

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1979 SUPPLEMENT

402.062 HUMAN SERVICES ACT

the state planning agency. Each affected state agency shall accept the plan of the human services board in lieu of separate plan requirements for individual programs. To support the development of the budget and to provide standardized information to affected state agencies, each human services board shall adopt a standard chart of accounts to be developed by rule by the commissioner of public welfare with the approval of the commissioners of health and corrections.

Subd. 2. Prior to adoption of the plan by the human services board, the board shall hold a public hearing. The human services board shall make copies of the plan available to the public for review and shall invite written and oral comments. The human services board shall show evidence of participation by private service providers in the development of the plan and shall encourage their comments regarding the use of governmental and nongovernmental service providers.

Subd. 3. Each affected state agency shall review the plan and shall approve or reject it based on the rules in effect for the programs under its jurisdiction. Notice of approval or rejection shall be delivered to the board in writing within 60 days of plan submission.

[1979 c 118 s 8]

402.065 Budget, levy; audit.

In conjunction with the county budget setting process, the human services board shall submit to each county board of commissioners participating in the human services board an estimate of the amount needed by it to perform its duties, including expenses of administration, and, if approved, each county shall levy a tax as provided by law for these purposes. In the event the estimate is not approved, each county board of commissioners participating in the human services board shall confer with the human services board, develop a budget and levy a tax for the amount required. The state auditor shall audit the books and accounts of the human services board once each year. The human services board shall pay to the state the total cost and expenses of the examination, including the salaries paid to auditors while actually engaged in making the examination. The revolving fund of the state auditor shall be credited with all collections made for any examination.

[1979 c 118 s 9]

402.07 Termination.

The county boards party to an agreement to designate a human services board may terminate the agreement and no longer manage the public resources devoted to human services in their counties but only on notice of an intention to terminate delivered to the commissioners of public welfare, health, and corrections not less than 90 days before the effective date of the termination. On the termination all public resources devoted to human services shall be managed in accordance with the provisions of law then in effect.

[1979 c 118 s 10]

402.095 Reports to legislature.

The state planning agency shall report to the legislature biennially not later than January 15 of odd numbered years on the experience of human services boards. The report shall include an assessment of the effect of establishment of human services boards on the cost and quality of services provided.

CHAPTER 410. CLASSIFICATION; CHARTERS

Sec.
410.05 Charter commission.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1979 SUPPLEMENT

INCORPORATION, DETACHMENT, ANNEXATION 414.035

410.05 Charter commission.

[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1978]

Subd. 2. Commission members; terms, vacancies. Charter commission members shall hold office for the term of four years, and until their successors are appointed and qualify, except that of members initially appointed after July 1, 1967, eight shall be appointed for two year terms and seven for four year terms. No person may be appointed to more than two successive terms as a commission member. Vacancies in the commission shall be filled by appointment of the chief judge for the unexpired terms. Upon the expiration of each term, the chief judge shall appoint new commission members. If the chief judge fails to appoint new commission members within 30 days then thereafter the governing body of the city shall, appoint new commission members, unless within the 30 day period the chief judge indicates in writing to the governing body his intention to appoint new members, in which case he shall have an additional 60 days within which to make the appointment. Appointments shall be made by order filed with the clerk of the district court. An appointee who neglects to file with the clerk within 30 days a written acceptance and oath of office shall be deemed to have declined the appointment and his place shall be filled as though he had resigned. The charter commission, within 30 days after the initial appointment of the commission, shall make rules, including quorum requirements, with reference to its operations and procedures. The commission shall submit to the chief judge of the district court, on or before December 31 of each year, an annual report outlining its activities and accomplishments for the preceding calendar year. The commission shall forward a copy of the report to the clerk of the city. Any member may be removed at any time from office, by written order of the district court, the reason for such removal being stated in the order. When any member has failed to perform the duties of his office and has failed to attend four consecutive meetings without being excused by the commission, the secretary of the charter commission shall file a certificate with the court setting forth those facts and the district court shall thereupon make its order of removal and the chief judge shall fill the vacancy created thereby.
