243.88 Private industry on grounds of correctional institutions.

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the commissioner of administration, with the approval of the governor, may lease one or more buildings or portions thereof on the grounds of any state adult correctional institution, together with the real estate needed for reasonable access to and egress from the leased buildings, for a term not to exceed 20 years, to a private corporation for the purpose of establishing and operating a factory for the manufacture and processing of goods, wares or merchandise, or any other business or commercial enterprise deemed by the commissioner of corrections to be consistent with the proper training and rehabilitation of inmates.

Subd. 2. Any corporation operating a factory or other business or commercial enterprise under this section may employ selected inmates of the correctional institution upon whose grounds it operates and persons conditionally released subject to the provisions of section 241.26. Persons conditionally released as provided in this subdivision shall be deemed to be parolees within the purview of 49 United States Code, Section 60.

Except as prohibited by applicable provisions of the United States Code, inmates of state correctional institutions may be employed in the manufacture and processing of goods, wares and merchandise for introduction into interstate commerce, provided that they are paid no less than the prevailing minimum wages for work of a similar nature performed by employees with similar skills in the locality in which the work is being performed.

245.62 Community mental health program; tax levy.

Any city, county, town, or any combination thereof, of over 50,000 population, and upon consent of the commissioner of public welfare, any city, county, town or combination thereof with less than 50,000 population, may establish a community mental health services program and may establish clinics and staff same with persons specially trained in psychiatry and related fields. Such programs and clinics may be administered by a city, county, town, or non-profit corporation or a community mental health board established pursuant to sections 245.61 to 245.69. After June 30, 1977, each community mental health services program must be contained completely within the boundaries of one Minnesota economic development region except that a community mental health board may encompass completely two Minnesota economic development regions.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE 245.69

In order to provide the necessary funds to establish and operate a mental health services program and to establish and maintain a clinic, the governing body of any city, county or town may levy annually upon all taxable property in such city, county or town a special tax in excess of any statutory or charter limitation but except when levied by a county, such levy shall not exceed two-thirds of one mill. The governing body of any city, county or town may make such a levy, where necessary, separate from the general levy and at any time of the year. Nothing contained herein shall in any way preclude the use of funds available for this purpose under any existing statute or charter provision relating to cities, towns or counties.

[1975 c 69 s 1]

245.63 Assistance or grant.

Any city, county, town, non-profit corporation or community mental health board administering a mental health services program may apply for the assistance provided by sections 245.61 to 245.69 by submitting annually to the commissioner of public welfare its plan and budget for the next fiscal year together with the recommendations of the community mental health board thereon. No programs shall be eligible for a grant hereunder unless its plan and budget have been approved by the commissioner. After June 30, 1977, no program shall be eligible for a grant hereunder unless it is contained completely within the boundaries of one Minnesota economic development region except that a community mental health board may encompass completely two Minnesota economic development regions.

[1975 c 69 s 2]

245.66 Community mental health boards.

[1975 c 69 s 3; 1975 c 169 s 2]

245.69 Additional duties of commissioner.

In addition to the powers and duties already conferred upon him by law

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

the commissioner of public welfare shall:

(a) Promulgate rules and regulations governing eligibility of community mental health programs to receive state grants, prescribing standards for qualification of personnel and quality of professional service and for in-service training and educational leave programs for personnel, governing eligibility for service so that no person will be denied service on the basis of race, color or creed, or inability to pay, providing for establishment, subject to the approval of the commissioner, of fee schedules which shall be based upon ability to pay and the guiding principle of which shall be that no one who can afford to pay for his own treatment at the rate customarily charged in private practice shall be treated in the community mental health services clinic except as hereinafter provided, regulating fees for consultation and diagnostic services which services may be provided to anyone without regard to his financial status when referred by the courts, schools, or health or welfare agencies whether public or private, and such other rules and regulations as he deems necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 245.61 to 245.69.

(b) Review and evaluate local programs and the performance of administrative and psychiatric personnel and make recommendations thereon to community mental health boards and program administrators;

(c) Provide consultative staff service to communities to assist in ascertaining local needs and in planning and establishing community mental health programs; and

(d) Employ qualified personnel to implement sections 245.61 to 245.69.

[1975 c 122 s 1]

245.90 Court awarded funds, disposition.

The commissioner of public welfare shall notify the house appropriations and senate finance committees of the terms of any contractual arrangement entered into by the commissioner and the attorney general, pursuant to an order of any court of law, which provides for the receipt of funds by the commissioner.

Any funds recovered or received by the commissioner pursuant to an order of any court of law shall be placed in the general fund.
