RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES, MINNEAPOLIS 422A.16

[For text of subds 1 to 33, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 34. Decorations. The council shall have the power to provide decorations, signs, plaques and attached accessories for public streets, buildings and parks.

[1975 c 30 s 1]

412.501 Park board in certain statutory cities; continuance of existing board; officers; compensation.

The council of any city of more than 1,000 population may by ordinance establish a park board and it may by ordinance adopted by unanimous vote of all members of the council abolish any board thus established. Any park board now in existence in any city shall hereafter operate as a park board under this chapter until abolished as provided in this section. The park board shall consist of three, five, seven or nine members as determined by resolution or ordinance of the council, appointed by the mayor with the consent of the council. If the board consists of three members, one member of the original board shall serve for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years. If the board consists of five members, one member of the original board shall serve a term of one year, two for a term of two years and two for a term of three years. If the board consists of seven members, two members of the original board shall serve a term of one year, two for a term of two years and three for a term of three years. If the board consists of nine members, three members of the original board shall serve a term of one year, three for a term of two years and three for a term of three years. After the terms of the original board members expire, members shall be appointed for terms of three years. The number of members may be increased or decreased within the permitted three, five, seven or nine members by subsequent resolution or ordinance. The resolution or ordinance shall include a provision for maintaining staggered terms for board members, provided that if the number of members is reduced the reduction shall be effected in such a manner that all incumbent members are permitted to serve their full terms.

No action to change the size of the board shall be taken except upon a two-thirds vote of all the members of the city council, and no such action shall be taken until at least three years after establishment of the board or until at least three years after the last resolution or ordinance modifying the size of the board. Vacancies shall be filled for the remainder of the original terms. Each member shall serve until his successor is appointed and qualifies. Members shall serve without compensation unless the council authorizes compensation which may not exceed $100 per year for each member. Any member may be removed by the mayor with the consent of the council for cause after a hearing. The board shall choose one of its members as chairman and may select a secretary either from among its own members or otherwise and fix his compensation at not to exceed $500 per year. The board may adopt and from time to time amend rules of procedure. It shall make quarterly reports of its activities to the council. The city attorney, if there is one, shall act as attorney for the board. An annual statement of its receipts and disbursements shall be filed with the clerk immediately after the close of the calendar year and shall be included as part of the annual financial statement of the clerk in conformity with section 412.281.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1975 SUPPLEMENT

422A.16 RETIREMENT ALLOWANCES, MINNEAPOLIS

[For text of subds 1 to 7, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 8. Any person who was a member of the city municipal employees retirement fund and also a member of a plan administered by the director of the Minnesota state retirement system having a like provision or a member of the public employees retirement association or the teachers retirement association, or any other public employee retirement system in the state of Minnesota having a like provision but excluding all other funds providing benefits for policemen or firemen shall be entitled when qualified to an annuity from each fund if his total allowable service in any two or more of these funds totals ten or more years, provided no portion of the allowable service upon which the retirement annuity from one fund is based is again used in the computation for benefits from another fund and provided further that any refundment received from the city municipal employees retirement fund has been repaid to that fund. The annuity from each fund shall be determined by the appropriate provisions of that fund except the provision requiring at least ten years allowable service in the respective system or association shall not apply for the purposes of this section provided the combined service in two or more of these funds equal ten or more years.
