A husband and wife, by their joint deed, may convey the real estate of either. The husband, by his separate deed, may convey any real estate owned by him, except the homestead, subject to the rights of his wife therein; and the wife, by her separate deed, may convey any real estate owned by her, except the homestead, subject to the rights of her husband therein; and either husband or wife may, by separate conveyance, relinquish his or her rights in the real estate so conveyed by the other. The husband or wife of any person who is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be insane or incompetent to transact his or her business or manage his or her estate, and for whose person or estate, or both, a guardian is appointed by a probate court of this state, may, with the guardian's approval, by separate deed convey any real estate, the title to which is in such husband or wife, as fully as he or she could do if unmarried. A duly certified copy of the letters of guardianship of the guardian shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate is situated. The approval of the conveyance by the guardian shall be in writing, after being first authorized to do so by an order of the probate court, and shall be endorsed on the instrument of the conveyance. Without the approval of the guardian, a conveyance by the husband or wife does not affect the rights of the insane or incompetent spouse.

Where no guardian has been appointed of the person or estate of such insane or incompetent spouse and such insanity or incompetency has existed or may exist for three years subsequent to the adjudication of the insanity or incompetency of the insane or incompetent spouse, the husband or wife of the insane or incompetent person may convey any real estate, the title to which is in the husband or wife, as fully as he or she could do if unmarried.

Subd. 3. This section does not authorize the conveyance of a homestead unless the guardian of the person or estate of the insane or incompetent person appointed by the probate court of the proper county consents in writing to the conveyance by endorsement thereon after being first authorized so to do by order of the probate court.

Subd. 4. The provisions of subdivisions 2 and 3 do not apply to a nonresident insane or incompetent person.

Subd. 5. In all cases where the probate court has directed a sale of the interest of an insane or incompetent person in real estate, the sale includes the inchoate interest of the person in any share or part of the real estate owned by such person's spouse whether or not specifically mentioned in the proceedings or conveyance, when the interest of the spouse is also conveyed to the same grantee.

Subd. 6. No conveyance of the homestead is valid unless made by both spouses in a joint deed or by separate deeds.

507.31 RAILROAD LANDS. Subdivision 1. Certified lists filed in counties. Every railroad company to whom lands have been or shall be conveyed by the state to aid in the construction of its road shall prepare, at its own expense, separate lists of such lands lying within the several counties, according to the government surveys, which lists shall be compared by the commissioner of finance with the original lists in his office received from the interior department of the general government; and each list when corrected by him shall have appended thereto his certificate that the same is a correct and complete list of the lands in the county certified to the state and by it conveyed to such company. Such lists so certified shall be filed by the companies with the registers of deeds of the respective counties where such lands lie, who shall keep the same as public records, and they shall be prima facie evidence of the title of such companies. In all cases where any railroad company has failed to comply with the provisions of this section, the board of county commissioners of any county in this state is hereby authorized to direct the register of deeds of the county to transcribe directly from the original patents or approved lists from the United States government to the State of Minnesota and the record of deeds from the State of Minnesota to the railroad company receiving such lands. Such original patents and record of deeds being on file in the commissioner of finance's office, the commissioner of finance shall offer the needed conveniences to any register of deeds who desires to make a transcript as herein provided. The county board shall furnish the register of deeds with the necessary books and records. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of finance to carefully compare such transcribed copies of patents, approved lists or deeds with the original instruments and records on file in his office, and when compared he shall so duly certify to each instrument. Such transcribed records duly certified by the commissioner of finance when deposited with the register of deeds of any county shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein set forth and of the original instruments so recorded; and an official transcript therefrom shall be admissible as evidence in all the courts of the state. The commissioner of finance shall receive no fees for his services. The register of deeds shall receive the same fees as allowed by law for recording original instruments in his office, which sum shall be paid by the county upon the approval of the board of county commissioners.

Subd. 2. Certified copies of conveyances affecting title to be filed; exception. When, under any law heretofore existing, any deed, mortgage, trust deed, foreclosure papers, or other instrument affecting the title to any lands heretofore owned by any railroad company has been recorded by the secretary of state, but not in the county where such lands lie, the secretary, upon application of any county board or of any person interested, shall furnish to the register of deeds certified copies of any such records affecting lands in such county and the register of deeds shall index and record the same. Such copies and the record thereof shall have the same effect as the record of the original instruments. For services performed hereunder the secretary shall receive no fees, but the register of deeds shall receive the same fees as are allowed for other similar services to be paid by the state.

507.32 RECORD, WHEN NOTICE TO PARTIES; ASSIGNMENT OF MORTGAGE. The record, as herein provided, of any instrument properly recorded shall be taken and deemed notice to parties. The record of an assignment of a mortgage shall not in itself be notice of such assignment to the mortgagor, his heirs or personal representatives, so as to invalidate any payment made by either of them to the mortgagee.

507.33 CERTAIN RECITALS NOT TO CONSTITUTE NOTICE OF MORTGAGE. Where an instrument affecting the title to real property in this state recites the existence of a mortgage against the real property, or some part thereof, where the instrument containing such recital either was recorded prior to 1900 in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the real property, or some part thereof, is situated, or was filed prior to that date in a judicial proceeding affecting the real property, or some part thereof, in the district court or probate court of such county, and where the time of the maturity of the whole of the debt secured by the mortgage is not clearly stated in the recital, then such recital may be disregarded and shall not constitute notice of the mortgage, either actual or constructive, to any subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer of the real property, or any part thereof.

[1939 c. 390 s. 1] (8225-1)

507.331 CERTAIN RECITALS DISREGARDED. Where any instrument affecting the title to real estate in this state recites the existence of a contract for conveyance affecting such real property, or some part thereof, and the instrument containing such recital was recorded prior to 1910 in the office of the register of deeds of the county wherein the real property, or some part thereof, is situated, and no action or proceeding has been taken upon such contract for conveyance and the time for performing the conditions contained in such contract expired prior to 1925, then such recital may be disregarded and shall not constitute notice of the contract for conveyance, either actual or constructive, to any subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer of the real property, or any part thereof.

[1941 c. 192 s. 1]

507.332 RECITALS IN WRITTEN INSTRUMENTS NOT TO CONSTITUTE NOTICE IN CERTAIN CASES. Where an instrument affecting the title to real property in this state recites the existence of a mortgage against said real property or some part thereof, where the instrument containing such recital either was recorded prior to 1930 in the office of the register of deeds of the county where said real property or some part thereof is situated or was filed prior to said date in a judicial proceeding effecting [affecting] said real property or some part thereof in the district court or probate court of such county, and where the time of the maturity of the whole of the debt secured by said mortgage is not clearly stated in said recital, then such recital may be disregarded and shall not constitute notice of said mortgage, either actual or constructive, to any subsequent purchaser or incumbrancer of said real property or any part thereof.

Nothing contained in this section shall affect actions now pending or commenced within six months after the passage of Laws 1947, Chapter 626, in any court of this state.

[1943 c 180; 1947 c 626 s 1]

507.34 UNRECORDED CONVEYANCES VOID IN CERTAIN CASES. Every conveyance of real estate shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where such real estate is situated; and every such conveyance not so recorded shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real estate, or any part thereof, whose conveyance is first duly recorded, and as against any attachment levied thereon or any judgment lawfully obtained at the suit of any party against the person in whose name the title to such land appears of record prior to the recording of such conveyance. The fact that such first recorded conveyance is in the form, or contains the terms of a deed of quitclaim and release shall not affect the question of good faith of such subsequent purchaser or be of itself notice to him of any unrecorded conveyance of the same real estate or any part thereof.

[R. L. s. 3357] (8226)

507.35 DEED TO TRUSTEE INEFFECTIVE IN CERTAIN CASES; DEFECT, HOW CURED. When any instrument, otherwise legal, affecting the title to real estate situate in this state, granting any interest therein to or evidencing any lien thereon in favor of any person, as trustee, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds, or filed in the office of the registrar of titles, of the county in which such real estate is situate, and the powers of such trustee and the beneficiary of such trust are not set forth in the instrument expressly or by reference to an instrument so recorded or filed such designation of such grantee, as trustee, may be disregarded and shall not be deemed to give notice to any person of the rights of any beneficiary under such trust in the real estate unless and until an instrument defining or conferring such powers of such trustee and designating the beneficiary thereunder, with a certificate attached executed by the trustee in the same manner as deeds are required to be executed by the laws of this state describing such instrument so granting an interest or evidencing a lien and stating that the same is held subject to the provisions of such trust, shall be so recorded or filed

[1929 c. 318 s. 1] (8226-1)

507.36 INSTRUMENTS RELATING TO TIMBER, MINERALS. Every instrument heretofore or hereafter executed in the form of a conveyance, mortgage, lease, or in any other form in any manner affecting standing timber, stone, ores, minerals, or other similar property in place in or upon the earth, when executed and acknowledged in the manner provided for the execution and acknowledgment of conveyances, may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of any county in which such property is situated and such record shall be notice of the contents thereof and of the rights of all parties thereunder, as well after as before the severance or separation of such property from the land.

[R. L. s. 3359] (8230)

507.37 RECORD OF CONVEYANCE OF LAND IN UNORGANIZED COUNTY. The record of every conveyance or other instrument affecting real estate in any unorganized county heretofore recorded in the county to which such unorganized county was then attached for judicial purposes, shall have the same force and effect as if recorded in the county where the real estate is situated.

[R. L. s. 3360] (8231)

507.38 WHEN DEED NOT DEFEATED BY DEFEASANCE. When a deed purports to be an absolute conveyance but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of an instrument of defeasance the original conveyance shall not thereby be defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance is recorded in the county where the lands lie.

[R. L. s. 3362] (8233)

507.40 MORTGAGES, HOW DISCHARGED. A mortgage may be discharged by filing for record a certificate of its satisfaction executed and acknowledged by the mortgagee, his personal representative, or assignee, as in the case of a conveyance. The register of deeds shall enter the number of such certificate and the book and page of its record upon the record of the mortgage. If a mortgage be recorded in more than one county and discharged of record in one of them, a certified copy of such discharge may be recorded in another county with the same effect as the original. If the discharge be by marginal entry, heretofore made, such copy shall include the record of the mortgage. In all cases the discharge shall be entered in the reception book and indexes as conveyances are entered.

[R. L. s. 3363; 1955 c. 328 s. 1] (8234)

507.41 PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO DISCHARGE. When any mortgagee, his personal representative, or assignee, upon full performance of the conditions of the mortgage, shall fail to discharge the same within ten days after being thereto requested and after tender of his reasonable charges therefor, he shall be liable to the mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, for all actual damages thereby occasioned; and a claim for such damages may be asserted in an action for discharge of the mortgage. If the defendant be not a resident of the state, such action may be maintained upon the expiration of 60 days after the conditions of the mortgage have been performed, without such previous request or tender.
