525.0105 [Repealed, 1971 c 951 s 44]

525.011 CIVIL AND CRIMINAL JURISDICTION. Subdivision 1. Except in counties having a city of the first class or in counties having a population of more than 30,000 according to the 1950 federal census, the probate court shall also exercise the powers, duties and jurisdiction conferred upon municipal courts by chapters 488, 491, 492, and 493, or under any other law enacted in lieu thereof which provides for uniform powers, duties and jurisdiction of municipal courts.

Subd. 2. The county board of a county in which additional powers, duties and jurisdictions are conferred upon the probate court by subdivision 1, shall provide and furnish to the probate court such supplies, equipment and personnel as may be necessary for the purposes of the subdivision.

Subd. 3. The clerk of the probate court of a county in which additional powers, duties and jurisdictions are conferred upon probate court by subdivision 1 shall exercise such powers and duties as the probate judge may direct in order to enable the probate court to carry out the provisions of subdivision 1.

525.012 FEES, FINES, AND COSTS. Subdivision 1. Except where otherwise specifically provided by law or any ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation of a city in the county of the court's jurisdiction, all fees, fines, and costs collected by the probate court, or the clerk thereof, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the court is situated and credited to the general fund.

Subd. 2. On or before the tenth day of each month, the clerk shall file with the treasurer a verified report showing: (1) The names of all persons convicted during the preceding month, and the nature of the offense; (2) The fine or other punishment imposed; (3) The amount paid by cash, and the amount of cash deposited in lieu of bail, since his last report; (4) The total amount of money received from all sources during the same period; (5) The names of all persons discharged from jail by order of the court.

Subd. 3. The clerk shall receive all fines, deposits, penalties, and other moneys paid into court and keep detailed accounts thereof.

Subd. 4. Upon filing the reports required by this section, the clerk shall pay to the treasurer of the county in which the court is situated all sums in his hands to which the treasurer is entitled; he shall pay all other moneys to the other public officers entitled thereto; and he shall inform the treasurer of all moneys remaining in his hands pursuant to law or court order.

Subd. 5. The clerk shall pay such fees and mileage to witnesses as may be ordered by the probate judge in any action or proceeding involving a charged violation of criminal law or municipal ordinance. The clerk shall obtain receipts therefor as vouchers for the sums paid and shall deduct these payments from the amounts otherwise due the officers to whom the clerk is required to pay fees, costs, and fines. If the clerk is without funds to make the payments required by this subdivision, the witnesses shall be paid, upon certification by the clerk, by the city whose municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation is involved in the proceeding, and in other cases by the county in which the court is situated. No witness fees under this subdivision shall be paid in advance. No public officer or employee shall be paid any witness fees when he is called upon to testify in a matter resulting from his public employment.

[1959 c 494 s 2; 1973 c 123 art 5 s 7]

525.013 JURY TRIALS. Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 488, or in any other law enacted in lieu thereof which provides for uniform powers, duties, and jurisdiction of municipal courts, the laws relating to jury trials in the district court apply to jury trials in a probate court under sections 525.011 to 525.015.

Subd. 2. Petit jurors for the trial of all types of action shall be selected in accordance with this section.

Subd. 3. Before the first day of September of each year, the county board at a general or special session and meeting with the judge of the probate court shall select from the qualified electors of the county in which the court is situated, a list of not less than 72 and not more than 144 persons properly qualified to serve as petit jurors and certify the list to the clerk of probate court. If there is a deficiency of persons on the list, the county board meeting with the judge of the probate court may select from the qualified electors of the county additional persons to cover the deficiency and certify and deliver to the clerk a supplementary list which shall thereafter stand as a part of the original list. The validity of the selection is not affected by the fact that any person selected is disqualified from serving as a juror.

Subd. 4. Petit jurors shall be drawn from the list of persons properly qualified. The clerk of probate court shall issue a venire for the jurors drawn which shall be returnable on such dates and hours as the judge directs. No person shall be drawn as a juror more than once every two years.

Subd. 5. When necessary, the court may issue a special venire.

Subd. 6. Failure to attend as a juror when duly drawn and summoned is punishable as contempt of court.

Subd. 7. Jurors shall be paid by the county in which the court is situated the same compensation and mileage as prescribed by law for jurors in the district court. The clerk of probate court shall deliver to each juror a certificate showing the number of days of service and the mileage for which he is entitled to receive compensation. This certificate shall be filed with the county auditor in which the court is situated and the amount due shall be paid from the treasury of such county. The certificate is a proper and sufficient voucher for the issuance of a warrant. Any juror regularly summoned who actually attends at the time named in such summons is entitled to per diem and mileage whether or not sworn as a juror.

Subd. 8. Whenever a petit jury is desired by a party to a proceeding in probate court under sections 525.011 to 525.015, and such jury is permitted by law, such party shall request such jury, in writing, when the case is set for trial and pay the fees prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 488, or any other law enacted in lieu thereof which provides for uniform powers, duties, and jurisdiction conferred upon municipal courts. The court, by order, may waive the payment of jury fees in a criminal case if it appears that the defendant is unable to make such payment.

525.014 PLEADING, PRACTICE, PROCEDURE, AND APPEALS. Subdivision 1. Pleading, practice, procedure, and the forms thereof in civil actions shall be the same in probate court as in the municipal court under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 488, or any other law enacted in lieu thereof which provides for uniform powers, duties, and jurisdiction of municipal courts.

Subd. 2. Appeals from any judgment of a probate court exercising the powers, duties, and jurisdiction in certain civil and criminal cases under sections 525.011 to 525.015, shall be made in the same manner as in the municipal courts under Laws 1959, Chapter 660, and any act amendatory of or supplementary thereto.

[1959 c 494 s 4; 1961 c 238 s 1]

525.015 JUDGMENTS. No judgment of a probate court under sections 525.011 to 525.015 shall be a lien upon the real estate until a transcript thereof is filed and docketed with the clerk of the district court. If no execution thereon be outstanding, the judgment creditor may cause such transcript to be docketed in the same county, and thereafter execution may issue from either court. The clerk with whom the transcript is so filed may issue transcripts to be filed and docketed in other counties, as in the case of a judgment originally rendered in his court. When docketed as herein provided, the judgment shall have the same force and effect in all respects as the judgment of the district court.

[1959 c 494 s 5]

525.02 POWERS. In addition to its general powers, the probate court shall have power:

(1) To examine witnesses on oath, to compel their attendance, and to preserve order during any proceedings before it;

(2) To issue citations, subpoenas, and attachments, to make orders, judgments, and decrees, to issue executions, warrants, or processes to enforce them, and to authorize the taking of depositions of witnesses either within or without the state in any matter pending in such court; provided, that in any contested matter notice of the taking of the deposition shall be given as provided by law;

(3) To adjourn any hearing with or without terms, provided that when objection is made the adjournment shall be only for cause shown by affidavit or otherwise;

(4) To correct, modify, vacate, or amend its records, orders and decrees:

(b) Within the time for taking an appeal, for the correction of judicial error;

(c) Within one year after petitioner's discovery thereof, for fraud, whether intrinsic or extrinsic, or misrepresentation unless petitioner be a party to such fraud;

(d) Within two years after the date of filing of any record, order or decree, for excusable neglect, inadvertence or mistake.

In any case, the petitioner must proceed with due diligence and may be barred by laches or the court may deny relief where it appears that the granting thereof would be inequitable in view of all the facts and circumstances appearing.

(5) To order any representative to surrender and deliver property to his successor or to distribute it;

(6) To punish for contempt, including contempt committed in proceedings before the referee, clerk, or auditor.

[1935 c 72 s 2; 1965 c 563 s 1] (8992-2)

(6) A record of claims, properly indexed, in which shall be entered under the title of the estate all claims filed against such estate and all offsets thereto. It shall show the number of the claim, the date of filing, the name of the claimant, the amount of the claim, the date of adjudication, the amounts allowed and disallowed, and the final balance;

(7) A record of orders, properly indexed, in which shall be recorded all orders authorizing, or refusing to authorize, the sale, mortgage, or lease of real estate or confirming, or refusing to confirm, the sale or lease of real estate; all orders directing, or refusing to direct, a conveyance or lease of real estate under contract; all orders vacating a previous appealable order, judgment, or decree; all orders refusing to vacate a previous appealable order, judgment, or decree alleged to have been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, or through surprise or excusable inadvertence or neglect; all judgments or decrees of partial or final distribution; all interlocutory decrees entered pursuant to section 525.481; and all orders granting or denying restoration to capacity.

525.181 COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES. If a witness to a will is competent at the time of his attestation, his subsequent incompetency shall not prevent the admission to probate of such will, nor shall a mere charge on the real estate of the testator for the payment of his debts prevent a creditor from being a competent witness to his will.

[1935 c. 72 s. 35] (8992-35)

525.182 NUNCUPATIVE WILLS. Nuncupative wills shall not be valid unless made by a soldier in actual service or by a mariner at sea, and then only as to personal estate. To entitle such a will to probate, the testamentary words, or the substance thereof, must be reduced to writing within 30 days after they were spoken; the petition for probate must be filed within six months after they were spoken. In addition to the facts otherwise required, the petition shall allege the date, before whom the same were spoken, and by whom the same were reduced to writing. Such writing shall accompany the petition. No such will shall be admitted to probate except upon testimony of at least two credible and disinterested witnesses.

525.183 WILLS MADE ELSEWHERE. A will made out of this state may be admitted to probate if executed according to the laws of this state, or if in writing, signed by the testator and valid according to the laws of the state or country in which it was made or of the testator's domicile.

525.184 BENEFICIARY A WITNESS. A beneficial devise or bequest made in a will to a subscribing witness thereto shall be void unless there be two other competent subscribing witnesses who are not beneficiaries thereunder. If such witness would have been entitled to any share of the testator's estate in the absence of a will, then so much of such share as will not exceed the value of the devise or bequest shall be assigned to him from the part of the estate included in the void devise or bequest.

525.19 REVOCATION OF WILL. No will in writing shall be revoked or altered otherwise than by some other will in writing; or by some other writing of the testator declaring such revocation or alteration, and executed with the same formalities with which the will itself was required by law to be executed; or unless such will be burnt, torn, canceled, obliterated or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking the same, by the testator himself or by another person in his presence by his direction and consent. When so done by another person, the direction and consent of the testator and the facts of such injury or destruction shall be proved by at least two witnesses. Nothing in this section shall prevent the revocation implied by law from subsequent change in the condition or circumstances of the testator.

525.191 REVOCATION BY MARRIAGE OR DIVORCE. If after making a will testator marries, the will is thereby revoked. If after making a will the testator is divorced, all provisions in such will in favor of the testator's spouse so divorced are thereby revoked.

525.20 AFTER-BORN CHILD. If any child of the testator, including a posthumous child, born after the making of a will has no provision made for him by the testator by will or otherwise, he shall take the same share that he would have taken if the testator had died intestate unless it appears that such omission was intentional and not occasioned by accident or mistake.

[1935 c. 72 s. 41] (8992-41)

525.201 OMITTED CHILD. If a testator omits to provide in his will for any of his children or the issue of a deceased child, they shall take the same share of his estate which they would have taken if he had died intestate unless it appears that such omission was intentional and not occasioned by accident or mistake.

525.202 APPORTIONMENT. If the person takes a portion of a testator's estate under the provisions of section 525.20 or 525.201, such portion shall first be taken from the estate not disposed of by the will; if that be insufficient, so much as is necessary shall be taken from all the devisees and legatees in proportion to the value of what they respectively receive under such will. If the obvious intention of the testator in relation to some specific devise, bequest, or other provision of the will would thereby be defeated, then such specific devise, bequest, or provision may be exempted from such apportionment, and a different apportionment adopted in the discretion of the court.

[1935 c. 72 s. 43] (8992-43)

525.203 DECEASED BENEFICIARY. If a devise or bequest be made to a child or other blood relative of the testator who dies before the testator leaving issue who survive the testator, such issue shall take the same estate which such devisee or legatee would have taken if he had survived, unless a different disposition be made or required by the will.

[1935 c. 72 s. 44] (8992-44)

525.21 QUANTITY OF ESTATE DEVISED. Every devise of real estate shall convey all the estate of the testator therein subject to liens and encumbrances thereon unless a different intention appears from the will.

[1935 c. 72 s. 45] (8992-45)

525.211 AFTER-ACQUIRED PROPERTY. All property acquired by the testator after making his will shall pass thereby in like manner as if possessed by him at the time when he made his will, unless a different intention clearly appears from the will.

[1935 c. 72 s. 46] (8992-46)

525.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 525.145 and 525.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from the contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.

525.213 CONVEYANCES TO DEFEAT MARITAL RIGHTS; RIGHT OF SURVIVING SPOUSE. Title and transferability of assets shall remain unfettered and freely alienable to third parties unless the surviving spouse gives proper notice as required hereunder. A conveyance of assets by a person who retains a power of appointment by will, or a power of revocation or consumption over the principal thereof, shall at the election of his surviving spouse be treated as a testamentary disposition so far as the surviving spouse is concerned to the extent to which the power has been reserved, but the right of the surviving spouse shall be subject to the rights of any income beneficiary whose interest in income becomes vested in enjoyment prior to the death of the conveyer. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any contract of life insurance purchased by a decedent whether payable in trust or otherwise.

The rights of a surviving spouse created by this section shall not give rise to any right, claim, or cause of action against any person who pays over, delivers or transfers title to any asset in reliance upon the terms of any conveyance, deposit contract or other agreement upon the death of the conveyer without prior notice in writing given to such person of the election of such surviving spouse to treat such conveyance, deposit contract, or other agreement as a testamentary disposition.

A spouse's rights as against the person to whom assets were initially conveyed by decedent under the aforementioned sections shall be preserved in all events even though the assets cannot be recovered for the reason that they have been transferred to a third party. The value of said assets shall be accounted for by such person to the court to the extent that the spouse had a potential interest therein and the court shall determine the spouse's rights and grant equitable relief only as against the person to whom the assets were initially conveyed by decedent and succeeded to upon his death, unless the required notice is given.

In the case of real estate, a notice of lis pendens shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds as to abstract property, and with the registrar of titles as to registered property, in the county wherein the property is located, giving the name and address of the surviving spouse, containing a brief statement of the nature and extent of the interest claimed, legal description of the real estate involved, and the title and venue of the case wherein such rights are being determined.

525.214 DETERMINATION OF SHARE. The spouse may elect to take against any such conveyance and shall be entitled to one third thereof if the conveyer is survived by more than one child, or by one or more children and the issue of a deceased child or children, or by the issue of more than one deceased child, and in all other circumstances one half thereof. In addition thereto, the spouse shall be entitled to personal property selection and maintenance as provided by section 525.15, if there are insufficient probate assets to pay the same.

[1969 c 1003 s 2]

525.215 ELECTION AGAINST OTHER CONVEYANCES. A spouse electing under sections 525.213 to 525.216 also must elect to take against the will, if spouse is a beneficiary thereunder, and against all other conveyances within the scope of section 525.213 of which spouse is a beneficiary. A spouse electing to take against the will pursuant to section 525.212 also must elect to take against all conveyances within the scope of section 525.213 of which spouse is a beneficiary. The share of any surviving spouse in all assets, probate and non-probate, shall thereupon be determined in accordance with the laws of intestacy.

525.216 PROCEDURE. The election to treat a conveyance as testamentary shall be made in the same manner as an election to take against the will. If there is a will, such election shall be made within the same time limitations as an election to take against the will. If there is no will, such election shall be made within one year of the conveyer's death, and the probate court, on application of the sur-living spouse made within such period, may extend the time for making the election. It can be made only if there has been no forfeiture of the right to make an election. The court having jurisdiction of the deceased conveyer's estate shall determine the rights of the surviving spouse in the property included in the conveyance.

525.22 DEPOSIT OF WILLS. A will in writing enclosed in a sealed wrapper upon which is endorsed the name and address of the testator, the day when, and the person by whom it is delivered, may be deposited in the probate court of the county where the testator resides. The court shall give a certificate of its deposit and shall retain such will. During the testator's lifetime, such will shall be delivered only to him or upon his written order witnessed by at least two subscribing witnesses and duly acknowledged. After the testator's death, the court shall open the will publicly and retain the same. Notice shall be given to the executor named therein and to such other persons as the court may designate. If the proper venue is in another court, the will shall be transmitted to such court; but before such transmission a true copy thereof shall be made by and retained in the court in which the will was deposited.

525.221 DUTY OF CUSTODIAN. After the death of a testator, the person having custody of his will shall deliver it to the court which has jurisdiction thereof. Every person who neglects to deliver a will after being duly ordered to do so shall be guilty of contempt of court.

525.222 [Repealed, 1974 c 442 art 8 s 524.8--102]

525.2221 WILLS NOT AFFECTED. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of any will executed prior to June 1, 1973 relating to one's "minority" or "majority" or other related terms shall be governed by the definitions of such terms existing at the time of the execution of the will.

UNIFORM TESTAMENTARY ADDITIONS TO TRUSTS ACT

525.223 UNIFORM TESTAMENTARY ADDITIONS TO TRUSTS ACT. Subdivision 1. Testamentary additions to trusts. A devise or bequest, the validity of which is determinable by the law of this state, may be made by a will to the trustee or trustees of a trust established or to be established by the testator or by the testator and some other person or persons or by some other person or persons, including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts, if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument, other than a will, executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will or in the valid last will of a person who has predeceased the testator, regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust. The devise or bequest shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or after the death of the testator. Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed (a) shall not be deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become a part of the trust to which it is given and (b) shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the instrument or will setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before the death of the testator, regardless of whether made before or after the execution of the testator's will, and, if the testator's will so provides, including any amendments to the trust made after the death of the testator. A revocation or termination of the trust before the death of the testator shall cause the devise or bequest to lapse.

Subd. 2. Effect on prior wills. This section shall not invalidate any devise or bequest made by a will executed prior to the effective date of Laws 1963, Chapter 13.

Subd. 3. Uniformity of interpretation. This section shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Subd. 4. Short title. This section is the uniform testamentary additions to trusts act.

Subd. 5. Effective date. This section shall take effect upon final enactment, and shall apply to all wills and trusts heretofore or hereafter executed.

525.253 SALE OF DEVISED PROPERTY. Subdivision 1. Unless a contrary intent appears from the will, an agreement made by a testator for the sale or transfer of real property disposed of by the will previously made, does not revoke or adeem such disposal; but all the right, title, and interest of the decedent in such property and in said agreement shall pass, according to the terms of the will. Such an agreement shall be enforceable and subject to the same remedies for specific performance or otherwise against the devisees or legatees as exists against a decedent's successors if the same passed by succession.

Subd. 2. This section shall be applicable to estates of decedents dying after June 5, 1969.

LOST AND DESTROYED WILLS

525.26 PETITION AND HEARING. The petition for the probate of a lost or destroyed will, or one which is without the state and cannot be produced in court shall set forth the provisions of the will in addition to the requirements of section 525.231. Such provisions in such particularity as the court may direct shall be embodied in the notice of hearing, which notice shall be given pursuant to section 525.83.

525.261 SUFFICIENCY OF PROOF. No such will shall be established unless it is proved to have remained unrevoked nor unless its provisions are clearly and distinctly proved.

[1935 c. 72 s. 64] (8992-64)

525.271 ALLOWANCE. Upon the filing of a duly authenticated copy of such will and of the order, judgment, or decree admitting it to probate, with the petition of the executor or any person interested in the estate for its allowance and for letters, the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given pursuant to section 525.83. If such will was admitted to probate by a court of competent jurisdiction and if the order, judgment, or decree of admission to probate is still in force, the court shall allow the will and appoint a representative as if the will were originally proved and allowed in such court.

525.272 ADMINISTRATION. The estate of a non-resident decedent shall be administered in the same manner as an estate of a resident decedent. Upon the payment of the expenses of administration, of the debts and other items here proved, and of the inheritance taxes, the residue of the personalty shall be distributed according to the terms of the will applicable thereto; or if the terms of the will be not applicable thereto, or if there be no will, it shall be distributed according to the law of the decedent's domicile; or the court may direct that it be transmitted to the domiciliary representative to be disposed of by him. The real estate not sold in the course of administration shall be assigned according to the terms of the will applicable thereto, or if the terms of the will be not applicable thereto, or if there be no will, it shall descend according to the laws of this state.

ESTATE INVENTORY

525.33 CONTENTS OF INVENTORY. Within one month after his appointment unless a longer time has been granted by the court, every representative shall make and exhibit to the court a verified inventory of all the estate of the decedent or ward which shall have come to his possession or knowledge. Such property shall be classified therein as follows: (1) real estate, with plat or survey description, and if a homestead, designated as such, (2) furniture and household goods, (3) wearing apparel, (4) corporation stocks described by certificate numbers, (5) mortgages, bonds, notes, and other written evidence of debt, described by name of debtor, recording data, or other identification, (6) all other personal property accurately identified. All encumbrances, liens, and other charges on any item shall be stated. The representative shall set forth in the inventory the fair market value of all assets listed therein. If appraisers are appointed by the court, the value of assets other than those assets specified in section 525.331, subdivision 1, clause (c) shall be determined by the court appointed appraisers. In case of a decedent's estate, such value shall be the value at the date of the decedent's death. In the case of a guardianship, such value shall be the value at the date of appointment of the guardian. Such inventory shall show the net value of each item after deducting all encumbrances, liens and charges and the total net value of each class of items and of all classes.

525.39 PROPERTY SET APART. After the inventory and appraisal has been filed the surviving spouse or, in case there be none, the children, or when they are minors, their guardian, may petition the court to set apart the homestead and the personal property allowed in section 525.15. Such petition shall show the names, ages, and relationship of the parties, a description of the homestead claimed and of the personal property selected, and the appraised value thereof. Upon proof of such petition, the court shall set apart such homestead and personal property. The property so set apart shall be delivered by the representative to the persons entitled thereto, and shall not be treated as assets in his hands, but the homestead shall be included in the partial or final decree of distribution.

525.391 PROPERTY FRAUDULENTLY CONVEYED. When the property available for the payment of debts is insufficient to pay the same in full, the representative may recover any property which the decedent may have disposed of with intent to defraud his creditors, or by conveyance or transfer which for any reason is void as to them. Upon the application of any creditor and upon making the payment of or providing security for the expenses thereof as directed by the court, the representative shall prosecute all actions necessary to recover the property.

525.392 PROPERTY CONVERTED. If any person embezzles, alienates, or converts to his own use any of the personal estate of a decedent or ward before the appointment of a representative, such person shall be liable for double the value of the property so embezzled, alienated, or converted.

[1935 c. 72 s. 96] (8992-96)

525.393 DISPOSAL BY CORONER. When personal property of a decedent has come into the custody of any coroner and has not been surrendered as hereinafter provided and no will has been admitted to probate or no administration has been had within three months after the decedent's death, the coroner, after the expiration of said time, shall file in the probate court an inventory of all such property and a finger-print of each finger of each hand of the decedent. Wearing apparel and such other property as the coroner determines to be of nominal value, may be surrendered by the coroner to the spouse or to any blood relative of the decedent. If no will is admitted to probate nor administration had within six months after death, the coroner shall sell the same at public auction upon such notice and in such manner as the court may direct. He shall be allowed reasonable expenses for the care and sale of the property, and shall deposit the net proceeds of such sale with the county treasurer in the name of the decedent, if known. The treasurer shall give the coroner duplicate receipts therefor, one of which he shall file with the county auditor and the other in the court. If a representative shall qualify within six years from the time of such deposit, the treasurer upon order of the court shall pay the same to such representative.

CLAIMS

525.41 NOTICE TO CREDITORS. In the order for hearing a petition for the probate of a will or for general administration or in a subsequent order, the court shall limit the time for creditors to file claims and fix the time and place for the hearing on such claims, notice of which shall be given pursuant to section 525.83.

The time so limited shall be 60 days from the date of the filing of such order. If it appears from the petition that the decedent left no property except such as may be allowed to the spouse and children under section 525.15, or such as is exempt from the claims of creditors, or such as may be recovered in an action for death by wrongful act, or if more than five years have elapsed since the decedent's death, no order in respect to claims need be made.

525.411 FILING OF CLAIMS. Subdivision 1. All claims against a decedent arising upon contract, whether due or not due, shall be barred forever unless filed in court within the time limited. For cause shown and upon notice to the representative, unless such notice be waived by the representative in writing, and upon such further notice as the court may deem advisable, the court may at any time before the final settlement and allowance of the representative's account, permit the filing of a claim and hear and allow such claim provided that the same has been presented for filing before such final settlement and allowance.

Subd. 2. Contingent claims arising upon contract which do not become absolute and capable of liquidation within the time limited shall not be filed. Any such contingent claim which becomes absolute and capable of liquidation after the expiration of the time limited but before the settlement and allowance of the final account may be filed and heard on notice to the representative, if the court in its discretion shall so order, notwithstanding the provisions of section 525.431. If allowed it shall be paid as other claims, but only out of the assets with which the representative is chargeable at the time of the filing of such claim. No such claim shall be so filed or allowed unless administration of the estate was commenced within five years after the death of the decedent.

Subd. 3. Claims shall be itemized and verified and shall show the address of the claimant and all payments and offsets known to the claimant. Any such claim may be pleaded as an offset or counterclaim in any action brought against the claimant by the representative. On or before the hearing on claims, the representative shall file a statement of all offsets claimed.

525.412 JOINT DEBTOR. When two or more persons are indebted on any joint contract, or upon a judgment founded on a joint contract, and one of them dies, his estate shall be liable therefor, and the amount thereof may be allowed by the court the same as though the contract had been joint and several or the judgment had been against him alone, but without prejudice to right to contribution.

525.413 CLAIMS BARRED. No claim or offset thereto shall be allowed which was barred by the statute of limitations during the decedent's lifetime.

[1935 c. 72 s. 103; 1939 c. 270 s. 4] (8992-103)

525.42 ADJUDICATION OF CLAIMS. Subdivision 1. Upon the adjudication of any claim, the court shall make its order allowing or disallowing the same, which order shall have the effect of a judgment. Such order shall show the date of adjudication, the amount allowed, the amount disallowed, and shall be attached to the claim and the offsets, if any.

Subd. 2. For the purposes of this section the statute of limitations shall not run against an allowed claim while administration is pending.

Subd. 3. An allowed claim shall bear interest at the legal rate.

[1935 c 72 s 104; 1949 c 692 s 1] (8992-104)

525.421 EXECUTION ON OFFSET. When a balance is allowed against a claimant, the court may issue execution for such balance, which shall be collected in the same manner as an execution issued out of the district court.

525.43 ACTIONS PENDING. All actions wherein the cause of action survives may be prosecuted to final judgment, notwithstanding the death of any party, and in such case the representative may be substituted therein in the stead of the deceased party. If judgment be rendered against the representative, it may be certified to the probate court and shall be then paid in the same manner as other claims against the estate. The defendant in any action commenced by a decedent or representative may set off a claim against the decedent's estate notwithstanding such claim has not been filed in the probate court.

525.431 ACTIONS PRECLUDED. No action at law shall lie against a representative for the recovery of money upon any claim required to be filed by section 525.411. Except as provided in section 525.411 with reference to contingent claims, no claim against a decedent shall be a charge upon his estate unless filed in the probate court within five years after his death and within the time limited under section 525.41 or extended under section 525.411. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing an action to enforce a lien existing at the date of decedent's death nor as affecting the rights of a creditor to recover from the next of kin, legatees, or devisees to the extent of the assets received, upon any claim not required to be filed by section 525.411, or upon any contingent claim arising upon contract which did not become absolute and capable of liquidation until after the time limited under section 525.41 or extended under section 525.411 or until five years after the death of the decedent.

[1935 c. 72 s. 107] (8992-107)

525.44 PRIORITY OF DEBTS. If the applicable assets of the estate be insufficient to pay the following in full, the representative shall make payment in this order:

- (1) Expenses of administration;
- (2) Funeral expenses;
- (3) Expenses of last illness;
- (4) Debts having preference by laws of the United States;
- (5) Taxes;
- (6) Other debts duly proved.

[1935 c. 72 s. 108] (8992-108)

525.441 SECURED DEBTS. When a claimant holds any security for his debt, he may file his claim, which may be allowed conditioned upon the claimant surrendering the security to the representative or exhausting the security. In either case, a report thereof shall be filed within the time fixed by the court. Upon his failure to comply with the order, the claim shall be disallowed. Upon his compliance with the order, the court shall make a final order on such claim, either allowing it in full if the security has been surrendered, or for any remaining amount found to be due on the debt if the security has been exhausted. The claim so allowed shall be paid as other debts duly proved.

[1935 c. 72 s. 109] (8992-109)

525.442 ENCUMBERED ASSETS. When any assets of the estate are encumbered by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, the representative may pay such encumbrance or any part thereof, whether or not the holder of the encumbrance has filed a claim, if it appears to be for the best interest of the estate and if the court, with or without notice, shall have so ordered. No such payment shall increase the share of the devisee, legatee, or heir entitled to receive such encumbered assets, unless otherwise provided in the will.

[1935 c. 72 s. 110] (8992-110)

525.45 PREFERENCES PROHIBITED. No preference shall be given in the payment of any debt over any other debt of the same class, nor shall a debt due and payable be entitled to preference over debts not due.

525.46 PAYMENT UNDER WILL. When a will designates the property to be appropriated for the payment of debts or other items, it shall be applied to such purpose.

525.475 DORMANT ESTATE; REMOVAL OF REPRESENTATIVE OR ATTORNEY. (a) If a final decree is not entered in an estate within 18 months after the commencement of the proceeding and the estate is not open pursuant to an order extending time, the court shall order the personal representative and his attorney to show good cause why a final decree has not been entered.

(b) If good cause is not shown the court shall discharge the personal representative or instruct the personal representative to dismiss his attorney and employ another attorney if necessary to complete the administration.

(c) If good cause is shown, the court shall order that the time for administration of the estate be extended for an additional period not to exceed six months.

If a final decree is not entered within six months from the date of extension the court shall again order the personal representative and his attorney to show cause why a final decree has not been ordered pursuant to the provisions of this section and the court may grant a further extension.

(d) An attorney dismissed pursuant to this section and who is seeking attorney fees for services rendered to the estate has the burden of affirmatively proving that the estate has benefited from his services and that the benefits warrant the payment of the requested fee.

(b) The final account shall include a statement of attorney fees and representative fees. This statement shall include the total fees charged to date and estimated future fees to be charged.

525.483 RECORDING DECREE. A certified copy of any decree of distribution may be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds of any county. It shall not be necessary to pay real estate taxes in order to record such certified copy, but the same shall be first presented to the county auditor for entry upon his transfer record and shall have noted thereon "Transfer entered" over his official signature. Upon request, the court shall furnish a certified copy of any decree of distribution, omitting the description of any property except that specified in the request, but indicating omissions by the words "other property omitted." Such copy and its record shall have the same force and effect as to property therein described as though the entire decree had been so certified and recorded.

This section shall not apply where such citizen of and resident in any such foreign country has appeared in person or by duly authorized representative other than such diplomatic or consular representative.

525.51 SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS. Subdivision 1. In a special administration, general administration, or in the administration of the estate of a person dying testate, if the court has determined that the decedent had no estate, or that the property has been destroyed, abandoned, lost, or rendered valueless, and that no recovery has been had nor can be had therefor, or if there be no property except such as has been recovered for death by wrongful act, or such as is exempt from all debts and charges in the probate court, or such as may be appropriated for the payment of the allowances to the spouse and children mentioned in section 525.15, expenses of administration, funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, debts having preference under laws of the United States, and taxes, the representative by order of the court may pay the same in the order named, and file his final account with his petition for the settlement and allowance thereof. Thereupon the court with or without notice may adjust, correct, settle, allow, or disallow such account, and if the account be allowed, summarily determine the heirs, legatees, and devisees in its final decree assigning to them their share or part of the property with which the representative is charged upon the allowance of his final account, and close the administration.

Subd. 2. If upon hearing of a petition for summary assignment or distribution, for special administration, general administration, or for the probate of a will, the court determines that there is no need for the appointment of a representative and that the administration should be closed summarily for the reason that all of the property in the estate is exempt from all debts and charges in the probate court, a final decree may be entered, with or without notice, assigning such property to the persons entitled thereto pursuant to the terms of the will, or if there be none, pursuant to the law of intestate succession in force at the time of the decedent's death.

Subd. 3. Summary distribution may be made under this section in any proceeding of any real, personal, or other property in kind in reimbursement or payment of the allowances to the spouse and children mentioned in said section 525.15, expenses of administration, funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, debts having preference under the laws of the United States, and taxes, in the order named, whenever the court is satisfied as to the propriety thereof and as to the valuation, based upon appraisal in the case of real estate other than homestead, of the property being assigned to exhaust the assets of the estate.

Subd. 4. Summary proceedings may be had with or without the appointment of a representative. In all summary proceedings wherein no representative is appointed, the court may require the petitioner to file a corporate surety bond in an amount fixed and approved by the court. The condition of the bond shall be that the petitioner has made a full, true, and correct disclosure of all the facts related in the petition and will perform the terms of the decree issued pursuant thereto. Any interested party suffering damages as a result of misrepresentation or negligence of the petitioner in stating facts in the petition pursuant to which an improper decree is issued, or the terms of the decree are not performed by the petitioner as required, shall have a cause of action against the petitioner and his surety to recover such damages in the court wherein such proceeding was had which is hereby granted jurisdiction thereof.

Subd. 5. In any summary, special, or general administration wherein it appears that the estate will not be exhausted in payment of the priority items enumerated in the foregoing subdivisions, the estate may nevertheless be summarily closed without further notice, and the property assigned to the proper persons, if the gross probate estate, exclusive of any exempt homestead as defined in section 525.145, does not exceed the value of $30,000. Where such closing and distribution of assets is made pursuant to the terms of a will, no decree shall issue until a hearing has been held on the admission of the will to probate as provided in section 525.24.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1974

No summary closing of an estate shall be made to any distributee under this subdivision, unless a showing is made by the representative or the petitioner, that all funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, taxes, debts, and claims have been paid, and provided, further, that a bond shall be filed by the representative or the petitioner, conditioned upon the fact that all such obligations have been paid and that all the facts shown on the petition are true, with sufficient surety approved by the court in an amount as may be fixed by the court to cover potential improper distributions. If a representative is appointed, his representative's bond shall be sufficient for such purpose unless an additional bond is ordered, and the sureties on his bond shall have the same obligations and liabilities as provided for sureties on a distribution bond.

In the event that an improper distribution or disbursement is made in a summary closing, in that not all of said obligations have been paid or that other facts as shown by the representative or the petitioner, are not true, resulting in damage to any party, the court may vacate its summary decree or closing order, and the petitioner or the representative, together with his surety, shall be liable for damages to any party determined to be injured thereby as herein provided. The representative, petitioner, or his surety, may seek reimbursement for damages so paid or incurred from any distributee or recipient of assets under summary decree or order, who shall be required to make a contribution to cover such damages upon a pro rata basis or as may be equitable to the extent of assets so received. The probate court is hereby granted complete and plenary jurisdiction of any and all such proceedings and may enter such orders and judgments as may be required to effectuate the purposes of this subdivision.

Any judgment rendered for damages or the recovery of assets in such proceedings shall be upon petition and only after hearing held thereon on 14 days' notice of hearing and a copy of petition served personally upon the representative and the surety and upon any distributee or recipient of assets where applicable. Any action for the recovery of moneys or damages under this subdivision shall be subject to the time and other limitations imposed by section 525.02.

525.515 BASIS FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES. (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, an attorney performing services for the estate at the instance of the representative shall have compensation therefor out of the estate as the court shall deem just and reasonable. Further, the provisions of this section shall not be limited to proceedings under section 525.51 but shall apply to all probate proceedings.

(b) In determining what is a fair and reasonable attorney's fee the court shall give effect to a prior agreement in writing by a testator concerning attorney fees. Where there is no prior agreement in writing with the testator the court shall consider the following factors in determining what is a fair and reasonable attorney's fee:

- (1) The time and labor required;
- (2) The experience and knowledge of the attorney;
- (3) The complexity and novelty of problems involved;
- (4) The extent of the responsibilities assumed and the results obtained; and
- (5) The sufficiency of assets properly available to pay for the services.

(c) An interested beneficiary under a will or heir may petition the probate court to review the attorney fees listed in section 2 of this act. In determining the reasonableness of the attorney fees, the court shall consider all the factors listed in clause (b) and the value of the estate shall not be the controlling factor.

(d) Unless previously agreed to in writing by the testator it is declared to be against the public policy of Minnesota for an award of attorney fees and representative fees for services rendered to an estate to be based on a percentage of the estate.

525.521 FEDERAL ESTATE OR OTHER DEATH TAXES, APPORTIONMENT. Whenever it appears upon any accounting, or in any appropriate action or proceeding, that an executor, administrator, temporary administrator, testamentary trustee or other person acting in a fiduciary capacity, hereafter called "fiduciary," has paid or may be required to pay an estate tax or other death tax under any law of the United States upon or with respect to any property required to be included in the gross taxable estate of a decedent under the provisions of any such law, hereinafter called "the tax," the amount of the tax, except in a case where a testator otherwise directs in his will, and except in a case where by any instrument other than a will, hereinafter called a "nontestamentary instrument," direction is given for apportionment within the fund of taxes assessed upon the specific fund dealt with in such nontestamentary instrument, shall be apportioned among the persons interested in the gross tax estate whether residents or non-residents of the state to whom such property is or may be transferred or to whom any benefit therein accrues, hereinafter called the "persons benefited," in accordance with the rules of apportionment herein stated, and the persons benefited shall contribute to the tax the amounts apportioned against them.

[1961 c 698 s 1]

525.522 TRUSTS OR OTHER TEMPORARY INTERESTS. In the absence of direction to the contrary, where a trust is created, or other provision made whereby any person is given an interest in income, or an estate for years, or for life, or other temporary interest in any property or fund, any tax apportionable against both such temporary interest and the remainder thereafter shall be charged against and shall be paid out of the corpus of such property or such fund without apportionment between remainders and temporary estates. Provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding that the holder of the temporary interest is given rights to the corpus, but shall not apply to a common law annuity.

[1961 c 698 s 2]

525.523 METHOD OF APPORTIONMENT. In the absence of directions to the contrary, (i) apportionment of the tax shall be made among the persons benefited in the proportion that the value of the property or interest received by each such person benefited bears the total value of the property and interest received by all persons benefited, the values as finally determined in the respective tax proceedings being the values to be used as the basis for apportionment of the respective taxes; (ii) any exemption or deduction allowed under the law imposing the tax by reason of the relationship of any person to the decedent or by reason of the charitable purposes of the gift shall inure to the benefit of the person bearing such relationship or receiving such charitable gifts, as the case may be; (iii) any deduction for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes paid by the decedent shall inure to the benefit of all persons benefited, and the tax to be apportioned shall be the tax after allowance of such deduction and credit; (iv) any interest resulting from late payment of the tax shall be apportioned in the same manner as the tax and shall be charged wholly to corpus; and (v) any discount allowed for prepayment of the tax shall be credited wholly to the corpus of the fund or funds contributing the money used for the prepayment in proportion to the contribution made.

[1961 c 698 s 3]

525.524 DIRECTIONS AS TO APPORTIONMENT; LIMITATIONS. Any direction as to apportionment or nonapportionment of the tax, whether contained in a will or in a nontestamentary instrument, shall be limited in its operation to the property passing thereunder unless such will or instrument otherwise directs.

[1961 c 698 s 4]

525.525 PROPERTY NOT COMING INTO POSSESSION OF FIDUCIARY. In all cases in which any property required to be included in the gross tax estate does not come into the possession of the fiduciary, he shall be entitled, and it shall be his duty, to recover from the persons benefited or from whoever is in possession of such property, the proportionate amounts of the tax and any interest which is or may be payable by the persons benefited, and the probate court may by order direct the payment thereof to the fiduciary. The probate court may by order charge such payment against the shares or interest of the persons benefited in any assets in the hands of the fiduciary or persons in possession of this property. If the fiduciary cannot recover the amount of the tax and interest apportioned against a person benefited such nonrecovered amount shall be charged in such manner as the probate court may determine.

[1961 c 698 s 5]

525.526 APPORTIONMENT BEFORE DISTRIBUTION. No fiduciary shall be required to transfer, pay over, or distribute to any person other than the fiduciary charged with the duty to collect and pay the tax any fund or property with respect to which the tax is or may be imposed until the amount of the tax apportioned or which may be apportioned against such fund or property and any interest due from the persons entitled to such fund or property is paid, or, if the tax has not been determined or apportionment made, until adequate security for such payment is furnished to the person making such transfer, payment, or distribution.

525.527 DUTIES OF COURT. The probate court shall make such preliminary, intermediate, or final decrees or orders as it shall deem advisable tentatively or finally apportioning the tax and any interest, directing the fiduciary to collect the apportioned amounts from the property or interests in his possession of any persons against whom such apportionment has been made and directing all other persons against whom the tax and any interest have been or may be apportioned or from whom any part of the tax and any interest may be recovered to make payment of such apportioned amount to such fiduciary; and if it shall be ascertained in such proceeding that the property in the hands of the fiduciary otherwise payable to another person liable for any part of the tax and interest is insufficient to discharge the liability of such other person the probate court may direct that the balance of the apportioned amount due shall be paid to the fiduciary by such other person. If in the course of the proceeding it shall be ascertained that more than the proportionate amount of the tax and interest due from any person has been paid by him or on his behalf the probate court may by decree or order direct appropriate reimbursement of the overpayment. If the probate court shall apportion any part of the tax against any person interested in nontestamentary property or if the probate court shall make any apportionment of the tax among the respective interests created by any nontestamentary instrument, it may, in its discretion, assess against such property or interest, as the case may be, an equitable share of the expenses in connection with the determination of the tax and in connection with the apportionment thereof. The probate court may retain jurisdiction of any proceeding until the purposes of this section have been accomplished.

[1961 c 698 s 7]

525.528 FEDERAL ESTATE TAX; MARITAL DEDUCTION. Whenever the decedent leaves a surviving spouse or by law the spouse is presumed to have survived and the representative of the decedent's estate, the decedent's trustee or any other fiduciary is permitted or required to exercise a discretion, even though stated as sole, absolute or uncontrolled, to select assets in kind at values other than their values at the date or dates of distribution thereof, including values to be determined in the discretion of the representative, trustee or other fiduciary and even though such discretion is stated as sole, absolute or uncontrolled, to satisfy a bequest or transfer within the meaning of the marital deduction provisions of section 2056 of the United States internal revenue code or such cognate provisions of federal law as may hereafter be applicable, such representative, trustee or other fiduciary shall be subject to the general fiduciary obligation of fairness and pursuant thereto shall select assets fairly representative of appreciation or depreciation in the value of all property available on the date or dates of distribution for selection and distribution in satisfaction of such bequest or transfer, unless other language of the will or trust instrument expressly refers to this section and states that it shall not be applicable. This section shall apply to the estates of decedents dying after May 26, 1965, to trusts created after May 26, 1965, and to trusts, whenever created, which are revocable after May 26, 1965.

[1965 c 765 s 1]

ADVANCEMENTS

525.53 ADVANCEMENT. Any property given by an intestate in his lifetime to a child or other lineal descendant when expressed in the gift or grant as an advancement or charged in writing by the intestate as such, or so acknowledged by the child or other descendant, shall be deemed an advancement to such heir and treated as part of the estate of such intestate in the distribution of the same, and shall be taken by such heir toward his share of the estate. When the amount advanced exceeds the share of such heir he shall receive nothing in the distribution, but he shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement. When the amount so received is less than his share he shall be entitled to enough more to make up his full share. When a child or other lineal descendant to whom an advancement has been made dies before the intestate, leaving issue, such advancement shall be deducted in the distribution of the estate as though made directly to such issue.

525.531 VALUATION. When such advancement is made in real estate, the value thereof for the purpose of distribution shall be considered a part of the real estate to be divided, and when it is in personal estate, as a part of the personal estate; and when in either case it exceeds the share of real or personal estate, respectively, that would have come to such heir, he shall not refund any part of it, but shall receive so much less out of the other part of the estate as will make his whole share equal to that of other heirs entitled to a like amount with him. When the value of the estate so advanced is expressed in the conveyance, or in the charge thereof made by the intestate, or in the acknowledgment of the heir receiving it, that shall be its value in the distribution; otherwise, it shall be estimated according to its value when given, as nearly as can be ascertained. All questions as to advancements made, or alleged to have been made, by the intestate to any heir shall be heard and determined by the court at the time of settlement, and every such advancement shall be specified in the decree distributing and assigning the estate. For the purpose of determining what proportion any one who has received an advancement is entitled to the court shall ascertain the value of the entire residue of such estate, by ordering an appraisal or in such other manner as it may deem best.

525.532 DISCLAIMER OF INTERESTS PASSING BY WILL, INTESTATE SUCCESSION OR UNDER CERTAIN POWERS OF APPOINTMENT. Subdivision 1. As used in this section, unless otherwise clearly required by the context:

(a) "Beneficiary" means and includes any person entitled, but for his disclaimer, to take an interest: by intestate succession; by devise; by legacy or bequest; by succession to a disclaimed interest by will, intestate succession or through the exercise or nonexercise of a testamentary power of appointment; by virtue of a renunciation and election to take against a will; as beneficiary of a testamentary trust; pursuant to the exercise or nonexercise of a testamentary power of appointment; as donee of a power of appointment created by testamentary instrument; or otherwise under a testamentary instrument;

(b) "Interest" means and includes the whole of any property, real or personal, legal or equitable, or any fractional part, share or particular portion or specific assets thereof or any estate in any such property or power to appoint, consume, apply or expend property or any other right, power, privilege or immunity relating thereto;

(c) "Disclaimer" means a written instrument which declines, refuses, releases, renounces or disclaims an interest which would otherwise be succeeded to by a beneficiary, which instrument defines the nature and extent of the interest disclaimed thereby and which must be signed, witnessed and acknowledged by the disclaimant in the manner provided for deeds of real estate.

Subd. 2. A beneficiary may disclaim any interest in whole or in part, or with reference to specific parts, shares or assets thereof, by filing a disclaimer in court in the manner hereinafter provided. A guardian, executor, administrator or other personal representative of the estate of a minor, incompetent or deceased beneficiary, if he deems it in the best interests of those interested in the estate of such beneficiary and of those who take the beneficiary's interest by virtue of the disclaimer and not detrimental to the best interests of the beneficiary, with or without an order of the probate court, may execute and file a disclaimer on behalf of the beneficiary within the time and in the manner in which the beneficiary himself could disclaim if he were living, of legal age and competent. A beneficiary likewise may execute and file a disclaimer by agent or attorney so empowered.

Subd. 3. Such disclaimer shall be filed at any time after the creation of the interest, but in all events within six months after the death of the person by whom the interest was created or from whom it would have been received, or, if the disclaimant is not finally ascertained as a beneficiary or his interest has not become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity as of the death of such person, then such disclaimer shall be filed not later than six months after the event which would cause him so to become finally ascertained and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity.

Subd. 4. Such disclaimer shall be effective upon being filed in the probate court in which the estate of the person by whom the interest was created or from whom it would have been received is, or has been, administered or, if no probate administration has been commenced, then in the probate court of any county provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 525.82, as the place for probate administration of the estate of such person. A copy of the disclaimer shall be delivered or mailed to the representative, trustee or other person having legal title to, or possession of, the property in which the interest disclaimed exists, and no such representative, trustee or person shall be liable for any otherwise proper distribution or other disposition made without actual notice of the disclaimer. If an interest in or relating to real estate is disclaimed, the original of the disclaimer, or a copy of the disclaimer certified as true and complete by the clerk of the probate court wherein the same has been filed, shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds or the registrar of titles, as hereinafter provided, in the county or counties where the real estate is situated and shall constitute notice to all persons only from and after the time of such filing. If title to such real estate has not been registered under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 508, such disclaimer or certified copy shall be filed with the register of deeds. If title to such real estate has been registered under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 508, such disclaimer or certified copy shall be filed with the registrar of titles.

Subd. 5. Unless the person by whom the interest was created or from whom it would have been received has otherwise provided by will or other appropriate instrument with reference to the possibility of a disclaimer by the beneficiary, the interest disclaimed shall descend, be distributed or otherwise be disposed of in the same manner as if the disclaimant had died immediately preceding the death or other event which causes him to become finally ascertained as a beneficiary and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity, and, in any case, the disclaimer shall relate for all purposes to such date, whether filed before or after such death or other event. However, one disclaiming an interest in a non-residuary gift, devise or bequest shall not be excluded, unless his disclaimer so provides, from sharing in a gift, devise or bequest of the residue even though, through lapse, such residue includes the assets disclaimed. An interest of any nature in or to the estate of an intestate may be declined, refused or disclaimed as herein provided without ever vesting in the disclaimant.

Subd. 6. The right to disclaim otherwise conferred by this section shall be barred if the beneficiary is insolvent at the time of the event giving rise to the right to disclaim. Any voluntary assignment or transfer of, or contract to assign or transfer, an interest in real or personal property, or written waiver of the right to disclaim the succession to an interest in real or personal property, by any beneficiary, or any sale or other disposition of an interest in real or personal property pursuant to judicial process, made before he has filed a disclaimer, as herein provided, bars the right otherwise hereby conferred on such beneficiary to disclaim as to such interest.

Subd. 7. The right to disclaim granted by this section shall exist irrespective of any limitation imposed on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of an express or implied spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when filed as provided in this section, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, shall be binding upon the disclaimant or beneficiary so waiving and all parties thereafter claiming by, through or under him, except that a beneficiary so waiving may thereafter transfer, assign or release his interest if such is not prohibited by an express or implied spendthrift provision. If an interest in real estate is disclaimed and the disclaimer is duly filed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 4 of this section, the spouse of the disclaimant, if such spouse has consented to the disclaimer in writing, shall thereupon be automatically debarred from any spouse's statutory or common law right or estate by curtesy or in dower or otherwise in such real estate to which such spouse, except for such disclaimer, would have been entitled.

Subd. 8. This section shall not abridge the right of any person, apart from this section, under any existing or future statute or rule of law, to disclaim any interest or to assign, convey, release, renounce or otherwise dispose of any interest.

Subd. 9. Any interest which exists on May 22, 1965 but which has not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity, or the taker of which has not then become finally ascertained, may be disclaimed after May 22, 1965 in the manner provided herein.

GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS

525.54 PERSONS SUBJECT TO GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP.

Subdivision 1. Persons subject to guardianship. The court may appoint one or two persons suitable and competent to discharge the trust as guardians of the person or estate or of both of any person who is a minor, who because of old age, or imperfection or deterioration of mentality is incompetent to manage his person or estate, who because of excessive intoxication, gambling, idleness, or debauchery, so spends or wastes his estate or injures his person as to be likely to expose himself or his family to want or suffering, or who, though not otherwise incompetent to manage his person or estate, requests the court to appoint such a guardian, provided such person is a resident of the county or being a nonresident of this state has property in the county. No guardian of the person of any minor shall be appointed while proceedings for his care and custody are pending in any juvenile court of this state. Nothing herein contained shall diminish the power of any court to appoint a guardian to serve or protect the interest of any minor or other person under disability in any proceedings therein, nor abridge the rights of the father and mother, if suitable and competent, as the natural guardians of their minor children.

Subd. 2. Persons subject to conservatorship. The court may appoint one or two persons suitable and competent to discharge the trust as conservators of the person or estate or of both of any person who is a minor, or who because of old age or other cause is unable properly to care for himself or for his property, or who because of old age or other cause is likely to be deceived or imposed upon by artful or designing persons, or who, for these causes or other cause requests the court to appoint such a conservator and establishes to the satisfaction of the court the need thereof, provided such person is a resident of the county or being a non-resident of this state has property in the county. No conservator of the person of any minor shall be appointed while proceedings for his care and custody are pending in any juvenile court of this state.

525.541 PETITIONERS. Any person may petition for the appointment of a guardian or guardians or conservator or conservators for any person believed to be subject to guardianship or conservatorship, provided that the petition of a person over the age of 14 years for the appointment of a guardian or guardians or conservator or conservators of his own person or estate, and the petition of any person nominated by the will of a deceased parent with the written consent of the other parent if living and not under disability, for the appointment of a guardian or conservator or guardians or conservators for their minor child shall have priority over the petition of any other person. When any minor under guardianship or conservatorship attains the age of 14 years, he may petition for the appointment of a guardian or conservator or guardians or conservators nominated by him in lieu of the guardians or conservators theretofore appointed.

525.542 CONTENTS OF PETITION. The petition shall show (1) the name and address of the person for whom a guardian or conservator, is sought, (2) the date and place of his birth, (3) if he be a minor, the names and addresses of his parents, or if the parents be dead or have abandoned the minor, the names and addresses of his custodians and of any person named as testamentary guardians or conservators in the will of a decedent, (4) if he be not a minor, the names and addresses of his nearest kindred, (5) if he be married, the name and address of his spouse, (6) the reasons for the guardianship or conservatorship, (7) the probable value and general character of his real and personal property and the probable amount of his debts, (8) the names, ages, addresses, and occupations of the proposed guardians or conservators.

[1935 c 72 s 131; 1973 c 618 s 3] (8992-131)

525.543 LIS PENDENS. After the filing of the petition, a certificate of the probate court certified to that fact may be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds of any county in which any real estate owned by the ward or conservatee is situated and if a resident of this state, in the county of his residence. Such certificate shall state that such a petition is pending and the name and address of the person for whom a guardian or conservator is sought. If a guardian or conservator be appointed on such petition, all contracts except for necessities, and all transfers of real or personal property made by the ward after such filing and before the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship shall be void.

[1935 c 72 s 132; 1961 c 578 s 1; 1973 c 618 s 4] (8992-132)

525.544 PLANNING PROVISIONS. In the petition or in a written instrument executed before or after the petition is filed, the person may, if at the time of signing the same, he has sufficient capacity to form an intelligent preference, nominate a conservator or guardian or give instructions to the conservator or guardian or he may do both. The written instrument shall be executed and attested in the same manner as a will. The court shall appoint the person so nominated as conservator or guardian and shall charge him with the instructions, unless the court finds that the appointment of the nominee or the instructions or both are not in the best interests of the person to be placed under conservatorship or guardianship. When any person lacks capacity or fails to nominate a conservator or guardian, the court may appoint any qualified person. If proposed ward or conservatee lacks capacity or fails to give instructions, the court may give such powers as required.

[1973 c 618 s 5]

525.55 NOTICE OF HEARING. If the petition be made by the person for whom a guardian or conservator is sought, or by a parent, custodian, or testamentary guardian or conservator of a minor under the age of 14 years, the court may hear the same with or without notice. In all other cases, upon the filing of the petition the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof. At least 14 days prior to such time, personal service shall be made upon the ward or conservatee. If he have a spouse, custodian, or if there be a testamentary guardian or conservator named in the will of a decedent, notice shall be given to such persons and to such of the nearest kindred and in such manner as the court may direct. If he be a patient of any hospital or asylum, notice by mail shall be given to the superintendent thereof. If he be a non-resident or if after diligent search he cannot be found in this state, notice shall be given in such manner and to such persons as the court may determine.

[1935 c 72 s 133; 1973 c 618 s 6] (8992-133)

525.551 HEARING; APPOINTMENT; BOND; NOTICE. Upon proof of the petition, the court shall appoint one or two persons suitable and competent to discharge the trust as general guardians or conservators of the person or estate or of both. Upon the filing of a bond in such amount as the court may direct and an oath according to law, or upon the filing of an acceptance of the trust pursuant to section 48.79, letters of guardianship or conservatorship shall issue. If there be no personal property, the court may waive the filing of a bond, but if the guardian or conservator receives or becomes entitled to any such property he shall immediately file a report thereof and a bond in such amount as the court may direct. If the ward or conservatee be a patient of a state hospital for the mentally ill, or committed to the guardianship or conservatorship of the commissioner of public welfare as mentally retarded, epileptic, dependent and neglected or is under the temporary custody of the commissioner of public welfare, the court shall notify the commissioner of public welfare of the appointment of a guardian or conservator or successor guardian or conservator of the estate of such ward or conservatee.

[1935 c 72 s 134; 1959 c 525 s 1; 1973 c 618 s 7] (8992-134)

525.552 REDUCTION OF BOND. Any conservator or guardian may deposit money belonging to the conservatee or ward, in a bank or trust company or in a savings and loan association and make the money subject to withdrawal only upon order of the court. Upon such deposit, the court may reduce or waive bond.

525.56 GUARDIAN'S OR CONSERVATOR'S DUTIES. Subdivision 1. A guardian or conservator shall be subject to the control and direction of the court at all times and in all things.

Subd. 2. A general guardian or conservator of the person shall have charge of the person of the ward or conservatee.

Subd. 3. A general guardian or conservator of the estate shall

(1) Pay the reasonable charges for the support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee in a manner suitable to his station in life and the value of his estate; but nothing herein contained shall release parents from obligations imposed by law for the support, maintenance, and education of their children;

(2) Pay all just and lawful debts of the ward or conservatee and the reasonable charges incurred for the support, maintenance, and education of his wife and children and, upon order of the court, pay such sum as the court may fix as reasonable for the support of any person unable to earn a livelihood who is or may become legally entitled to support from the ward or conservatee;

(3) Possess and manage the estate, collect all debts and claims in favor of the ward or conservatee, or, with the approval of the court, compromise the same, institute suit on behalf of the ward or conservatee and represent the ward or conservatee in any court proceedings, and invest all funds not currently needed for the debts and charges named in clauses (1) and (2) and the management of the estate, in accordance with the provisions of sections 48.84, 501.125, subdivision 1 and section 51.29, subdivision 2. Where a bank or trust company is a guardian or conservator, with or without coguardians or coconservators, it may invest in such securities without approval of the probate court, but the investments of other guardians or conservators in such securities shall be subject to the approval of the probate court except as otherwise specifically provided by law. A guardian or conservator shall also have the power to purchase certain contracts of insurance as provided in section 50.14, subdivision 14(b);

(4) Where a ward or conservatee has inherited an undivided interest in real estate, the court, on a showing that it is for the best interest of the ward or conservatee, may authorize an exchange or sale of the ward's or conservatee's interest or a purchase by the ward or conservatee of any interest other heirs may have in the real estate.

525.57 TRANSFER OF VENUE. When it is for the best interest of the ward or conservatee or his estate the venue may be transferred to another county. Upon the filing of a petition by any person interested in the ward or conservatee or in his estate the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given to such persons and in such manner as the court may direct. Upon proof that a transfer of venue is for the best interest of the ward or conservatee or his estate, and upon the settlement and allowance of the guardian's or conservator's accounts to the time of such hearing, the court shall transmit the entire file to the court of such other county in which all subsequent proceedings shall be had.

[1935 c 72 s 136; 1973 c 618 s 10] (8992-136)

525.58 FILING OF ACCOUNTS. Except where expressly waived by the court, every guardian or conservator annually shall file a verified account covering the period from the date of appointment or his last account. At the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship, or upon the guardian's or conservator's removal or resignation, he or his surety, or in the event of his death or disability, his representative or surety shall file a verified final account with a petition for the settlement and allowance thereof. Every account shall show in detail all property received and disbursed, the property on hand, the present address of the ward or conservatee and of the guardian or conservator, and unless the guardian or conservator be a corporation, the amount of the bond, the names and addresses of all sureties thereon, that each unincorporated surety is a resident of this state, is not under disability, and is worth the amount in which he is justified.

PROBATE PROCEEDINGS 525.591

525.581 NOTICE OF HEARING ON ACCOUNT. The court on its own motion may, or upon the petition of the guardian or conservator or any person interested in the ward or conservatee or his estate shall, fix the time and place for the hearing on any account, notice of which shall be given in such manner and to such persons as the court may direct. Wherever any funds have been received from the veterans' administration, notice by mail shall be given to the regional office having charge thereof.

[1935 c 72 s 138; 1973 c 618 s 12] (8992-138)

525.582 ADJUDICATION ON ACCOUNT. Unless otherwise ordered, the guardian or conservator shall, and other persons may, be examined on the hearing. If the account be correct, it shall be settled and allowed; if incorrect, it shall be corrected and then settled and allowed. The order of settlement and allowance shall show the amount of the personal property remaining. Upon settlement of the final account, and upon delivery of the property on hand to the person entitled thereto, the court shall discharge the guardian or conservator and his sureties. Any person for whom a guardian or conservator has been appointed and who has become of age or has been restored to capacity may show to the court that he has settled with his guardian or conservator and may petition for the guardian's or conservator's discharge without further hearing. Upon such petition, the court may discharge the guardian or conservator and his sureties.

[1935 c 72 s 139; 1973 c 618 s 13] (8992-139)

525.583 ALLOWANCE AND WAGES OF CONSERVATEE; LIMITED ACCOUNTABILITY OF CONSERVATOR. The court, upon petition of the conservator, may authorize the conservator to pay to the conservatee out of the conservatorship estate a reasonable allowance for the personal use of the conservatee in such amount as the court may determine to be for the best interests of the conservatee. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, if the conservatee shall at any time during the continuance of the conservatorship be employed, his wages or salary for employment shall not be a part of the conservatorship estate and the wages and salaries shall be paid to the conservatee and shall be subject to his control to the same extent as if the conservatorship did not exist. The conservator shall not be accountable for such allowances or wages and salary.

525.59 SUCCEEDING GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR. If a guardian or conservator dies, resigns, or is removed, the court with or without notice may appoint a successor.

[1935 c 72 s 140; 1973 c 618 s 15] (8992-140)

525.591 SPECIAL GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR. Upon a showing of necessity or expediency, the court with or without notice may appoint a special guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both of any person designated in section 525.54, whether a petition for general guardianship or conservatorship has been filed or not. There shall be no appeal from any order appointing or refusing to appoint a special guardian or conservator. A special guardian or conservator of the person shall have charge of the person of the ward or conservatee. A special guardian or conservator of the estate shall collect the assets and conserve the estate, unless his powers are limited by the court in the order of appointment and in the letters to the performance of specified acts. Upon a showing of necessity or expediency, the court with or without notice may expressly confer upon a special guardian or conservator power to perform any or all acts in the administration of the guardianship or conservatorship, not exceeding the powers conferred by law upon general guardians or conservators.

Within 14 days after appointment, a special guardian or conservator of the estate shall file an inventory and appraisal of the personal property according to the requirements of sections 525.33 and 525.331. Upon the granting of letters of general guardianship or conservatorship, the power of a special guardian or conservator shall cease, and he shall proceed forthwith to a final accounting. When a special guardian or conservator has been appointed to protect the ward's or conservatee's interest in any matter wherein the interest of the general guardian or conservator appears to conflict with that of the ward or conservatee, or to protect the ward's or conservatee's interest upon suspension of an order of removal of a general guardian or conservator by appeal, the power of such special guardian or conservator shall not cease until terminated by the court.

525.60 TERMINATION; CONVEYANCES. Subdivision 1. A guardianship or conservatorship of a minor shall terminate upon his death or upon his attainment of legal age. The marriage of a female ward or conservatee under guardianship or conservatorship as a minor only and not under a juvenile court guardianship or conservatorship shall terminate the guardianship or conservatorship of her person but not of her estate. The guardianship or conservatorship of a ward or conservatee other than a minor shall terminate upon his death or upon his restoration to capacity. When there is no further need for any guardianship or conservatorship, the court may terminate the same upon such notice as it may direct.

Subd. 2. The guardianship or conservatorship of a married ward or conservatee as a minor only shall not affect the capacity of such ward or conservatee to join in conveyances affecting any real estate owned by his or her spouse.

[1935 c 72 s 142; 1967 c 508 s 1; 1973 c 618 s 17] (8992-142)

525.61 RESTORATION TO CAPACITY. Any person who is under guardianship or conservatorship (except as a minor, or as a feeble-minded or epileptic person, or a person under guardianship or conservatorship in the juvenile court), or his guardian or conservator, or any other person interested in him or his estate may petition the court in which he was so adjudicated to be restored to capacity. Upon the filing of such petition, the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given to the commissioner of public welfare if he was under the control of the commissioner and has not been discharged by the commissioner, and to such other persons and in such manner as the court may direct.

Any person may oppose such restoration. Upon proof that such person is of sound mind and capable of managing his person and estate, and that he is not likely to expose himself or his family to want or suffering, the court shall adjudge him restored to capacity. In any proceedings for restoration, the court may appoint two duly licensed doctors of medicine to assist in the determination of the mental capacity of the patient. The court shall allow and order paid to each doctor a reasonable sum of his services. Upon such order, the county auditor shall issue a warrant on the county treasurer for the payment thereof.

525.611 DISCHARGE OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE AS GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR. When it appears to the commissioner of public welfare that a person committed to his guardianship or conservatorship as a mentally deficient or epileptic person is no longer in need of guardianship or conservatorship or supervision for his own or the public welfare, or when the commissioner can no longer exercise his guardianship or conservatorship and supervision because the mentally deficient or epileptic person no longer lives in the state, or his whereabouts are unknown and cannot be ascertained, the commissioner may petition the court of commitment, or the court to which the venue has been transferred, for his discharge as such guardian or conservator, stating facts in support of his petition.

[1937 c 255 s 1; 1955 c 62 s 1; 1959 c 267 s 3; 1973 c 618 s 19] (8992-143a)

525.612 PETITION; HEARING. Upon the filing of such petition, the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given as the court may direct. Upon proof of the petition the court shall make an order discharging the commissioner of public welfare as the guardian or conservator of such person.

[1937 c 255 s 2; 1959 c 267 s 3; 1973 c 618 s 20] (8992-143b)

525.613 EFFECT OF APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR. Those adjudged in need of a conservator shall have powers or capacity as the court will grant in the letters of conservatorship. If no powers or capacity is delimited in the letters of conservatorship, the conservatee shall have no capacity to do any of the following acts:

- (a) To contract for any goods or services except necessities;
- (b) To sell, mortgage, or encumber any real estate or personal property except that he may pay for necessities as provided for in clause (a) above out of personalty.

The appointment of a conservator shall not deprive the conservatee of the right to vote or to marry if otherwise competent.

Any sale, transfer, or encumbrance of personal or real property by the conservatee contrary to this chapter or any order of the probate court, after appointment of a conservator, shall be invalid unless the same is subsequently affirmed by the court as being in the best interests of the conservatee.

[1973 c 618 s 21]

525.614 TERMINOLOGY. Wherever in this chapter the term "guardian" is used, it shall include "conservator", and the term "ward" shall include "conservatee" unless another intention clearly appears from the context.

[1973 c 618 s 22]

REALTY; SALES, LEASES, MORTGAGES

525.62 MORTGAGE AND LEASE. As used in sections 525.62 to 525.702, the word "mortgage" includes an extension of an existing mortgage, subject to the provisions of section 525.691; the word "lease," unless the context otherwise indicates, means a lease for more than three years.

[1935 c. 72 s. 144] (8992-144)

525.621 LEASE FOR THREE YEARS OR LESS. The court, with or without notice, may direct a lease for three years or less of any real estate (including a homestead if the written consent of the spouse has been filed) when it appears to be for the best interest of the estate and of the persons interested in such real estate.

525.63 REASONS FOR SALE, MORTGAGE, LEASE. The court may direct a sale, mortgage, or lease of any real estate of a decedent when the personal property is insufficient to pay the allowances to the spouse and children, expenses of administration, funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, taxes, debts, and bequests, or when it shall determine such sale, mortgage, or lease to be for the best interests of the estate and of the persons interested in such real estate. The proceeds of any such sale, mortgage, or lease which may be available for distribution shall be distributed to the same persons and in the same shares as if it had remained real estate.

The court may direct a sale, mortgage, or lease of any real estate of a ward when the personal property is insufficient to pay his debts and other charges against his estate, or to provide for the support, maintenance, and education of the ward, his wife, and children, or when it shall determine such sale, mortgage, or lease to be for the best interest of the ward.

The homestead of a decedent when the spouse takes any interest therein or the homestead of a ward shall not be sold, mortgaged, or leased unless the written consent of the spouse has been filed. Unless the written consent of all persons who take any interest therein has been filed, the homestead of a decedent shall not be mortgaged except for the purpose of extending, renewing, or satisfying an existing mortgage and paying the taxes, assessments, liens, encumbrances, repairs, and incidental expenses or other items necessary to procure such mortgage.

525.64 PETITION, NOTICE, HEARING. A representative may file a petition to sell, mortgage, or lease alleging briefly the facts constituting the reasons for the application and describing the real estate involved therein. The petition may include all the real estate of the decedent or ward or any part or parts thereof. It may apply for different authority as to separate parcels. It may apply in the alternative for authority to sell, mortgage, or lease. Upon the filing of such petition, the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof. Notice of the hearing shall state briefly the nature of the application made by the petition and shall be given pursuant to section 525.83 except that no publication is required unless otherwise ordered. Upon the hearing, the court shall have full power to direct the sale, mortgage, or lease of all the real estate described in the petition, or to direct the sale, mortgage, or lease of any one or more parcels thereof, provided that any such direction shall be within the terms of the application made by the petition. In any solvent estate, the court may grant the application without hearing where the court determines that all interested distributees have consented in writing thereto.

[1935 c 72 s 147; 1937 c 435 s 17; 1969 c 943 s 1; 1973 c 405 s 1] (8992-147)

525.641 ORDER FOR SALE, MORTGAGE, LEASE. The order shall describe the real estate to be sold, mortgaged, or leased, and may designate the sequence in which the several parcels shall be sold, mortgaged, or leased. If the order be for a sale, it shall direct whether the real estate shall be sold at private sale or public auction. When the purpose of a sale, mortgage, or lease is to pay debts, bequests, or other items, the real estate shall be sold, mortgaged, or leased in the following sequence: (1) real estate devised charged with the payment of such debts, bequests, or other items, (2) real estate not specifically devised, (3) real estate specifically devised but not so charged. An order to mortgage shall fix the maximum amount of the principal and the maximum rate of interest and shall direct the purpose for which the proceeds shall be used. An order for sale, mortgage, or lease shall remain in force until terminated by the court, but no private sale shall be made after one year from the date of the order unless the real estate shall have been reappraised under order of the court within three months preceding the sale.

525.642 TERMS OF SALE. The court may order a sale of real estate for cash, part cash and a purchase-money mortgage of not more than 50 percent of the purchase price, or on contract for deed. In the event of termination of the interest of the purchaser and his assigns in such contract, the real estate may be resold under the original order and a reappraisal within three months preceding the sale. A sale of the vendor's interest in real estate sold by the representative on contract may be made under order of the court, with or without notice, upon an appraisal of such interest within three months preceding the sale; no such sale shall be made for less than its value as fixed by such appraisal.

525.711 VENUE. Such appeal shall be to the district court of the county of the probate court which made the order, judgment, or decree appealed from, except that an appeal taken from any order, judgment, or decree (other than one determining or refusing to determine venue or transferring or refusing to transfer venue) made before the transfer of venue shall be taken to the district court of the county to which the transfer was made.

525.712 REQUISITES. Such appeal may be taken by any person aggrieved within 30 days after service of notice of the filing of the order, judgment, or decree appealed from, or if no such notice be served, within six months after the filing of such order, judgment, or decree. To render the appeal effective (1), the appellant shall serve a notice of appeal, specifying the order, judgment, or decree appealed from upon the adverse party who appeared or upon his attorney, personally, and upon each adverse party of record who did not appear by mail at his last address as the same appears in the court's file of the case and upon the probate judge or clerk, personally, for the adverse party who did not appear and whose address is unknown and shall file in the probate court such notice, together with proof of service thereof; (2) the appellant shall pay to the probate court an appeal fee of $3 to apply on the fee for the return; and (3) the appellant, other than the state, the veterans administration, or a representative appealing on behalf of the estate, shall file in the probate court a bond in such amount as that court may direct, conditioned to prosecute the appeal with due diligence to a final determination, to pay all costs and disbursements, and to abide the order of the court therein.

When a party in good faith gives due notice of appeal and omits through mistake to do any other act necessary to perfect the appeal, the district court may permit an amendment on such terms as may be just.

When an appeal has been effected, the probate court upon payment of the remainder of its fee, if any, forthwith shall return to the district court a certified transcript of the order, judgment, or decree appealed from, the notice of appeal with proof of service thereof, and the bond if required. If the required fee for the return be not paid within 20 days after the appeal has been effected, the district court may dismiss the appeal. If the appeal be taken under section 525.71, clause (10), such transcript shall contain copies of such other documents, papers, and exhibits as the probate court may consider necessary. The district court may require a further or amended return.

525.714 SUSPENSION BY APPEAL. Such appeal shall suspend the operation of the order, judgment, or decree appealed from until the appeal is determined or the district court shall otherwise order. The district court may require the appellant to give additional bond for the payment of damages which may be awarded against him in consequence of such suspension, in case he fails to obtain a reversal of the order, judgment, or decree so appealed from. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the probate court from appointing special representatives nor prevent special representatives from continuing to act as such.

525.72 TRIAL. Within 20 days after perfection of the appeal, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the district court, and serve upon the adverse party or his attorney a clear and concise statement of the proposition, both of law and of fact, upon which he will rely for reversal of the order, judgment, or decree appealed from; within 20 days after such service the adverse party may serve and file his answer thereto and the appellant, within 20 days thereafter, may serve and file a reply. If there be no reply, allegations of new matter in the answer shall be deemed denied. Demurrers shall not be permitted. The district court may allow or require any pleading to be amended, grant judgment on the pleadings, or, if the appellant fail to comply with the provisions hereof, dismiss the appeal.

After issues are so formed, the case may be brought on for trial by either party by the filing and service upon the attorney for the adverse party, or if he have none, then upon the clerk for him, of a notice of trial or note of issue, in accordance with the practice in the district court. Thereupon the cause shall be placed upon the calendar, tried, and determined in the same manner as if originally commenced in that court. All appeals other than those from the allowance or disallowance of a claim shall be tried by the court without a jury, unless the court orders the whole issue, or some specific question of fact involved therein, to be tried by a jury or referred.

Upon the filing in the probate court of a certified transcript of such judgment, the probate court shall proceed as if no appeal had been taken. If the order, judgment, or decree reviewed is reversed or modified, the district court shall remand the case to the probate court with directions to proceed in conformity with its decision. Upon the filing in the probate court of a certified transcript of such judgment, it shall proceed as directed by the district court.

525.74 DIRECT APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT. Within 30 days after service of notice of the filing of such order, the appellant shall serve a notice of appeal upon all parties adversely interested or upon their attorneys and upon the probate judge. An appellant, other than the state, the veterans' administration, or a representative appealing on behalf of the estate, shall file in the probate court a bond in such amount as that court may direct, conditioned to prosecute the appeal with due diligence to a final determination, pay all costs and disbursements and abide the order of the court therein. The notice of appeal with proof of service and the bond, if required, shall be filed in the probate court within ten days after the service of such notice and the appellant shall pay to such court the sum of $15, of which $10 shall be transmitted to the clerk of the supreme court, as provided by law for appeals in civil actions.

Such appeal shall stay all proceedings on the order appealed from. When a party in good faith gives due notice of appeal from such order and omits through mistake to do any other act necessary to perfect the appeal, or to stay proceedings, the court may permit an amendment on such terms as may be just. Upon perfection of the appeal, the probate court shall transmit to the clerk of the supreme court the $10 aforementioned together with a certified copy of the notice of appeal and bond, if required. The filing thereof shall vest in the supreme court jurisdiction of the cause, and records shall be transmitted to the supreme court, and records and briefs shall be printed, served, and filed, and such appeal shall be heard and disposed of as in the case of appeals in civil actions from the district court. If a settled case be necessary, the probate court may settle a case upon the application of any party. The notice of the hearing upon such application and the case proposed to be settled shall be served on all other parties interested in the appeal at least eight days prior to the hearing.

525.924 MANNER OF EXECUTING ANATOMICAL GIFTS. Subdivision 1. A gift of all or part of the body under section 525.922, subdivision 1, may be made by will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the testator without waiting for probate. If the will is not probated, or if it is declared invalid for testamentary purposes, the gift, to the extent that it has been acted upon in good faith, is nevertheless valid and effective.

Subd. 2. A gift of all or part of the body under section 525.922, subdivision 1, may also be made by document other than a will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the donor. The document, which may be a card designed to be carried on the person, must be signed by the donor in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the document in his presence. If the donor cannot sign, the document may be signed for him at his direction and in his presence in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the document in his presence. Delivery of the document of gift during the donor's lifetime is not necessary to make the gift valid.

Subd. 3. The gift may be made to a specified donee or without specifying a donee. If the latter, the gift may be accepted by the attending physician as donee upon or following death. If the gift is made to a specified donee who is not available at the time and place of death, the attending physician upon or following death, in the absence of any expressed indication that the donor desired otherwise, may accept the gift as donee. The physician who becomes a donee under this subdivision shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

Subd. 4. Notwithstanding section 525.927, subdivision 2, the donor may designate in his will, card, or other document of gift the surgeon or physician to carry out the appropriate procedures. In the absence of a designation or if the designee is not available, the donee or other person authorized to accept the gift may employ or authorize any surgeon or physician for the purpose.

Subd. 5. Any gift by a person designated in section 525.922, subdivision 2, shall be made by a document signed by him or made by his telegraphic, recorded telephonic, or other recorded message.

525.925 DELIVERY OF DOCUMENT OF GIFT. Subdivision 1. If the gift is made by the donor to a specified donee, the will, card, or other document, or an executed copy thereof, may be delivered to the donee to expedite the appropriate procedures immediately after death. Delivery is not necessary to the validity of the gift. The will, card, or other document, or an executed copy thereof, may be deposited in any hospital, bank or storage facility, or registry office that accepts it for safekeeping or for facilitation of procedures after death. On request of any interested party upon or after the donor's death, the person in possession shall produce the document for examination.

Subd. 2. A card, or other document, or an executed copy thereof, may be filed with the local registrar of vital statistics in the city or county of the donor's residence. The local registrar upon filing or recording the same shall transmit to the state registrar of vital statistics on or before the tenth of each month a copy thereof. The applicable provisions of the uniform vital statistics act shall apply to the filing and recording of the instrument referred to in this subdivision.

- (b) an oral statement made in the presence of two persons and communicated to the donee, or
- (c) a statement during a terminal illness or injury addressed to an attending physician and communicated to the donee, or
- (d) a signed card or document found on his person or in his effects.

Subd. 2. Any document of gift which has not been delivered to the donee may be revoked by the donor in the manner set out in subdivision 1 or by destruction, cancellation, or mutilation of the document and all executed copies thereof.

Subd. 3. Any gift made by a will may also be amended or revoked in the manner provided for amendment or revocation of wills or as provided in subdivision 1. If an amendment or revocation of the gift is made in conformity with subdivision 1, such amendment or revocation shall not affect any other part of the will.

525.927 RIGHTS AND DUTIES AT DEATH. Subdivision 1. The donee may accept or reject the gift. If the donee accepts a gift of the entire body, he may, subject to the terms of the gift, authorize embalming and the use of the body in funeral services. If the gift is of a part of the body, the donee, upon the death of the donor and prior to embalming, shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the surviving spouse, next of kin, or other persons under obligation to dispose of the body.

Subd. 2. The time of death shall be determined by a physician who attends the donor at his death, or, if none, the physician who certifies the death. The physician shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

Subd. 3. A person who acts in good faith in accord with the terms of sections 525.921 to 525.93 or the anatomical gift laws of another state or a foreign country is not liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution in any criminal proceeding for his act.
