GENERAL PRINCIPLES

609.01 NAME AND CONSTRUCTION. Subdivision 1. Purposes. This chapter may be cited as the Criminal Code of 1963. Its provisions shall be construed according to the fair import of its terms, to promote justice, and to effect its purposes which are declared to be:

(1) To protect the public safety and welfare by preventing the commission of crime through the deterring effect of the sentences authorized, the rehabilitation of those convicted, and their confinement when the public safety and interest requires; and

(2) To protect the individual against the misuse of the criminal law by fairly defining the acts and omissions prohibited, authorizing sentences reasonably related to the conduct and character of the convicted person, and prescribing fair and reasonable post-conviction procedures.

Subd. 2. Numbering. This chapter is arranged and numbered, subject, however, to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 648.34, so that the enacted chapter may be compiled in the next edition of Minnesota Statutes without any changes in numbering.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.01]

609.015 SCOPE AND EFFECT. Subdivision 1. Common law crimes are abolished and no act or omission is a crime unless made so by this chapter or by other applicable statute, but this does not prevent the use of common law rules in the construction or interpretation of the provisions of this chapter or other statute. Crimes committed prior to the effective date of this chapter are not affected thereby.

Subd. 2. Unless expressly stated otherwise, or the context otherwise requires, the provisions of this chapter also apply to crimes created by statute other than in this chapter.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.015]

609.02 DEFINITIONS. Subdivision 1. Crime. "Crime" means conduct which is prohibited by statute and for which the actor may be sentenced to imprisonment, with or without a fine.

Subd. 2. Felony. "Felony" means a crime for which a sentence of imprisonment for more than one year may be imposed.

Subd. 3. Misdemeanor. "Misdemeanor" means a crime for which a sentence of not more than 90 days or a fine of not more than $300, or both, may be imposed.

Subd. 4. Gross misdemeanor. "Gross misdemeanor" means any crime which is not a felony or misdemeanor.

Subd. 4a. Petty misdemeanor. "Petty misdemeanor" means a petty offense which is prohibited by statute, which does not constitute a crime and for which a sentence of a fine of not more than $100 may be imposed.

Subd. 5. Conviction. "Conviction" means any of the following accepted and recorded by the court:

- (1) A plea of guilty; or
- (2) A verdict of guilty by a jury or a finding of guilty by the court.

Subd. 6. Dangerous weapon. "Dangerous weapon" means any firearm, whether loaded or unloaded, or any device designed as a weapon and capable of producing death or great bodily harm, or any other device or instrumentality which, in the manner it is used or intended to be used, is calculated or likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Subd. 7. Bodily harm. "Bodily harm" means physical pain or injury, illness, or any impairment of physical condition.

Subd. 8. Great bodily harm. "Great bodily harm" means bodily injury which creates a high probability of death, or which causes serious permanent disfigurement, or which causes a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ or other serious bodily harm.

Subd. 9. Mental state. (1) When criminal intent is an element of a crime in this chapter, such intent is indicated by the term "intentionally," the phrase "with intent to," the phrase "with intent that," or some form of the verbs "know" or "believe."

(2) "Know" requires only that the actor believes that the specified fact exists.

(3) "Intentionally" means that the actor either has a purpose to do the thing or cause the result specified or believes that his act, if successful, will cause that result. In addition, except as provided in clause (6), the actor must have knowledge of those facts which are necessary to make his conduct criminal and which are set forth after the word "intentionally."

(4) "With intent to" or "with intent that" means that the actor either has a purpose to do the thing or cause the result specified or believes that his act, if successful, will cause that result.

(5) Criminal intent does not require proof of knowledge of the existence or constitutionality of the statute under which he is prosecuted or the scope or meaning of the terms used in that statute.

(6) Criminal intent does not require proof of knowledge of the age of a minor even though age is a material element in the crime in question.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.02; 1969 c 735 s 3; Ex1971 c 27 s 42, 43]

609.025 JURISDICTION OF STATE. A person may be convicted and sentenced under the law of this state if:

- (1) He commits an offense in whole or in part within this state; or
- (2) Being without the state, he causes, aids or abets another to commit a crime within the state; or
- (3) Being without the state, he intentionally causes a result within the state prohibited by the criminal laws of this state.

It is not a defense that the defendant's conduct is also a criminal offense under the laws of another state or of the United States or of another country.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.025; Ex1971 c 27 s 44]

609.03 PUNISHMENT WHEN NOT OTHERWISE FIXED. If a person is convicted of a crime for which no punishment is otherwise provided he may be sentenced as follows:

(1) If the crime is a felony, to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000, or both; or

(2) If the crime is a gross misdemeanor, to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $1,000, or both; or

(3) If the crime is a misdemeanor, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $300, or both; or

(4) If the crime is other than a misdemeanor and a fine is imposed but the amount is not specified, to payment of a fine of not more than $500, or to imprisonment for a specified term of not more than six months if the fine is not paid.

609.031 INCREASED MAXIMUM PENALTY FOR MISDEMEANORS. Any law of this state which provides for a maximum fine of $100 or imprisonment for 90 days as a penalty for a violation shall, after July 1, 1969, be deemed to provide for a maximum fine of $300 or imprisonment for 90 days, or both.

[1969 c 735 s 6]

609.032 INCREASED MAXIMUM PENALTY FOR ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS. Any law of this state or city charter which limits the power of any city, town, county, or other political subdivision to prescribe a maximum fine of $100 or imprisonment for 90 days for an ordinance violation shall, after July 1, 1969, be deemed to provide that such city, town, county, or other political subdivision has the power to prescribe a maximum fine of $300 or imprisonment for 90 days, or both.

[1969 c 735 s 7; 1973 c 123 art 5 s 7]

609.035 CRIME PUNISHABLE UNDER DIFFERENT PROVISIONS. Except as provided in section 609.585, if a person's conduct constitutes more than one offense under the laws of this state he may be punished for only one of such offenses and a conviction or acquittal of any one of them is a bar to prosecution for any other of them. All such offenses may be included in one prosecution which shall be stated in separate counts.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.035]

609.04 CONVICTION OF LESSER OFFENSE. Subdivision 1. Upon prosecution for a crime, the actor may be convicted of either the crime charged or an included offense, but not both. An included offense may be any of the following:

- (1) A lesser degree of the same crime; or
- (2) An attempt to commit the crime charged; or
- (3) An attempt to commit a lesser degree of the same crime; or
- (4) A crime necessarily proved if the crime charged were proved; or
- (5) A petty misdemeanor necessarily proved if the misdemeanor charge were proved.

Subd. 2. A conviction or acquittal of a crime is a bar to further prosecution of any included offense, or other degree of the same crime.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.04; Ex:1971 c 27 s 45]

609.045 FOREIGN CONVICTION OR ACQUITTAL. If an act or omission constitutes a crime under both the laws of this state and the laws of another jurisdiction, a conviction or acquittal of such crime in the other jurisdiction bars prosecution for the crime in this state.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.045]

609.05 LIABILITY FOR CRIMES OF ANOTHER. Subdivision 1. A person is criminally liable for a crime committed by another if he intentionally aids, advises, hires, counsels, or conspires with or otherwise procures the other to commit the crime.

Subd. 2. A person liable under subdivision 1 is also liable for any other crime committed in pursuance of the intended crime if reasonably foreseeable by him as a probable consequence of committing or attempting to commit the crime intended.

Subd. 3. A person who intentionally aids, advises, hires, counsels, or conspires with or otherwise procures another to commit a crime and thereafter abandons his purpose and makes a reasonable effort to prevent the commission of the crime prior to its commission is not liable if the crime is thereafter committed.

Subd. 4. A person liable under this section may be charged with and convicted of the crime although the person who directly committed it has not been convicted or has been convicted of some other degree of the crime or of some other crime based on the same act.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.05]

609.055 LIABILITY OF CHILDREN. Children under the age of 14 years are incapable of committing crime. Children of the age of 14 years or over but under 18 years may be prosecuted for a criminal offense if the alleged violation is duly referred to the appropriate prosecuting authority in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 260.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1974

CRIMINAL CODE OF 1963 609.085

609.06 AUTHORIZED USE OF FORCE. Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of another without his consent when the following circumstances exist or the actor reasonably believes them to exist:

(1) When used by a public officer or one assisting him under his direction:

- (a) In effecting a lawful arrest; or
- (b) In the execution of legal process; or
- (c) In enforcing an order of the court; or
- (d) In executing any other duty imposed upon him by law; or

(2) When used by a person not a public officer in arresting another in the cases and in the manner provided by law and delivering him to an officer competent to receive him into custody; or

(3) When used by any person in resisting or aiding another to resist an offense against the person; or

(4) When used by any person in lawful possession of real or personal property, or by another assisting him, in resisting a trespass upon or other unlawful interference with such property; or

(5) When used by any person to prevent the escape, or to retake following the escape, of a person lawfully held on a charge or conviction of a crime; or

(6) When used by a parent, guardian, teacher or other lawful custodian of a child or pupil, in the exercise of lawful authority, to restrain or correct such child or pupil; or

(7) When used by a common carrier in expelling a passenger who refuses to obey a lawful requirement for the conduct of passengers and reasonable care is exercised with regard to his personal safety; or

(8) When used to restrain a mentally ill or mentally defective person from injuring himself or another or when used by one with authority to do so to compel compliance with reasonable requirements for his control, conduct or treatment; or

(9) When used by a public or private institution providing custody or treatment against one lawfully committed to it to compel compliance with reasonable requirements for his control, conduct or treatment.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.06]

609.065 JUSTIFIABLE TAKING OF LIFE. The intentional taking of the life of another is not authorized by section 609.06, except when necessary in the following cases:

(1) In resisting or preventing an offense which the actor reasonably believes exposes him or another to great bodily harm or death, or preventing the commission of a felony in his place of abode; or

(2) By a public officer, or person assisting him, to overcome resistance to the execution of legal process or order of a court when he reasonably believes that such resistance exposes him or another to great bodily harm or death; or

(3) By a public officer, or person assisting him, in effecting a lawful arrest for a felony or in preventing an escape of a person held therefor.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.065]

609.075 INTOXICATION AS DEFENSE. An act committed while in a state of voluntary intoxication is not less criminal by reason thereof, but when a particular intent or other state of mind is a necessary element to constitute a particular crime, the fact of intoxication may be taken into consideration in determining such intent or state of mind.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.075]

609.08 DURESS. Except as provided in section 609.20, clause (3), when any crime is committed or participated in by two or more persons, any one of whom participates only under compulsion by another engaged therein, who by threats creates a reasonable apprehension in the mind of such participator that in case of refusal he is liable to instant death, such threats and apprehension constitute duress which will excuse such participator from criminal liability.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.08]

609.085 SENDING WRITTEN COMMUNICATION. Subdivision 1. When the sending of a letter or other written communication is made an offense, the offense is complete upon deposit of the letter or communication in any official depository of mail or given to another for the purpose of delivery to the receiver.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1974

Subd. 2. The offense is committed in both the county in which the letter is so deposited or given and the county in which it is received by the person for whom it is intended.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.085]

609.09 COMPELLING TESTIMONY; IMMUNITY FROM PROSECUTION. Subdivision 1. In any criminal proceeding, paternity proceeding, or proceeding in juvenile court, if a person refuses to answer a question or produce evidence of any other kind on the ground that he may be incriminated thereby, and if the prosecuting attorney, in writing, requests a judge of the court in which the proceeding is pending to order that person to answer the question or produce the evidence, the judge, after notice to the witness and hearing, shall so order if he finds that to do so would not be contrary to the public interest and would not expose the witness to prosecution in another state or in the federal courts, and that person shall comply with the order.

After complying, and if, but for this section, he would have been privileged to withhold the answer given or the evidence produced by him, he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which, in accordance with the order, he gave, answered, or produced evidence, but he may be prosecuted or subjected to penalty or forfeiture for any perjury, false swearing or contempt committed in answering, or in failing to answer, or in producing, or failing to produce, evidence in accordance with the order.

Subd. 2. In every case not provided for in subdivision 1 and in which it is provided by law that a witness shall not be excused from giving testimony tending to criminate himself, no person shall be excused from testifying or producing any papers or documents on the ground that his testimony may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any action, matter, or thing concerning which he shall so testify, except for perjury committed in such testimony.

Subd. 2. The commissioner of corrections shall determine the place of confinement in a prison, reformatory, or other facility of the department of corrections established by law for the confinement of convicted persons and prescribe reasonable conditions, rules, and regulations for their employment, conduct, instruction, and discipline within or without the facility.

Subd. 3. A sentence to imprisonment for a period of one year or any lesser period shall be to a workhouse, work farm, county jail, or other place authorized by law.

609.11 MINIMUM TERMS OF IMPRISONMENT. Subdivision 1. All commitments to the commissioner of corrections for imprisonment of the defendant are without minimum terms except when sentence is to life imprisonment as required by law and except that any commitment following conviction wherein the defendant had in his possession a firearm or used a dangerous weapon at the time of the offense shall be for a term of not less than three years, nor more than the maximum sentence provided by law for the offense for which convicted, and such person shall not be eligible for parole until he shall have served the full minimum sentence herein provided, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 242.19, 243.05 and 609.12. The offenses for which mandatory minimum sentences shall be served as herein provided are: aggravated assault, burglary, kidnapping, manslaughter, murder in the second or third degree, rape, robbery, sodomy, escape while under charge or conviction of a felony, or discharge of an explosive or incendiary device.

Provided, however, the court may invoke the provisions of section 609.135, if the defendant has not previously been convicted of any crime or ordinance involving possession of a firearm, other than a game law violation, or use of a dangerous weapon, or the defendant has not previously been convicted of aggravated assault, burglary, kidnapping, manslaughter, murder in the second or third degree, rape, robbery, sodomy, escape while under charge or conviction of a felony, or discharge of an explosive or incendiary device.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.11; 1969 c 743 s 1; 1971 c 845 s 15; 1974 c 32 s 1]

609.115 PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION. Subdivision 1. When a defendant has been convicted of a felony, and a sentence of life imprisonment is not required by law, the court may, before sentence is imposed, cause a presentence investigation and written report to be made to the court concerning the defendant's individual characteristics, circumstances, needs, potentialities, criminal record and social history, the circumstances of the offense and the harm caused thereby to others and to the community. If the court so directs, the report shall include an estimate of the prospects of the defendant's rehabilitation and recommendations as to the sentence which should be imposed.

The investigation shall be made by a probation officer of the court, if there is one, otherwise by the commissioner of corrections.

Pending the presentence investigation and report, the court with the consent of the commissioner may commit the defendant to the custody of the commissioner of corrections who shall return the defendant to the court when the court so orders.

Subd. 2. If the defendant has been convicted of a crime for which a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment is provided by law, the probation officer of the court, if there is one, otherwise the commissioner of corrections, shall forthwith make a post-sentence investigation and make a written report as provided by subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. All law enforcement agencies shall make available to the probation officer or the commissioner of corrections the criminal record and other relevant information relating to the defendant which they may have, when requested for the purposes of subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 4. Any report made pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section shall be open to inspection by the prosecuting attorney and the defendant's attorney prior to sentence and on the request of either of them a summary hearing in chambers shall be held on any matter brought in issue, but confidential sources of information shall not be disclosed unless the court otherwise directs.

Subd. 5. If the defendant is sentenced to the commissioner of corrections, a copy of any report made pursuant to this section and not made by the commissioner shall accompany the commitment.

Subd. 6. Except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5 or as otherwise directed by the court any report made pursuant to this section shall not be disclosed.

Subd. 7. If imposition of sentence is stayed by reason of an appeal taken or to be taken, the presentence investigation provided for in this section shall not be made until such stay has expired or has otherwise been terminated.

[1963 c 753 art 1 s 609.115]

609.14 REVOCATION OF STAY. Subdivision 1. When it appears that the defendant has violated any of the conditions of his probation or has otherwise been guilty of misconduct which warrants the imposing or execution of sentence, the court may without notice revoke the stay thereof and probation and direct that the defendant be taken into immediate custody.

Subd. 2. The defendant shall thereupon be notified in writing and in such manner as the court directs of the grounds alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of imposition or execution of sentence. If such grounds are brought in issue by the defendant, a summary hearing shall be held thereon at which he is entitled to be heard and to be represented by counsel.

If sentence is for less than this maximum, the prior imprisonment and time earned in diminution of sentence shall be credited toward the sentence unless the court otherwise directs.

Subd. 2. A sentence of imprisonment upon conviction of a felony is reduced by the period of confinement of the defendant following his conviction and before his commitment to the commissioner of corrections for execution of sentence unless the court otherwise directs.
