

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

GENERAL PROVISIONS 365.51

Subd. 5. Disability. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any program, service, facility or privilege afforded to a person with a disability which is intended to habilitate, rehabilitate or accommodate that person. It is a defense to a complaint or action brought under this chapter that the person bringing the complaint or action suffers from a disability which in the circumstances poses a serious threat to the health or safety of the disabled person or others. The burden of proving this defense is upon the respondent.

363.03 Unfair discriminatory practices.

[For text of subds 1 and 2, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 3. Public accommodations. It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

To deny any person the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations of a place of public accommodation because of race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin or sex. It is an unfair discriminatory practice for a taxicab company to discriminate in the access to, full utilization of or benefit from service because of a person's disability.

Subd. 4. Public services. It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

To discriminate against any person in the access to, admission to, full utilization of or benefit from any public service because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, disability, sex or status with regard to public assistance.

Subd. 4a. Standard of care for disabled. Nothing in subdivisions 3 and 4 shall be construed to require any person to modify property in any way, or exercise a higher degree of care for a person having a disability.

[For text of subds 5 to 7, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 8. Credit; sex discrimination. It is an unfair discriminatory practice to discriminate in the extension of credit to a person because of sex or marital status.

CHAPTER 365. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.		Sec.
365.19	Tax levy, limit.	365.52	Special town meetings; precinct; polling places.
365.51	Annual town meeting; precincts; polling places.	365.54	Organization of meeting; moderator.

365.19 Tax levy, limit.

Nothing in sections 365.15 to 365.18 shall be construed so as to modify, abridge, or repeal Laws 1925, Chapter 407. Any levy hereunder shall be separate and distinct from, and in addition to, the levy and the amount of tax authorized in any one year pursuant to section 88.04.

[1975 c 67 s 1]

365.51 Annual town meeting; precincts; polling places.

There shall be an annual town meeting held in each town on the second Tuesday of March at the place of holding the last town meeting, or at such other place in the town, or county or in an adjoining town or city in an adjoining county, designated by the annual town meeting, and if no designation is so made the same shall then be made by the town board. The clerk shall give ten days' published notice in a qualified newspaper having general circulation within the town, or by posted notice, or both, as the voters at the annual town meeting may direct, specifying the time and place, but if the town meeting shall fail to direct the manner of giving such notice, the town board shall direct the manner of giving notice. All town officers required by law to be elected shall be chosen thereat, and such other business done as is by law required or permitted. The town board may, with respect to an election by ballot at the annual town meeting for the purpose of selecting town officers or of determining any matter of town business, provide for the casting of ballots in precincts and at polling places. Such precincts and polling places shall be designated by the board in the manner prescribed by sections 204A.06 and 204A.09.

365.52 Special town meetings; precinct; polling places.

A special town meeting may be held for the purpose of election to fill a vacancy when the town board has failed to fill the vacancy by appointment, or for transacting any other lawful business whenever the supervisors, town clerk, and justices of the peace, or any two of them, together with at least 12 other freeholders of the town, file in the office of the town clerk a written statement setting forth the reasons and necessity for such meeting and the particular business to be transacted thereat and that the interests of the town require that such meeting be held. A town meeting may also be called upon a petition of 20 percent of the qualified electors of the town, based upon the number of the electors as shown by the poll list of voters at the next preceding general election. The town board may, with respect to an election by ballot at a special town meeting for the purpose of selecting town officers or of determining any matter of town business, provide for the casting of ballots in precincts and at polling places. Such precincts and polling places shall be designated by the board in the manner prescribed by sections 204A.06 and 204A.09.

[1975 c 5 s 132]

365.54 Organization of meeting; moderator.

The annual meeting shall convene at 9:00 A.M. provided that the electors at the annual meeting may set a later time for convening the next subsequent annual meeting. The voters present between 9:00 A.M. and 10:00 A.M. or such other time as may be set by the town board on the day of the annual or any special town meeting, or by the electors at the previous annual meeting, shall be called to order by the town clerk, if present; if not, the voters present may elect a chairman by acclamation. They shall then in the same manner choose a moderator of such town meeting. The moderator may be paid $2.50 for such work, or such amount as may be allowed by the town board.

CHAPTER 366. TOWN BOARD; BOARD OF AUDIT

Sec.
366.01 Powers.

366.01 Powers.

Subdivision 1. The supervisors of each town shall constitute a board to be designated "The Town Board of,," and any two shall constitute a quorum except in towns operating under option A in which case any three shall constitute a quorum and except when otherwise provided. The supervisors shall have charge of all the affairs of the town not by law committed to other officers. They shall draw orders on the treasurer for the disbursement of money to pay the town expenses, and for all money raised by the town to be disbursed for any other purpose. They may pay the premium upon the bond of the town treasurer where the surety is a corporation authorized by law to be surety.
