Succeeding members shall be appointed for terms of six years, respectively, commencing at the expiration of the preceding terms. Any vacancy shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by the senate. The first tax court shall meet, organize, and adopt rules of procedure.

Subd. 3. Removal. A member of the tax court may be removed by the governor only for cause, after written notice of the charges against him and an opportunity to be heard publicly thereon.

271.06 APPEALS FROM ORDERS. Subdivision 1. Manner. Except as otherwise provided by law, an appeal to the tax court may be taken, in the manner herein provided, from any official order of the commissioner of revenue respecting any tax, fee, or assessment, or any matter pertaining thereto, by any person directly interested therein or affected thereby, or by any political subdivision of the state, directly or indirectly, interested therein or affected thereby, or by the attorney general in behalf of the state, or by any resident taxpayer of the state in behalf of the state in case the attorney general, upon request, shall refuse to appeal.

Subd. 2. Time; notice; intervention. Except as otherwise provided by law, within 30 days after notice of the making and filing of such order of the commissioner, and in any case within 60 days after the making and filing of such order, the appellant, or his attorney, shall serve a notice of appeal upon the commissioner and file the original, with proof of such service, with the tax court; provided, that any member of the tax court, for cause shown, may by written order extend the time for appealing for an additional period, not exceeding 30 days. The notice of appeal shall refer to the order appealed from, state specifically the points of both law and fact which are questioned by the appellant, and state an address within the state at which service of notice and other papers in the matter may be made upon the appellant; provided, that the tax court may, upon a showing of proper cause, permit an amendment of the notice of appeal. Every appellant shall be deemed to have waived all defenses and objections not specified in the notice of appeal. Within five days after receipt, the commissioner shall transmit a copy of the notice of appeal to the attorney general in all cases where the amount at issue exceeds $100. The attorney general shall represent the commissioner, if requested, upon all such appeals except in cases where the attorney general has appealed in behalf of the state, or in other cases where he deems it against the interests of the state to represent the commissioner, in which event the attorney general may intervene or be substituted as an appellant in behalf of the state at any stage of the proceedings.

Subd. 3. Pleadings. Within 20 days after the service and filing of the notice of appeal, unless the appeal be theretofore dismissed, the commissioner shall make, certify, and file with the tax court a return comprising a copy of any application or petition by which the proceeding was instituted and of any other material paper preceding the order of the commissioner, a copy of the order appealed from, a statement of each finding of fact and ruling of law made by the commissioner in the matter, and a denial, admission, or explanation with respect to each allegation of fact in the notice so far as not covered by the order or findings; provided, that any member of the tax court, for cause shown, may extend the time for filing such return for an additional period not exceeding 30 days. Where the commissioner is required to transmit a copy of the notice of appeal to the attorney general, he shall, within ten days after service of the notice of appeal upon the commissioner, transmit to the attorney general a complete copy of all papers required for the return. Allegations of new matter in the return shall be deemed to be denied by the appellant.

Subd. 4. Appeal fee. At the time of filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall pay to the clerk of the tax court an appeal fee equal to ten cents for each $100 or fraction thereof of the amount at issue in the proceedings; provided, that the minimum fee shall be $5 and the maximum fee $15 and that no appeal fee shall be required of the commissioner of revenue, the attorney general, the state or any of its political subdivisions. In any case where the foregoing provisions for determination of the appeal fee are inapplicable the amount of the fee shall be $10.

Subd. 5. Modification or rescission of orders. At any time before final determination of an appeal by the tax court, the commissioner may, upon notice to the appellant and with the approval of the attorney general, offer to modify or rescind the order appealed from and, if such action be satisfactory to the appellant and to all other parties appearing in the proceeding, if any, and they shall stipulate thereto in writing, the proposed modification or rescission shall be made by the commissioner, and the appeal shall thereupon be dismissed, with such adjustment of costs as may be agreed upon between the commissioner and the appellant and specified in the stipulation.

Subd. 6. Hearings; determination of issues; default. The tax court shall hear, consider, and determine every appeal de novo upon the issues made by the notice and the return. The tax court shall hold a public hearing in every case, of which ten days' notice shall be given by mail to all parties to the proceeding. All such parties shall have an opportunity to offer evidence and arguments at the hearing; provided, that the order of the commissioner in every case shall be prima facie valid. In case no appellant shall appear the tax court shall enter its order affirming the order of the commissioner of revenue from which the appeal was taken.

271.07 STENOGRAPHIC REPORT; TRANSCRIPT. The tax court shall provide for a verbatim stenographic report of all proceedings had before it upon appeals, in like manner as required by the laws relating to proceedings in district court so far as applicable. In case of a review by the supreme court of an order of the tax court, transcripts of the proceedings before the tax court shall be furnished to the tax court, the commissioner, and the attorney general upon request, and the cost thereof shall be paid out of funds appropriated therefor upon such terms as the tax court may prescribe. Transcripts shall be furnished to other parties by the reporter at the same legal rates applicable at the time to the district court reporters of Ramsey county, but no transcript shall be made for or delivered to such other party unless he shall deposit the estimated cost thereof, in advance, with the clerk, subject to payment of the actual cost therefrom as soon as determined.

271.08 FINDINGS OF FACT; DECISION, ENTRY OF JUDGMENT. Subdivision 1. The tax court shall determine every appeal by written order containing findings of fact and the decision of the tax court. A memorandum of the grounds of the decision shall be appended. A certified copy of the order shall be transmitted to the commissioner of revenue and filed in his office. Notice of the entry of the order and of the substance of the decision shall be given by mail to all other parties who have appeared, and also, in all cases where the amount at issue exceeds $100, to the attorney general.

Subd. 2. Upon the filing of the order of the tax court, described in subdivision 1, with the clerk of the district court of Ramsey county, within six months after such order has become final, judgment shall be entered thereon in the same manner as in the case of an order of the district court, as provided in section 546.27.

[1939 c 431 art 6 s 17; 1945 c 604 s 25; 1965 c 698 s 3; 1973 c 582 s 3] (2362-17)

271.09 APPEALS AND REVIEWS. Subdivision 1. Exclusive remedy. Except as otherwise provided herein, the right of appeal herein provided shall be the exclusive remedy for reviewing the action of the commissioner of revenue respecting any tax, assessment, or other obligation. Upon any appeal taken by a taxpayer, and upon any other appeal when the taxpayer shall so agree in writing filed with the clerk of the tax court the decision of the tax court, or the decision of the supreme court upon review thereof, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive upon all parties to the proceedings as to all matters at issue determined by such decision. In all cases the decision of the tax court upon appeal, or of the supreme court upon review, as the case may be, shall stand in lieu of the order of the commissioner from which the appeal was taken, and shall have like force and effect, subject to the provisions hereof.

Subd. 2. Review by tax court conclusive. Except as otherwise hereinafter provided, in all cases other than those wherein the taxpayer has appealed to the tax court or has agreed in writing, as herein provided, that the decision upon appeal or review shall be conclusive, all rights of action or defenses in the courts of the state respecting any tax, fee, or assessment, now afforded the taxpayer by law shall be preserved; provided, that no action by a taxpayer for a refund shall be instituted, proceeded with, or determined pending the determination of any appeal or review by the supreme court hereunder, except as hereinafter expressly authorized. Except as otherwise hereinafter provided, in any case wherein an appeal has been taken by a person other than the taxpayer and the taxpayer has not agreed that the decision upon appeal or review shall be conclusive, the running of the time limited by law for the bringing of an action by the taxpayer shall be suspended from the filing of the notice of appeal to the tax court until the final determination of the matter by the tax court or the supreme court, as the case may be, and for 60 days thereafter.

Subd. 3. Limitations; exceptions. In any case where, at the time of the taking of an appeal to the tax court by any person or agency other than the taxpayer, the taxpayer has an existing right of action in the district court for the determination of any issue or issues determinable upon the appeal, such right of action shall be barred, and the determination of such issue or issues upon the appeal, or upon review by the supreme court, shall be conclusive upon the taxpayer, unless within ten days after the service of the notice of appeal upon him the taxpayer shall commence an action for the determination of such issue or issues in the proper district court, upon a verified complaint, shall pay at least the amount of the tax or other obligation conceded by the complaint to be due, if any, shall file with the clerk of such court a bond, approved by the court, in at least such additional amount as might be adjudged against him, including interest, penalty, and costs, conditioned to prosecute the action with diligence and effect and to pay any amount required by or pursuant to any judgment that may be awarded against him therein, and shall serve upon the appellant and file with the clerk of the tax court a notice of the commencement of such action, with a copy of the summons and complaint therein, and of the bond required, as hereinbefore provided; provided, that this shall not relieve the taxpayer from complying with any other requirements of law. Thereupon further proceedings upon the appeal shall be stayed with respect to the issue or issues involved in the action until final determination of the action; provided, that this shall not stay the appeal as to any other issues. Upon final determination of the action the appeal shall be dismissed as to any issue or issues thereby determined. If the action be dismissed or finally disposed of in any way without final determination of any issue or issues involved in the appeal, the appeal shall be reinstated and may be proceeded with as to such issue or issues with like effect as if the action had not been commenced, and the determination upon the appeal, or upon review by the supreme court, shall be final and conclusive upon the taxpayer. The running of any period of time limited by law for enforcement of any obligation against the taxpayer shall be suspended for such time as the appeal is stayed under the provisions of this subdivision and for 60 days thereafter.

271.10 REVIEW BY SUPREME COURT. Subdivision 1. Certiorari. A review of any final order of the tax court may be had upon certiorari by the supreme court upon petition of any party to the proceedings before the tax court. Such review may be had on the ground that the tax court was without jurisdiction, that the order of the tax court was not justified by the evidence or was not in conformity with law, or that the tax court committed any other error of law.

Subd. 2. Service of writ. Within 20 days after notice of the making and filing of the order of the tax court, and in any case within 60 days after the making and filing of such order, the petitioner for review shall obtain from the supreme court a writ of certiorari, and shall serve the same upon the commissioner of revenue and upon all other parties appearing in the proceedings before the tax court, also upon the attorney general, unless he is the petitioner, and shall file the original, with proof of such service, with the clerk of the tax court. Every petitioner, except the attorney general, the commissioner of revenue, the state and its political subdivisions, shall also pay to the clerk the fee prescribed by section 605.03 which shall be disposed of in the manner provided by section 605.045, and file a bond or make a deposit in like manner and amount as in case of an appeal from the district court. The fee shall be disposed of as in such case. Return upon the writ shall be made to the supreme court and the matter shall be heard and determined by the court as in other certiorari cases, subject to the provisions hereof and to such rules as the court may prescribe for cases arising hereunder.

[1939 c 431 art 6 s 19; 1943 c 174 s 4; 1965 c 698 s 3; 1971 c 686 s 3; 1973 c 582 s 3] (2362-19)

271.11 ORDERS TO BE PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE OF FACTS. In all cases determinable by order of the commissioner of revenue, the order of the commissioner, or in case of appeal therefrom, the order of the tax court or the decision of the supreme court, as the case may be, shall be prima facie evidence of all facts therein stated and shall be prima facie evidence that all precedent requirements of the law were complied with, and shall be prima facie valid, and such order or decision shall be conclusive as to all matters therein determined upon every appellant or petitioner for review and upon all parties to the proceedings who shall have so agreed, in writing, as herein provided.

[1939 c 431 art 6 s 20; 1965 c 698 s 3; 1973 c 582 s 3] (2362-20)

271.12 WHEN ORDER EFFECTIVE. No order for refundment by the commissioner of revenue or the tax court shall take effect until the time for appeal therefrom or review thereof by all parties entitled thereto has expired. Otherwise every order of the commissioner or the tax court shall take effect immediately upon the filing thereof, and no appeal therefrom or review thereof shall stay the execution thereof or extend the time for payment of any tax or other obligation unless otherwise expressly provided by law; provided, that in case an order which has been acted upon, in whole or in part, shall thereafter be set aside or modified upon appeal, the determination upon appeal or review shall supersede the order appealed from and be binding upon all parties affected thereby, and such adjustments as may be necessary to give effect thereto shall be made accordingly, subject to any rights of action or defense of the taxpayer, as herein provided. If it be finally determined upon such appeal or review that any person is entitled to refundment of any amount which has been paid for a tax or other obligation, such amount, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be paid to him by the state treasurer, or other proper officer, out of funds derived from taxes of the same kind, if available for the purpose, or out of other available funds, if any, with interest at six per cent, unless a different rate of interest is otherwise provided by law, in which case such other rate shall apply, upon certification by the commissioner of revenue. If any tax, assessment, or other obligation be increased upon such appeal or review, the increase shall be added to the original amount, and may be enforced and collected therewith or in separate proceedings in like manner as the original amount.

Disobedience of any such subpoena or refusal by any witness to be sworn or to testify upon any material matter at any such hearing or investigation shall be punishable in like manner as a contempt of the district court, in proceedings instituted upon complaint of the authority issuing the subpoena in the district court of the county where the subpoena was made returnable. Subpoenas for witnesses or the production of documentary evidence shall be issued at the request of any party to the proceeding. Subpoenas may be signed by the commissioner or by
