

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1979 SUPPLEMENT

223.02 COMMISSION MERCHANTS

CHAPTER 223. COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Sec.
223.02 License; bond.

223.02 License; bond.

No person shall sell, or receive, or solicit shipments of such commodities for sale, without first obtaining a license from the department of agriculture to carry on the business of a commission merchant, and filing with the department a corporate surety bond to the state for the benefit of such consignors, approved by the department, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such commission merchant and full compliance with all the laws of the state and rules of the department relative thereto. If the license authorizes the sale of grain the bond shall not be for a less sum than $25,000 for each separate municipality in which the commission merchant maintains an office for the conduct of such business. If the license only authorizes the sale of hay and straw the bond shall be not less than $8,000. In either case the department may at any time require such an additional amount of bond as it may deem necessary to protect the consignors.

Subd. 2. Public hay tracks. The department of agriculture shall designate at convenient places on the several lines of railway entering terminal points in this state, tracks to be known as public hay tracks. The different railway companies either separately or jointly are hereby required to provide suitable tracks to meet the requirements of this chapter. Such public hay tracks may be established on each individual line of railway, or they may be so established as to serve for two or more railways.

[For text of subd 3, see M.S.1978]

[1979 c 332 art 1 s 68]

229.07 Weighers and inspectors; appeals; reinspection and final review.

The department of agriculture shall appoint a suitable number of persons to perform such weighing and inspecting of hay and straw. Such weighers and inspectors shall be under the immediate supervision of the department. In case of dissatisfaction of any interested person with the official acts of any inspector, reinspection may be had upon application to the department. A final appeal from the decision of the department may be made to the board of final review, to be provided for by the department under the rules it shall establish. The decision of such board of review shall be final, provided the department may provide suitable rules for the cancelation of any certificate of inspection issued upon original inspection, reinspection or upon final review when it appears that owing to the manner in which cars of hay or straw were loaded it was impossible for the inspector to obtain a fair sample.
