

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1979 SUPPLEMENT

546.27 TRIALS

the salary of any judge shall be paid unless the voucher therefor be accompanied by a certificate of the judge that he has fully complied with the requirements of this section.

Subd. 2. The board on judicial standards shall annually review the compliance of each district, county, municipal, or probate judge with the provisions of subdivision 1. The board shall notify the state court administrator of each judge not in compliance. If the board finds that a judge has compelling reasons for noncompliance, it may decide not to issue the notice. Upon notification that a judge is not in compliance, the commissioner of finance shall not pay the judge his salary. The board may cancel a notice of noncompliance upon finding that a judge has returned his status to compliance, but in no event shall a judge be paid his salary for the period in which the notification of noncompliance was in effect.

CHAPTER 548. JUDGMENTS

Sec.
548.15 Discharge of record.

548.15 Discharge of record.

Upon the satisfaction of a judgment, whether wholly or in part, or as to all or any of several defendants, the clerk shall enter such satisfaction in the judgment book, and note the same, with the date thereof, on the docket. If the docketing be upon a transcript from another county, the entry on the docket shall be sufficient. A judgment shall be deemed satisfied when there is filed with the clerk:

- (1) An execution satisfied, to the extent stated in the sheriff's return thereon;
- (2) A certificate of satisfaction signed and acknowledged by the judgment creditor;
- (3) A like certificate signed and acknowledged by the attorney of such creditor, unless his authority as such has previously been revoked and an entry of such revocation made upon the register; but the authority of an attorney to satisfy a judgment shall cease at the end of six years from its entry;
- (4) An order of the court, made on motion, requiring the execution of a certificate of satisfaction, or directing satisfaction to be entered without it;
- (5) Where a judgment is docketed on transcript, a copy of either of the foregoing documents, certified by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was originally entered and in which the originals were filed.

A satisfaction made in the name of a partnership shall be valid if executed by a member thereof while the partnership continues. The judgment creditor, or his attorney while his authority continues, may also satisfy a judgment of record by a brief entry on the register, signed by him and dated and witnessed by the clerk, who shall thereupon note such satisfaction on the margin of the docket. When a judgment is satisfied otherwise than by return of execution, the judgment creditor or his attorney shall give a certificate thereof.

CHAPTER 549. COSTS, DISBURSEMENTS

Sec.
549.09 Interest on verdicts and judgments.

549.09 Interest on verdicts and judgments.

Subdivision 1. When the judgment is for the recovery of money, including a judgment for the recovery of taxes, interest from the time of the verdict or report until judgment is finally entered shall be computed by the clerk as provided in this section and added to the judgment. The interest shall be computed as simple interest per annum. The rate of interest shall be based on the weighted average discount yield of competitive
