CHAPTER 232. PUBLIC LOCAL GRAIN WAREHOUSES

Sec.
232.06 Grain received for storage; receipt.

Sec.
232.07 Form of storage receipt.

232.06 Grain received for storage; receipt.

Subdivision 1. Discrimination prohibited; contract for storage. Every person, firm, or corporation operating a public local grain warehouse licensed to store grain shall receive for storage, so far as the capacity of the warehouse will permit, all grain tendered him, without discrimination of any kind; provided such grain is sound and in a warehouseable condition. Upon delivery of grain for storage a legal warehouse storage receipt shall be issued to the owner or his agent which shall state the place and date when the grain was received, the name of the owner of the grain, the kind and grade of the grain according to the official terms established by the Minnesota board of grain standards, or by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, the gross weight, dockage and net weight of the grain as per Minnesota standard weight.

Charges for receiving, insuring, handling, storing and redelivering grain must be posted in a prominent place in the warehouse and filed with the Minnesota public service commission.

Each legal warehouse storage receipt shall contain either on its face or reverse side the following specific warehouse and storage contract:

This grain is received, insured and stored through the date of the expiration of the annual licenses of this warehouse and terms expressed in the body of this receipt shall constitute due notice to the holder thereof of the expiration of the storage period. It shall be and hereby is made unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to charge or collect a greater or lesser amount than the one filed with the commission. All charges shall be collected by the warehouseman upon presentation of the storage receipt for the sale or delivery of the grain represented by such receipt, or the termination of the storage period. This grain has been received and stored with grain of the same lawful grade. Upon the return of this receipt and payment or tender of all charges accrued up to the time of said return of this receipt, the above amount, kind and grade of grain will be delivered within the time prescribed by law to the person above named or his order either from this warehouse, or if the owner so desires, from any licensed and bonded warehouse within this state.

[For text of subs 2 and 3, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 4. Liability. The person, firm, or corporation issuing such receipt shall be held liable to the owner for the delivery of the kind, grade and net quantity of grain called for by said receipts. The term "grain" shall include, but not be limited to, the following products: Wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, flaxseed, speltz and soybeans.

Subd. 5. Purchases, how made. Such person, firm, or corporation shall purchase grain in conformity with the official grades of grain established from time to time by the Minnesota board of grain standards or by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, except as otherwise provided in rules and regulations applicable thereto adopted by state or federal officials pursuant to law. The official grades so established and any change that may be made from 237.29 Companies to pay expense of investigations and hearings.

Subdivision 1. Costs of investigations. When the commission, upon its own motion, complaint, or application to it, and after a public hearing, in which a majority of the commissioners agree it is necessary through hearing or other action to investigate: (a) the value of any telephone property subject to its jurisdiction; (b) the adequacy or reasonableness of any telephone service or rate; (c) the cost of a proposed upgrading of service; or (d) telephone company revenues and expenses for rate making or other purposes, such telephone company which is the subject of the investigation shall be charged with and pay such portion of the compensation and expense of the commission, its officers, legal counsel, agents, and staff of the department of public service, including legal counsel and employees temporarily employed, and all reasonable expenses and costs occasioned in sustaining in any court the determination or action of the department in such investigations, as is reasonably attributable to such investigations, pending or hereafter brought, provided an opportunity to be heard thereon shall first have been granted to such telephone company.
