBARRED. All petitions for reinstatement to practice law of attorneys suspended or disbarred shall be served upon the Board of Law Examiners, the president of the district bar association of the district in which the respondent resides, and the president of the State Bar Association. The original petition, with proof of service, and one copy, shall then be filed with the clerk of this court. Objections to the petition, if any, shall be served upon respondent and filed with the clerk of this court within forty days after service of the petition.

Upon the filing of a petition for reinstatement by an attorney and expiration of the time for filing objections thereto, as herein provided, the State Board of Law Examiners shall investigate the matter and make report to this court of its conclusions as to the desirability of readmitting such attorney to practice law. There shall be a hearing before this court on every petition for the reinstatement of a lawyer unless such hearing is waived by the Board of Law Examiners. Upon the filing of a verified petition for reinstatement of an attorney suspended or disbarred, and after reference thereof to the Board of Law Examiners and report by it to this court, as herein provided, the court will determine whether a reference should be had. In the event of a reference, the same procedure shall be followed as in disciplinary proceedings.

persons as may be determined by the court, unless waived by all heirs or the court.

The court by order, or by decree of distribution, will direct distribution of the money to the persons entitled thereto by law. Upon the filing of a receipt from each distributee for the amount assigned to him, the trustee shall be discharged.

The foregoing procedure will, so far as can be applicable, also govern the distribution of money recovered by personal representatives under the Federal Employers' Liability Act (45 U.S.C.A. 51) and under section 219.77.

(b) No action for divorce based upon incurable insanity shall be heard until a general guardian of the person of the defendant (or a guardian ad litem when the appointment of a general guardian appears impracticable) shall have been appointed, and service of the summons and notice of the pendency of the action shall have been made upon such guardian, upon defendant's nearest blood relative, and upon the superintendent of the institution in which the defendant is confined. If from the sheriff's return and the proofs submitted it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that personal service cannot be made upon the nearest blood relative of the defendant, then upon order of the court the summons and notice of the pendency of the action shall be served upon such nearest blood relative in the manner and as directed by the court; and no hearing in any such case shall be had until after the lapse of 30 days from the time of such service.

(c) Orders for publication of summons in actions for divorce will be granted only upon an affidavit of the plaintiff made as provided by statute and showing specifically what efforts have been made to ascertain the residence of the defendant for the purpose of making personal service.

RULE 10

For a failure to comply with the provisions of this rule, the order made on subsequent application may be vacated.

RULE 11

EXPERT WITNESS FEES. On affidavit showing that a fee equalling, or exceeding that has been billed, the clerk may tax $25.00 per day for an expert witness fee as a disbursement in a civil case, subject to increase or decrease by a judge on appeal. The maximum amount which normally will be allowed by a judge on appeal is $100.00 per day and normally $100.00 per day shall be allowed if that amount is a customary charge by similar experts in the community. The judge in setting the fee on appeal is governed by the provisions of Minnesota statutes, Section 357.25. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 12

Orders required to be served shall be so filed within three days after the service thereof, and, unless seasonably served and filed, may be vacated.

(b) No papers on file in a cause shall be taken from the custody of the clerk otherwise than upon order of the court or local court rule.

(c) When judgment is entered in an action upon a promissory note, draft or bill of exchange under the provisions of Rules of Civil Procedure 55.01, such promissory note, draft or bill of exchange shall be filed with the clerk and made a part of the files of the action. (b) Judgment against a garnishee shall be entered only upon notice to the garnishee and the defendant, if known to be within the jurisdiction of the court, showing the date and amount of the judgment against the defendant, and the amount for which plaintiff proposes to enter judgment against the garnishee after deducting such fees and allowances as the garnishee is entitled to receive. If the garnishee appears and secures a reduction of the proposed judgment, the court may make an appropriate allowance for fees and expenses incident to such appearance.

RULE 16

ILLEGITIMACY PROCEEDINGS. Upon certification to and filing of records in the district court of any proceeding to determine the paternity of an illegitimate child, the clerk shall immediately notify by mail the director of social welfare of the pendency of the proceedings.

RULE 17

JUDGMENT, ENTRY BY ADVERSE PARTY. When a party is entitled to have judgment entered in his favor upon the verdict of a jury, report of a referee, or decision or finding of the court, and neglects to enter the same for ten days after the rendition of the verdict or notice of the filing of the report, decision, or finding; or, in case a stay has been ordered, for ten days after the expiration of such stay, the opposite party may cause judgment to be entered on five days' notice to the party entitled thereto.

RULE 18

[Eliminated effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 19

NE EXEAT. Upon the allowance of a writ of ne exeat the court shall require an undertaking or bond in the penal sum of not less than $250.00, to be approved by the court. Such bond shall be conditioned upon payment to the party detained of such damages as he may sustain by reason of the writ, if the court shall eventually decide that the party applying was not entitled thereto.

RULE 20

[Eliminated effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 21

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. An order to show cause will be issued only in a case where a statute or Rule of Civil Procedure provides that such an order may be issued or where the court deems it is necessary to require the party to appear in person at the hearing. [As amended effective Oct. 1, 1965.]

RULE 22

PLEADINGS. (a) In all cases where application is made for leave to amend a pleading or to answer or reply after the time limited by statute or rule, or to open a judgment and for leave to answer and defend, such application shall be accompanied with a copy of the proposed amendment, answer or reply, as the case may be, and an affidavit of merits and be served on the opposite party. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

(b) In an affidavit of merits made by the party the affiant shall state with particularity the facts relied upon as a defense or claim for relief, that he has fully and fairly stated the facts in the case to his counsel, and that he has a good and substantial defense or claim for relief on the merits, as he is advised by his counsel after such statement and verily believes true, and he shall also give the name and address of such counsel.

An affidavit shall also be made by counsel, who shall state therein that from the showing of the facts made to him by the party he verily believes that such party has a good and substantial defense or claim for relief on the merits. [As amended effective Oct. 1, 1965.]

RULE 23

RECEIVERS. (a) All actions or proceedings for the sequestration of the property of corporations or for the appointment of receivers thereof, except actions or proceedings instituted by the Attorney General in behalf of the state, shall be instituted in the county in which the principal place of business of said corporation is situated; provided, that for the convenience of witnesses and to promote the ends of justice the venue may be changed by order of court.

(b) Receivers, trustees, guardians, and others appointed by the court to aid in the administration of justice shall be wholly impartial and indifferent to all parties in interest, and selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. Except by consent of all parties interested, or where it clearly appears that prejudice will otherwise result, no person who is or has been during the preceding year a stockholder, director, or officer of a corporation shall be appointed as receiver for such corporation. Receivers shall be appointed only upon notice to interested parties, such notice to be given in the manner ordered by the court; but if it shall be clearly shown that an emergency exists requiring the immediate appointment of a temporary receiver, such appointment may be made ex parte.

(c) Every receiver after his appointment shall give a bond to be approved by the court in such sum and conditioned as the court shall direct, and shall make and file with the clerk an inventory and estimated valuation of the assets of the estate in his hands; and, unless otherwise ordered, appraisers shall then be appointed and their compensation fixed by order of the court.

(d) Claims of creditors of corporations, the subject of sequestration or receivership proceedings, shall be duly verified and filed in the office of the clerk of court. The court, by order, shall fix the time for presentation, examination and adjustment of claims and the time for objecting thereto, and notice of the order shall be given by such means, including publication if deemed desirable, as the Court therein shall direct. Written objection to the allowance of any claim may be made by any party to the proceeding by serving a copy of such objection upon the claimant or his attorney. Where no objection is made within the time fixed by said order, the claim may stand admitted and be allowed without proof. Issues of law and fact shall be tried as in other cases.

(e) Every receiver shall file an annual inventory and report showing the condition of the estate in his hands and a summary of his proceedings to date. The clerk shall keep a list of receiverships and notify such receiver and the court when such reports are due.

(f) When an attorney has been appointed receiver, no attorney for such receiver shall be employed except upon the order of the court, which shall be granted only upon the petition of the receiver, stating the name of counsel whom he wishes to employ and showing the necessity for such employment.

(g) No receiver shall employ more than one counsel, except under special circumstances requiring the employment of additional counsel; and in such case only after an order of court made on a petition showing such circumstance, and on notice to the party or person on whose behalf or application the receiver was appointed. No allowance shall be made to any receiver for expenses paid or incurred in violation of this rule.

(h) No receiver or other trustee appointed by the court, nor any attorney acting for such receiver or trustee, shall withdraw or use any trust funds to apply on his compensation for services except on written order of court, duly made after such notice as the court may direct, and filed in the proceeding.

(i) All applications for the allowance of fees to receivers and their attorneys shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of the services performed and the amount charged for each item shown.

Compensation of receivers and their attorneys shall be allowed only upon the order of the court after such notice to creditors and others interested as the court shall direct, of the amounts claimed as compensation and of the time and place of hearing the application for their allowance.

(j) Every receiver shall take a receipt for all disbursements made by him in excess of one dollar, shall file the same with his final account, and shall recite such filing in his verified petition for the allowance of such account. Final accounts shall disclose the status of the property of the estate as to unpaid or delinquent taxes and the same shall be paid by him to the extent that the funds in his hands permit, over and beyond costs and expenses of the receivership. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 24

RESTRAINING ORDER, BOND. Before any restraining order shall be issued, except in aid of writs of execution or replevin, or in actions for divorce, the applicant shall give a bond in the penal sum of at least $1,000, executed by him or by some person for him as a principal, approved by the court and conditioned for the payment to the party restrained of such damages as he shall sustain by reason of the order, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled thereto. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 25

SERVICE, ADMISSION OF ATTORNEY. Rule 25 is superseded in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts by Rule 5.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

STAY. Rule 26 is superseded, in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts by Rule 58.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 27

TRIALS. (a) [Eliminated effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

(b) In civil cases called for trial by jury the court at the request of any party to the action may direct the clerk to draw 18 names from the jury box in the first instance, and the said 18 shall then be examined as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the action; and if any of them be excused another shall be called in his place until there shall be 18 jurors in the box qualified to sit in the action; and the parties shall have the right to exercise their peremptory challenges as to those 18. When the peremptory challenges have been exercised, of those remaining the 12 first called into the jury box shall constitute the jury. In appropriate cases this rule may be modified in accordance with sections 546.10 and 593.15.

(c) Counsel on each side, in opening his case to the jury, shall confine himself to stating the facts which he proposes to prove.

(d) On the trial of actions but one counsel on each side shall examine or cross-examine a witness, and one counsel only on each side shall sum up the case to the jury, unless the judge shall otherwise order.

(e) In criminal trials involving sex offenses or in which the evidence is likely to be of a scandalous nature the court may, with the consent of the defendant, exclude the general public from the court room.

(f) Exceptions to remarks by counsel either in the opening statement to the jury or in the closing argument shall be taken while such statement or argument is in progress unless the same is being taken

*(Note any exceptions to fair market value at end of accounting period and reasons therefor)

If any asset realized a net income less than one per cent of the inventory value or acquisition cost, describe the asset and explain in a supporting schedule what net income was realized and why it is deemed advisable to retain this asset.

Final accounts shall disclose the state of the property of the trust estate as to unpaid or delinquent taxes and such taxes shall be paid by the trustee to the extent that the funds in the trust permit, over and beyond the cost and expenses of the trust administration, except where a special showing is made by the trustee that it is in the best interests of the trust and is lawful for the unpaid or delinquent taxes not to be paid.

There shall also be filed with the clerk proof of mailing of such account to the last addresses known to the trustee of, or of the service of such account upon, such of the following beneficiaries or their natural or legal guardians as are known to, or reasonably ascertainable by, the trustee:

- (a) Beneficiaries entitled to receive income or principal at the date of the accounting; and
- (b) Beneficiaries who, were the trust terminated at the date of the accounting, would be entitled to share in distributions of income or principal.

The clerk shall keep a list of trusteeships and notify each trustee and the court when any such annual account has not been filed within 120 days from the end of the accounting year.

Hearings upon annual accounts may be ordered upon the request of any interested party. A hearing shall be held on such annual accounts at least once every five years upon notice as set forth in Minnesota Statutes, Section 501.35; provided, that in trusts of the value of $20,000 or less, the five year hearing requirement may be waived by the court in its discretion. Any hearing on an account may be ex parte if each party in interest then in being shall execute waiver of notice in writing which shall be filed with the clerk, but no account shall be finally allowed except upon a hearing on the record in open court. Such five year hearings shall be held within 150 days after the end of the accounting period of each fifth annual unallowed account, and the clerk shall notify each trustee and the court if the hearing is not held within such 150 day period.

The changes in this rule made by this amendment shall be effective as to accounting periods commencing one year or more after the adoption hereof. As amended June 22, 1967. [Adopted June 22, 1967, effective as to accounting periods commencing one year or more after adoption of amendment.]

RULE 29

VENUE, CHANGE. A change of venue shall not be granted under the provisions of section 542.11 unless the party applying therefor uses due diligence to procure the same within a reasonable time after issue has been joined in the action and the ground for the change has come to the knowledge of the applicant. Nor shall a change be granted where the other party will lose the benefit of a term, unless the party asking for such change shall move therefor at the earliest reasonable opportunity after issue has been joined and he has information of the ground of such change.

RULE 30

DIVORCE ACTIONS, SERVICE. In every action for divorce brought against a foreign national, in which summons and complaint are not served by handing the same to the defendant within the continental United States, the attorney for plaintiff shall be requested forthwith, upon the commencement of such action, to notify the nearest consul or vice-consul of the country of which defendant is a national of the title and venue of such action, the manner in which jurisdiction was acquired and the date thereof and shall upon request furnish a copy of such summons and complaint or permit a copy thereof to be made.

RULE 31

CIVIL JURY CASES IN WHICH INSURANCE COMPANY INTERESTED IN DEFENSE OR OUTCOME OF ACTION—EXAMINATION OF JURORS.

In all civil jury cases, in which an insurance company or companies are not parties, but are interested in the defense or outcome of the action, counsel for such company or companies may, and upon request of the presiding Judge shall, disclose the name of such company or companies to opposing counsel, out of the hearing of the jury, as well as the name of the local agent of such companies. When so disclosed, no inquiry shall be permitted by counsel as to such names in the hearing of the jury, nor shall disclosure be made to the jury that such insurance company is interested in the action.

In the examination of the jurors by counsel as to their qualifications, the jurors may be asked collectively whether any of them have any interest as policyholders, stockholders, officers, agents or otherwise in the insurance company or companies interested, but such question shall not be repeated to each individual juror. If none of the jurors indicate any such interest in the company or companies involved, then no further inquiry shall be permitted with reference thereto.

If any of the jurors manifest an interest in any of the companies involved, then counsel may further inquire of such juror or jurors as to his or their interest in such company, including any relationship or connection with the local agent of such interested company, to determine whether such interests or relationship disqualifies such juror.

The presiding Judge, in his discretion, may examine the jurors on this feature of the case and not permit counsel to do so.

RULES FOR UNIFORM DECORUM IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF MINNESOTA

COURTROOM

1. The flag of the United States shall at all times while court is in session be displayed on or in close proximity to the bench.

2. A courtroom is a temple of justice—unseemly conduct therein at any time is in poor taste. Tobacco in any form shall not be used; hats and overcoats should be removed at all times before entering the courtroom; dignity and solemnity of both judges and attorneys should be maintained in the courtroom at all times.

3. There shall be no unnecessary conversation, loud whispering, newspaper or magazine reading or other disconcerting or distracting activity by anyone in the courtroom during the progress of the trial.

OPENING AND SESSIONS OF COURT

4. At the opening of a term of court, the formality shall be as follows: Immediately before the scheduled time for opening, the sheriff or bailiff shall proceed from the judge's chambers, and by a rap of the gavel or other signal, direct all court officers and spectators to their seats. As the judge enters the courtroom, the bailiff shall require all present to arise and stand, and the bailiff shall say clearly and distinctly:

Hear Ye—Hear Ye—Hear Ye! The District Court of the ——— Judicial District, County of ———, State of Minnesota is about to open for term of court. All persons having business before this Court please come forward, let your wants be known and you shall be heard. This Court is now open. Judge ——— presiding.

All may then be seated and the business of the court will proceed.

(The procedure above outlined may be modified by the judge entering and standing in lieu of the judge being seated, and by the use of the usual "Hear Ye," prevailing in the different districts.)

5. In reconvening court in the morning and after the noon recess, the bailiff shall give warning by gavel or otherwise, and as the judge enters, cause all to stand until he is seated.

(The above rule (to) or (to not) apply to mid-morning and mid-afternoon recesses of the court at election of presiding judge.)

THE JURY

6. When trial is to a jury, the jurors shall take their respective places in the jury box before the judge enters the courtroom. In reconvening after a recess, it is the duty of the bailiff to give warning and assemble the jurors when court is reconvened.

7. When a jury has been selected and is to be sworn, the presiding judge or clerk shall request the jurors to arise, and on the oath being administered, everyone in the courtroom, including attorneys, except the presiding judge shall stand.

THE BAILIFF

8. It shall be the duty of the bailiff to maintain order at all times as litigants, witnesses and the public assemble in the courtroom and during the progress of the trial and during recesses of the court. This includes the duty to admit persons to the courtroom and direct them to seats, and to refuse admittance to the courtroom in such trials where the courtroom is occupied to its full seating capacity.

THE CLERK

9. When the witness is sworn, the clerk shall have the witness give the reporter his or her full name, and after being sworn, courteously invite him or her to be seated on the witness stand.

10. The clerk shall be alert, stand erect and administer the oath to jurors and witnesses in a slow, clear, and dignified manner. Witnesses when sworn should stand near the bench or witness stand, and the swearing of witnesses should be an impressive ceremony and not a mere formality.

THE LAWYER

11. The lawyers should advise their clients and witnesses of the formalities of the court, thereby avoiding embarrassment to them and the court as well.

12. The lawyer is an officer of the court and should at all times uphold the honor and maintain the dignity of the profession, and should maintain at all times a respectful attitude toward the court.

13. Except when making objections, lawyers should arise and remain standing while addressing the court or the jury. In addressing the court, the lawyer should refer to the judge as "Your Honor" or "The Court."

14. The lawyers should address the court from a position at the counsel table. If a lawyer finds it necessary to discuss some question out of the hearing of the jury at the bench, he may so indicate to the court and approach the bench for the purpose indicated. In such an instance, the lawyers should never lean upon the bench nor appear to engage the court in a confidential manner.

15. Lawyers shall be seated or stand at the counsel table while examining witnesses, except when identifying or examining exhibits, or because of physical defects of the witness, or other emergency, a modification of the procedure is required.

16. Lawyers during trial shall not exhibit undue familiarity with witnesses, jurors or opposing counsel, and the use of first names shall be avoided. In arguments to the jury, no juror should be singled out and addressed individually by name.

Canon Number 23 of Canons of Professional Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "All attempts to curry favor with juries by fawning, flattery or pretended solicitude for their personal comfort are unprofessional. Suggestions of counsel, looking to the comfort or convenience of jurors, and propositions to dispense with argument, should be made to the Court out of the jury's hearing. A lawyer must never converse privately with jurors about the case; and both before and during the trial he should avoid communicating with them, even as to matters foreign to the cause."

17. All lawyers, jurors, litigants and court officials shall wear coats while in attendance upon court, provided judicial discretion may be exercised otherwise in certain situations.

18. Lawyers shall state objections without argument. If there is to be an argument or offer of proof, the same shall be made out of the hearing of the jury.

19. When addressing the jury, the lawyers shall first address the court, who shall recognize the lawyer by "Mr. Smith" or "Counsel."

20. In examination of a witness, the lawyer should not indulge in personalities, but should treat the witness with courtesy and respect.

Canon No. 18 of Canons of Professional Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A lawyer should always treat adverse witnesses and suitors with fairness and due consideration, and he should never minister to the malevolence or prejudices of a client in the trial or conduct of a cause. The client cannot be made the keeper of the lawyer's conscience in professional matters. He has no right to demand that his counsel shall abuse the opposite party or indulge in offensive personalities. Improper speech is not excusable on the ground that it is what the client would say if speaking in his own behalf."

21. The lawyers as far as possible shall refrain from interrupting each other, speaking at the same time or arguing across the counsel table. Unless observed, this will make a poor record for review later. Lawyers should instruct their witnesses to testify slowly and clearly so that the court and jury will hear their testimony, and should caution witnesses not to chew gum when testifying.

22. A lawyer or a party shall not thank the jury or the court for a favorable verdict that has been returned. It is the duty of the court to see that no demonstration occurs in the courtroom in connection with the rendering of a verdict.

THE JUDGE

23. The judge shall at all times be dignified, courteous, respectful and considerate of the lawyers, the jury and witnesses.

Canons number 9 and 10 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provide:

"9. A judge should be considerate of jurors, witnesses and others in attendance upon the court."

"10. A judge should be courteous to counsel, especially to those who are young and inexperienced, and also to all others appearing or concerned in the administration of justice in the court."

"He should also require, and, so far as his power extends, enforce on the part of clerks, court officers and counsel civility and courtesy to the court and to jurors, witnesses, litigants and others having business in the court."

24. Pursuant to resolution of the Minnesota District Judges' association, the judge shall wear a robe at all trials and court appearances, except that under certain circumstances, in the exercise of his discretion, the judge may dispense with the wearing of a robe in a court appearance.

25. The judge shall be punctual in convening court, and prompt in the performance of his judicial duties in the courtroom.

Canon number 7 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A judge should be prompt in the performance of his judicial duties, recognizing that the time of litigants, jurors and attorneys is of value and that habitual lack of punctuality on his part justifies dissatisfaction with the administration of the business of the court."

26. During the presentation of the case, the judge shall maintain absolute impartiality, and shall neither by word or sign indicate that he favors any party to the litigation.

27. The judge should refrain so far as possible from intervening in the examination of witnesses or argument of counsel; however, the judge shall intervene on his own motion to prevent a miscarriage of justice.

Canon number 15 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides:

"A judge may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition, and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but he should bear in mind that his undue interference, impatience, or participation in the examination of witnesses, or a severe attitude on his part toward witnesses, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of the truth in respect thereto."

"Conversation between the judge and counsel in court is often necessary, but the judge should be studious to avoid controversies which are apt to obscure the merits of the dispute between litigants and lead to its unjust disposition. In addressing counsel, litigants or witnesses, he should avoid a controversial manner or tone."

"He should avoid interruptions of counsel in their arguments except to clarify his mind as to their positions, and he should not be tempted to the unnecessary display of learning or a premature judgment."

28. The judge shall have the duty to see that each witness is sworn separately and that the oath is administered to witnesses in a manner calculated to impress them with the importance and solemnity of the oath taken.

29. The judge shall be impersonal in addressing the lawyers and other officers of the court by addressing the lawyers as "Counsel" or "Mr. Smith;" the bailiff as "Mr. Bailiff;" the clerk as "Mr. Clerk" or "Madame Clerk;" or the reporter as "Mr. Reporter" or "Madame Reporter."

30. The judge shall be responsible for order and decorum in the court and shall see to it at all times that parties and witnesses in the case are treated with proper courtesy and respect. Lecturing, browbeating, badgering or shouting at a witness shall not be allowed.

31. The judge shall be in complete charge of the trial at all times and shall see to it that everything is done to obtain a clear and accurate record of the trial. It is his duty to see that the witnesses testify clearly so that the reporter may obtain a correct record of all proceedings in court.

32. If in a trial the lawyers get into a personal colloquy or wrangle across the counsel table, it is the duty of the trial judge to interrupt; a simple suggestion that counsel request a ruling from the court, or a reminder that the reporter can report only one at a time, or the mere suggestion that each give the other the opportunity to speak, usually has the desired effect.

33. The judge shall exercise extreme care so as not to say anything before the jury or parties to an action that is critical of a lawyer or that may be embarrassing to him before his client or the jury. It is always well for the judge to remember that the lawyer is also an officer of the court. If the judge has a suggestion to make to the lawyer of a critical nature, he may call a recess or call the lawyer to the bench and speak to him in an undertone not audible to the jury.

34. The judge shall at all times exercise the highest degree of patience; it is better to lose time than to lose patience. The silent judge makes the better judge; a judge seldom regrets what he failed to say during a trial but many times he regrets and wishes he could recall some things he did say.

Canon number 5 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A judge should be temperate, attentive, patient, impartial, and, since he is to administer the law and apply it to the facts, he should be studious of the principles of the law and diligent in endeavoring to ascertain the facts."

35. The judge should exercise caution not to comment favorably or adversely upon the verdict of a jury during a court term; it may indirectly influence the action of the jury in the remaining cases to be tried.

36. The juror is always interested in what has happened to a case he is hearing. If a case is disposed of by motion, settlement or otherwise, it is a good practice to explain to the jury what has transpired. The explanation with proper comments from the court can do much to alleviate the criticism that is frequently made of our jury trial procedure.

e. Practice in relation to the State Tax Deeds. Excepting those cases where a certificate of title is outstanding in favor of the State of Minnesota, whenever a deed from the State of Minnesota in favor of the registered owner is offered for registration. It shall be registered as a memorial upon the certificate of title as evidence of discharge of any claim of title by the state evidenced by the prior memorial of an auditor's certificate of forfeiture to the state; and the same practice shall be followed in those cases where subsequent to or concurrent with a repurchase from the state by the registered owner, the latter shall have conveyed either by quitclaim deed or warranty deed the affected premises and the deed from the state in favor of said registered owner is dated subsequent to the date of conveyance of said registered owner or subsequent to the entry of certificate in favor of the registered owner's grantee, in which case the fact that the repurchase from the state was concurrent with or prior to the date of the deed by the registered owner making such purchase shall be evidenced by an endorsement to that effect upon the state deed made by the county auditor, one of his deputies or the county land commissioner.

f. Deeds from Federal Housing Administrator. That in the registration of deeds or other instruments hereinafter listed for titles or interests registered in the name of an individual as Federal Housing Administrator, the registrar of titles shall be guided by Section 204 of the National Housing Act as amended by act of June 3, 1939 (12 U.S.C.A. 1710) which confers upon any assistant administrator the power to convey and to execute in the name of the administrator deeds of conveyance, deeds of release, assignments of mortgages, satisfactions of mortgages and any other written instrument relating to real property or any interest therein which has been acquired by the administrator; and that the registrar of titles shall accept the statement of the certificate of acknowledgement attached to any such instrument as evidence of the official character of the administrator or assistant administrator executing instrument.

SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PRETRIAL PROCEDURE. It is hereby ordered that compulsory pretrial hearings be conducted in the following manner:

I. General Procedure

1. Attendance at pretrial hearings by the attorney who is to try the case is compulsory unless he is actually engaged in trial, in which event a member of his firm may be substituted.

Continuances will be granted sparingly.

Unexcused absences will result in the entry of orders by default determining matters recited in Rule 16 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as resolving other questions properly raised at the pretrial hearing.

2. Attorneys at pretrial hearings will be thoroughly informed as to the law and facts of the case. Each side will be prepared to disclose the applicable statutes, citations, and legal and factual claims relied on as a basis for imposing liability or establishing a defense.

3. All medical examinations, depositions, and interrogatories shall be completed and transcribed before the date set for the pretrial hearing.

4. Immediately before pretrial, the attorneys will confer with their clients to determine the extent of their authority to stipulate to facts, to limit or define issues, and to effect a settlement.

5. Counsel will advise the court of any visual aids to be utilized and will bring to pretrial all exhibits then in existence which they intend to introduce at the trial, including models, charts, maps, plats, photographs, correspondence, contracts, documents, bills, x-rays or interpretations thereof, and hospital records or authority permitting the other party to examine the hospital and x-ray records unless privilege is asserted. Such exhibits shall be marked at pretrial, and so far as possible the court will pass on their foundation and admissibility. All maps, charts, and drawings must be of adequate size and accurate, drawn to scale, with North designated at the top.

6. Motions for consolidation, for separate trials, or for amended pleadings, particularly prayers for relief, will be entertained at pretrial, provided they do not involve a delay in reaching trial.

7. Counsel and court may consider whether trial shall be with or without a jury, the number of jurors, whether special or general verdicts or interrogatories will be requested, the possibility of removal to Municipal Court, the order of trial where there is a multiplicity of parties, whether a view of the scene will be requested, and any other special problems which may be anticipated.

8. Where necessary because of nonresident witnesses or a multiplicity of parties, the court may fix a day certain for trial.

9. Pursuant to Paragraph 4 hereof, plaintiff will specify at pretrial the amount of his demand, and defendant will specify the amount, if any, of his offer.

II. Specific Data

Each attorney will have available at pretrial the following information:

1. In motor vehicle cases, the make, title, movement and direction of all cars, the status of traffic controls, the width of streets, the time of the accident, the weather and highway conditions.

2. The names, addresses and occupations of clients and their witnesses, and a summary of the testimony of each. Counsel will state whether or not there is to be any comment to the jury with respect to absent witnesses.

3. The names and addresses of any lawyers in the case not appearing of record.

4. The names of any parties under disability not properly represented.

5. Names and addresses of insurance carriers, and their interest in the case. Counsel will disclose any questions of coverage.

6. The title, venue, and file number of any other pending actions arising out of the same accident or event.

PROCEDURE FOR CHAMBERS AND SPECIAL TERM MATTERS

Effective January 6, 1964

The District Judges of Ramsey County hereby prescribe, effective January 6, 1964, the following procedure for the handling of Chambers and Special Term matters. Two Judges will be assigned to Chambers and Special Term matters, one who will be designated as the Domestic Relations Judge and the other as the Chambers Judge.

There are assigned to the Domestic Relations Judge the following:

1. Instruct, excuse and defer petit jurors.
2. Hear default divorce and separate maintenance cases.
3. Hear motions for temporary relief, amended orders, and contempt in domestic relations cases.
4. Hear motions in domestic relations reciprocity cases.

There are assigned to the Chambers Judge the following:

1. All matters now in Chambers, except those listed for the Domestic Relations Judge and except minor withdrawals.
2. Criminal arraignments and motions.
3. Instruct, excuse, defer and receive reports from grand jurors.
4. Extradition matters.
5. Pretrial conferences under Rule 16, M.R.C.P.
6. All uncontested trust matters.

Minors' funds withdrawals are assigned to the Juvenile Court Judge. Motions for new trials and related motions and receivership and reference matters will continue to be heard by the original Judge or his successor in office, pre-scheduled by him as at present.

The foregoing procedure was adopted after consultation with a joint committee of the Bench and Bar which had spent much time and effort to improve the present situation respecting chambers, special term, etc., by having two judges instead of one assigned thereto. It is very important that all persons concerned in, and all telephone calls relating to chambers and special term matters, uncontested divorce trials, and pretrial conferences be directed to the chambers clerk at the place and telephone number stated in the list of assignment clerks.

STATEMENT OF POLICY BY DISTRICT JUDGES OF RAMSEY COUNTY PERTAINING TO CALENDAR MATTERS

We have been experiencing a variety of problems in connection with the assignment of cases for trial. To avoid any misunderstandings and to advise all counsel who have cases on any calendar, a statement of policy and the procedure being followed appears advisable. Probably most of the problems have been experienced in connection with the civil jury calendar, but this statement applies equally to non-jury and criminal cases.

Cases on the civil jury calendar and the civil non-jury calendar are set for trial in the order in which notes of issue are filed. During the past few years we have had a written civil jury calendar call. This procedure, while entailing more work in the Clerk's office, avoided the situation where the appearance of from one hundred to two hundred counsel were required on a given day to answer a calendar call. Under the written jury calendar procedure, each lawyer who has a case on such calendar is advised that a specified number of cases, including the file and jury numbers of such cases, are being set for trial. Each lawyer is furnished a card for each case on such calendar in which he appears as counsel, which card is to be returned by counsel to the Clerk's office within ten days. Before signing and returning the card, counsel is to insert on such card certain information as to the trial status of such case. If counsel for plaintiff or one seeking relief does not return the card within ten days, the case is stricken from the calendar. If counsel for defendant does not return the card within ten days, the case is deemed ready for trial as far as he is concerned. When counsel receives notice of such calendar call, it is notice to him that the case is coming on for trial and counsel are advised in the notice of the calendar call to complete their preparations for trial if they have not already done so.

It is the practice of some counsel to delay the filing of any pleadings or other papers required to be filed until the day of or during the trial. When a file is assigned to a judge for trial he has the right to assume that all pertinent papers are in the file. It necessarily takes some time from time of filing with the clerk until the papers reach the file. Hereafter all papers required to be filed should be filed promptly upon notice of the written calendar call. All papers required to be filed should bear the file number of the case.

Our last calendar was Number 27, issued on May 20, 1966; it covered 314 cases and included jury numbers 9743 to 10266 for which the filing dates of the notes of issue were April 1, 1964, to and including June 30, 1964. Upon receipt of a written calendar call a multitude of problems arise, as is evidenced by letters and telephone calls to the civil jury case assignment clerk or to the judge in charge of the calendar, or to both. The problems presented must be viewed in the light of the fact that the particular case has been at issue for approximately two years. It does not appear unreasonable to us to assume that during this two year period there has been adequate and full opportunity to have employed all discovery procedures that are going to be employed, that all adverse medical examinations have been had, that all third party proceedings have been completed, that all amendments to pleadings have been completed and that all other matters, including necessary pre-trial motions, have also been completed. The telephone calls and letters which are received indicate that this is not the case with some counsel. Some of the telephone calls and letters indicate that all discovery has not been completed, that adverse medical examinations have not been had, that all third party proceedings have not been completed, that all pre-trial motions have not been made and that other matters remain to be completed. Since there is a reasonable period of time between notice of the calendar call and the calling of the case for trial, there is a period of time within which such preparations can be completed. So there may be no misunderstanding, it is the obligation of counsel to see that all of these matters are completed, and cases will not be continued to permit counsel to do those things which should have been done earlier.

Some of the telephone calls and letters which have been received convey the impression on the part of some counsel that a case is to be set for trial only at a time when it suits the convenience of counsel or a party or a certain witness. As a result requests for continuance are made because the day set for trial does not suit the convenience of a party, or a witness or an expert witness. It must be assumed that counsel, as a part of his preparation for trial, has been in touch with the party he represents and the witnesses he intends to call. The trial of any case necessarily affects many people and it would be unusual if a time could be found that would suit the convenience of all who may be involved. On the contrary, it is only reasonable to assume that the time of trial will not suit the convenience of all who may be involved. Recognition of this fact should suggest the advisability of taking appropriate depositions, the submission of interrogatories or the taking of depositions upon written interrogatories. In this connection the problem of expert witnesses, particularly medical, should be mentioned.

We are aware of the difficulty that counsel frequently encounter with their medical experts. When a doctor treats a person who is injured as a result of an accident, it seems reasonable to assume that such doctor recognizes that there may be litigation and that it may be necessary for him to testify. Likewise, it seems reasonable to assume that when a doctor undertakes an adverse medical examination that he recognizes that litigation is pending and that it may be necessary for him to testify. The time when it may be necessary to testify cannot always be one that suits the convenience of a particular doctor or doctors. While we wish to cooperate with the medical profession, such cooperation cannot be permitted to proceed to the point where the medical profession is running the calendar as far as personal injury cases are concerned. Some time ago we had a substantial number of cases the trial of which had to be delayed because certain doctors were taking a trip to a foreign country. While plaintiffs' counsel cannot usually determine what doctors will be the attending physician, defendants' counsel presumably have some voice in the selection of a doctor for an adverse examination. To the extent that counsel have some voice in the determination of doctors who eventually will be called as witnesses, it would not appear inappropriate to advise the doctor at the time of selection that he may be called to testify and that plans should accordingly be made. If counsel insist upon using doctors who are too busy to testify or who are out of the country when the case comes on for trial, they will have to get along without them or take their depositions in advance.

Some counsel entertain the view that because he expects to be called out for trial in another court this constitutes a sufficient excuse to postpone the trial of a case in this county. While we have every desire to be cooperative with other courts, all counsel must be aware of the fact that we have a civil jury calendar of cases to be tried that is not of lesser importance than the calendar in another court; as a matter of fact, the congested condition of our civil jury calendar might suggest to counsel the desirability of trying the cases on the calendar here when they come up for trial. There is also an impression on the part of counsel that if they have a day certain setting in another court or having a so-called multiple setting in another court, this automatically excuses them from trial here. As indicated earlier, it is our desire to be cooperative with other courts, but at the same time we cannot permit assignment in other courts to unduly delay our calendar. When counsel initiate litigation or undertake the defense of litigation in this county, they must recognize that such initiation or defense carries with it the obligation to be ready for trial in this county when such case is called for trial. The mere assignment in another court has been held not to be a sufficient reason for continuance. See West v. Hennessey, 63 Minn. 378, 65 N.W. 639, and Adamek v. Plano Manufacturing Co., 64 Minn. 304, 66 N.W. 981.

We have received numerous letters and calls from counsel stating that parties they represent and witnesses they intend to call are in military service. In some instances requests are made to place the case on a military calendar; in other instances requests are made for the continuation of such cases, while in still other instances request is made to strike the case from the calendar to be reinstated when the parties are ready for trial. We have been confronted with instances where a party is in military service and it is apparent that his counsel has no information as to when he went into military service, where he presently is and when he is expected to be released. In some instances the fact of military service of a party or a witness is only ascertained after the case has been sent out for trial.

It is our policy that no assignment of cases be made for trial which in any way would hamper or impede the activity of our armed forces. At the same time, it must be recognized that a non-military party to litigation should not be unduly delayed or deprived of the opportunity to proceed with the case which he has instituted or which he is defending simply because another party is now in military service.

We have no so-called "military calendar" at the present time. We are not unmindful of the requirements of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act. The following suggestions are made to assist in solving the questions arising out of situations where a party is in military service.

Where the party serviceman is in this country there should be exhausted all means to obtain an emergency military leave for the purposes of the trial of the particular case. The assignment clerk will endeavor to set the case for a day certain if it is definitely ascertained that such emergency leave will be granted.

Persons in military service generally receive a furlough or leave at stated times, which is generally known in advance. The assignment clerk will endeavor to set the case for a day certain during such leave or furlough if advised concerning the situation.

The use of depositions should be more freely made for parties and witnesses who are now available but may not be available at the time of trial. The fact that such party is or is apt to be in military service would make this seem most desirable. In addition to depositions, interrogatories, depositions on written interrogatories and other pre-trial devices should be employed where feasible.

If you represent a party who is in or apt to be called for military service, it would appear to be essential that you keep in touch with such party and have currently the information as to where he can be located. We recognize that the fact of military service may make impossible the trial of certain cases when they are reached for trial. Such cases can be kept to a desirable minimum if counsel will be diligent to avoid the situation where it was just ascertained that his client was in military service. Where it is impossible to try a case because of military service, the most satisfactory method is to secure a stipulation of counsel to this effect together with agreement that the case is to be stricken from the calendar and is to be reinstated when counsel all agree that the case is ready for trial. Where counsel on the other side will not agree to this method, appropriate motions should be made before the judge in chambers.

From time to time cases on our civil jury calendar come to our attention that are within the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court. Where that fact appears such cases will be forthwith transferred to the St. Paul Municipal Court for trial. It has also come to our attention that there are certain cases on our civil jury calendar where the amount demanded in the complaint puts the case beyond the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court but based upon the facts and the special damages the total amount to be reasonably recovered is well within the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court. The St. Paul Municipal Court is relatively current in the trial of civil jury cases. Counsel who file such cases in district court are delaying not only the trial of their own cases but the trial of other cases that properly belong on the civil jury calendar in the district court. The jurisdiction as to amount of the St. Paul Municipal Court was increased to $5000.00 by the 1965 Legislature and the jurisdiction was otherwise extended. (See Laws 1965, Chap. 695) It is apparent that some counsel are not taking advantage of the opportunity to have an early disposition of their cases by initiating them in Municipal Court. While we are studying possible procedures that will eliminate such cases from the civil jury calendar of the district court, counsel initiating such cases can do much to eliminate such cases from appearing on the civil jury calendar in district court.

Cases appear on our civil jury calendar where it is apparent that Ramsey County is not the proper county for venue, and yet no motion is made for a change of venue. While we recognize that we have jurisdiction in such cases, we are unaware of any logical basis upon which there can be justified the resulting unnecessary expense to Ramsey County. In view of the present status of our civil jury calendar, when the fact of improper venue exists such cases may be dismissed without prejudice or upon agreement of counsel will be transferred to the county of proper venue.

Cases also appear on our civil jury calendar where some but not all who could institute suit as plaintiffs have not instituted suit. The typical situation is an action by a wife for personal injuries where her husband does not appear as plaintiff in that case or in any other case. Counsel for the wife usually frankly admit that the case for the husband has not been abandoned and that it is contemplated suit will be started for the husband after the wife's case is disposed of. We are of the opinion that Rule 19 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure does not contemplate any such piecemeal litigation nor that our present civil jury calendar permits the luxury or convenience of any such staggered litigation. Consequently, such cases will be stricken from the calendar until such time as the companion case or cases are ready for trial and the cases will then be consolidated for trial.

There are from time to time requests for the advancement of cases on the civil jury calendar. As has been heretofore set forth, we make every effort to try cases in the order in which the notes of issue are filed. To single out any individual case or cases for advancement is to delay those cases where the notes of issue were filed earlier. To properly determine the impact of such advancement would require the examination of all cases where the note of issue was filed earlier, which examination is not feasible. The health, age or economic distress of the parties whose notes of issue were filed earlier may be as great as that of the one who seeks advancement. It must be apparent that motions for advancement will, if at all, be granted sparingly and that the grounds and reasons for the requested advancement are extraordinary and most compelling. Do not be surprised if your motion for advancement is denied. This does not, of course, apply to criminal cases and those where advancement is required by statute.

Unless and until there are substantial and material changes, no changes are contemplated with respect to the scheduling of non-jury cases for trial except that the foregoing, so far as it is applicable, applies to non-jury cases.

We have been and are concerned with the relatively large number of criminal cases and criminal appeals that appear on the calendar. To prevent any undue delay and in order to keep this calendar as current as reasonably possible, a sufficient number of judges are assigned each week to hear criminal cases and criminal appeals. This assignment of judges to hear criminal cases and criminal appeals has not permitted the assignment of as many judges as is desired and is necessary for civil jury cases. Under present required procedures it takes more time to process a criminal case than heretofore and pre-trial motions for suppression and other relief are first heard by the judge to whom the case is assigned. Criminal cases are required to be given a certain trial preference (M.S.A. 630.36), and the settling of criminal cases for trial is the duty of the Court. (See State v. Hartman, 272 Minn. 58, 136 N.W.2d 543). When the State undertakes the prosecution by the filing of an information or indictment it is presumed that the State is ready for such motions as may be made and is also ready for trial. The defendant will, of course, be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make such motions as he desires and a reasonable time to get ready for trial (M.S.A. 630.36 gives a defendant at least four days after plea). Counsel in criminal cases are advised that any undue delay in the trial of criminal cases, particularly when the defendant is in custody, will not be tolerated.

The foregoing statement of policy with regard to calendar matters was approved by the Judges of the District Court of Ramsey County at St. Paul, Minnesota, on June 14, 1966.

RULE 23

Upon that calendar shall be placed the default Torrens cases which have heretofore been noted upon the Torrens Calendar and the default title cases which have heretofore been placed upon the General Term Calendar. Cases placed upon the Land Title Calendar shall be heard each Tuesday by the Examiner of Titles or Deputy Examiner as Referee, and the Judge in Chambers shall from time to time enter upon said calendar appropriate orders of reference referring said cases to said referees for hearing.

RULE 24

REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLE RULES

(a) Cases in which the Registrar may act without Special order of the Court. In the following cases the special order of the court need not be required unless it shall be requested by the registrar or examiner:

(b) Registration of a receipt of county treasurer or certificate of county auditor, showing redemption from or cancellation of any tax sale described in a certificate of title; a marriage certificate showing marriage of any owner of an interest in or incumbrance upon real property, subsequent to registration of such interest or incumbrance; a certified copy of the record of the death of a party listed in any certificate of title as being the spouse of the registered owner, when accompanied by an affidavit satisfactory to the registrar, identifying the decedent with said spouse; and in all subsequent dealings with the land covered by certificates upon which said instruments are registered, the registrar shall give full faith to the memorials thereof.

(c) In the case of certificate of title outstanding to two or more owners as joint tenants, upon the filing for registration of such a certificate of death and affidavit of identity as hereinbefore described, and upon the surrender of the owner's duplicate certificate of title, the registrar shall issue a new certificate of title for the premises to the survivor in severalty or to the survivors in joint tenancy, as the case may be.

(d) When instruments affecting registered land have been recorded in the office of any Register of Deeds in this State, including the office of the Register of Deeds of this county, a certified copy thereof may be filed for registration and registered with like effect as the original instrument.

(e) When the interest of a life tenant has been terminated by death, the Registrar may receive and enter a memorial of a duly certified copy of the official death certificate and an affidavit of identity of the decedent with the life tenant named in the certificate of title; and in such case the memorial of said certificate and affidavit shall be treated as evidence of the discharge of said life tenant.

(f) Practice in relation to the state tax deeds. Excepting those cases where a certificate of title is outstanding in favor of State of Minnesota, whenever a deed from the State of Minnesota in favor of the registered owner is offered for registration, it shall be registered as a memorial upon the certificate of title as evidence of discharge of any claim of title by the State evidenced by the prior memorial of an Auditor's Certificate of forfeiture to the State; and the same practice shall be followed in those cases where subsequent to or concurrent with a repurchase from the State by the registered owner, the latter shall have conveyed either by Quitclaim Deed or Warranty Deed the affected premises and the deed from the State in favor of said registered owner is dated subsequent to the date of conveyance of said registered owner or subsequent to the entry of certificate in favor of the registered owner's grantee, in which case the fact that the repurchase from the State was concurrent with or prior to the date of the deed by the registered owner making such purchase shall be evidenced by an endorsement to that effect upon the State Deed made by the County Auditor, one of his deputies or the County Land Commissioner.

(g) Amendment to Rule 16 of District Court Rules. Rule 16 in the Minnesota District Court rules pertaining to registration of land titles is amended as to proceedings in Hennepin county by omission of the provision that petitions for a new duplicate certificate shall show by a receipt of the registrar of titles endorsed thereon that duplicate of the petition has been delivered to him.

(h) Deeds From Federal Housing Administrator. In the registration of deeds or other instruments hereinafter listed for titles or interests registered in the name of an individual as Federal Housing Administrator, the registrar of titles shall be guided by Section 204 (g) of the National Housing Act as amended by the act of June 3, 1939, which confers upon any assistant administrator the power to convey and to execute in the name of the administrator deeds of conveyance, deeds of release, assignments of mortgages, satisfactions of mortgages, and any other written instrument relating to real property or any interest therein which has been acquired by the administrator; and that the registrar of titles shall accept the statement of the certificate of acknowledgment attached to any such instrument as evidence of the official character of the administrator or the assistant administrator executing the instrument.

(i) The Registrar of Titles is authorized to receive for registration of memorials upon any outstanding certificate of title an official birth certificate pertaining to a registered owner named in said certificate of title showing the date of birth of said registered owner, providing there is attached to said birth certificate an affidavit of an affiant who claims therein to be familiar with the facts recited, stating that the party named in said birth certificate is the same party as one of the owners named in said certificate of title; and that thereafter the Registrar of Titles shall treat said registered owner as having attained the age of majority at a date 21 years after the date of birth shown by said certificate.

(j) The Registrar of Titles may receive official certificates of death issued by the War Department, Navy Department and every military department of the United States Government in lieu of a certificate of death.

(k) Practice in relation to apartment ownership act, order required. When an owner of registered land desires to submit his land to the provisions of Chapter 457, Laws of 1963, known as the Apartment Ownership Act, he shall deliver his organizing documents to the Registrar of Titles and at the same time file with the Clerk of the District Court a Petition in Proceedings Subsequent to Initial Registration of Land for such purpose. The Petition shall request of the Court that the instruments so submitted be accepted for filing by the Registrar and that the Court issue its Order determining that the documents comply with the requirements of said Act, and that thereafter the land shall become subject to the provisions, restrictions, and conditions, and be administered in accordance with said Chapter, and any amendments. The Court shall thereupon refer the Petition and the organizing documents so submitted to the Examiner of Titles for a report as to whether the documents are legally sufficient to comply with the requirements of said Act, and any amendments. The documents so submitted shall include the Declaration containing the requirements set forth under M.S. Sec. 515.11, the By-Laws or Amendment or Amendments thereto under M.S. Sec. 515.18 and Sec. 515.19, and the Floor Plans under M.S. Sec. 515.13, together with any other instruments said owner desires to submit for the purpose intended. If the Examiner's report to the Court shows said organizing instruments satisfy the requirements of said Chapter and any amendments, and that the land and the documents in all respects are acceptable and qualify for administration in accordance with the provisions of said Act, the Court shall issue its Order adjudicating that such documents do comply with the requirements of said Chapter 457 and any amendments, and that the land (here describing the same together with the Certificate or Certificates of Title under which it is registered) shall thereafter be deemed to be governed and administered under the provisions of said Chapter and any amendments. Said Order shall direct the Registrar to accept and file the necessary organizing documents, to enter such instruments as memorials on the described Certificate or Certificates, and thereafter show such memorials on each Certificate of Title subsequently issued relating to any part of the property or parcels thereof governed by said Chapter, or any amendments thereto.

RESOLUTION

1. That the procedure for submitting land already registered to the provisions of the chapter shall be by way of a Proceeding Subsequent wherein the organizing documents, when found to be legally sufficient, shall be adjudicated to comply with the requirements of the chapter and acceptable for filing.

2. That organizing documents requisite for such adjudication include the declaration (M.S. 515.11), the by-laws or amendments thereto (M.S. 515.18 and 19), and the floor plans (M.S. 515.13).

3. That any order so procured, when found by the Examiner proper to do so, shall direct the Registrar of Titles to file and register the documents and enter them as memorials on the Certificate of Title of the land submitted for operation under the Act.

4. That fees to be charged by the Registrar of Titles for the filing of documents under the Apartment Ownership Act shall include the following:

a. For filing the Declaration and entering the memorial thereof, amendment thereto and memorial, by-laws and amendment — $2 each.

b. For filing two copies of the Floor Plans and entering the memorial thereof — $10.

5. That the Examiner of Titles be directed to deliver to the Registrar of Titles a letter proposed by him as further guides to the Registrar in the handling of condominium property.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE FOR ADMINISTRATION OF THE APARTMENT OWNERSHIP ACT

These instructions and suggestions are outlined as follows:

1. The declaration or any amendments to the declaration, to be recordable in the office of the Register of Deeds or filed in the office of the Registrar of Title must be executed and acknowledged and embrace land within the county. Such documents must be properly witnessed, like in the case of most documents to be recorded or registered.

2. A copy of the floor plans must be filed simultaneously with the declaration.

3. While the act does not specify any required size or quality of paper to be used for the floor plans or the number of copies to be filed, it is suggested that in order to have uniformity in the recording offices and to protect the interests of the public generally, the general requirements of M.S. Section 505.08 as to the platting of land, should be followed, such as:

a. Two standard sizes of paper are to be used, either 20 x 30 inches or 30 x 40 inches from outer edge to outer edge.

b. The original and one or more identical copies of each floor plan should be prepared in black on white mat surface photographic card stock with double cloth back mounting or material of equal quality. One exact transparent reproducible copy of the original shall be prepared by reproduction on linen tracing cloth by a photographic process, or the original traced in black ink on linen tracing cloth, or on material of equal quality.

4. The floor plans are to be numbered serially and it is suggested that the numbers run consecutively within the Torrens office and the Abstract office with each one designated as an "Apartment Ownership Number ....." with the name of the building, if any, and each must contain a reference to the book, page and date of recording or registering of the declaration or amendments thereto.

5. The law requires that the recording officer shall maintain an index or indices whereby the record of each declaration shall contain a reference to the record of each conveyance of an apartment affected by such declaration, and it is suggested that the Tract Index books be modified to carry a section as to "Apartment Ownership Number ....." with a breakdown as to the number of individual apartments or units contained therein and that the Tract Index book contain a reference to the file number of the floor plans in reference to the declaration of the building of which such apartments or units are a part.

6. The floor plans should be kept in a separate book, similar to plat books, designated "Apartment Ownership Number ....." and each must contain a reference as to the book, page and date of recording or registration of the declaration.

7. Where registered land is to be submitted for administration under said act, the applicant, at the time of filing his organizing documents shall obtain an Order of the Court in a Proceeding Subsequent to Initial Registration of Land that the Declaration, any amendments thereto, the By-Laws and the Floor Plans, as submitted, comply with the various requirements of the Act, and any amendments thereto. The Order shall direct the Registrar of Titles to accept such documents for registration and to enter them as separate memorials on the Original Certificate of Title and on the Owner's Duplicate Certificate thereof. Such memorials should be carried forward to each succeeding Certificate, including any Mortgagee's or Lessee's Duplicate Certificate, so that at all times the parties dealing with such Certificate will know that the parcel of land described therein is subject to the restrictions, conditions and provisions of the Apartment Ownership Act.

8. Where the organizing documents embrace registered land for administration under such Act, the subject land should not include both registered land and unregistered land, but should consist only of land that is all registered under the Torrens Act.

9. Filing fees to be charged by the Registrar of Titles, are those determined by statute or rule of Court. A Rule of Court has been made, setting the filing fees for documents registered in the office of the Registrar of Titles as follows:

(1) For filing the Declaration, and entering a memorial thereof, Amendment thereto and memorial thereof, By-Laws and memorial thereof, and any other instrument incidental to the administration of said Act other than the Floor Plans and other documents for which fees otherwise have been set, the sum of $2.00 each.

(2) For filing two copies of the Floor Plans and entering a memorial thereof, the sum of $10.00.

The original Apartment Ownership Act, Chapter 743, L.1963, and the 1965 amendment thereto, Chapter 602, L.1965 do not prescribe many details as to the size, and kind of paper to be used for the organizing documents involved, the method of numbering and indexing by the recording officer of such documents, and other administrative details essential for the orderly handling and servicing of the instruments described in the various sections of the law. Such details apparently are left to the public officials to formulate and adopt.

The foregoing rules and suggestions adopted through the joint cooperation of the County Attorney, the Examiner of Titles, the Register of Deeds and the Registrar of Titles are deemed sufficiently clear and workable for the administration of the law until some other manner or method of practice is to be determined by the legislature, or by additional rule and decision of the courts.

RULE 25

NOTICE TO ASSIGNMENT CLERK OF BRINGING IN ADDITIONAL PARTIES. A moving party in third party proceedings shall in addition to complying with Rule 29 notify the assignment clerk of the names of the additional parties and their attorneys, if any, and such information shall be transmitted in writing to the assignment clerk immediately after a responsive pleading has been served or default has occurred.

A lien claimant filing an answer in a Mechanics Lien action or made a party thereto by consolidation or otherwise shall forthwith notify the assignment clerk in writing of his and his attorney's name and address, transmitting therewith a copy of any order of court making him a party.

Otherwise, such person shall serve his or her full time as imposed by the Court. In the event that any person is committed to either the Minneapolis City Workhouse or the Minneapolis Women's Detention Home and is thereafter placed on probation, if such person is thereafter re-committed because of violation of the terms thereof, such person shall not be entitled to credit for good behavior as hereinbefore set forth and shall serve his or her full time as imposed by the court.

RULE 27

STATEMENT OF POLICY ADOPTED BY THE JUDGES OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

It is obvious to the bench and bar, as well as to the public, that court calendar congestion continues to be a problem in metropolitan areas.

The Bench recognizes that changes are not necessarily improvements, but improvements can come only through experimentation.

In an effort to alleviate the problem, the Court has this day adopted certain Rules changes effective February 1, 1968.

The Court has also determined to undertake an experiment with the so-called block assignment of cases.

Beginning February 1, 1968, a block of cases will be assigned to each of the Judges on general duty. Each Judge will handle his block of cases in whatever manner seems most appropriate to him. At the beginning of this experiment, counsel will be notified that a given case has been assigned to a particular Judge. After assignment of a case to a Judge, that Judge will hear all subsequent motions and proceedings relating to the case. Counsel will be allowed 10 days during which to file an Affidavit of Prejudice, after notification of assignment of a case to a Judge.

The Certificate of Readiness will be made more meaningful by requiring that pre-trial statements be filed concurrently with the certificate and that no pre-trial discovery procedures or motions be thereafter instituted.

It will be observed that uniform mandatory pre-trial is no longer required by the Rules. The intent of the experimental block system is to allow each Judge to utilize such procedures as he deems appropriate. Where a pre-trial conference is held, trial should commence as soon after the conference as possible.

It shall be the policy of this Court to encourage the use of Juries of six. This policy is to be implemented by the individual Judge and by the Judge who instructs the new Jury panels reporting each Monday.

Some counsel entertain the view that because they expect to be called out for trial in another court this constitutes a sufficient excuse to postpone the trial of a case in this county. While we have every desire to be cooperative with other courts, all counsel must be aware of the fact that we have a civil-jury calendar of cases to be tried that is not of lesser importance than the calendar in another court; as a matter of fact, the congested condition of our civil-jury calendar must suggest to counsel the desirability of trying the cases on the calendar here when they come up for trial. There may also be an impression on the part of some counsel that if they have a day certain setting in another court or have a so-called multiple setting in another court, this automatically excuses them from trial here. Again, it is our desire to be cooperative with other courts, but at the same time we cannot permit assignment in other courts to unduly delay our calendar. When counsel initiate litigation or undertake the defense of litigation in this county, they must recognize that such initiation or defense carries with it the obligation to be ready for trial in this county when the case is called for trial. The mere assignment in another court has been held not to be a sufficient reason for continuance. See West v. Hennessey, 63 Minn. 378, 65 N.W. 639, and Adamek v. Plano Manufacturing Co., 64 Minn. 304, 66 N.W. 981.

We are aware of the difficulty that counsel frequently encounter with their medical experts. When a doctor treats a person who is injured as a result of an accident, it seems reasonable to assume that such doctor recognizes that there may be litigation and that it may be necessary for him to testify. Likewise, it seems reasonable to assume, when a doctor undertakes an adverse medical examination, that he recognizes that litigation is pending and that it may be necessary for him to testify. The time when it may be necessary to testify cannot always be one that suits the convenience of a particular doctor or doctors. While we wish to cooperate with the medical profession, our primary function and objective is to dispose of cases in an orderly and expeditious manner. In cases where the doctor is the treating physician, he is aware he may be called to testify. To the extent that counsel have some voice in the determination of doctors who eventually will be called as witnesses, it would not appear inappropriate to advise the doctor at the time of selection that he may be called to testify and that plans should accordingly be made. If counsel insist upon using doctors who are too busy to testify or who are out of the country when the case comes on for trial, they will have to get along without them or take their depositions in advance.

We have been and are concerned with the relatively large number of criminal matters that appear on the calendar. To prevent any undue delay and in order to keep this calendar as current as reasonably possible, a sufficient number of judges is assigned to hear criminal matters. This assignment of judges to hear criminal matters has not permitted the assignment of as many judges as is desired and is necessary for civil jury cases. Under present required procedures it takes more time to process a criminal case than heretofore and pre-trial motions for suppression and other relief are heard first. Criminal cases are required to be given a certain trial preference (M.S.A. 630.36), and the settling of criminal cases for trial is the duty of the Court. See State v. Hartman, 272 Minn. 58 136 N.W. (2d) 543. When the State undertakes the prosecution by the filing of an information or indictment it is presumed that the State is ready for such motions as may be made and is also ready for trial. The defendant will, of course, be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make such motions as he desires and a reasonable time to get ready for trial (M.S.A. 630.36 gives a defendant at least four days after plea). Counsel in criminal cases are advised that any undue delay in the trial of criminal cases, particularly when the defendant is in custody, will not be tolerated.

In the Rule changes we have made, and in our decision to experiment with the individual or block assignment of cases, we have had one question constantly in mind: Are the proposed procedures designed to achieve a speedy determination in behalf of the litigant or for the convenience of Court and counsel?

And in the steps we have taken, we have had constantly in mind the words of Mr. Justice Black, in Order Adopting Revised Rules, 346 U.S. 945, 946 (1954):

"The principal function of procedural Rules should be to serve as useful guides to help, not hinder, persons who have a legal right to bring their problems before the Courts."

The foregoing statement of policy with regard to calendar matters was approved by the Judges of the District Court of Hennepin County at Minneapolis, Minnesota, on December 8, 1967.

RULE 9

PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE. On the filing of note of issue or a certificate of readiness in any action, the party filing the same may note a request for a pre-trial conference, whereupon the Clerk of Court, in making up the calendar of actions for trial, will note on the calendar, "Pre-trial conference requested." If such pre-trial is not requested, any other party may, at the call of the calendar, request pre-trial conference. If pre-trial conference is requested, the presiding Judge shall, at the call of the calendar, fix a time and place for such pre-trial conference. The presiding Judge at a general term, or the Judge to whom a case is assigned for trial, may, upon his own motion, order that a pre-trial conference be had. No civil case on the General Term Calendar shall be continued by consent of counsel only, or otherwise than by order of the Court for cause shown. When a case has appeared on a General Term calendar at three consecutive terms of the Court without being tried or disposed of, the same shall be stricken unless at the said third General Term good cause shall be shown in writing and presented to the presiding Judge at the term why the same should be continued on the calendar.

RULE 11

The clerk shall also assign to each Trial Court a deputy clerk who shall be in constant attendance during the sessions of the Court, and whose first duty shall be the clerical details of and pertaining to the trial work.

Each case shall be assigned for trial in accordance with the regular order of setting to the first Judge who is ready for a new case. Such assignments shall be maintained and the cases tried in such order and before such Judge unless affidavit of prejudice is filed in accordance with the statutes against such Judge, in which event the case shall be assigned to the next available Judge.

If any Judge shall feel for personal reasons or

RULE 12

RULE 13

READY CALENDAR. There shall be established, in addition to the regular calendar, a trial calendar called the Ready Calendar. No case shall go on the Ready Calendar until a Certificate of Readiness is filed. 2. That the case is ready for trial in all respects.
3. That the necessary use of discovery procedures has been completed and desired depositions taken and interrogatories concluded by the undersigned.
4. That personal injuries, if any, have stabilized.
5. That settlement of the case has been discussed, and that good-faith efforts to settle the same have been exhausted.
6. That prior to the filing of this certificate on the ..... day of ....., 19....., a copy of the same was served on counsel for each adverse party.
7. That all amendments to pleadings have been made.

Unless an adverse party files a motion to stay the placing of the case on the Ready Calendar within ten days from the date of the service of the Certificate of Readiness, such adverse party is deemed to have joined therein. Thereafter, no further discovery procedures should be allowed. The filing of this Certificate when a party is not ready for trial or the failure of the adverse party to make timely motion where grounds exist for the stay shall subject counsel to sanctions.

The case shall be placed on the Ready Calendar after fifteen days from the date of the service thereof; however, if all counsel have joined in the Certificate, the case will be placed on the Ready Calendar immediately unless a motion objecting thereto is filed by an adverse party.

If there is a motion to stay the placing of the case on the Ready Calendar by an adverse party, it shall be brought on for hearing before the presiding Judge, and said motion must be made so that the time for hearing is within 15 days of the service of the Certificate of Readiness.

All cases on the Ready Calendar will be subject to call for trial on two-weeks, preliminary notice and on forty-eight hours telephone notice. The established policy of assignment of cases will be in the order, as nearly as possible, as they appear on the Readiness Calendar.

Approximately every sixty days, the clerk's office shall mimeograph a list of cases that are on the Ready Calendar.

A copy of such Ready Calendar shall be posted in the office of the assignment clerk, showing the current position of all cases on the calendar, so that lawyers can see where their case appears numerically on the Ready Calendar and can plan their schedules accordingly.

The assignment clerk will have trial post cards and, at least two weeks in advance of the date the case is expected to be reached for trial, will notify the attorneys by such cards.

The assignment clerk will assign sufficient cases for each Trial Judge available. Such assignment of cases shall be made forty-eight hours before the trial date and notice thereof given by telephone.

Any request for continuance shall be presented to the presiding Judge and shall not be granted by him except for good cause shown. Good cause shall include causes not certified to in the Certificate of Readiness, such as sickness of party, counsel, etc.

The assignment clerk, in making the telephone assignment of a case and alternate cases, will accept no excuses for a change of his telephone assignment, except prior assignment for trial within the Sixth Judicial District for that date.

Attorneys shall not enter appearances in cases in any county in which their principal office is located unless they are prepared to have trial counsel available to proceed immediately upon the case being reached.

Lawyers who have cases on the Federal term shall notify the assignment clerk of that fact, and the name of such case or cases together with their tentative trial dates, and the assignment clerk shall, to the extent possible, make such assignments from the Ready Calendar so as to avoid conflicts between both Courts.

A case stricken from any calendar may be returned to the calendar only by the filing of a new note of issue and a Readiness Certificate.

5.07 Term Trial Docket. Space shall be provided in a part of the calendar which shall be entitled "Term Trial Docket" and which will permit the court officers and attorneys at the preliminary call or thereafter to enter and set forth in their respective copies of the calendar the cases appearing in the various sections having issues to be tried at the term as the same may be set for trial by order or rule of court. Such space shall provide three columns which shall be entitled substantially as follows:

TERM TRIAL DOCKET

| Calendar Number | Position or Day Certain | Abbreviated Title of Case and Memorandum |
|                 |                         |  |

5.08 Numbering of Cases in Calendar. The clerk shall give to each case entered in the civil cases section, the criminal cases section and the quasi-criminal cases section a calendar number, numbering the cases consecutively in the order they appear in each of said sections beginning with Number 1. To avoid confusion the number given a case in the criminal cases section shall be prefixed by the abbreviation "Cr." and the number given a case in the quasi-criminal cases section shall be prefixed by the abbreviation "Q.Cr." A case entered in the pretrial conferences section shall retain the calendar number given to it as appears in the civil cases section.

RULE 6

PRETRIAL CONFERENCES UNDER R.C.P. RULE 16.

6.01 To Whom Assigned for Hearing. Unless assigned to be held otherwise a pretrial conference under R.C.P. Rule 16 shall be deemed assigned to be held and heard by the trial judge in the case.

6.02 Motion for Conference. Upon notice given in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 16 a party may move the court before the opening day of the general term during which a case is to be tried or when his case is called at the preliminary call on that day for an order directing the attorneys for the parties and any party not represented by attorney to appear before it for a conference at such time and place as may be designated by the court. When the motion is noticed to be made at the preliminary call, the parties should anticipate that if the motion is granted the court may direct the conference to be held at a time designated in the afternoon of the opening day of the term or, if necessary, on a day following in the same week.

6.03 Order for Conference. An order in writing directing a conference under R.C.P. Rule 16 may be made at any time by a judge, and may be made by the clerk under the authority of the court in a case appearing in the pretrial conferences section of the calendar when directed to do so by the judge who is to hold the conference. A copy of such written order shall be mailed to the attorneys and parties, if any, directed to appear at the conference, at least five days before the time designated for the conference. The judge presiding at the preliminary call on the opening day of a general term may direct such a conference in any action properly on the calendar by an oral order made in open court and entered in the minutes of the court.

6.04 Attendance at Conference. A party not represented by attorney who has been directed to appear for a conference shall personally appear therefor before the court at the time and place designated. A party whose attorney has been directed to appear for a conference shall cause such attorney (preferably the attorney who will try the case in his behalf) to appear therefor before the court at the time and place designated and the party shall vest the attorney so appearing with full authority of a trial attorney to make admissions and disclosures and to enter into agreements and stipulations with respect to all matters to be considered at the conference within the purview of R.C.P. Rule 16.

6.05 Exhibits. A party or his attorney when directed to appear for any such conference shall bring with him all exhibits within the custody or control of such party or his attorney which will be offered

In evidence by the party at the trial to the end that all such exhibits may be marked for identification and examined by the adversary at the conference and such party shall disclose at the conference the identity of all exhibits not then in his custody or control, which he intends to offer at the trial. Any exhibit which without good cause a party does not produce to be marked for identification at the conference if it is then in his custody or control, or the identity of which he does not disclose at the conference if it is not in his custody or control, may be denied admission when offered in evidence by such party at the trial, but such exhibit may be admitted in evidence in the discretion of the court to prevent manifest injustice.

6.06 Evidence or Notice of Laws of Another Jurisdiction. If a pretrial conference is held in a case in which evidence would be admissible or judicial notice should be taken of the common law or statutes of a state, territory, or jurisdiction other than Minnesota in accordance with the Uniform Judicial Notice of Foreign Law Act (M.S.A. Sections 599.04 to 599.10) each of the parties shall serve upon the adverse party and present at the conference a written notice specifically setting forth a concise statement of the common law and the particular provisions of the statutes of which he will at the trial offer evidence or request the court to take judicial notice. He shall furnish to the court at the conference citations of the sources and authorities which he contends will support the offer or request.

6.07 Evidence or Notice of Charters, Ordinances, Regulations, etc. If a pretrial conference is held in a case in which evidence would be admissible or judicial notice may be taken of any private act or resolve, of any charter, ordinance or by-law of a municipality, or of any rule, regulation or order of a governmental division or agency, a party intending to offer evidence or request the taking of judicial notice thereof at the trial, shall submit at the pretrial conference the particular provisions or which he will offer evidence or request the taking of judicial notice together with sufficient information to enable the court to properly pass upon the offer or request.

6.08 Judicial Notice of Other Matters. If a pretrial conference is held in a case in which a party intends to request that the court take judicial notice at the trial of specific facts which he contends to be so notorious as not to be the subject of reasonable dispute, or specific facts or propositions of generalized knowledge which he contends are capable of immediate and accurate determination by resort to easily accessible sources of indisputable accuracy, he shall at the pretrial conference submit to the court his request in writing setting forth such specific facts or propositions and furnish information which he contends to be sufficient to enable the court to comply with the request.

6.09 Certificate of Readiness. In lieu of holding a pretrial conference in any case which appears in the pretrial conferences section of the calendar or wherein such a conference has been ordered, the trial judge may accept and cause to be filed a certificate of readiness in such form as he may approve, signed by the attorneys representing the parties.

RULE 7

CALLS OF CALENDAR — TERM TRIAL DOCKET.

7.01 Two Calls, Preliminary and Peremptory. There shall be two calls of the calendar of a general term of court, a preliminary call and a peremptory call.

7.02 Preliminary Call. The preliminary call of the cases upon the calendar shall be made, unless otherwise ordered, commencing at 10:00 A.M. on the opening day of a general term of court. The judge presiding, or under his direction, the clerk shall then call each case in the order appearing in the civil cases section, the criminal cases section, and the quasi-criminal cases section of the calendar. As each case is called the judge may hear and determine or set for later hearing and determination any motion of a party with respect to the case which may properly then be made. At the preliminary call with respect to the cases upon the calendar the court upon its own motion or upon motion of a party may determine or set for later hearing and determination whether or not a case is properly upon the calendar, whether or not a case is to be tried at the term, whether or not there are issues in a case to be tried by jury, the form of any question to be submitted to a jury, whether or not two or more civil cases are to be consolidated or issues therein jointly tried, whether or not claims or issues in a civil case are to be separately tried, whether or not the parties in a civil case or their attorneys shall be directed to appear for a pretrial conference and if so the time and place thereof, whether or not there should be a reference in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 53, the order in which the cases to be tried at the term shall be heard, the day upon which any case set for a day certain shall be called for trial and the court may make orders pursuant to R.C.P. Rules 14.03, 39.02, 40, 41.02 (1), 42, and 53.

7.03 Appearances in Criminal and Quasi-Criminal Cases. A defendant in a criminal case, a quasi-criminal case or a case charging a violation of an ordinance who is not in custody awaiting trial of the case, unless excused from so doing by the court, shall personally appear with his attorney at the preliminary call, shall thereafter personally appear at the daily court sessions during the term until the disposition of his case, shall not depart from the court without leave, and shall abide the orders and judgments of the court. The attorney for a defendant who is in custody in such a case, shall appear at the preliminary call.

7.04 Appearances, Representations, Motions, Objections, etc. in Civil Cases, at Preliminary Call. The parties and their attorneys will take notice that there are matters of importance pertaining to the cases upon the calendar which must be determined and settled by the court at the preliminary call. It shall be incumbent upon each party in any civil case properly upon the calendar to be represented by attorney, or to personally appear if he does not have an attorney, at the preliminary call. A party in a civil case who has knowledge or who has received notice or information that his case is or is likely to be upon the calendar will be considered to have waived any grounds he may have for a motion to strike the case from the calendar, and the case will be deemed properly upon the calendar. If he does not make such motion when the case is called at the preliminary call. A party in a case properly upon the calendar may be considered to have waived any grounds which he then knows or in the exercise of due diligence he should know for a motion to continue his case, if he does not make the motion when his case is called at the preliminary call. Unless otherwise provided by any rule of court, a party in a civil case to be tried at the term may be considered to have waived any grounds he has to make a motion permitted under R.C.P. Rule 12 which can properly be made at the preliminary call if he does not then make the motion when the case is called. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who has objections to the granting of a motion made at the preliminary call shall present his objections to the court when the motion is made. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who has objections to the action taken or an order made at the preliminary call pertaining to his case within the purview of Rule 7.02 shall present his objections to the court at the preliminary call. The failure of a party to present objections as required by this rule may be deemed a waiver thereof. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who fails to appear or to be represented by attorney at the preliminary call shall be presumed to have had immediate knowledge and notice of all action taken and orders made pertaining to his case at the preliminary call to the same extent as if he had appeared or had been represented by attorney thereat. Notwithstanding any waiver the court may in its discretion permit the making of motions and objections after the preliminary call to prevent manifest injustice, but a mere showing that a party failed to appear or to be represented by attorney at the preliminary call shall not constitute sufficient grounds to relieve a party from the effect of any waiver.

7.05 Term Trial Docket and Setting Cases Thereon. At the preliminary call, after determining the cases in which there are issues to be tried by jury and the cases in which there are issues to be tried by the court without a jury, the court may by order made in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 40 set the cases which are to be tried at the term and thereby constitute the "Term Trial Docket." The term trial docket may consist of two parts, one designated as the "Term Jury Trial Docket" in which will be entered the cases having issues to be tried by jury at the term, and the other designated as the "Term Nonjury Trial Docket" in which will be entered cases having issues to be tried at the term by the court without a jury. The court may fix the order in which the cases upon a term trial docket not set for trial on a day certain will be called for trial and heard, and may fix the day upon which a case set for trial on a day certain will be called for trial. In the event the court does not provide for the order in which the cases to be tried at the term shall be called for trial and heard then, unless otherwise directed, the clerk as soon after the conclusion of the preliminary call of the calendar as practically may be shall list in the minutes of the court under the designation "Term Trial Docket" the cases to be tried at the term in the following order, the cases in each category being listed in the order they appear upon the calendar, to-wit: (1) criminal cases charging commission of a felony where defendant is in custody; (2) criminal cases charging commission of a misdemeanor where defendant is in custody; (3) criminal cases charging commission of a felony where defendant is not in custody; (4) criminal cases charging commission of a misdemeanor where defendant is not in custody; (5) cases charging a violation of an ordinance; (6) quasi-criminal cases; (7) civil cases not set for trial on a day certain in which there are issues to be tried by jury; (8) civil cases ordered by the court to be called for trial on a day certain in which there are issues to be tried by jury; (9) civil cases not set for trial on a day certain in which there are issues of fact to be tried by the court without a jury; (10) civil cases ordered by the court to be called for trial on a day certain in which there are issues of fact to be tried by the court without a jury; and (11) civil cases in which there are issues of law to be tried by the court. When issues in two or more cases are to be jointly tried, the cases shall assume in the order of listing the position of the one of such cases having the lowest calendar number. When the calendar number of cases entered on the term trial docket are bracketed, it shall indicate that such cases are consolidated or will be jointly tried.

7.06 Setting Trial for Day Certain. The request of a party to set a civil case triable by jury so that it will be called for trial on a day certain shall be denied unless a showing is made and the court is satisfied that extraordinary expenses or hardship will result to the party if the case is not so set.

7.07 Certain Motions After Preliminary Call. A motion made after the preliminary call to strike a case from the term trial docket, to reset for trial a case thereon, or to continue a case thereon for a cause which became known after the call will be granted only if it is made promptly, if due notice is given to the adverse party, and if there is sufficient showing of good cause for granting the motion.

7.08 Peremptory Call. The peremptory call, unless otherwise ordered, shall begin at 10:30 A.M. on the day the petit jurors report to begin service at the term and the case then remaining for trial appearing first in the order of listing of the cases upon the term trial docket will be peremptorily called for trial and heard. Thereafter as each case is disposed of by trial or otherwise, the case next in order of listing remaining for trial upon the term trial docket will be peremptorily called and heard. However, the order of the trial of cases upon the term trial docket which were not set to be called for trial on a day certain will be interrupted to permit the trial and hearing of any case which was set to be called for trial on a day certain and such a case will be called for trial, unless otherwise ordered, at 9:30 A.M. on the day designated but if the trial judge is then engaged in hearing a matter previously commenced he shall call the case for trial as soon thereafter as it may be reasonable to do so.

7.09 Anticipating Call of Case, etc. Each party and each attorney who will represent a party at the trial in any case upon the term trial docket shall keep himself informed of the progress of the business of the court and of the disposition of cases set ahead of his case upon the docket and the time when his case is likely to be reached to the end that he may appear and be ready for trial when his case is called. Upon written request the clerk shall mail a copy of the term trial docket, as soon after the opening day of the term as practically may be, to an attorney who has filed with the clerk a pleading or other writing showing him to be attorney of record for a party in such a case. With respect to any case which at the preliminary call was not set for trial on a day certain, such attorney may in a writing to be placed in the files of the case furnish a telephone number and request the clerk to make a station-to-station call to such number and give to the person answering the call a message specifying the time as near as may be foreseen when the case will be called for trial, at least eight hours in advance of such time. The attorney shall assume the responsibility for the transmission to him of such message by the person who receives the telephone call. The clerk shall, however, be relieved from any duty to give such a telephone message if he makes three calls to such number at reasonable intervals during ordinary business hours without obtaining a response.

ATTORNEYS — APPEARANCES OF RECORD, NOTICES TO, FILING OF WRITINGS BY, ETC.

8.01—Filing of Writings and Appearances by Attorneys. At or prior to the appearance of an attorney at any hearing in an action the attorney shall file with the clerk in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 5.04 all affidavits, notices and other papers designed to be used at the hearing and also any pleading he has theretofore served in the action.

8.02 Attorney of Record. An attorney representing a party in an action shall not be entitled to be recognized by the court or clerk as the attorney of record for such party unless he has filed with the clerk in the action a notice of appearance, a notice of substitution of attorney, a pleading for such party, or other writing which establishes him in the files of the action to be such attorney of record. Such attorney may not assume that he will be recognized by the court or clerk as an attorney of record in the action because of recitals or anything else appearing in or upon writings filed by an adverse party.

8.03 Notices by Court or Clerk to Attorney. An attorney for a party in an action shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the clerk pursuant to R.C.P. Rule 77.04 or any other notice in the action from the clerk or court unless he has filed with the clerk in the action a notice of appearance, a notice of substitution of attorney, a pleading for such party, or other writing which establishes him in the files of the action to be attorney of record therein for the party.

8.04 Nonresident Attorney. A person who is a resident of and is admitted to practice as an attorney at law in another state may be permitted, in the discretion of the court and subject to the provisions of M.S.A. Sec. 481.02 and the Rules of Civil Procedure to appear as attorney for a party and participate in a presentation, hearing or trial in an action or proceeding before the District Court of this district, provided: (1) he is associated in representing such party with an attorney at law admitted as such and residing in this state who appears as the attorney of record in the action or proceeding; (2) the resident attorney appears before the court at the presentation, hearing or trial and moves for an order granting permission to such nonresident attorney to so participate therein; and (3) the resident attorney remains present in court during the presentation, hearing or trial as the attorney of record in the action or proceeding.

RULE 9

DIVORCE ACTIONS.

9.01 Hearing of Default Action. A divorce action in default for want of any appearance by the defendant may with the consent of the court be brought on for trial and be heard at a special term of the court held 45 days or more after the commencement of the action.

9.02 Hearing of Non-default Action. A divorce action in which there has been an appearance by the defendant by interposing a pleading, entering into a stipulation or otherwise shall be brought on for trial and be heard upon its merits at a general term of the court except that such an action may upon stipulation of the parties and with the consent of the court be brought on for trial and be heard upon its merits in advance of the general term but not less than 45 days after the commencement of the action. A party bringing any such action on for trial in advance of the term shall give due notice of the time and place of the trial to the adverse party unless it appears from the files that such adverse party has knowledge thereof. The court will not recognize any stipulation by a party purporting to authorize the trial of an action or counterclaim for divorce at a time or place of which he does not have knowledge or notice, or agreeing to withdraw his opposition thereto or to make no defense thereagainst.

9.03 Record of Testimony. A stenographic record shall be made of the testimony and proceedings in the trial of a divorce action heard upon the merits whether or not it is in default. The court may direct the reporter to make and file with the clerk a transcript of such record or part thereof and direct that a party shall pay the cost thereof.

RULE 12

EXHIBITS; FILES AND RECORDS OF CLERK.

12.01 Custody of Exhibits. An exhibit admitted in evidence in a case shall thenceforth remain in the custody of the clerk, subject to the orders of the court until returned, delivered, or disposed of as hereinafter provided.

In lieu of making such request the clerk may forward the exhibit by mail or otherwise to such attorney or person. If the clerk makes such request and if the attorney or person so requested does not call within thirty days thereafter at the office of the clerk for the exhibit, the clerk shall be authorized to destroy the same if it is not a public record.

12.03 Redelivery of Exhibit to Clerk. Any exhibit admitted in evidence which by order of the court is returned to a party, or attorney, or any other person prior to the final termination of the case shall be deemed so returned upon the condition that if the court, the clerk, or the court reporter so requests, the exhibit shall be redelivered back to the custody of the clerk and be retained in his custody, subject to the orders of the court, but six months after the final termination of the case the provisions of Rule 12.02 shall apply.

12.04 Public Records. The court may deny admission in evidence as an exhibit in a case any original public record or document unless the officer or agency entitled to the custody thereof consents to such admission, if a certified copy of the record or document is admissible and would have as much probative force upon the issues of the case as the original.

12.05 Exhibits Offered but not Admitted. The court may order that an exhibit which was offered but not admitted in evidence be placed in the custody of the clerk and remain in such custody under the provisions of this rule the same as if it had been admitted. If an exhibit offered but not admitted in evidence is not in the custody of the clerk, the party who offered the same in evidence shall upon request of the clerk or court reporter deliver it to the clerk to remain in his custody under the provisions of this rule the same as if it had been admitted, when a transcript of the evidence is ordered, when a motion for a new trial is made, when an appeal is perfected, or whenever any other post-trial motion is made or proceeding taken wherein the offered exhibit may have a bearing on a question to be determined.

Excepting rulings made upon the admission of evidence and other orders made during a hearing or trial of which the court reporter has made a stenographic record, the clerk shall cause to be placed in the files of a case a memorandum referring to each order made in open court affecting the case. The memorandum shall, by a copy of the order as appears from the minutes of the court, an excerpt therefrom, or otherwise, indicate the action of the court affecting the case and shall also state the book and page of the minutes of the court where the order is recorded.

RULE 13

In the event of any default, the case will be forthwith called for trial and the court will exercise the same powers as in the event of a default. Where no response is made by either party to a case, the case shall be stricken from the calendar. Appearance by Counsel under this rule will not be required in cases where pre-trial notice has been given by the Clerk of Court. Any action stricken from the calendar, shall not be reinstated on the calendar except by written order of the court filed in the office of the clerk.

RULE 3

PRE-TRIAL. Pursuant to Rule 16, Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of Minnesota, a pre-trial calendar is hereby established. All jury actions, and such other actions as the Court may order, shall be placed on such calendar for consideration.

Pre-trial hearings of the cases on the pre-trial calendar shall be held on such days as the Court shall order.

In all causes on such calendar, the Clerk of Court shall mail to all parties and their attorneys, notice of hearing to be held at a time to be fixed by said clerk, not less than seven (7) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date of mailing. On the date and hour so fixed, only those attorneys (representing all the parties) who are familiar with the cause and are fully authorized to make binding stipulations therein will be permitted to appear, and such attorneys are required to appear together with their complete files. In the event of any default, the Court will exercise the same powers as in the event of a default.

RULE 7

of the injured person and report thereon by an impartial medical expert or experts would be of material aid to the just determination of the case, he may, after consultation with Counsel for the respective parties and after giving Counsel a hearing, if such hearing be requested by either Counsel, order such examination and report. The order of appointment shall specify the conditions and scope of such examination, and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

Copies of the report of the examining physician will be made available to the respective parties. If the case proceeds to trial after such examination and report, either party may call the examining physician or physicians to testify, or the trial Judge may, if he deems it desirable to do so, call the examining physician or physicians as a witness or witnesses for the court, subject to questioning by any party, but without compensation by any litigant. The payment of compensation of such medical expert or experts may be made a condition of the order directing the examination, and the amount of such compensation shall be fixed by the Judge ordering the examination, and unless otherwise provided for, payment shall be made by such party or parties and in such amount as the Judge in his discretion orders, in order to meet the factual situation.

4.02 By Whom Served.

4.03 Personal Service

Service of summons within the state shall be made as follows:

(a) Upon an Individual. Upon an individual by delivering a copy to him personally or by leaving a copy at his usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein.

If the individual has, pursuant to statute, consented to any other method of service or appointed an agent to receive service of summons, or if a statute designates a state official to receive service of summons, service may be made in the manner provided by such statute.

If the individual is confined to a state institution, by serving also the chief executive officer at the institution.

If the individual is an infant under the age of 14 years, by serving also his father or mother, and if he have neither within the state, then a resident guardian if he have one known to the plaintiff, and if he have none, then the person having control of such defendant, or with whom he resides, or by whom he is employed.

In the case of a transportation or express corporation, the summons may be served by delivering a copy to any ticket, freight, or soliciting agent found in the county in which the action is brought, and if such corporation is a foreign corporation and has no such agent in the county in which the plaintiff elects to bring the action, then upon any such agent of the corporation within the state.

The summons may be served by three weeks' published notice in any of the cases enumerated hereafter when there shall have been filed with the court the complaint and an affidavit of the plaintiff or his attorney stating the existence of one of such cases, and that he believes the defendant is not a resident of the state, or cannot be found therein, and either that he has mailed a copy of the summons to the defendant at his place of residence or that such residence is not known to him. The service of the summons shall be deemed complete 21 days after the first publication. Personal service of such summons without the state, proved by the affidavit of the person making the same sworn to before a person authorized to administer an oath, shall have the same effect as the published notice herein provided for.

Such service shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction:

(1) When the defendant is a resident individual having departed from the state with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid service, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;

(2) When the plaintiff has acquired a lien upon property or credits within the state by attachment or garnishment, and

(a) The defendant is a resident individual who has departed from the state, or cannot be found therein, or

(b) The defendant is a nonresident individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership or association;

When quasi in rem jurisdiction has been obtained, a party defending such action thereby submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court. An appearance solely to contest the validity of such quasi in rem jurisdiction is not such a submission.

(3) When the action is for divorce or separate maintenance and the court shall have ordered that service be made by published notice;

(4) When the subject of the action is real or personal property within the state in or upon which the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, or the relief demanded consists wholly or partly in excluding him from any such interest or lien;

No other notice of the pendency of the action need be published. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

4.042 Service of the Complaint

If the defendant shall appear within ten days after the completion of service by publication, the plaintiff, within five days after such appearance, shall serve the complaint, by copy, on the defendant or his attorney. The defendant shall then have at least ten days in which to answer the same.

4.043 Service by Publication; Defendant May Defend; Restitution

If the summons be served by publication, and the defendant receives no actual notification of the action, he shall be permitted to defend upon application to the court before judgment and for sufficient cause; and, except in an action for divorce, the defendant, in like manner, may be permitted to defend at any time within one year after judgment, on such terms as may be just. If the defense be sustained, and any part of the judgment has been enforced, such restitution shall be made as the court may direct.

4.044 Nonresident Owner of Land Appointing an Agent

If a nonresident person or corporation owning or claiming any interest or lien in or upon lands in the state appoints an agent pursuant to § 557.01 service of summons in an action involving such real estate shall be made upon such agent or his principal in accordance with Rule 4.03, and service by publication shall not be made upon the principal.

The proof of service in all cases other than by published notice shall state the time, place, and manner of service. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of the service.

4.07 Amendments

The court in its discretion and on such terms as it deems just may at any time allow any summons or other process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that substantial rights of the person against whom the process issued would be prejudiced thereby.

5.01 Service; When Required; Appearance

Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4. A party appears when he serves or files any paper in the proceeding.

5.02 Service; How Made

Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Written admission of service by the party or his attorney shall be sufficient proof of service. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: Handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

5.03 Service; Numerous Defendants

If the defendants are numerous, the court, upon motion or of its initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as to the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading with the court and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the courts directs.

5.04 Filing

(1) All pleadings, affidavits, bonds, and other papers in an action shall be filed with the clerk, unless otherwise provided by statute or by order of the court.

(2) All pleadings shall be so filed on or before the second day of the term at which the action is noticed for trial; otherwise the court may continue the action or strike it from the calendar.

(3) All affidavits, notices and other papers designed to be used in any cause shall be filed prior to the hearing of the cause unless otherwise directed by the court.

RULE 6
TIME*6.01 Computation

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any district court, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

6.02 Enlargement

When by statute or by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may, at any time in its discretion, (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 4.043, 59.03, 59.05, and 60.02 except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

6.03 Unaffected by Expiration of Term

The continued existence or the expiration of a term of court does not affect or limit the period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding, or affect the power of the court to do any act or take any proceeding in any action which has been pending before it.

6.04 For Motions; Affidavits

A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than five days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. A motion may be supported by papers on file by reference; supporting papers not on file shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Rule 59.04, opposing affidavits may be served not later than one day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

6.05 Additional Time After Service by Mail

Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceeding within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him, or whenever such service is required to be made a prescribed period before a specified event, and the notice or paper is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS*RULE 7
PLEADINGS ALLOWED; FORM OF MOTIONS*7.01 Pleadings

There shall be a complaint and an answer (including such pleadings in a third-party proceeding when a third-party claim is asserted); a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; and an answer to a cross-claim if the answer contains a cross-claim. No other pleading shall be allowed except that the court may order a reply to an answer. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

7.02 Motion and Other Papers

(1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

RULE 8
GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING*8.01 Claims for Relief

A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled, and if a recovery of money be demanded the amount shall be stated. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

8.02 Defenses; Form of Denials

A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

8.03 Affirmative Defenses

In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

8.04 Effect of Failure to Deny

Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

8.05 Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency

(1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

8.06 Construction of Pleadings

All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

RULE 9
PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS*9.01 Capacity

It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of a partnership or an organized association of persons that is made a party. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

9.02 Fraud, Mistake, Condition of Mind

In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

9.03 Conditions Precedent

In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

9.04 Official Document or Act.

In pleading an official document or official act, it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law; and in pleading any ordinance of a city, village, or borough or any special or local statute or any right derived from either, it is sufficient to refer to the ordinance or statute by its title and the date of its approval.

9.05 Judgment

In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

9.06 Time and Place

For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

9.07 Special Damages

9.08 Unknown Party; How Designated

When a party is ignorant of the name of an opposing party and so alleges in his pleading, the opposing party may be designated by any name, and when his true name is discovered the process and all pleadings and proceedings in the action may be amended by substituting the true name.

FORM OF PLEADINGS

10.01 Caption; Names of Parties

Every pleading shall have a caption setting forth the name of the court and the county in which the action is brought, the title of the action, and a designation as in Rule 7. In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

10.02 Paragraph; Separate Statements

All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

10.03 Adoption by Reference; Exhibits

Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part of the statement of claim or defense set forth in the pleading.

SIGNING OF PLEADINGS

Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be personally signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name and shall state his address. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall personally sign his pleading and state his address. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certification by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken, as provided in Rule 12.06, as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. An attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action for a wilful violation of this rule or for the insertion of scandalous or indecent matter in a pleading.

RULE 12

DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS; WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED; BY PLEADING OR MOTION; MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON PLEADINGS

12.01 When Presented

Defendant shall serve his answer within 20 days after service of the summons upon him unless the court directs otherwise pursuant to Rule 4.043. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: (1) If the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after service of notice of the court's action; (2) if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

12.02 How Presented

Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter; (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person; (3) insufficiency of process; (4) insufficiency of service of process; (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted; and (6) failure to join a party under Rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense that the pleading fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

12.03 Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on such motion, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided for in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

12.04 Preliminary Hearing

The defenses and relief enumerated in Rules 12.02 and 12.03, whether made in a pleading or by motion, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

12.05 Motion for More Definite Statement, for Paragraphing and for Separate Statement

If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted violates the provisions of Rule 10.02, or is so vague and ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a compliance with Rule 10.02 or for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after service of notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

12.06 Motion to Strike

Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him, or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order any pleading not in compliance with Rule 11 stricken as sham and false, or may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter.

12.07 Consolidation of Defenses in Motion

A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in Rule 12.08 (2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

12.08 Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses

(1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (A) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in Rule 12.07, or (B) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15.01 to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7.01, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

RULE 13

COUNTERCLAIM AND CROSS-CLAIM

13.01 Compulsory Counterclaims

A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction, except that such a claim need not be so stated if at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action.

13.02 Permissive Counterclaims

A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

13.03 Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim

A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

13.04 Counterclaim Against the State of Minnesota

These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the State of Minnesota or an officer or agency thereof.

13.05 Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading

A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

13.06 Omitted Counterclaim

When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

13.07 Cross-Claim Against Co-Party

A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

13.08 Joinder of Additional Parties

Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Rules 19 and 20.

13.09 Separate Trials; Separate Judgment

If the court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 42.02, judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Rule 54.02 even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

RULE 14

THIRD-PARTY PRACTICE

14.01 When Defendant May Bring in Third Party

Within 45 days after service of the summons upon him, and thereafter by leave of court granted on motion upon notice to all parties to the action, a defendant as a third-party plaintiff may serve a summons and complaint, together with a copy of plaintiff's complaint, upon a person, whether or not he is a party to the action, who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him and after such service shall forthwith serve notice thereof upon all other parties to the action. Copies of third-party pleadings shall be furnished by the pleader to any other party to the action within 5 days after request therefor. The person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Rule 13. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

14.02 When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party

When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under Rule 14.01 would entitle defendant to do so.

14.03 Orders for Protection of Parties and Prevention of Delay

The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed or put to undue expense, or prevent delay of the trial or other proceedings, by the assertion of a third-party claim, and may dismiss the third-party claim, order separate trials, or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this rule is without prejudice. (Added March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

15.01 Amendments

A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

15.02 Amendments to Conform to the Evidence

When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

15.03 Relation Back of Amendments

Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

15.04 Supplemental Pleadings

Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented, whether or not the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or of a defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

RULE 16

PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE; FORMULATING ISSUE

In any action, the court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a referee;
- (6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to nonjury actions or extend it to all actions.

IV. PARTIES

PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY

17.01 Real Party in Interest

Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute, may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

17.02 Infants or Incompetent Persons

Whenever a party to an action is an infant or is incompetent and has a representative duly appointed under the laws of this state or the laws of a foreign state or country, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of such party. A party who is an infant or is incompetent and is not so represented shall be represented by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending or is to be brought. The guardian ad litem shall be a resident of this state, shall file his consent and oath with the clerk, and shall give such bond as the court may require.

Any person, including an infant party over the age of 14 years and under no other legal disability, may apply under oath for the appointment of a guardian ad litem. The application of the party or of his spouse or his parent or testamentary or other guardian shall have priority over other applications. If no such appointment is made in behalf of a defendant party before answer or default, the adverse party or his attorney may apply for such appointment, and in such case the court shall allow the guardian ad litem a reasonable time to respond to the complaint.

The application for appointment shall show (1) the name, age and address of the party, (2) if he be a minor, the names and addresses of his parents, and, if his parents be dead or have abandoned him, the name and address of his custodian or his testamentary or other guardian, if any, (3) the name and address of his spouse, if any, and (4) the name, age and address and occupation of the person whose appointment is sought.

If the appointment is applied for by the party or by his spouse, parent, custodian, or testamentary or other guardian, the court may hear the application with or without notice. In all other cases written notice of the hearing on the application shall be given at such time as the court shall prescribe, and shall be served upon the party, his spouse, parent, custodian and testamentary or other guardian, if any, and, if he be an inmate of a public institution, the chief executive officer thereof. If the party be a non-resident, or if after diligent search he cannot be found within the state, notice shall be given to such persons and in such manner as the court may direct. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

RULE 18

JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES

18.01 Joinder of Claims

A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal, or equitable, as he has against an opposing party.

18.02 Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances

Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

RULE 19

JOINDER OF PERSONS NEEDED FOR JUST ADJUDICATION

19.01 Persons to be Joined if Feasible

A person who is subject to service of process shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

19.02 Determination by Court Whenever Joinder not Feasible

If a person as described in Rule 19.01(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

19.03 Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder

A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in Rule 19.01(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

19.04 Exception of Class Actions

This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 23.

RULE 20

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES

20.01 Permissive Joinder

All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief, jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of fact or law common to all these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

20.02 Separate Trials

The court may make such order as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

RULE 21

MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on a motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

RULE 22

INTERPLEADER

Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead, in an action brought for that purpose, when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to multiple liability. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. If such a defendant admits he is subject to liability, he may, upon paying the amount claimed or delivering the property claimed or its value into court or to such person as the court may direct, move for an order to substitute the claimants other than the plaintiff as defendants in his stead. On compliance with the terms of such order, the defendant shall be discharged and the action shall proceed against the substituted defendants. It is not ground for objection to such joinder or to such motion that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical with but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. The provisions of this rule do not restrict the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

RULE 23

CLASS ACTIONS

23.01 Prerequisites to a Class Action

One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

23.02 Class Actions Maintainable

An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of Rule 23.01 are satisfied, and in addition:

(1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class, or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or

(2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

23.03 Determination by Order Whether Class Action to be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions

(1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under Rule 23.02(3), the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (A) the court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date; (B) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (C) any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

(3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Rule 23.02(1) or 23.02(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Rule 23.02(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in Rule 23.03(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate (A) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (B) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

23.04 Orders in Conduct of Actions

In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the court may make appropriate orders: (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument; (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

(3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors; (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under Rule 16, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

23.05 Dismissal or Compromise

A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

23.06 Derivative Actions by Shareholders or Members

In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall allege that the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his share or membership thereafter devolved on him by operation of law. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action he desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for his failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interest of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the court directs.

23.07 Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations

An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Rule 23.04 and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Rule 23.05.

INTERVENTION

24.01 Intervention of Right

Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

24.02 Permissive Intervention

Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

24.03 Procedure

A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.

24.04 Notice to Attorney General

When the constitutionality of an act of the legislature is drawn in question in any action to which the state or an officer, agency or employee of the state is not a party, the party asserting the unconstitutionality of the act shall notify the attorney general thereof within such time as to afford him an opportunity to intervene.

RULE 25
SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

25.01 Death

(1) If a party dies and the claim is not extinguished or barred, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided in Rule 4 for the service of process.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be indicated upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

25.02 Incompetency

If a party becomes incompetent, the action shall not abate because of the disability, and the court upon motion served as provided in Rule 25.01 may allow it to be continued by or against his representative.

25.03 Transfer of Interest

In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of this motion shall be made as provided in Rule 25.01.

25.04 Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office

When any public officer is a party to an action and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action may be continued and maintained by or against his successor if it is satisfactorily shown to the court that there is a substantial need for so continuing and maintaining it. Substitution pursuant to this rule may be made when it is shown by supplemental pleading that the successor of any officer adopts or continues or threatens to adopt or continue the action of his predecessor. Before a substitution is made, the party or officer to be affected, unless expressly assenting thereto, shall be given reasonable notice of the application therefor and accorded an opportunity to object. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

DEPOSITIONS PENDING ACTION

26.01 When Deposition May be Taken

Any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination or written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery or for use as evidence in the action or for both purposes. After commencement of the action, the deposition may be taken without leave of court, except that leave, granted with or without notice, must be obtained if notice of the taking is served by the plaintiff within 20 days after commencement of the action. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45. Depositions shall be taken only in accordance with these rules. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

26.02 Scope of Examination

Unless otherwise ordered by the court as provided by Rule 30.02 or 30.04, the witness may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts. It is not ground for objection that the testimony will be inadmissible at the trial if the testimony sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The production or inspection of any writing obtained or prepared by the adverse party, his attorney, surety, indemnitor, or agent in anticipation of litigation or in preparation for trial, or of any writing that reflects an attorney's mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories, or, except as provided in Rule 35, the conclusions of an expert, shall not be required. In any action in which there is an insurance policy which may afford coverage, any party may require any other party to disclose the coverage and limits of such insurance and the amounts paid and payable thereunder and under Rule 34 may obtain production of the insurance policy; provided, however, that the above provision will not permit such disclosed information to be introduced into evidence unless admissible for other reasons or upon other grounds.

26.03 Examination and Cross-Examination

Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of Rule 43.02.

26.04 Use of Depositions

At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice thereof in accordance with any one of the following provisions:

- (1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness on material matters only.
- (2) The deposition of a party or of any one who at the time of taking the deposition was a managing agent or employe of the party or an officer, director, managing agent or employe of the state or any political subdivision thereof or of a public or private corporation, partnership, or association which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
- (3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (a) that the witness is dead; or (b) that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the state, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (c) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (d) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (e), upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witness orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.
- (4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor.

26.05 Objections to Admissibility

Subject to the provisions of Rules 28.02 and 32.03, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

26.06 Effect of Taking or Using Depositions

A party shall not be deemed to make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition as described in Rule 26.04(2). At the trial or hearing, any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

26.07 Depositions in Arbitration

The deposition of a witness whose testimony is wanted for use as evidence in a controversy submitted to arbitrators may be taken if the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of hearing, or is about to go out of the state, not intending to return in time for the hearing, or is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, or infirmity. The deposition shall be taken in accordance with Rules 26.04(4), 26.05, 27.01, 27.03, 27.05, 27.06, 28, 29, and 32. Rules 37.01 and 37.02 shall likewise apply to the taking of such depositions insofar as the provisions thereof are applicable. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45. By leave of court, the deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken on such terms as the court prescribes.

DEPOSITIONS BEFORE ACTION OR PENDING APPEAL

27.01 Before Action

(1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter may file a verified petition in the district court of the county of the residence of an expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show (a) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought, (b) the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein, (c) the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it, (d) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known, and (e) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the deposition of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the state in the manner provided in Rule 4.03 for service of summonses; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 4.03, an attorney who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent, the provisions of Rule 17.02 apply.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating and describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The deposition may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the courts of the state in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in this state, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 26.04.

27.02 Pending Appeal

If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a district court, or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the district court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the deposition of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the district court. In such case, the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the district court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the district court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the district court.

27.03 Perpetuation by Action

This rule does not limit the power of the court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN

28.01 Within the United States

Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony.

28.02 In Foreign Countries

In a foreign country depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letters rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letters rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in (here name the country)." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these Rules.

28.03 Disqualification for Interest

No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employe or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employe of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

RULE 29

STIPULATION REGARDING THE TAKING OF DEPOSITIONS

If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

RULE 30

DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

30.01 Notice of Examination; Time and Place

A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the court may for cause enlarge or shorten the time.

30.02 Orders for the Protection of Parties and Witnesses

After notice is served for taking a deposition by oral examination, upon motion seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated time or place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters may not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that the deposition be sealed and thereafter opened only by order of the court, or that secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed, or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court; or the court may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, expense, embarrassment or oppression. The power of the court under this rule shall be exercised with liberality toward the accomplishment of its purpose to protect parties and witnesses. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

30.03 Record of Examination; Oath; Objections

The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall, personally, or by some one acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

30.04 Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination

At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or of the witness and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the witness or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Rule 30.02. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or witness, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. In granting or refusing such order, the court may impose upon either party or upon the witness the requirement to pay such costs or expenses as the court may deem reasonable.

30.05 Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing

When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness, or the fact of the refusal to sign, together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 32.04 the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

30.06 Certification and Filing by Officer; Copies; Notice of Filing

(1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then place the deposition in an envelope indorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly deliver or mail it to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, or, if the deposition was taken under Rule 26.07, to an arbitrator.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the witness.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

30.07 Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him, and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

RULE 31

31.01 Serving Interrogatories; Notice

A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon written interrogatories shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating the name and address of the person who is to answer them and the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. Within 10 days thereafter, a party so served may serve cross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. Within 5 days thereafter, the latter may serve redirect interrogatories upon a party who has served cross interrogatories. Within 3 days after being served with redirect interrogatories, a party may serve recross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition.

31.02 Officers to Take Responses and Prepare Record

A copy of the notice and copies of all interrogatories served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rules 30.03, 30.05, and 30.06, to take the testimony of the witness in response to the interrogatories and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the interrogatories received by him.

31.03 Notices of Filing

When the deposition is filed, the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

31.04 Orders for the Protection of Parties and Witnesses

After the service of interrogatories and prior to the taking of the testimony of the witnesses, the court in which the action is pending, on motion promptly made by a party or witnesses, upon notice and good cause shown, may make any order specified in Rule 30 which is appropriate and just or an order that the deposition shall not be taken before the officer designated in the notice or that it shall not be taken except upon oral examination.

RULE 32

EFFECT OF ERRORS AND IRREGULARITIES IN DEPOSITIONS

32.01 As to Notice

All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

32.02 As to Disqualification of Officer

Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

32.03 As to Taking of Deposition

(1) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(2) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless reasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of deposition.

(3) Objections to the form of written interrogatories submitted under Rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other interrogatories and within 3 days after service of the last interrogatories authorized.

32.04 As to Completion and Return of Deposition

Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES

(1) Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories after commencement of the action without leave of court, except that if service is made by the plaintiff within 10 days after the commencement of such action, leave of court granted with or without notice must be obtained first. No party may serve more than a total of 50 interrogatories upon any other party unless permitted to do so by the court upon motion, notice and a showing of a good cause. In computing the total number of interrogatories each subdivision of separate questions shall be counted as an interrogatory.

(2) Within 15 days after service of interrogatories, separate written answers and objections to each interrogatory shall be served by the responding party, unless the court on motion and notice and for good cause shown enlarges or shortens the time.

(3) Objections shall state with particularity the grounds for the objection and may be served as a part of the document containing the answers or separately. Within 15 days after service of objections to interrogatories, the party proposing the interrogatory shall serve notice of hearing on the objections at the earliest practicable time. Failure to serve said notice shall constitute a waiver of the right to require answers to each interrogatory to which objection has been made. Answers to interrogatories to which objection has been made shall be deferred until the objections are determined.

(4) Answers to interrogatories shall be stated fully in writing and shall be signed under oath by the party served or, if the party served is the state or a corporation or a partnership or an association, by any officer or managing agent, who shall furnish such information as is available.

(5) Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 26.02, and the answers may be used to the same extent as provided in Rule 26.04 for the use of the deposition of a party. Interrogatories may be served after a deposition has been taken, and a deposition may be sought after interrogatories have been answered, but the court, on motion of the witnesses or the party interrogated, may make such protective orders as justice may require. The provisions of Rule 30.02 are applicable for the protection of the party from whom answers to interrogatories are sought under this rule.

DISCOVERY AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS FOR INSPECTION, COPYING, OR PHOTOGRAPHING

Upon motion of any party showing good cause therefor and upon notice to all other parties, and subject to the provisions of Rule 30.02, the court in which an action is pending may (1) order any party to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing, by or on behalf of the moving party, of any designated documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or tangible things, not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence relating to any of the matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 26.02 and which are in his possession, custody, or control; or (2) order any party to permit entry upon designated land or other property in his possession or control for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying, or photographing the property or any designated object or operation thereon within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 26.02. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

RULE 35
PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND BLOOD EXAMINATION OF PERSONS

35.01 Order of Examinations

In an action in which the mental or physical condition or the blood relationship of a party, or of an agent of a party, or of a person under control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to, or produce such agent or person for, a mental or physical or blood examination by a physician. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the party or person to be examined and to all other parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is made. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

35.02 Report of Findings

(1) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Rule 35.01 or by the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After such request and delivery, the party causing the examination to be made shall be entitled, upon request, to receive from the party or person examined a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same mental or physical or blood condition. If the party or person examined refuses to deliver such report, the court, on motion and notice, may make an order requiring delivery on such terms as are just, and, if a physician fails or refuses to make such a report, the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the adverse party waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him or the person under his control in respect of the same mental or physical or blood condition. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

35.03 Waiver of Medical Privilege

If at any stage of an action a party voluntarily places in controversy the physical, mental, or blood condition of himself, of a decedent, or a person under his control, such party thereby waives any privilege he may have in that action regarding the testimony of every person who has examined or may thereafter examine him or the person under his control in respect of the same mental, physical or blood condition.

35.04 Medical Disclosures and Depositions of Medical Experts.

When medical privilege has been waived by a party under Rule 35.03, such party within ten days of a written request by any other party,

a) shall furnish to the requesting party copies of all medical reports previously or thereafter made by any treating or examining medical expert, and

b) shall provide written authority signed by the party of whom request is made to permit the inspection of all hospital and other medical records, concerning the physical, mental or blood condition of such party as to which privilege has been waived.

Depositions of treating or examining medical experts shall not be taken except upon order of the court for good cause shown upon motion and notice to the parties and upon such terms as the court may provide.

Disclosures under this Rule shall include the conclusions of such treating or examining medical expert.

RULE 36

ADMISSION OF FACTS AND OF GENUINENESS OF DOCUMENTS

36.01 Request for Admission

After commencement of an action, a party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission by the latter of the genuineness of any relevant documents described in and exhibited with the request or of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth in the request. If a plaintiff desires to serve a request within 10 days after commencement of the action, leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained. Copies of the documents shall be served with the request, unless copies have already been furnished. Each of the matters of which an admission is requested shall be deemed admitted unless within a period designated in the request not less than 15 days after service thereof, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow on motion and notice, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission either (1) a sworn statement denying specifically the matters of which an admission is requested or setting forth in detail the reasons why he cannot truthfully admit or deny those matters or (2) written objections on the ground that some or all of the requested admissions are privileged or irrelevant or that the request is otherwise improper in whole or in part, together with a notice of hearing the objections at the earliest practicable time. If written objections to a part of the request are made, the remainder of the request shall be answered within the period designated in the request. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and, when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder.

36.02 Effect of Admission

Any admission made by a party pursuant to such request is for the purpose of the pending action only and does not constitute an admission by him for any other purpose and may not be used against him in any other proceeding.

RULE 37

REFUSAL TO MAKE DISCOVERY; CONSEQUENCES

37.01 Refusal to Answer

If a party or other witness refuses to answer any question propounded upon oral examination, the examination shall be completed on other matters or adjourned, as the proponent of the question may prefer. Thereafter, on reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, he may apply to the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is taken for an order compelling an answer. Upon the refusal of a witness to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 31 or upon the refusal of a party to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, the proponent of the question may on like notice make like application for such an order. If the motion is granted and if the court finds that the refusal was without substantial justification, the court shall require the refusing party or witness and the party or attorney advising the refusal or both of them to pay to the examining party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including reasonable attorney's fees. If the motion is denied and if the court finds that the motion was made without substantial justification, the court shall require the examining party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the refusing party or witness the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including reasonable attorney's fees.

37.02 Failure to Comply with Order

(1) Contempt. If a party or other witness refuses to be sworn or refuses to answer any question after being directed to do so, the refusal may be considered a contempt of the court making the order or the court in which the action is pending.

(2) Other Consequences. If any party or an officer or managing agent of a party refuses to obey an order made under Rule 37.01 requiring him to answer designated questions, or an order made under Rule 34, or an order made under Rule 35, the court may make such orders in regard to the refusal as are just, and among others the following:

(a) An order that the matters regarding which the questions were asked, or the character or description of the thing or land, or the contents of the paper, or the mental or physical or blood condition sought to be examined, or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(b) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing in evidence designated documents or things or items of testimony, or from introducing evidence of mental or physical or blood condition sought to be examined;

(c) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(d) Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 35.01 requiring him to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this rule, unless the party failing to comply shows that he is unable to produce such person for examination.

(e) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto an order directing the arrest of any party or agent of a party for disobeying any of such orders except an order to submit to mental or physical or blood examination.

(As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

37.03 Expenses on Refusal to Admit

If a party, after being served with a request under Rule 36 to admit the genuineness of any documents or the truth of any matters of fact, serves a sworn denial thereof and if the party requesting the admission thereafter proves the genuineness of any such document or the truth of any such matter of fact, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making such proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. Unless the court finds that there were good reasons for the denial or that the admissions sought were of no substantial importance, the order shall be made.

37.04 Failure of Party to Attend or Serve Answers

If a party or an officer or managing agent of a party willfully fails to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or fails to serve answers to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, the court, on motion and notice, may strike out all or any part of any pleading of that party, or dismiss the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or enter a judgment by default against that party.

VI. TRIALS

RULE 38

JURY TRIAL OF RIGHT

38.01 Right Preserved

In actions for the recovery of money only, or of specific real or personal property, or for a divorce on the ground of adultery, the issues of fact shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury trial be waived or a reference be ordered.

38.02 Waiver

In actions arising on contract, and by permission of the court in other actions, any party thereto may waive a jury trial in the manner following:

- (1) By failing to appear at the trial;
- (2) By written consent, by the party or his attorney, filed with the clerk;
- (3) By oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.

38.03 Placing Action on Calendar

A party desiring to have an action placed on the calendar for trial shall, after issue is joined, prepare a note of issue setting forth the title of the action, whether the issue is one of fact or of law, and if an issue of fact whether it is triable by court or by jury, and the names and addresses and the telephone numbers of the respective counsel, and shall serve the same on counsel for all parties not in default and file it, with proof of service, with the clerk within 10 days after such service in all districts where but one term of court is held annually and in all other districts at least 28 days before the beginning of a general term; and thereupon the action shall be placed on the calendar for trial and shall remain thereon from term to term until tried or stricken therefrom. The party serving a note of issue shall, and any other party may, serve a note of issue upon counsel for any person who becomes a party to the action subsequent to the initial service.

RULE 39

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

39.01 By Court

Issues of fact not submitted to a jury as provided in Rule 38 shall be tried by the court.

39.02 Advisory Jury and Trial by Consent

In all actions not triable of right by a jury the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may try an issue with an advisory jury, or the court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

39.03 Preliminary Instructions in Jury Trials

After the jury has been impaneled and sworn, and before opening statements of counsel, the court may instruct the jury as to the respective claims of the parties and as to such other matters as will aid the jury in comprehending the trial procedure and sequence to be followed. Preliminary instructions may also embrace such matters as burden of proof and preponderance of evidence, the elements which the jury may consider in weighing testimony or determining credibility of witnesses, rules applicable to opinion evidence, and such other rules of law as the court may deem essential to the proper understanding of the evidence.

39.04 Opening Statements by Counsel

Before any evidence is introduced, plaintiff may make an opening statement; whereupon any other party may make an opening statement or may reserve the same until his case in chief is opened. Opening statements may be waived by any party to the action without affecting the right of any other party to make such an opening statement.

RULE 40

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL

The judges of the court may, by order or by rule of court, provide for the setting of cases for trial upon the calendar, the order in which they shall be heard and the resetting thereof.

RULE 41

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

41.01 Voluntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof

(1) By Plaintiff; by Stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23.03 and of Rule 66, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court (a) by filing a notice of dismissal not less than 10 days before the opening of the term of court at which the action is noted for trial or, in counties having continuous terms of court, not less than 10 days before the day on which the action is first set for trial, if a provisional remedy has not been allowed or a counterclaim made or other affirmative relief demanded in the answer, or (b) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court of the United States or of any state an action based on or including the same claim.

(2) By Order of Court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

41.02 Involuntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof

(1) The court may on its own motion, or upon motion of a party, and upon such notice as it may prescribe, dismiss an action or claim for failure to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the court.

(2) After the plaintiff has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. In an action tried by the court without a jury the court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in Rule 52.01.

(3) Unless the court in its order of dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this rule and any dismissal not provided for in this rule or in Rule 41.01, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, for forum non conveniens or for failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

41.03 Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim, or Third-Party Claim

The provisions of Rules 41.01 and 41.02 apply to

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1967

5477 APPENDIX 8. RULES, CIVIL PROCEDURE, DISTRICT COURT

41.04 Costs of Previously Dismissed Action

If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

RULE 42

CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS

42.01 Consolidation

When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

42.02 Separate Trials

The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues.

EVIDENCE

43.01 Form and Admissibility

In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by these rules. All evidence shall be admitted which is admissible under the statutes of this state, or under the rules of evidence heretofore applied in the trials of actions in the courts of this state. In any case, the statute or rule which favors the reception of the evidence governs, and the evidence shall be presented according to the most convenient method prescribed in any of the statutes or rules to which reference is herein made. The competency of a witness to testify shall be determined in like manner.

43.02 Examination of Hostile Witnesses and Adverse Parties

A party may interrogate an unwilling or hostile witness by leading questions. A party may call an adverse party of his managing agent or employee or an officer, director, managing agent or employee of the state or any political subdivision thereof or of a public or private corporation or of a partnership or association or body politic which is an adverse party, and interrogate him by leading questions and contradict and impeach him on material matters in all respects as if he had been called by the adverse party. Where the witness is an adverse party he may be examined by his counsel upon the subject matter of his examination in chief under the rules applicable to direct examination, and may be cross-examined, contradicted and impeached by any other party adversely affected by his testimony. Where the witness is an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of the adverse party he may be cross-examined, contradicted and impeached by any party to the action. (As amended March 3, 1959, May 8, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

43.03 Record of Excluded Evidence

In an action tried by a jury, if an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the court, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness. The court may require the offer to be made out of the hearing of the jury. The court may add such other or further statement as clearly shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. In actions tried without a jury the same procedure may be followed, except that the court, upon request, shall take and report the evidence in full, unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the witness is privileged.

43.04 Affirmation in Lieu of Oath

Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

43.05 Evidence and Motions

When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record, the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

43.06 Res Ipsa Loquitur

Res ipsa loquitur shall be regarded as nothing more than one form of circumstantial evidence creating a permissive inference of negligence. The plaintiff shall be given the benefit of its natural probative force existing at the close of all the evidence even though he has introduced specific evidence of negligence or made specific allegations of negligence in his pleadings.

43.07 Interpreters

The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court.

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

44.01 Authentication

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or any entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

44.02 Lack of Record

A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in Rule 44.01(1) in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of Rule 44.01(2) for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

44.03 Other Proof

This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

44.04 Determination of Foreign Law

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under Rule 43. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

SUBPOENA

45.01 For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance

Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence or tangible things, signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

45.02 For Production of Documentary Evidence

A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable or oppressive, or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

45.03 Service

A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, by his deputy, or any other person who is not a party. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person or by leaving a copy at his usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein and by tendering to him the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the state of Minnesota or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

45.04 Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination

(1) Proof of service of notice to take a deposition as provided in Rules 30.01 and 31.01 or in a state where the action is pending constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain evidence relating to any of the matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 26.02, but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Rules 30.02 and 45.02.

(2) A resident of this state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of court. A nonresident of the state may be required to attend in any county of the state.

45.05 Subpoena for a Hearing or Trial

At the request of any party, the clerk of the district court shall issue subpoenas for witnesses in all civil cases pending before that court, or before any magistrate, arbitrator, board, committee, or other person authorized to examine witnesses. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the state.

45.06 Contempt

Failure to obey a subpoena without adequate excuse is a contempt of court. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been taken it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him. A minute of the objection to the ruling or order shall be made by the judge or reporter; and the same may be preserved in a settled case.

RULE 47

JURORS

47.01 Examination of Jurors

The court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper.

47.02 Alternate Jurors

The court may direct that one or two jurors in addition to the regular panel be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors, in the order in which they are called, shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a principal juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. If one or two alternate jurors are called, each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against an alternate juror, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternates.

47.03 Separation of Jury

After the jury has retired for its deliberations, the court, in its discretion, may permit the jury to separate overnight and return to its deliberations the following morning.

RULE 48

JURIES OF LESS THAN TWELVE; MAJORITY VERDICT

The parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than 12, or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

RULE 49

SPECIAL VERDICTS AND INTERROGATORIES

49.01 Special Verdicts

The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and require written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanations and instructions concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand, the court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

49.02 General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories

The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the court shall direct the entry of the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers. When the answers are consistent with each other, but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, the court may direct the entry of judgment in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict, or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, the court shall not direct the entry of judgment, but may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict, or may order a new trial.

RULE 50

MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT; JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING VERDICT; ALTERNATIVE MOTION

50.01 Directed Verdict; When Made; Effect

A motion for a directed verdict may be made at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent or at the close of all the evidence. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent shall, after denial of the motion, have the right to offer evidence as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. If the evidence is sufficient to sustain a verdict for the opponent, the motion shall not be granted. The order of the court granting the motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.

50.02 Judgment Notwithstanding Verdict

(1) A party may move that judgment be entered notwithstanding the verdict or notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged, whether or not he has moved for a directed verdict, and the court shall grant the motion if the moving party would have been entitled to a directed verdict at the close of the evidence.

(2) A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may include in the alternative a motion for a new trial.

(3) A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict or notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged shall be made within the time specified in Rule 59 for the making of a motion for a new trial and may be made on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. On a motion for judgment notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged, the date of discharge shall be the equivalent of the date of rendition of a verdict within the meaning of that rule, but such motion must in any event be made before a retrial of the action is begun.

(4) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is granted, the court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the appellate court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the respondent on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the appellate court.

(5) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59 except that the times for serving and hearing said motion shall be determined from the date of notice of the trial court's order granting judgment notwithstanding rather than the date the verdict is returned.

(6) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, as respondent, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the appellate court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the appellate court reverses the judgment, nothing in this rule precludes it from determining that the respondent is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

RULE 51

INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY; OBJECTION

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The court shall inform the counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, and such action shall be made a part of the records. The court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed except, at the discretion of the court, preliminary instructions need not be repeated. No party may assign as error unintentional misstatements and verbal errors, or omissions in the charge, unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objections. An error in the instructions with respect to fundamental law or controlling principle may be assigned in a motion for a new trial though it was not otherwise called to the attention of the court.

FINDINGS BY THE COURT

52.01 Effect

In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon and direct the entry of the appropriate judgment; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a referee, to the extent that the court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the court. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Rules 12 or 56 or any other motion except as provided in Rule 41.02.

52.02 Amendment

Upon motion of a party made not later than the time allowed for a motion for new trial pursuant to Rule 59.03, the court may amend its findings or make additional findings, and may amend the judgment accordingly if judgment has been entered. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial and may be made on the files, exhibits, and minutes of the court. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

RULE 53

REFEREES

53.01 Appointment and Compensation

The court in which any action is pending may appoint a referee therein. When the court shall state in its order of appointment that the reference is made necessary by press of business, the fees of the referee, as taxed and allowed by the court, shall be paid out of the county treasury, as the salaries of county officers are paid. In other cases the compensation to be allowed to a referee shall be fixed by the court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action which is in the custody and control of the court as the court may direct. The referee shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the court, the referee is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.

53.02 Reference

A reference to a referee shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matters of account, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

53.03 Powers

The order of reference to the referee may specify or limit his powers and may direct him to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the referee's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the referee has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production before him of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. He may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may himself examine them and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the referee shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Rule 43.03 for a court sitting without a jury.

53.04 Proceedings

(1) Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the referee with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the referee shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within 20 days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the referee to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and referee, may apply to the court for an order requiring the referee to speed the proceedings and to make his report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the referee may proceed ex parte or, in his discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

(2) Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the referee by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Rule 45. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, he may be punished as for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Rules 37 and 45.

(3) Statement of Accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the referee, he may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the referee may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as he directs.

53.05 Report

(1) Contents and Filing. The referee shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to him by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, he shall set them forth in the report. He shall file the report with the clerk of the court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.

(2) In Non-Jury Actions. In an action to be tried without a jury the court shall accept the referee's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the report any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the court for action upon the report and upon objections thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Rule 6.04. The court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.

(3) In Jury Actions. In an action to be tried by a jury the referee shall not be directed to report the evidence. His findings upon the issues submitted to him are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.

(4) Stipulation as to Findings. The effect of a referee's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a referee's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.

(5) Draft Report. Before filing his report, a referee may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

RULE 54
JUDGMENTS; COSTS

54.01 Definition; Form

Judgment as used in these rules includes a decree and means the final determination of the rights of the parties in an action or proceeding. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a referee, or the record of prior proceedings.

54.02 Judgment upon Multiple Claims

When multiple claims for relief or multiple parties are involved in an action, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

54.03 Demand for Judgment

A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every other judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled.

54.04 Costs

Costs and disbursements shall be allowed as provided by statute. Costs and disbursements may be taxed by the clerk on two days' notice, and inserted in the judgment. The disbursements shall be stated in detail and verified by affidavit, which shall be filed, and a copy of such statement and affidavit shall be served with the notice. The party objecting to any item shall specify in writing the ground thereof; a party aggrieved by the action of the clerk may file a notice of appeal with the clerk, who shall forthwith certify the matter to the court. The appeal shall be heard upon eight days' notice and determined upon the objections so certified.

RULE 55
DEFAULT

When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend within the time allowed therefor by these rules or by statute, and that fact is made to appear by affidavit, judgment by default shall be entered against him as follows:

(1) When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is upon a contract for the payment of money only, or for the payment of taxes and penalties and interest thereon owing to the state, the clerk, upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due, which may not exceed the amount demanded in the complaint, shall enter judgment for the amount due and costs against the defendant.

(2) In all other cases, the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefor. If a party against whom judgment is sought has appeared in the action, he shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If the action be one for the recovery of money only, the court shall ascertain, by a reference or otherwise, the amount to which the plaintiff is entitled, and order judgment therefor.

(3) If other relief than the recovery of money be demanded and the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, be necessary to enable the court to give judgment, it may take or hear the same or order a reference for that purpose, and order judgment accordingly.

(4) When service of the summons has been made by published notice, or by delivery of a copy without the state, no judgment shall be entered on default until the plaintiff shall have filed a bond, approved by the court, conditioned to abide such order as the court may make touching the restitution of any property collected or obtained by virtue of the judgment in case a defense is thereafter permitted and sustained; provided, that in actions involving the title to real estate or to foreclose mortgages thereon such bond shall not be required. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

55.02 Plaintiffs; Counterclaimants; Cross-Claimants

The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases, a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54.03.

RULE 56
SUMMARY JUDGMENT

56.01 For Claimant

A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of 20 days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

56.02 For Defending Party

A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

56.03 Motion and Proceedings Thereon.

The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. Judgment shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that either party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

56.04 Case not Fully Adjudicated on Motion

If, on motion under this rule, judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall, if practicable, ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

56.05 Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required

Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions or by further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in Rule 56, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere averments or denials of his pleading but must present specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

56.06 When Affidavits are Unavailable

Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present, by affidavit, facts essential to justify his position, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

56.07 Affidavits Made in Bad Faith

Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

RULE 57

DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to M.S.A. 1949, c. 553, shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury is retained under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Rules 38 and 39. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

ENTRY OF JUDGMENT; STAY

58.01 Entry

Unless the court otherwise directs, and subject to the provisions of Rule 54.02, judgment upon the verdict of a jury, or upon an order of the court for the recovery of money only or for costs or that all relief be denied, shall be entered forthwith by the clerk; but the court shall direct the appropriate judgment to be entered upon a special verdict or upon a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories returned by a jury pursuant to Rule 49 or upon an order of the court for relief other than money or costs. Entry of judgment shall not be delayed for the taxation of costs, and the omission of costs shall not affect the finality of the judgment. The judgment in all cases shall be entered and signed by the clerk in the judgment book; this entry constitutes the entry of the judgment; and the judgment is not effective before such entry. A copy thereof, also signed by the clerk, shall be attached to the judgment roll. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

58.02 Stay

The court may order a stay of entry of judgment upon a verdict or decision for a period not exceeding the time required for the hearing and determination of a motion for new trial or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict or to set the verdict aside or to dismiss the action or for amended findings, and after such determination may order a stay of entry of judgment for not more than 30 days. In granting a stay of entry of judgment under this rule for any period exceeding thirty (30) days after verdict or decision, the court, in its discretion, may impose such conditions for the security of the adverse party as may be deemed proper.

RULE 59-

NEW TRIALS

59.01 Grounds

A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following causes:

(1) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, referee, jury, or prevailing party, or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the moving party was deprived of a fair trial;

(2) Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

(3) Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;

(4) Material evidence, newly discovered, which with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at the trial;

(5) Excessive or insufficient damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;

(6) Errors of law occurring at the trial, and objected to at the time or, if no objection need have been made under Rules 46 and 51, plainly assigned in the notice of motion;

(7) The verdict, decision, or report is not justified by the evidence, or is contrary to law; but, unless it be so expressly stated in the order granting a new trial, it shall not be presumed, on appeal, to have been made on the ground that the verdict, decision, or report was not justified by the evidence.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct entry of a new judgment.

59.02 Basis of Motion

A motion made under Rule 59.01 shall be made and heard on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. Pertinent facts that would not be a part of the minutes may be shown by affidavit. A full or partial transcript of the court reporter's notes may be used on the hearing of the motion.

59.03 Time for Motion

A notice of motion for a new trial shall be served within 15 days after a general verdict or service of notice by a party of the filing of the decision or order; and the motion shall be heard within 30 days after such general verdict or notice of filing, unless the time for hearing be extended by the court within the 30 day period for good cause shown.

59.04 Time for Serving Affidavits

When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits, they shall be served with the notice of motion. The opposing party shall have 10 days after such service in which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended by the court upon an order extending the time for a hearing under Rule 59.03. The court may permit reply affidavits.

59.05 On Initiative of Court

Not later than 15 days after a general verdict or the filing of the decision or order, the court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.

59.06 Stay of Entry of Judgment

A stay of entry of judgment under Rule 58 shall not be construed to extend the time within which a party may serve a motion hereunder.

RULE 60

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

60.01 Clerical Mistakes

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate court.

60.02 Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect;

Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc.

On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment (other than a divorce decree), order, or proceeding and may order a new trial or grant such other relief as may be just for the following reasons: (1) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59.03; (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this Rule 60.02 does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as provided in Rule 4.043, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

HARMLESS ERROR

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. The court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

RULE 62

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT

62.01 Stay on Motions

In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict made pursuant to Rule 50.02, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52.02.

62.02 Injunction Pending Appeal

When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

62.03 Stay Upon Appeal

When an appeal is taken, the appellant may obtain a stay only when authorized and in the manner provided in M.S.A. 1949, c. 605.

62.04 Stay in Favor of the State or Agency Thereof

When an appeal is taken by the state or an officer or agency or governmental subdivision thereof, and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

62.05 Power of Appellate Court not Limited

The provisions in this rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

62.06 Stay of Judgment Upon Multiple Claims

When a court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all of the claims presented in the action under the conditions stated in Rule 54.02, the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefits thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

RULE 63

DISABILITY OR DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE; AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE; ASSIGNMENT OF A JUDGE

63.01 Disability of Judge

If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability a judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court under these rules after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

63.02 Interest or Bias

No judge shall sit in any cause if he be interested in its determination or if he might be excluded for bias from acting therein as a juror. If there be no other judge of the district who is qualified, or if there be only one judge of the district, such judge shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the supreme court of his disqualification.

63.03 Affidavit of Prejudice

Any party or his attorney may make and serve on the opposing party and file with the clerk an affidavit stating that, on account of prejudice or bias on the part of the judge who is to preside at the trial or at the hearing of any motion, he has good reason to believe and does believe that he cannot have a fair trial or hearing before such judge. The affidavit shall be served and filed not less than 10 days prior to the first day of a general term, or 5 days prior to a special term or a day fixed by notice of motion, at which the trial or hearing is to be had, or, in any district having two or more judges, within one day after it is ascertained which judge is to preside at the trial or hearing. Upon the filing of such affidavit, with proof of service, the clerk shall forthwith assign the cause to another judge of the same district, and if there be no other judge of the district who is qualified, or if there be only one judge of the district, he shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the supreme court.

63.04 Assignment of Judge

Upon receiving notice as provided in Rules 63.02 and 63.03, the chief justice shall assign a judge of another district, accepting such assignment, to preside at the trial or hearing, and the trial or hearing shall be postponed until the judge so assigned can be present.

5483 APPENDIX 8. RULES, CIVIL PROCEDURE, DISTRICT COURT

VII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

RULE 64 SEIZURE OF PERSON OR PROPERTY

At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the state.

RULE 65 INJUNCTIONS

65.01 Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration

A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his attorney only if (a) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition, and (b) the applicant's attorney states to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give notice or the reasons supporting his claim that notice should not be required. In the event that a temporary restraining order is based upon any affidavit, a copy of such affidavit must be served with the temporary restraining order. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a temporary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest practicable time and shall take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a temporary injunction, and, if he does not do so, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On written or oral notice to the party who obtained the ex parte temporary restraining order, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification, and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

65.02 Temporary Injunction

(1) No temporary injunction shall be granted without notice of motion or an order to show cause to the adverse party.

(2) A temporary injunction may be granted if by affidavit, deposition testimony, or oral testimony in court, it appears that sufficient grounds exist therefor.

(3) Before or after the commencement of the hearing of a motion for a temporary injunction, the court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing on the motion. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon a motion for a temporary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subdivision shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

65.03 Security

(1) No temporary restraining order or temporary injunction shall be granted except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained.

(2) Whenever security is given in the form of a bond or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as his agent upon whom any papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

RULE 66 RECEIVERS

An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the court. A foreign receiver shall have capacity to sue in any district court, but his rights are subordinate to those of local creditors. The practice in the administration of estates by the court shall be in accordance with M.S.A. 1949, c. 576, and with the practice heretofore followed in the courts of this state or as provided in rules promulgated by the district courts. In all other respects, the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules.

RULE 67 DEPOSIT IN COURT

67.01 In an Action

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing.

67.02 When no Action is Brought

When money or other personal property in the possession of any person, as bailee or otherwise, is claimed adversely by two or more other persons, and the right thereto as between such claimants is in doubt, the person so in possession, though no action be commenced against him by any of the claimants, may place the property in the custody of the court. He shall apply to the court of the county in which the property is situated, setting forth by petition the facts which bring the case within the provisions of this section, and the names and places of residence of all known claimants of such property. If satisfied of the truth of such showing, the court, by order, shall accept custody of the money or other property, and direct that upon delivery, and upon giving notice thereof to all persons interested, personally or by registered mail, as in such order prescribed, the petitioner be relieved from further liability on account thereof. This rule shall apply to cases where property held under like conditions is garnished in the hands of the possessor; but in such cases the application shall be made to the court in which the garnishment proceedings are pending.

67.03 Court May Order Deposit or Seizure of Property

When it is admitted by the pleading or examination of a party that he has in his possession or control any money or other thing capable of delivery which, being the subject of the litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same to be deposited in court or delivered to such other party, with or without security, subject to further direction. If such order be disobeyed, the court may punish the disobedience as a contempt, and may also require the sheriff or other proper officer to take the money or property and deposit or deliver it in accordance with the direction given.

67.04 Money Paid Into Court

Where money is paid into the court to abide the result of any legal proceedings, the judge may order it deposited in a designated state or national bank or savings bank. In the absence of such order, the clerk of court is the official custodian of all moneys, and the judge, on application of any person paying such money into court, may require the clerk to give an additional bond, with like condition as the bond provided for in M.S.A. 1949, § 485.01, in such sum as the judge shall order.

RULE 68 OFFER OF JUDGMENT; TENDER OF MONEY IN LIEU OF JUDGMENT

68.01 Offer of Judgment

At any time more than one day before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property, or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs and disbursements then accrued. If before trial the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine costs and disbursements. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs and disbursements incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

68.02 Tender of Money in Lieu of Judgment

If the action be for the recovery of money, instead of the offer of judgment provided for in Rule 68.01, the defendant may tender to the plaintiff the full amount to which he is entitled, together with costs and disbursements then accrued. If such tender be not accepted, the plaintiff shall have no costs and disbursements unless he recover more than the sum tendered; and the defendant's costs and disbursements shall be deducted from the recovery, or, if they exceed the recovery, he shall have judgment for the excess. The fact of such tender having been made shall not be pleaded or given in evidence.

RULE 69
EXECUTION

Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the court directs otherwise. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of execution shall be in accordance with M.S.A. 1949, c. 550. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor, or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may examine any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules for taking depositions.

RULE 70
JUDGMENT FOR SPECIFIC ACTS; VESTING TITLE

If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the court, and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the state, the court in lieu of directing a conveyance thereof may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others; and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution upon application to the clerk.

RULE 71
PROCESS IN BEHALF OF AND AGAINST PERSONS NOT PARTIES

When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he were a party. (Note: Numbers 72 to 76 are reserved for future use.)

IX. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

RULE 77
DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

77.01 District Courts Always Open

The district courts shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading or other proper paper, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, and rules.

77.02 Trials and Hearings; Orders in Chambers

All trials upon the merits shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular courtroom. All other acts or proceedings may be done or conducted by a judge in chambers, without the attendance of the clerk or other court officials and at any place either within or without the district; but no hearing, other than one ex parte, shall be conducted outside the district without the consent of all parties affected thereby.

77.03 Clerk's Office and Orders by Clerk

All motions and applications in the clerk's office for issuing mesne process, for issuing final process to enforce and execute judgments, for entering judgments by default, and for other proceedings which do not require allowance or order of the court are grantable of course by the clerk; but his action may be suspended or altered or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

77.04 Notice of Orders or Judgments

Immediately upon the filing of an order or decision or entry of a judgment, the clerk shall serve a notice of the filing or entry by mail upon every party affected thereby or his attorney of record, whether or not such party has appeared in the action, at his last known address, and shall make a note in his records of the mailing, but such notice shall not limit the time for taking an appeal or other proceeding on such order, decision or judgment.

(Note: Numbers 78 and 79 are reserved for future use.)

RULE 80
STENOGRAPHIC REPORT OR TRANSCRIPT
AS EVIDENCE

Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was stenographically reported is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by a reading of the transcript thereof duly certified by the person who reported the testimony. Such evidence is rebuttable and not conclusive.

RULE 81
APPLICABILITY; IN GENERAL

81.01 Statutory and Other Procedures
(1) Procedures Preserved. These rules do not govern pleadings, practice and procedure in the statutory and other proceedings listed in Appendix A insofar as they are inconsistent or in conflict with the rules.

(2) Procedures Abolished. The writ of quo warranto and information in the nature of quo warranto are abolished. The relief heretofore available thereby may be obtained by appropriate action or appropriate motion under the practice prescribed in these rules.

(3) Statutes Superseded. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this rule, the statutes listed in Appendix B and all other statutes inconsistent or in conflict with these rules are superseded insofar as they apply to pleading, practice and procedure in the district court.

81.02 Appeals to District Courts

These rules do not supersede the provisions of statutes relating to appeals to the district courts.

81.03 Rules Incorporated into Statutes

Where any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, whether or not listed in Appendix A, provides that any act in a civil proceeding shall be done in the manner provided by law, such act shall be done in accordance with these rules.

RULE 82
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the district courts of Minnesota or the venue of actions therein.

RULE 83
RULES BY DISTRICT COURTS

Any court may adopt rules governing its practice, and the judges of the district courts, pursuant to M.S.A. 1949, §§ 484.33 and 484.52, may adopt rules, not in conflict with these rules.

RULE 84
APPENDIX OF FORMS

The forms contained in the Appendix of Forms are sufficient under the rules and are intended to indicate the simplicity and brevity of statement which the rules contemplate.

RULE 85
TITLE

These rules may be known and cited as Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 86
EFFECTIVE DATE

86.01 Effective Date and Application to Pending Proceedings

These rules will take effect on January 1, 1952. They govern all proceedings and actions brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies.

86.02 Effective Date of Amendments

The amendments adopted on November 10, 1967, will take effect on February 1, 1968. They govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except as to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the amendments take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure applies. (As amended March 3, 1959, effective July 1, 1959.)

COMPLAINT ON CLAIM FOR DEBT AND TO SET ASIDE FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE UNDER RULE 18.02

A. B., Plaintiff }
vs. C. D. and E. F., Defendants } COMPLAINT

1. Defendant C. D. on or about ..... executed and delivered to plaintiff a promissory note [in the following words and figures: (here set out the note verbatim)]: (a copy of which is hereto annexed as Exhibit A); (whereby defendant C. D. promised to pay to plaintiff or order on ..... the sum of five thousand dollars with interest thereon at the rate of ..... percent per annum).

2. Defendant C. D. owes to plaintiff the amount of said note and interest.

3. Defendant C. D. on or about ..... conveyed all his property, real and personal (or specify and describe) to defendant E. F. for the purpose of defrauding plaintiff and hindering and delaying the collection of the indebtedness evidenced by the note above referred to.

Wherefore plaintiff demands:

(1) That plaintiff have judgment against defendant C. D. for five thousand dollars and interest; (2) that the aforesaid conveyance to defendant E. F. be declared void and the judgment herein be declared a lien on said property; (3) that plaintiff have judgment against the defendants for costs and disbursements.

Form 13

COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER AND DECLARATORY RELIEF

1. On or about June 1, 1948, plaintiff issued to G. H. a policy of life insurance whereby plaintiff promised to pay to K. L. as beneficiary the sum of ten thousand dollars upon the death of G. H. The policy required the payment by G. H. of a stipulated premium on June 1, 1948, and annually thereafter as a condition precedent to its continuance in force.

2. No part of the premium due June 1, 1948, was ever paid and the policy ceased to have any force or effect on July 1, 1948.

3. Thereafter, on September 1, 1948, G. H. and K. L. died as the result of a collision between a locomotive and the automobile in which G. H. and K. L. were riding.

4. Defendant C. D. is the duly appointed and acting executor of the will of G. H.; defendant E. F. is the duly appointed and acting executor of the will of K. L.; defendant X. Y. claims to have been duly designated as beneficiary of said policy in place of K. L.

5. Each of defendants, C. D., E. F., and X. Y., is claiming that the above-mentioned policy was in full force and effect at the time of the death of G. H.; each of them is claiming to be the only person entitled to receive payment of the amount of the policy and has made demand for payment thereof.

6. By reason of these conflicting claims of the defendants, plaintiff is in great doubt as to which defendant is entitled to be paid the amount of the policy, if it was in force at the death of G. H.

Wherefore plaintiff demands that the court adjudge:

(1) That none of the defendants is entitled to recover from plaintiff the amount of said policy or any part thereof.

(2) That each of the defendants be restrained from instituting any action against plaintiff for the recovery of the amount of said policy or any part thereof.

(3) That, if the court shall determine that said policy was in force at the death of G. H., the defendants be required to interplead and settle between themselves their rights to the money due under said policy, and that plaintiff be discharged from all liability in the premises except to the person whom the court shall adjudge entitled to the amount of said policy.

(4) That plaintiff recover its costs and disbursements.
