205.20 M.S. 1957 [Repealed, 1959 c 675 art 13 s 1]

205.20 UNIFORM MUNICIPAL ELECTION DAY. Subdivision 1. Definition. For the purposes of this section, the term municipality means a city, however organized, village, or borough.

Subd. 2. Uniform municipal election day established. There is hereby established a uniform municipal election day. The uniform municipal election day shall be the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in odd-numbered years. Municipal officials elected on that date shall take office on the first business day of January next succeeding their election for such term as is provided by law or as is hereinafter provided. The governing body of a municipality may designate a date for the primary election not less than 14 days before the municipal election day.

Subd. 3. Adoption. Notwithstanding any provision of law or municipal charter to the contrary, and subject to the provisions of this section, the governing body of a municipality may by ordinance adopt the uniform municipal election day as its municipal election day.

Subd. 4. Modification of terms of office. If the uniform municipal election day is adopted, the terms of all incumbents at the time of adoption of the ordinance holding offices filled by municipal election whose terms end at a different date are hereby extended to the first business day in January of the even numbered year first following the date the term would otherwise expire, unless this extension would be longer than 13 months. If the extension would be longer than 13 months, the terms of such incumbents are hereby shortened so as to end on the first business day in January of the even numbered year first preceding the date the term would otherwise expire.

Notwithstanding any provision of law or municipal charter to the contrary, the governing body of a municipality adopting the uniform municipal election day shall in the adopting ordinance designate a new term for each office to be filled where the term for such office at the time of the ordinance is an odd number of years. Such new terms shall be an even number of years and for no more than one year longer than the term in effect at the time of the adoption of the ordinance. At the time of any election, the governing body may also provide that one or more members of any multi-member body shall be elected for a shorter term than is otherwise provided, if and in the manner necessary to achieve staggered terms on such multi-member bodies so that, to the extent mathematically possible, the same number of members is thereafter chosen at each election, exclusive of those chosen to fill vacancies for unexpired terms. If a village adopts the uniform municipal election day, it may in the adopting resolution provide that the terms of the mayor and council members are thereafter four years.

Subd. 5. Effect of ordinance; referendum. An ordinance adopting the uniform municipal election day shall not become effective until 90 days after passage and publication or at such later date as is fixed in the ordinance. Within 60 days after passage and publication of such an ordinance, a petition requesting a referendum on the ordinance may be filed with the municipal clerk. The petition shall be signed by qualified voters equal in number to five percent of the total number of votes cast in the municipality at the last state general election. If the municipality has a system of permanent registration of voters, only registered voters are eligible to sign the petition. If the requisite petition is filed within the prescribed period, the ordinance shall not become effective until it is approved by a majority of 55 percent of voters voting on the question at a general or special election held at least 60 days after submission of the petition. If the petition is filed, the governing body may reconsider its action in adopting the ordinance.
