CHAPTER 641. COUNTY JAILS

Sec.		Sec.
641.02	Fugitives from justice, safekeeping; fees.	641.111	Fees; special laws; exception. [New]
641.03	Federal prisoners; fees.	641.12	Collection of board bills.
641.11	Repealed.	641.13	Prisoners from other counties, boarding fees.

641.02 Fugitives from justice, safekeeping; fees.

Any county jail may be used for the safekeeping of fugitives from justice in this state, in accordance with the provisions of any act of congress. The officer holding any such fugitive in custody shall pay the county $2 as a commitment fee, and a fee to be determined pursuant to section 641.03 for the use of the county, for his board.

[1975 c 94 s 3]

641.03 Federal prisoners; fees.

When any person is committed to any jail by any process issued under authority of the United States, the sheriff or jailer shall receive such person into custody, and safely keep him until discharged by due course of law, subject in all respects to the same liabilities and remedies as though committed under process issued under state authority. The United States shall pay to the county the minimum sum of $5 per day for each prisoner so kept and boarded. Provided, that in any county of this state, the sheriff shall at the request of the county board of commissioners determine the average daily per capita cost for the food, clothing, medical and incidental expense for the care and maintenance of persons committed to the county jail for the preceding year. The amount found to be the average daily per capita cost of such committed persons shall be paid to the county by the United States for each prisoner so kept and boarded during the current year.

[1975 c 94 s 4]

641.11 [Repealed, 1975 c 94 s 7]

641.111 Fees; special laws; exception.

Until January 1, 1979, nothing in Laws 1975, Chapter 94 shall be construed to preclude the payment of fees to or the retention of fees by a sheriff in a county operating under a special law which provides that the sheriff is to receive the compensation provided by law for boarding prisoners.

[1975.c 94 s 8]

641.12 Collection of board bills.

At the end of every month the sheriff of each county shall render to the county auditor a statement showing the name of each fugitive from justice, United States prisoner, one committed from another county or one committed by virtue of any city ordinance, the amount due the county for board of each and from whom, and also of all amounts due for board of prisoners for the preceding month.

[1975 c 94 s 5]

641.13 Prisoners from other counties, boarding fees.

When any prisoner is ordered confined in any county other than that in which his offense was committed, the other county shall keep him at the expense of the county sending him, and the other county board shall collect from the county sending him, for his board such an amount as is charged for local county prisoners for each day, or fractional day, and, in addition thereto, the county board of the other county shall collect from the county sending the prisoners, sums as have been necessarily expended for clothing, bedding, and medical aid for the prisoners. In addition thereto the county board of the other county may collect from the county sending the prisoners such sum as the county board may determine for

CHAPTER 648. MINNESOTA STATUTES; PUBLICATION

Sec.
648.31 Statute publication.

Sec.
648.45 Revolving fund.

648.31 Statute publication.

Subdivision 1. Revisor to prepare copy. Immediately after the end of the regular session of the legislature in 1976 and each regular session thereafter, the revisor of statutes shall prepare printer's copy for a volume to be called "Minnesota Statutes," appending thereto the last year of such session, which shall contain the constitution of the United States, the constitution of this state, all general and permanent statutes in force, an alphabetical index, a table showing the terms of the district courts, and such other information as the revisor of statutes deems desirable and practicable. The decimal system of numbering of sections contained in Minnesota Statutes 1945 shall be continued in all future editions of Minnesota Statutes, except that the use of alphabetical letters in addition to the decimal numbers is permitted. The form and style of Minnesota Statutes may be changed in such manner as is necessary to improve its quality and to permit the use of electronic data processing equipment, computer compatible media, and other related equipment in connection with its publication.

[For text of subd 2, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 3. Specifications for copy. When printer's copy for any edition of Minnesota Statutes is prepared, the revisor of statutes shall compile and include therein, in an appropriate place and classification, having reference to the arrangement and classification thereof, all laws of a general and permanent nature which were enacted at such regular session and at any extra session held since the last preceding regular session, assigning to such laws such chapter and section identification as is appropriate. After each section so included there shall be placed a source note indicating the chapter and section of the session law from which the same was derived. Chapters and sections so compiled and included shall be prima facie evidence of the law contained therein in all courts and proceedings.

648.45 Revolving fund.

[For text of subds 1 to 3, see M.S.1974]

Subd. 4. Such fund shall be used solely for the payment of expenses incurred by the revisor of statutes in the printing, publication, sale, and distribution of Minnesota Statutes and Session Laws, and no part of such fund may be used in the payment of any expense incurred within the revisor's office for preparing printer's copy for any edition of Minnesota Statutes or Session Laws.
