TITLE I APPLICABILITY OF RULES

RULE 101 SCOPE OF RULES

These rules govern procedure in the Supreme Court of Minnesota in civil appeals; in criminal appeals insofar as the rules are not inconsistent with the Rules of Criminal Procedure or Minnesota Statutes; in proceedings for review of orders of administrative agencies, boards or commissions; and on applications for writs or other relief in civil proceedings which the Supreme Court or a justice thereof is competent to give. The term "trial court" as used in these rules shall refer to the court or agency whose decision is sought to be reviewed.

RULE 102 SUSPENSION OF RULES

In the interest of expediting decision upon any matter before it, or for other good cause shown, the Supreme Court, except as otherwise provided in Rule 126.02, may suspend the requirement or provisions of these rules on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

TITLE II APPEALS FROM JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

RULE 103 APPEAL AS OF RIGHT; HOW TAKEN

103.01 Manner of Making Appeal

(1) An appeal shall be made by the service of a written notice of appeal on the adverse party. The notice shall specify the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of opposing counsel and the parties they represent. Not more than five days after expiration of the time to appeal, the appellant shall file the notice of appeal and the cost bond required by Rule 107 with the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order was entered, together with a deposit of $25.00. The bond may be waived by stipulation of the parties.

(2) When a party in good faith serves notice of appeal from a judgment or an order, and omits, through inadvertence or mistake, to proceed further with the appeal, or to stay proceedings, the Supreme Court may grant relief on such terms as may be just.

(3) Upon compliance with subdivision (1) of this rule, the clerk of the trial court shall immediately transmit to the clerk of the Supreme Court $20.00 out of the prescribed fee together with a certified copy of the notice of appeal, the affidavit of service of notice of appeal, the order or judgment from which the appeal is taken, and the bond or stipulation waiving such bond (as amended October 23, 1969).

103.02 Joint Appeals.

If two or more parties are entitled to appeal from a judgment or order and their interests are such as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal, or may join in appeal after filing separate notice of appeal, and they may thereafter proceed on appeal as a single appellant.

103.03 Appealable Judgments and Orders.

An appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court:

- (a) From a judgment entered in the trial court;
- (b) From an order which grants, refuses, dissolves, or refuses to dissolve, an injunction;
- (c) From an order vacating or sustaining an attachment;
- (d) From an order involving the merits of the action or some part thereof;
- (e) From an order refusing a new trial, or from an order granting a new trial if the trial court expressly states therein, or in a memorandum attached thereto, that the order is based exclusively upon errors of law occurring at the trial, and upon no other ground; and the trial court shall specify such errors in its order or memorandum, but upon appeal, such order granting a new trial may be sustained for errors of law prejudicial to respondent other than those specified by the trial court;
- (f) From an order which, in effect, determines the action, and prevents a judgment from which an appeal might be taken;

(g) From a final order or judgment made or rendered in proceedings supplementary to execution;

(h) Except as otherwise provided by statute, from the final order or judgment affecting a substantial right made in a special proceeding, provided that the appeal must be taken within the time limited for appeal from an order;

- (1) If the trial court certifies that the question presented is important and doubtful, from an order which denies a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted or from an order which denies a motion for summary judgment.

103.04 Scope of Review.

(1) The Supreme Court upon an appeal may reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment or order appealed from, or take any other action as the interests of justice may require.

(2) On appeal from an order the Supreme Court may review any order affecting the order from which the appeal is taken and on appeal from a judgment may review any order involving the merits or affecting the judgment. It may review any other matter as the interests of justice may require.

RULE 104

TIME FOR SERVICE OF NOTICE OF APPEAL

104.01 Judgments and Orders.

An appeal from a judgment may be taken within 90 days after the entry thereof, and from an order within 30 days after service of written notice of filing thereof by the adverse party.

104.02 Effect of Entry of Judgment.

No order made prior to the entry of judgment shall be appealable after the expiration of time to appeal from the judgment. Time to appeal from the judgment under this section shall not be extended by the subsequent insertion therein of the costs and disbursements of the prevailing party.

104.03 Special Proceedings.

Except as otherwise provided by statute, an appeal from the final order or judgment affecting a substantial right made in a special proceeding must be taken within the time limited for appeal from an order.

RULE 105 DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

105.01 Petition for Permission to Appeal; Time.

The Supreme Court, in the interest of justice and upon the petition of a party, may allow an appeal from an order not otherwise appealable under Rule 103.03 except an order made during trial. The petition shall be served on the adverse party within the time limited for appeal from an appealable order. Four copies of the petition, including the original, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court, but the Supreme Court may direct that additional copies be provided.

105.02 Content of Petition; Response.

The petition shall be entitled as in the trial court and shall contain a statement of facts necessary to an understanding of the questions of law or fact determined by the order of the trial court; a statement of the question itself; and a statement why an immediate appeal is necessary and desirable. The petition shall include or have annexed thereto a copy of the order from which appeal is sought and any findings of fact, conclusions of law and memorandum relating thereto. Within seven days after service of the petition, any adverse party may serve and file a response thereto, with copies in the number required for the petition. All papers may be typewritten.

The petition and any response shall be submitted without oral argument unless otherwise ordered.

105.03 Grant of Permission; Procedure.

If permission to appeal is granted, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall notify the clerk of the trial court and the appellant shall pay the appeal fee and file the bond as required by these rules and shall thereafter proceed as though the appeal had been noticed by service of a written notice of an appeal. The time fixed by these rules for transmitting the record and for filing the briefs and appendix shall run from the date of the entry of the order granting permission to appeal.

RULE 106

RESPONDENT'S RIGHT TO OBTAIN REVIEW

A respondent may obtain review of a judgment or order entered in the same action which may adversely affect him by serving a notice of review on all parties to the action who may be affected by the judgment or order. The notice of review shall specify the judgment or order to be reviewed and shall be served upon the other parties within 15 days after service of the notice of appeal on that respondent and thereafter shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

RULE 107

BOND OR DEPOSIT FOR COSTS

A bond shall be executed by, or on behalf of, the appellant. The bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of all costs and disbursements awarded against appellant on the appeal, not exceeding the penalty of the bond which shall be at least $500. In lieu of said bond, the appellant may deposit $500 with the clerk of the trial court as security for such payment. The bond may be filed or the deposit may be made without approval or order of the trial court. The bond or deposit may be waived by written consent of the respondent which consent shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court.

RULE 108
SUPERSEDEAS BOND; STAYS

108.01 Supersedeas Bond

(1) An appeal from an order or judgment shall stay proceedings in the trial court and save all rights affected thereby, if the appellant provides a supersedeas bond in the amount and form which the trial court shall order and approve, in the cases provided in this Rule.

(2) If the appeal is from an order, the condition of the bond shall be the payment of the costs of the appeal, the damages sustained by the respondent in consequence of the appeal, and the obedience and satisfaction of the order or judgment which the Supreme Court may give, if the order or any part thereof is affirmed or if the appeal is dismissed.

(3) If the appeal is from a judgment directing the payment of money, the condition of the bond shall be the payment of the judgment or that part of the judgment which is affirmed and all damages awarded against the appellant upon the appeal, if the judgment or any part thereof is affirmed, or if the appeal is dismissed.

(4) If the appeal is from a judgment directing the assignment or delivery of documents or personal property, the condition of the bond shall be the obedience of the order or judgment of the Supreme Court. The bond provided by this subdivision need not be given if the appellant places the document or personal property in the custody of the officer or receiver whom the trial court may appoint.

(5) If the appeal is from a judgment directing the sale or delivery or possession of real property, the condition of the bond shall be the payment of the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the appeal until the delivery of the possession of the property if the judgment is affirmed, and the undertaking that the appellant shall not commit or suffer the commission of any waste on the property while it remains in his possession during the pendency of the appeal.

(6) In cases not specified in subdivisions (2) to (5) hereof, the giving of the bond specified in Rule 107 shall stay proceedings in the trial court.

(7) Upon motion, the trial court may require the appellant to provide a supersedeas bond if it determines that the provisions of Rule 108 do not provide adequate security to the respondent.

108.02 Judgments Directing Conveances.

If the appeal is from a judgment directing the execution of a conveyance or other instrument, its execution shall not be stayed by an appeal until the instrument shall be executed and deposited with the clerk of the trial court to abide the judgment of the Supreme Court.

108.03 Extent of Stay.

When a bond is given as provided by Rule 108.01, it shall stay all further proceedings in the trial court upon the judgment or order appealed from or the matter embraced therein; but the trial court may proceed upon any other matter included in the action, and not affected by the judgment or order appealed from.

108.04 Respondent's Bond to Enforce Judgment.

Notwithstanding an appeal from a money judgment and security given for a stay of proceedings thereon, the trial court, on motion and notice to the adverse party, may grant leave to the respondent to enforce the judgment upon his giving bond to the appellant as herein provided, if it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the trial court that the appeal was taken for the purpose of delay. Such bond shall be executed by the respondent, or someone in his behalf, and shall be conditioned that if the judgment be reversed or modified the respondent will make such restitution as the Supreme Court shall direct.

108.05 Joinder of Bond Provisions; Service on Adverse Party.

The bonds provided for in Rule 107 and Rule 108.01 may be in one instrument or several, at the option of the appellant, and shall be served on the adverse party.

If the appeal is from a judgment directing the sale of perishable property, the trial court may order the property to be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited or invested to abide the judgment of the Supreme Court.

RULE 110
THE RECORD ON APPEAL

110.01 Composition of the Record on Appeal.

The papers filed in the trial court, the offered exhibits, and the transcript of the proceedings, if any, shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

110.02 The Transcript of Proceedings; Duty of Appellant to Order; Notice to Respondent if Partial Transcript is Ordered; Duty of Reporter; Form of Transcript.

(1) Within 10 days after service of the notice of appeal appellant shall, in writing, with a copy to the clerk of the Supreme Court and all counsel of record, order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already part of the record as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant, within said 10 days, shall file and serve on the respondent a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and the statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the respondent deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary he shall within 10 days of service of such description order such parts from the reporter or serve and file a motion in the trial court for an order requiring the appellant to do so.

(2) At the time of ordering, a party must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for the payment of the cost of the transcript and all necessary copies. The reporter shall promptly acknowledge receipt of said order and his acceptance of it, in writing, with copies to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and all counsel of record and in so doing shall state the date, not to exceed a period of sixty days, by which the transcript will be furnished. Upon delivery of the transcript to the appellant, the reporter shall file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court a certificate evidencing the date of delivery of the transcript.

(3) If any party deems the period of time set by the reporter to be excessive or insufficient, or if the reporter needs an extension of time for completion of the transcript, the party or reporter may request a different period of time within which the transcript must be delivered by written motion to the Supreme Court under Rule 127, showing good cause why said period of time is excessive or insufficient. The Court Administrator of the Supreme Court shall act as a referee in hearing said motions and shall file with the Court appropriate findings and recommendations for an order of the Court in said matter. A failure to comply with the order of the Court fixing a time within which the transcript must be delivered may be punished as a contempt of Court.

110.03 Statement of the Proceedings When No Report Was Made or When the Transcript is Unavailable.

If no report of all or any part of the proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may, within 15 days after service of the notice of appeal, prepare a statement of the proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 15 days after service. Thereupon the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the trial court and the statement as approved by the trial court shall be included in the record.

110.04 Agreed Statement as the Record.

In lieu of the record as defined in Rule 110.01, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the trial court may consider necessary to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the trial court and shall be the record on appeal.

110.05 Correction or Modification of the Record.

If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the trial court, the difference shall be submitted to and determined by the trial court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the Supreme Court, or the Supreme Court, on motion by a party or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be approved and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the Supreme Court.

TRANSMISSION OF THE RECORD

111.01 Transmission of Record; Time.

The record shall be transmitted to the clerk of the Supreme Court by the clerk of the trial court 60 days prior to the date set for oral argument or submission of the appeal unless the time is shortened by an order of the Supreme Court. The clerk shall transmit with the record a list, in duplicate, of the exhibits and the items comprising the record, identifying each with reasonable definiteness. Appellant's attorney has the duty to see that the clerk of the trial court complies with this rule. A party must make his own arrangements for the transportation of bulky or weighty exhibits to and from the clerk of the Supreme Court. Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the trial court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the Supreme Court.

111.02 Exhibits.

All exhibits sent to the clerk of the Supreme Court shall have endorsed thereon the title of the case to which they belong. All exhibits will be returned to the clerk of the trial court with the remittitur. All models will be so returned when necessary on a new trial, but where the decision of the Supreme Court is final and no new trial is to be had, such models will be destroyed by the clerk of the Supreme Court unless called for by the parties within 30 days after final decision is rendered.

111.03 Record for Preliminary Hearing in the Supreme Court.

If prior to the time the record is transmitted a party desires to make a motion for dismissal, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the bond on appeal or on a supersedeas bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the trial court at the request of any party shall transmit to the Supreme Court such parts of the original record as the party shall designate.

111.04 Disposition of Record after Appeal.

Upon the termination of the appeal, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall transmit the original transcript to the State Law Library and the remainder of the record to the clerk of the trial court.

As near as may be, the provisions of Rules 110 and 111 respecting the record and the time and manner of its transmission and filing or return in appeals shall govern in cases on writ of certiorari unless otherwise provided by statute or order of the court. 115.06 Dismissal Costs.

or (b) grant temporary relief and order that an answer be served and filed by the respondent within the time fixed by the order or (c) issue an order to show cause why the writ should not be granted. The petition, if not previously served, and the order shall be served by the petitioner on all the other parties to the action in the trial court and on the trial judge. All parties other than the petitioner shall be deemed respondents. Respondents may answer jointly. 126.02 Extension or Limitation of Time.

(2) A concise statement of the legal issue or issues involved, omitting unnecessary detail. Each issue shall be stated as an appellate court would state the broad issue presented. Each issue shall be followed by a concise statement how the trial court decided it.

(3) A statement of the case and the facts. A statement of the case shall first be presented identifying the trial court and the trial judge and indicating briefly the nature of the case and its disposition in the trial court. There shall follow a statement of facts relevant to the grounds urged for reversal, modification, or other relief. The facts must be stated fairly, with complete candor, and as concisely as possible. Each statement of a material fact shall be accompanied by a reference to the record, as provided in Rule 128.04, where such fact appears.

128.02 Brief of Respondent

The brief of the respondent shall conform to the requirements of Rule 128.01, except that a statement of the issues or of the case or facts need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement of appellant. If a notice of review is filed pursuant to Rule 106, the respondent's brief shall contain the issues specified in the notice of review and the argument thereon as well as the answer to the brief of appellant. A respondent who fails to file a brief when due shall not be entitled to oral argument without leave of the Court.

128.03 Reply Brief.

The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the respondent. The reply brief must be confined to new matter raised in the brief of the respondent. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of the Supreme Court.

Whenever a reference is made in the briefs to any part of the record which is reproduced in the appendix or in a supplemental record, the reference shall be made to the specific pages of the appendix or the supplemental record where the particular part of the record is reproduced. Whenever a reference is made to a part of the record which is not reproduced in the appendix or in a supplemental record, the reference shall be made to the particular part of the record, suitably designated, and to the specific pages thereof, e.g., Motion for Summary Judgment, p. 1; Transcript, p. 135; Plaintiff's Exhibit D, p. 3. Intelligible abbreviations may be used.

RULE 129 BRIEF OF AN AMICUS CURIAE

Upon prior notice to the parties, a brief of amicus curiae may be filed by leave of the Supreme Court.

A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph. The cost of producing the supplemental record shall not be a taxable cost.

The respondent shall serve and file his brief and appendix, if any, within 45 days after service of the brief of appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 15 days after service of respondent's brief. If a party prepares a supplemental record, the supplemental record shall be served and filed with his first brief.

131.011 Application for Extension of Time

No extension of the time fixed in Rule 131.01 for the filing of appellant's brief and appendix and respondent's brief will be granted the parties except upon a motion pursuant to Rule 127. The motion shall be heard and considered by the Court Administrator acting as a referee and shall be granted only for good cause shown. Only an original of said motion shall be filed.

131.02 Number of Copies to be Filed and Served.

Twenty copies of each brief, appendix, and supplemental record, if any, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court, and two copies shall be served on the attorney for each party to the appeal separately represented. The clerk shall not accept a brief, appendix, or supplemental record for filing unless it is accompanied by admission or proof of service as required by Rule 125.

RULE 132
FORM OF BRIEFS, APPENDICES,
SUPPLEMENTAL RECORDS, AND MOTIONS AND OTHER PAPERS

132.01 Form of Briefs, Appendices, and Supplemental Records.

(1) Briefs and appendices shall be produced by standard typographical printing. Any other duplicating or copying process capable of producing a clear black image on white paper may be used with special permission of the Supreme Court. All material (other than footnotes) must appear in at least 11 point type, or the equivalent thereof, on unglazed opaque paper. Briefs and accompanying appendices shall be bound together in volumes having pages 9 by 7 inches, and type matter 7 by 4-1/8 inches. The right-hand margins need not be justified. The pages of the appendix shall be separately numbered.

(2) The front cover of the brief and appendix shall contain: (a) the name of the court and the number of the case which number shall be printed or lettered in bold-face print or prominent lettering, the equivalent of 18 point figures, and shall be located one-half inch from the top center of the cover; (b) the title of the case; (c) the title of the document, e.g., Appellant's Brief and Appendix; and (d) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the attorneys representing each party to the appeal.

RULE 133
SUMMARY ACTION; PREHEARING CONFERENCE; CALENDAR

133.01 Summary Action

(1) The Supreme Court, on its own motion or on motion of any party, may dismiss the appeal or other request for relief or may summarily affirm the order or judgment below if the Supreme Court lacks jurisdiction or if it clearly appears that the appeal presents no question of substantial merit; or the Supreme Court may limit the issues to be considered on appeal to those which present a substantial question. In case of obvious error the Supreme Court may summarily reverse or remand for additional proceedings or grant other appropriate relief.

(2) Motions for such relief may be made at any time but shall be filed promptly when the occasion appears and shall comply with the requirements of Rule 127.

133.02 Prehearing Conference

The Supreme Court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before the Supreme Court or a judge or a designated officer thereof for a prehearing conference to consider settlement, simplification of the issues, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceedings by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court or judge thereof shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered and which limits the issues to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel. Such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the proceeding, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

133.03 Calendar

No case shall be placed on the calendar for argument until after there has been filed in this court the appellant's brief and appendix and respondent's brief. If either appellants or respondents fail to file their brief within the time provided, or an extension thereof, the case shall be disposed of in accordance with Rule 142.

RULE 134
ORAL ARGUMENT

134.01 Notice of Hearing; Postponement.

The clerk shall advise all parties of the time and place at which oral argument will be heard. A request for postponement of the hearing must be made by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing.

134.02 Time Allowed for Argument.

Except as provided in Rule 134.07, the appellant shall be entitled to a total of 45 minutes in en banc hearings and to a total of 30 minutes in division hearings, and the respondent to 30 minutes in en banc hearings and to 20 minutes in division hearings, for oral argument. If counsel is of the opinion that additional time is necessary for the adequate presentation of his argument, he may request such additional time as he deems necessary by motion filed in advance of the date fixed for hearing.

134.03 Order and Content of Argument.

The appellant is entitled to open and conclude the argument. It is the duty of counsel for appellant to state the case and facts fairly, with complete candor, and as fully as necessary for consideration of the issues to be presented. The appellant shall precede the statement of facts with a summary of the questions to be raised. Counsel should not read at length from the record, briefs or authorities.

134.04 Non-Appearance of Counsel.

If counsel for a party fails to appear to present argument, the court may hear argument on behalf of a party whose counsel is present, and the case will be decided on the briefs and the argument heard. If no counsel appear for any party, the case will be decided on the briefs unless the court shall otherwise order.

134.05 Submission on Briefs.

By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for decision on the briefs, but the court may direct that the case be argued.

134.06 Exhibits; Plats.

(1) If any exhibits are to be used at the hearing, counsel shall arrange to have them placed in the courtroom before the Court convenes on the date of the hearing. Counsel will also see that all photographic exhibits shall be in court for the oral argument.

(2) In cases where a plat or diagram will facilitate an understanding of the facts or of the issues involved, counsel for appellant shall have in court a plat or diagram of sufficient size and distinctness to be visible to the court. The plat or diagram may be drawn on the courtroom blackboard.

134.07 Oral Argument; When Allowed.

(1) In the following actions no oral argument is allowed:

- (a) Actions for the recovery of money only, or for specific personal property, where the amount or the value of the property involved in the appeal shall not exceed $2,000.
- (b) Appeals from orders involving only questions of practice, or forms or rules of pleading.
- (c) Appeals from the clerk's taxation of costs.
- (d) Appeals from municipal court.
- (e) Cases classified by the court to be submitted on briefs.

(2) In the following actions appellant shall be entitled to 25 minutes in all and respondent to 15 minutes:

- (a) Actions for the recovery of money only, or for specific personal property, where the amount or value of the property involved in the appeal is more than $2,000 but does not exceed $5,000.
- (b) Cases involving decisions of administrative bodies other than the Tax Court.
- (c) Cases to determine settlement for poor purposes.
- (d) Divorce cases where only alimony or custody, or both, are involved.
- (e) Appeals from a post-conviction remedy, habeas corpus, or similar proceeding involving a post-appeal review of a conviction in a criminal case.

(3) Application for leave to argue a case orally when a matter has been set for submission without oral argument shall be made by motion pursuant to Rule 127 setting forth the reason why the appeal should be submitted upon oral argument. Said motion will be considered timely filed if made within 15 days after receipt by counsel of the calendar which sets the matter on the nonoral argument calendar.

(4) Whenever any member of the court is not present at the oral argument of a case, such case shall be deemed submitted to such member of the court on the record and briefs therein and when during the consideration of a case there is a change in the personnel of the court the case shall be deemed submitted to the new member or members on the record and briefs.

RULE 135

EN BANC AND DIVISIONS HEARINGS

(1) Cases set for oral argument or submitted on the briefs will be heard either en banc or by a division of the court. The Chief Justice will assign three or more members of the court to sit as a division of the court to hear and decide cases assigned to such division.

(2) A court commissioner is hereby designated as a referee of the court for the purpose of reviewing the record, transcript, and briefs in all cases and submitting to all justices of the court his recommendations for the classification of cases for assignment to the en banc or to a division calendar, according to the legal and judicial significance of the issues raised. Any one justice of the court may order a case to be placed on the en banc calendar rather than a division calendar. The Chief Justice, in his discretion and according to the requirements of composing the calendar, shall accept, reject, or revise the recommended classification of cases. Thereafter, the clerk shall prepare the calendar.

(3) The decision of a case by a division of the court shall be by the concurrence of all the members of the division. If all the members of the division do not concur in the decision, the case will be re-set for an en banc hearing or considered and decided by the court en banc on the briefs. A copy of the tentative written opinion of a division in each case, prior to filing with the clerk, shall be circulated among the justices who did not sit on the case, and any two justices of the court, by questioning the decision, may signify their doubt as to the decision of the division, in which event the case, at a further conference of the court, will be re-set for an en banc hearing or considered and decided by the court en banc on the briefs. An en banc hearing under this paragraph shall be scheduled at the earliest practicable date, at which hearing the argument time allotted by Rule 134 shall not apply, but counsel for the parties will appear to answer legal or factual questions posed by the court. No additional briefs need be filed unless requested by the court.

(4) The Chief Justice may appoint a panel or panels of members of the court to review pending cases for disposition under the rules of this court.

RULE 136

NOTICE OF DECISION; JUDGMENT; REMITTITUR

136.01 Notice of Decision; Summary Opinion

(1) Notice of Decision

Upon the filing of a decision or order which determines the matter, the clerk shall mail a copy thereof to the attorneys for the parties and to the trial court. The mailing of such copy shall constitute notice of the filing.

(2) Summary Opinion

In any case decided under Rule 133.01 or in any other case where the Supreme Court determines that a detailed opinion would have no precedential value, the Supreme Court in its discretion may enter the following summary opinion:

"Affirmed (or reversed or other appropriate direction for action), pursuant to Rule 136.01 (2)."

136.02 Entry of Judgment; Stay.

The clerk shall enter judgment pursuant to the decision or order not less than ten days after the filing thereof. The service and filing of a petition for rehearing shall stay the entry of the judgment.

136.03 Remittitur.

The clerk of the Supreme Court shall transmit the remittitur to the clerk of the trial court when judgment is entered, unless the prevailing party files an objection to the remittitur pursuant to Rule 136.04. The remittitur shall contain a certified copy of the judgment of the Supreme Court signed by the clerk.

136.04 Objection to Remittitur.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, the prevailing party's properly taxed costs and disbursements shall be paid by the losing party before he shall be entitled to a remittitur. If the prevailing party serves and files a written objection to remittitur on or before the day set for the taxation of costs and disbursements, the clerk shall not transmit the remittitur to the clerk of the trial court until the costs and disbursements are paid. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court that the losing party is unable to pay the costs and disbursements, it may permit the re-mittitur.

RULE 137 JUDGMENT ROLL, EXECUTIONS

137.01 Judgment Roll.

In all cases the clerk shall attach together the bond and notice of appeal certified and returned by the clerk of the trial court and a certified copy of the judgment of the Supreme Court, signed by him; and these papers shall constitute the judgment roll.

137.02 Execution; Issuance and Satisfaction.

Executions to enforce any judgment of the Supreme Court may issue to the sheriff of any county in which a transcript of the judgment is filed and docketed. Such executions shall be returnable within 60 days from the receipt thereof by the officer. On the return of an execution satisfied in due form of law the clerk shall make an entry thereof upon the record.

RULE 138 DAMAGES FOR DELAY

If an appeal delays proceedings on the judgment of the trial court and appears to have been taken merely for delay, the Supreme Court may award just damages and single or double costs to the respondent.

RULE 139 COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

139.01 Costs.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court the prevailing party shall recover costs as follows (1) Upon a judgment in his favor on the merits $25; (2) Upon a dismissal, $10.

139.02 Disbursements.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court the prevailing party shall be allowed his disbursements necessarily paid or incurred.

139.03 Taxation of Costs and Disbursements; Time.

Costs and disbursements shall be taxed by the clerk upon 2 days' written notice served and filed by the prevailing party. The costs and disbursements so taxed shall be inserted in the judgment. Failure to tax costs and disbursements within 15 days after the filing of the decision or order shall constitute a waiver thereof.

139.04 Objections; Appeal.

Written objections to the taxation of costs and disbursements may be served and filed on or before the time set for the taxation thereof. A party may appeal to the Supreme Court from the clerk's taxation by serving and filing a notice of appeal within 6 days from the date of taxation by the clerk.

139.05 Disallowance of Costs and Disbursements.

The clerk, in the first instance, and the Supreme Court upon appeal from the clerk's taxation, or upon its own motion, may disallow the prevailing party's costs or disbursements or both, in whole or in part, for a violation of these rules or for other good cause. The prevailing party will not be allowed to tax as a disbursement the cost of reproducing parts of the record in the appendix which are not relevant to the issues on appeal.

RULE 140 PETITION FOR REHEARING

A petition for rehearing may be filed within 10 days after the filing of the decision or order unless the time is enlarged by order of the Supreme Court within the 10-day period. The petition shall set forth with particularity any controlling statute, decision, or principle of law, any material fact, or any material question in the case which, in the opinion of the petitioner, the Supreme Court has overlooked, failed to consider, misapplied, or misconceived. The petition shall be served upon the opposing party who may answer within 5 days thereafter. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. Thirteen copies of the petition, produced and sized as required by Rule 132.01, shall be filed with the clerk, except that any duplicated copy, other than a carbon copy, of a typewritten original may also be filed. A filing fee of $25 shall accompany the petition for rehearing. The filing of a petition for rehearing stays the entry of judgment until disposition of such petition. It does not stay the taxation of costs.

RULE 142 DISMISSAL; DEFAULT

142.01 Voluntary Dismissal.

If the parties to an appeal or other proceeding shall sign and file with the clerk a stipulation that the proceedings be dismissed, the clerk shall enter an order of dismissal accordingly.

142.02 Default of Appellant.

The respondent may serve and file a motion for judgment of affirmance or dismissal if the appellant shall fail or neglect to serve and file his brief and appendix as required by these rules. If the appellant is in default for 30 days and respondent has not made a motion under this rule, the Supreme Court shall order the appeal dismissed without notice, subject to reinstatement upon motion to the Supreme Court for good cause shown.

142.03 Default of Respondent.

If the respondent shall fail or neglect to serve and file his brief, the case shall be determined on the merits. If a defaulting respondent has filed a notice of review pursuant to Rule 106, the appellant may serve and file a motion for judgment of affirmance of the judgment or order specified in the notice of review, or for a dismissal of respondent's review proceedings.

RULE 143 PARTIES; SUBSTITUTION

143.01 Parties.

The party appealing shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the respondent. The title of the action shall not be changed in consequence of the appeal.

143.02 Death of a Party.

If any party to the appeal shall die while an appeal is pending in the Supreme Court, the surviving party or the legal representative or successor in interest of the deceased party, shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court an affidavit showing such death and the name and address of the legal representative or successor in interest. The clerk, after giving notice to the representative or successor in interest, shall substitute the name of such legal representative or successor in interest by or against whom the appeal shall thereafter proceed. If the deceased party has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record and proceedings shall then be had as the Supreme Court may direct. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of judgment or order in the trial court but before a notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this rule. If a party entitled to appeal shall die before filing a notice of appeal, the notice of appeal may be filed by his personal representative, or, if he has no personal representative, by his attorney of record within the time prescribed by these rules. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this rule.

143.03 Substitution for Other Causes.

If substitution of a party in the Supreme Court is necessary for any reason other than death, substitution shall be effected in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Rule 143.02.

143.04 Public Officers.

When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in the Supreme Court in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

RULE 144 CASES INVOLVING CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS WHERE STATE IS NOT A PARTY

When the constitutionality of an act of the legislature is drawn in question in any proceeding in the Supreme Court to which the state or an officer, agency, or employee of the state is not a party, the party asserting the unconstitutionality of the act shall notify the attorney general thereof.

RULE 145 APPENDIX OF FORMS

The forms contained in the Appendix of Forms are sufficient under the rules and are intended to indicate the simplicity and brevity of statement which the rules contemplate.

RULE 146 TITLE

Upon the taking of effect of these rules the statutes listed in Appendix A are superseded with respect to practice and procedure in the Supreme Court.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION

To: The Supreme Court of the State of Minnesota:
The Petitioner, A. B., requests a writ of prohibition on the following grounds:

1. On January 2, 1966, A. B., as plaintiff, commenced an action against C. D., as defendant, in the District Court, County of, Judicial District, to recover damages for personal injuries sustained in an automobile accident and caused by the negligence of Defendant C. D.

2. On February 1, 1966, Defendant C. D. noticed the deposition of Mrs. A. B., the wife of petitioner, a copy of which is attached.

3. On February 3, 1966, Plaintiff A. B. moved said District Court for a protective order restraining C. D. from taking the deposition of Mrs. A. B., a copy of which is attached.

4. On February 14, 1966, the Honorable

APPENDIX 6. SUPREME COURT RULES

..... Judge of said District Court, made and filed an order denying said motion and directing that the deposition of Mrs. A. B. be held on March 1, 1966, a copy of which order is attached.

5. A. B. has asserted and continues to assert the marital privilege afforded to him by M.S.A. §595.02(1). The issue presented by these proceedings is whether that privilege is applicable to discovery depositions.

6. The order of February 14, 1966, is in violation of said statute and contrary to law in that the District Court lacks power or authority to compel the testimony of Mrs. A. B. in the instant case. If the deposition is taken, irreparable harm will result to petitioner who has no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, the petitioner prays for a writ of prohibition restraining the District Court from enforcing the order of February 14, 1966.

ARGUMENT

I. One who, without negligence, participates in the creation of a dangerous condition in a public highway does not have a duty to exercise reasonable care to remove the condition or warn others of its presence. (Each legal issue should be argued separately. See Rule 128.01(4).)

II. The driver of a vehicle on an arterial highway does not have an obligation to reduce his otherwise legal speed until such time as he reasonably should have seen that the driver of an automobile on an intersecting street was not going to stop. (Argument)

III. A physician, who is called as an expert witness, may not give an opinion concerning the physical condition of a party which opinion is based, in part, on the opinions of other physicians who did not testify. (Argument)

STATE BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS. The State Board of Law Examiners shall consist of nine members who shall be appointed by the Supreme Court each for a term of three years or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. Two of the members shall be lay people. The terms of office may be staggered by the court by any method it deems appropriate. From among its members the board shall elect a president and the Supreme Court shall designate a secretary. The board shall be charged with the duty of administering these rules and shall have authority to make its own rules not inconsistent herewith.

C. An applicant who fails to pass the examination may take a re-examination at any regular examination date within the next two years. At least thirty (30) days before the time for the commencement of such examination the applicant shall give the Board notice of his desire to take such examination by making a new application on forms provided by the Board, accompanying the application with a fee of $75.00 (payable to the State Board of Law Examiners as provided in Rule V), and presenting any additional information as the Board may require. No applicant who has failed three examinations shall be permitted to take a further examination.

RULE IV

The four year limitation shall not apply to applicants previously admitted to practice in another jurisdiction.

RULE V

Such application shall be filed in duplicate in the office of the Director of Bar Admissions at least 90 days prior to the first day of the examination for which application is being made, and shall be accompanied by:

1. A fee of $75.00 in the form of a check, bank draft, or money order payable to the State Board of Law Examiners.

2. 3. If the applicant has been admitted to the practice of law in another jurisdiction the Board shall require a Character Investigation Report of the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The application shall be accompanied by an additional fee in the amount of the National Conference charge for conducting the investigation.

B. Every person desiring permission to take the examination shall also file or cause to be filed with the Board at least 10 days prior to the examination a degree or certificate from an approved law school showing that he has graduated, or that he is eligible to be graduated within 60 days of the last day of the examination, with a Bachelor of Laws or equivalent degree.

D. An applicant may withdraw his application and be refunded $50.00 by giving notice of withdrawal to the Board. Such notice shall be in writing and must be received in the office of the Board of Law Examiners not later than 4 days prior to the examination. An applicant who fails to take or complete the examination shall not be entitled to any refund.

E. An applicant who is denied permission to take the examination will be refunded the sum of $50.00 which represents the portion of the application fee charged for taking the examination.

RULE VI

ACCESS TO EXAMINATION DATA. An applicant who takes and fails to pass the bar examination has the right, within 60 days after the examination results have been announced, to inspect his answers and the grades assigned thereto. No applicant shall be allowed to procure copies of the examination questions or his answers.

RULE VII

EXAMINATIONS — AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD. 1. For the purpose of aiding the State Board of Law Examiners in the preparation, administration and prompt grading of bar examinations, the board is authorized:

(a) Subject to the approval of the Supreme Court, to employ a Director of Bar Admissions on a full-time or part-time basis; to prescribe his duties; and to fix his compensation;

(b) To secure examination questions, together with analyses of the questions, from qualified law teachers outside the State of Minnesota, and to pay a reasonable compensation for such questions;

(c) To employ from among the members of the bar of the State of Minnesota lawyers of high ability to serve as readers to grade the answers to examinations upon the basis of standards determined by the board for each question after consultation with the director, the reader concerned with the particular question, and representatives of the approved law schools within the state;

(d) To fix the minimum satisfactory grade for success on the examination;

(e) To appoint a Review Committee whose function will be to review the examination papers of not less than the top 20 percent of the applicants who fail to achieve a passing grade on the examination. Such review shall be accomplished without prior knowledge of the grades initially assigned. An applicant shall be considered as having passed the examination if his final grade as determined by the Review Committee is equal to or exceeds the minimum passing grade fixed by the State Board of Law Examiners.

RULE VIII

ATTORNEYS FROM OTHER STATES — HOW ADMITTED. A. The Supreme Court may, upon certification by the Board of Law Examiners, waive the examination requirement and admit to practice law in this state any individual who has established to the satisfaction of the board:

1. That he has met the requirements of Rule II (1), (2) and (3).

2. That he is duly admitted to practice in another state, territory, the District of Columbia or any jurisdiction where the common law of England constitutes the basis of jurisprudence.

B. Such attorney shall accompany his application by the following:

1. A certified copy of his application for admission to the bar in the state, territory, District of Columbia or jurisdiction in which he has been admitted to the practice of law.

2. A certificate of his admission to the bar in said state, territory, district or jurisdiction.

3. A certificate from the proper court or body therein that he is in good standing and not under pending charges of misconduct.

4. A certificate of a judge of a court of record and affidavits of two practicing attorneys of said state, territory, district or jurisdiction, stating how long and under what circumstances they have known the applicant and what they know of applicant's character and his experience in the practice or teaching of the law.

5. A fee of $200.00 in form of check or money order payable to the order of the State Board of Law Examiners, no part of which shall be refunded should the application be denied.

If the Board doubts the character or qualifications of the applicant it may impose such other tests as in its discretion may seem proper.

When an application for admission is made by a person admitted to practice law in other states, territories or jurisdictions the Board may employ the National Conference of Bar Examiners to make investigation and report upon said application, and may pay to said National Conference of Bar Examiners to make investigation and report a reasonable fee for its services in making such investigation and report.

An attorney-at-law duly admitted to practice in another state, territory, the District of Columbia or jurisdiction desiring admission to the practice of law in this state but who has not been actively engaged in the practice of law or full-time teaching as his principal occupation for the period prescribed herein must be examined for admission in accordance with the provisions of Rule V hereof (except that his application need not be made within four years of his graduation from law school) and in addition must meet all the requirements of this rule (except that the fee shall be $75.00).

An approved law school is a law school that is provisionally or fully approved by the Section of Legal Education for Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association.

RULE IX

LIMITED PRACTICE. A. The Supreme Court may, upon certification by the Board of Law Examiners, issue a Special Temporary License to practice law in this state to any individual who has established to the satisfaction of the Board:

(1) That he has met the requirements of Rule II (1), (2) and (3).

(2) That he is duly admitted to practice in another state, territory, District of Columbia or any jurisdiction where the common law of England constitutes the basis of jurisprudence.

If the Board thereafter denies the application it shall so notify the applicant by certified mail directed to him at the mailing address appearing in his application, specifying the grounds of its determination. Within ten days of his receipt of such notification the applicant may, by written request directed to the Board at the office of the Director of Bar Admissions, demand a formal hearing. RULE XI

The Secretary of the State Board of Law Examiners shall call a joint meeting of the council and the board at least once each year. In addition thereto, the council shall meet at such other time as it may be called together by the Supreme Court, the State Board of Law Examiners, or on its own motion.

Any eligible law student in a law school in this state accredited by The American Bar Association, may, upon written approval of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, interview, advise, negotiate, and appear in any court on behalf of any indigent person accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or may represent any indigent person in a civil action; or may represent any state, local, or other governmental unit or agency; provided, however, that the conduct of the case is under the supervision of a member of the State Bar of Minnesota. For purposes of this rule, an "eligible" law student is one who has completed, or is completing, the final two years of the law school curriculum, and who is identified as such during all proceedings.

Before any student shall be eligible to appear in court for or on behalf of any indigent person accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or represent any indigent person in a civil action, or may represent any state, local, or other governmental unit or agency, the Dean of the accredited law school of which he is a student shall file with the Supreme Court a list of names of the enrolled students who have been selected by the faculty to participate in the program. the district court wherein the law school is located, such approved student shall be, and is hereby, authorized to appear in any court of the State of Minnesota when under the direct supervision of a member of the State Bar of Minnesota, on behalf of such indigent persons accused of crime, or on behalf of the prosecution, or to represent indigent persons in any civil action as may be assigned to them, or to represent any state, local, or other governmental unit or agency. The expression "direct supervision" shall be construed to require the personal attendance of the supervising member of the bar during any trial, plea and sentence, or any other critical stage of any proceeding in or out of the court room; provided, however, that the supervising attorney may authorize a student to appear alone in all such proceedings other than the actual trial whenever the supervising attorney shall deem his personal presence unnecessary to insure proper supervision. Such authorization shall be made in writing and shall be available to the court upon request. In all events representation afforded pursuant to this rule must comply with minimal standards required by the State and Federal Constitutions.

Any individual who shall violate this rule shall be subject to all the penalties and remedies provided by law for the unauthorized practice of law in the State of Minnesota. It shall be the duty of each member of the judiciary to enjoin persons from appearing and practicing in his court whose failure to register has come to the attention of such court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT ON

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

RULE 1

PURPOSE. It is of primary importance to the members of the Bar and to the public that complaints involving alleged unprofessional conduct of attorneys be promptly investigated and disposed of and that disciplinary process be brought in those cases where investigation discloses it is warranted. Such investigations and proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with these rules.

RULE 2

DISTRICT ETHICS COMMITTEE. Each District Bar Association of the State shall appoint an Ethics Committee of not less than five (5) attorneys at law who practice in the district. In the event a District Bar Association fails to establish such District Ethics Committee, a Committee of not less than five members of the Bar of such district shall be appointed by this Court to serve in place thereof. The term "District Bar Association" includes the Range Bar Association.

STATE BOARD OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY. There is hereby established a State Board of Professional Responsibility to be appointed by this Court and consisting of eighteen members and a chairman. Until February 1, 1972, except as hereinafter provided, each shall be a member of the Bar of this State, with his principal office located in this State. Commencing February 1, 1972, except as hereinafter provided, one member who is not an attorney at law shall be appointed each year upon the expiration of the terms of current members until three such persons have been appointed; provided that persons who are not attorneys at law shall be appointed to fill any vacancy that sooner occurs due to the death or resignation of a member, but in no event shall more than one such appointment be made to terms that expire in the same year. Three members not attorneys at law having been appointed to the Board, thereafter the Board shall consist of eighteen members and a chairman. Sixteen shall be members of the Bar of this State with their principal office located in this State, and three members shall be persons who are not attorneys at law. Nine of the members of the Board, other than the chairman, shall be nominated by the Minnesota State Bar Association in the manner determined by it. Of the members first appointed, six shall be appointed for one year, six for two years and six for three years, three in each instance from the nominees of the Minnesota State Bar Association. Thereafter, appointments shall be for a three year term. No member may serve more than two three year terms. The chairman of the Board shall be appointed by this Court for such time as it shall designate and shall serve at the pleasure of this Court. The members and the chairman shall serve without compensation but shall be paid their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

The Board shall have general supervisory authority over the administration of these Rules, may, from time to time, issue opinions on questions of professional conduct, and shall advise and assist the Administrative Director in the performance of his duties. For the purpose of considering complaints of professional misconduct and recommendations for disciplinary proceedings as provided by these Rules, the Board may sit in panels of not less than five. A panel may refer any matter before it to the entire Board for its consideration.

Except as otherwise provided herein or ordered by this Court, no petition charging a member of the Bar with professional misconduct shall be filed with this Court without the approval of the Board or a panel thereof.

RULE 4

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR. A State Administrative Director on Professional Conduct is hereby established. He shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of this Court, and shall be paid such salary as the Court shall fix, and in the manner provided in Rule 13. He shall be responsible and accountable to this Court, and, subject thereto, to the Board of Professional Responsibility, for the proper administration of the provisions of these Rules.

The Administrative Director when authorized and empowered by this Court may employ such persons as he may, from time to time, deem necessary at such compensation as this Court may approve.

INVESTIGATION. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, all complaints of alleged unprofessional conduct of attorneys shall, in the first instance be referred for investigation to the District Ethics Committee of the district wherein the attorney has his principal office. The investigation of the complaint may be assigned by the Committee to any of its members who shall report to the Committee the results of his investigation.

Upon receipt of a complaint, the District Ethics Committee shall promptly notify the Administrative Director in writing of the pendency thereof. It may at any time request the assistance of the Administrative Director in making this investigation. If the Committee after investigation determines that the complaint does not merit further disciplinary action, the complaint may be dismissed by the Committee and the attorney involved, the complainant and the Administrative Director shall be so notified. The Committee may also issue a private reprimand or admonition and the Administrative Director shall be so notified. Otherwise the Committee shall refer the complaint to the Director either for his further investigation and disposition in accordance with these Rules or with the recommendation that disciplinary proceedings be instituted.

If the complaint is under investigation without such Committee action for a period of more than 90 days, the Committee shall notify the Administrative Director concerning the status of the matter.

(b) After receiving a recommendation from a District Committee that disciplinary action be taken against an attorney and after such further investigation as the Administrative Director shall deem necessary, he shall submit the same to the Board of Professional Responsibility for its consideration. A time for hearing thereon shall be set and, unless he cannot be found, notice thereof and an opportunity to be heard shall be given to the attorney. The Board or a panel thereof may request the issuance of a subpoena as provided in Rule 45.05, Rules of Civil Procedure, requiring a person, other than the attorney charged, to appear before it and give testimony or produce documentary evidence or tangible things, or requiring the attorney charged to produce documentary evidence or tangible things which do not consist of his personal records or property and which are not subject to his clients' unwaived privilege of confidence.

If, upon the hearing, the Board or a panel thereof decides that no disciplinary measures are warranted, it shall direct the Administrative Director to so advise the District Committee, the attorney and the complainant. If the Board or a panel thereof decides that the conduct of the attorney merits a private warning or reprimand, the Board shall administer the same and notify the District Committee and the complainant thereof. If the Board or a panel thereof decides that disciplinary measures other than a private warning or reprimand are called for, it shall direct the Administrative Director to proceed with the filing of an appropriate petition in this Court.

(c) The Administrative Director may conduct an investigation of a complaint without referral to a District Committee when (1) the appropriate District Committee so requests, or (2) after consultation with the District Committee, the Administrative Director finds that the District Committee lacks the facilities or is otherwise unable or unwilling to make the necessary investigation and disposition of the complaint in accordance with these Rules or the Administrative Director finds unreasonable delay may occur in the consideration of the complaint.

For like reasons, the Board of Professional Responsibility may remove a complaint from the consideration of a District Committee and refer it to the Administrative Director.

If after investigation of the complaint so received the Administrative Director concludes that the complaint is without merit he may recommend to the appropriate District Committee that it approve the dismissal of the complaint and that it inform the attorney and the complainant of the action taken; or the Director may make like recommendation for like action to the Board of Professional Responsibility.

If the Director concludes that disciplinary action shall be taken, he shall submit the complaint to the Board of Professional Responsibility for its consideration and the matter shall proceed as in subdivision (b) of this Rule.

INITIATING DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

(a) When directed by the Board of Professional Responsibility or a panel thereof, as provided by these Rules, or by this Court, the Administrative Director shall present to this Court a verified petition for disciplinary action against the named attorney setting forth specifically the professional misconduct charged against him and shall request an order of this Court directing the attorney to answer the petition. If the order is issued, the Administrative Director shall thereupon prosecute and proceed with the handling of the proceedings with diligence and in such manner as he deems proper.

(b) The Administrative Director shall cause the petition, together with this Court's order directing the respondent to answer the same, to be served upon the respondent in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

(c) If such respondent has a resident guardian duly appointed for such person services shall be made upon such guardian in like manner. Respondent shall, after service upon him, have 20 days exclusive of the day of service in which to answer the petition.

If respondent cannot be found in the State of Minnesota and his place of residence is unknown, and the sheriff of the county in which respondent last resided or practiced law makes a return to that effect, the Administrative Director shall file in this court an affidavit setting forth such facts. After the lapse of thirty days the Director may apply to this court for an order suspending respondent from the practice of law. A copy of such order, when made and filed, shall be mailed to each judge of the district court in this state. Within a reasonable time thereafter respondent may petition this court for a vacation of such order of suspension and for leave to answer the accusation made against him.

If within one year of the date of the sheriff's return of not found, respondent has not petitioned the court for vacation of such order of suspension and for leave to answer the accusation made against him, the Administrative Director shall petition the court for an order directing respondent to show cause to the court why appropriate disciplinary action should not be taken. Such order to show cause shall be returnable not earlier than twenty (20) days following the service of such order on respondent. Such order may be served on respondent by publishing the same once each week for three (3) weeks in the regular issue of a qualified newspaper published in the county in which respondent was last known to practice. The service of the order shall be deemed complete twenty-one (21) days after the first publication: Personal service of such order without the state, proved by the affidavit of the person making the same, sworn to before a person authorized to administer an oath, shall have the same effect as a published notice herein provided for.

ANSWER. After service of the petition and order as herein provided, respondent shall file in duplicate in this Court a verified answer which denies or admits the accusations contained in the petition and states any defense that he may have thereto or any matter in mitigation of discipline.

If respondent fails to file such answer within the time herein provided or such extension of time as may be granted by this court, he shall be held to be in default and an order of discipline entered.

RULE 8

HEARING OF PETITION. Upon filing of an answer, this court may appoint a judge of a district court of this state or a former judge of the district court or former justice of the supreme court as referee with directions to hear and report the evidence submitted for or against the accusations contained in such petition and answer. Unless otherwise directed in the order of his appointment the hearing shall be conducted by the referee in accordance with the rules of civil procedure applicable to district courts and for the purposes of the proceedings he shall have all the powers of a district court judge. The referee shall have a court reporter make a stenographic report of all testimony given and all proceedings had before him as in civil cases. The reporter shall be paid his necessary expense, but no compensation except as hereinafter provided. Upon request of any person interested and payment or tender of his fees therefor, the reporter shall furnish a transcript of such record as in civil cases and shall be paid therefor the fee provided by law. The transcript of testimony shall be in the form required by Rule 110.02(4) of the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure of this Court. It shall be the duty of the person ordering the transcript to see that the court reporter complies with this rule.

The referee shall make findings of fact, and conclusions and recommendations. The findings of fact and conclusions shall be conclusive, unless a record on appeal as provided in Rule 110 of the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure of this court is submitted.

After a record of appeal is filed, the matter shall be heard by this court upon the record, oral arguments, and such printed briefs as the parties desire to file. On oral argument petitioner shall be entitled to 45 minutes and respondent 30 minutes.

DISPOSITION.

(a) This court, upon the basis of the record made, and upon being satisfied that appropriate disciplinary action should be taken may (1) disbar the attorney; (2) suspend him indefinitely or for a stated period of time; (3) place the attorney on a probationary status for a stated period, or until further order of the court, with such conditions as the court may specify and to be supervised by the Administrative Director; (4) issue a public reprimand; or (5) dismiss the complaint.

(b) At any time after the institution of a disciplinary proceeding under Rule 6, where it appears that a continuation of the practice of law by the attorney during the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings may result in substantial risk of serious injury to the public, the Administrative Director, on direction of a Panel of the Board, at least five (5) members of such Panel voting in the affirmative, shall present to this Court a verified petition for an order suspending the respondent attorney during the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings, and shall request an order of the Court directing the attorney to answer the petition. The petition for temporary suspension shall set forth the acts or omissions of the respondent attorney contained in the pending petition for disciplinary action together with such other facts as may constitute grounds for suspension pending disciplinary proceedings. The petition for temporary suspension may be supported by a transcript of any evidence taken by the Panel and by documents or affidavits.

(c) If the order is issued, the Administrative Director shall cause the petition for temporary suspension, together with this Court's order directing the respondent to answer the same, to be served upon respondent in the same manner as provided in Rule 6 for the service of a petition for disciplinary action. Respondent shall, after service upon him, have twenty (20) days, exclusive of the day of service, in which to answer the petition. If respondent fails to file such answer within the time herein provided or such extension of time as may be granted by this Court, he shall be held to be in default and an order suspending him pending the final determination of the disciplinary proceedings entered. The last paragraph of Rule 6 is made a part hereof by reference.

(d) Answer to the Petition. The answer may contain additional facts relating only to the issue of substantial risk of serious injury to the public, shall be verified, and may be supported by documents or affidavits. The answer shall be filed in duplicate in this court.

(e) After the filing of an answer, if the Court, after an en banc hearing, finds a continuation of practice by the attorney may result in substantial risk of serious injury to the public, it may enter an order suspending such attorney from the practice of law pending final determination of the disciplinary proceedings.

RULE 10

FELONY CONVICTION. (a) Whenever an attorney is convicted of a felony under Minnesota Statute the Administrative Director shall forthwith submit to the court a petition for the attorney's suspension from the practice of law. Upon a plea of guilty to the court of such felony, or upon the final affirmation of a conviction of such felony, or expiration of the time for appeal, the Administrative Director shall forthwith institute proceedings for disbarment in accordance with these rules. For the purposes of this rule the Administrative Director need not obtain authorization from the State Board of Professional Responsibility.

(b) Upon final conviction of a felony under Federal Law or the laws of any other state the Administrative Director shall proceed as otherwise provided in these rules.

RULE XI

REINSTATEMENT. All petitions for reinstatement to practice law of attorneys suspended or disbarred shall be served upon the Administrative Director, the Chairman of the district Ethics Committee of the district in which the petitioner last practiced law, and the president of the State Bar Association. The original petition, with proof of service, and one copy, shall then be filed with the clerk of this court. Objections to the petition, if any, shall be served upon respondent and filed with the clerk of this court within forty days after service of the petition.

Upon the filing of a petition for reinstatement by an attorney and expiration of the time for filing objections thereto, as herein provided, the Administrative Director shall investigate the matter and make report to the Board of Professional Responsibility and to this court of his conclusions as to the desirability of readmitting such attorney to practice law. There shall be a hearing before this court on every petition for the reinstatement of a lawyer unless such hearing is waived by the Board of Professional Responsibility and the petitioner. Upon the filing of a verified petition for reinstatement of an attorney suspended or disbarred, and after reference thereof to the Administrative Director and report by him, as herein provided the court will determine whether a referee shall be appointed. In the event a referee is appointed, the same procedure shall be followed as in disciplinary proceedings.

RULE XII

CONFIDENTIALITY. Unless otherwise directed by this Court, the files, records and proceedings of the District Ethics Committees, the State Board of Professional Responsibility and the Administrative Director, as they may relate to or arise out of any complaint or charge of misconduct against, or investigation of, an attorney, shall be deemed confidential and shall not be disclosed, except as between the Committees, the Board and the Director in furtherance of their duties, or upon request of the attorney affected or as they may be introduced in evidence or otherwise produced in support of a petition filed in accordance with these Rules or in proceedings consequent thereon, or in opposing a petition for reinstatement.

RULE XIII

PAYMENT OF EXPENSES. Payment of all miscellaneous and necessary expenses of the Administrative Director and the Board of Professional Responsibility and its members incurred from time to time and certified to this Court as having been incurred in the performance of their duties under these Rules and the compensation of the Administrative Director and of others employed by him in accordance with these Rules shall be made upon vouchers approved by this Court from its funds now or hereafter to be deposited to its credit with the State of Minnesota or elsewhere.

RULE XIV

SUPPLEMENTAL RULES. The State Board of Professional Responsibility and each District Ethics Committee may adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with these Rules, governing the conduct of business and performance of their duties.

RULE 2
STATE BOARD OF CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

There is hereby established a State Board of Continuing Legal Education, to be appointed by this Court, consisting of 12 members and a chairperson. Three of the members of the Board other than the chairperson may be persons who are not members of the Bar of this state. Each other member of the Board, with the exception of one who shall be a District Judge, shall be a member of the Bar of this state who practices in Minnesota with his principal office located in this state. Six of the members of the Board other than the chairperson shall be nominated by the Minnesota State Bar Association in the manner determined by it. Of the members first appointed, four shall be appointed for 1 year, four for 2 years, and four for 3 years, two in each instance from the nominees of the Minnesota State Bar Association and one in each instance being a lay member. Thereafter, appointments shall be for a 3-year term. No member may serve more than two 3-year terms. Each member shall serve until his successor is appointed and qualifies. The chairperson of the Board shall be appointed by this Court for such time as it shall designate and shall serve at the pleasure of this Court. This Court shall also designate a secretary of the Board. The chairperson, the secretary, and other members of the Board shall serve without compensation, but shall be paid their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

The Board shall have general supervisory authority over the administration of these rules. The Board shall accredit courses and programs which will satisfy the educational requirements of these rules and shall discover and encourage the offering of such courses and programs.

The Board shall at all times be subject to the direction and supervision of this Court in all matters.

RULE 3
REPORT OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

Each registered attorney duly admitted to practice in this state desiring active status must make a written report to the Board in such manner and form as the Board shall prescribe. Such report shall be filed with the Board in duplicate within 60 days after the close of the 3-year period within which such attorney is required to complete his continuing legal education requirements. Such report shall be accompanied by proof satisfactory to the Board that such attorney has completed a minimum of 45 hours of course work, either as a student or as a lecturer, in continuing legal education in courses approved by the Board as suitable and sufficient within the 3-year period just completed.

Any registered attorney duly admitted to practice in this state who desires restricted status as hereinafter defined shall so indicate in the space provided in his annual registration statement. A restricted attorney shall not be required to maintain the educational requirements provided by these rules. Judges, referees, judicial officers, or magistrates of any court of record of the State of Minnesota, or attorneys serving as legal counsel in any governmental unit of the State of Minnesota, are not eligible to apply for restricted status until they retire or leave their position.

A restricted attorney who desires to change his status to that of an active attorney may do so by filing with the Clerk of Court of the Supreme Court notice in writing of such intent and by further stating therein that he will conform to the rules and regulations of the State Board of Continuing Legal Education as approved by this Court and that he has not theretofore violated such rules or regulations.

In individual cases, the Board may grant waivers or extensions of the minimum educational or the reporting requirements.

RULE 4
FAILURE TO SATISFY ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

If an active attorney fails to complete the minimum educational or the reporting requirements to the satisfaction of the Board, the Board shall report such failure to the Supreme Court for appropriate disposition.

The Board of Continuing Legal Education, before reporting any matter to the Court, shall investigate the facts in order to make a report on the reasons for noncompliance including affording the lawyer involved a hearing, upon his request, in accordance with the principles of due process of law. The Board shall, however, before reporting any noncompliance to the Court, attempt to resolve all matters on a confidential basis.

RULE 5
CONFIDENTIALITY

Unless otherwise directed by this Court, the files, records, and proceedings of the State Board of Continuing Legal Education, as they may relate to or arise out of any failure of an active attorney to satisfy the continuing legal education requirements, shall be deemed confidential and shall not be disclosed except in furtherance of its duties, or upon request of the attorney affected, or as they may be introduced in evidence or otherwise produced in proceedings in accordance with these rules.

RULE 6
PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

All miscellaneous and necessary expenses of the Board of Continuing Legal Education and its members certified to this Court as having been incurred in the performance of their duties under these rules shall be paid upon vouchers approved by this Court from funds now or hereafter deposited to its credit with the State of Minnesota or elsewhere.

PART I. GENERAL RULES

PART II. RULES FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLES

PART I

General Rules

RULE 1

ACTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVES; ATTORNEY'S FEES. In actions for personal injury or death by wrongful act, brought by persons acting in a representative capacity, contracts for attorney's fees shall not be regarded as determinative of fees to be allowed by the court.

RULE 2

ACTIONS FOR DEATH BY WRONGFUL ACT. Every application for the appointment of a trustee of a claim for death by wrongful act under section 573.02, shall be made by the verified petition of at least one heir of the decedent. The petition shall show the dates and places of the decedent's birth and death; his address at the time of his death; the name, age and address of each of his heirs; and the name, age, occupation and address of the proposed trustee. The petition shall also show whether or not any previous application has been made in any court for the appointment of a trustee for such claim, and if a previous application has been made, the facts with reference thereto and its disposition shall also be stated. The written consent of the proposed trustee to act as such shall be endorsed on or filed with such petition.

The petition will be heard upon such notice, given in such form and in such manner and upon such persons as may be determined by the court, unless waived by all heirs or the court.

The petition, any order entered thereon, and the trustee's oath, will be entitled: "In the matter of the appointment of a trustee for the heirs of _____, decedent."

If the trustee, after his appointment and qualification, commences an action for death by wrongful act in the District Court of his appointment, the summons and complaint when filed will be given the same file number as the petition and order for the trustee's appointment. If the venue of such action be later changed to another county of the State of Minnesota, jurisdiction over the trust will thereupon be transferred in the same file to the District Court of that county.

If the trustee, after his appointment and qualification, commences an action in the District Court of a county other than that in which he was appointed, a certified copy of the petition, the order entered thereon and the oath shall be filed in the District Court where such action be commenced, at the time the summons and complaint are filed therein, and jurisdiction over the trust will thereupon be transferred to such District Court.

Application for the distribution of money recovered under section 573.02 shall be by verified petition of the trustee. Such petition shall show the amount which has been received upon action or settlement; a detailed statement of disbursements paid or incurred, if any; the amount, if any, claimed for services of the trustee and of his attorney; the amount of the funeral expenses and of demands for the support of the decedent; the name, age and address of each heir and the share to which each is entitled.

If an action were commenced, such petition shall be heard by the court in which the action was tried, or in the case of a settlement, by the court in which the action was pending at the time of settlement. If an action were not commenced, the petition shall be heard by the court in which the trustee was appointed.

The petition will be heard upon such notice, given in such form and in such manner and upon such persons as may be determined by the court, unless waived by all heirs or the court.

The court by order, or by decree of distribution, will direct distribution of the money to the persons entitled thereto by law. Upon the filing of a receipt from each distributee for the amount assigned to him, the trustee shall be discharged.

The foregoing procedure will, so far as can be applicable, also govern the distribution of money recovered by personal representatives under the Federal Employers' Liability Act (45 U.S.C.A. 51) and under section 219.77.

RULE 3

ACTION OR CLAIM ON BEHALF OF INFANT OR INCOMPETENT PERSON FOR PERSONAL INJURIES—DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS TO BE APPROVED BY THE COURT IN ALL CASES—PROCEDURE DETAILED

(a) When Petition and Order Are Required. No part of the proceeds of any action or claim for personal injuries on behalf of any infant or incompetent person shall be paid to any person except upon written petition to the Court and written order of the Court as hereinafter provided. This rule governs a claim or action brought by a parent of an infant, by a guardian ad litem or general guardian of an infant or incompetent person, or by the guardian of a dependent, neglected or delinquent child, and applies whether the proceeds of the claim or action have become fixed in amount by a settlement agreement, jury verdict or court findings, and even though the proceeds have been reduced to judgment.

(b) Contents and Filing of Petition. The petition shall be verified by the parent or guardian, shall be filed before the Court makes its order, and shall include the following:

- (1) The name and birth date of the infant or other incompetent person.
- (2) A brief description of the nature of the claim if a complaint has not been filed.
- (3) An attached affidavit or letter of a doctor showing the nature of the injuries, the extent of recovery and the prognosis if the Court has not already heard testimony covering these matters.
- (4) Whether or not the parent, or the infant or incompetent person, has insurance covering any part of the principal and derivative claims and whether subrogation rights are held by the insurer.
- (5) The proposed disposition to be made of the proceeds of the claim and derivative claims, including expenses and attorneys fees.

(c) Hearing on the Petition. The infant or incompetent person and the petitioner shall personally appear before the Court at the hearing on the petition unless their appearance is specifically waived by the Court because the action has been fully or partially tried or for other good cause. The reporter shall, when ordered by the Court, keep a record of the hearing. The hearing shall be ex parte unless otherwise ordered.

(d) Terms of the Order. The Court's order shall:

- (1) Approve or modify the proposed disposition and specify the persons to whom the proceeds are to be paid.
- (2) State the reason or reasons why the proposed disposition is approved if the Court is approving a settlement for an amount which it feels is less than what the injuries and expenses, might seem to call for, e.g., limited insurance coverage, dubious liability, comparative negligence or other similar considerations.

(3) Determine what expenses may be paid from the proceeds of any recovery by action or settlement, including the attorney's fee. Attorney's fees will not be allowed in any amount in excess of one-third of the recovery, except on a showing that: (I) an appeal to an appellate court has been perfected and a brief by the plaintiff's attorney has been printed therein and (II) there has been an expenditure of time and effort throughout the proceeding which is substantially disproportionate to a one-third fee. No sum will be allowed, in addition to attorney fees, to reimburse any expense incurred in paying an investigator for services and mileage, except in unusual circumstances, such as those where the attorney's fee is not fully compensatory or where the investigation must be conducted in an area so distant from the principal offices of the attorney so employed that expense of travel and related expense would be substantially equal to, or in excess of, usual investigating expenses.

(4) Specify what disposition will be made of the balance of the proceeds of any recovery after payment of the expenses authorized by the Court. The Court may authorize investment of all or part of such balance of the proceeds in securities of the United States, but otherwise shall order the balance of the proceeds deposited in one or more banks, savings and loan associations or trust companies where the deposits will be fully covered by Federal deposit insurance, provided, however, that in lieu of such disposition of the proceeds, the Order may provide for the filing by the petitioner of a surety bond approved by the Court conditioned for payment to the ward in a manner therein to be specified of such moneys as the ward is entitled to receive, including interest which would be earned if the proceeds were invested.

(5) If part or all of the balance of the proceeds are ordered deposited in one or more financial institutions, the Court's order shall direct: (a) that the defendant pay the sum to be deposited directly to the financial institution; (b) that the deposit book (or other deposit document) be issued in the name of the minor or incompetent person; (c) that the deposit book (or other deposit document) be transmitted by the financial institution to the Clerk of Court for safekeeping (subject to further order of the Court) within 5 days after its receipt of the deposit; (d) that the financial institution shall not make any disbursement from the deposit except upon order of the Court; and (e) that a copy of the Court's order shall be delivered to said financial institution by the defendant with the remittance for deposit. The financial institution(s) and the type of investment therein shall be as specified in Section 540.08 of the Minnesota Statutes or amendments thereof. Two or more institutions shall be used if necessary to have full Federal deposit insurance coverage of the proceeds plus future interest.

(6) The Court will authorize or direct the investment of proceeds of the recovery in securities of the United States only if practicable means are devised comparable to the provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5) above, to insure that funds so invested will be preserved for the benefit of the infant or incompetent person.

(7) Direct that the appropriate party or parties will be entitled to receive appropriate receipts, releases or a satisfaction of judgment when he has made the payments called for in the Court's order.

(e) General Guardians. When an action is brought by a general guardian appointed and bonded by a court of competent jurisdiction, the requirements of this Rule 3 may be modified as deemed desirable by the Court because of bonding or other action taken by the appointing court, except that there must be compliance with the settlement approval requirements of Section 540.08 of the Minnesota Statutes or amendments thereof.

RULE 4

ATTORNEYS AS SURETIES. No practicing attorney shall be accepted as surety on a bond or undertaking required by law.

RULE 5

BANKS IN LIQUIDATION, SALE OF ASSETS, FINAL DIVIDENDS. Petitions for orders approving the sale or compounding of doubtful debts, or the sale of real or personal property, or authorizing a final dividend, of any bank, state or national, in liquidation, shall be heard after notice of all interested persons given as herein provided.

Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall enter an order reciting the substance of the petition and the time and place for hearing thereon, and advising all interested persons of their right to be heard.

A copy of the order shall be published once in a legal newspaper published near the location of the bank in liquidation, which publication shall be made at least ten days prior to the time fixed for the hearing; or the court may direct notice to be given by such other method as it shall deem proper. If it shall appear to the court that delay may prejudice the rights of those interested, the giving of notice may be dispensed with.

RULE 6

CONTINUANCE. No civil case on the general term calendar shall be continued by consent of counsel only, or otherwise than by order of the court for cause shown; provided that in counties having an assignment clerk the special rules of such county shall govern.

RULE 7

COSTS ON MOTION. (a) On granting or denying a motion the court may award such costs as it deems reasonable, which, in the discretion of the court, may be absolute or to abide the event of the action.

(b) It shall be the policy to impose costs of not less than $25.00 for:

(1) Failure of a party to respond to interrogatories within the time provided by Rules of Civil Procedure 33, or,

(2) Failure of a party to appear at the time and place fixed for the taking of his deposition if due notice thereof has been served as provided by Rules of Civil Procedure 30.01. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964]

[Eliminated effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

(a) All actions or proceedings for the sequestration of the property of corporations or for the appointment of receivers thereof, except actions or proceedings instituted by the Attorney General in behalf of the state, shall be instituted in the county in which the principal place of business of said corporation is situated; provided, that for the convenience of witnesses and to promote the ends of justice the venue may be changed by order of court.

(b) Receivers, trustees, guardians, and others appointed by the court to aid in the administration of justice shall be wholly impartial and indifferent to all parties in interest, and selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. Except by consent of all parties interested, or where it clearly appears that prejudice will otherwise result, no person who is or has been during the preceding year a stockholder, director, or officer of a corporation shall be appointed as receiver for such corporation. Receivers shall be appointed only upon notice to interested parties, such notice to be given in the manner ordered by the court; but if it shall be clearly shown that an emergency exists requiring the immediate appointment of a temporary receiver, such appointment may be made ex parte.

(c) Every receiver after his appointment shall give a bond to be approved by the court in such sum and conditioned as the court shall direct, and shall make and file with the clerk an inventory and estimated valuation of the assets of the estate in his hands; and, unless otherwise ordered, appraisers shall then be appointed and their compensation fixed by order of the court.

(d) Claims of creditors of corporations, the subject of sequestration or receivership proceedings, shall be duly verified and filed in the office of the clerk of court. The court, by order, shall fix the time for presentation, examination and adjustment of claims and the time for objecting thereto, and notice of the order shall be given by such means, including publication if deemed desirable, as the Court therein shall direct. Written objection to the allowance of any claim may be made by any party to the proceeding by serving a copy of such objection upon the claimant or his attorney. Where no objection is made within the time fixed by said order, the claim may stand admitted and be allowed without proof. Issues of law and fact shall be tried as in other cases.

(e) Every receiver shall file an annual inventory and report showing the condition of the estate in his hands and a summary of his proceedings to date. The clerk shall keep a list of receiverships and notify such receiver and the court when such reports are due.

(f) When an attorney has been appointed receiver, no attorney for such receiver shall be employed except upon the order of the court, which shall be granted only upon the petition of the receiver, stating the name of counsel whom he wishes to employ and showing the necessity for such employment.

(g) No receiver shall employ more than one counsel, except under special circumstances requiring the employment of additional counsel; and in such case only after an order of court made on a petition showing such circumstance, and on notice to the party or person on whose behalf or application the receiver was appointed. No allowance shall be made to any receiver for expenses paid or incurred in violation of this rule.

(h) No receiver or other trustee appointed by the court, nor any attorney acting for such receiver or trustee, shall withdraw or use any trust funds to apply on his compensation for services except on written order of court, duly made after such notice as the court may direct, and filed in the proceeding.

(i) All applications for the allowance of fees to receivers and their attorneys shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of the services performed and the amount charged for each item shown.

Compensation of receivers and their attorneys shall be allowed only upon the order of the court after such notice to creditors and others interested as the court shall direct, of the amounts claimed as compensation and of the time and place of hearing the application for their allowance.

(j) Every receiver shall take a receipt for all disbursements made by him in excess of one dollar, shall file the same with his final account, and shall recite such filing in his verified petition for the allowance of such account. Final accounts shall disclose the status of the property of the estate as to unpaid or delinquent taxes and the same shall be paid by him to the extent that the funds in his hands permit, over and beyond costs and expenses of the receivership. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 24

RESTRAINING ORDER, BOND. Before any restraining order shall be issued, except in aid of writs of execution or replevin, or in actions for divorce, the applicant shall give a bond in the penal sum of at least $1,000, executed by him or by some person for him as a principal, approved by the court and conditioned for the payment to the party restrained of such damages as he shall sustain by reason of the order, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled thereto. [As amended June 1964, effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

RULE 25

SERVICE, ADMISSION OF ATTORNEY. Rule 25 is superseded in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts by Rule 5.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 26

STAY. Rule 26 is superseded, in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts by Rule 58.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 27

TRIALS. (a) [Eliminated effective Oct. 1, 1964.]

(b) In civil cases called for trial by jury the court at the request of any party to the action may direct the clerk to draw 18 names from the jury box in the first instance, and the said 18 shall then be examined as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the action; and if any of them be excused another shall be called in his place until there shall be 18 jurors in the box qualified to sit in the action; and the parties shall have the right to exercise their peremptory challenges as to those 18. When the peremptory challenges have been exercised, of those remaining the 12 first called into the jury box shall constitute the jury. In appropriate cases this rule may be modified in accordance with sections 546.10 and 593.15.

(c) Counsel on each side, in opening his case to the jury, shall confine himself to stating the facts which he proposes to prove.

(d) On the trial of actions but one counsel on each side shall examine or cross-examine a witness, and one counsel only on each side shall sum up the case to the jury, unless the judge shall otherwise order.

(e) In criminal trials involving sex offenses or in which the evidence is likely to be of a scandalous nature the court may, with the consent of the defendant, exclude the general public from the court room.

(f) Exceptions to remarks by counsel either in the opening statement to the jury or in the closing argument shall be taken while such statement or argument is in progress unless the same is being taken down in full by the court reporter, in which case exceptions taken at the close of the statement or argument shall be deemed reasonable. court reporter shall be at the expense of the party desiring it, which shall not be taxable as costs. (Adopted at annual meeting of district court judges held in Minneapolis on July 5-6, 1932.)

TRUSTEES; ACCOUNTING. Every trustee subject to the jurisdiction of the district court shall file an annual account, duly verified, of his trusteeship with the clerk of the court within 60 days after the end of each accounting year. Such accounts shall contain the following:

(1) Statements of the total inventory or carrying value and of the total fair market value of the assets of the trust principal as of the beginning of the accounting period. In cases where a previous account has been rendered, the totals used in these statements shall be the same as those used for the end of the last preceding accounting period.

(2) A complete itemized inventory of the assets of the trust principal as of the end of the accounting period, showing both the inventory or carrying value of each asset and also the fair market value thereof as of such end of the accounting period, unless, because such value is not readily ascertainable or for other sufficient reason, this provision cannot reasonably be complied with. Where the fair market value of any item at the end of the accounting period is not used, a notation of such fact and the reason therefor shall be indicated on the account.

(3) An itemized statement of all income transactions during the period of such account.

(4) A summary statement of all income transactions during the period of such account, including the totals of distributions of income to beneficiaries and the totals of trustees' fees and attorneys' fees charged to income.

(5) An itemized statement of all principal transactions during the period of such account.

(6) A reconciliation of all principal transactions during the period of such account, including the totals of distributions of principal to beneficiaries and the totals of trustees' fees and attorneys' fees charged to principal as well as the totals of liquidations and reinvestments of principal cash.

An account shall be deemed to comply with the foregoing requirements which contains, in substance, where applicable, the following items:

If any asset realized a net income less than one per cent of the inventory value or acquisition cost, describe the asset and explain in a supporting schedule what net income was realized and why it is deemed advisable to retain this asset.

Final accounts shall disclose the state of the property of the trust estate as to unpaid or delinquent taxes and such taxes shall be paid by the trustee to the extent that the funds in the trust permit, over and beyond the cost and expenses of the trust administration, except where a special showing is made by the trustee that it is in the best interests of the trust and is lawful for the unpaid or delinquent taxes not to be paid.

There shall also be filed with the clerk proof of mailing of such account to the last addresses known to the trustee of, or of the service of such account upon, such of the following beneficiaries or their natural or legal guardians as are known to, or reasonably ascertainable by, the trustee:

(a) Beneficiaries entitled to receive income or principal at the date of the accounting; and

(b) Beneficiaries who, were the trust terminated at the date of the accounting, would be entitled to share in distributions of income or principal.

The clerk shall keep a list of trusteeships and notify each trustee and the court when any such annual account has not been filed within 120 days from the end of the accounting year.

Hearings upon annual accounts may be ordered upon the request of any interested party. A hearing shall be held on such annual accounts at least once every five years upon notice as set forth in Minnesota Statutes, Section 501.35; provided, that in trusts of the value of $20,000 or less, the five year hearing requirement may be waived by the court in its discretion. Any hearing on an account may be ex parte if each party in interest then in being shall execute waiver of notice in writing which shall be filed with the clerk, but no account shall be finally allowed except upon a hearing on the record in open court. Such five year hearings shall be held within 150 days after the end of the accounting period of each fifth annual unallowed account, and the clerk shall notify each trustee and the court if the hearing is not held within such 150 day period.

The changes in this rule made by this amendment shall be effective as to accounting periods commencing one year or more after the adoption hereof. As amended June 22, 1967. Except in those cases in which a trust company or national banking association having trust powers is the trustee or one of the trustees, the petition for confirmation of the appointment of the trustee or trustees shall include an inventory, including a description of the assets of the trust known to the petitioners and an estimate by them of the market value of such assets at the date of the petition. The petition shall also set forth the relationship, if any, of the trustee or trustees to the beneficiaries of the trust.

RULE 29

VENUE, CHANGE. A change of venue shall not be granted under the provisions of section 542.11 unless the party applying therefor uses due diligence to procure the same within a reasonable time after issue has been joined in the action and the ground for the change has come to the knowledge of the applicant. Nor shall a change be granted where the other party will lose the benefit of a term, unless the party asking for such change shall move therefor at the earliest reasonable opportunity after issue has been joined and he has information of the ground of such change.

RULE 30

DIVORCE ACTIONS, SERVICE. In every action for divorce brought against a foreign national, in which summons and complaint are not served by handing the same to the defendant within the continental United States, the attorney for plaintiff shall be requested forthwith, upon the commencement of such action, to notify the nearest consul or vice-consul of the country of which defendant is a national of the title and venue of such action, the manner in which jurisdiction was acquired and the date thereof and shall upon request furnish a copy of such summons and complaint or permit a copy thereof to be made.

RULE 31

CIVIL JURY CASES IN WHICH INSURANCE COMPANY INTERESTED IN DEFENSE OR OUTCOME OF ACTION—EXAMINATION OF JURORS. In all civil jury cases, in which an insurance company or companies are not parties, but are interested in the defense or outcome of the action, counsel for such company or companies may, and upon request of the presiding Judge shall, disclose the name of such company or companies to opposing counsel, out of the hearing of the jury, as well as the name of the local agent of such companies. When so disclosed, no inquiry shall be permitted by counsel as to such names in the hearing of the jury, nor shall disclosure be made to the jury that such insurance company is interested in the action.

In the examination of the jurors by counsel as to their qualifications, the jurors may be asked collectively whether any of them have any interest as policyholders, stockholders, officers, agents or otherwise in the insurance company or companies interested, but such question shall not be repeated to each individual juror. If none of the jurors indicate any such interest in the company or companies involved, then no further inquiry shall be permitted with reference thereto.

If any of the jurors manifest an interest in any of the companies involved, then counsel may further inquire of such juror or jurors as to his or their interest in such company, including any relationship or connection with the local agent of such interested company, to determine whether such interests or relationship disqualifies such juror.

The presiding Judge, in his discretion, may examine the jurors on this feature of the case and not permit counsel to do so.

RULES FOR UNIFORM DECORUM IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF MINNESOTA

COURTROOM

1. The flag of the United States shall at all times while court is in session be displayed on or in close proximity to the bench.

2. A courtroom is a temple of justice—unseemly conduct therein at any time is in poor taste. Tobacco in any form shall not be used; hats and overcoats should be removed at all times before entering the courtroom; dignity and solemnity of both judges and attorneys should be maintained in the courtroom at all times.

3. There shall be no unnecessary conversation, loud whispering, newspaper or magazine reading or other disconcerting or distracting activity by anyone in the courtroom during the progress of the trial.

OPENING AND SESSIONS OF COURT

4. At the opening of a term of court, the formality shall be as follows: Immediately before the scheduled time for opening, the sheriff or bailiff shall proceed from the judge's chambers, and by a rap of the gavel or other signal, direct all court officers and spectators to their seats. As the judge enters the courtroom, the bailiff shall require all present to arise and stand, and the bailiff shall say clearly and distinctly:

Hear Ye—Hear Ye—Hear Ye! The District Court of the ——— Judicial District, County of ———, State of Minnesota is about to open for ——— term of court. All persons having business before this Court please come forward, let your wants be known and you shall be heard. This Court is now open. Judge ——— presiding.

All may then be seated and the business of the court will proceed.

(The procedure above outlined may be modified by the judge entering and standing in lieu of the judge being seated, and by the use of the usual "Hear Ye," prevailing in the different districts.)

5. In reconvening court in the morning and after the noon recess, the bailiff shall give warning by gavel or otherwise, and as the judge enters, cause all to stand until he is seated.

(The above rule (to) or (to not) apply to mid-morning and mid-afternoon recesses of the court at election of presiding judge.)

THE JURY

6. When trial is to a jury, the jurors shall take their respective places in the jury box before the judge enters the courtroom. In reconvening after a recess, it is the duty of the bailiff to give warning and assemble the jurors when court is reconvened.

7. When a jury has been selected and is to be sworn, the presiding judge or clerk shall request the jurors to arise, and on the oath being administered, everyone in the courtroom, including attorneys, except the presiding judge shall stand.

THE BAILIFF

8. It shall be the duty of the bailiff to maintain order at all times as litigants, witnesses and the public assemble in the courtroom and during the progress of the trial and during recesses of the court. This includes the duty to admit persons to the courtroom and direct them to seats, and to refuse admittance to the courtroom in such trials where the courtroom is occupied to its full seating capacity.

THE CLERK

9. When the witness is sworn, the clerk shall have the witness give the reporter his or her full name, and after being sworn, courteously invite him or her to be seated on the witness stand.

10. The clerk shall be alert, stand erect and administer the oath to jurors and witnesses in a slow, clear, and dignified manner. Witnesses when sworn should stand near the bench or witness stand, and the swearing of witnesses should be an impressive ceremony and not a mere formality.

THE LAWYER

11. The lawyers should advise their clients and witnesses of the formalities of the court, thereby avoiding embarrassment to them and the court as well.

12. The lawyer is an officer of the court and should at all times uphold the honor and maintain the dignity of the profession, and should maintain at all times a respectful attitude toward the court.

13. Except when making objections, lawyers should arise and remain standing while addressing the court or the jury. In addressing the court, the lawyer should refer to the judge as "Your Honor" or "The Court."

14. The lawyers should address the court from a position at the counsel table. If a lawyer finds it necessary to discuss some question out of the hearing of the jury at the bench, he may so indicate to the court and approach the bench for the purpose indicated. In such an instance, the lawyers should never lean upon the bench nor appear to engage the court in a confidential manner.

15. Lawyers shall be seated or stand at the counsel table while examining witnesses, except when identifying or examining exhibits, or because of physical defects of the witness, or other emergency, a modification of the procedure is required.

16. Lawyers during trial shall not exhibit undue familiarity with witnesses, jurors or opposing counsel, and the use of first names shall be avoided. In arguments to the jury, no juror should be singled out and addressed individually by name.

Canon Number 23 of Canons of Professional Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "All attempts to curry favor with juries by fawning, flattery or pretended solicitude for their personal comfort are unprofessional. Suggestions of counsel, looking to the comfort or convenience of jurors, and propositions to dispense with argument, should be made to the Court out of the jury's hearing. A lawyer must never converse privately with jurors about the case; and both before and during the trial he should avoid communicating with them, even as to matters foreign to the cause."

17. All lawyers, jurors, litigants and court officials shall wear coats while in attendance upon court, provided judicial discretion may be exercised otherwise in certain situations.

18. Lawyers shall state objections without argument. If there is to be an argument or offer of proof, the same shall be made out of the hearing of the jury.

19. When addressing the jury, the lawyers shall first address the court, who shall recognize the lawyer by "Mr. Smith" or "Counsel."

20. In examination of a witness, the lawyer should not indulge in personalities, but should treat the witness with courtesy and respect.

Canon No. 18 of Canons of Professional Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A lawyer should always treat adverse witnesses and suitors with fairness and due consideration, and he should never minister to the malevolence or prejudices of a client in the trial or conduct of a cause. The client cannot be made the keeper of the lawyer's conscience in professional matters. He has no right to demand that his counsel shall abuse the opposite party or indulge in offensive personalities. Improper speech is not excusable on the ground that it is what the client would say if speaking in his own behalf."

21. The lawyers as far as possible shall refrain from interrupting each other, speaking at the same time or arguing across the counsel table. Unless observed, this will make a poor record for review later. Lawyers should instruct their witnesses to testify slowly and clearly so that the court and jury will hear their testimony, and should caution witnesses not to chew gum when testifying.

22. A lawyer or a party shall not thank the jury or the court for a favorable verdict that has been returned. It is the duty of the court to see that no demonstration occurs in the courtroom in connection with the rendering of a verdict.

THE JUDGE

23. The judge shall at all times be dignified, courteous, respectful and considerate of the lawyers, the jury and witnesses.

Canons number 9 and 10 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provide:

"9. A judge should be considerate of jurors, witnesses and others in attendance upon the court."

"10. A judge should be courteous to counsel, especially to those who are young and inexperienced, and also to all others appearing or concerned in the administration of justice in the court."

"He should also require, and, so far as his power extends, enforce on the part of clerks, court officers and counsel civility and courtesy to the court and to jurors, witnesses, litigants and others having business in the court."

24. Pursuant to resolution of the Minnesota District Judges' association, the judge shall wear a robe at all trials and court appearances, except that under certain circumstances, in the exercise of his discretion, the judge may dispense with the wearing of a robe in a court appearance.

25. The judge shall be punctual in convening court, and prompt in the performance of his judicial duties in the courtroom.

Canon number 7 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A judge should be prompt in the performance of his judicial duties, recognizing that the time of litigants, jurors and attorneys is of value and that habitual lack of punctuality on his part justifies dissatisfaction with the administration of the business of the court."

26. During the presentation of the case, the judge shall maintain absolute impartiality, and shall neither by word or sign indicate that he favors any party to the litigation.

27. The judge should refrain so far as possible from intervening in the examination of witnesses or argument of counsel; however, the judge shall intervene on his own motion to prevent a miscarriage of justice.

Canon number 15 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides:

"A judge may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition, and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but he should bear in mind that his undue interference, impatience, or participation in the examination of witnesses, or a severe attitude on his part toward witnesses, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of the truth in respect thereto."

"Conversation between the judge and counsel in court is often necessary, but the judge should be studious to avoid controversies which are apt to obscure the merits of the dispute between litigants and lead to its unjust disposition. In addressing counsel, litigants or witnesses, he should avoid a controversial manner or tone."

"He should avoid interruptions of counsel in their arguments except to clarify his mind as to their positions, and he should not be tempted to the unnecessary display of learning or a premature judgment."

28. The judge shall have the duty to see that each witness is sworn separately and that the oath is administered to witnesses in a manner calculated to impress them with the importance and solemnity of the oath taken.

29. The judge shall be impersonal in addressing the lawyers and other officers of the court by addressing the lawyers as "Counsel" or "Mr. Smith;" the bailiff as "Mr. Bailiff;" the clerk as "Mr. Clerk" or "Madame Clerk;" or the reporter as "Mr. Reporter" or "Madame Reporter."

30. The judge shall be responsible for order and decorum in the court and shall see to it at all times that parties and witnesses in the case are treated with proper courtesy and respect. Lecturing, browbeating, badgering or shouting at a witness shall not be allowed.

31. The judge shall be in complete charge of the trial at all times and shall see to it that everything is done to obtain a clear and accurate record of the trial. It is his duty to see that the witnesses testify clearly so that the reporter may obtain a correct record of all proceedings in court.

32. If in a trial the lawyers get into a personal colloquy or wrangle across the counsel table, it is the duty of the trial judge to interrupt; a simple suggestion that counsel request a ruling from the court, or a reminder that the reporter can report only one at a time, or the mere suggestion that each give the other the opportunity to speak, usually has the desired effect.

33. The judge shall exercise extreme care so as not to say anything before the jury or parties to an action that is critical of a lawyer or that may be embarrassing to him before his client or the jury. It is always well for the judge to remember that the lawyer is also an officer of the court. If the judge has a suggestion to make to the lawyer of a critical nature, he may call a recess or call the lawyer to the bench and speak to him in an undertone not audible to the jury.

34. The judge shall at all times exercise the highest degree of patience; it is better to lose time than to lose patience. The silent judge makes the better judge; a judge seldom regrets what he failed to say during a trial but many times he regrets and wishes he could recall some things he did say.

Canon number 5 of Canons of Judicial Ethics, American Bar Association, provides: "A judge should be temperate, attentive, patient, impartial, and, since he is to administer the law and apply it to the facts, he should be studious of the principles of the law and diligent in endeavoring to ascertain the facts."

35. The judge should exercise caution not to comment favorably or adversely upon the verdict of a jury during a court term; it may indirectly influence the action of the jury in the remaining cases to be tried.

36. The juror is always interested in what has happened to a case he is hearing. If a case is disposed of by motion, settlement or otherwise, it is a good practice to explain to the jury what has trans-

PART II RULES FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLES

PROCEEDINGS FOR INITIAL REGISTRATION

RULE 1

APPLICATION, INDOORSEMENTS. Applications, approved as to form by the examiner, shall be presented in duplicate. There shall be indorsed thereon the name and address of the applicant's attorney, or of the applicant if he appears in person.

RULE 2

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE. The abstract when filed shall show the record of the patent or other conveyance from the United States, the record of the certified copy of the application, and all judgments, federal and state, taxes, assessments, and tax sales.

RULE 3

TITLE BASED UPON AN ADJUDICATION NOT FINAL, OR UPON ESTOPPEL. When the title of the applicant or the release or discharge of any encumbrance thereon, is based upon an adjudication not final, or upon estoppel, and there remains a right of appeal or contest, all parties having such right of appeal or contest shall be made parties defendant.

RULE 4

TITLE DERIVED THROUGH DECREE OR ADJUDICATED TAX SALE. Title based upon a judgment or decree of court in an action, or upon an adjudicated tax or local assessment sale, shall be registered only after the expiration of six months from the date of the judgment or decree; but this shall not apply to cases where in the action in which the judgment or decree was entered, or in the proceeding to register the title, the summons was served personally upon the parties who could alienate the fee title.

RULE 5

EXAMINER'S REPORT; PETITION AND ORDER FOR SUMMONS. The examiner's report shall specify the names of all parties he deems necessary parties defendant. Petitions for summons shall set forth such names and the names of such other parties as the applicant deems to be necessary, and the names, if known to the applicant, or ascertainable by him upon reasonable inquiry, of the successors in interest of such persons known to the applicant to be deceased. Where the place of residence of a defendant is unknown to the applicant, the petition shall so recite and shall set out the facts relating to the search for such defendant by the applicant.

RULE 6

PAPERS TO BE FILED, EFFECT OF NOTICE AND APPEARANCE. If a defendant, in addition to appearing or filing his answer, as by statute required, shall serve a copy thereof upon the applicant or his attorney, he shall be entitled to notice of all subsequent proceedings.

RULE 7

AFFIDAVIT OF NO ANSWER AND CLERK'S CERTIFICATE OF DEFAULT. The default of defendants who fail to appear and answer shall be shown by the certificate of the clerk entitled and filed in the action, and by the affidavit of the applicant's attorney, if he appears by attorney; otherwise by the applicant's affidavit.

RULE 8

HEARINGS IN DEFAULT CASES, FILING NOTE OF ISSUE AND PAPERS. Initial applications, where no issue has been joined, shall be heard by the court at any special term, unless by local rules adopted for any particular county or district, or by special order, other days have been designated for such hearings; or they may be heard by an examiner, to whom the matter has been specially referred, as referee. In counties where the examiner checks the proceedings in advance of the hearings, the note of issue and all papers necessary to complete the files shall be filed and all documentary evidence proposed to be used by the applicant or petitioner shall be delivered to the examiner at least three days before the hearing, together with the proposed order for judgment and decree.

RULE 9

ISSUES RAISED BY ANSWER, REPLY. All facts alleged in an answer, which are not in accordance with the allegations of the applicant, shall be considered at issue without reply by the applicant. If the answer sets up rights admitted in the application, or in a reply of the applicant, the hearing may proceed as in case of a default, and the registration shall be subject to such rights.

RULE 10

TRIAL OF CONTESTED ISSUES. In all cases where the answer raises an issue which is undisposed of by stipulation or otherwise, the matter shall be noted for trial at the general term. The procedure and the method of determination shall be the same as in the trial of similar issues in civil actions or proceedings.

RULE 11

INTERLOCUTORY DECREE ESTABLISHING BOUNDARIES. When the applicant seeks to fix and establish the boundary lines of the land, he shall have the premises surveyed by a competent surveyor and shall cause to be filed in the proceeding a plat of the survey showing the correct boundaries of the premises. He shall furnish the examiner with such abstracts of title of adjoining lands as the latter shall require in determining the necessary parties defendant in the fixing and establishing of such boundaries. The hearing upon such application may be separate from or in connection with the hearing upon the application to register, but before any final adjudication of registration, the court by order shall fix and establish such boundaries and direct the establishment of "Judicial Landmarks" in the manner provided by section 559.25. In the decree of registration thereafter entered, and in certificates of title thereafter issued, the description of the land shall contain appropriate reference to such "Judicial Landmarks."

RULE 12

PROTECTION OF INTERESTS ACQUIRED PENDENTE LITE; PROVISION FOR IMMEDIATE REGISTRATION AFTER HEARING. At the time of the hearing of the application for judgment, the applicant shall satisfy the court by continuation of abstract and other proper proof, of changes, if any, in the title, or in the encumbrances thereon arising since the filing of the application. When the decree is signed, the applicant shall forthwith file the same with the clerk, together with a receipt of the registrar showing payment of all sums due him for the registration of the decree, and the issuance of a certificate of title in pursuance to said decree, and thereupon the clerk shall certify a copy of the decree and file the same for registration with the registrar.

PROCEEDINGS SUBSEQUENT TO INITIAL REGISTRATION

RULE 13

TITLE OF PROCEEDINGS. Proceedings subsequent to the initial registration under sections 508.44, 508.45, 508.58, 508.59, 508.61, 508.67, 508.68, 508.69, 508.70, 508.71, and 508.73 shall be commenced by filing with the clerk a verified petition by a party in interest, which shall be entitled:

"In the Matter of the Petition of.....
In Relation to (description of property) registered in Certificate of Title No..... for (relief sought)."

The petition shall allege the facts justifying the relief sought, the names of all interested parties as shown by the certificate of title, and their interests therein.

RULE 14

TRIAL AND HEARING. In proceedings where no notice is required and in proceedings where the required process of notice has been served and the time for appearance has expired without any issue having been raised, the proceedings shall be noted for trial and heard the same as in proceedings upon default for initial registration. Issues raised in these proceedings shall be noted for trial and disposed of the same as similar issues in other civil proceedings.

RULE 15

NEW CERTIFICATES, AMENDMENTS, ETC. In proceedings under sections 508.44, 508.45, 508.58, 508.59, 508.61, 508.67, 508.68, 508.69, 508.70, 508.71, and 508.73, the petition for relief, duly verified, before being presented, shall be approved as to form by the examiner of titles. The examiner shall make such examination as to the truth of the allegations contained in the petition as to him may seem necessary, or as directed by the court. In all cases where notice is necessary and the manner thereof is not prescribed by statute, it shall be by an order to show cause, which shall designate the respondents, the manner of service, and the time within which service shall be made. Any final order or decree directed in such proceeding shall be approved as to form by the examiner before presentation to the court.

RULE 16

NEW DUPLICATE CERTIFICATE. Every petition for a new duplicate shall be filed with the clerk and show by a receipt of the registrar of titles indorsed thereon that a duplicate original has been delivered to him. Thereupon the court shall issue a citation addressed "To Whom It May Concern," fixing a time and place of hearing and prescribing the mode of service. No order shall be made for a new duplicate except upon hearing and due proof that the duplicate theretofore issued has been lost or destroyed or cannot be produced. If it shall appear at the hearing that there are any known parties in interest to whom notice should be given, the hearing shall be continued and an order entered accordingly.

SPECIAL RULES APPLICABLE TO PARTICULAR DISTRICTS

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT

RULE 1

CALL OF THE CALENDAR: The call of the calendar shall be had at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. on the opening day of each General Term. At the call, counsel shall announce the nature of the disposition to be made of the case, including motions to dismiss, strike, change the order on the calendar, or such other motions as are proper to be noticed at said time.

RULE 2

PRE-TRIAL: The first week will be devoted to the calling of the calendar, hearing motions and pre-trial conferences.

The court may, in its discretion, direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a pre-trial conference pursuant to Rule 16, Rules of Civil Procedure.

The order of pre-trial shall be fixed by the clerk under direction of the court, and all parties to any actions pending and their respective attorney or attorneys shall be prepared to proceed in the order designated. Only those attorneys, representing all the parties, who are familiar with the cause and are fully authorized to make binding stipulations therein will be permitted to appear, having with them their complete files. Failure to comply herewith will authorize such disposition as to the court seems just under the circumstances.

SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT STATEMENT OF POLICY PERTAINING TO CALENDAR MATTERS

For the information of those who may be affected, a statement of policy concerning calendar matters appears advisable. While most of the problems arise in connection with the civil jury calendar, this statement applies equally to non-jury and criminal cases. Cases on the civil calendars are set for trial in the order in which notes of Issue are filed and are set for trial on a day certain. Approximately six weeks prior to the day certain a card is sent to counsel of record in the case notifying them of the trial date. Such notice means that the case is set for trial on that date. Counsel are advised to complete their preparations for trial. Because of the day-certain scheduling of cases, it is imperative that the name of counsel who is actually handling the case appear on the note of Issue so that multiple settings for the same counsel can be avoided. If the name of the counsel handling the case is not on the note of Issue, counsel handling the case should promptly advise the Administrator's office accordingly.

All papers required to be filed shall be filed promptly upon notice of the day-certain trial date. All papers required to be filed shall bear the file number of the case.

It is not unreasonable to assume that prior to the trial date there has been adequate opportunity to have employed all discovery procedures, that all adverse medical examinations have been held, that all third-party proceedings have been completed, that all amendments to pleadings have been completed and that all other matters, including necessary pre-trial motions, have also been completed.

Counsel, as a part of his or her preparation for trial, should be in touch with the party he or she represents and the witnesses he or she intends to call. The trial of any case necessarily affects many people and it would be unusual if a time could be found that would suit the convenience of all who may be involved. Recognition of this fact should suggest the advisability of taking appropriate depositions, the submission of interrogatories, or the taking of depositions upon written interrogatories.

We are aware of the difficulty that counsel frequently encounter with their medical experts. The time when it may be necessary to testify cannot always be one that suits the convenience of a particular doctor. While we desire to cooperate with the medical profession, such cooperation cannot be permitted to proceed to the point where it disrupts the orderly running of the calendar. While plaintiff's counsel cannot usually determine what doctor will be the attending physician, defendant's counsel presumably have some voice in the selection of a doctor for an adverse examination and it would appear appropriate to advise the doctor at the time of selection that he may be called to testify and that plans should accordingly be made. Counsel who insist upon using doctors who are too busy to testify or who are out of state when the case comes on for trial will have to get along without them or take their depositions in advance.

Some counsel entertain the view that, because he "expects" to be called out for trial in another court, this constitutes a sufficient excuse to postpone the trial of a case in this county which has been set down for a day certain. While we desire to cooperate with other courts, counsel must be aware that our calendar is as important as the calendars of other courts. When counsel initiate litigation or undertake the defense of litigation in this county, they must recognize that such initiation or defense carries with it the obligation to be ready for trial. The mere assignment in another court has been held not to be a sufficient reason for continuance. See West v. Hennessey, 63 Minn. 378, 65 N.W. 639, and Adamek v. Plano Manufacturing Co., 64 Minn. 304, 66 N.W. 981.

We recognize that the military service of a party of witness may make impossible the trial of a case on the date set. However, there have been many instances where a party or a witness is in military service and counsel has no information as to when he went, where he presently is and when he is expected to be released. In some instances, the fact of military service of a party or a witness is only ascertained after the case has been set for trial. If you have a witness or represent a party who is in or apt to be in military service, it is essential that you keep in touch with the individual and know where he can be located.

It is our policy that no assignment of cases be made for trial which in any way would hamper or impede the activity of our armed forces. We are aware of the requirements of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act. However, a non-military party to litigation should not be unduly delayed or deprived of the opportunity to proceed with the case which he has instituted or which he is defending simply because another party is now in military service.

The following suggestions are made to assist in solving the questions arising out of situations where a party is in military service.

Where the party or witness serviceman is in this country, every effort should be made to obtain a military leave for the purposes of the trial of the particular case. The assignment clerk will set the case for a day certain if it is definitely ascertained that such leave will be granted.

More use should be made of depositions for parties and witnesses who are now available but may not be available at the time of trial. Depositions, interrogatories, depositions on written interrogatories and other pre-trial devices should be employed where feasible.

Where it is impossible to try a case because of military service, the most satisfactory method of handling the situation is to secure a stipulation of counsel to this effect, together with agreement that the case is to be stricken from the calendar and is to be reinstated when counsel all agree that the case is ready for trial.

If cases on our civil calendar are within the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court, such cases will be forthwith transferred to the Municipal Court for trial. There are also cases on our civil calendar where the amount demanded in the complaint puts the case beyond the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court, but based upon the facts and the special damages the total amount to be reasonably recovered is well within the jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court. Obvious attempts to avoid Municipal Court jurisdiction by overpleading will not be tolerated. The jurisdiction of the St. Paul Municipal Court was increased to $6,000 by the 1967 Legislature and the jurisdiction was otherwise extended. (See Laws 1967, Chap. 747)

Cases appear on our civil calendars where it is apparent that Ramsey County is not the proper county for venue, and yet no motion is made for a change of venue. While we recognize that we have jurisdiction in such cases, we are unaware of any logical basis upon which there can be justified the resulting unnecessary expense to Ramsey County. When the fact of improper venue exists, such cases may be dismissed without prejudice or, upon agreement of counsel, will be transferred to the county of proper venue.

Occasionally cases appear on our civil jury calendar in which all of the persons who could institute suit as plaintiffs in that lawsuit have not done so. The typical situation is an action by a wife or minor child for personal injuries where the derivative action is not brought in that case or in a separate action, although admittedly not abandoned. Under Rule 19 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure, such cases will be stricken from the calendar until such time as the companion case or cases are ready for trial and the cases will then be consolidated for trial.

There are from time to time requests for the advancement of cases on the civil jury calendar. As noted earlier, we try cases in the order in which the notes of issue are filed. To single out any individual case or cases for advancement is to delay those cases where the notes of issue were filed earlier. The health, age or economic distress of those parties may be as great as that of the one who seeks advancement. Do not be surprised if your request for advancement is denied. This does not, of course, apply to criminal cases and those where advancement is required by statute.

The foregoing, so far as it is applicable, applies to non-jury cases as well as jury cases.

To prevent any undue delay in criminal cases, and in order to keep this calendar as current as reasonably possible, a number of judges are assigned each week to hear criminal cases and criminal appeals. Under present required procedures it takes more time to process a criminal case than heretofore, and pretrial motions for suppression and other relief are first heard by the judge to whom the case is assigned. Criminal cases are required to be given trial preference (M.S. 630.36), and the setting of criminal cases for trial is the duty of the Court. When the State undertakes the prosecution by the filing of an information or indictment it is presumed that the State is ready for such motions as may be made and is also ready for trial. The defendant will, of course, be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make such motions as he desires and a reasonable time to get ready for trial (M.S. 630.36 gives a defendant at least four days after plea). Any undue delay in the trial of criminal cases, particularly when the defendant is in custody, will not be tolerated.

It is the policy of this Court in connection with the foregoing statement to place the basic responsibility for its implementation and administration upon the Court Administrator, Second Judicial District. Except in very unusual circumstances, his decisions on calendar matters will be adhered to by the Court.

The foregoing statement of policy with regard to calendar matters was approved by the Judges of the District Court of Ramsey County at St. Paul, Minnesota, December 14, 1971.

d. Family Court hearing dates are set by the Family Court Assignment Clerk.

RULE 6

CALENDAR MATTERS

Civil Calendar matters will be handled by the Court Administrator's Office according to the procedural rules herein set forth.

RULE 7

CIVIL CALENDAR PROCEDURAL RULES

a. Re-setting and continuances.

(1) Requests for re-setting of a case because of conflicts or witness problems, when made within ten days of the mailing of the day certain card, will be granted routinely at the request of either party. This will usually be a period of approximately two weeks from the setting of the original trial date.

(2) Up to ten days prior to the trial date a case may be reset for a reason which is legitimate and beyond the control of the parties or counsel. This will normally require concurrence by all parties involved through their counsel.

(3) A continuance or re-setting if requested less than ten days prior to the trial date will be granted only for a substantial reason which was reasonably unforeseeable. This does not normally include unavailability of witnesses or parties who should have been alerted at the time of receiving the trial date notice.

(4) When counsel is actually in trial on the date set for trial, the case will be carried on a standby basis until the case in trial is completed, at which time he is expected to appear for trial in this district on the standby case, regardless of other commitments.

(5) Cases which have been reinstated on the calendar by stipulation for a day certain for trial will be re-set or continued only under extraordinary circumstances, since the stipulation as to the day certain represents that the case is ready for such day certain.

b. Striking from the Calendar.

(1) Where a legitimate reason exists for postponing trial for a longer period of time than the normal calendar rotation of six weeks, or where a case has been on the calendar for trial and has been re-set or continued previously, no further re-setting or continuance will be granted. The parties through their counsel must in such case by stipulation agree to the striking of the case subject to reinstatement at a later date. With respect to striking for cause, a failure on the part of counsel to prepare his case adequately or timely is not deemed sufficient reason and the case will be scheduled for trial on the date set. Legitimate reasons for striking for cause include:

(a) Military service of a party.

(b) Medical evaluation not complete due to injuries or physical conditions not being capable of accurate evaluation.

(c) Recent substitution of counsel for good cause.

(d) Recent addition of parties not known before or all parties not sued or cases consolidated.

(e) Long-term illness of counsel who cannot be replaced by some other member of the firm.

(2) Cases stricken for cause must be reinstated within the time set in the order or the Court will place the matter on the calendar as if a new Note of Issue had been filed.

c. Transfers to Municipal Court.

Cases which are within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Court will be transferred to that Court forthwith upon ascertainment of that fact.

d. Advancement on Calendar.

Requests for advancement of a case on the calendar normally will not be granted. Advancement, if granted, will be for only extraordinary and compelling reasons.

e. Resolution of problems.

All calendar and scheduling problems are to be resolved through the office of the Court Administrator. No motions with respect to such problems will be heard at Special Term or at time of trial unless relief has been sought beforehand through the Court Administrator who also functions as Calendar Referee. The Court Administrator's decision will not be modified or reversed except for extraordinary and compelling reasons.

RULE 8

SPECIAL TERM

a. Days Held. Special Term will be held every day except Saturday, Sunday and Holidays.

b. Length of Hearing. Any Special Term matter which will last longer than one-half day will be transferred to the Court Calendar for hearing. Only the matter noticed for Special Term is so transferred. Trial of the case on the merits will be placed upon the calendar according to the normal procedure under the RCP and these rules.

c. Adherence to Time Schedule. The setting of a time certain for the hearing of special term motions is basically for the convenience of Counsel and not the convenience of the Court. Therefore, the matter may be stricken if Counsel does not appear.

d. Filing of Moving Papers. Scheduled matters will not be heard if the movant (or petitioner) has not filed the moving papers at least two days (48 hours) prior to the time set for the hearing.

e. Added Motions. Additional motions (motions germane to the main case, but not included in the subject matter of the noticed matter), not scheduled, will not be heard at the time scheduled for the original matter, but must be scheduled separately.

f. Motions for Summary Judgment.

1. Parties desiring to file a brief shall do so on the day of the hearing. This shall also apply to motions under Rule 12.03, Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. In actions for declaratory judgment, motions for summary judgment will not be scheduled on Special Term since those actions take precedence on the court calendar.

3. After a case has been scheduled for trial for a date certain, no motions for summary judgment will be heard on Special Term unless prior approval has been obtained from the Court Administrator.

g. Injunctive Relief.

1. Temporary Restraining Orders. Generally, ex parte temporary restraining orders affecting the city, county, state or other governmental agency will be denied.

(Attention is invited to the Advisory Committee's note to Rule 65.03, Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure).

2. Temporary Injunctions.

a. Motions for temporary injunctions may be scheduled on Special Term for up to two hours. If more time is needed, it must be scheduled on the court calendar with the approval of the Court Administrator.

b. At a hearing pursuant to an order to show cause, a date may also be set for trial of the main action if circumstances warrant an advancement.

h. Motions to Consolidate. A motion to consolidate a case with one previously filed shall not result in a delay of trial date for the first case. If consolidated for trial, the case or cases filed after the first case will be advanced for trial, so that the trial date will coincide with the trial date of the first case filed.

RULE 9

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT OR OTHER DISPOSITIONS

If a matter is disposed of prior to the time set for hearing or trial, counsel shall immediately notify the appropriate Assignment Clerk, or the Special Term Clerk.

RULE 10

DEFAULTS

Default matters shall be scheduled and heard by the Special Term Judge.

RULE 11

EXHIBITS

It shall be the duty of respective counsel to remove all exhibits from the custody of the Court Reporter upon final disposition of a case. Failure to do so will be deemed authorization to destroy such exhibits.

PICTURES AND VOICE RECORDINGS

No pictures or voice recordings, except the recording made by the official court reporter, shall be taken in any courtroom during a trial or hearing of any case or special proceeding incident thereto, or in connection with any Grand Jury proceeding.

RULE 13

JURY SERVICE

a. All excuses, or deferments from service as a juror will be handled through the office of the Court Administrator.

b. No person shall be certified for the Grand Jury who has served on a Grand Jury within the preceding three years.

RULE 14

FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT STATEMENT OF POLICY ADOPTED BY THE JUDGES OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

It is obvious to the bench and bar as well as to the public that prompt disposition of the ever increasing numbers of civil actions and criminal prosecutions continues to present problems to metropolitan courts. The Judges of the Fourth Judicial District have in the past made every effort to dispose of cases as speedily as possible consistent with concepts of due process and the requirements of the law. They will continue to do so. The cooperation of the bar, however, is indispensable to the success of that effort.

One of the two chief causes of delay in advancing the calendar is availability of counsel for trial. The other is the availability of witnesses.

Every effort is made to give adequate advance notice of the date of trial in the hope that the lawyers thereby will be able to avoid or resolve possible conflicting assignments in other courts. While the judges of the Fourth Judicial District desire to be cooperative with other courts, they believe that their calendar of cases both civil and criminal is no less important than that of other trial courts and do not regard trial assignment elsewhere as an absolute ground for continuance. Rather it is the policy of the court to insist that cases assigned for trial proceed to trial unless a conflict arises by reason of a prior assignment in some other court.

The judges are also aware that lawyers frequently encounter difficulty in arranging for the testimony of experts, particularly physicians and surgeons. We recognize that attendance in court to give testimony may not always be convenient to the witness. To the extent possible, therefore, effort will be made to accommodate such witnesses when prompt notice is given that a witness will be unavailable on the assigned trial date. It must, nevertheless, be remembered that the court's principal function and objective is to dispose of litigation in an orderly and expeditious manner. Unavailability of a witness, therefore, will not be regarded as sufficient cause for continuing the trial of a case. Counsel must be prepared to proceed to trial without the witness or take measures to perpetuate the witness's testimony by deposition or videotape.

The judges are increasingly concerned with the growing number of criminal matters appearing on the calendar. Criminal cases must be given priority on the calendar. Hence, as many judges will be assigned to hear criminal matters as is necessary to maintain the criminal calendar in a reasonably current status, although doing so may decrease the availability of judges to preside in civil trials.

The problems created by the constantly growing criminal calendar are further enlarged by the fact that more time now is needed to follow the required pretrial procedures. Accordingly, the judges urgently request that counsel in criminal cases adhere to the court's calendars and make every effort to minimize the number and length of the pretrial hearings.

FILING OF PLEADINGS. The party filing a

For failure to observe this rule with respect to pleadings the clerk shall assess $10.00 as special costs against each delinquent party, and with respect to other papers, an assessment shall be made as directed by the Court.

RULE 2

DEFAULT DIVORCE CALENDAR. (a) The clerk shall prepare a calendar, which shall be known as the default divorce calendar (no children), and shall enter therein: (1) Default divorce cases, wherein children are not involved, which shall have been continued to such term, in the order in which the same shall have appeared upon the calendar of the term from which the continuance was had;

(2) all other default divorce cases, wherein children are not involved, in which notes of issue shall have been filed, prior to such term, or during the continuance thereof: Provided, however, that no default divorce case wherein children are not involved shall be entered for trial at an earlier date than 30 days after the time to answer has expired and affidavit of no answer and note of issue has been filed, except by order of the Court based upon an affidavit of counsel or of a party showing cause therefor.

(b) The clerk shall also, prepare a calendar which shall be known as the default divorce calendar (children involved), and shall enter therein: (1) default divorce cases, wherein children are involved, which shall have been continued to such term, in the order in which the same shall have appeared upon the calendar of the term from which a continuance was had; (2) all other default divorce cases, wherein children are involved, in which notes of issue shall have been filed, prior to such term, or during the continuance thereof: Provided, however, that no default divorce case, wherein children are involved, shall be entered for trial at an earlier date than 90 days after the time to answer has expired and affidavit of no answer and note of issue has been filed.

All responsive affidavits to the moving papers and all other papers to be used by the party responding to the moving papers must be, to entitle them to be read, filed with the clerk at least one full day before the day on which the motion is to be heard, unless for some reason other than neglect, the paper could not have been sooner filed, or unless the occasion for the use of the paper arises at the hearing for some cause not previously apparent. Only causes properly on the calendar when the court opens will be heard, unless they have been omitted by mistake or inadvertence of the clerk.

An application for temporary relief shall be made on the form prescribed in District Court Rule No. 9, approved by the Minnesota District Judges Association and Minnesota State Bar (December, 1953). The party responding to such application shall use the form prescribed in District Court Rule No. 9 as a responsive affidavit and show the claims on the part of the party responding to such moving papers. The parties to an action shall be present in court at the hearing on said motions.

The home addresses of the parties shall be stated under their respective names in the caption of the action.

The moving party at the time of filing the note of issue shall furnish the clerk with a duplicate copy thereof, stating the nature of the motion and, in the case of an Order to Show Cause, the time set for the hearing, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to deliver said duplicate to the Department of Court Services as notice of the pending motion.

The strict enforcement of the provisions of this rule may be relaxed in favor of attorneys from other counties and in all other cases where excused by the presiding judge of the Family Court division of this court.

(e) When the interest of a life tenant has been terminated by death, the Registrar may receive and enter a memorial of a duly certified copy of the official death certificate and an affidavit of identity of the decedent with the life tenant named in the certificate of title; and in such case the memorial of said certificate and affidavit shall be treated as evidence of the discharge of said life tenancy.

(f) Practice in relation to the state tax deeds. Excepting those cases where a certificate of title is outstanding in favor of State of Minnesota, whenever a deed from the State of Minnesota in favor of the registered owner is offered for registration, it shall be registered as a memorial upon the certificate of title as evidence of discharge of any claim of title by the State evidenced by the prior memorial of an Auditor's Certificate of forfeiture to the State; and the same practice shall be followed in those cases where subsequent to or concurrent with a repurchase from the State by the registered owner, the latter shall have conveyed either by Quitclaim Deed or Warranty Deed the affected premises and the deed from the State in favor of said registered owner is dated subsequent to the date of conveyance of said registered owner or subsequent to the entry of certificate in favor of the registered owner's grantee, in which case the fact that the repurchase from the State was concurrent with or prior to the date of the deed by the registered owner making such purchase shall be evidenced by an endorsement to that effect upon the State Deed made by the County Auditor, one of his deputies or the County Land Commissioner.

(g) Amendment to Rule 16 of District Court Rules. Rule 16 in the Minnesota District Court rules pertaining to registration of land titles is amended as to proceedings in Hennepin county by omission of the provision that petitions for a new duplicate certificate shall show by a receipt of the registrar of titles endorsed thereon that duplicate of the petition has been delivered to him.

(h) Deeds From Federal Housing Administrator. In the registration of deeds or other instruments hereinafter listed for titles or interests registered in the name of an individual as Federal Housing Administrator, the registrar of titles shall be guided by Section 204 (g) of the National Housing Act as amended by the act of June 3, 1939, which confers upon any assistant administrator the power to convey and to execute in the name of the administrator deeds of conveyance, deeds of release, assignments of mortgages, satisfactions of mortgages, and any other written instrument relating to real property or any interest therein which has been acquired by the administrator; and that the registrar of titles shall accept the statement of the certificate of acknowledgment attached to any such instrument as evidence of the official character of the administrator or the assistant administrator executing the instrument.

(i) The Registrar of Titles is authorized to receive for registration of memorials upon any outstanding certificate of title an official birth certificate pertaining to a registered owner named in said certificate of title showing the date of birth of said registered owner, providing there is attached to said birth certificate an affidavit of an affiant who claims therein to be familiar with the facts recited, stating that the party named in said birth certificate is the same party as one of the owners named in said certificate of title; and that thereafter the Registrar of Titles shall treat said registered owner as having attained the age of majority at a date 21 years after the date of birth shown by said certificate.

(j) The Registrar of Titles may receive official certificates of death issued by the War Department, Navy Department and every military department of the United States Government in lieu of a certificate of death.

(k) Practice in relation to apartment ownership act, order required. When an owner of registered land desires to submit his land to the provisions of Chapter 457, Laws of 1963, known as the Apartment Ownership Act, he shall deliver his organizing documents to the Registrar of Titles and at the same time file with the Clerk of the District Court a Petition in Proceedings Subsequent to Initial Registration of Land for such purpose. The Petition shall request of the Court that the instruments so submitted be accepted for filing by the Registrar and that the Court issue its Order determining that the documents comply with the requirements of said Act, and that thereafter the land shall become subject to the provisions, restrictions, and conditions, and be administered in accordance with said Chapter, and any amendments. The Court shall thereupon refer the Petition and the organizing documents so submitted to the Examiner of Titles for a report as to whether the documents are legally sufficient to comply with the requirements of said Act, and any amendments. The documents so submitted shall include the Declaration containing the requirements set forth under M.S. Sec. 515.11, the By-Laws or Amendment or Amendments thereto under M.S. Sec. 515.18 and Sec. 515.19, and the Floor Plans under M.S. Sec. 515.13, together with any other instruments said owner desires to submit for the purpose intended. If the Examiner's report to the Court shows said organizing instruments satisfy the requirements of said Chapter and any amendments, and that the land and the documents in all respects are acceptable and qualify for administration in accordance with the provisions of said Act, the Court shall issue its Order adjudicating that such documents do comply with the requirements of said Chapter 457 and any amendments, and that the land (here describing the same together with the Certificate or Certificates of Title under which it is registered) shall thereafter be deemed to be governed and administered under the provisions of said Chapter and any amendments. Said Order shall direct the Registrar to accept and file the necessary organizing documents, to enter such instruments as memorials on the described Certificate or Certificates, and thereafter show such memorials on each Certificate of Title subsequently issued relating to any part of the property or parcels thereof governed by said Chapter, or any amendments thereto.

RESOLUTION

1. That the procedure for submitting land already registered to the provisions of the chapter shall be by way of a Proceeding Subsequent wherein the organizing documents, when found to be legally sufficient, shall be adjudicated to comply with the requirements of the chapter and acceptable for filing.

2. That organizing documents requisite for such adjudication include the declaration (M.S. 515.11), the by-laws or amendments thereto (M.S. 515.18 and 19), and the floor plans (M.S. 515.13).

3. That any order so procured, when found by the Examiner proper to do so, shall direct the Registrar of Titles to file and register the documents and enter them as memorials on the Certificate of Title of the land submitted for operation under the Act.

4. That fees to be charged by the Registrar of Titles for the filing of documents under the Apartment Ownership Act shall include the following:

a. For filing the Declaration and entering the memorial thereof, amendment thereto and memorial, by-laws and memorial — $2 each.

b. For filing two copies of the Floor Plans and entering the memorial thereof — $10.

5. That the Examiner of Titles be directed to deliver to the Registrar of Titles a letter proposed by him as further guides to the Registrar in the handling of condominium property.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE FOR ADMINISTRATION OF THE APARTMENT OWNERSHIP ACT

These instructions and suggestions are outlined as follows:

1. The declaration or any amendments to the declaration, to be recordable in the office of the Register of Deeds or filed in the office of the Registrar of Title must be executed and acknowledged and embrace land within the county. Such documents must be properly witnessed, like in the case of most documents to be recorded or registered.

APPENDIX 7. DISTRICT COURT RULES

2. A copy of the floor plans must be filed simultaneously with the declaration.

3. While the act does not specify any required size or quality of paper to be used for the floor plans or the number of copies to be filed, it is suggested that in order to have uniformity in the recording offices and to protect the interests of the public generally, the general requirements of M.S. Section 505.08 as to the platting of land, should be followed, such as:

a. Two standard sizes of paper are to be used, either 20 x 30 inches or 30 x 40 inches from outer edge to outer edge.

b. The original and one or more identical copies of each floor plan should be prepared in black on white mat surface photographic card stock with double cloth back mounting or material of equal quality. One exact transparent reproducible copy of the original shall be prepared by reproduction on linen tracing cloth by a photographic process, or the original traced in black ink on linen tracing cloth, or on material of equal quality.

4. The floor plans are to be numbered serially and it is suggested that the numbers run consecutively within the Torrens office and the Abstract office with each one designated as an "Apartment Ownership Number" with the name of the building. If any, and each must contain a reference to the book, page and date of recording or registering of the declaration or amendments thereto.

5. The law requires that the recording officer shall maintain an index or indices whereby the record of each declaration shall contain a reference to the record of each conveyance of an apartment affected by such declaration, and it is suggested that the Tract Index books be modified to carry a section as to "Apartment Ownership Number" with a breakdown as to the number of individual apartments or units contained therein and that the Tract Index book contain a reference to the file number of the floor plans in reference to the declaration of the building of which such apartments or units are a part.

6. The floor plans should be kept in a separate book, similar to plat books, designated "Apartment Ownership Number" and each must contain a reference as to the book, page and date of recording or registration of the declaration.

7. Where registered land is to be submitted for administration under said act, the applicant, at the time of filing his organizing documents shall obtain an Order of the Court in a Proceeding Subsequent to Initial Registration of Land that the Declaration, any amendments thereto, the By-Laws and the Floor Plans, as submitted, comply with the various requirements of the Act, and any amendments thereto. The Order shall direct the Registrar of Titles to accept such documents for registration and to enter them as separate memorials on the Original Certificate of Title and on the Owner's Duplicate Certificate thereof. Such memorials should be carried forward to each succeeding Certificate, including any Mortgagee's or Lessee's Duplicate Certificate, so that at all times the parties dealing with such Certificate will know that the parcel of land described therein is subject to the restrictions, conditions and provisions of the Apartment Ownership Act.

8. Where the organizing documents embrace registered land for administration under such Act, the subject land should not include both registered land and unregistered land, but should consist only of land that is all registered under the Torrens Act.

9. Filing fees to be charged by the Registrar of Titles, are those determined by statute or rule of Court. A Rule of Court has been made, setting the filing fees for documents registered in the office of the Registrar of Titles as follows:

(1) For filing the Declaration, and entering a memorial thereof, Amendment thereto and memorial thereof, By-Laws and memorial thereof, and any other instrument incidental to the administration of said Act other than the Floor Plans and other documents for which fees otherwise have been set, the sum of $2.00 each.

(2) For filing two copies of the Floor Plans and entering a memorial thereof, the sum of $10.00.

The original Apartment Ownership Act, Chapter 743, L.1963, and the 1965 amendment thereto, Chapter 602, L.1965 do not prescribe many details as to the size, and kind of paper to be used for the organizing documents involved, the method of numbering and indexing by the recording officer of such documents, and other administrative details essential for the orderly handling and servicing of the instruments described in the various sections of the law. Such details apparently are left to the public officials to formulate and adopt.

The foregoing rules and suggestions adopted through the joint cooperation of the County Attorney, the Examiner of Titles, the Register of Deeds and the Registrar of Titles are deemed sufficiently clear and workable for the administration of the law until some other manner or method of practice is to be determined by the legislature, or by additional rule and decision of the courts.

NOTICE TO ASSIGNMENT CLERK OF BRINGING IN ADDITIONAL PARTIES. A moving party in third party proceedings shall in addition to complying with rule 29 notify the assignment clerk of the names of the additional parties and their attorneys, if any, and such information shall be transmitted in writing to the assignment clerk immediately after a responsive pleading has been served or default has occurred.

A lien claimant filing an answer in a Mechanics Lien action or made a party thereto by consolidation or otherwise shall forthwith notify the assignment clerk in writing of his and his attorney's name and address, transmitting therewith a copy of any order of court making him a party.

In the event that any person is committed to either the Minneapolis City Workhouse or the Minneapolis Women's Detention Home and is thereafter placed on probation, if such person is thereafter re-committed because of violation of the terms thereof, such person shall not be entitled to credit for good behavior as hereinbefore set forth and shall serve his or her full time as imposed by the court.

RULE 27

Provided, however, any interested person may apply to the court for an order sealing all or any part of the court file pursuant to rules 30.02 and 31.04 of the rules of civil procedure for the district courts.

5. The clerk shall prepare a printed calendar of the cases for trial. Cases will be tried, as nearly as practical, in the order in which they appear on the calendar.

The court may direct the clerk to mimeograph and to distribute to the attorneys involved a list of the cases on the calendar called for trial within the next two or three weeks. Upon receipt thereof the lawyers affected shall immediately notify the court of any motion, need for depositions or interrogatories, medical examination, pre-trial requests, or other matters which may affect the time of trial thereof.

6. In applications for temporary alimony or support, affidavits in form prescribed by general rules for district court shall be furnished, and no oral testimony shall be taken on hearings thereof.

The date for service and filing of a responsive brief shall be not less than 10 days from service of the motion, plus three days if service is made by mail, and at least one full day before the date for hearing. The Clerk of Court shall not assign a motion to the special term calendar if the moving party has not complied with this rule.

RULE 3

APPLICATIONS IN DIVORCE ACTIONS. In applications for temporary alimony, support of the parties, custody, or attorney's fees in divorce actions, affidavits in support of or in opposition thereto shall be in the form prescribed by Rule No. 9 of the General Rules for District Courts. RULE 5

RULE 6

PETIT JURY; CALL OF CALENDAR. The calendar for each general term in the district will be called at 10:00 o'clock, A.M. on the opening day of such term in the courthouse where such term will be held. All calendar motions, including motions involving setting of cases for such term or continuances, and all requests for pre-trial conferences shall be made at the call of the calendar.

The petit jury for each term to be held at Duluth, Virginia, and Hibbing shall be summoned as soon as deemed necessary after the call of the calendar.

The petit jury to be summoned for Ely or for Carlton County, Cook County, or Lake County shall be summoned for the day following the call of the calendar unless otherwise ordered by the Judge presiding at such term. At each general jury term held at the City of Duluth, a new panel or jurors will be called every two weeks unless otherwise ordered by the Presiding Judge.

RULE 7

FILING; SUMMONS, COMPLAINTS, NOTE OF ISSUE. Summons and complaints are to be filed in the Clerk's office no later than the time for filing notes of issue. The party filing a note of issue shall state thereon the date of service of summons and complaint on the last defendant, not including third-party defendants. No matter may be placed upon any calendar unless the note of issue was filed with the clerk as provided by Rule 38.03 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 12 of these rules.

A case may be moved on the calendar for trial at the call of any calendar only if all the following are complied with:

1. A personal appearance at the call requesting that said matter be moved on.

3. A note of issue shall have been filed with the clerk of the District Court at least 24 hours before the call.

RULE 8

All pleadings and other papers must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the paper with the title of the case and the name or character of the paper endorsed thereon below the title of the case before the same is presented to the Clerk of the District Court for filing, and in contested cases, all pleadings and other papers required to be filed shall be filed on or before the second day of the term at which the action is noticed for trial.

RULE 9

PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE. On the filing of note of issue or a certificate of readiness in any action, the party filing the same may note a request for a pre-trial conference, whereupon the Clerk of Court, in making up the calendar of actions for trial, will note on the calendar, "Pre-trial conference requested." If such pre-trial is not requested, any other party may, at the call of the calendar, request pre-trial conference. If pre-trial conference is requested, the presiding Judge shall, at the call of the calendar, fix a time and place for such pre-trial conference. The presiding Judge at a general term, or the Judge to whom a case is assigned for trial, may, upon his own motion, order that a pre-trial conference be had. After pre-trial conference, the Judge hearing the same shall make a pre-trial order regulating the matters covered by such conference.

RULE 10

CALENDAR. In preparing calendars for each term of Court, the Clerk shall list separately cases to be tried by the jury and by the Court, and on each separate calendar, the continued cases shall appear first, being so designated and appearing in the order in which they appeared on the last term from which they were continued, and the calendar shall designate the term on which they first appeared for trial. After the continued cases, the Clerk shall list the new cases which shall appear on the calendar in the order in which notes of issue were filed in such cases and shall note upon the calendar the date of the service of the first proceeding in such cause.

No civil case on the General Term Calendar shall be continued by consent of counsel only, or otherwise than by order of the Court for cause shown. When a case has appeared on a General Term calendar at three consecutive terms of the Court without being tried or disposed of, the same shall be stricken unless at the said third General Term good cause shall be shown in writing and presented to the presiding Judge at the term why the same should be continued on the calendar.

ASSIGNMENT CLERK; DUTIES. The Clerk shall assign a duly appointed deputy clerk from his office who shall be designated as the assignment clerk, and he shall act under the general instructions of the presiding Judge in connection with the assignment of civil cases to the several Judges for trial.

It shall be the duty of the assignment clerk to set for trial each day that the Court is in session a sufficient number of cases to keep the Courts occupied, and he shall notify all attorneys as to the day their cases are set for trial.

The clerk shall also assign to each Trial Court a deputy clerk who shall be in constant attendance during the sessions of the Court, and whose first duty shall be the clerical details of and pertaining to the trial work.

Each case shall be assigned for trial in accordance with the regular order of setting to the first Judge who is ready for a new case. Such assignments shall be maintained and the cases tried in such order and before such Judge unless affidavit of prejudice is filed in accordance with the statutes against such Judge, in which event the case shall be assigned to the next available Judge.

If any Judge shall feel for personal reasons or otherwise that he cannot try a particular case assigned to him, he shall so report to the presiding Judge.

The assignment clerk shall never under any consideration assign cases to Judges other than in their regular order, and in the regular order in which the Judges notify him that they are ready for cases, except as hereinbefore provided.

APPENDIX 7. SUPREME COURT RULES

RULE 12

TRIAL DATES. Cases shall be assigned trial dates as nearly as possible in the order in which they appear on the ready calendar, provided that no trial date assigned to a case shall be less than 80 days from the date the summons and complaint was served on the last defendant, not including third-party defendants. However, upon notice and a showing of hardship by a party, the Court may assign to a case a trial date less than 80 days after such service of summons and complaint.

RULE 13

READY CALENDAR. There shall be established, in addition to the regular calendar, a trial calendar called the Ready Calendar. No case shall go on the Ready Calendar until a Certificate of Readiness is filed. Cases that are certified as ready for trial, and in accordance with the following rules, shall be placed on the Ready Calendar. A Certificate of Readiness may be filed by any party to the lawsuit, signed by their attorney, and shall contain the following:

1. That the eighty-day rule has been complied with or has been waived by all opposing counsel.
2. That the case is ready for trial in all respects.
3. That the necessary use of discovery procedures has been completed and desired depositions taken and interrogatories concluded by the undersigned.
4. That personal injuries, if any, have been stabilized.
5. That settlement of the case has been discussed, and that good-faith efforts to settle the same have been exhausted.
6. That prior to the filing of this certificate on the day of 19....., a copy of the same was served on counsel for each adverse party.
7. That all amendments to pleadings have been made.
8. That there is a bona fide controversy involving in excess of $5000.00.

Unless an adverse party files a motion to stay the placing of the case on the Ready Calendar within ten days from the date of the service of the Certificate of Readiness, such adverse party is deemed to have joined therein. Thereafter, no further discovery procedures should be allowed. The filing of this Certificate when a party is not ready for trial or the failure of the adverse party to make timely motion where grounds exist for the stay shall subject counsel to sanctions.

The case shall be placed on the Ready Calendar after fifteen days from the date of the service thereof; however, if all counsel have joined in the Certificate, the case will be placed on the Ready Calendar immediately unless a motion objecting thereto is filed by an adverse party.

If there is a motion to stay the placing of the case on the Ready Calendar by an adverse party, it shall be brought on for hearing before the presiding Judge, and said motion must be made so that the time for hearing is within 15 days of the service of the Certificate of Readiness.

All cases on the Ready Calendar will be subject to call for trial on two-weeks preliminary notice and on forty-eight hours telephone notice. The established policy of assignment of cases will be in the order, as nearly as possible, as they appear on the Readiness Calendar.

Approximately every sixty days, the clerk's office shall mimeograph a list of cases that are on the Ready Calendar.

A copy of such Ready Calendar shall be posted in the office of the assignment clerk, showing the current position of all cases on the calendar, so that lawyers can see where their case appears numerically on the Ready Calendar and can plan their schedules accordingly.

The assignment clerk will have trial post cards and, at least two weeks in advance of the date the case is expected to be reached for trial, will notify the attorneys by such cards.

The assignment clerk will assign sufficient cases for each Trial Judge available. Such assignment of cases shall be made forty-eight hours before the trial date and notice thereof given by telephone.

Any request for continuance shall be presented to the presiding Judge and shall not be granted by him except for good cause shown. Good cause shall include causes not certified to in the Certificate of Readiness, such as sickness of party, counsel, etc.

The assignment clerk, in making the telephone assignment of a case and alternate cases, will accept no excuses for a change of his telephone assignment, except prior assignment for trial within the Sixth Judicial District for that date.

Attorneys shall not enter appearances in cases in any county in which their principal office is located unless they are prepared to have trial counsel available to proceed immediately upon the case being reached.

Lawyers who have cases on the Federal term shall notify the assignment clerk of that fact, and the name of such case or cases together with their tentative trial dates, and the assignment clerk shall, to the extent possible, make such assignments from the Ready Calendar so as to avoid conflicts between both Courts.

A case stricken from any calendar may be returned to the calendar only by the filing of a new note of issue and a Readiness Certificate.

MEMORANDUM

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT BAR, AND TO THE CLERKS OF DISTRICT COURT IN ST. LOUIS, CARLTON, LAKE AND COOK COUNTIES:

Rule No. 13 of the Special Rules of Practice of the District Court, Sixth Judicial District, providing for a Ready Calendar, heretofore applicable only to the general terms held in Duluth, has now been extended to cover all general terms in St. Louis, Carlton, Lake and Cook Counties, effective July 1, 1969.

Under provisions of this Rule, no case will be set for trial at any general term of court held in the Sixth Judicial District commencing after July 1, 1969, unless it has been placed on the Ready Calendar. This includes all cases continued over from the preceding general terms as well as all new cases. On all continued cases, you are advised to get your Certificate of Readiness in forthwith. Forms can be obtained from the clerk in each county. The Clerks of Court in St. Louis, Carlton, Lake and Cook Counties are requested to prepare and furnish such certificates with appropriate designations for use in their courts.

Please note that it will still be necessary to file a Note of Issue in order to place a new case on the General Term Calendar. However, the case will not be set for trial or placed on the Readiness Calendar until a Certificate of Readiness has been filed. We will continue to have the regular Call of the Calendar at the regularly assigned statutory time. Calendar motions will still be heard at the Call, but it is anticipated these will be materially reduced in numbers.

Please note carefully the requirements of the new rule, to the effect that the adverse party has 10 days in which to object to the Certificate of Readiness and that a motion objecting thereto must be heard by the presiding Judge within 15 days of the date of service of said Certificate of Readiness.

Please also note the provisions of the new rule as to two weeks' preliminary notice to be given by the assignment clerk of the setting of the case for trial, and the 48-hour telephone notice to be given by the assignment clerk of final setting.

It is anticipated that the Readiness Calendar will save the Judges and assignment clerk much time that is now being wasted in trying to line up cases for trial, will expedite the trial of cases, and will enable the members of the bar to plan and coordinate their trial work with their office work on a more efficient basis.

The Court will adhere strictly to the requirements of the rule and will expect the members of the Bar to do the same. Cooperation of the Bench and Bar in the efficient and expeditious trial and determination of cases will enable the law profession to better serve the public.

Yours truly,

Donald C. Odden

If a pretrial conference is held in a case in which a party intends to request that the court take judicial notice at the trial of specific facts which he contends to be so notorious as not to be the subject of reasonable dispute, or specific facts or propositions of generalized knowledge which he contends are capable of immediate and accurate determination by resort to easily accessible sources of indisputable accuracy, he shall at the pretrial conference submit to the court his request in writing setting forth such specific facts or propositions and furnish information which he contends to be sufficient to enable the court to comply with the request.

6.09 Certificate of Readiness. In lieu of holding a pretrial conference in any case which appears in the pretrial conferences section of the calendar or wherein such a conference has been ordered, the trial judge may accept and cause to be filed a certificate of readiness in such form as he may approve, signed by the attorneys representing the parties.

RULE 7

CALLS OF CALENDAR — TERM TRIAL DOCKET.

7.01 Preliminary Call. The preliminary call of the cases upon the calendar shall be made, unless otherwise ordered, commencing at 10:00 A.M. on the opening day of a general term of court. The judge presiding, or under his direction, the clerk shall then call each case in the order appearing in the civil cases section, the criminal cases section, and the quasi-criminal cases section of the calendar. As each case is called the judge may hear and determine or set for later hearing and determination any motion of a party with respect to the case which may properly then be made. At the preliminary call with respect to the cases upon the calendar the court upon its own motion or upon motion of a party may determine or set for later hearing and determination whether or not a case is properly upon the calendar, whether or not a case is to be tried at the term, whether or not there are issues in a case to be tried by jury, the form of any question to be submitted to a jury, whether or not two or more civil cases are to be consolidated or issues therein jointly tried, whether or not claims or issues in a civil case are to be separately tried, whether or not the parties in a civil case or their attorneys shall be directed to appear for a pre-trial conference and if so the time and place thereof, whether or not there should be a reference in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 53, the order in which the cases to be tried at the term shall be heard, the day upon which any case set for a day certain shall be called for trial and the court may make orders pursuant to R.C.P. Rules 14.03, 39.02, 40, 41.02 (1), 42, and 53.

7.02 Appearances in Criminal and Quasi-Criminal Cases. A defendant in a criminal case, a quasi-criminal case or a case charging a violation of an ordinance who is not in custody awaiting trial of the case, unless excused from so doing by the court, shall personally appear with his attorney at the preliminary call, shall thereafter personally appear at the daily court sessions during the term until the disposition of his case, shall not depart from the court without leave, and shall abide the orders and judgments of the court. The attorney for a defendant who is in custody in such a case, shall appear at the preliminary call.

7.03 Appearances, Representations, Motions, Objections, etc. in Civil Cases, at Preliminary Call. The parties and their attorneys will take notice that there are matters of importance pertaining to the cases upon the calendar which must be determined and settled by the court at the preliminary call. It shall be incumbent upon each party in any civil case properly upon the calendar to be represented by attorney, or to personally appear if he does not have an attorney, at the preliminary call. A party in a civil case who has knowledge or who has received notice or information that his case is or is likely to be upon the calendar will be considered to have waived any grounds he may have for a motion to strike the case from the calendar, and the case will be deemed properly upon the calendar, if he does not make such motion when the case is called at the preliminary call. A party in a case properly upon the calendar may be considered to have waived any grounds which he then knows or in the exercise of due diligence he should know for a motion to continue his case, if he does not make the motion when his case is called at the preliminary call. Unless otherwise provided by any rule of court, a party in a civil case to be tried at the term may be considered to have waived any grounds he has to make a motion permitted under R.C.P. Rule 12 which can properly be made at the preliminary call if he does not then make the motion when the case is called. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who has objections to the granting of a motion made at the preliminary call shall present his objections to the court when the motion is made. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who has objections to the action taken or an order made at the preliminary call pertaining to his case within the purview of Rule 7.02 shall present his objections to the court at the preliminary call. The failure of a party to present objections as required by this rule may be deemed a waiver thereof. A party in a case properly upon the calendar who fails to appear or to be represented by attorney at the preliminary call shall be presumed to have had immediate knowledge and notice of all action taken and orders made pertaining to his case at the preliminary call to the same extent as if he had appeared or had been represented by attorney thereat. Notwithstanding any waiver the court may in its discretion permit the making of motions and objections after the preliminary call to prevent manifest injustice, but a mere showing that a party failed to appear or to be represented by attorney at the preliminary call shall not constitute sufficient grounds to relieve a party from the effect of any waiver.

7.04 Term Trial Docket and Setting Cases Thereon. At the preliminary call, after determining the cases in which there are issues to be tried by jury and the cases in which there are issues to be tried by the court without a jury, the court may by order made in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 40 set the cases which are to be tried at the term and thereby constitute the "Term Trial Docket." The term trial docket may consist of two parts, one designated as the "Term Jury Trial Docket" in which will be entered the cases having issues to be tried by jury at the term, and the other designated as the "Term Nonjury Trial Docket" in which will be entered cases having issues to be tried at the term by the court without a jury. The court may fix the order in which the cases upon a term trial docket not set for trial on a day certain will be called for trial and heard, and may fix the day upon which a case set for trial on a day certain will be called for trial. In the event the court does not provide for the order in which the cases to be tried at the term shall be called for trial and heard then, unless otherwise directed, the clerk as soon after the conclusion of the preliminary call of the calendar as practically may be shall list in the minutes of the court under the designation "Term Trial Docket" the cases to be tried at the term in the following order, the cases in each category being listed in the order they appear upon the calendar, to-wit: (1) criminal cases charging commission of a felony where defendant is in custody; (2) criminal cases charging commission of a misdemeanor where defendant is in custody; (3) criminal cases charging commission of a felony where defendant is not in custody; (4) criminal cases charging commission of a misdemeanor where defendant is not in custody; (5) cases charging a violation of an ordinance; (6) quasi-criminal cases; (7) civil cases not set for trial on a day certain in which there are issues to be tried by jury; (8) civil cases ordered by the court to be called for trial on a day certain in which there are issues to be tried by jury; (9) civil cases not set for trial on a day certain in which there are issues of fact to be tried by the court without a jury; (10) civil cases ordered by the court to be called for trial on a day certain in which there are issues of fact to be tried by the court without a jury; and (11) civil cases in which there are issues of law to be tried by the court. When issues in two or more cases are to be jointly tried, the cases shall assume in the order of listing the position of the one of such cases having the lowest calendar number. When the calendar number of cases entered on the term trial docket are bracketed, it shall indicate that such cases are consolidated or will be jointly tried.

7.05 Setting Trial for Day Certain. The request of a party to set a civil case triable by jury so that it will be called for trial on a day certain shall be denied unless a showing is made and the court is satisfied that extraordinary expenses or hardship will result to the party if the case is not so set.

7.06 Certain Motions After Preliminary Call. A motion made after the preliminary call to strike a case from the term trial docket, to reset for trial a case thereon, or to continue a case thereon for a cause which became known after the call will be granted only if it is made promptly, if due notice is given to the adverse party, and if there is sufficient showing of good cause for granting the motion.

7.07 Peremptory Call. The peremptory call, unless otherwise ordered, shall begin at 10:30 A.M. on the day the petit jurors report to begin service at the term and the case then remaining for trial appearing first in the order of listing of the cases upon the term trial docket will be peremptorily called for trial and heard. Thereafter as each case is disposed of by trial or otherwise, the case next in order of listing remaining for trial upon the term trial docket will be peremptorily called and heard. However, the order of the trial of cases upon the term trial docket which were not set to be called for trial on a day certain will be interrupted to permit the trial and hearing of any case which was set to be called for trial on a day certain and such a case will be called for trial, unless otherwise ordered, at 9:30 A.M. on the day designated but if the trial judge is then engaged in hearing a matter previously commenced he shall call the case for trial as soon thereafter as it may be reasonable to do so.

7.08 Anticipating Call of Case, etc. Each party and each attorney who will represent a party at the trial in any case upon the term trial docket shall keep himself informed of the progress of the business of the court and of the disposition of cases set ahead of his case upon the docket and the time when his case is likely to be reached to the end that he may appear and be ready for trial when his case is called. Upon written request the clerk shall mail a copy of the term trial docket, as soon after the opening day of the term as practically may be, to an attorney who has filed with the clerk a pleading or other writing showing him to be attorney of record for a party in such a case. With respect to any case which at the preliminary call was not set for trial on a day certain, such attorney may in a writing to be placed in the files of the case furnish a telephone number and request the clerk to make a station-to-station call to such number and give to the person answering the call a message specifying the time as near as may be foreseen when the case will be called for trial, at least eight hours in advance of such time. The attorney shall assume the responsibility for the transmission to him of such message by the person who receives the telephone call. The clerk shall, however, be relieved from any duty to give such a telephone message if he makes three calls to such number at reasonable intervals during ordinary business hours without obtaining a response.

RULE 8

ATTORNEYS — APPEARANCES OF RECORD, NOTICES TO, FILING OF WRITINGS BY, ETC.

8.01—Filing of Writings and Appearances by Attorneys. At or prior to the appearance of an attorney at any hearing in an action the attorney shall file with the clerk in accordance with R.C.P. Rule 5.04 all affidavits, notices and other papers designed to be used at the hearing and also any pleading he has theretofore served in the action.

8.02 Attorney of Record. An attorney representing a party in an action shall not be entitled to be recognized by the court or clerk as the attorney of record for such party unless he has filed with the clerk in the action a notice of appearance, a notice of substitution of attorney, a pleading for such party, or other writing which establishes him in the files of the action to be such attorney of record. Such attorney may not assume that he will be recognized by the court or clerk as an attorney of record in the action because of recitals or anything else appearing in or upon writings filed by an adverse party.

8.03 Notices by Court or Clerk to Attorney. An attorney for a party in an action shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the clerk pursuant to R.C.P. Rule 77.04 or any other notice in the action from the clerk or court unless he has filed with the clerk in the action a notice of appearance, a notice of substitution of attorney, a pleading for such party, or other writing which establishes him in the files of the action to be attorney of record therein for the party.

8.04 Nonresident Attorney. A person who is a resident of and is admitted to practice as an attorney at law in another state may be permitted, in the discretion of the court and subject to the provisions of M.S.A. Sec. 481.02 and the Rules of Civil Procedure to appear as attorney for a party and participate in a presentation, hearing or trial in an action or proceeding before the District Court of this district, provided: (1) he is associated in representing such party with an attorney at law admitted as such and residing in this state who appears as the attorney of record in the action or proceeding; (2) the resident attorney appears before the court at the presentation, hearing or trial and moves for an order granting permission to such nonresident attorney to so participate therein; and (3) the resident attorney remains present in court during the presentation, hearing or trial as the attorney of record in the action or proceeding.

RULE 9

DIVORCE ACTIONS.

9.01 Hearing of Default Action. A divorce action in default for want of any appearance by the defendant may with the consent of the court be brought on for trial and be heard at a special term of the court held 45 days or more after the commencement of the action.

9.02 Hearing of Non-default Action. A divorce action in which there has been an appearance by the defendant by interposing a pleading, entering into a stipulation or otherwise shall be brought on for trial and be heard upon its merits at a general term of the court except that such an action may upon stipulation of the parties and with the consent of the court be brought on for trial and be heard upon its merits in advance of the general term but not less than 45 days after the commencement of the action. A party bringing any such action on for trial in advance of the term shall give due notice of the time and place of the trial to the adverse party unless it appears from the files that such adverse party has knowledge thereof. The court will not recognize any stipulation by a party purporting to authorize the trial of an action or counterclaim for divorce at a time or place of which he does not have knowledge or notice, or agreeing to withdraw his opposition thereto or to make no defense thereagainst.

9.03 Record of Testimony. A stenographic record shall be made of the testimony and proceedings in the trial of a divorce action heard upon the merits whether or not it is in default. The court may direct the reporter to make and file with the clerk a transcript of such record or part thereof and direct that a party shall pay the cost thereof.

RULE 10

MINOR'S ACTION.

10.01 Record of Hearing. A stenographic record shall be made of the testimony and proceedings at a hearing upon an application for the approval of the settlement or compromise of an action brought on behalf of a minor in accordance with M.S.A. Sec. 540.08.

When there is deposited with the clerk for a person then a minor, pursuant to an order of the court, property, securities or the evidence of a deposit of property, the clerk shall be deemed authorized, without any order of court, to deliver all of said property, securities or the evidence of a deposit of property, which may be in his custody to such person upon the attainment of his majority or to anyone he may designate in a writing executed after attaining his majority and filed with the clerk, if a certified copy of his birth certificate is filed with the clerk or if the court has determined the date of the birth of such person as appears from the files, provided, that if it appears from the files that such person is incompetent, then the clerk shall deliver the property, securities or evidence of the deposit of property only to the guardian of the estate of such person appointed by the Probate Court.

11.03 Appearance. a. When the defendant appears before the Court he shall be requested to affirm or deny the allegations of the Complaint orally.

(1) If the defendant orally affirms the allegations of the Complaint, the Court shall thereupon adjudicate the defendant to be the father of the child, and shall set a date of and place for a hearing to determine and adjudicate the amount of reasonable confinement expenses and support and education of the child to be paid by the defendant.

(3) If the defendant is excused from appearance, or having appeared, orally denies the allegations of the Complaint, his appearance shall be noted in the proceedings and it shall be deemed that he has served and filed an Answer denying the allegations of the Complaint.

11.04 Placing Action on Calendar. Upon the service and filing of an Answer, a party desiring to have the action placed on the calendar for trial shall comply with the provisions of Rule 38.03, M.R.C.P. The parties may agree at any time that the action be placed upon a current calendar for trial even if issue is joined after the commencement of the term of court then in session.

12.01 Custody of Exhibits. An exhibit admitted in evidence in a case shall thenceforth remain in the custody of the clerk, subject to the orders of the court until returned, delivered, or disposed of as hereinafter provided.

12.02 Return of Exhibits. Six months after the final termination of the case the clerk shall be authorized, without an order of court, to return to the attorney for the party who offered the same in evidence or to any person entitled thereto any exhibit admitted in evidence which cannot well be kept in the files of the case and the clerk may request such attorney or person to call at his office for the delivery of such exhibit. In lieu of making such request the clerk may forward the exhibit by mail or otherwise to such attorney or person. 12.03 Redelivery of Exhibit to Clerk. 12.04 Public Records. 12.05 Exhibits Offered but not Admitted. The court may order that an exhibit which was offered but not admitted in evidence be placed in the custody of the clerk and remain in such custody under the provisions of this rule the same as if it had been admitted. If an exhibit offered but not admitted in evidence is not in the custody of the clerk, the party who offered the same in evidence shall upon request of the clerk or court reporter deliver it to the clerk to remain in his custody under the provisions of this rule the same as if it had been admitted, when a transcript of the evidence is ordered, when a motion for a new trial is made, when an appeal is perfected, or whenever any other post-trial motion is made or proceeding taken wherein the offered exhibit may have a bearing on a question to be determined.

The order of appointment shall specify the conditions and scope of such examination, and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

DISTRICT COURTS OF MINNESOTA

I. SCOPE OF RULES—ONE FORM OF ACTION

RULE 1

SCOPE OF RULES

These rules govern the procedure in the district courts of the State of Minnesota in all suits of a civil nature, with the exceptions stated in Rule 81. They shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action.

RULE 2

ONE FORM OF ACTION

There shall be one form of action to be known as "civil action."

II. COMMENCEMENT OF THE ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS, AND ORDERS

RULE 3

COMMENCEMENT OF THE ACTION; SERVICE OF THE COMPLAINT

3.01 Commencement of the Action

A civil action is commenced against each defendant when the summons is served upon him or is delivered to the proper officer for such service; but such delivery shall be ineffectual unless within 60 days thereafter the summons be actually served on him or the first publication thereof be made.

3.02 Service of Complaint

A copy of the complaint shall be served with the summons, except when the service is by publication as provided in Rule 4.04.

RULE 4

PROCESS

4.01 Summons; Form

The summons shall state the name of the court and the names of the parties, be subscribed by the plaintiff or by his attorney, give an address within the state where the subscriber may be served in person and by mail, state the time within which these rules require the defendant to serve his answer, and notify him that if he fails to do so judgment by default will be rendered against him for the relief demanded in the complaint.

4.02 By Whom Served

The sheriff of the county in which the defendant is found may make service of summons and other process, and fees and mileage shall be allowed therefor.

Any person not a party to the action may make service of a summons.

4.03 Personal Service

Service of summons within the state shall be made as follows:

(a) Upon an Individual. Upon an individual by delivering a copy to him personally or by leaving a copy at his usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein.

If the individual has pursuant to statute, consented to any other method of service or appointed an agent to receive service of summons, or if a statute designates a state official to receive service of summons, service may be made in the manner provided by such statute.

If the individual is confined to a state institution, by serving also the chief executive officer at the institution.

If the individual is an infant under the age of 14 years, by serving also his father or mother, and if he have neither within the state, then a resident guardian if he have one known to the plaintiff, and if he have none, then the person having control of such defendant, or with whom he resides, or by whom he is employed.

(b) Upon Partnerships and Associations. Upon a partnership or association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering a copy to a member or the managing agent of the partnership or association. If the partnership or association has, pursuant to statute, consented to any other method of service or appointed an agent to receive service of summons, or if a statute designates nates a state official to receive service of summons, service may be made in the manner provided by such statute.

(c) Upon a Corporation. Upon a domestic or foreign corporation, by delivering a copy to an officer or managing agent, or to any other agent authorized expressly or impliedly or designated by statute to receive service of summons, and if the agent is one authorized or designated under statute to receive service any statutory provision for the manner of such service shall be complied with. In the case of a transportation or express corporation, the summons may be served by delivering a copy to any ticket, freight, or soliciting agent found in the county in which the action is brought, and if such corporation is a foreign corporation and has no such agent in the county in which the plaintiff elects to bring the action, then upon any such agent of the corporation within the state.

(d) Upon the State. Upon the state by delivering a copy to the attorney general, a deputy attorney general or an assistant attorney general.

(e) Upon Public Corporations. Upon a municipal or other public corporation by delivering a copy

- (4) To any member of the board or other governing body of a defendant school district.
- (5) To any member of the board or other governing body of a defendant public board or public body not hereinabove enumerated.

If service cannot be made as provided in this Rule 4.03 (e), the court may direct the manner of such service.

4.04 Service by Publication; Personal Service out of State

The summons may be served by three weeks' published notice in any of the cases enumerated hereafter when there shall have been filed with the court the complaint and an affidavit of the plaintiff or his attorney stating the existence of one of such cases, and that he believes the defendant is not a resident of the state, or cannot be found therein, and either that he has mailed a copy of the summons to the defendant at his place of residence or that such residence is not known to him. The service of the summons shall be deemed complete 21 days after the first publication. Personal service of such summons without the state, proved by the affidavit of the person making the same sworn to before a person authorized to administer an oath, shall have the same effect as the published notice herein provided for.

Such service shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction:

(1) When the defendant is a resident individual having departed from the state with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid service, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;

(2) When the plaintiff has acquired a lien upon property or credits within the state by attachment or garnishment, and

(a) The defendant is a resident individual who has departed from the state, or cannot be found therein, or

(b) The defendant is a nonresident individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership or association;

When quasi in rem jurisdiction has been obtained, a party defending such action thereby submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court. An appearance solely to contest the validity of such quasi in rem jurisdiction is not such a submission.

(3) When the action is for divorce or separate maintenance and the court shall have ordered that service be made by published notice;

(4) When the subject of the action is real or personal property within the state in or upon which the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, or the relief demanded consists wholly or partly in excluding him from any such interest or lien;

(5) When the action is to foreclose a mortgage or to enforce a lien on real estate.

4.041 Additional Information to be Published

In all cases where publication of summons is made in an action in which the title to, or any interest in or lien upon, real property is involved or affected or is brought in question, the publication shall also contain a description of the real property involved, affected or brought in question thereby, and a statement of the object of the action. No other notice of the pendency of the action need be published.

4.042 Service of the Complaint

If the defendant shall appear within ten days after the completion of service by publication, the plaintiff, within five days after such appearance, shall serve the complaint, by copy, on the defendant or his attorney. The defendant shall then have at least ten days in which to answer the same.

4.043 Service by Publication; Defendant May Defend; Restitution

If the summons be served by publication, and the defendant receives no actual notification of the action, he shall be permitted to defend upon application to the court before judgment and for sufficient cause; and, except in an action for divorce, the defendant, in like manner, may be permitted to defend at any time within one year after judgment, on such terms as may be just. If the defense be sustained, and any part of the judgment has been enforced, such restitution shall be made as the court may direct.

4.044 Nonresident Owner of Land Appointing an Agent

If a nonresident person or corporation owning or claiming any interest or lien in or upon lands in the state appoints an agent pursuant to § 557.01 service of summons in an action involving such real estate shall be made upon such agent or his principal in accordance with Rule 4.03, and service by publication shall not be made upon the principal.

4.05 Process Other Than Summons and Subpoena; Service of Process other than summons and subpoena shall be served as directed by the court issuing the same.

4.06 Return

Service of summons and other process shall be proved by the certificate of the sheriff making it, by the affidavit of any other person making it, by the written admission of the party served, and, if served by publication, by the affidavit of the printer or his foreman or clerk. The proof of service in all cases other than by published notice shall state the time, place, and manner of service. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of the service.

4.07 Amendments

The court in its discretion and on such terms as it deems just may at any time allow any summons or other process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that substantial rights of the person against whom the process issued would be prejudiced thereby.

RULE 5
 SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

5.01 Service; When Required; Appearance

Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4. A party appears when he serves or files any paper in the proceeding.

5.02 Service; How Made

Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Written admission of service by the party or his attorney shall be sufficient proof of service. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: Handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1976

5.03 Service; Numerous Defendants

If the defendants are numerous, the court, upon motion or of its initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading with the court and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the courts directs.

5.04 Filing

(1) All pleadings, affidavits, bonds, and other papers in an action shall be filed with the clerk, unless otherwise provided by statute or by order of the court.

(2) All pleadings shall be so filed on or before the second day of the term at which the action is noticed for trial; otherwise the court may continue the action or strike it from the calendar.

(3) All affidavits, notices and other papers designed to be used in any cause shall be filed prior to the hearing of the cause unless otherwise directed by the court.

RULE 6 TIME

6.01 Computation

In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any district court, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

6.02 Enlargement

When by statute or by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may, at any time in its discretion, (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 4.043, 59.03, 59.05, and 60.02 except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

6.03 Unaffected by Expiration of Term

The continued existence or the expiration of a term of court does not affect or limit the period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding, or affect the power of the court to do any act or take any proceeding in any action which has been pending before it.

6.04 For Motions; Affidavits

A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than five days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. A motion may be supported by papers on file by reference; supporting papers not on file shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Rule 59.04, opposing affidavits may be served not later than one day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

6.05 Additional Time After Service by Mail

Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceeding within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him, or whenever such service is required to be made a prescribed period before a specified event, and the notice or paper is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS RULE 7

PLEADINGS ALLOWED; FORM OF MOTIONS

7.01 Pleadings

There shall be a complaint and an answer (including such pleadings in a third-party proceeding when a third-party claim is asserted); a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; and an answer to a cross-claim if the answer contains a cross-claim. No other pleading shall be allowed except that the court may order a reply to an answer. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

7.02 Motion and Other Papers

(1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion. Motions provided in these rules are motions requiring a written notice to the party and a hearing before the order can be issued unless the particular rule under which the motion is made specifically provides that the motion may be made ex parte.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

RULE 8 GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

8.01 Claims for Relief

A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled, and if a recovery of money be demanded the amount shall be stated. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

8.02 Defenses; Form of Denials

A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

8.03 Affirmative Defenses

In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

8.04 Effect of Failure to Deny

Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

8.05 Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency

(1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

8.06 Construction of Pleadings

All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

RULE 9PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS*9.01 Capacity

It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of a partnership or an organized association of persons that is made a party. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

9.02 Fraud, Mistake, Condition of Mind

In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

9.03 Conditions Precedent

In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

9.04 Official Document or Act

In pleading an official document or official act, it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law; and in pleading any ordinance of a city, village, or borough or any special or local statute or any right derived from either, it is sufficient to refer to the ordinance or statute by its title and the date of its approval.

9.05 Judgment

In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

9.06 Time and Place

For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

9.07 Special Damages

When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

9.08 Unknown Party; How Designated

When a party is ignorant of the name of an opposing party and so alleges in his pleading, the opposing party may be designated by any name, and when his true name is discovered the process and all pleadings and proceedings in the action may be amended by substituting the true name.

RULE 10FORM OF PLEADINGS*10.01 Caption; Names of Parties

Every pleading shall have a caption setting forth the name of the court and the county in which the action is brought, the title of the action, and a designation as in Rule 7. In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

10.02 Paragraph; Separate Statements

All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

10.03 Adoption by Reference; Exhibits

Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part of the statement of claim or defense set forth in the pleading.

RULE 11SIGNING OF PLEADINGS

Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be personally signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name and shall state his address. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall personally sign his pleading and state his address. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certification by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken, as provided in Rule 12.06, as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. An attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action for a willful violation of this rule or for the insertion of scandalous or indecent matter in a pleading.

RULE 12DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS; WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED; BY PLEADING OR MOTION; MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON PLEADINGS*12.01 When Presented

Defendant shall serve his answer within 20 days after service of the summons upon him unless the court directs otherwise pursuant to Rule 4.043. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: (1) If the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after service of notice of the court's action; (2) if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

12.02 How Presented

Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter; (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person; (3) insufficiency of process; (4) insufficiency of service of process; (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted; and (6) failure to join a party under Rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense that the pleading fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

12.03 Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on such motion, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

12.04 Preliminary Hearing

The defenses and relief enumerated in Rules 12.02 and 12.03, whether made in a pleading or by motion, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

12.05 Motion for More Definite Statement, for Paragraphing and for Separate Statement

If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted violates the provisions of Rule 10.02, or is so vague and ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a compliance with Rule 10.02 or for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after service of notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

12.06 Motion to Strike

Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him, or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order any pleading not in compliance with Rule 11 stricken as sham and false, or may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent or scandalous matter.

12.07 Consolidation of Defenses in Motion

A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in Rule 12.08 (2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

12.08 Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses

(1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (A) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in Rule 12.07, or (B) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15.01 to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7.01, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

RULE 13

COUNTERCLAIM AND CROSS-CLAIM

13.01 Compulsory Counterclaims

A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction, except that such a claim need not be so stated if at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action.

13.02 Permissive Counterclaims

A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

13.03 Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim

A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

13.04 Counterclaim Against the State of Minnesota

These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the State of Minnesota or an officer or agency thereof.

13.05 Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading

A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

13.06 Omitted Counterclaim

When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

13.07 Cross-Claim Against Co-Party

A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

13.08 Joinder of Additional Parties

Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Rules 19 and 20.

13.09 Separate Trials; Separate Judgment

If the court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 42.02, judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Rule 54.02 even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

RULE 14

THIRD-PARTY PRACTICE

14.01 When Defendant May Bring in Third Party

Within 45 days after service of the summons upon him, and thereafter by leave of court granted on motion upon notice to all parties to the action, a defendant as a third-party plaintiff may serve a summons and complaint, together with a copy of plaintiff's complaint, upon a person, whether or not he is a party to the action, who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him and after such service shall forthwith serve notice thereof upon all other parties to the action. Copies of third-party pleadings shall be furnished by the pleader to any other party to the action within 5 days after request therefor. The person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Rule 13. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

14.02 When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party

When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under Rule 14.01 would entitle defendant to do so.

14.03 Orders for Protection of Parties and Prevention of Delay

The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed or put to undue expense, or prevent delay of the trial or other proceedings, by the assertion of a third-party claim, and may dismiss the third-party claim, order separate trials, or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this rule is without prejudice.

RULE 15

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

15.01 Amendments

A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, which ever period may be longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

15.02 Amendments to Conform to the Evidence

When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

15.03 Relation Back of Amendments

Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

15.04 Supplemental Pleadings

Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented, whether or not the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or of a defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

RULE 16
PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE; FORMULATING ISSUE

In any action, the court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a referee;
- (6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to nonjury actions or extend it to all actions.

IV. PARTIES

RULE 17
PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY

17.01 Real Party in Interest

Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute, may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

17.02 Infants or Incompetent Persons

Whenever a party to an action is an infant or is incompetent and has a representative duly appointed under the laws of this state or the laws of a foreign state or country, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of such party. A party who is an infant or is incompetent and is not so represented shall be represented by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending or is to be brought. The guardian ad litem shall be a resident of this state, shall file his consent and oath with the clerk, and shall give such bond as the court may require.

Any person, including an infant party over the age of 14 years and under no other legal disability, may apply under oath for the appointment of a guardian ad litem. The application of the party or of his spouse or his parent or testamentary or other guardian shall have priority over other applications. If no such appointment is made in behalf of a defendant party before answer or default, the adverse party or his attorney may apply for such appointment, and in such case the court shall allow the guardian ad litem a reasonable time to respond to the complaint.

The application for appointment shall show (1) the name, age and address of the party, (2) if he be a minor, the names and addresses of his parents, and, if his parents be dead or have abandoned him, the name and address of his custodian or his testamentary or other guardian, if any, (3) the name and address of his spouse, if any, and (4) the name, age and address and occupation of the person whose appointment is sought.

If the appointment is applied for by the party or by his spouse, parent, custodian, or testamentary or other guardian, the court may hear the application with or without notice. In all other cases written notice of the hearing on the application shall be given at such time as the court shall prescribe, and shall be served upon the party, his spouse, parent, custodian and testamentary or other guardian, if any, and, if he be an inmate of a public institution, the chief executive officer thereof. If the party be a non-resident, or if after diligent search he cannot be found within the state, notice shall be given to such persons and in such manner as the court may direct.

RULE 18
JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES

18.01 Joinder of Claims

A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal, or equitable, as he has against an opposing party.

18.02 Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances

Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

RULE 19
JOINDER OF PERSONS NEEDED FOR JUST ADJUDICATION

19.01 Persons to be Joined if Feasible

A person who is subject to service of process shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

19.02 Determination by Court Whenever Joinder not Feasible

If a person as described in Rule 19.01(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

19.03 Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder

A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in Rule 19.01(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

19.04 Exception of Class Actions

This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 23.

RULE 20

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES

20.01 Permissive Joinder

All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief, jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of fact or law common to all these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

20.02 Separate Trials

The court may make such order as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

RULE 21

MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on a motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

INTERPLEADER

Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead, in an action brought for that purpose, when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to multiple liability. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. If such a defendant admits he is subject to liability, he may, upon paying the amount claimed or delivering the property claimed or its value into court or to such person as the court may direct, move for an order to substitute the claimants other than the plaintiff as defendants in his stead. On compliance with the terms of such order, the defendant shall be discharged and the action shall proceed against the substituted defendants. It is not ground for objection to such joinder or to such motion that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical with but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. The provisions of this rule do not restrict the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

RULE 23

CLASS ACTIONS

23.01 Prerequisites to a Class Action

One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

23.02 Class Actions Maintainable

An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of Rule 23.01 are satisfied, and in addition:

(1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class, or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or

(2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

23.03 Determination by Order Whether Class Action to be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions

(1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under Rule 23.02(3), the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (A) the court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date; (B) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (C) any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

(3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Rule 23.02(1) or 23.02(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Rule 23.02(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in Rule 23.03(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate (A) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (B) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

23.04 Orders in Conduct of Actions

In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the court may make appropriate orders: (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument; (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action: (3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors; (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under Rule 16, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

23.05 Dismissal or Compromise

A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

23.06 Derivative Actions by Shareholders or Members

In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall allege that the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his share or membership thereafter devolved on him by operation of law. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action he desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for his failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interest of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the court directs.

23.07 Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations

An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Rule 23.04 and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Rule 23.05.

RULE 24 INTERVENTION

24.01 Intervention of Right

Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

24.02 Permissive Intervention

Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

24.03 Procedure

A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.

24.04 Notice to Attorney General

When the constitutionality of an act of the legislature is drawn in question in any action to which the state or an officer, agency or employee of the state is not a party, the party asserting the unconstitutionality of the act shall notify the attorney general thereof within such time as to afford him an opportunity to intervene.

RULE 25 SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

25.01 Death

(1) If a party dies and the claim is not extinguished or barred, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided in Rule 4 for the service of process.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be indicated upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

25.02 Incompetency

If a party becomes incompetent, the action shall not abate because of the disability, and the court upon motion served as provided in Rule 25.01 may allow it to be continued by or against his representative.

25.03 Transfer of Interest

In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of this motion shall be made as provided in Rule 25.01.

25.04 Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office

When any public officer is a party to an action and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action may be continued and maintained by or against his successor if it is satisfactorily shown to the court that there is a substantial need for so continuing and maintaining it. Substitution pursuant to this rule may be made when it is shown by supplemental pleading that the successor of any officer adopts or continues or threatens to adopt or continue the action of his predecessor. Before a substitution is made, the party or officer to be affected, unless expressly assenting thereto, shall be given reasonable notice of the application therefor and accorded an opportunity to object.

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

RULE 26

GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY

26.01 Discovery Methods

Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical (including blood) and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the court orders otherwise under subdivision 26.03 of this rule, and except as provided in Rule 33.01, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited.

26.02 Scope of Discovery

Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) In General. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(2) Insurance Agreements. In any action in which there is an insurance policy which may afford coverage, any party may require any other party to disclose the coverage and limits of such insurance and the amounts paid and payable thereunder and under Rule 34 may obtain production of the insurance policy, provided, however, that the above provision will not permit such disclosed information to be introduced into evidence unless admissible for other grounds.

(3) Trial Preparation; Materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision 26.02 (4) of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision 26.02 (1) of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party, or a party, may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person who is not a party. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 37.01 (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (A) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (B) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(4) Trial Preparation; Experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision 26.02 (1) of this rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

(A) (i) A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. (ii) Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision 26.02 (4) (C) of this rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

(B) A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Rule 35.02 or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

(C) Unless manifest injustice would result, (i) the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivisions 26.02 (4) (A) (ii) and 26.02 (4) (B) of this rule; and (ii) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision 26.02 (4) (A) (ii) of this rule the court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision 26.02 (4) (B) of this rule the court shall require, the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

26.03 PROTECTIVE ORDERS

Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the court in the district where the deposition is to be taken may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Rule 37.01 (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

26.04 Sequence and Timing of Discovery

Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

26.05 Supplementation of Responses

A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

(1) A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement his response with respect to any question directly addressed to (A) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (B) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony.

(2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if he obtains information upon the basis of which (A) he knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (B) he knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

(3) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

RULE 27

DEPOSITIONS BEFORE ACTION OR PENDING APPEAL

27.01 Before Action

(1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter may file a verified petition in the district court of the county of the residence of an expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show (a) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought, (b) the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein, (c) the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it, (d) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known, and (e) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the deposition of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the state in the manner provided in Rule 4.03 for service of summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 4.03, an attorney who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent, the provisions of Rule 17.02 apply.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating and describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The deposition may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the courts of the state in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in this state, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 26.04.

27.02 Pending Appeal

If an appeal has been taken from a judgment or order of a district court, or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the district court in which the judgment or order was rendered may allow the taking of the deposition of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the district court. In such case, the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the district court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the district court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the district court.

27.03 Perpetuation by Action

This rule does not limit the power of the court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

RULE 28

PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN

28.01 Within the United States

Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony.

28.02 In Foreign Countries

In a foreign country depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letters rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letters rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in (here name the country)." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these Rules.

28.03 Disqualification for Interest

No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

RULE 29

STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY PROCEDURE

The parties may by stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and (2) modify the procedures provided by these rules for other methods of discovery.

RULE 30

DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

30.01 When Depositions May Be Taken

After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made under Rule 4.04, except that leave is not required (1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or (2) if special notice is given as provided in subdivision 30.02 (2) of this rule. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided by Rule 45.

30.02 Notice of Examination; General Requirements; Special Notice; Non-Stenographic Recording; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization

(1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

(2) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (a) states that the person to be examined will be unavailable for examination within the state unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the 30-day period, and (b) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Rule 11 are applicable to the certification.

If a party shows that after he was served with notice under this subdivision (2) he was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition of himself or other person, the deposition may not be used against such party.

(3) The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.

(4) The court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

(5) The notice to a party deponent may include or be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Rule 34 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Rule 34 shall apply to the request.

(6) A party may in his notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which he will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision (6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules.

30.03 Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections

Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of Rule 43.02. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by some one acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subdivision 30.02 (4) of this rule. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objection. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, a party may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

30.04 Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination

At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Rule 26.03. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Rule 37.01 (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

30.05 Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing

When the testimony is stenographically transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 30 days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness, or the fact of the refusal to sign, together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 32.04 (4) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

30.06 Certification and Filing by Officer; Copies; Notice of Filing

(1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then place the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert the name of witness)" and shall promptly deliver or mail it to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that (a) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if he affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals, and (b) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

30.07 Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him, and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

RULE 31

DEPOSITIONS OF WITNESSES UPON WRITTEN QUESTIONS

31.01 Serving Questions; Notice

After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45.

A party desiring to take the deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs, and (2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Rule 30.02 (6).

Within 30 days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve recross questions upon all other parties. The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

31.02 Officers to Take Responses and Prepare Record

A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rules 30.03, 30.05, and 30.06, to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by him.

31.03 Notice of Filing

When the deposition is filed, the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

RULE 32

USE OF DEPOSITIONS IN COURT PROCEEDINGS

32.01 Use of Depositions

At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, and subject to the provisions of Rule 32.02, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof in accordance with any one of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(2) The deposition of a party or of any one who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, employee or managing agent or a person designated under Rule 30.02 (6) or 31.01 to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (a) that the witness is dead; or (b) that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the state, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (c) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (d) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (e) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witness orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties pursuant to Rule 25 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor.

32.02 Objections to Admissibility

Subject to the provisions of Rules 28.02 and 32.04 (3), objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

32.03 Effect of Taking or Using Depositions

A party does not make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition under subdivision 32.01 (2) of this rule. At the trial or hearing, any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

32.04 Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions

(1) As to Notice

All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(2) As to Disqualification of Officer

Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(3) As to Taking of Deposition

(a) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(b) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(c) Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within 5 days after service of the last questions authorized.

(4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition

Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed, preserved or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

RULE 33

INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES

33.01 Availability; Procedure for Use

(1) Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action, and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. No party may serve more than a total of 50 interrogatories upon any other party unless permitted to do so by the court upon motion, notice and a showing of good cause. In computing the total number of interrogatories each subdivision of separate questions shall be counted as an interrogatory.

(2) The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve separate written answers or objections to each interrogatory within 30 days after service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 45 days after service of summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court, on motion and notice and for good cause shown, may enlarge or shorten the time.

(3) Objections shall state with particularity the grounds for the objection and may be served as a part of the document containing the answers or separately. Within 15 days after service of objections to interrogatories, the party proposing the interrogatory shall serve notice of hearing on the objections at the earliest practicable time. Failure to serve said notice shall constitute a waiver of the right to require answers to each interrogatory to which objection has been made. Answers to interrogatories to which objection has been made shall be deferred until the objections are determined.

(4) Answers to interrogatories shall be stated fully in writing and shall be signed under oath by the party served or, if the party served is the state or a corporation or a partnership or an association, by any officer or managing agent, who shall furnish such information as is available. A party shall restate the interrogatory being answered immediately preceding the party's answer to that interrogatory.

33.02 Scope; Use at Trial

Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 26.02, and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the rules of evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.

33.03 Option to Produce Business Records

Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries.

RULE 34

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS AND ENTRY UPON LAND FOR INSPECTION AND OTHER PURPOSES

34.01 Scope

Any party may serve on any other party a request

(1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono-records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 26.02 and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served, or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 26.02.

34.02 Procedure

The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within 30 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Rule 37 with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

34.03 Persons Not Parties

This rule does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

RULE 35 PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND BLOOD EXAMINATION OF PERSONS

35.01 Order of Examinations

In an action in which the mental or physical condition or the blood relationship of a party, or of an agent of a party, or of a person under control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to, or produce such agent or person for, a mental or physical or blood examination by a physician. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the party or person to be examined and to all other parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is made.

35.02 Report of Findings

(1) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Rule 35.01 or by the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After such request and delivery, the party causing the examination to be made shall be entitled, upon request, to receive from the party or person examined a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same mental or physical or blood condition. If the party or person examined refuses to deliver such report, the court, on motion and notice, may make an order requiring delivery on such terms as are just, and, if a physician fails or refuses to make such a report, the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the adverse party waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him or the person under his control in respect of the same mental or physical or blood condition.

35.03 Waiver of Medical Privilege

If at any stage of an action a party voluntarily places in controversy the physical, mental, or blood condition of himself, of a decedent, or a person under his control, such party thereby waives any privilege he may have in that action regarding the testimony of every person who has examined or may thereafter examine him or the person under his control in respect of the same mental, physical or blood condition.

35.04 Medical Disclosures and Depositions of Medical Experts

When medical privilege has been waived by a party under Rule 35.03, such party within ten days of a written request by any other party,

a) shall furnish to the requesting party copies of all medical reports previously or thereafter made by any treating or examining medical expert, and

b) shall provide written authority signed by the party of whom request is made to permit the inspection of all hospital and other medical records, concerning the physical, mental or blood condition of such party as to which privilege has been waived.

Depositions of treating or examining medical experts shall not be taken except upon order of the court for good cause shown upon motion and notice to the parties and upon such terms as the court may provide.

Disclosures under this Rule shall include the conclusions of such treating or examining medical expert.

RULE 36 REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

36.01 Request for Admission

A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission for purposes of the pending action, only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26.02 set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request, unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless within 30 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefore shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and, when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of Rule 37.03, deny the matter of set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Rule 37.01 (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

36.02 Effect of Admission

Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of Rule 16 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose nor may it be used against him in any other proceeding.

RULE 37

FAILURE TO MAKE DISCOVERY: SANCTIONS

37.01 Motion for Order Compelling Discovery

A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the court in which the action is pending, or, on matters relating to a deponent's failure to answer questions propounded or submitted under Rule 30 or Rule 31, to the court in the county where the deposition is being taken. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party shall be made to the court in the county where the deposition is being taken.

(2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rule 30 or Rule 31, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Rule 30.02 (6) or Rule 31.01, or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.

If the court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Rule 26.03.

(3) Evasion or Incomplete Answer. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of Expenses of Motion. If the motion is granted, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

37.02 Failure to Comply with Order.

(1) Sanctions by Court in County Where Deposition is Taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court in the county in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by Court in Which Action is Pending. If a party or an officer, director, employee or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30.02 (6) or Rule 31.01 to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision 37.01 of this rule or Rule 35, the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

(a) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(b) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(c) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(d) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

(e) Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 35.01 requiring him to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that he is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

37.03 Expenses on Failure to Admit

If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any documents or the truth of any matter as requested under Rule 36, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of any such matter, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall make the order unless it finds that (1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Rule 36.01, or (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (3) the party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe that he might prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

37.04 Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers

If a party or an officer, director, employee or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30.02 (6) or Rule 31.01 to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subdivision 37.02 (2) of this rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Rule 26.03.

VI. TRIALS

JURY TRIAL OF RIGHT

38.01 Right Preserved

In actions for the recovery of money only, or of specific real or personal property, or for a divorce on the ground of adultery, the issues of fact shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury trial be waived or a reference be ordered.

38.02 Waiver

In actions arising on contract, and by permission of the court in other actions, any party thereto may waive a jury trial in the manner following:

- (1) By failing to appear at the trial;
- (2) By written consent, by the party or his attorney, filed with the clerk;
- (3) By oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.

38.03 Placing Action on Calendar

A party desiring to have an action placed on the calendar for trial shall, after issue is joined, prepare a note of issue setting forth the title of the action, whether the issue is one of fact or of law, and if an issue of fact whether it is triable by court or by jury, and the names and addresses and the telephone numbers of the respective counsel, and shall serve the same on counsel for all parties not in default and file it, with proof of service, with the clerk within 10 days after such service in all districts where but one term of court is held annually and in all other districts at least 23 days before the beginning of a general term; and thereupon the action shall be placed on the calendar for trial and shall remain thereon from term to term until tried or stricken therefrom. The party serving a note of issue shall, and any other party may, serve a note of issue upon counsel for any person who becomes a party to the action subsequent to the initial service.

RULE 39

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

39.01 By Court

Issues of fact not submitted to a jury as provided in Rule 38 shall be tried by the court.

39.02 Advisory Jury and Trial by Consent

In all actions not triable of right by a jury the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may try an issue with an advisory jury, or the court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

39.03 Preliminary Instructions in Jury Trials

After the jury has been impaneled and sworn, and before opening statements of counsel, the court may instruct the jury as to the respective claims of the parties and as to such other matters as will aid the jury in comprehending the trial procedure and sequence to be followed. Preliminary instructions may also embrace such matters as burden of proof and preponderance of evidence, the elements which the jury may consider in weighing testimony or determining credibility of witnesses, rules applicable to opinion evidence, and such other rules of law as the court may deem essential to the proper understanding of the evidence.

39.04 Opening Statements by Counsel

Before any evidence is introduced, plaintiff may make an opening statement; whereupon any other party may make an opening statement or may reserve the same until his case in chief is opened. Opening statements may be waived by any party to the action without affecting the right of any other party to make such an opening statement.

RULE 40

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL

The judges of the court may, by order or by rule of court, provide for the setting of cases for trial upon the calendar, the order in which they shall be heard and the resetting thereof.

RULE 41

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

41.01 Voluntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof

(1) By Plaintiff; by Stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23.03 and of Rule 66, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court (a) by filing a notice of dismissal not less than 10 days before the opening of the term of court at which the action is noted for trial or, in counties having continuous terms of court, not less than 10 days before the day on which the action is first set for trial, if a provisional remedy has not been allowed or a counterclaim made or other affirmative relief demanded in the answer, or (b) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court of the United States or of any state an action based on or including the same claim.

(2) By Order of Court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

41.02 Involuntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof

(1) The court may on its own motion, or upon motion of a party, and upon such notice as it may prescribe, dismiss an action or claim for failure to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the court.

(2) After the plaintiff has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. In an action tried by the court without a jury the court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in Rule 52.01.

(3) Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this rule and any dismissal not provided for in this rule or in Rule 41.01, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, for forum non conveniens or for failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

41.03 Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim, or Third-Party Claim

The provisions of Rules 41.01 and 41.02 apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim.

41.04 Costs of Previously Dismissed Action

If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

RULE 42

CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS

42.01 Consolidation

When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

42.02 Separate Trials

The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues.

RULE 43

EVIDENCE

43.01 Form and Admissibility

In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by these rules. All evidence shall be admitted which is admissible under the statutes of this state, or under the rules of evidence heretofore applied in the trials of actions in the courts of this state. In any case, the statute or rule which favors the reception of the evidence governs, and the evidence shall be presented according to the most convenient method prescribed in any of the statutes or rules to which reference is herein made. The competency of a witness to testify shall be determined in like manner.

43.02 Examination of Hostile Witnesses and Adverse Parties

A party may interrogate an unwilling or hostile witness by leading questions. A party may call an adverse party or his managing agent or employe or an officer, director, managing agent or employe of the state or any political subdivision thereof or of a public or private corporation or of a partnership or association or body politic which is an adverse party, and interrogate him by leading questions and contradict and impeach him on material matters in all respects as if he had been called by the adverse party. Where the witness is an adverse party he may be examined by his counsel upon the subject matter of his examination in chief under the rules applicable to direct examination, and may be cross-examined, contradicted and impeached by any other party adversely affected by his testimony. Where the witness is an officer, director, managing agent, or employe of the adverse party he may be cross-examined, contradicted and impeached by any party to the action.

43.03 Record of Excluded Evidence

In an action tried by a jury, if an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the court, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness. The court may require the offer to be made out of the hearing of the jury. The court may add such other or further statement as clearly shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. In actions tried without a jury the same procedure may be followed, except that the court, upon request, shall take and report the evidence in full, unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the witness is privileged.

43.04 Affirmation in Lieu of Oath

Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

23.05 Evidence and Motions

When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record, the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

43.06 Res Ipsa Loquitur

Res ipsa loquitur shall be regarded as nothing more than one form of circumstantial evidence creating a permissive inference of negligence. The plaintiff shall be given the benefit of its natural probative force existing at the close of all the evidence even though he has introduced specific evidence of negligence or made specific allegations of negligence in his pleadings.

43.07 Interpreters

The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court.

RULE 44

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

44.01 Authentication

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or any entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

44.02 Lack of Record

A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in Rule 44.01(1) in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of Rule 44.01(2) for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

44.03 Other Proof

This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

44.04 Determination of Foreign Law

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under Rule 43. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

RULE 45

SUBPOENA

45.01 For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance

Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence or tangible things, signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

45.02 For Production of Documentary Evidence

A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable or oppressive, or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

45.03 Service

A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, by his deputy, or any other person who is not a party. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person or by leaving a copy at his usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein and by tendering to him the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the state of Minnesota or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

45.04 Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination

(1) Proof of service of notice to take a deposition as provided in Rules 30.02 and 31.01 or in a state where the action is pending constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 26.02, but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Rules 26.03 and 45.04 (2).

(2) The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within 10 days after service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance if such time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to the production, inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to the production or, nor the right to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

(3) A resident of this state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of court. A nonresident of the state may be required to attend in any county of the state.

45.05 Subpoena for a Hearing or Trial

At the request of any party, the clerk of the district court shall issue subpoenas for witnesses in all civil cases pending before that court, or before any magistrate, arbitrator, board, committee, or other person authorized to examine witnesses. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the state.

45.06 Contempt

Failure to obey a subpoena without adequate excuse is a contempt of court.

RULE 46

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been taken it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him. A minute of the objection to the ruling or order shall be made by the judge or reporter.

RULE 47

JURORS

47.01 Examination of Jurors

The court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper.

47.02 Alternate Jurors

The court may direct that one or two jurors in addition to the regular panel be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors, in the order in which they are called, shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a principal juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. If one or two alternate jurors are called, each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against an alternate juror, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternates.

47.03 Separation of Jury

After the jury has retired for its deliberations, the court, in its discretion, may permit the jury to separate overnight and return to its deliberations the following morning.

RULE 48

JURIES OF LESS THAN TWELVE; MAJORITY VERDICT

The parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than 12, or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

RULE 49

SPECIAL VERDICTS AND INTERROGATORIES

49.01 Special Verdicts

(1) The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and require written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanations and instructions concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand, the court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict. Except as provided in Rule 49.01(2), neither the court nor counsel shall inform the jury of the effect of its answers on the outcome of the case.

(2) In acts involving Minn. Stat. 1971, Sec. 604.01, the court shall inform the jury of the effect of its answers to the percentage of negligence question and shall permit counsel to comment thereon, unless the court is of the opinion that doubtful or unresolved questions of law, or complex issues of law or fact are involved, which may render such instructions or comment erroneous, misleading or confusing to the jury.

49.02 General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories

The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the court shall direct the entry of the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers. When the answers are consistent with each other, but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, the court may direct the entry of judgment in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict, or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, the court shall not direct the entry of judgment, but may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict, or may order a new trial.

RULE 50

MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT; JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING VERDICT; ALTERNATIVE MOTION

50.01 Directed Verdict; When Made; Effect

A motion for a directed verdict may be made at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent or at the close of all the evidence. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent shall, after denial of the motion, have the right to offer evidence as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. If the evidence is sufficient to sustain a verdict for the opponent, the motion shall not be granted. The order of the court granting the motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.

50.02 Judgment Notwithstanding Verdict

(1) A party may move that judgment be entered notwithstanding the verdict or notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged, whether or not he has moved for a directed verdict, and the court shall grant the motion if the moving party would have been entitled to a directed verdict at the close of the evidence.

(2) A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may include in the alternative a motion for a new trial.

(3) A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict or notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged shall be made within the time specified in Rule 59 for the making of a motion for a new trial and may be made on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. On a motion for judgment notwithstanding the jury has disagreed and been discharged, the date of discharge shall be the equivalent of the date of rendition of a verdict within the meaning of that rule, but such motion must in any event be made before a retrial of the action is begun.

(4) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is granted, the court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the appellate court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the respondent on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the appellate court.

(5) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59 except that the times for serving and hearing said motion shall be determined from the date of notice of the trial court's order granting judgment notwithstanding rather than the date the verdict is returned.

(6) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, as respondent, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the appellate court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the appellate court reverses the judgment, nothing in this rule precludes it from determining that the respondent is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY; OBJECTION

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The court shall inform the counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, and such action shall be made a part of the record. The court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed except, at the discretion of the court, preliminary instructions need not be repeated. No party may assign as error unintentional misstatements and verbal errors, or omissions in the charge, unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objections. An error in the instructions with respect to fundamental law or controlling principle may be assigned in a motion for a new trial though it was not otherwise called to the attention of the court.

RULE 52

FINDINGS BY THE COURT

52.01 Effect

In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon and direct the entry of the appropriate judgment; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a referee, to the extent that the court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the court. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Rules 12 or 56 or any other motion except as provided in Rule 41.02.

52.02 Amendment

Upon motion of a party made not later than the time allowed for a motion for new trial pursuant to Rule 59.03, the court may amend its findings or make additional findings, and may amend the judgment accordingly if judgment has been entered. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial and may be made on the files, exhibits, and minutes of the court. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

RULE 53

REFEREES

53.01 Appointment and Compensation

The court in which any action is pending may appoint a referee therein. When the court shall state in its order of appointment that the reference is made necessary by press of business, the fees of the referee, as taxed and allowed by the court, shall be paid out of the county treasury, as the salaries of county officers are paid. In other cases the compensation to be allowed to a referee shall be fixed by the court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action which is in the custody and control of the court as the court may direct. The referee shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the court, the referee is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.

53.02 Reference

A reference to a referee shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matters of account, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

53.03 Powers

The order of reference to the referee may specify or limit his powers and may direct him to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the referee's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the referee has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production before him of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. He may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may himself examine them and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the referee shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Rule 43.03 for a court sitting without a jury.

53.04 Proceedings

(1) Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the referee with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the referee shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within 20 days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the referee to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and referee, may apply to the court for an order requiring the referee to speed the proceedings and to make his report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the referee may proceed ex parte or, in his discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

(2) Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the referee by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Rule 45. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, he may be punished as for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Rules 37 and 45.

(3) Statement of Accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the referee, he may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the referee may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as he directs.

53.05 Report

(1) Contents and Filing. The referee shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to him by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, he shall set them forth in the report. He shall file the report with the clerk of the court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.

(2) In Non-Jury Actions. In an action to be tried without a jury the court shall accept the referee's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the report any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the court for action upon the report and upon objections thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Rule 6.04. The court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.

(3) In Jury Actions. In an action to be tried by a jury the referee shall not be directed to report the evidence. His findings upon the issues submitted to him are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.

(4) Stipulation as to Findings. The effect of a referee's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a referee's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.

(5) Draft Report. Before filing his report, a referee may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

RULE 54
JUDGMENTS; COSTS

54.01 Definition; Form

Judgment as used in these rules includes a decree and means the final determination of the rights of the parties in an action or proceeding. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a referee, or the record of prior proceedings.

54.02 Judgment upon Multiple Claims

When multiple claims for relief or multiple parties are involved in an action, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

54.03 Demand for Judgment

A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every other judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled.

54.04 Costs

Costs and disbursements shall be allowed as provided by statute. Costs and disbursements may be taxed by the clerk on two days' notice, and inserted in the judgment. The disbursements shall be stated in detail and verified by affidavit, which shall be filed, and a copy of such statement and affidavit shall be served with the notice. The party objecting to any item shall specify in writing the ground thereof; a party aggrieved by the action of the clerk may file a notice of appeal with the clerk, who shall forthwith certify the matter to the court. The appeal shall be heard upon eight days' notice and determined upon the objections so certified.

RULE 55
DEFAULT

55.01 Judgment

When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend within the time allowed therefor by these rules or by statute, and that fact is made to appear by affidavit, judgment by default shall be entered against him as follows:

(1) When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is upon a contract for the payment of money only, or for the payment of taxes and penalties and interest thereon owing to the state, the clerk, upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due, which may not exceed the amount demanded in the complaint, shall enter judgment for the amount due and costs against the defendant.

(2) In all other cases, the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefor. If a party against whom judgment is sought has appeared in the action, he shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If the action be one for the recovery of money only, the court shall ascertain, by a reference or otherwise, the amount to which the plaintiff is entitled, and order judgment therefor.

(3) If other relief than the recovery of money be demanded and the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, be necessary to enable the court to give judgment, it may take or hear the same or order a reference for that purpose, and order judgment accordingly.

(4) When service of the summons has been made by published notice, or by delivery of a copy without the state, no judgment shall be entered on default until the plaintiff shall have filed a bond, approved by the court, conditioned to abide such order as the court may make touching the restitution of any property collected or obtained by virtue of the judgment in case a defense is thereafter permitted and sustained; provided, that in actions involving the title to real estate or to foreclose mortgages thereon such bond shall not be required.

55.02 Plaintiffs; Counterclaimants; Cross-Claimants

The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases, a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54.03.

RULE 56
SUMMARY JUDGMENT

56.01 For Claimant

A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of 20 days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

56.02 For Defending Party

A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

56.03 Motion and Proceedings Thereon

The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. Judgment shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that either party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

56.04 Case not Fully Adjudicated on Motion

If, on motion under this rule, judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall, if practicable, ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

56.05 Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required

Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions or by further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in Rule 56, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere averments or denials of his pleading but must present specific facts showing that here is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

56.06 When Affidavits are Unavailable

Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present, by affidavit, facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

56.07 Affidavits Made in Bad Faith

Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

RULE 57

DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to M.S.A. 1949, c. 553, shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury is retained under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Rules 38 and 39. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

RULE 58

ENTRY OF JUDGMENT; STAY

58.01 Entry

Unless the court otherwise directs, and subject to the provisions of Rule 54.02, judgment upon the verdict of a jury, or upon an order of the court for the recovery of money only or for costs or that all relief be denied, shall be entered forthwith by the clerk; but the court shall direct the appropriate judgment to be entered upon a special verdict or upon a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories returned by a jury pursuant to Rule 49 or upon an order of the court for relief other than money or costs. Entry of judgment shall not be delayed for the taxation of costs, and the omission of costs shall not affect the finality of the judgment. The judgment in all cases shall be entered and signed by the clerk in the judgment book; this entry constitutes the entry of the judgment; and the judgment is not effective before such entry. A copy thereof, also signed by the clerk, shall be attached to the judgment roll.

58.02 Stay

The court may order a stay of entry of judgment upon a verdict or decision for a period not exceeding the time required for the hearing and determination of a motion for new trial or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict or to set the verdict aside or to dismiss the action or for amended findings, and after such determination may order a stay of entry of judgment for not more than 30 days. In granting a stay of entry of judgment under this rule for any period exceeding thirty (30) days after verdict or decision, the court, in its discretion, may impose such conditions for the security of the adverse party as may be deemed proper.

RULE 59

NEW TRIALS

59.01 Grounds

A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following causes:

(1) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, referee, jury, or prevailing party, or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the moving party was deprived of a fair trial;

(2) Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

(3) Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;

(4) Material evidence, newly discovered, which with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at the trial;

(5) Excessive or insufficient damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;

(6) Errors of law occurring at the trial, and objected to at the time or, if no objection need have been made under Rules 46 and 51, plainly assigned in the notice of motion;

(7) The verdict, decision, or report is not justified by the evidence, or is contrary to law; but, unless it be so expressly stated in the order granting a new trial, it shall not be presumed, on appeal, to have been made on the ground that the verdict, decision, or report was not justified by the evidence.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct entry of a new judgment.

59.02 Basis of Motion

A motion made under Rule 59.01 shall be made and heard on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. Pertinent facts that would not be a part of the minutes may be shown by affidavit. A full or partial transcript of the court reporter's notes may be used on the hearing of the motion.

59.03 Time for Motion

A notice of motion for a new trial shall be served within 15 days after a general verdict or service of notice by a party of the filing of the decision or order; and the motion shall be heard within 30 days after such general verdict or notice of filing, unless the time for hearing be extended by the court within the 30 day period for good cause shown.

59.04 Time for Serving Affidavits

When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits, they shall be served with the notice of motion. The opposing party shall have 10 days after such service in which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended by the court upon an order extending the time for a hearing under Rule 59.03. The court may permit reply affidavits.

59.05 On Initiative of Court

Not later than 15 days after a general verdict or the filing of the decision or order, the court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.

59.06 Stay of Entry of Judgment

A stay of entry of judgment under Rule 58 shall not be construed to extend the time within which a party may serve a motion hereunder.

RULE 60

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

60.01 Clerical Mistakes

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected with leave of the appellate court.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1976

60.02 Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc.

On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment (other than a divorce decree), order, or proceeding and may order a new trial or grant such other relief as may be just for the following reasons: (1) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59.03; (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this Rule 60.02 does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as provided in Rule 4.043, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

RULE 61 HARMLESS ERROR

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. The court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

RULE 62 STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT

62.01 Stay on Motions

In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict made pursuant to Rule 50.02, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52.02.

62.02 Injunction Pending Appeal

When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

62.03 Stay Upon Appeal

When an appeal is taken, the appellant may obtain a stay only when authorized and in the manner provided in Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure, Rules 107 and 108.

62.04 Stay in Favor of the State or Agency Thereof

When an appeal is taken by the state or an officer or agency or governmental subdivision thereof, and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

62.05 Power of Appellate Court not Limited

The provisions in this rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

62.06 Stay of Judgment Upon Multiple Claims

When a court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all of the claims presented in the action under the conditions stated in Rule 54.02, the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefits thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

RULE 63 DISABILITY OR DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE; AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE; ASSIGNMENT OF A JUDGE

63.01 Disability of Judge

If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability a judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court under these rules after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

63.02 Interest or Bias

No judge shall sit in any cause if he be interested in its determination or if he might be excluded for bias from acting therein as a juror. If there be no other judge of the district who is qualified, or if there be only one judge of the district, such judge shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the supreme court of his disqualification.

63.03 Affidavit of Prejudice

Any party or his attorney may make and serve on the opposing party and file with the clerk an affidavit stating that, on account of prejudice or bias on the part of the judge who is to preside at the trial or at the hearing of any motion, he has good reason to believe and does believe that he cannot have a fair trial or hearing before such judge. The affidavit shall be served and filed not less than 10 days prior to the first day of a general term, or 5 days prior to a special term or a day fixed by notice of motion, at which the trial or hearing is to be had, or, in any district having two or more judges, within one day after it is ascertained which judge is to preside at the trial or hearing. Upon the filing of such affidavit, with proof of service, the clerk shall forthwith assign the cause to another judge of the same district, and if there be no other judge of the district who is qualified, or if there be only one judge of the district, he shall forthwith notify the chief justice of the supreme court.

63.04 Assignment of Judge

Upon receiving notice as provided in Rules 63.02 and 63.03, the chief justice shall assign a judge of another district, accepting such assignment, to preside at the trial or hearing, and the trial or hearing shall be postponed until the judge so assigned can be present.

VII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

RULE 64 SEIZURE OF PERSON OR PROPERTY

At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the state.

RULE 65 INJUNCTIONS

65.01 Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration

A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his attorney only if (a) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition, and (b) the applicant's attorney states to the court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give notice or the reasons supporting his claim that notice should not be required. In the event that a temporary restraining order is based upon any affidavit, a copy of such affidavit must be served with the temporary restraining order. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a temporary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest practicable time and shall take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a temporary injunction, and, if he does not do so, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On written or oral notice to the party who obtained the ex parte temporary restraining order, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification, and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

65.02 Temporary Injunction

(1) No temporary injunction shall be granted without notice of motion or an order to show cause to the adverse party.

(2) A temporary injunction may be granted if by affidavit, deposition testimony, or oral testimony in court, it appears that sufficient grounds exist therefor.

(3) Before or after the commencement of the hearing of a motion for a temporary injunction, the court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing on the motion. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon a motion for a temporary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subdivision shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

65.03 Security

(1) No temporary restraining order or temporary injunction shall be granted except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained.

(2) Whenever security is given in the form of a bond or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as his agent upon whom any papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

RULE 66 RECEIVERS

An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the court. A foreign receiver shall have capacity to sue in any district court, but his rights are subordinate to those of local creditors. The practice in the administration of estates by the court shall be in accordance with M.S.A. 1949, c. 576, and with the practice heretofore followed in the courts of this state or as provided in rules promulgated by the district courts. In all other respects, the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules.

RULE 67 DEPOSIT IN COURT

67.01 In an Action

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing.

67.02 When no Action is Brought

When money or other personal property in the possession of any person, as bailee or otherwise, is claimed adversely by two or more other persons, and the right thereto as between such claimants is in doubt, the person so in possession, though no action be commenced against him by any of the claimants, may place the property in the custody of the court. He shall apply to the court of the county in which the property is situated, setting forth by petition the facts which bring the case within the provisions of this section, and the names and places of residence of all known claimants of such property. If satisfied of the truth of such showing, the court, by order, shall accept custody of the money or other property, and direct that upon delivery, and upon giving notice thereof to all persons interested, personally or by registered mail, as in such order prescribed, the petitioner be relieved from further liability on account thereof. This rule shall apply to cases where property held under like conditions is garnished in the hands of the possessor; but in such cases the application shall be made to the court in which the garnishment proceedings are pending.

67.03 Court May Order Deposit or Seizure of Property

When it is admitted by the pleading or examination of a party that he has in his possession or control any money or other thing capable of delivery which, being the subject of the litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same to be deposited in court or delivered to such other party, with or without security, subject to further direction. If such order be disobeyed, the court may punish the disobedience as a contempt, and may also require the sheriff or other proper officer to take the money or property and deposit or deliver it in accordance with the direction given.

67.04 Money Paid Into Court

Where money is paid into the court to abide the result of any legal proceedings, the judge may order it deposited in a designated state or national bank or savings bank. In the absence of such order, the clerk of court is the official custodian of all moneys, and the judge, on application of any person paying such money into court, may require the clerk to give an additional bond, with like condition as the bond provided for in M.S.A. 1949, § 485.01, in such sum as the judge shall order.

RULE 68 OFFER OF JUDGMENT; TENDER OF MONEY IN LIEU OF JUDGMENT

68.01 Offer of Judgment

At any time more than one day before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property, or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs and disbursements then accrued. If before trial the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine costs and disbursements. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs and disbursements incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

68.02 Tender of Money in Lieu of Judgment

If the action be for the recovery of money, instead of the offer of judgment provided for in Rule 68.01, the defendant may tender to the plaintiff the full amount to which he is entitled, together with costs and disbursements then accrued. If such tender be not accepted, the plaintiff shall have no costs and disbursements unless he recover more than the sum tendered; and the defendant's costs and disbursements shall be deducted from the recovery, or, if they exceed the recovery, he shall have judgment for the excess. The fact of such tender having been made shall not be pleaded or given in evidence.

RULE 69 EXECUTION

Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the court directs otherwise. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of execution shall be in accordance with Minnesota Statutes 1971, Chapter 550. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor, or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules.

RULE 70 JUDGMENT FOR SPECIFIC ACTS; VESTING TITLE

If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the court, and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the state, the court in lieu of directing a conveyance thereof may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others; and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution upon application to the clerk.

6811 APPENDIX 8. RULES, CIVIL PROCEDURE, DISTRICT COURT

RULE 71 PROCESS IN BEHALF OF AND AGAINST PERSONS NOT PARTIES

When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he were a party.

IX. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS RULE 77 DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

77.01 District Courts Always Open
The district courts shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading or other proper paper, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, and rules.

77.02 Trials and Hearings; Orders in Chambers
All trials upon the merits shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular courtroom. All other acts or proceedings may be done or conducted by a judge in chambers, without the attendance of the clerk or other court officials and at any place either within or without the district; but no hearing, other than one ex parte, shall be conducted outside the district without the consent of all parties affected thereby.

77.03 Clerk's Office and Orders by Clerk
All motions and applications in the clerk's office for issuing mesne process, for issuing final process to enforce and execute judgments, for entering judgments by default, and for other proceedings which do not require allowance or order of the court are grantable of course by the clerk; but his action may be suspended or altered or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

77.04 Notice of Orders or Judgments
Immediately upon the filing of an order or decision or entry of a judgment, the clerk shall serve a notice of the filing or entry by mail upon every party affected thereby or his attorney of record, whether or not such party has appeared in the action, at his last known address, and shall make a note in his records of the mailing, but such notice shall not limit the time for taking an appeal or other proceeding on such order, decision or judgment.

(Note: Numbers 78 and 79 are reserved for future use.)

RULE 80 STENOGRAPHIC REPORT OR TRANSCRIPT AS EVIDENCE

Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was stenographically reported is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by a reading of the transcript thereof duly certified by the person who reported the testimony. Such evidence is rebuttable and not conclusive.

RULE 81 APPLICABILITY; IN GENERAL

81.01 Statutory and Other Procedures
(1) Procedures Preserved. These rules do not govern pleadings, practice and procedure in the statutory and other proceedings listed in Appendix A insofar as they are inconsistent or in conflict with the rules.

(2) Procedures Abolished. The writ of quo warranto and information in the nature of quo warranto are abolished. The relief heretofore available thereby may be obtained by appropriate action or appropriate motion under the practice prescribed in these rules.

(3) Statutes Superseded. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this rule, the statutes listed in Appendix B and all other statutes inconsistent or in conflict with these rules are superseded insofar as they apply to pleading, practice and procedure in the district court.

81.02 Appeals to District Courts
These rules do not supersede the provisions of statutes relating to appeals to the district courts.

81.03 Rules Incorporated into Statutes
Where any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, whether or not listed in Appendix A, provides that any act in a civil proceeding shall be done in the manner provided by law, such act shall be done in accordance with these rules.

RULE 82 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the district courts of Minnesota or the venue of actions therein.

RULE 83 RULES BY DISTRICT COURTS

These rules will take effect on January 1, 1952. They govern all proceedings and actions brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies.

86.02 Effective Date of Amendments
The amendments adopted on November 10, 1967, will take effect on February 1, 1968. They govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except as to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the amendments take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure applies.

C. D. and E. F., Defendants

1. Defendant C. D. on or about executed and delivered to plaintiff a promissory note [in the following words and figures: (here set out the note verbatim)]; (a copy of which is hereto annexed as Exhibit A); (whereby defendant C. D. promised to pay to plaintiff or order on the sum of five thousand dollars with interest thereon at the rate of percent per annum).

2. Defendant C. D. owes to plaintiff the amount of said note and interest.

3. Defendant C. D. on or about conveyed all his property, real and personal (or specify and describe) to defendant E. F. for the purpose of defrauding plaintiff and hindering and delaying the collection of the indebtedness evidenced by the note above referred to.

Wherefore plaintiff demands:
(1) That plaintiff have judgment against defendant C. D. for five thousand dollars and interest; (2) that the aforesaid conveyance to defendant E. F. be declared void and the judgment herein be declared a lien on said property; (3) that plaintiff have judgment against the defendants for costs and disbursements.

Form 13 COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER AND DECLARATORY RELIEF

1. On or about June 1, 1948, plaintiff issued to G. H. a policy of life insurance whereby plaintiff promised to pay to K. L. as beneficiary the sum of ten thousand dollars upon the death of G. H. The policy required the payment by G. H. of a stipulated premium on June 1, 1948, and annually thereafter as a condition precedent to its continuance in force.

2. No part of the premium due June 1, 1948, was ever paid and the policy ceased to have any force or effect on July 1, 1948.

3. Thereafter, on September 1, 1948, G. H. and K. L. died as the result of a collision between a locomotive and the automobile in which G. H. and K. L. were riding.

4. Defendant C. D. is the duly appointed and acting executor of the will of G. H.; defendant E. F. is the duly appointed and acting executor of the will of K. L.; defendant X. Y. claims to have been duly designated as beneficiary of said policy in place of K. L.

5. Each of defendants, C. D., E. F., and X. Y., is claiming that the above-mentioned policy was in full force and effect at the time of the death of G. H.; each of them is claiming to be the only person entitled to receive payment of the amount of the policy and has made demand for payment thereof.

6. By reason of these conflicting claims of the defendants, plaintiff is in great doubt as to which defendant is entitled to be paid the amount of the policy, if it was in force at the death of G. H.

Wherefore plaintiff demands that the court adjudge:

(1) That none of the defendants is entitled to recover from plaintiff the amount of said policy or any part thereof.

(2) That each of the defendants be restrained from instituting any action against plaintiff for the recovery of the amount of said policy or any part thereof.

(3) That, if the court shall determine that said policy was in force at the death of G. H., the defendants be required to interplead and settle between themselves their rights to the money due under said policy, and that plaintiff be discharged from all liability in the premises except to the person whom the court shall adjudge entitled to the amount of said policy.

(4) That plaintiff recover its costs and disbursements.

Form 14 MOTION TO DISMISS, PRESENTING DEFENSES OF FAILURE TO STATE A CLAIM, OF LACK OF SERVICE OF PROCESS, AND OF LACK OF JURISDICTION UNDER RULE 12.02

The defendant moves the court as follows:

1. To dismiss the action because the complaint fails to state a claim against defendant upon which relief can be granted.

2. To dismiss the action or in lieu thereof to quash the return of service of summons on the grounds: (Here state reasons, such as, (a) that the defendant is a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware and was not and is not subject to service of process within the State of Minnesota; (b) that the defendant has not been properly served with process in this action, all of which more clearly appears in the affidavits of M. N. and X. Y. hereto annexed as Exhibit A and Exhibit B respectively).

3. To dismiss the action on the ground that the court lacks jurisdiction (no justiciable controversy is presented, or as the case may be).

RULE 1
SCOPE, APPLICATION, GENERAL PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

1.01 Scope and Application.
These rules govern the procedure in prosecutions for felonies, gross misdemeanors, misdemeanors, and petty misdemeanors in the municipal, county and district courts in the State of Minnesota. Except where expressly provided otherwise, misdemeanors as referred to in these rules shall include state statutes, local ordinances, charter provisions, rules, or regulations punishable either alone or alternatively by a fine or by imprisonment of not more than 90 days.

The term "County Court" as used in these rules shall include a Municipal Court, except where expressly stated otherwise.

1.02 Purpose and Construction.
These rules are intended to provide for the just, speedy determination of criminal proceedings. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration, and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay.

COMPLAINT

2.01 Contents: Before Whom Made.
The complaint is a written signed statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged.

Except as provided in Rules 11.06 and 15.08, it shall be made upon oath before such judge, judicial officer, or justice of the peace as may be authorized by law to issue criminal process upon the offense charged in the complaint. Provided, however, when authorized by court rule, the oath may be made before the clerk or deputy clerk of court when the offense alleged to have been committed is punishable by fine only.

Except as provided in Rules 11.06 and 15.08, the facts establishing probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed it shall be set forth separately in writing in or with the complaint, or in supporting affidavits, and may be supplemented by sworn testimony of witnesses taken before the issuing officer. If such testimony is taken, a note so stating shall be made on the face of the complaint by the issuing officer. The testimony shall be recorded by a reporter or recording instrument and shall be transcribed and filed.

2.02 Approval of Prosecuting Attorney.
A complaint shall not be filed or process issued thereon without the written approval, endorsed on the complaint, of the prosecuting attorney authorized to prosecute the offense charged, unless such judge or judicial officer as may be authorized by law to issue process upon the offense certifies on the complaint that the prosecuting attorney is unavailable and the filing of the complaint and issuance of process thereon should not be delayed.

RULE 3
WARRANT OR SUMMONS UPON COMPLAINT

3.01 Issuance.
If it appears from the facts set forth separately in writing in or with the complaint and any supporting affidavits or supplemental sworn testimony that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed it, a warrant for the arrest of the defendant shall be issued to any person authorized by law to execute it, or a summons for the appearance of the defendant shall issue in lieu thereof.

The warrant or summons shall be issued by such judge, judicial officer or justice of the peace as may be authorized by law to issue criminal process upon the offense charged in the complaint or indictment. Provided that when the offense is punishable by fine only, the clerk or deputy clerk of court may also issue the summons when authorized by court rule.

When the offense is punishable by fine only, in misdemeanor cases, a summons shall be issued in lieu of a warrant.

For all other misdemeanors, a summons shall be issued rather than a warrant unless it reasonably appears that there is a substantial likelihood that the defendant will fail to respond to a summons, or the whereabouts of the defendant is unknown, or the arrest of the defendant is necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to himself or another.

The issuing officer may issue a summons instead of a warrant whenever he is satisfied that a warrant is unnecessary to secure the appearance of the defendant, and shall issue a summons whenever requested to do so by the prosecuting attorney authorized to prosecute the offense charged in the complaint.

If a defendant fails to appear in response to a summons, a warrant shall issue.

If a defendant corporation charged with a felony or gross misdemeanor fails to appear in response to a summons, the case shall be transferred to the district court for further proceedings.

3.02 Contents of Warrant or Summons.

Subd. 1 Warrant. The warrant shall be signed by the issuing officer and shall contain the name of the defendant, or, if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged in the complaint, and the warrant and complaint may be combined in one form. For felonies and gross misdemeanors the amount of bail and other conditions of release may be set by the issuing officer and endorsed on the warrant. For misdemeanors, the amount of bail shall and other conditions of release may be set by the issuing officer and endorsed on the warrant.

Subd. 2. Directions of Warrant.

The warrant shall direct as follows:

(1) Issuance By County or Municipal Court.

When the warrant is issued by a county or municipal court, that the defendant be brought promptly before the court that issued the warrant if it is in session.

(2) Issuance by Justice of Peace.

When the warrant is issued by a justice of the peace, that the defendant be brought promptly before a county or municipal court in the county where the alleged offense was committed if such court is in session.

(3) Available Judge or Judicial Officer.

If the county or municipal court specified in Rule 3.02, subd. 2 (1) or (2) is not in session, that the defendant be brought before a judge or judicial officer of such court, without unnecessary delay, and in any event not later than 36 hours after the arrest, or as soon thereafter as such judge or judicial officer is available.

Subd. 3 Summons. The summons shall summon the defendant to appear at a stated time and place to answer the complaint before the court issuing it and shall be accompanied by a copy of the complaint. If the summons is issued by a justice of the peace it shall summon the defendant to appear before the county court or a municipal court in the county where the alleged offense was committed.

3.03 Execution or Service of Warrant or Summons: Certification.

Subd. 1 By Whom. The warrant shall be executed by an officer authorized by law. The summons may be served by any officer authorized to serve a warrant, and if served by mail, it may also be served by the clerk of the court from which it is issued.

Subd. 2 Territorial Limits. The warrant may be executed or the summons may be served at any place within the State except where prohibited by law.

Subd. 3 Manner. The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. If the offense charged is a misdemeanor the defendant shall not be arrested on Sunday, or on a legal holiday, or between the hours of 9:00 o'clock p.m. and 9:00 o'clock a.m. on any other day unless the offense is punishable by incarceration, and then only by direction of the issuing officer, endorsed on the warrant when exigent circumstances exist. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, but shall inform the defendant of the existence of the warrant and of the charge against him.

The summons shall be served on an individual defendant by delivering a copy to him personally or by leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein or by mailing it to the defendant's last known address. A summons directed to a corporation shall be issued and served in the manner prescribed by law for service of summons on corporations in civil actions or by mail addressed to the corporation at its principal place of business or to an agent designated by the corporation to receive service of process.

Subd. 4 Certification: Unexecuted Warrant or Summons. The officer executing the warrant shall certify the execution thereof to the court before which the defendant is brought.

On or before the date set for appearance the officer or clerk of court to whom a summons was delivered for service shall certify the service thereof to the court before which the defendant was summoned to appear.

At the request of the prosecuting attorney made at any time while the complaint is pending, a warrant returned unexecuted or a summons returned unexecuted or a duplicate thereof may be delivered by the issuing officer to any authorized officer or person for execution or service.

3.04 Defective Warrant, Summons or Complaint.

Subd. 1 Amendment. A person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall not be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any defect in form in the warrant or summons, if the warrant or summons is amended so as to remedy the defect.

Subd. 2 Issuance of New Complaint, Warrant or Summons. During pre-trial proceedings affecting any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons issued upon a complaint, the proceedings may be continued to permit a new complaint to be filed and a new warrant or summons issued thereon, provided the prosecuting attorney promptly moves for such continuance on the ground:

- (a) that the initial complaint does not properly name or describe the defendant or the offense with which he is charged; or
- (b) that on the basis of the evidence presented at the proceeding it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a different offense from that charged in the complaint and that he intends to charge the defendant with such offense.

If the proceedings are continued, the new complaint shall be filed and process issued thereon as soon as possible. In misdemeanor cases, if the defendant during the continuance is unable to post any bail which might be required under Rule 6.02, subd. 1, then he must be released subject to such non-monetary conditions as deemed necessary by the court under that Rule.

RULE 4

PROCEDURE UPON ARREST UNDER WARRANT

FOLLOWING A COMPLAINT OR WITHOUT A WARRANT

4.01 Arrest Under Warrant.

A defendant arrested under a warrant issued upon a complaint shall be taken before a court, judge or judicial officer as directed in the warrant.

4.02 Arrest Without a Warrant.

Following an arrest without a warrant:

Subd. 1 Release by Arresting Officer. If the arresting officer or his superior determines that further detention is not justified, such officer or his superior shall immediately release the arrested person from custody.

Subd. 2 Citation. The arresting officer or his superior may issue a citation to and release the arrested person as provided by these rules, and must do so if so ordered by the prosecuting attorney or by a judge or judicial officer of the county court of the county where the alleged offense occurred or by a judge of a municipal court in such county or by any person designated by the court to perform that function.

Subd. 3 Notice to Prosecuting Attorney. As soon as practical after the arrest, the arresting officer or his superior shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the arrest.

Subd. 4 Release by Prosecuting Attorney. The prosecuting attorney may order the arrested person released from custody.

Subd. 5 Appearance Before Judge or Judicial Officer.

(1) Before Whom and When.

If an arrested person is not released pursuant to this rule or Rule 6, he shall be brought before the nearest available judge of the county court of the county where the alleged offense occurred or judicial officer of such court or judge of a municipal court in such county. He shall be brought before such judge or judicial officer without unnecessary delay, and in any event, not more than 36 hours after the arrest, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, or as soon thereafter as such judge or judicial officer is available. Provided, however, in misdemeanor cases, if the defendant is not brought before a judge or judicial officer within the 36-hour limit, he shall be released upon citation as provided in Rule 6.01, subd. 2.

(2) Complaint Filed; Order of Detention; Felonies and Gross Misdemeanors.

At or before the time of the defendant's appearance as required by Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (1), a complaint shall be presented to the judge or judicial officer referred to in rule 4.02, subd. 5 (1) or to any judge or judicial officer authorized to issue criminal process upon the offense charged in the complaint. The complaint shall be filed forthwith and an order for detention of the defendant may be issued, provided (1) the complaint contains the written approval of the prosecuting attorney or the certificate of the judge or judicial officer as provided by Rule 2.02; and (2) the judge or judicial officer determines from the facts set forth separately in writing in or with the complaint and any supporting affidavits or supplemental sworn testimony that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that defendant committed it. Otherwise, the defendant shall be discharged, the complaint and any supporting papers shall not be filed, and no record made of the proceedings.

(3) Complaint or Tab Charge; Misdemeanors.

If there is no complaint made and filed by the time of the defendant's first appearance in court as required by this rule for a misdemeanor charge, the clerk shall enter upon the records a brief statement of the offense charged, including a citation of the statute, rule, regulation, ordinance or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged to have violated. This brief statement shall be the complaint and is referred to as a tab charge in these rules. However, if the judge orders, or if requested by the person charged or his attorney, a formal complaint shall be made and filed. Such formal complaint shall be made and filed within 48 hours after the demand therefore, if the defendant is in custody or within thirty (30) days of such demand if the defendant is not in custody. If no valid complaint has been made and filed within the time required by this rule, the defendant shall be discharged, the proposed complaint, if any, and any supporting papers shall not be filed, and no record shall be made of the proceedings. A complaint is valid when it (1) complies with the requirements of Rule 2, and (2) the judge has determined from the complaint and any supporting affidavits or supplemental sworn testimony that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed. Upon the filing of a valid complaint, the defendant shall be arraigned. When a charge has been dismissed for failure to file a valid complaint and a valid complaint is thereafter filed, a warrant shall not be issued on that complaint unless a summons has been issued first and either could not be served, or, if served, the defendant failed to appear in response thereto.

RULE 5

PROCEDURE ON FIRST APPEARANCE

5.01 Statement to the Defendant.

When a defendant arrested with or without a warrant or served with a summons or citation appears initially before a judge or judicial officer, he shall be advised of the nature of the charge against him. If the defendant has not previously received a copy of the complaint, if any, and supporting affidavits and the transcription of any supplementary testimony, he shall be provided with copies thereof. Upon motion of the prosecuting authority, the court may require that the defendant be booked, photographed and fingerprinted. In cases of felonies and gross misdemeanors, the defendant shall not be called upon to plead.

The judge or judicial officer shall advise the defendant substantially as follows:

- (a) That he is not required to say anything or submit to interrogation and that anything he says may be used against him in this or in any subsequent proceedings;
- (b) That he has a right to counsel in all subsequent proceedings, including police line-ups and interrogations, and if he appears without counsel and is financially unable to afford counsel, that counsel will forthwith be appointed without cost to him if he is charged with an offense punishable upon conviction by incarceration;
- (c) That he has a right to communicate with his counsel and that a continuance will be granted if necessary to enable defendant to obtain or speak to counsel;
- (d) Whether he has a right to a jury trial or a trial to the court;
- (e) That if the offense is a misdemeanor, he may either plead guilty or not guilty, or demand a complaint prior to entering a plea.

In misdemeanor cases, the judge or judicial officer may advise a number of defendants at once of these rights, but each defendant shall be asked individually before he is arraigned whether he heard and understood these rights as explained earlier.

5.02 Appointment of Counsel.

Subd. 1 Felonies and Gross Misdemeanors. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and is financially unable to afford counsel, the judge or judicial officer shall appoint counsel for him.

Subd. 2 Misdemeanors. Unless the defendant charged with a misdemeanor punishable upon conviction by incarceration voluntarily waives counsel in writing or on the record, the court shall appoint counsel for him if he appears without counsel and is financially unable to afford counsel. The court shall not accept the waiver unless the court is satisfied that it is voluntary and has been made by the defendant with full knowledge and understanding of his rights. If the court is not so satisfied, it shall not proceed until the defendant is provided with counsel either of his own choosing or by assignment.

Notwithstanding the waiver, the court may designate counsel to be available to assist a defendant who cannot afford counsel and to consult with him at all stages of the proceedings.

A defendant who proceeds at the arraignment without counsel does not waive his future right to counsel and the court must inform him that he continues to have that right at all stages of the proceeding. Provided that for misdemeanor offenses not punishable upon conviction by incarceration, the court upon request of the defendant or interested counsel may appoint an attorney for a defendant financially unable to afford counsel.

Subd. 3 Standard of Indigency. A defendant is financially unable to obtain counsel if he is financially unable to obtain adequate representation without substantial hardship for himself or his family.

Subd. 4 Financial Inquiry. An inquiry to determine financial eligibility of a defendant for the appointment of counsel shall be made whenever possible prior to the court appearance and by such persons as the court may direct. This inquiry may be combined with the pre-release investigation provided for in Rule 6.02, subd. 3.

Subd. 5 Partial Eligibility and Reimbursement. The ability to pay part of the cost of adequate representation at any time while the charges are pending against a defendant shall not preclude the appointment of counsel for the defendant. The court may require a defendant, to the extent of his ability, to compensate the governmental unit charged with paying the expense of appointed counsel.

5.03 Date of Appearance in District Court.

If the defendant is charged with a felony or gross misdemeanor, the judge or judicial officer shall set a date for and order the appearance of the defendant before the district court having jurisdiction to try the offense charged in accordance with a schedule or other directive established by order of the district court, which appearance date shall not be later than ten (10) days after defendant's initial appearance before such judge or judicial officer.

The defendant shall be informed of the time and place of such appearance. The time for appearance may be extended by the district court for good cause.

5.04 Plea in Misdemeanor Cases.

Subd. 1 Entry of Plea. If no complaint has been issued against the defendant, he shall be asked whether he wishes to exercise or waive his right to a complaint pursuant to Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (3). When a valid complaint has been made and filed, or a brief statement entered on the record as authorized under Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (3), the defendant shall be called upon to plead or be given time to plead. The arraignment shall be conducted in open court. A defendant may appear by counsel and a corporation shall appear by counsel or by a duly authorized officer.

Subd. 2 Guilty Plea; Offenses From Other Jurisdictions. If he enters a plea of guilty, the presentencing and sentencing procedures provided by these rules shall be followed. Following a plea of guilty, the defendant may be permitted upon his or his attorney's request, to plead guilty to other misdemeanor offenses committed within the jurisdiction of other county courts in the state provided that such plea has been approved by the prosecuting attorney of the governmental unit in which the offenses are or could be charged. Prior to the acceptance of such a plea, the defendant shall be tab charged with the offense pursuant to Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (3). Entry of such a plea constitutes a waiver of venue.

Any fines imposed and collected upon a guilty plea entered under this rule to an offense arising in another jurisdiction shall be remitted by the clerk of the court imposing the fine to the clerk of the court which originally had jurisdiction over the offense. The clerk of the court of original jurisdiction upon receiving the remittance shall disburse it as required by law for all other similar fines.

Subd. 3 Not Guilty Plea and Jury Trial. If the defendant enters a plea of not guilty to a charge on which he is entitled to a jury trial, he shall be asked whether he wishes to exercise or waive that right. The defendant may waive jury trial either personally in writing or orally on the record in open court. If the defendant fails to waive or demand a jury trial, a jury trial demand shall be entered in the record.

Subd. 4 Demand or Waiver of Evidentiary Hearing. If the defendant pleads not guilty and a notice of evidence and identification procedures has been given by the prosecution as required by Rule 7.01, the defendant and the prosecution shall each either waive or demand an evidentiary hearing as provided by Rule 12.04. Such demand or waiver may be made either orally on the record or in writing and shall be made at the first court appearance after the notice has been given by the prosecution.

Subd. 5 Special Appearances Abolished. Special appearances are abolished and any challenge to the personal jurisdiction of the court shall be decided as provided in Rule 10.02.

5.05 Bail or Release.

The judge or judicial officer shall set and advise the defendant of the conditions under which he may be released under these rules for appearance.

5.06 Record.

Minutes of the proceedings shall be kept unless the judge or judicial officer directs that a verbatim record thereof shall be made, and provided that any plea of guilty to an offense punishable by incarceration shall comply with the requirements of Rule 13.05 and Rule 15.09.

5.07 Transmission to District Court.

If the defendant is charged with a felony or gross misdemeanor, the record and all papers in the proceeding shall be transmitted to the clerk of the district court having jurisdiction to try the offense charged in the complaint.

RULE 6

PRE-TRIAL RELEASE

6.01 Release on Citation by Law Enforcement Officer Acting Without a Warrant.

Subd. 1 Mandatory Issuance of Citation.

(1) For Misdemeanors.

(a) By Arresting Officers. Law enforcement officers acting without a warrant, who have decided to proceed with prosecution, shall issue citations to persons subject to lawful arrest for misdemeanors, unless it reasonably appears to the officer that arrest or detention is necessary to prevent bodily harm to the accused or another or further criminal conduct, or that there is a substantial likelihood that the accused will fail to respond to a citation. The citation may be issued in lieu of an arrest, or if an arrest has been made, in lieu of continued detention. If the defendant is detained, the officer shall report to the court the reasons for the detention. Ordinarily, for misdemeanors not punishable by incarceration, a citation shall be issued if the accused signs the citation agreeing to appear as provided in Rule 6.01, subd. 3.

(b) At Place of Detention. When a person arrested without a warrant for a misdemeanor or misdemeanors, is brought to a police station or county jail, the officer in charge of the police station or the county sheriff in charge of the jail or an officer designated by the sheriff shall issue a citation in lieu of continued detention unless it reasonably appears to the officer that detention is necessary to prevent bodily harm to the accused or another or further criminal conduct or that there is a substantial likelihood that the accused will fail to respond to a citation. If the defendant is detained, the officer in charge shall report to the court the reasons for the detention. Provided, however, that for misdemeanors not punishable by incarceration, a citation shall be issued if the accused signs the citation agreeing to appear as provided in Rule 6.01, subd. 3.

(2) For Misdemeanors, Gross Misdemeanors and Felonies When Ordered by Prosecuting Attorney or Judge.

An arresting officer acting without a warrant or the officer in charge of a police station or other authorized place of detention to which a person arrested without a warrant has been brought shall issue a citation in lieu of continued detention if so ordered by the prosecuting attorney or by the judge of a district, county or municipal court or by any person designated by the court to perform that function.

Subd. 2 Permissive Authority to Issue Citations for Gross Misdemeanors and Felonies. When a law enforcement officer acting without a warrant is entitled to make an arrest for a felony or gross misdemeanor or a person arrested without a warrant for a felony or gross misdemeanor is brought to a police station or county jail, the officer in charge of the police station or the county sheriff in charge of the jail or an officer designated by the sheriff may issue a citation in lieu of arrest or in lieu of continued detention if an arrest has been made, unless it reasonably appears to the officer that arrest or detention is necessary to prevent bodily harm to the accused or another or further criminal conduct or that the accused may fail to appear in response to the citation.

Subd. 3 Form of Citation. A citation shall direct the accused person to appear before a designated court or violations bureau at a specified time and place, and need not be issued if the accused refuses to sign the citation promising to appear at that time and place. The citation shall state that if the defendant fails to appear in response to the citation, a warrant of arrest may issue.

Subd. 4 Lawful Searches. The issuance of a citation does not affect a law enforcement officer's authority to conduct an otherwise lawful search.

Subd. 5 Persons in Need of Care. Notwithstanding the issuance of a citation, a law enforcement officer may take the cited person to an appropriate medical facility if he appears mentally or physically unable to care for himself.

6.02 Release by Judge, Judicial Officer or Court.

Subd. 1 Conditions of Release. Any person charged with an offense shall be released without bail pending his first court appearance when ordered by the prosecuting attorney, the judge of a district or county court, or by any person designated by the court to perform that function. At his appearance before a judge, judicial officer, or court, a person so charged shall be ordered released pending trial or hearing on his personal recognizance or on order to appear or upon the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount, unless the court, judge or judicial officer determines, in the exercise of his discretion, that such a release will be inimical of public safety or will not reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required. When such a determination is made, the court, judge or judicial officer shall, either in lieu of or in addition to the above methods of release, impose the first of the following conditions of release which will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for trial or hearing, or when otherwise required, or, if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

- (a) Place the person in the care and supervision of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;
- (b) Place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode during his period of release;
- (c) Require the execution of an appearance bond in an amount set by the court with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash or other sufficient security in lieu thereof; or
- (d) Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required, including a condition requiring that the person return to custody after specified hours.

In any event, the court shall also fix the amount of money bail without other conditions upon which the defendant may obtain his release.

The defendant's release shall be conditioned on his appearance at trial or hearing, including the Omnibus Hearing, evidentiary hearing and the pretrial conference prescribed by these rules, or at the taking of any deposition that may be ordered by the court.

Subd. 2 Determining Factors. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure such appearance, the judge, judicial officer or court shall on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the weight of the evidence against the accused, the accused's family ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of his residence in the community, his record of convictions, his record of appearance at court proceedings or flight to avoid prosecution, and the safety of any other person or of the community.

Subd. 3 Pre-Release Investigation. In order to acquire the information required for determining the conditions of release, an investigation into the accused's background may be made prior to or contemporaneously with the defendant's appearance before the court, judge or judicial officer. The court's probation service or other qualified facility available to the court may be directed to conduct the investigation. Any information obtained from the defendant in response to an inquiry during the course of the investigation and any evidence derived from such information, shall not be used against the defendant at trial. This shall not preclude the use of evidence obtained by other independent investigation.

Subd. 4 Review of Conditions of Release. Upon motion, the court before which the case is pending shall review the conditions of release.

6.03 Violation of Conditions of Release.

Subd. 1 Warrant. Upon an application of the prosecuting attorney alleging that a defendant has violated the conditions of his release, the judge, judicial officer or court that released the defendant may issue a warrant directing that the defendant be arrested and taken forthwith before such judge, judicial officer or court. A summons directing the defendant to appear before such judge, judicial officer or court at a specified time shall be issued instead of a warrant unless it reasonably appears that there is a substantial likelihood that the defendant will fail to respond to the summons or when the whereabouts of the defendant is unknown.

Subd. 2 Arrest Without Warrant. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a released defendant has violated the conditions of his release may, if it is impracticable to secure a warrant or summons as provided in this rule, arrest the defendant and take him forthwith before such judge, judicial officer or court. In a misdemeanor case, a citation shall be issued in lieu of an arrest or continued detention unless it reasonably appears that the arrest or detention is necessary to prevent bodily harm to the accused or another or to prevent further criminal conduct, or that there is a substantial likelihood that the defendant will fail to respond to the citation.

Subd. 3 Hearing. After hearing and upon finding that the defendant has violated conditions imposed on his release, the judge, judicial officer or court shall continue the release upon the same conditions or impose different or additional conditions for defendant's possible release as provided for in Rule 6.02, subd. 1.

Subd. 4 Commission of Crime. When it is shown that a complaint has been filed or indictment returned charging a defendant with the commission of a crime while released pending adjudication of a prior charge, the court with jurisdiction over the prior charge may, after notice and hearing, review and revise the conditions of his possible release as provided for in Rule 6.02, subd. 1.

6.04 Forfeiture.

The procedure for forfeiture of an appearance bond shall be as provided by the law.

6.05 Supervision of Detention.

The trial court shall exercise supervision over the detention of defendants within the court's jurisdiction for the purpose of eliminating all unnecessary detention. The officer in charge of a detention facility shall make at least bi-weekly reports to the prosecuting attorney and to the court having jurisdiction over the prisoners listing each defendant who has been held in custody pending criminal charges, arraignment, trial, sentence or revocation of probation or parole for a period in excess of ten (10) days in felony and gross misdemeanor cases, and in excess of two (2) days in misdemeanor cases.

6.06 Trial Date in Misdemeanor Cases.

A defendant shall be tried as soon as possible after entry of a not guilty plea. On demand made in writing or orally on the record by the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the defendant shall be tried within sixty (60) days from the date of the demand unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or defendant why he should not be brought to trial within that period. The time period shall not begin to run earlier than the date of the not guilty plea. Where the defendant is in custody, he shall be tried within ten (10) days of his demand and if not so tried, he shall be released subject to such non-monetary release conditions as may be required by the court under Rule 6.02, subd. 1.

RULE 7

NOTICE BY PROSECUTING ATTORNEY OF EVIDENCE AND IDENTIFICATION PROCEDURES; COMPLETION OF DISCOVERY

7.01 Notice of Evidence and Identification Procedures.

In any case where a jury trial is to be held, when the prosecution has (1) any evidence against the defendant obtained as a result of a search, search and seizure, wiretapping, or any form of electronic or mechanical eavesdropping; (2) any confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant; (3) any evidence against the defendant discovered as the result of confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant; or (4) when in the investigation of the case against the defendant, any identification procedures were followed, including but not limited to lineups or other observations of the defendant and the exhibition of photographs of the defendant or of any other persons. The prosecuting attorney shall notify the defendant or his counsel in writing of such evidence and identification procedures. In felony and gross misdemeanor cases notice shall be given on or before the date set for the defendant's initial appearance in the district court as provided by Rule 5.03. In misdemeanor cases, notice shall be given on or before the date set for the defendant's pretrial conference if one is scheduled or seven (7) days before trial if no pretrial conference is to be held.

Such notice may be given either personally or by ordinary mail to the defendant's or his counsel's last known residential or business address or by leaving it at such address with a person of suitable age and discretion then residing or working there.

7.02 Notice of Additional Offense.

The prosecuting attorney shall notify the defendant or his counsel in writing of any additional offenses the evidence of which may be offered at the trial under any exceptions to the general exclusionary rule. In cases of felonies and gross misdemeanors, the notice shall be given at the Omnibus Hearing under Rule 11 or as soon thereafter as the offenses become known to the prosecuting attorney. Except as otherwise provided as to matters not subject to discovery or covered by protective orders, neither the counsel for the parties nor other prosecution or defense personnel shall advise persons having relevant material or information (except the accused) to refrain from discussing the case with opposing counsel or from showing opposing counsel any relevant materials, nor shall they otherwise impede opposing counsel's investigation of the case.

used by him only for the purpose of conducting his side of the case, and shall be subject to such other terms and conditions as the court may prescribe.

Subd. 5 Protective Orders. Upon a showing of cause, the trial court may at any time order that specified disclosures be restricted or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate. All material and information to which a party is entitled must be disclosed in time to afford his counsel the opportunity to make beneficial use of it.

Subd. 6 In Camera Proceedings. Upon application of any party with notice to the adverse party, the trial court upon a showing of good cause therefor may permit any showing of cause for denial or regulation of discovery, or portion of such showing, to be made in camera. A record shall be made of the proceedings. If the court enters an order granting relief following a showing in camera, the entire record of such showing shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the reviewing court in the event of an appeal, habeas corpus proceedings, or post-conviction proceedings under Minn. Defenses, objections, issues, or requests which are capable of determination without trial on the merits shall be asserted or made before trial by a motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief.

10.02 Motions Attacking Jurisdiction of the Court in Misdemeanor Cases.

A motion to dismiss for want of personal jurisdiction shall not be made until after a complaint is filed and a not guilty plea entered unless the motion is heard and determined summarily. Notice of such a motion shall be given either orally on the record in court or in writing to the prosecution. Such notice shall be given no more than seven (7) days after entry of the not guilty plea or any challenge to the personal jurisdiction of the court is waived. The motion shall be served, heard and determined.

10.03 Waiver.

The motion shall include all defenses, objections, issues and requests then available to the moving party. Failure to include any of them in the motion constitutes a waiver thereof, but the court for good cause shown may grant relief from the waiver. However, lack of jurisdiction over the offense or the failure of the indictment or complaint to charge an offense shall be noticed by the court at any time during the pendency of the proceeding. The defendant does not waive any defenses or objections by including them in any motion with other defenses, objections or issues.

10.04 Service of Motions; Hearing Date.

Subd. 1 Service. In felony and gross misdemeanor cases, motions shall be made in writing and served upon opposing counsel not later than three (3) days before the Omnibus Hearing unless the court for good cause shown permits the motion to be made and served at a later time.

In misdemeanor cases, except as otherwise permitted by Rule 10.04, subd. 2, motions shall be made in writing and along with any supporting affidavits shall be served upon opposing counsel at least three (3) days before they are to be heard unless the court for good cause shown permits the motion to be made and served at a later time.

Subd. 2 Hearing Date. In felony and gross misdemeanor cases, unless the motion is served after the Omnibus Hearing, it shall be heard at that hearing and shall be determined before trial as provided by Rule 11.

In misdemeanor cases, if a pretrial conference is held, the motion shall be heard there unless the court directs otherwise for the purpose of hearing witnesses or for other good cause. If the motion is not heard at a pretrial conference, it shall be heard immediately prior to trial, provided that the court may upon agreement by the prosecutor and defense counsel summarily hear and determine the motion at arraignment. If the motion is heard at the arraignment, it need not be in writing, but a record shall be made of the proceedings and in the court's discretion witnesses may be called. The motion shall be determined before trial as provided by Rule 12.07.

RULE 11
OMNIBUS HEARING IN FELONY AND GROSS MISDEMEANOR CASES

11.03 Motions.

Each party may cross-examine any witnesses produced by the other. A finding by the court of probable cause shall be based upon the entire record including reliable hearsay in whole or in part. Evidence considered on the issue of probable cause shall be subject to the requirements of Rule 18.06, subd. 1.

11.04 Other Issues.

The court shall ascertain any other constitutional, evidentiary, procedural or other issues that may be heard or disposed of before trial and such other matters as will promote a fair and expeditious trial, and shall hear and determine them, or continue the hearing for that purpose.

11.05 Amendment of Complaint.

The complaint may be amended as prescribed by these rules.

11.06 Pleas.

If the hearing is held in the district court, the defendant as provided by Rule 15.07 may be permitted to plead to the offense charged in the complaint or to a lesser included offense, or an offense of lesser degree.

If the hearing is held in a county or municipal court, the defendant may be permitted to enter a plea of guilty to a misdemeanor including ordinance violations in lieu of the offense charged in the complaint unless the prosecuting attorney objects. In that event, a new complaint shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and filed in the county or municipal court. The complaint shall be in the form prescribed by Rule 2.01 except that it need not be made upon oath and the facts establishing probable cause to believe the defendant committed the offense charged need not be provided.

11.07 Continuances; Determination of Issues.

The court may continue the hearing or any part thereof from time to time as may be necessary. All issues presented at the Omnibus Hearing shall be determined before trial. When issues are determined, the court shall make appropriate findings in writing or orally on the record. The issues presented at the Omnibus Hearing shall be consolidated for hearing.

- (b) The prosecution shall be furnished with the transcript without prepayment of costs.
- (c) When a transcript is furnished to counsel, a copy shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

Subd. 3 Filing. The record and all papers and exhibits in the proceeding shall be filed or placed in the custody of the clerk of the court. Upon order of the court any exhibit may be returned to the party producing it.

11.09 Review.

Subd. 1 Upon the Record. In the event the hearing is held before a county or municipal court, the findings and determinations on the issues presented shall be subject to review by the district court before trial upon the record made before the county or municipal court, provided notice specifying the issues to be reviewed is served by the defendant or prosecution upon opposing counsel within five (5) days from the date of the determination of such issues by the county or municipal court and is filed in the office of the clerk of the district court within five (5) days after such service. The district court may at any time before trial on its own motion review the findings and determinations.

Subd. 2 Action of District Court. Upon review the district court shall not set aside, amend or modify any of the findings or determinations of the county or municipal court unless it finds them to be clearly erroneous or contrary to law.

Subd. 3 Time for Determination. The district court's decision upon review shall be made and entered at least four days before the date of trial.

11.10 Plea; Trial Date.

If the defendant is not discharged he shall plead to the complaint or be given additional time within which to plead. If he pleads not guilty, a trial date shall then be set. A defendant shall be tried as soon as possible after entry of a not guilty plea. On demand made in writing or orally on the record by the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the trial shall be commenced within sixty (60) days from the date of the demand unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or the defendant why he should not be brought to trial within that period. The time period shall not begin to run earlier than the date of the not guilty plea.

11.11 Exclusion of Witnesses.

Before or during any Omnibus or other pretrial hearing or proceeding, witnesses may be sequestered or excluded from the courtroom, prior to their appearance, in the discretion of the court.

RULE 12

Such motions and other issues shall be heard immediately prior to trial whenever there has been no pretrial conference or whenever the court has so ordered for the purpose of hearing witnesses or for other good cause.

12.02 Motions.

The court shall hear and determine all motions made by the defendant or prosecution and receive such evidence as may be offered in support or opposition. The defendant may offer evidence in his own behalf, and the defendant and prosecution may cross-examine the other's witnesses.

12.03 Other Issues.

The court shall ascertain any other constitutional, evidentiary, procedural or other issues that may be heard or disposed of before trial and such other matters as will promote a fair and expeditious trial, and shall hear and determine them, or continue the hearing for that purpose.

12.04 Hearing on Evidentiary Issues.

At the pretrial conference the defendant may be permitted to withdraw any prior plea and to enter a plea of guilty to the offense charged or such other different offense as permitted in Rule 15.08.

12.07 Continuances; Determination of Issues.

The court may continue the pretrial conference as necessary and for the purpose of taking testimony or other good cause, and may continue the determination of any issues or motions until the day of trial. All motions and issues including those raised at the evidentiary hearing shall be determined before trial begins unless otherwise agreed to by the prosecution and the defense. When the motions and issues are determined, the court shall make appropriate findings in writing or orally on the record.

12.08 Record.

Subd. 1 Reporter. Unless waived by counsel, a verbatim record of the proceedings at the evidentiary hearing and at the pretrial conference shall be made. 11. Whether his attorney has told him that he discussed the case with one of the prosecuting attorneys, and that the respective attorneys agreed that if he entered a plea of guilty the prosecutor will do the following: (state the substance of the plea agreement.)

12. Whether his attorney has told him and he understands that if the court does not approve the plea agreement, he has an absolute right to withdraw his plea of guilty and have a trial.

15.02 Acceptance of Plea; Questioning Defendant; Misdemeanor Cases.

Before the court accepts a plea of guilty to any offense punishable upon conviction by incarceration, any plea agreement shall be explained in open court. The defendant shall then be questioned by the court or counsel in substance as follows:

1. Specifically whether he understands that he has been charged with the crime of (name the offense) committed on or about (Month) (Day) (Year) in _____ County, Minnesota (and that he is tendering a plea of guilty to the crime of (name of offense)).

 - (e) that he is presumed innocent and the State must prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt.
 5. Whether he waives these rights.
 6. Whether he understands the nature of the offense charged.
 7. Whether he believes that what he did constitutes the offense to which he is pleading guilty.
- The court shall then determine whether there is a factual basis for the plea.
- Where the guilty plea is being entered at the defendant's first appearance in court, the statement as to his rights required by Rule 5.01 may be combined with the questioning required above prior to entry of a guilty plea.

15.03 Alternative Methods in Misdemeanor Cases.

Subd. 1 Group Warnings. The court may advise a number of defendants at once as to the consequences of a plea and as to their constitutional rights as specified in questions 2, 3 and 4 above. When such a procedure is followed the court's statement shall be recorded and each defendant when called before the court shall be asked whether he heard and understood the statement. He shall then be questioned on the record as to the remaining matters specified in Rule 15.02.

Subd. 2 Petition to Plead Guilty. The defendant or his attorney may file with the court a petition to plead guilty as provided for in the Appendix B to Rule 15 signed by the defendant indicating that he is pleading guilty to the specified misdemeanor offense with the understanding and knowledge required of defendants personally entering a guilty plea under Rule 15.02.

15.04 Plea Discussion and Plea Agreements.

Subd. 1 Propriety of Plea Discussions and Plea Agreements. In cases in which it appears that it would serve the interest of the public in the effective administration of criminal justice under the principles set forth in Rule 15.04, subd. 3 (2), the prosecuting attorney may engage in plea discussions for the purpose of reaching a plea agreement. He shall engage in plea discussions and reach a plea agreement with the defendant only through defense counsel.

Subd. 2 Relationship Between Defense Counsel and Defendant. Defense counsel shall conclude a plea agreement only with the consent of the defendant and shall ensure that the decision to enter a plea of guilty is ultimately made by the defendant.

Subd. 3 Responsibilities of the Trial Court Judge.

(1) Disclosure of Plea Agreement.

If a plea agreement has been reached which contemplates entry of a plea of guilty, the trial court judge may permit the disclosure to him of the agreement and the reasons therefor in advance of the time for tender of the plea. When such plea is tendered and the defendant questioned, the trial court judge shall reject or accept the plea of guilty on the terms of the plea agreement. The court may postpone its acceptance or rejection until it has received the results of a pre-sentence investigation. If the court rejects the plea agreement, it shall so advise the parties in open court and then call upon the defendant to either affirm or withdraw his plea.

(2) Consideration of Plea in Final Disposition.

The court may accept a plea agreement of the parties when the interest of the public in the effective administration of justice would thereby be served. Among the considerations which are appropriate in determining whether such acceptance should be given are:

- (a) That the defendant by his plea has aided in ensuring the prompt and certain application of correctional measures to him;
- (b) That the defendant has acknowledged his guilt and shown a willingness to assume responsibility for his conduct;
- (c) That the concessions will make possible the application of alternative correctional measures which are better adapted to achieving rehabilitative, protective, deterrent or other purposes of correctional treatment, or will prevent undue harm to the defendant;
- (d) That the defendant has made trial unnecessary when there are good reasons for not having a trial;
- (e) That the defendant has given or offered cooperation which has resulted or may result in the successful prosecution of other offenders engaged in serious criminal conduct;
- (f) That the defendant by his plea has aided in avoiding delay in the disposition of other cases and thereby has contributed to the efficient administration of criminal justice.

15.05 Plea Withdrawal.

Subd. 1 To Correct Manifest Injustice. The court shall allow a defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty upon a timely motion and proof to the satisfaction of the court that withdrawal is necessary to correct a manifest injustice. Such a motion is not barred solely because it is made after sentence. If a defendant is allowed to withdraw his plea after sentence, the court shall set aside the judgment and the plea.

Subd. 2 Before Sentence. In its discretion the court may also allow the defendant to withdraw his plea at any time before sentence if it is fair and just to do so, giving due consideration to the reasons advanced by the defendant in support of his motion and any prejudice the granting of the motion would cause the prosecution by reason of actions taken in reliance upon the defendant's plea.

Subd. 3 Withdrawal of Guilty Plea Without Asserting Innocence.

The defendant may move to withdraw his plea of guilty without asserting that he is not guilty of the charge to which the plea was entered.

15.06 Plea Discussions and Agreements Not Admissible.

If the defendant enters a plea of guilty which is not accepted or which is withdrawn, neither the plea discussions, nor the plea agreement, nor the plea shall be received in evidence against or in favor of the defendant in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding.

15.07 Plea to Lesser Offenses.

With the consent of the prosecuting attorney and the approval of the court, the defendant shall be permitted to enter a plea of guilty to a lesser included offense or to an offense of lesser degree. Upon motion of the defendant the court may accept a plea of guilty to a lesser included offense or to an offense of lesser degree. In either event, the plea may be entered without amendment of the indictment, complaint or tab charge.

15.08 Plea To Different Offense.

With the consent of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant, the defendant may enter a plea of guilty to a different offense than that charged in the original indictment or complaint. If the different offense is a felony or gross misdemeanor, a new complaint shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and filed in the district court. The complaint shall be in the form prescribed by Rule 2.01 except that it need not be made upon oath and the facts establishing probable cause to believe the defendant committed the offense charged need not be provided. If the different offense is a misdemeanor, the defendant may be charged by complaint or tab charge as provided in Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (3) with the new offense and the original charge shall be dismissed.

15.09 Record of Proceedings.

Upon a guilty plea to an offense punishable by incarceration, either a verbatim record of the proceedings shall be made, or, in the case of misdemeanors, a petition to enter a plea of guilty, as provided in the Appendix B to Rule 15, shall be filed with the court. Recording equipment may be used, but upon the request of any party, the court in its discretion may require the proceedings to be recorded by a court reporter. In felony and gross misdemeanor cases, any verbatim record made in accordance with this rule shall be transcribed. In misdemeanor cases, any such record need not be transcribed unless requested by the court, the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

23. My attorney has told me and I understand that if my plea of guilty is accepted by the judge I have the right to appeal, but that any appeal or other court action I may take claiming error in the proceedings probably would be useless and a waste of my time and the court's.
24. My attorney has told me and I understand that a judge will not accept a plea of guilty for anyone who claims to be innocent.
25. I now make no claim that I am innocent.
26. I have been told by my attorney and I understand that if I wish to plead not guilty and have a jury trial:

17.01 Prosecution by Indictment, Complaint or Tab Charge.

An offense which may be punished by life imprisonment shall be prosecuted by indictment. Any other offense defined by state law may be prosecuted by indictment or by a complaint as provided in Rule 2. Misdemeanors may also be prosecuted by tab charge.

The arrest of a person under a warrant of arrest issued upon a complaint under Rule 3 or the filing of a complaint under Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (2) against a person arrested without a warrant shall not preclude an indictment for the offense charged in the complaint or for an offense arising from the conduct upon which the charge in the complaint was based.

17.02 Nature and Contents.

Subd. 1 Complaint. A complaint shall be substantially in the form prescribed by Rule 2.

Subd. 2 Indictment. An indictment shall contain a written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the foreman of the grand jury.

Subd. 3 Indictment and Complaint. The indictment or complaint shall state for each count the citation of the statute, rule, regulation or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged to have violated. Error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal or for reversal of a conviction if the error or omission did not prejudice the defendant. Each count may charge only one offense. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. An indictment or complaint may, but need not, contain counts for the different degrees of the same offense, or for any of such degrees, or counts for lesser or other included offenses, or for any of such offenses. The same indictment or complaint may contain counts for murder, and also for manslaughter, or different degrees of manslaughter. When the offense may have been committed by the use of different means, the indictment or complaint may allege in one count the means of committing the offense in the alternative or that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown.

Subd. 4 Bill of Particulars. The bill of particulars is abolished.

17.03 Joinder of Offenses and of Defendants.

Subd. 1 Joinder of Offenses. When the defendant's conduct constitutes more than one offense, each such offense may be charged in the same indictment or complaint in a separate count.

Subd. 2 Joinder of Defendants.

(1) Felony and Gross Misdemeanor Cases.

When two or more defendants shall be jointly charged with a felony, they shall be tried separately provided, however, upon written motion, the court in the interests of justice and not solely related to economy of time or expense may order a joint trial for any two or more said defendants. In cases other than felonies, defendants jointly charged may be tried jointly or separately, in the discretion of the court. In all cases any one or more of said defendants may be convicted or acquitted.

(2) Misdemeanor Cases.

Defendants jointly charged may be tried jointly or separately, in the discretion of the court. In all cases, any one or more of said defendants may be convicted or acquitted.

Subd. 3 Severance of Offenses or Defendants. Misjoinder of offenses or charges or defendants shall not be grounds for dismissal, but on motion, offenses or defendants improperly joined shall be severed for trial.

Subd. 4 Consolidation of Indictments, Complaints or Tab Charges for Trial. The court on motion of the prosecution or on its own motion may order two or more indictments, complaints, tab charges or any combination thereof to be tried together if the offenses and the defendants, if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single indictment, complaint or tab charge. On motion of the defendant, the court may order two or more indictments, complaints, tab charges, or any combination thereof to be tried together even if the offenses and the defendants, if there be more than one, could not have been joined in a single indictment, complaint or tab charge. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under such single indictment, complaint or tab charge.

17.04 Surplusage.

The court on motion may strike surplusage from the indictment, complaint, or tab charge.

17.05 Amendment of Indictment or Complaint.

The court may permit an indictment or complaint to be amended at any time before verdict or finding if no additional or different offense is charged and if substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced.

17.06 Motions Attacking Indictment, Complaint or Tab Charge.

Subd. 1 Defects in Form. No indictment, complaint or tab charge shall be dismissed nor shall the trial, judgment or other proceedings thereon be affected by reason of a defect or imperfection in matters of form which does not tend to prejudice the substantial rights of the defendant.

A plea previously entered shall stand. The defendant in a misdemeanor case may continue to raise the issues on appeal if he is convicted following a trial.

(2) Grounds for Dismissal.

When a motion to dismiss an indictment, complaint or tab charge is granted for a defect in the institution of prosecution or in the indictment, complaint or tab charge, the court shall specify the grounds upon which the motion is granted.

(3) Dismissal for Curable Defect.

If the dismissal is for failure to file a timely complaint as required by Rule 4.02, subd. 5 (3), or for a defect that could be cured or avoided by an amended or new indictment, or complaint, further prosecution for the same offense shall not be barred, and the court shall on motion of the prosecuting attorney, made within seven (7) days after the notice of the entry of the order granting the motion to dismiss, order that defendant's bail or the other conditions of his release be continued or modified for a specified reasonable time pending an amended or new indictment or complaint.

In misdemeanor cases, if the defendant is unable to post any bail that might be required under Rule 6.02, subd. 1, then he must be released subject to such non-monetary conditions as the court deems appropriate under that rule. The specified time for such amended or new indictment or complaint shall not exceed sixty (60) days for filing a new indictment or seven (7) days for amending an indictment or complaint or for filing a new complaint. During the seven-day period for making the motion and during the time specified by the order, if such motion is made, dismissal of the indictment or complaint shall be stayed. If the prosecution does not make the motion within the seven-day period or if the indictment or complaint is not amended or if a new indictment or complaint is not filed within the time specified by the order, the defendant shall be discharged and further prosecution for the same offense shall be barred unless the prosecution has appealed as provided by law, or unless the defendant is charged with murder and the court has granted a motion to dismiss on the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence before the grand jury.

18.02 Objections to Grand Jury and Grand Jurors.

Subd. 1 Challenges Abolished. Challenges to the grand jury panel and to individual grand jurors are abolished. Objections to the grand jury panel and to individual grand jurors shall be made by motion to dismiss the indictment as hereafter provided.

Subd. 2 Motion to Dismiss Indictment. A motion to dismiss an indictment may be based upon any of the following grounds: that the grand jury was not selected, drawn or summoned in accordance with law; or that an individual juror is not legally qualified or that his state of mind prevented him from acting impartially. An indictment shall not be dismissed on the ground that one or more of the grand jurors was not legally qualified if it appears from the jury's records that 12 or more jurors, after deducting the number not legally qualified, concurred in finding the indictment.

18.03 Organization of Grand Jury.

Subd. 1 Members; Quorum. A grand jury shall consist of not more than 23, nor less than 16, persons, and shall not proceed to any business unless at least 16 members are present.

Subd. 3 Charge. After the grand jury is sworn, the court shall instruct it respecting its duties.

18.04 Who May Be Present.

Upon order of court and a showing of necessity for the purpose of security, a designated peace officer may be present while a specified witness is testifying. If a witness before the grand jury so requests and has effectively waived his immunity from self-incrimination, his attorney may be present while the witness is testifying, provided the attorney is then and there available for that purpose or his presence can be secured without unreasonable delay in the grand jury proceedings. The attorney shall not be permitted to participate in the grand jury proceedings except to advise and consult with the witness while he is testifying.

18.05 Record of Proceedings.

Subd. 1 Verbatim Record. A verbatim record shall be made by a reporter or recording instrument of the evidence taken before the grand jury and of all statements made and events occurring while a witness is before the grand jury. The record shall not be disclosed except to the court or prosecuting attorney or unless the court, upon motion by the defendant for good cause shown, or upon a showing that grounds may exist for a motion to dismiss the indictment because of matters occurring before the grand jury, orders disclosure of the record or designated portions thereof to the defendant or his attorneys.

Subd. 2 Transcript. Upon motion of the defendant with notice to the prosecuting attorney, the district court at any time before trial or a county or municipal court at the Omnibus Hearing provided by Rule 11 shall, subject to such protective order as may be granted under Rule 9.03, subd. 5, order that defense counsel may obtain a transcript or copy of: (1) any recorded testimony of the defendant before the grand jury in the case against the defendant; (2) the recorded testimony of any persons before the grand jury whom the prosecution intends to call as witnesses at the defendant's trial; or (3) the recorded testimony of any witness before the grand jury in the case against the defendant, provided that at the hearing on the motion, defense counsel makes an offer of proof showing that he expects to call the witness at the trial and that he will give relevant testimony favorable to the defendant.

18.06 Kind and Character of Evidence.

Subd. 1 Admissibility of Evidence. An indictment shall be based on substantial evidence that would be admissible at trial, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Hearsay evidence offered only to lay the foundation for the admissibility of otherwise admissible evidence shall be admissible provided admissible foundation evidence is available and will be offered at the trial.
- (2) A report or a copy of a report made by a person who is a physician, chemist, firearms identification expert, examiner of questioned documents, fingerprint technician, or an expert or technician in some comparable scientific or professional field, concerning the results of an examination, comparison, or test performed by him in connection with the investigation of the case against the defendant may, when certified by such person as a report made by him or as a true copy thereof, be received as evidence of the facts stated therein.
- (3) Unauthenticated copies of official records shall be admissible provided the copies were made from the original records and properly authenticated copies will be available at the trial.
- (4) Written sworn statements of the persons who claim to have title or an interest in property shall be admitted to prove ownership or that the property was obtained without the owner's consent, and written sworn statements of such persons or of experts shall be admitted to prove the value of the property, provided that admissible evidence to prove ownership, value, or nonconsent is available and will be presented at the trial.
- (5) Written sworn statements of witnesses who for reasons of ill health or for other valid reasons are unable to testify in person shall be admitted, provided that such witnesses or otherwise admissible evidence will be available at the trial to prove the facts stated in the statements.
- (6) Oral or written summaries made by investigating officers or other persons, who are called as witnesses, of the contents of books, records, papers and other documents which they have examined but which are not produced at the hearing or previously submitted to defense counsel for examination, provided the documents and summaries would otherwise be admissible. It shall be permissible for a police officer in charge of the investigation to give an oral summary.

Subd. 2 Evidence Warranting Finding of Indictment. The grand jury may find an indictment when upon all of the evidence there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed it. Reception of inadmissible evidence shall not be grounds for dismissal of an indictment if there is sufficient admissible evidence to support the indictment.

Subd. 3 Presentments Abolished. The grand jury may not find or return a presentment.

18.07 Finding and Return of Indictment.

An indictment may be found only upon the concurrence of 12 or more jurors. When so found, it shall be signed by the foreman, whether he be one of the 12 concurring or not, and delivered to a judge in open court. If 12 jurors shall not concur in finding an indictment, the foreman shall so report in writing to the court forthwith, and any charges filed against the defendant for the offenses considered and upon which no indictment was returned shall be dismissed. The failure to find an indictment or the dismissal of the charge shall not prevent the case from again being submitted to a grand jury as often as the court shall direct.

18.08 Secrecy of Proceedings.

Every grand juror shall keep secret whatever he or any other juror has said during its deliberations and how he or any other juror has voted. Disclosure of matters occurring before the grand jury, other than its deliberations and the vote of any juror, may be made to the prosecuting attorney for use in the performance of his duties, and to the defendant or his attorneys pursuant to Rule 18.05 of this rule governing the record of the grand jury proceedings. Otherwise, no juror, attorney, interpreter, stenographer, reporter, operator of a recording device, typist who transcribes recorded testimony, clerk of court, law enforcement officer, or court attaché may disclose matters occurring before the grand jury except when directed by the court preliminarily to or in connection with a judicial proceedings. Unless the court directs otherwise, no person shall disclose the finding of an indictment until the defendant is in custody or appears before the court except when necessary for the issuance and execution of a summons or warrant, provided, however, disclosure may be made by the prosecuting attorney by notice to the defendant or his attorney of the indictment and the time of defendant's appearance in the district court, if in the discretion of the prosecuting attorney such notice is sufficient to insure defendant's appearance.

18.09 Tenure and Excuse.

A grand jury shall be drawn to serve for a specified period of time, not to exceed 12 months, designated by order of court. It shall not be discharged and its powers shall continue: (a) until the specified period of its service is completed or; (b) until its successor is drawn or; (c) until it has completed an investigation, already begun, of a particular offense, whichever is the later.

The tenure and powers of a grand jury are not affected by the beginning or expiration of a term of court.

At any time for cause shown the court may excuse a juror either temporarily or permanently, and in either event the court may impanel another person in place of the juror excused.

19.04 Appearance of Defendant Before Court.

Subd. 1 Appearance. The defendant shall be taken promptly before the district court which issued the warrant.

Subd. 2 Statement to Defendant. When the defendant initially appears before the district court under a warrant of arrest or in response to a summons, he shall be advised of the charges against him. If he has not received a copy of the indictment, he shall be provided with a copy.

The court shall also advise the defendant substantially as required by Rule 5.01.

Subd. 3 Appointment of Counsel. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and is financially unable to afford counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for him.

Subd. 4 Date for Arraignment. Upon defendant's initial appearance before the district court, a date shall be fixed for his arraignment upon the indictment not more than seven (7) days from the date of such initial appearance. The time for appearance may be extended by the district court for good cause.

Subd. 5 Omnibus Hearing Date and Procedure. If upon arraignment, the defendant does not plead guilty, a date shall be fixed, not more than seven (7) days from the date of the arraignment, unless the court for good cause shown extends the time, when an Omnibus Hearing shall be held in accordance with Rule 11. The hearing shall not include the issue of probable cause provided by Rule 11.03.

Subd. 6 Notice by Prosecuting Attorney.

(1) Notice of Evidence and Identification Procedures.

When the prosecution has (1) any evidence against the defendant obtained as a result of a search, search and seizure, wiretapping, or any form of electronic or mechanical eavesdropping, (2) any confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant, (3) any evidence against the defendant discovered as the result of confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant, or (4) when in the investigation of the case against the defendant, any identification procedures were followed, including but not limited to lineups or other observations of the defendant and the exhibition of photographs of the defendant or of any other persons, the prosecuting attorney, on or before the date set for defendant's arraignment, shall notify the defendant or his counsel in writing of such evidence and identification procedures.

(2) Notice of Additional Offenses.

The prosecuting attorneys shall notify the defendant or his counsel in writing of any additional offenses the evidence of which may be offered at the trial under any exceptions to the general exclusionary rule. The notice shall be given at the Omnibus Hearing under Rule 11 or as soon thereafter as the offense becomes known to the prosecuting attorney. Such additional offenses shall be described with sufficient particularity to enable the defendant to prepare for trial. The notice need not include offenses for which the defendant has been previously prosecuted, or those that may be offered in rebuttal of the defendant's character witnesses or as a part of the occurrence or episode out of which the offense charged in the indictment arose.

Subd. 7 Discovery. Before the date set for the Omnibus Hearing the prosecution and defendant shall complete the discovery that is required by Rules 9.01, subd. 1 and 9.02, subd. 1 to be made without the necessity of an order of court.

RULE 20

PROCEEDINGS FOR MENTALLY ILL OR MENTALLY DEFICIENT

20.01 Competency to Proceed.

Subd. 1 Competency to Proceed Defined. No person shall be tried or sentenced for any offense while mentally ill or mentally deficient so as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings or participating in his defense.

Subd. 2 Proceedings. If at any time before sentence is imposed the court in which a criminal case is pending determines upon motion of the prosecuting attorney, defense counsel, or on its own motion that there is reason to doubt the defendant's competency as defined by this rule, the court shall suspend the criminal proceedings and shall proceed as follows:

(1) Court.

If the case is pending before a municipal or county court and the charge is a felony or gross misdemeanor, the case shall be transferred to the district court of the county where the offense occurred for further proceedings in conformity with this rule. If the charge is a misdemeanor, the court having trial jurisdiction shall either proceed according to this rule, or cause civil commitment proceedings to be instituted against the defendant, or unless contrary to the public interest, dismiss the case.

(2) Probable Cause—Felony or Gross Misdemeanor.

In the case of a felony or gross misdemeanor, unless the issue of probable cause has previously been determined, the district court, upon motion, before proceeding further shall determine whether there is sufficient probable cause stated on the face of the complaint. If the court determines that the complaint does not state sufficient probable cause to believe the defendant committed the offense charged, the charges against the defendant shall be dismissed.

(3) Medical Examination.

The court shall appoint at least one qualified psychiatrist or clinical psychologist or physician experienced in the field of mental illness to examine the defendant and to report to the court on his mental condition. The court may order the defendant confined in a state mental hospital or other suitable hospital or facility for the purpose of such examination for a specified period not to exceed 60 days. If the defendant or prosecution has retained a qualified psychiatrist or clinical psychologist or physician experienced in the field of mental illness, the court on request of the defendant or prosecuting attorney shall direct that such psychiatrist or psychologist or physician be permitted to observe the examination and to conduct his own examination of the defendant.

(4) Report of Examination.

At the conclusion of the examination, a written report of the examination shall be forwarded to the judge who ordered the examination, and he shall cause copies of the report to be delivered forthwith to the prosecuting attorney and to defense counsel. The contents of the report shall not be otherwise disclosed until the hearing on the defendant's competency. The report of the examination shall contain:

- (1) A diagnosis of the mental condition of the defendant.
- (2) If the defendant is mentally ill or mentally deficient, an opinion as to: (a) his capacity to understand the proceedings against him and to participate in his defense; (b) the extent of his homicidal tendencies, if any, and the degree of likelihood that he will engage in seriously harmful conduct; (c) the extent to which he can be treated without being committed to an institution; and (d) whether there is a substantial probability that with treatment or otherwise he will ever attain the competency to proceed, and if so, in approximately what period of time.
- (3) A statement of the factual basis upon which the diagnosis and opinion are based.
- (4) If the examination could not be conducted by reason of the defendant's unwillingness to participate therein, a statement to that effect with an opinion, if possible, as to whether the defendant's unwillingness was the result of mental illness or deficiency.

Subd. 3 Determination of Competency. If either party files written objections to the report within ten (10) days after the receipt of a copy thereof, the court, upon notice to the parties, shall hold a hearing on the issue of the defendant's competency to proceed. At the hearing, evidence as to the defendant's mental condition may be admitted, including the report of the person who examined the defendant at the direction of the court. If neither the prosecution nor the defense files written objections to the report within the ten-day period, the court without a hearing may determine the defendant's competency to proceed upon the basis of the report.

Subd. 4 Effect of Finding on Issue of Competency to Proceed.

(1) Finding of Competency.

If the court determines that the defendant is competent to proceed, the criminal proceedings against him shall be resumed.

(2) Finding of Incompetency.

If the charge against the defendant is a misdemeanor and the court determines that he is incompetent to proceed, the charge shall be dismissed. If the charge against the defendant is a gross misdemeanor or felony and the court determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed, the criminal proceedings against him shall be further suspended except as provided by Rule 20.01, subd. 6.

(a) Finding of Mental Illness. If the court determines that the defendant is mentally ill so as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings against him or participating in his defense, and the defendant is under civil commitment as mentally ill, the court shall order that the commitment be continued, and if not under commitment, the court shall cause civil commitment proceedings to be instituted against him. The commitment or continuing commitment shall be subject to the supervision of the trial court as provided by Rule 20.01, subd. 5.

(b) Finding of Mental Deficiency. If the court finds the defendant to be mentally deficient so as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings against him or participating in his defense, and the defendant is under commitment as mentally deficient to the guardianship of the commissioner of public welfare, the court shall order him remanded to the care and custody of the commissioner, and if not under commitment, the court shall cause civil commitment proceedings to be instituted against him. The commitment or continuing commitment shall be subject to the supervision of the trial court as provided by Rule 20.01, subd. 5.

(c) Appeal. Either party shall have the right of appeal to the district court from a determination of the county or probate court upon the civil commitment proceedings. The appeal shall be on the record only. In all other respects the appeal shall be governed by the provisions of the County Court Act, Minn. Stat., Ch. 487 (1971), or amendments thereto, applicable to appeals from a county court to the district court. In all civil commitment proceedings instituted under this rule, a verbatim record of the proceedings shall be made.

Subd. 5 Continuing Supervision by Court. The head of the institution to which the defendant is committed under civil commitment proceedings, or if the defendant is not committed to an institution, the officer or other person charged with his supervision or to whom he has been committed, shall report periodically to the trial court, at such times as the court shall provide, on the defendant's mental condition with an opinion as to his competency to proceed. The reports shall be made not less than once every six months unless otherwise ordered. Copies of the reports shall be furnished to the prosecuting attorney and to defense counsel.

When the court on application of the prosecuting attorney, defense counsel, the defendant, or the person having supervision over the defendant, or on the court's own motion, determines, after a hearing with notice to the parties, that the defendant is competent to proceed, the criminal proceedings against the defendant shall be resumed. Unless the criminal charges against the defendant have been dismissed as provided by Rule 20.01, subd. 6, the trial court shall be notified of any proposed termination of the civil commitment, and the court, after notice to the parties, shall hold a hearing thereon. If the court determines that the defendant is mentally ill or deficient and dangerous to the public, the defendant shall not be discharged from civil commitment. Otherwise, the civil commitment proceedings shall be terminated and the defendant discharged therefrom.

Subd. 6 Dismissal of Criminal Proceedings. Except when the defendant is charged with murder, the criminal proceedings against him shall be dismissed upon the expiration of three years from the date of the finding of his incompetency to proceed unless the prosecuting attorney, before the expiration of the three-year period, files a written notice of his intention to prosecute the defendant when he has been restored to competency.

Subd. 7 Determination of Legal Issues Not Requiring Defendant's Participation. The fact that the defendant is incompetent to proceed shall not preclude his counsel from making any legal objection or defense which is susceptible of fair determination before trial without the personal participation of the defendant.

Subd. 8 Admissibility of Defendant's Statements. When a defendant is examined under this rule, any statement made by him for the purpose of the examination and any evidence derived from the examination shall be admissible in evidence at the proceedings to determine whether he is competent to proceed.

Subd. 9 Credit for Time Spent in Confinement. If the court orders criminal proceedings resumed on a finding that defendant is competent to proceed, and the defendant is convicted of the charge, the time he has spent confined to a hospital or other facility under this rule shall be credited upon any jail or prison sentence imposed upon him.

20.02 Medical Examination of Defendant Upon Defense of Mental Deficiency or Mental Illness.

Subd. 1 Authority of Court to Order Examination. The court having trial jurisdiction over the offense charged may order a mental examination of the defendant when the defense has notified the prosecuting attorney pursuant to Rule 9.02, subd. 1(3)(a) of an intention to assert a defense of mental illness or deficiency, or when at the trial of the case, the defendant offers evidence of such mental condition.

Subd. 2 Examination of the Defendant. If the court orders a mental examination of the defendant, it shall appoint at least one qualified psychiatrist, or clinical psychologist, or physician experienced in the field of mental illness to examine the defendant and report upon his mental condition. For the purpose of the examination, the court, upon a special showing of need therefor, may order the defendant to be confined to a hospital or other suitable facility for a specified period not to exceed 60 days. If the defendant or prosecution has retained a qualified psychiatrist or clinical psychologist or physician experienced in the field of mental illness, the court on request of the defendant or prosecuting attorney shall direct that such psychiatrist or psychologist or physician be permitted to observe the mental examination and to conduct his own mental examination of the defendant.

Subd. 3 Refusal of Defendant to be Examined. If the defendant does not participate in the examination so that the examiner is unable to make an adequate report to the court, the court may prohibit the defendant from introducing evidence of his mental condition, may strike any such evidence previously introduced, may permit any other party to introduce evidence of defendant's refusal to cooperate and to comment thereon to the trier of the facts, and may make any such other ruling as it deems just.

Subd. 4 Report of Examination. At the conclusion of the examination, a written report of the examination shall be forwarded to the judge who ordered the examination, and he shall cause copies of the report to be delivered forthwith to the prosecuting attorney, and to defense counsel. The contents of the report shall not otherwise be disclosed except as hereafter provided by this rule. The report of the examination shall contain:

- (1) A diagnosis of the defendant's mental condition as requested by the court;
- (2) If so directed by the court an opinion as to whether, because of mental illness or deficiency, the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense charged was laboring under such a defect of reason as not to know the nature of the act constituting the offense with which defendant is charged or that it was wrong;
- (3) Any opinion requested by the court that is based on the examiner's diagnosis;
- (4) A statement of the factual basis upon which the diagnosis and any opinion are based.

If the examination cannot be conducted by reason of the defendant's unwillingness to participate, the report shall so state and shall include, if possible, an opinion as to whether the unwillingness of the defendant was the result of mental illness or deficiency.

Subd. 5 Admissibility of Evidence at Trial. No evidence derived from the examination shall be received against the defendant unless the defendant has previously made his mental condition an issue in the case. If his mental condition is an issue, any party may call the person who examined the defendant at the direction of the court to testify as a witness at the trial and he shall be subject to cross-examination by any other party. The report or portions thereof may be received in evidence to impeach the testimony of the person making it.

Subd. 6 Admissibility of Defendant's Statements. When a defendant is examined under Rule 20.01 or Rule 20.02, or both, the admissibility at trial of any statements made by him for the purposes of the examination and any evidence obtained as a result of such statements shall be determined by the following rules:

(1) Notice by Defendant of Sole Defense of Mental Condition.

If a defendant notifies the prosecuting attorney under Rule 9.02, subd. 1(3)(a) of his intention to rely solely on the defense of mental illness or deficiency, statements made by the defendant for the purpose of the mental examination and evidence obtained as a result of the statements shall be admissible at the trial upon that issue.

(2) Defendant's Election.

If a defendant notifies the prosecuting attorney under Rule 9.02, subd. 1(3)(a) of his intention to rely on the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency together with a defense of not guilty, the defendant at the Omnibus Hearing under Rule 11 shall elect:

- (1) Whether there shall be a separation of the two defenses with a sequential order of proof before the court or jury in a continuous trial in which the defense of not guilty shall be heard and determined first, and then the defense of the defendant's mental illness or deficiency; or
- (2) Whether the two defenses shall be tried and submitted together to the court or jury.

(3) Effect of Election.

If the defendant elects that the two defenses shall be separated, the statements made by him for the purpose of the mental examination and any evidence obtained as a result of such statements shall be admissible against him only at that stage of the trial relating to the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency. If the defendant elects that the two defenses shall be tried and submitted together, such statements and evidence shall be admissible against him on all issues.

(4) Notice by Prosecuting Attorney.

The defendant shall not be required to make the election provided for by this rule and there shall be no separation of defenses for trial if the prosecuting attorney gives written notice to defense counsel that any statements made by the defendant for the purpose of the mental examination and evidence obtained as a result of the statements will not be offered in evidence against him at trial.

(5) Procedure Upon Separated Trial of Defenses.

- (a) Instructions to Jury. When the two defenses are separated for trial pursuant to the defendant's election under this rule, the jury shall be informed at the commencement of the trial that the two defenses have been interposed; that the defense of not guilty will be tried first and then the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency; that if the jury finds that the elements of the offense charged have not been proved, the defendant will be acquitted; that if the jury finds the elements of the offense have been proved, the defense of mental illness or deficiency will then be tried and determined by the jury.

- (b) Proof of Elements of Offense—Effect. Upon the trial of the defense of not guilty the jury, or the court, if a jury is waived, shall determine whether the elements of the offense charged have been proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

If the court or jury determines that the elements of the offense have not been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, a judgment of acquittal shall be entered.

If the court or jury determines that the elements of the offense have been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency shall then be tried and determined by the jury, or by the court, if a jury is waived, and based upon that determination the jury or court shall render a verdict or make a finding: (1) of not guilty by reason of mental illness; or (2) of not guilty by reason of mental deficiency; or (3) of guilty. The court shall enter judgment accordingly. The defendant shall have the burden of proving the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency by a preponderance of the evidence.

Subd. 7 Simultaneous Examinations. The court may order that the examination for competency to proceed under Rule 20.01 and the examination authorized by Rule 20.02 be conducted simultaneously.

Subd. 8 Legal Effect of Finding of Not Guilty by Reason of Mental Illness or Deficiency.

(1) Mental Illness.

When a defendant is found not guilty by reason of mental illness, and the defendant is under civil commitment as mentally ill, the court shall order that the commitment be continued, and if not under commitment, the court shall cause civil commitment proceedings to be instituted against him and that the defendant be detained in a state hospital or other facility pending completion of the proceedings. The commitment or continuing commitment in felony and gross misdemeanor cases shall be subject to the supervision of the trial court as provided by Rule 20.02, subd. 8(4).

(2) Mental Deficiency.

When a defendant is found not guilty by reason of mental deficiency and the defendant is under commitment to the guardianship of the commissioner of public welfare, the court shall order him remanded to the care and custody of the commissioner, and if not under such commitment, the court shall cause civil commitment proceedings to be instituted against him. The commitment or continuing commitment in felony and gross misdemeanor cases shall be subject to the supervision of the trial court as provided by Rule 20.02, subd. 8(4).

(3) Appeal.

Either party shall have the right of appeal to the district court from a determination of the county or probate court upon the civil commitment proceedings. The appeal shall be taken on the record only. In all other respects the appeal shall be governed by the provisions of the County Court Act, Minn. Stat., Ch. 487 (1971) or amendments thereto, applicable to appeals from a county court to the district court. In all commitment proceedings instituted under this rule, a verbatim record of the proceedings shall be made.

(4) Continuing Supervision.

In felony and gross misdemeanor cases only, the trial court shall be notified of any proposed termination of the civil commitment, and the court, after notice to the parties, shall hold a hearing thereon. If the court determines that the defendant is mentally ill or deficient and dangerous to the public, the defendant shall not be discharged from civil commitment. Otherwise, the civil commitment shall be terminated and the defendant discharged therefrom.

20.03 Disclosure of Reports and Records of Defendant's Mental Examinations.

Subd. 1 Order for Disclosure. If a defendant notifies the prosecuting attorney under Rule 9.02, subd. 1(3)(a) of his intention to rely on the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency, the trial court, on motion of the prosecuting attorney and notice to defense counsel may order the defendant to furnish either to the court or to the prosecuting attorney copies of all medical reports and hospital and medical records previously or hereafter made concerning the mental condition of the defendant and relevant to the issue of the defense of his mental illness or mental deficiency. If the copies of the reports and records are furnished to the court, the court shall inspect them to determine their relevancy. If the court determines they are relevant, they shall be delivered to the prosecuting attorney. Otherwise, they shall be returned to the defendant.

If the defendant is unable to comply with the court order, a subpoena duces tecum may be issued under Rule 22.

Subd. 2 Use of Reports and Records. If an order for disclosure of reports and records under Rule 20.03 subd. 1 is entered and copies thereof are furnished to the prosecuting attorney, the reports and records and any evidence obtained therefrom may be admitted in evidence only upon the issue of the defense of mental illness or mental deficiency when that issue is the sole defense or when it is tried as provided by Rule 20.02, subd. 6(5).

RULE 21
DEPOSITIONS

21.01 When Taken.

Whenever there is a reasonable probability that the testimony of a prospective witness will be used at hearing or at trial under any of the conditions specified in Rule 21.06, subd. 1, the court before whom the proceedings are pending may, at any time after the filing of a complaint or indictment, upon motion and notice to the parties, order that the testimony of such witness be taken by oral deposition before any designated person authorized to administer oaths and that any designated book, paper, document, record, recording or other material, not privileged, be produced at the same time and place. The order shall also direct the defendant to be present at the taking of the deposition.

21.02 Notice of Taking.

The party or person at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice shall state the name and address of each person to be examined. Unless otherwise ordered by the court the notice to the defendant shall be served personally on all the defendants. The notice shall inform them that they are required by order of court to personally attend the taking of the deposition, and a copy of the court order shall be attached to the notice. An officer having custody of any of the defendants shall be notified of the time and place set for the deposition and shall produce them at the examination and keep them in the presence of the witness during the examination.

On motion of a party upon whom notice is served, the court for cause shown may extend or shorten the time or change the place for taking the deposition.

21.03 Expenses of Defendant and Counsel; Failure to Appear.

Subd. 1 Expenses, Defendant and Counsel. If a defendant is unable to bear the expenses of travel and subsistence of himself and his attorney for attendance at the examination, the court shall direct that such expenses be paid at public expense.

Subd. 2 Failure to Appear. If a defendant who is not confined fails to appear at the examination without reasonable excuse after having received notice thereof, the deposition may be taken and used to the same extent as though he had been present.

21.04 How Taken.

Subd. 1 Oral Deposition. Depositions shall be taken upon oral examination.

Subd. 2 Oath and Record of Examination. The witness shall be put on oath and a verbatim record of his testimony shall be made.

The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed unless the court orders otherwise.

In the event the court orders that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

Subd. 3 Scope and Manner of Examination—Objections—Motion to Terminate.

(a) In no event shall the deposition of a party defendant be taken without his consent.

(b) The scope and manner of examination and cross-examination shall be the same as that allowed at trial. Each party having possession of a statement of the witness being deposed shall make the statement available to the other party for examination and use at the taking of a deposition if such other party would be entitled to the statement at the trial.

(c) All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the person taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings shall be recorded by the person before whom the deposition is taken. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections.

(d) At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent, and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith, or in such manner as to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party or to elicit privileged testimony, the court which ordered the deposition taken may order the person conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of taking the deposition by ordering as follows: (1) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of examination be limited to certain matters; (2) that the examination be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court.

Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to move for the order.

21.05 Transcription, Certification and Filing.

When the testimony is fully transcribed, the person before whom the deposition was taken shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn and that the deposition is a verbatim record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the case and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the case is pending or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

Upon the request of a party, documents and other things produced during the examination of a witness, or copies thereof, shall be marked for identification and annexed as exhibits to the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party. If the person producing the exhibits requests their return, the person taking the deposition shall mark them, and, after giving each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, return the exhibits to the parties producing them. The exhibits may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to the deposition.

21.06 Use of Deposition.

Subd. 1 Unavailability of Witness. At the trial, or upon any hearing, a part or all of a deposition, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used as substantive evidence if it appears: (a) that the witness is dead or unable to be present or to testify at the trial or hearing because of then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or (b) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena, order of court, or other reasonable means.

Subd. 2 Inconsistent Testimony. A deposition may be used as substantive evidence, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, if the witness gives testimony at the trial or hearing inconsistent with his deposition or if he persists at the hearing or trial in refusing to testify despite an order of the court to do so.

Subd. 3 Impeachment. Any deposition may also be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness.

A deposition may not be used if it appears that the absence of the witness was procured or caused by the party offering the deposition, unless part of the deposition has previously been offered by another party.

21.07 Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

Subd. 1 As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the order or notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is served promptly upon the party giving the notice.

Subd. 2 As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the person before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the grounds for disqualification become known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

Subd. 3 As to Taking of Deposition. Objections to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

Subd. 4 As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, recorded, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed or otherwise dealt with by the person taking the deposition under these rules are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

21.08 Deposition by Stipulation.

The parties may by written stipulation provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions. These rules to the extent not inconsistent with the stipulation shall otherwise govern the taking of the deposition.

The defendant's request to the court may be oral and the court's order may be either oral, if noted in the court's record, or written.

22.02 For Production of Documentary Evidence and of Objects.

A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court on motion made promptly may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be unreasonable or oppressive. The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena, including medical reports and medical and hospital records ordered to be disclosed under Rule 20.03, subd. 1, be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may upon their production permit them to be inspected by the parties or their attorneys.

22.03 Service.

A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, by his deputy, or any other person at least 18 years of age who is not a party. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person or by leaving a copy at his usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. 23.02 Designation as Petty Misdemeanor by Sentence Imposed.

A conviction is deemed to be for a petty misdemeanor as defined by Rule 23.01 if the sentence imposed is within the limits provided by that rule for a petty misdemeanor.

23.03 Violations Bureaus.

Subd. 1 Establishment. The County Court may establish misdemeanor violations bureaus at the places it determines.

Subd. 2 Fine Schedules.(1) Uniform Fine Schedule.

The County Court Judges of the state shall adopt and as necessary revise a uniform fine schedule setting forth fines to be paid to violations bureaus for all statutory petty misdemeanors and for such other statutory misdemeanors as the judges may select.

(2) County Fine Schedules.

Upon establishment of a violations bureau, the County Court shall establish by court rule a fine for any misdemeanor which may be paid to the violations bureau in lieu of a court appearance by the defendant. When an offense is the same or substantially the same as an offense included on the uniform fine schedule, the fine established by the County Court shall be the same as the fine prescribed in the uniform fine schedule.

Subd. 3 Written Plea of Guilty. Any fine payment to a violations bureau shall be accompanied by a written plea of guilty by the defendant providing in substance the following:

1. That the defendant is entering a plea of guilty to the misdemeanor designated;

2. That the defendant understands that he has the rights which he voluntarily waives:

- a. to a trial to the Court or to a jury;
- b. to be represented by counsel;
- c. to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;
- d. to confront and cross-examine all witnesses against him; and Subd. 5 Procedures of the Violations Bureaus. The County Court shall supervise and the clerk shall operate the misdemeanor violations bureaus. The County Court shall, consistent with these rules, issue rules governing the duties and operation of the bureaus. The clerk shall assign one or more deputy clerks to discharge and perform the duties of the bureaus.

23.04 Designation as a Petty Misdemeanor in a Particular Case.

If at or before the time of arraignment or trial on an alleged misdemeanor violation, the prosecuting attorney certifies to the Court that in his opinion it is in the interests of justice that the defendant not be incarcerated if convicted, the alleged offense shall be treated as a petty misdemeanor if the defendant consents and the court approves.

23.05 Procedure in Petty Misdemeanor Cases.

Subd. 1 No Right to Jury Trial. There shall be no right to a jury trial upon a misdemeanor charge which by operation of Rule 23.04 is to be treated as a petty misdemeanor.

Subd. 2 Right to Appointed Counsel. If a defendant is financially unable to afford counsel the court may appoint counsel to represent him if he is charged with a misdemeanor which by operation of Rule 23.04 is to be treated as a petty misdemeanor and which also involves moral turpitude.

Subd. 3 General Procedure. A defendant charged with a petty misdemeanor violation is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and except as otherwise provided in Rule 23 the procedure in petty misdemeanor cases shall be the same as for misdemeanors punishable by incarceration.

23.06 Effect of Conviction.

A petty misdemeanor shall not be considered a crime.

23.07 Trial De Novo.

If a trial de novo is permitted in District Court pursuant to Rule 28.01, subd. 1, the offense charged may be designated a petty misdemeanor under Rule 23.04 even if not so designated in the County Court. If a misdemeanor was designated a petty misdemeanor in County Court, it shall continue to be so designated on any appeal to District Court and no trial de novo shall be allowed.

RULE 24
VENUE24.01 Place of Trial.

The case shall be tried in the county where the offense was committed except as otherwise provided by these rules.

24.02 Venue in Special Cases.

When any offense is committed within the state on a public or private conveyance, and it is doubtful in which county the offense occurred, the case may be prosecuted and tried in any county through which the conveyance traveled in the course of the trip during which the offense was committed, or in the county where such trip began or terminated.

Subd. 2 Offenses Committed on County Lines. Offenses committed on or within 1,500 feet (457.2 M) of the boundary line between two counties may be alleged in the complaint or indictment to have been committed in either of them and may be prosecuted and tried in either county.

Subd. 3 Injury or Death in One County from an Act Committed in Another County. If an act is committed in one county resulting in injury or death in another county, the offense may be prosecuted and tried in either county. If it is doubtful in which one of two or more counties the act was committed or injury or death occurred, the offense may be prosecuted and tried in any one of such counties.

Subd. 4 Prosecution in County Where Injury or Death Occurs. If an act is committed either within or without the limits of the state and injury or death results, the offense may be prosecuted and tried in the county of this state where the injury or death occurs, or the body of the deceased is found.

Subd. 5 Prosecution When Death Occurs Outside State. If an assault is committed in this state resulting in death outside the state, the homicide may be prosecuted and tried in the county where the assault was committed.

Subd. 7 Libel. The offense of publication of a libel contained in a newspaper published in the state may be prosecuted and tried in any county where the paper was published or circulated; but a person shall not be prosecuted for publication of the same libel against the same person in more than one county.

Subd. 8 Bringing Stolen Goods Into State. Whoever brings stolen property into the state in violation of Minn. Stat. § 609.525 (1971) may be prosecuted and tried in any county, but not more than one county, into or through which the property was brought.

Subd. 9 Obscene or Harassing Telephone Calls. Violations of Minn. Stat. § 609.79 (1971) may be prosecuted and tried either at the place where the telephone call is made or where it is received.

Subd. 10 Fair Campaign Practices. Violations of Minn. Stat. § 211.27 (1971) prohibiting corporate contributions to political campaigns may be prosecuted and tried in the county where such payment or contribution is made or services rendered or in any county wherein such money has been paid or distributed.

Subd. 11 Series of Offenses Aggregated. When a series of offenses are aggregated pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 609.52, Subd. 3(5) (1971) and the offenses have been committed in more than one county, the case may be presented and tried in any one of the counties in which one or more of the offenses was committed.

Subd. 12 Non-Support of Wife or Child. Violations of Minn. Stat. § 609.375 (1971) for non-support of wife or child may be prosecuted and tried in the county where the wife or child or both reside.

24.03 Change of Venue.

Subd. 1 Grounds. The case may be transferred to another county:

- a. if the court is satisfied that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county in which the case is pending;
- b. for the convenience of parties and witnesses;
- c. In the interests of justice;
- d. As provided by Rule 25.02 governing prejudicial publicity.

Subd. 2 County to which Transferred. For the purposes of change of venue under this rule the district referred to in Minn. Const. Art. 1 § 6 shall be all that area within the geographical boundaries of the State of Minnesota.

Subd. 3 Time for Motion for Change of Venue. A motion for change of venue, except as permitted by Rule 25.02, shall be made at the time prescribed by Rule 10 for making pretrial motions.

Subd. 4 Proceedings on Transfer. If the case is transferred under these rules, all records in the case or certified copies thereof shall be transmitted to the court to which the case is transferred. If the defendant is in custody, the court may order that he be transported to the sheriff of the county to which the case is transferred. Unless the Supreme Court orders otherwise, the case shall be tried before the judge who ordered the change of venue. If the defendant has been released upon conditions of release under these rules those conditions shall be continued upon the further condition that the defendant shall appear as ordered by the court for trial and other proceedings in the county to which the case has been transferred.

RULE 25
SPECIAL RULES GOVERNING
PREJUDICIAL PUBLICITY

The following rules shall govern when any question of potentially prejudicial publicity is raised:

25.01 Pretrial Hearings—Motion to Exclude Public.

All pretrial hearings shall be open to the public. However, the defendant may move that all or part of such hearing be held in chambers or otherwise closed to the public on the ground that dissemination of evidence or argument adduced at the hearing may disclose matters that may be inadmissible in evidence at the trial and likely to interfere with his right to a fair trial by an impartial jury. The motion shall not be granted unless the court determines that there is a substantial likelihood of such interference. With the consent of the defendant, the court may make such an exclusion order on its own motion or at the suggestion of the prosecution. No exclusion order shall issue without the court setting forth the reasons therefor. Any person aggrieved may petition the supreme court for immediate review of the order granting or denying exclusion. Whenever under this rule all or part of any pretrial hearing is held in chambers or otherwise closed to the public, a complete record of the proceedings shall be made and upon request shall be transcribed and filed and shall be available to the public following the completion of the trial or disposition of the case without trial. For the protection of innocent persons, the court may order that names be deleted or substitutions made therefor in the record.

25.02 Continuance or Change of Venue.

A motion for continuance or change of venue because of prejudicial publicity shall be governed by the following rules:

Subd. 1 At Whose Instance. A continuance or change of venue may be granted on motion of either the prosecution or the defense or on the court's own motion.

Subd. 2 Methods of Proof. In addition to the testimony or affidavits of individuals in the community, which shall not be required as a condition of the granting of a motion for continuance or change of venue, qualified public opinion surveys shall be admissible as well as other materials having probative value.

Subd. 3 Standards for Granting the Motion. A motion for continuance or change of venue shall be granted whenever it is determined that the dissemination of potentially prejudicial material creates a reasonable likelihood that in the absence of such relief, a fair trial cannot be had. A showing of actual prejudice shall not be required.

Subd. 4 Time of Disposition. If a motion for continuance or change of venue is made before the jury is sworn, the motion shall be determined before the jury is sworn. If a motion is made or if reconsideration of a prior denial is sought, it may be granted notwithstanding the fact that a jury has been sworn to try the case.

Subd. 5 Limitations: Waiver. It shall not be ground for denial of a change of venue that one such change has already been granted. The waiver of the right to trial by jury or the failure to exercise all available peremptory challenges shall not constitute a waiver of the right to a continuance or change of venue if a motion has been timely made.

RULE 26
TRIAL

26.01 Trial by Jury or by the Court.

Subd. 1 Trial by Jury.

(1) Right to Jury Trial.

(a) Offenses Punishable by Incarceration. A defendant shall be entitled to a jury trial in any prosecution for an offense punishable by incarceration. Except as otherwise provided by these rules, trials for misdemeanors shall be in the county court. Trials for felonies and gross misdemeanors shall be in the district court.

(b) Misdemeanors Not Punishable by Incarceration. In any prosecution for the violation of a misdemeanor not punishable by incarceration, trial shall be to the court.

(c) Trial De Novo in District Court in Misdemeanor Cases. If following final judgment in county court, a trial de novo is permitted in district court pursuant to Rule 28.01, the defendant shall be entitled to a jury trial in district court.

(2) Waiver of Trial by Jury.

(a) Waiver Generally. The defendant, with the approval of the court may waive jury trial provided he does so personally in writing or orally upon the record in open court, after being advised by the court of his right to trial by jury and after having had an opportunity to consult with counsel.

(b) Waiver When Prejudicial Publicity. The defendant shall be permitted to waive jury trial whenever it is determined that (a) the waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made, and (b) there is reason to believe that, as the result of the dissemination of potentially prejudicial material, the waiver is required to assure the likelihood of a fair trial.

(3) Withdrawal of Waiver of Jury Trial.

Waiver of jury trial may be withdrawn by the defendant at any time before the commencement of trial.

(4) Waiver of Number of Jurors Required by Law.

At any time before verdict, the parties, with the approval of the court, may stipulate that the jury shall consist of a lesser number than that provided by law. The court shall not approve such a stipulation unless the defendant, after being advised by the court of his right to trial by a jury consisting of the number of jurors provided by law, personally in writing or orally on the record in open court agrees to trial by such reduced jury.

(5) Number Required for Verdict.

A unanimous verdict shall be required in all cases.

(6) Waiver of Unanimous Verdict.

At any time before verdict, the parties, with the approval of the court, may stipulate that the jury may render a verdict on the concurrence of a specified number of jurors less than that required by law or these rules. The court shall not approve such a stipulation unless the defendant, after being advised by the court of his right to a verdict on the concurrence of the number of jurors specified by law, personally in writing or orally on the record waives his right to such a verdict.

Subd. 2 Trial Without a Jury. In a case tried without a jury, the court, within 7 days after the completion of the trial, shall make a general finding of guilty, not guilty, or if such pleas have been made, a general finding of not guilty by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency, double jeopardy, or that prosecution is barred by Minn. Stat. § 609.035 (1971), if appropriate. The court, within 7 days after the general finding, shall in addition specifically find the essential facts in writing or on the record. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it is sufficient if the findings of fact appear therein. If the court omits a finding on any issue of fact essential to sustain the general finding, it shall be deemed to have made a finding consistent with the general finding.

26.02 Selection of Jury.

Subd. 1 Selection and Qualifications. The jury list shall be composed of the names of persons selected at random from a fair cross-section of the residents of the county who are qualified by law to serve as jurors and shall otherwise be selected as provided by law. The jury shall be drawn from the jury list and summoned, as prescribed by law.

The same jury list and panel may be used for both the district and county court.

Subd. 2 List of Prospective Jurors. Upon request the clerk of court shall furnish the parties with a list of the names and addresses of the persons on the jury panel. The parties shall also have access to such other information as the clerk has obtained from prospective jurors.

Subd. 3 Challenge to Panel. Either party may challenge the jury panel on the ground that there has been a material departure from the requirements of law governing the selection, drawing or summoning of the jurors. The challenge shall be in writing, specifying the facts constituting the grounds of the challenge, and shall be made before a jury is sworn. If the opposing party objects to either the sufficiency of the challenge or the facts on which it is based, the court shall hear and determine the challenge.

Subd. 4 Voir Dire Examination.

(1) Purpose—By Whom Made.

A voir dire examination shall be conducted for the purpose of discovering bases for challenge for cause and for the purpose of gaining knowledge to enable an informed exercise of peremptory challenges. The judge shall initiate the voir dire examination by identifying the parties and their respective counsel and by briefly outlining the nature of the case. The judge shall then put to the prospective juror or jurors any questions which he thinks necessary touching their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case on trial and may give such preliminary instructions as are set forth in Rule 26.03, subd. 4. Before exercising challenges, either party may make a reasonable inquiry of a prospective juror or jurors in reference to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the case. A verbatim record of the voir dire examination shall be made at the request of either party.

(2) Sequestration of Jurors.

(a) Court's Discretion. In the discretion of the court the examination of each juror may take place outside of the presence of other chosen and prospective jurors.

(b) Prejudicial Publicity. Whenever there is a significant possibility that individual jurors will be ineligible to serve because of exposure to prejudicial material, the examination of each juror with respect to his exposure shall take place outside the presence of other chosen and prospective jurors.

(3) Order of Drawing, Examination and Challenge.

(a) Uniform Rule. Except as provided by Rule 26.02, subd. 4(3)(c)(8) with respect to cases of first degree murder, unless the court orders that the jurors shall be drawn, examined and challenged as provided either by Rule 26.02, subd. 4(3)(b) or (c), they shall be drawn, examined and challenged as follows:

1. The court shall first direct that such a number of the members of the jury panel be drawn and called as will equal the number of which the jury shall be composed for trial of the case plus the number of peremptory challenges available to all the parties and the number of any alternate jurors.

2. The prospective jurors so drawn and called shall take their place in the jury box and be sworn to answer truthfully questions asked them relative to their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case.

3. The prospective jurors shall be examined as to their qualifications, first by the court, then by the parties, commencing with the defendant.

4. A challenge for cause may be made at any time during voir dire by any party. At the close of voir dire any additional challenges for cause shall be made, first by the defense and then by the prosecution.

5. If any prospective juror is challenged and excused for cause another shall be drawn from the jury panel so that the number in the jury box will remain equal to the number initially called.

6. After both parties have had an opportunity to challenge for cause, each, commencing with the defendant, may exercise alternately the peremptory challenges permitted by these rules.

7. When the peremptory challenges have been exercised, the jury shall be selected from the remaining prospective jurors in the order in which they were called until the number selected equals the number of which the jury shall be composed for trial of the case plus the alternate jurors, if any.

(b) By Order of Court. The court may order that the jurors be drawn, examined and challenged as provided by Rule 26.02, subd. 4(3)(b) or (c) as follows:

1. The court shall first direct that such a number of the members of the jury panel be drawn and called as will equal the number of which the jury shall be composed for trial of the case plus the number of any alternate jurors.

2. The prospective jurors so drawn and called shall take their place in the jury box and be sworn to answer truthfully questions asked them relative to their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case.

3. The prospective jurors shall be examined as to their qualifications, first by the court, then by the parties, commencing with the defendant.

4. Upon completion of defendant's examination of a prospective juror, the defendant shall be permitted to exercise a challenge for cause or a peremptory challenge as permitted by these rules as to that juror. If the juror is excused, he shall be replaced by another member of the panel. The replacement juror shall be examined and challenged after all previously drawn jurors have been examined and challenged.

5. Upon completion of the examination and any challenge of each prospective juror by the defendant, the state may examine such prospective juror and may challenge the juror for cause or peremptorily. If the juror is excused, he shall be replaced by another member of the panel who shall be subject to examination and challenge in accordance with this rule.

6. This process of jury selection shall continue until the number of persons of which the jury shall be composed for trial of the case plus any alternate jurors is selected and sworn as the trial jury.

(c) By Order of Court.

1. The court shall direct that one prospective juror at a time be drawn from the jury panel for examination.

2. The prospective juror so drawn shall be sworn to answer truthfully questions asked him relative to his qualifications to serve as a juror in the case.

3. The prospective juror shall be examined by the court and then by the parties, commencing with the defendant.

4. Upon completion of defendant's examination, the defendant may challenge the juror for cause or peremptorily as permitted by these rules.

5. If the juror is excused, another prospective juror shall be drawn from the panel and shall be examined and subject to challenge in the same manner.

6. If a prospective juror is not excused after examination by the defendant, he may be examined by the state and may be challenged for cause or peremptorily by the state.

7. This process of selection shall continue until the number of persons of which the jury shall be composed for trial of the case is selected and sworn as the trial jury plus the number of any alternate jurors.

8. In cases of first degree murder, the method provided by Rule 26.02, subd. 4(3)(c) shall be preferred unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 5 Challenge for Cause.

(1) Grounds.

A juror may be challenged for cause by either party upon the following grounds:

1. The existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror, in reference to the case or to either party, which satisfies the court that the juror cannot try the case impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging.

2. A felony conviction unless his civil rights have been restored.

3. The lack of any of the qualifications prescribed by law to render a person a competent juror.

4. A physical or mental defect which renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

5. The consanguinity or affinity, within the ninth degree, to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or to the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant, or to any of the attorneys in the case.

6. Standing in relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, employer and employee, landlord and tenant, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted.

7. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against, or been accused by him, in a criminal prosecution.

8. Having served on the grand jury which found the indictment, or an indictment on a related offense.

9. Having served on a trial jury which has tried another person for the same or a related offense to that charged in the indictment, complaint or tab charge.

10. Having been a member of a jury formerly sworn to try the same indictment, complaint, tab charge or a related indictment, complaint or tab charge.

11. Having served as a juror in any case involving the defendant.

(2) How and When Exercised.

A challenge for cause may be oral and shall state the grounds on which it is based. The challenge shall be made before the juror is sworn to try the case, but the court for good cause shown may permit it to be made after he is sworn but before all the jurors constituting the jury are sworn. If a challenge for cause is made and the court sustains the challenge, the juror shall be excused.

(3) By Whom Tried.

If the opposing party objects to the sufficiency of a challenge for cause or the facts on which it is based, all issues of law or fact arising upon the challenge shall be tried and determined by the court.

Subd. 6 Peremptory Challenges. If the offense charged is punishable by life imprisonment the defendant shall be entitled to 15 and the state to 9 peremptory challenges. For any other offense, the defendant shall be entitled to 5 and the state to 3 peremptory challenges. If there is more than one defendant, the court may allow the defendant's additional peremptory challenges and permit them to be exercised separately or jointly, and in that event the state's peremptory challenges shall be correspondingly increased.

Subd. 7 Order of Challenges to the Panel and to Individual Jurors. Challenges to the panel and to individual jurors shall be made in the following order:

a. To the panel.

b. To an individual juror for cause.

c. Peremptory challenge to an individual juror.

Subd. 8 Alternate Jurors. A trial judge may impanel alternate or additional jurors whenever in his discretion, he believes it advisable to have such jurors available to replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. An alternate juror who does not replace a principal juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Alternate jurors, in the order in which they are called, shall replace jurors who prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, have the same qualifications, and be subject to the same examination and challenges for cause as the regular jurors. No additional peremptory challenges shall be allowed for alternate jurors except that unused peremptory challenges for the regular jury may be exercised against alternate jurors. If a juror becomes unable or disqualified to perform his duties after the jury has retired to consider its verdict, a mistrial shall be declared unless the parties agree pursuant to Rule 26.01, subd. 1(4) that the jury shall consist of a lesser number than that selected for the trial.

26.03 Procedures During Trial.

Subd. 1 Presence of Defendant.

(1) Presence Required.

The defendant shall be present at the arraignment, at the time of the plea, at every stage of the trial including the impaneling of the jury and the return of the verdict, and at the imposition of sentence, except as otherwise provided by these rules.

(2) Continued Presence Not Required.

The further progress of a trial to and including the return of the verdict shall not be prevented and the defendant shall be considered to waive his right to be present whenever:

1. a defendant voluntarily and without justification absents himself after trial has commenced; or

2. a defendant after warning engages in conduct which is such as to justify his being excluded from the courtroom because it tends to interrupt the orderly procedure of the court and the due course of the trial. As an alternative to exclusion, the court may use all such methods of restraint as will ensure the orderly procedure of the court and the due course of the trial.

(3) Presence Not Required.

A defendant need not be present in the following situations:

1. a corporation may appear by counsel for all purposes;
2. in the case of felonies or gross misdemeanors, on defendant's motion, the court may excuse the defendant from attendance at any proceeding except arraignment, plea, trial, and imposition of sentence; and
3. in prosecutions for misdemeanors, the court with the written consent of the defendant, or his oral consent in open court, may permit arraignment, plea, trial, and imposition of sentence in the defendant's absence.

Subd. 2 Custody and Restraint of Defendants and Witnesses.

- a. During the trial the defendant shall be seated where he can effectively consult with his counsel and can see and hear the proceedings.
- b. An incarcerated defendant or witness shall not appear in court in the distinctive attire of a prisoner.
- c. Defendants and witnesses shall not be subjected to physical restraint while in court unless the trial judge has found such restraint reasonably necessary to maintain order or security. If the trial judge orders such restraint, he shall state his reasons on the record outside the presence of the jury. Whenever physical restraint of a defendant or witness occurs in the presence of jurors trying the case, the judge shall on request of the defendant instruct those jurors that such restraint is not to be considered in assessing the proof and determining guilt.

Subd. 3 Use of Courtroom. Whenever appropriate in view of the notoriety of the case or the number or conduct of news media representatives present at any judicial proceeding, the court shall ensure the preservation of decorum by instructing those representatives and others as to the permissible use of the courtroom and other facilities of the court, the assignment of seats to news media representatives on an equitable basis, and other matters that may affect the conduct of the proceeding.

Subd. 4 Preliminary Instructions. After the jury has been impaneled and sworn, and before the opening statements of counsel, the court may instruct the jury as to the respective claims of the parties and as to such other matters as will aid the jury in comprehending the trial procedure and sequence to be followed. Preliminary instructions may also include such matters as burden of proof, presumption of innocence, the necessity of proof of guilt beyond reasonable doubt, the elements which the jury may consider in weighing testimony or determining credibility of witnesses, rules applicable to opinion, evidence, and such other rules of law, including the essential elements of the offense, as the court may deem essential to the proper understanding of the evidence. Such preliminary instructions shall be disclosed to the parties before they are given and either party may object to any specific instruction or propose instructions of his own to be given prior to trial.

Subd. 5 Sequestration of the Jury.

(1) In the Discretion of the Court.

During the period from the time the jurors are sworn until they retire for deliberation upon their verdict, the court, in its discretion, may either permit them and any alternate jurors to separate during recesses and adjournments or direct that they be continuously kept together during such period under the supervision of proper officers. The officers shall not speak to or communicate with any juror concerning any subject connected with the trial nor permit any other person to do so, and shall return the jury to the courtroom at the next designated trial session.

(2) On Motion.

Either party may move for sequestration of the jury at the beginning of trial or at any time during the course of the trial. Sequestration shall be ordered if it is determined that the case is of such notoriety or the issues are of such a nature that, in the absence of sequestration, highly prejudicial matters are likely to come to the attention of the jurors. Whenever sequestration is ordered, the court in advising the jury of the decision shall not disclose which party requested sequestration.

Subd. 6 Exclusion of the Public From Hearings or Arguments Outside the Presence of the Jury. If the jury is not sequestered, the defendant may move that the public be excluded from any portion of the trial that takes place outside the presence of the jury on the ground that dissemination of evidence or argument adduced at the hearing is likely to interfere with the defendant's right to a fair trial by an impartial jury. The motion shall not be granted unless it is determined that there is a substantial likelihood of such interference. With the consent of the defendant, the court may take such action on its own motion or at the suggestion of the prosecution. No exclusion order shall issue without the court setting forth the reasons therefor. Any person aggrieved may petition the supreme court for immediate review of the order granting or denying exclusion. Whenever under this rule part of the proceedings are held in chambers or otherwise closed to the public, a complete record of the proceedings shall be made and shall be available to the public following the completion of the trial. For the protection of innocent persons, the court may order that names be deleted or substitutions therefor be made in the record.

Subd. 7 Cautioning Parties, Witnesses, Jurors and Judicial Employees; Insulating Witnesses. Whenever appropriate, the court shall order attorneys, parties, witnesses, jurors, and employees and officers of the court not to make extra-judicial statements relating to the case or the issues in the case for dissemination by any means of public communication during the course of the trial.

Witnesses may be sequestered or excluded from the courtroom, prior to their appearance, in the discretion of the court.

Subd. 8 Admonitions to Jurors. Appropriate admonitions shall be given to the jury during the trial not to read, listen to, or watch reports about the case appearing in the news media.

Subd. 9 Questioning Jurors About Exposure to Potentially Prejudicial Material in the Course of a Trial. If it is determined that material disseminated outside the trial proceedings raises serious questions of possible prejudice, the court may on its own motion and shall on motion of either party question each juror, out of the presence of the others, about his exposure to that material. The examination shall take place in the presence of counsel, and a verbatim record of the examination shall be kept.

Subd. 10 View by Jury.

- a. When the court is of the opinion that a viewing by the jury of the place where the offense being tried was committed, or any other place involved in the case, will be helpful to the jury in determining any material factual issue, it may in its discretion, at any time before the closing arguments, order that the jury be conducted to such place.
- b. The jury must be kept together during the viewing under the supervision of a proper officer appointed by the court. The judge and a court reporter must be present, and with the judge's permission any other person may be present. The prosecuting attorney, the defendant and defense counsel may as a matter of right be present, but the right may be waived.
- c. The purpose of the viewing shall be solely to permit visual observation by the jury of the place in question, and neither the parties, counsel, nor the jurors while viewing the place may engage in discussion concerning the significance or implications of anything under observation or concerning any issue in the case.

Subd. 11 Order of Jury Trial. The order of a jury trial shall be substantially as follows:

- a. The jury shall be selected and sworn.
- b. The court may deliver preliminary instructions to the jury.
- c. The prosecuting attorney may make an opening statement to the jury, confining the statement to the facts he expects to prove.
- d. The defendant may make an opening statement to the jury, or he may make it immediately before he offers evidence in his defense. The statement shall be confined to a statement of the defense and the facts he expects to prove in support thereof.
- e. The prosecution shall offer evidence in support of the indictment, complaint or tab charge.
- f. The defendant may offer evidence in his defense.
- g. The prosecution may offer evidence in rebuttal of the defense evidence, and the defendant may then offer evidence in rebuttal of the prosecution's rebuttal evidence. In the interests of justice, the court may permit either party to offer evidence upon his original case.
- h. At the conclusion of the evidence, the prosecution may make a closing argument to the jury.
- i. The defendant may then make a closing argument to the jury.
- j. The court shall charge the jury.
- k. The jury shall retire for deliberation and, if possible, render a verdict.

Subd. 12 Note Taking. Jurors may take notes of the evidence presented at the trial and may keep these notes with them when they retire for deliberation.

Subd. 13 Substitution of Judge.

(1) Before or During Trial.

If by reason of death, sickness or other disability of the judge before whom pretrial proceedings or a jury trial has commenced is unable to proceed, any other judge sitting in or assigned to the court, upon certification that he has familiarized himself with the record of the proceedings or trial, may proceed with and finish the proceedings or trial.

(2) After Verdict or Finding of Guilt.

If by reason of absence, death, sickness or other disability, the judge before whom the defendant has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court after a verdict or finding of guilt, any other judge sitting in or assigned to the court may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

Subd. 14 Exceptions.

(1) Exceptions Abolished.

Exceptions to rulings or orders of the court or to the actions of a party are abolished. It is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of court is made or sought or the action of a party taken, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objections to the action of the court or of a party and his grounds therefore; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order or action at the time it is made or taken the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

(2) Bills of Exception and Settled Cases Abolished.

The bill of exceptions and settled case shall not be required. The record of the case for the purposes for which a bill of exceptions or settled case was heretofore required shall consist of the papers filed in the trial court, the offered exhibits, and the minutes of the court, and the transcript of the proceedings, if any.

Subd. 15 Evidence. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by these rules. All evidence shall be admitted which is admissible under the statutes of this state, or under the rules of evidence applied in the trials of criminal offenses in the courts of this state. In any case, the statute or rule which favors the reception of the evidence governs, and the evidence shall be presented according to the most convenient method prescribed in any of the statutes or rules to which reference is herein made. The competency of a witness to testify shall be determined in like manner.

Subd. 16 Interpreters. The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law.

Subd. 17 Motion for Judgment of Acquittal.

(1) Motion Before Submission to Jury.

Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of acquittal shall be used in their place. After the evidence on either side is closed, the court on motion of a defendant or on its own motion shall order the entry of a judgment of acquittal of one or more offenses charged in the indictment or complaint if the evidence is insufficient to sustain a conviction of such offense or offenses.

(2) Reservation of Decision on Motion.

If the defendant's motion is made at the close of the evidence offered by the prosecution, the court may not reserve decision on the motion. If the defendant's motion is made at the close of all the evidence, the court may reserve decision on the motion, submit the case to the jury and decide the motion either before the jury returns a verdict or after it returns a verdict or is discharged without having returned a verdict.

(3) Motion After Discharge of Jury.

If the jury returns a verdict of guilty or is discharged without having returned a verdict, a motion for judgment of acquittal may be made or renewed within 15 days after the jury is discharged or within such further time as the court may fix during the 15-day period. If a verdict of guilty is returned the court may on such motion set aside the verdict and enter judgment of acquittal. If no verdict is returned, the court may enter judgment of acquittal. Such a motion is not barred by defendant's failure to make a similar motion prior to the submission of the case to the jury.

Subd. 18 Instructions.

(1) Requests for Instructions.

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. At the same time copies of such requests shall be furnished to all parties. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to the arguments to the jury, and such action shall be made a part of the record.

(2) Proposed Instructions.

The court may, and upon request of any party shall, before the arguments to the jury, inform counsel what instructions will be given and all such instructions may be stated to the jury by either party as a part of his argument.

(3) Objections to Instructions.

No party may assign as error any portion of the charge or omission therefrom unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict. The matter to which objection is made and the grounds of the objection shall be specifically stated. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury and, on request of any party, out of the presence of the jury. All objections to instructions and the rulings thereon shall be included in the record. All instructions, whether given or refused, shall be made a part of the record. An error in the instructions with respect to fundamental law or controlling principle may be assigned in a motion for a new trial though it was not otherwise called to the attention of the court.

(4) Giving of Instructions.

The court in its discretion shall instruct the jury either before or after the arguments are completed except, at the discretion of the court, preliminary instructions need not be repeated. The instructions may be in writing and in the discretion of the court a copy may be taken to the jury room when the jury retires for deliberation.

(5) Contents of Instructions.

In charging the jury the court shall state all matters of law which are necessary for the jury's information in rendering a verdict and shall inform the jury that it is the exclusive judge of all questions of fact. The court shall not comment on the evidence or the credibility of the witnesses, but may state the respective claims of the parties.

Subd. 19 Jury Deliberations and Verdict.

(1) Materials to Jury Room.

The court shall permit the jury, upon retiring for deliberation, to take to the jury room exhibits which have been received in evidence, or copies thereof, except depositions and may permit a copy of the instructions to be taken to the jury room.

(2) Jury Requests to Review Evidence.

1. If the jury, after retiring for deliberation, requests a review of certain testimony or other evidence, the jurors shall be conducted to the courtroom. The court, after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, may have the requested parts of the testimony read to the jury and permit the jury to re-examine the requested materials admitted into evidence.

2. The court need not submit evidence to the jury for review beyond that specifically requested by the jury, but in its discretion the court may also have the jury review other evidence relating to the same factual issue so as not to give undue prominence to the evidence requested.

(3) Additional Instructions After Jury Retires.

1. If the jury, after retiring for deliberation, desires to be informed on any point of law, the jurors, after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, shall be conducted to the courtroom. The court shall give appropriate additional instructions in response to the jury's request unless: (a) the jury may be adequately informed by directing their attention to some portion of the original instructions; (b) the request concerns matters not in evidence or questions which do not pertain to the law of the case; or (c) the request would call upon the judge to express an opinion upon factual matters that the jury should determine.

2. The court need not give additional instructions beyond those specifically requested by the jury, but in its discretion the court may also give or repeat other instructions to avoid giving undue prominence to the requested instructions.

3. The court after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel may recall the jury after it has retired and give any additional instructions as the court deems appropriate.

(4) Deadlocked Jury.

The jury may be discharged without having agreed upon a verdict if it appears that there is no reasonable probability of agreement.

(5) Polling the Jury.

When a verdict is rendered and before the jury has been discharged, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. The poll shall be conducted by the court or clerk of court who shall ask each juror individually whether the verdict announced is his verdict. If the poll does not conform to the verdict, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberation or may be discharged.

(6) Impeachment of Verdict.

Affidavits of jurors shall not be received in evidence to impeach their verdict. If the defendant has reason to believe that the verdict is subject to impeachment, he shall move the court for a summary hearing. If the motion is granted the jurors shall be interrogated under oath and their testimony recorded.

26.04 Post-Verdict Motions.

Subd. 1 New Trial.

(1) Grounds.

The court on written motion of the defendant may grant a new trial on any of the following grounds:

1. If required in the interests of justice;
2. Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, or on the part of the prosecution, or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the defendant was deprived of a fair trial;
3. Misconduct of the jury or prosecution;
4. Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;
5. Material evidence, newly discovered, which with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at the trial;
6. Errors of law occurring at the trial, and objected to at the time or, if no objection is required by these rules, assigned in the motion;
7. The verdict or finding of guilty is not justified by the evidence, or is contrary to law.

(2) Basis of Motion.

A motion for new trial shall be made and heard on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. Pertinent facts that would not be a part of the minutes may be shown by affidavit except as otherwise provided by these rules. A full or partial transcript of the court reporter's notes of the testimony taken at the trial or other verbatim recording thereof may be used on the hearing of the motion.

(3) Time for Motion.

Notice of a motion for a new trial shall be served within 15 days after verdict or finding of guilty. The motion shall be heard within 30 days after the verdict or finding of guilty, unless the time for hearing be extended by the court within the 30-day period for good cause shown.

(4) Time for Serving Affidavits.

When a motion for new trial is based on affidavits, they shall be served with the notice of motion. The opposing party shall have 10 days after such service in which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended by the court upon an order extending the time for hearing under this rule. The court may permit reply affidavits.

Subd. 2 Motion to Vacate Judgment. The court on motion of a defendant shall vacate judgment, if entered, and dismiss the case if the indictment, complaint or tab charge does not charge an offense or if the court was without jurisdiction of the offense charged. The motion shall be made within 15 days after verdict or finding of guilty or after plea of guilty, or within such time as the court may fix during the 15-day period.

Subd. 3 Joinder of Motions. Any motions for judgment of acquittal or to vacate judgment shall be joined with a motion for a new trial.

Subd. 4 New Trial on Court's Own Motion. The court, within 15 days after verdict or finding of guilty, with the consent of the defendant, may order a new trial upon any of the grounds specified in Rule 26.04, subd. 1(1).

RULE 27

SENTENCE AND JUDGMENT

27.01 Conditions of Release.

When a defendant has been convicted and is awaiting sentence, the court may continue or alter the conditions for defendant's release, or may order confinement of the defendant, taking into account the conditions of release and the factors determining the conditions of release as provided by Rules 6.02, subd. 1 and subd. 2 and whether there is reason to believe that the defendant will flee or pose a danger to any person or to the community. The burden of establishing that the defendant will not flee or will not be a danger to any other person or to the community rests with the defendant.

27.02 Presentence Investigation.

Subd. 1 When Made. When a defendant has been convicted of a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor, and a sentence of life imprisonment is not required by law, the court may, before sentence is imposed, order a presentence investigation and report as provided by law and shall do so when required by law.

Subd. 2 Scope of Investigation and Report. The presentence investigation and report shall include the information permitted and required by law. In misdemeanor cases, the report may be oral if so directed by the court.

Subd. 3 Disclosure of Report. Subject to the limitations of Minn. Stat. § 609.115, subd. 4, a copy of the presentence report, if written, shall be provided to counsel for all parties before sentence. Otherwise, the presentence report shall be subject to disclosure only as provided by law. If the presentence report is given orally, the defendant or his attorney shall be permitted to hear the report.

Subd. 4 Mental or Physical Examination. Upon motion of the defendant or the prosecutor or on its own motion, the court may order the defendant to submit to a mental or physical examination which would be relevant to the sentencing decision. Copies of the report of such examination or any other examination to be considered for the purpose of sentencing shall be disclosed to counsel for the parties. Any evidence derived from the examination may not be used against the defendant in any subsequent proceedings or on retrial except for the review of the sentence.

27.03 Sentencing Proceedings.

Subd. 1 Hearings. Summary hearings upon the presentence report and upon the sentence to be imposed upon the defendant shall be held as provided by law. Before the sentencing proceeding, each party shall notify the opposing party and the court of any part of a written presentence report which he intends to controvert by the production of evidence. Both the prosecutor and the defendant or his attorney shall have an opportunity to controvert any part of an oral presentence report and for such purpose the court may continue the sentencing.

Subd. 2 Defendant's Presence at Sentencing. Defendant must be personally present at the time sentence is pronounced except when excused pursuant to Rule 26.03, subd. 1(3). Sentence may be pronounced against a corporation in the absence of counsel if counsel fails to appear on the date of sentence after reasonable notice thereof.

Subd. 3 Statements at Time of Sentence. Before pronouncing sentence, the court shall give the prosecutor and defense counsel an opportunity to make a statement with respect to any matter relevant to the question of the sentence. The court shall also address the defendant personally and ask him if he wishes to make a statement in his own behalf and to present any information before sentence. The court shall not accept any communication relative to sentencing that is not on the record without disclosing the contents to the defense and to the prosecution.

Subd. 4 Imposition of Sentence. When sentence is imposed the court:

- a. Shall state the precise terms of the sentence.
- b. Shall assure that the record accurately reflects all time spent in custody in connection with the offense or behavioral incident for which sentence is imposed, which time shall be automatically deducted from the sentence.

Subd. 5 Notice of Right to Appeal. After imposition of sentence or granting of probation in a case which has gone to trial the court shall inform the defendant of his right to appeal and the right of a person who is unable to pay the cost of appeal to apply for leave to appeal at state expense.

Subd. 6 Record. A verbatim record of the sentencing proceedings shall be made. In felony and gross misdemeanor cases any verbatim record made in accordance with this rule shall be transcribed. In misdemeanor cases any such record need not be transcribed unless requested by the court, the defendant or the prosecuting attorney.

Subd. 7 Judgment. The clerk's record of a judgment of conviction shall contain the plea, the verdict of findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, judgment shall be entered accordingly. The sentence or stay of imposition of sentence is an adjudication of guilt.

Subd. 8 Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record or errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

Subd. 9 Correction or Reduction of Sentence. The court at any time may correct a sentence not authorized by law. The court may at any time modify a sentence during either a stay of imposition or stay of execution of sentence except that the court may not increase the period of confinement.

RULE 28

TRIAL DE NOVO AND APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT

28.01 Appeal as of Right.

Subd. 1 Rights to Trial De Novo. Any person finally adjudged guilty in county court of a misdemeanor punishable by incarceration shall be entitled to a trial de novo in district court if the lower court judge or judicial officer who presided over the case was not learned in the law.

Subd. 2 Right to Appeal on the Record. In any misdemeanor case, a defendant as of right may appeal on the record to the district court any final judgment of conviction or an order refusing or imposing conditions of release.

Subd. 3 Final Judgment. A judgment shall be considered final within the meaning of these rules when there is a judgment of conviction upon the verdict of a jury or the finding of the court and sentence is imposed or the imposition of sentence is stayed.

28.02 De Novo Review of Conditions of Release.

In any misdemeanor case in which a defendant has a right to a trial de novo in district court a defendant may appeal to district court as of right for a de novo review of an order refusing or imposing conditions of release.

28.03 Discretionary Appeal.

The district court in the interests of justice and upon petition of the defendant may allow an appeal from an order not otherwise appealable, except an order made during trial, in the manner provided by the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for County and Municipal Courts. The petition shall be served and filed in the same manner and within the same time as provided for a notice of appeal in Rule 28.05, subd. 1.

28.04 Certification of Proceedings.

If, upon the trial of any person convicted in any county court, or if, upon any motion to dismiss a complaint or tab charge, or upon any motion relating to the complaint or tab charge, any question of law shall arise which in the opinion of the judge is so important or doubtful as to require a decision of the district court, he shall, if the defendant shall request or consent thereto, report the case, so far as may be necessary to present the question of law, and certify the report to the district court, whereupon all proceedings in the case shall be stayed until the decision of the district court. Other criminal cases in such county court involving or depending upon the same question may, if the defendants so request, or consent thereto, be stayed in the same manner until the decision of the case so certified.

28.05 Common Procedure for Appeals and for Trials De Novo.

Subd. 1 Service and Filing. To appeal on the record to district court or to obtain a trial de novo a defendant shall file written notice thereof with the clerk of the county court where the action was heard. The written notice shall be filed within ten (10) days after the entry of the adverse final judgment or order appealed from.

However, if a timely motion to vacate the judgment or for judgment of acquittal or for a new trial has been made, the notice of appeal from the final judgment may be filed within ten (10) days after the entry of the order denying the motion and the order denying the motion may be reviewed upon the appeal from the judgment.

A judgment or order is entered within the meaning of these appellate rules when it is entered upon the record of the clerk of the county court.

For good cause the county court or a judge of the district court may, before or after the time for filing a notice of appeal has expired with or without motion and notice, extend the time for filing a notice of appeal for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed herein for appeal.

A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, sentence or order but before the entry of judgment or order shall be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof.

The notice of appeal shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney not more than five (5) days after the filing. Proof of such service shall be filed with the clerk of the county court where the action was heard not more than three days after such service. No bond shall be required of a defendant as a condition for exercising his right to a trial de novo or to appeal on the record.

Subd. 2 Contents of Notice of Appeal. The notice of appeal shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal; shall designate the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken; shall state that the appeal is to the district court; and shall state whether the appeal is taken on the record or for a trial de novo.

Subd. 3 Costs of Appeal. All fees, other than for furnishing copies of documents, including appeal fees, hearing fees or filing fees, ordinarily charged by the clerks of district court, county court, or by justices of the peace shall automatically be waived in cases in which a public defender or appointed counsel represents the defendant taking the appeal. Such fees shall also be waived by the court upon a sufficient showing by the defendant that he is unable to pay the fees required.

Subd. 4 Stay of Sentence. The execution of judgment and sentence of the county court is stayed when an appeal for a trial de novo has been properly perfected and may be stayed by the trial court pending perfection of such an appeal. The county court pending an appeal upon the record from county court to district court or the district court upon perfection of such an appeal may stay execution of judgment or sentence if the defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that he will appear to answer the judgment following the conclusion of the appellate proceedings, that the defendant is not likely to commit a serious crime, intimidate witnesses, or otherwise interfere with the administration of justice, and that the appeal is not frivolous or taken for delay.

Subd. 5 Release of Defendant.

(1) Conditions of Release.

Upon appeal, if execution of sentence is stayed under Rule 28.05, subd. 4 or if no sentence of incarceration is imposed, the conditions for defendants' release and the factors determining the conditions of release shall be governed by Rules 6.02, subd. 1 and subd. 2. The court shall also take into consideration that the defendant may be compelled to serve the sentence imposed upon him before the district court has had an opportunity to consider the case.

(2) Application for Release Pending Appeal.

Application for release pending an appeal shall be made to the county court. If the county court refuses release pending appeal, or imposes conditions of release, the court shall state on the record the reasons for the action taken. Thereafter, if an appeal is pending a motion for release, or for modification of the conditions of release pending review, may be made to the district court. When a trial de novo is to be held the district court shall review any conditions of release at the defendant's first appearance in that court. In either case the motion may be made orally upon such portions of the record, affidavits, and with leave of court other evidence as the parties shall present after reasonable notice to the adverse party and shall be determined promptly.

(3) Credit for Time Spent in Custody.

All time the defendant is in custody pending an appeal shall be automatically deducted from the sentence imposed by the court.

28.06 Procedure for Trial De Novo.

Subd. 1 General Procedure. Upon a trial de novo in district court all proceedings including those prior to trial shall be as if the action had been initially commenced in that court.

Subd. 2 Sentencing. Following a trial de novo a more severe sentence may not be imposed by the district court than was imposed in the lower court unless the more severe sentence is justified by identifiable conduct by the defendant not known to the county court. The factual basis for any increased sentence shall be made a part of the record.

Subd. 3 Appearance by Defendant. If the defendant fails to appear as ordered by the court upon trial de novo, the district court may dismiss the appeal and remand the case to the county court for execution of judgment including sentence.

28.07 Procedure for Appeal on the Record.

Subd. 1 Record on Appeal and Scope of Review. The record on appeal to the district court and the scope of review by the district court shall be the same as provided by Rule 29.02, subd. 10 and subd. 12 governing misdemeanor appeals from the district court to the Supreme Court.

Subd. 2 Transcript of Proceedings and Transmission of the Transcript and Record. The Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure from the Minnesota County Courts to the district courts to the extent applicable shall govern the transcript of the proceedings, the transmission of the transcript and record to the district court, and the form and filing of briefs and appendices except that the appellant's brief shall also contain a statement of the procedural history.

Subd. 3 District Court Panel. The chief judge of the district court may order that an appeal on the record be heard and determined by a panel of three or more district court judges. The selection and number of Judges for the panel shall be as determined by the chief judge of the district court or by court rule.

Subd. 4 Action of District Appellate Court. The district court upon an appeal on the record may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or order appealed from, or take any other action as the interest of justice may require. If the district court affirms the judgment, it shall either direct that the sentence pronounced by the county court be executed or impose a lesser sentence. If the court reverses the judgment it shall either direct a new trial, or that the defendant be absolutely discharged or that the conviction be reduced to a lesser included offense. If the conviction is reduced, the district court shall either impose or stay imposition of a sentence or return the case to the county court for resentencing.

Subd. 5 Written Decision. The decision of the district court shall be in writing and shall include a recitation of the essential facts of the case and the conclusions of law on which the decision was based. The decision shall be filed with the clerk of the district court.

28.08 Appeal by Prosecuting Authority.

Subd. 1 Prosecuting Authority. As used in this rule prosecuting authority means that governmental unit authorized by law to prosecute the misdemeanor case giving rise to the appeal.

Subd. 2 Appealable Orders. The prosecuting authority may appeal to the district court from any pretrial order of the county court, except an order dismissing a complaint for lack of probable cause to believe the defendant has committed an offense or an order dismissing a complaint pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 631.21. The prosecuting authority may not appeal under the rule until after the evidentiary hearing and pretrial conference, if any, have been held under Rule 12, and all issues raised therein have been determined by the county court. No appeal by the prosecuting authority shall be taken after jeopardy has attached.

Subd. 3 Procedure. The procedure upon appeal by the prosecuting authority shall be as follows:

(1) Stay.

Upon oral notice that the prosecuting authority intends to appeal to the district court, the county court shall order a further stay of proceedings of five days to allow time to perfect the appeal.

(2) Notice of Appeal.

Within five (5) days after entry of the order staying the proceedings pursuant to subd. 3 (1) of this rule, the prosecuting authority shall file a written notice of appeal with the clerk of the county court where the action was heard. Within five days after filing the notice of appeal that notice shall be served upon the defendant or his attorney and proof of such service must be filed with the clerk of the county court not more than three days after such service. The prosecuting authority shall also in writing request the court reporter for such transcript of the proceedings as appellant deems necessary and shall file a copy of such written request with the clerk of the county court not more than three days after serving the notice of appeal upon the defendant or his attorney. Failure to request the transcript or to file a copy of such request or to file proof of service does not deprive the district court of jurisdiction over the prosecuting authority's appeal, but it is ground only for such action as the district court deems appropriate, including dismissal of the appeal.

(3) Transcript.

The court reporter shall file with the clerk of court the original transcript and affidavits of delivery of same to counsel for the prosecuting authority and counsel for the defendant. The clerk of said court shall forthwith transmit to the district court any original papers, files, and exhibits.

(4) Applicability of Rules of Civil Procedure.

Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Minnesota Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure from the Minnesota County Court to the District Courts shall govern the procedure in an appeal by the prosecuting authority to the district court.

(5) Attorneys' Fees.

Reasonable attorneys' fees incurred shall be allowed to the defendant on such appeal which shall be paid by the county in which the prosecution was commenced.

(6) Joinder.

The prosecuting authority may appeal from one or several of the orders under this rule joined in a single appeal.

(7) Effect on Case in County Court.

An appeal by the prosecuting authority under this rule bars any further appeal by the prosecuting authority from any existing orders not included in this appeal.

An appeal under this rule does not deprive the county court or jurisdiction over pending matters not included in the appeal.

Subd. 4 Cross-Appeal by Defendant. Upon appeal by the prosecuting authority, the defendant may obtain review of any pre-trial order, which will adversely affect him, by filing a notice of cross-appeal with the clerk of the district court within 10 days after service of notice of the appeal by the prosecuting authority under Rule 28.08, subd. 3 (2). Within 5 days after the notice of cross-appeal is filed, notice thereof shall be mailed to, or served upon the prosecuting authority by the defendant. Failure to mail or serve the notice does not deprive the district court of jurisdiction over defendant's cross-appeal, but is ground only for such action as the district court deems appropriate, including a dismissal of the cross-appeal.

Subd. 5 Conditions of Release. Upon appeal by the prosecuting authority, the conditions for defendant's release pending the appeal shall be governed by Rule 28.05, subd. 5.

28.09 No Direct Appeals to Supreme Court.

All appeals from county courts in misdemeanor cases whether on the record or for a trial de novo shall be to the district court only. Thereafter, appeals in such cases from the district court to the Supreme Court shall be as provided in Rule 29.

RULE 29
APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

29.01 Scope of Rules Governing Appeal.

Subd. 1 Appeals from District Court. These rules govern the procedure for appeals in criminal cases from the district courts to the Minnesota Supreme Court.

Subd. 2 Applicability of Rules of Civil Procedure. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Minnesota Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure to the extent applicable shall govern appellate procedures in such cases.

Subd. 3 Suspension of Rules. In the interest of expediting decision, or for other good cause shown, the Supreme Court may suspend the requirements or provisions of any of these rules in a particular case on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction, but the Supreme Court may not extend or shorten the time for filing notice of appeal except as provided by these rules.

29.02 Appeal by Defendant.

Subd. 1 Review by Appeal. Except as provided by law for the issuance of the extraordinary writs and for the Post-Conviction Remedy, a defendant may obtain review of orders and rulings of the county and district courts by the Supreme Court only by appeal as provided by these rules. Writs of error are abolished.

Subd. 2 Appeal as of Right.

(1) Final Judgment.

A defendant may appeal as of right from any final judgment adverse to him, except that in misdemeanor cases, he may appeal only with leave of the Supreme Court. A judgment shall be considered final within the meaning of these rules when there is a judgment of conviction upon the verdict of a jury or the finding of the court and sentence is imposed or the imposition of sentence is stayed.

(2) Orders in Felony and Gross Misdemeanor Cases.

A defendant may not appeal until final judgment adverse to him has been entered by the district court except that in felony and gross misdemeanor cases a defendant may appeal from:

1. An order granting a new trial when the defendant claims that the trial court should have entered a final judgment in his favor; or

2. An order, not on his motion, finding him incompetent to stand trial; or

3. An order refusing or imposing conditions of release.

Subd. 3 Discretionary Appeal. The Supreme Court in the interests of justice and upon petition of the defendant may allow an appeal from an order not otherwise appealable, except an order made during trial, in the manner provided by the Minnesota Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure, provided that the petition shall be served and filed within thirty (30) days after entry of the order appealed.

Subd. 4 Certification of Proceedings in Felony and Gross Misdemeanor Cases. If, upon the trial of any person convicted in any district court, or if, upon any motion to dismiss a complaint or indictment, or upon any motion relating to the indictment or complaint, any question of law shall arise which in the opinion of the judge is so important or doubtful as to require a decision of the Supreme Court, he shall, if the defendant shall request or consent thereto, report the case, so far as may be necessary to present the question of law, and certify the report to the Supreme Court, whereupon all proceedings in the case shall be stayed until the decision of the Supreme Court. The county attorney shall, upon the certification of the report, forthwith furnish a copy to the attorney general at the expense of the county. Other criminal cases in such district court involving or depending upon the same question may, if the defendants so request, or consent thereto, be stayed in like manner until the decision of the case so certified.

Subd. 5 How Appeal Is Taken in Felony and Gross Misdemeanor Cases.

(1) Notice of Appeal.

An appeal from a judgment or order shall be taken by the defendant by filing a notice of appeal with the clerk of the district court. Failure of the defendant to take any other step than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such action as the Supreme Court deems appropriate, including a dismissal of the appeal. Within 5 days from the filing of the notice of appeal, a copy of the notice shall be served on or mailed to the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney. Upon the filing of the notice of appeal, the clerk shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the notice to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(2) Contents of Notice of Appeal.

The notice of appeal shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal; shall designate the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken; and shall state that the appeal is to the Supreme Court.

(3) Time for Taking an Appeal.

The notice of appeal by a defendant shall be filed in the district court within 90 days after the entry of the judgment or order appealed from. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, sentence, or order but before the entry of judgment or order shall be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof. If a timely motion to vacate the judgment or for judgment of acquittal, or for a new trial on any ground other than newly discovered evidence has been made, an appeal from a final judgment may be taken within 90 days after the entry of an order denying the motion, and the order denying the motion may be reviewed upon the appeal from the judgment.

A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence will similarly extend the time for appeal from a judgment of conviction if the motion is made before or within 90 days after entry of judgment.

A judgment or order is entered within the meaning of these appellate rules when it is entered upon the record of the clerk of the district court.

For good cause the district court or a justice of the Supreme Court may, before or after the time for appeal has expired, with or without motion and notice, extend the time for filing a notice of appeal for a period not to exceed 30 days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed herein for appeal.

Subd. 6 Obtaining Permission to Appeal in Misdemeanor Cases.

(1) Petition for Permission to Appeal in Misdemeanor Cases.

A defendant wishing to appeal shall file with the Clerk of the District Court a petition for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court. Within five (5) days from the filing of the petition, a copy of the petition shall be served on or mailed to the attorney general and the prosecuting authority. Proof of such service shall be filed with the clerk of the district court where the action was heard not more than three (3) days after such service. Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the petition to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(2) Contents of Petition; Time for Filing Petition.

The petition shall designate the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken; shall state that the appeal is to the Supreme Court; and shall indicate briefly the reasons why the Supreme Court should exercise its discretion to review the case. The petition shall also include or have annexed thereto a copy of any recitation of the essential facts of the case, conclusions of law and memorandum relating thereto. The petition shall be filed with the district court within ten (10) days after service of notice on the defendant or his attorney that the judgment, order or decision has been filed with the clerk of the district court. Upon a trial de novo in district court, if a timely motion to vacate the judgment or for judgment of acquittal or for a new trial has been made, the petition for permission to appeal from the final judgment may be filed within ten (10) days after service of notice on the defendant or his attorney that the order denying such motion has been filed with the clerk of the district court. The order denying any such motion may be reviewed upon the appeal from the judgment.

(3) Early Filing.

A petition of a defendant filed after announcement of a decision, sentence or order but before the judgment or order is entered upon the record of the clerk of district court or before the decision is filed with the clerk shall be treated as filed after such entry or filing of the decision and on the day thereof.

(4) Extension of Time.

For good cause the district court or a justice of the Supreme Court may, before or after the time for petitioning for permission to appeal has expired, with or without motion and notice, extend the time for filing a petition for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed herein for filing a petition.

(5) Reasons for Review.

The Supreme Court in deciding whether to exercise its discretion to permit an appeal will consider among other factors the following:

1. Whether the question of law presented is so important or doubtful as to require a decision by the Supreme Court;

2. Whether there is a conflict among the District or County Court judges in deciding the question of law involved;

3. Whether the appeal presents a public policy question of statewide significance;

4. Whether the appeal involves a constitutional issue; and

5. Any extraordinary circumstances which would require review in the interests of justice.

(6) Reply to Petition.

When a petition for permission to appeal has been filed, the opposing party may file a response with the Clerk of District Court within ten days after service of the petition. Failure to respond to the petition shall not be considered as agreement with the petition. The Clerk of the District Court shall promptly transmit a certified copy of any response to the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

(7) Grant of Permission.

If permission to appeal is granted, the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall notify the Clerk of the District Court and the parties to the action. The Appellant shall then pay any appeal fee required and shall thereafter proceed as though the appeal had been noticed by service of a written notice of an appeal.

(8) Time for Transmitting Record and Filing Briefs.

The time fixed for transmitting the record and for filing the briefs and appendix shall run from the date of the entry of the order granting permission to appeal.

Subd. 7 Proceedings in Forma Pauperis. Proceedings on appeal in forma pauperis shall be as follows:

1. An indigent defendant wishing the service of an attorney in an appeal or post conviction case shall make application therefor to the office of the Public Defender, addressed as follows:

Minnesota State Public Defender
The Law School, University of Minnesota
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455.

2. The office of the State Public Defender shall promptly send to such applicant a financial inquiry form and a preliminary questionnaire form.

3. The applicant shall, if he wishes to pursue his application, completely fill out both of these forms, sign each of these forms, and have his signature notarized on each of these forms.

4. The applicant shall then return these two completed documents to the office of the State Public Defender for further processing.

5. If the pauper status of the applicant appears to the State Public Defender's office to be established, the State Public Defender's office shall in felony and gross misdemeanor cases and may in misdemeanor cases then request, by letter to the Minnesota Supreme Court, the appointment of the State Public Defender's office to represent the applicant. Otherwise the State Public Defender's office shall notify the applicant of any problem relative to his qualifications to obtain the services of the State Public Defender's office.

Any applicant who contests a decision of the State Public Defender's office that the pauper status has not been established may apply to a justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court for relief.

6. All requests for transcripts or efforts to have cases reviewed in which the defendant is not represented by an attorney shall be referred by the court receiving the same to the office of the State Public Defender for processing. Any applicant who then wishes to proceed without an attorney representing him shall advise the court and the State Public Defender's office in writing that he waives any right he may have to the services of the State Public Defender's office.

7. All clerks of district court, all clerks of municipal and county courts and all justices of peace shall furnish the office of the State Public Defender, copies of any documents in their possession, without the prior payment of the fees therefor and shall bill the office of the State Public Defender for these copies after they have been furnished to the State Public Defender's office.

8. All fees, other than for furnishing copies of documents, including appeal fees, hearing fees or filing fees, ordinarily charged by the clerks of district court, municipal court or by justices of peace, shall automatically be waived in cases in which the State Public Defender's office, or a District Public Defender's office, represents the client in question.

9. Unless otherwise specifically provided by court order, the State Public Defender's office shall be appointed to represent all eligible indigent defendants in all appeal or post-conviction cases, regardless of which county in the state is the county in which the defendant was accused.

10. In post-conviction cases, the cost of transcripts and other necessary expenses shall be borne by the State of Minnesota from funds available to the State Public Defender's office, regardless of which county in the state is the county in which the defendant was accused.

11. The cost of transcripts and other necessary expenses in all indigent appeal cases shall likewise be paid from funds available to the State Public Defender's office when the county in which the defendant was accused is within a judicial district which has a District Public Defender, including Ramsey and Hennepin Counties.

12. In all indigent appeal cases arising from judicial districts which do not have a District Public Defender system, the costs of transcripts and other necessary expenses shall be borne by the county therein in which the defendant was accused, and the State Public Defender's appointment to represent the accused in these cases, whether felonies, gross misdemeanors or misdemeanors, shall be pursuant to the procedures set forth in Minn. Stat. § 611.071, subd. 4 (a) (1971).

Subd. 8 Stay. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, the execution of judgment or sentence shall not be stayed unless a stay is granted by the district court judge who handled the case or a justice of the Supreme Court.

Subd. 9 Release of Defendant.

(1) Conditions of Release.

Upon appeal, if the court grants a stay under subd. 8 of this rule, the conditions for defendant's release and the factors determining the conditions of release shall be governed by Rule 6.02, subd. 1 and subd. 2, except as hereinafter provided by this rule.

(2) Burden of Proof.

Release pending appeal from a judgment of conviction shall not be granted unless the defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the court that there is no substantial risk the defendant will not appear to answer the judgment following the conclusion of the appellate proceedings, that the defendant is not likely to commit a serious crime, intimidate witnesses, or otherwise interfere with the administration of justice, and that the appeal is not frivolous or taken for delay.

(3) Application for Release Pending Appeal.

Application for release pending appeal shall be made in the first instance to the district court. If the district court refuses release pending appeal, or imposes conditions of release, the court shall state on the record the reasons for the action taken. Thereafter, if an appeal is pending, a motion for release, or for modification of the conditions of release, pending review, may be made to the Supreme Court or a justice thereof. The motion shall be determined promptly upon such papers, affidavits, and portions of the record as the parties shall present and after reasonable notice to the adverse party. The Supreme Court or a justice thereof may order the release of the defendant pending disposition of the motion.

Subd. 10 Record on Appeal. The record on appeal shall consist of the papers filed in the trial court, the offered exhibits, and the transcript of the proceedings, if any. Bills of exception and settled cases are abolished.

In lieu of the record as defined by this rule, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement is accurate, it, together with such additions as the trial court may consider necessary to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the trial court and shall be on the record on appeal. Any recitation of the essential facts of the case, conclusions of law, and memorandum relating thereto of the trial court shall be included with the record.

Subd. 11 Transcript of Proceedings and Transmission of the Transcript and Record. The Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure to the extent applicable shall govern the transcript of the proceedings, the transmission of the transcript and record to the Supreme Court, and the form and filing of briefs and appendices, except that the appellant's brief shall also contain a statement of the procedural history.

Subd. 12 Scope of Review. On appeal from a judgment, the court may review any pretrial or trial order or ruling, whether or not a motion for new trial has been made, and may review the denial of a motion for new trial to vacate judgment or for judgment of acquittal, whether ruled upon before or after judgment. The court may review any other matter as the interests of justice may require.

Subd. 13 Action of Appellate Court. On appeal from a judgment, if the court affirms the judgment, it shall direct the sentence pronounced be executed. If it reverses the judgment, it shall either direct a new trial, or that the defendant be absolutely discharged or that the conviction be reduced to a lesser included offense or to an offense of lesser degree, as the case may require. If the conviction is reduced, the case shall be returned to the court which imposed the sentence for resentencing.

29.03 Appeal by Prosecuting Authority.

Subd. 1 Appealable Orders. The prosecuting authority may appeal to the Supreme Court:

1. in any felony or gross misdemeanor case, as of right, from any pretrial order of the district court, and

2. in any misdemeanor case, only with permission of the Supreme Court, any adverse decision of the district court acting pursuant to Rule 28.07, subd. 4, or any pretrial order of the district court upon a trial de novo, except an order dismissing a complaint for lack of probable cause to believe the defendant has committed an offense or an order dismissing a complaint pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 631.21.

Subd. 2 Procedure. The procedure upon appeal by the prosecuting authority shall be as follows:

(1) Stay.

Upon oral notice that the prosecuting authority intends to appeal as of right or petition for permission to appeal, the trial court shall order a stay of proceedings of five (5) days in felony and gross misdemeanor cases to allow time to perfect the appeal, and of ten (10) days in misdemeanor cases to allow time to file the petition. In misdemeanor cases, upon timely filing of the petition, proceedings shall be stayed until the appeal is decided or the petition denied by the Supreme Court.

(2) Obtaining Permission to Appeal in Misdemeanor Cases.

(a) Petition for Permission to Appeal.

A prosecuting authority wishing to appeal shall file with the clerk of district court a petition for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court. Within five (5) days from the filing of the petition, a copy of the petition shall be served on or mailed to the opposing party and to the attorney general of the State of Minnesota. Proof of such service shall be filed with the clerk of the district court where the action was heard not more than three (3) days after such service. Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk shall promptly transmit a certified copy of the petition to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(b) Contents of Petition; Time for Filing Petition.

The petition shall specify that the prosecuting authority is seeking the appeal; shall designate the pretrial order or orders from which the appeal is taken; shall state that the appeal is to the Supreme Court, and shall indicate briefly the reasons why the Supreme Court should exercise its discretion to review the case. The petition shall also include or have annexed thereto a copy of any recitation of the essential facts of the case, conclusions of law and memoranda relating thereto. The petition shall be filed with the district court:

- (i) following the district court's decision of an appeal from a pretrial order of the county court on the record, within ten (10) days after service of notice upon the prosecuting authority that the decision of the district court has been filed as required by Rule 28.07, subd. 5;
- (ii) following an appealable pretrial order of the district court, upon a trial de novo, within ten (10) days after that order is made by the court.

(c) Procedure.

Rule 29.02, subd. 6 (4) to (8) shall apply to a prosecuting authority seeking permission to appeal to the Supreme Court in a misdemeanor case.

(3) Notice of Appeal in Felony and Gross Misdemeanor Cases.

Within five (5) days of entry of the order staying proceedings, the prosecuting authority shall file with the clerk of the court a notice of appeal, together with an affidavit of service of said notice upon opposing counsel, and upon the attorney general of the State of Minnesota, and a copy of the written request to the court reporter for such transcript of the proceedings as appellant deems necessary.

(4) Transcript.

In felony and gross misdemeanor cases the court reporter shall file with the clerk of court the original transcript and affidavits of delivery of same to counsel for the prosecuting authority and counsel for the defendant.

In misdemeanor cases within five (5) days after service of notice of permission to appeal a pretrial order of the district court upon a trial de novo, the prosecuting authority shall in writing, request the court reporter for such transcript of the proceedings as it deems necessary, and shall file with the clerk of the district court a copy of such written request within eight (8) days after service of notice of permission to appeal. In all cases the clerk of the district court shall forthwith transmit to the Supreme Court any original papers, files and exhibits, including in misdemeanor case, any part of the record received from the county court.

(5) Briefs.

Within fifteen (15) days of delivery of the transcript or in a misdemeanor case, where service of notice of permission to appeal occurs after delivery of the transcript, within fifteen (15) days of such service, the appellant shall serve upon opposing counsel his brief and file with the clerk of the Supreme Court 15 copies thereof and within 8 days of such service upon him the respondent shall serve his brief and file with said clerk 15 copies thereof. Typewritten copies of the transcript and briefs may be submitted in lieu of printed transcripts and briefs.

(6) Dismissal by Attorney General.

In appeals by the prosecuting authority the attorney general may, in his discretion, within 20 days after entry of the order staying proceedings, dismiss the appeal and shall within 3 days thereafter give notice thereof to the judge of the lower court and file with the clerk of said court notice of such dismissal. The lower court shall then proceed as if no appeal had been taken.

(7) Hearing.

The appeal may be heard before the Supreme Court when it is in session upon application of either party to such court or a justice thereof. The date of hearing shall not be more than 6 months after entry of the order staying proceedings. The Supreme Court shall not hear any such appeal after 6 months after entry of the order staying proceedings and in such cases the lower court shall then proceed as if no appeal had been taken.

(8) Attorney's Fees.

Reasonable attorneys' fees incurred shall be allowed to the defendant on such appeal which shall be paid by the county in which the prosecution was commenced.

(9) Joinder.

The prosecuting authority may appeal from one or several of the orders under this rule joined in a single appeal.

(10) Time for Appeal. The prosecuting authority may not appeal under this rule until after the Omnibus Hearing has been held under Rule 11, or the evidentiary hearing and pretrial conference, if any, have been held under Rule 12, and all issues raised therein have been determined by the district court. An appeal by the prosecuting authority under this rule bars any further appeal by the prosecuting authority from any existing orders not included in the appeal.

An appeal under this rule does not deprive the district court of jurisdiction over pending matters not included in the appeal.

Subd. 3 Cross-Appeal by Defendant. Upon appeal by the prosecuting authority, the defendant may obtain review of any pretrial order, which will adversely affect him, by filing a notice or cross-appeal with the clerk of the Supreme Court within ten (10) days after service of notice of the appeal by the prosecuting authority under Rule 29.03, subd. 2 (3) or within ten (10) days after service of notice that permission has been granted to appeal under Rule 29.03, subd. 2 (2). Within five (5) days after the notice of cross-appeal is filed notice thereof shall be mailed to, or served upon the attorney general and the prosecuting authority by the defendant. Failure to mail or serve the notice does not deprive the Supreme Court of jurisdiction over defendant's cross-appeal, but is ground only for such action as the Supreme Court deems appropriate, including a dismissal of the cross-appeal.

Subd. 4 Conditions of Release. Upon appeal by the prosecuting authority, the conditions for defendant's release pending the appeal shall be governed by Rules 6.02, subd. 1 and subd. 2, and, in the case of misdemeanors, also by Rule 28.05, subd. 5.

RULE 30

DISMISSAL

30.01 By Prosecuting Attorney.

The prosecuting attorney may in writing or on the record, stating the reasons therefor, dismiss a complaint or tab charge without leave of court and an indictment with leave of court. If the dismissal is on the record, it shall be transcribed and filed.

30.02 By Court.

If there is unnecessary delay by the prosecution in bringing a defendant to trial, the court may dismiss the complaint, indictment or tab charge.

RULE 31

HARMLESS ERROR AND PLAIN ERROR

31.01 Harmless Error.

Any error, defect, irregularity or variance which does not affect substantial rights shall be disregarded.

31.02 Plain Error.

Plain errors or defects affecting substantial rights may be considered by the court upon motions for new trial, post-trial motions, and on appeal although they were not brought to the attention of the trial court.

RULE 32

MOTIONS

An application to the court for an order shall be by motion. A motion other than one made during a trial or hearing shall be in writing unless the court or these rules permit it to be made orally. The motion shall state the grounds upon which it is made and shall set forth the relief or order sought and may be supported by affidavit.

RULE 33

SERVICE AND FILING OF PAPERS

33.01 Service: Where Required.

Written motions other than those which are heard ex parte, written notices, and other similar papers shall be served upon each of the parties.

33.02 Service: How Made.

Whenever under these rules or by an order of court service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made in the manner provided in civil actions or as ordered by the court or as required by these rules.

33.03 Notice of Orders.

Immediately upon the entry of an order made on a written motion subsequent to arraignment the clerk shall mail to each party a copy thereof and shall make a record of the mailing. Lack of notice of the entry by the clerk does not affect the time to appeal or relieve or authorize the court to relieve a party for failure to appeal within the time allowed, except as permitted by these rules.

33.04 Filing.

Papers required to be served shall be filed with the court. Papers shall be filed in the manner provided in civil actions.

RULE 34

TIME

34.01 Computation.

Time shall be computed as follows:

The day of the act or event from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday. When a period of time prescribed or allowed is seven days or less, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation. As used in these rules, "legal holiday" includes New Year's Day,

Washington's Birthday (Presidents' Birthday), Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and any other day appointed as a holiday by the President or the Congress of the United States or by the State.

34.02 Enlargement.

When an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done if the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but the court may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 26.03, subd. 17 (3); 26.04, subd. 1 (3); or 26.04, subd. 2 or except as provided by Rule 29.02, subd. 5 (3), the time for taking an appeal.

34.03 For Motions: Affidavits.

A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than five days before the time specified for the hearing unless a different period is fixed by rule or order of court. For cause shown such an order may be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served not less than one day before the hearing unless the court permits them to be served at a later time.

34.04 Additional Time After Service by Mail.

Whenever a party has the right or is required to do an act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or other paper is served upon him by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

34.05 Unaffected by Expiration.

The continued existence or the expiration of a term of court does not affect or limit the period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding, or affect the power of the court to do any act or take any proceeding in any action which has been pending before it.

RULE 35

COURTS AND CLERKS

The district and county courts shall be deemed open at all times for the purpose of filing any proper paper, of issuing and returning or certifying process and of making motions and orders. Unless the court orders otherwise, the court shall be deemed opened at all times, except legal holidays, for the transaction of any other business that may be presented. The clerk's office with the clerk or a deputy in attendance shall be open during business hours on all days except Saturdays, Sundays, or particular legal holidays.

RULES OF COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL STANDARDS

- A. Organization of Commission
 - 1. Appointment of Commissioners

As provided by Minn. St. 490.15 to 490.17 (L.1971, c.909), the Commission on Judicial Standards shall consist of nine members. Notice of appointment of the commissioners shall be given by the appointing agency to the chief justice of the supreme court immediately after the selection is made. The district court judge member shall be selected by the Minnesota District Judges Association. The probate court member shall be selected by the Minnesota Probate Judges Association. The municipal court member shall be selected by the Minnesota Municipal Judges Association. The two lawyer members shall be selected by the board of governors of the Minnesota State Bar Association. The four citizen members shall be selected by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.
 - 2. Terms of Office
 - (a) The term of each member shall be four years, except that to achieve staggered terms the initial appointment shall be as follows:
 - (i) The members first chosen by the district, municipal, and probate judges shall be appointed to four-year terms.
 - (ii) One of the first lawyer members shall be designated to serve a two-year term and the other shall be designated to serve a four-year term.
 - (iii) Two of the first citizen members shall be designated to serve two-year terms and the other two shall be designated to serve four-year terms.
 - (b) No member shall serve more than two full four-year terms or their equivalent. The first two-year terms served by the lawyer member and the two citizen members shall be deemed equivalent to a full four-year term for purposes of this section. A member selected to serve the remainder of an unexpired term shall not be considered to have served the equivalent of a full four-year term for purposes of this section.
 - 3. Vacancy
 - (a) A vacancy in the office of a commissioner shall occur upon any of the following events:
 - (i) When a commissioner ceases to be a member of the commission.
 - (ii) When a judge who is a member of the commission ceases to hold the office which he held at the time of his selection.

(iii) When a lawyer selected by the members of the state bar ceases to be admitted to practice in the courts of this state or is appointed to a judicial office.

(iv) When an appointee of the governor becomes a lawyer or accepts a judicial position.

(b) Vacancies shall be filled by selection of a successor in the same manner as required for the selection of his predecessor in office. A commissioner selected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor. All vacancies in the office of commissioner shall be filled within 90 days after the vacancy occurs.

(c) Members of the commission may retire therefrom submitting their resignations to the commission, which shall certify the vacancy to the selecting authority.

- 4. Expenses of Commission and Staff
 - (a) The expenses of the commission shall be paid from appropriations of funds to the Commission on Judicial Standards.
 - (b) Members serve without compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
 - (c) The commission may employ or appoint an executive secretary and other employees to perform such duties as it shall direct, subject to the availability of funds under its budget.
- 5. Quorum and Chairman
 - (a) A quorum for the transaction of business by the commission shall be five members of the commission.
 - (b) The commission shall elect from its members a chairman and a vice-chairman, each of whom shall serve a term of two years. The vice-chairman shall act as chairman in the absence of the chairman. In the absence of both the chairman and the vice-chairman, the members present may select one among them to act as temporary chairman.

- 6. Meetings of Commission

Meetings of the commission shall be held at the call of the chairman, the vice-chairman, the executive secretary or the written request of three members of the commission.
- 7. Annual Report

At least once a year the commission shall prepare a report summarizing its activities during the preceding year. One copy of this report shall be filed with the chief justice of the supreme court and other copies may be made available to the public by a majority vote of the full commission.

- B. Scope of Commission Powers

The commission shall have all of the powers provided by Minn. St. 490.15 through 490.17 (L. 1971, c. 909), these rules, and such administrative rules of the commission as may be approved by the supreme court.

- C. Definitions

In these rules, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires—

 - 3. "Respondent" is a judge against whom a complaint has been filed.
 - 4. "Chairman" is the chairman of the commission and includes the acting chairman.
 - 5. "Referee" means one or more judges,

APPENDIX 10. RULES OF COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL STANDARDS

active or retired, appointed by the supreme court upon request of the commission, or one or more members of the commission designated by the commission, to hold hearings on a complaint against a judge filed by the commission.

6. "Counsel" means one or more attorneys appointed by the commission to gather and present evidence for the commission in proceedings before the supreme court, before a referee or the commission.
 7. "Grievance" is a verified statement requesting an investigation of a particular judge.
 8. "Complaint" is a written document filed by order of the commission for disciplinary action under this rule against a judge, pursuant to M. S. Section 490.16.
- D. Preliminary Investigation and Complaints.
1. The commission, upon receiving a verified statement of grievance found upon examination and inquiry to be neither unfounded nor frivolous, alleging facts that a judge may be subject to censure, removal or retirement pursuant to the provision of M. S. Section 490.16, shall make a preliminary investigation to determine whether a complaint shall be filed and a hearing held. The commission may on its own motion and without receiving a verified statement make inquiry and a preliminary investigation with respect to whether a judge is guilty of misconduct in office or is physically or mentally disabled. Upon request of the chief justice of the supreme court, the commission shall make a preliminary investigation of the conduct or physical or mental condition of a judge.
 2. Before filing a complaint or recommending an order of private censure, the commission shall give written notice to the judge of the nature of the charges being made against him and he shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present personally, in writing or orally, such matters as he may choose for consideration by the commission explaining, refuting, or admitting the alleged misconduct or disability.
 3. If the preliminary investigation does not disclose sufficient cause to warrant filing a complaint, the commission may terminate its investigation, or, if warranted, privately censure or recommend to the supreme court private censure stating the reasons therefor. If notice has been given to the judge pursuant to the preceding paragraph, he shall be notified of the termination of the investigation, or, as the case may be, of the recommendation of private censure. An order of private censure shall be kept secret and confidential. The judge so censured may request the supreme court for a hearing thereon by the commission. In such case, the supreme court may remand the matter to the commission for hearing as upon formal complaint.
- E. Commission Filing of Complaint
1. After the preliminary investigation has been completed, if the commission concludes that formal proceedings should be instituted, the commission shall without delay serve a written complaint to the judge advising him of the institution of formal proceedings to inquire into the charges against him. Such proceedings shall be entitled:
Before the Commission on Judicial Standards Inquiry Concerning a Judge, No. _____.
 2. The complaint shall be in a form similar to a complaint filed in a civil action in a district court. It shall state in ordinary and concise language the charges against the judge and the alleged facts upon which the charges are based, and shall advise the judge of his right to file a written answer to the charges within 20 days after service of the complaint upon him.
 3. Whenever provision is made under this rule for serving notice, complaint, or other document upon a judge, such service shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure for district courts except that documents shall be filed with the secretary of the commission rather than the clerk of court.

F. Answer

Within 20 days after service of the complaint, the respondent may file with the commission an answer in a form similar to that of an answer in a civil action in a district court.

G. Setting for Hearing and Appointment of a Referee

1. Upon the filing of an answer or upon expiration of the time for its filing, the commission shall set a time and place of hearing before itself or before a referee and shall give notice of such hearing to the respondent at least 20 days prior to the date set.
2. If the commission directs that the hearing be held before a referee to be appointed by the supreme court, the commission shall file an ex parte written request to the supreme court to appoint a referee for such purpose accompanied by a copy of the complaint. The supreme court shall, within 10 days from receipt of such request, appoint a referee to conduct such hearing.
3. The commission shall, upon demand, furnish not less than 10 days prior to any hearing, the names and addresses of all witnesses whose testimony the commission intends to offer at the hearing together with copies of all written statements and transcripts of testimony of such witnesses in the possession of the commission which are relevant to the subject matter of the hearing.

H. Hearing

1. At the time and place set for hearing, the commission, or the referee when the hearing is before a referee, shall proceed with a hearing which as nearly as may be possible shall conform to the rules of procedure and evidence governing the trial of civil actions in the district courts, whether or not the respondent has filed an answer or appears at the hearing. Counsel shall present the evidence in support of the charges set forth in the complaint.
2. The failure of the respondent to answer or to appear at the hearing shall not, standing alone, be taken as evidence of the truth of the facts alleged to constitute grounds for commission action. The failure of the respondent to answer or to testify in his own behalf may be considered as an evidentiary fact, unless it appears that such failure was due to circumstances unrelated to the facts in issue at the hearing.
3. In any proceeding for involuntary retirement for disability, the commission may direct the respondent to submit to physical and mental examination as ordered.
4. The proceedings at the hearing shall be reported by a voice recorder or by a stenographer designated by the commission or referee.
5. When the hearing is before the commission, not less than five members shall be present while the hearing is in active progress. Procedural and other interlocutory rulings shall be made by the chairman and shall be taken as consented to by the other members of the commission unless one or more calls for a vote, in which case such rulings shall be made by a majority of those present.

I. Procedural Rights of Judge

1. In proceedings involving his censure, removal, or retirement, a judge shall have the right and reasonable opportunity to defend against the charges by the introduction of evidence, to be represented by counsel, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. He shall also have the right to the issuance of subpoenas for attendance of witnesses to testify or produce books, papers, and other evidentiary matter.
2. When a transcript of the testimony has been prepared at the expense of the commission, a copy thereof shall, upon request, be available for use by the judge and his counsel in connection with the proceedings, or the judge may arrange to

- procure a copy or copies at his expense. The judge shall have the right, without any order or approval, to have all or any portion of the testimony in the proceedings transcribed at his expense.
3. If the judge is adjudged insane or incompetent, or if it appears to the commission at any time during the proceedings that he is not competent to act for himself, the commission shall appoint a guardian ad litem unless the judge has a guardian who will represent him. In the appointment of such guardian ad litem, preference shall be given, whenever possible, to members of the judge's immediate family. The guardian or guardian ad litem may claim and exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the judge with the same force and effect as if claimed, exercised, or made by the judge, if competent, and whenever these rules provide for serving or giving notice or sending any matter to the judge, such notice or matter shall be served, given, or sent to the guardian or guardian ad litem.
- J. Issuance, Service, and Return of Subpoenas
At the request of the commission, the referee, counsel or the respondent, before or after the issuance of a complaint, subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents before the commission or referee, shall be issued out of the district court in the county in which the hearing is to be held in like manner and with like effect as in civil proceedings.
- K. Amendments to Complaint or Answer.
The referee, at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or the commission at any time prior to its determination, may allow or require amendments to the complaint or answer. The complaint may be amended to conform to the proofs or to set forth additional facts, whether occurring before or after the commencement of the hearing. In case such an amendment is made, the respondent shall be given reasonable time both to answer the amendment and to prepare and present his defense against the matters charged thereby.
- L. Report of Referee
1. After the conclusion of the hearing before the referee, he shall promptly prepare and transmit to the commission a report which shall contain a brief statement of the proceedings had and his findings of fact with respect to the issues presented by the complaint and the answer thereto, or if there be no answer, his findings of fact with respect to the allegations in the complaint. The report shall be accompanied by an original and at least two copies of a transcript of the proceedings before the referee.

In its decision, the supreme court may direct that no motion for rehearing will be entertained, in which event its decision shall be final upon filing. If the court does not so direct and the respondent wishes to file a motion for rehearing, he may present a motion for rehearing within 15 days after filing of the decision.

X. Interested Party

A judge who is a member of the commission or of the supreme court may not participate as such in any proceedings involving his own censure, removal, or retirement.
