Subdivision 1. Notices. When any employee, employees, or representative of employees, or labor organization shall desire to negotiate a collective bargaining agreement, or make any change in any existing agreement, or shall desire any changes in the rates of pay, rules or working conditions in any place of employment, it shall give written notice to the employer of its demand, which notice shall follow the employer if the place of employment is changed, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the employer and the representative of employee or labor organization to endeavor in good faith to reach an agreement respecting such demand. An employer shall give a like notice to his employees, representative, or labor organizations of any intended change in any existing agreement. If no agreement is reached at the expiration of ten days after service of such notice, any employees, representative, labor organization, or employer may at any time thereafter petition the director of mediation services to take jurisdiction of the dispute and it shall be unlawful for any labor organization or representative to institute or aid in the conduct of a strike or for an employer to institute a lock-out, unless such petition has been served by the party taking such action upon the director and the other parties to the labor dispute at least ten days before the strike or lock-out becomes effective. Unless the strike or lock-out is commenced within 90 days from the date of service of the petition upon the director, it shall be unlawful for any of the parties to institute or aid in the conduct of a strike or lock-out without serving a new petition in the manner prescribed for the service of the original petition, provided that the 90-day period may be extended by written agreement of the parties filed with the director.

A petition by the employer shall be signed by him or his duly authorized officer or agent; and a petition by the employees shall be signed by their representative or its officers, or by the committee selected to negotiate with the employer. In either case the petition shall be served by delivering it to the director in person or by sending it by certified mail addressed to him at his office. The petition shall state briefly the nature of the dispute and the demands of the party who serves it. Upon receipt of a petition, the director shall fix a time and place for a conference with the parties to the labor dispute upon the issues involved in the dispute, and he shall then take whatever steps he deems most expedient to bring about a settlement of the dispute, including assisting in negotiating and drafting a settlement agreement. It shall be the duty of all parties to a labor dispute to respond to the summons of the director for joint or several conferences with him and to continue in such conference until excused by the director, not beyond the ten-day period heretofore prescribed except by mutual consent of the parties.

Subd. 2. Director, powers and duties. The director may at the request of either party to a labor dispute render assistance in settling the dispute without the necessity of filing the formal petition referred to in subdivision 1. If the director takes jurisdiction of the dispute as a result of such a request, he shall then proceed as provided in subdivision 1.

179.07 LABOR DISPUTE AFFECTING PUBLIC INTERESTS; PROCEDURE.

If the dispute is in any industry, business, or institution affected with a public interest, which includes, but is not restricted to, any industry, business, or institution engaged in supplying the necessities of life, safety, or health, so that a temporary suspension of its operation would endanger the life, safety, health, or well-being of a substantial number of people of any community, the provisions of section 179.06 shall apply and the director of mediation services shall also notify the governor who may appoint a commission of three to conduct a hearing and make a report on the issues involved and the merits of the respective contentions of the parties to the dispute. If the governor decides to appoint a commission, he shall so advise the director who shall immediately notify the parties to the labor dispute and also inform them of the date of the notification to the governor. The members of such commission shall on account of vocations, employment, or affiliations be representatives of employees, employers, and the public, respectively. Such report shall be filed with the governor not less than five days before the end of the 30-day period hereinafter provided and may be published as he may determine in one or more legal newspapers in the counties where the dispute exists. If and when the governor shall notify the director of his decision to appoint a commission, neither party to the dispute shall make any change in the situation affecting the dispute and no strike or lockout shall be instituted until 30 days shall have elapsed after the notification to the governor. In case the governor shall fail to appoint a commission within five days after the notification to him, this limitation on the parties shall be suspended and inoperative. If the governor shall thereafter appoint a commission, no strike or lockout having been instituted in the meantime, the limitation shall again become operative, but in no case for more than the 30-day period. The 30-day period may be extended by stipulation upon the record of the hearing before the commission or by written stipulation signed by the parties to the labor dispute and filed with the director. If so extended, the report of the commission shall be filed with the governor not less than five days before the end of the extended period.

Such attendance of witnesses and the production of such evidence may be required from any place in the state at any designated place of hearing, but hearings shall be held in a county where the labor dispute has arisen or exists;

(2) In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued under clause (1), the district court of the state for the county where the proceeding is pending or in which the person guilty of such contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business, or application by the commission shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commission, there to produce evidence as so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation or in question, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof;

(3) Any party to or party affected by the dispute may appear before the commission in person or by attorney or by their representative, and shall have the right to offer competent evidence and to be heard on the issues before the report is made.

Any commissioners so appointed shall be paid a per diem of $75 and their necessary expenses while serving.

179.083 JURISDICTIONAL CONTROVERSIES.

Whenever two or more labor organizations adversely claim for themselves or their members jurisdiction over certain classifications of work to be done for any employer or in any industry, or over the persons engaged in or performing such work and such jurisdictional interference or dispute is made the ground for picketing an employer or declaring a strike or boycott against him, the director of mediation services shall certify that fact to the governor. Upon receipt of such certification the governor, in his discretion, may appoint a labor referee to hear and determine the jurisdictional controversy. If the labor organizations involved in the controversy have an agreement between themselves defining their respective jurisdictions, or if they are affiliated with the same labor federation or organization which has by the charters granted to the contending organizations limited their jurisdiction, the labor referee shall determine the controversy in accordance with the proper construction of the agreement or of the provisions of the charters of the contending organizations. If there is no agreement or charter which governs the controversy, the labor referee shall make such decision as, in consideration of past history of the organization, harmonious operation of the industry, and most effective representation for collective bargaining, will best promote industrial peace. If the labor organizations involved in the controversy so desire, they may submit the controversy to a tribunal of the federation or labor organization which has granted their charters or to arbitration before a tribunal selected by themselves, provided the controversy is so submitted prior to the appointment by the governor of a labor referee to act in the controversy. After the appointment of the labor referee by the governor, or the submission of the controversy to another tribunal as herein provided, it shall be unlawful for any person or labor organization to call or conduct a strike or boycott against the employer or industry or to picket any place of business of the employer or in the industry on account of such jurisdictional controversy.

If such agreement so provides, the director of mediation services may act as a member of any arbitration tribunal created by any such agreement and, if the agreement so provides, the director may appoint one or more of such arbitrators. Either or both of the parties to any such agreement or any arbitration tribunal created under any such agreement may apply to the director to have the tribunal designated as a temporary arbitration tribunal and, if so designated, the temporary arbitration tribunal shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses and to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, which subpoenas shall be enforced in the same manner as subpoenas issued by the commission under section 179.08. Any such temporary arbitration tribunal shall file with the director a copy of its report, duly certified by its chairman.

PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT LABOR RELATIONS ACT OF 1971

179.61 PUBLIC POLICY.

It is the public policy of this state and the purpose of sections 179.61 to 179.76 to promote orderly and constructive relationships between all public employers and their employees, subject however, to the paramount right of the citizens of this state to keep inviolate the guarantees for their health, education, safety and welfare.

The relationships between the public, the public employees, and their employer governing bodies imply degrees of responsibility to the people served, need of cooperation and employment protection which are different from employment in the private sector. So also the essentiality and public desire for some public services tend to create imbalances in relative bargaining power or the resolution with which either party to a disagreement presses its position, so that unique approaches to negotiations and resolutions of disputes between public employees and employers are necessary.

Unresolved disputes between the public employer and its employees are injurious to the public as well as to the parties; adequate means must therefore be established for minimizing them and providing for their resolution. Within the foregoing limitations and considerations the legislature has determined that overall policy may best be accomplished by:

(1) granting to public employees certain rights to organize and choose freely their representatives;

(2) requiring public employers to meet and negotiate with public employees in an appropriate bargaining unit and providing for written agreements evidencing the result of such bargaining; and

(3) establishing special rights, responsibilities, procedures and limitations regarding public employment relationships which will provide for the protection of the rights of the public employee, the public employer and the public at large.

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided by subdivision 1a and section 179.692, public employees, other than confidential, essential, managerial and supervisory employees and other than principals and assistant principals, may strike only under the following circumstances:

(1)(a) The collective bargaining agreement between their exclusive representative and their employer has expired or, if there is no agreement, impasse under section 179.692 has occurred; and

(b) The exclusive representative and the employer have participated in mediation over a period of at least 45 days, provided that the mediation period established by section 179.692 shall govern negotiations pursuant to that section. For the purposes of this sub-clause the mediation period commences on the day following receipt by the director of a request for mediation; and

(c) Written notification of intent to strike was served on the employer and the director by the exclusive representative on or after the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement or, if there is no agreement, on or after the date impasse under section 179.692 has occurred and at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike, provided that if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification; or

(2) The requirements of clause (1) have been satisfied and a request for binding arbitration has been rejected pursuant to section 179.69; or

(3) The employer violates section 179.68, subdivision 2, clause (9); or

(b) The entire legislature rejects or fails to ratify a negotiated agreement or arbitration award, which has been approved during a legislative interim by the legislative commission on employee relations, at a special legislative session called to consider it, or at its next regular legislative session, whichever occurs first.

Written notification of intent to strike, under clause (3) or (4), shall be served on the employer and the director by the exclusive representative at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike, provided that if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification.

Subd. 1a. Except as otherwise provided by section 179.691, teachers employed by a local school district, other than principals and assistant principals, may strike only under the following circumstances:

(1)(a) The collective bargaining agreement between their exclusive representative and their employer has expired or, if there is no agreement, impasse under section 179.691 has occurred; and

(b) The exclusive representative and the employer have participated in mediation over a period of at least 60 days, 30 days of which have occurred after the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement, provided that the mediation period established by section 179.691 shall govern negotiations pursuant to that section. For the purposes of this sub-clause the mediation period commences on the day following receipt by the director of a request for mediation; and

(c) Written notification of intent to strike was served on the employer and the director by the exclusive representative on or after the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement or, if there is no agreement, on or after the date impasse under section 179.691 has occurred and at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike, provided that if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification; and

(d) A request for binding arbitration has been rejected pursuant to section 179.69; or

(2) 45 days after impasse pursuant to section 179.69, subdivisions 3, 3a and 3b neither party has requested arbitration; or

(3) The employer violates section 179.68, subdivision 2, clause (9).

Written notification of intent to strike under clauses (2) and (3) shall be served on the employer and the director by the exclusive representative at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike, provided that if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification, and further provided that notice of intent to strike under clause (2) shall be given no earlier than the last day of the period provided in clause (2).

Subd. 1b. Except as authorized in this section, all strikes by public employees shall be illegal. Except as provided in this section, no unfair labor practice or violation of sections 179.61 to 179.76 by a public employer shall give public employees a right to strike. Those factors may be considered, however, by the court in mitigation of or retraction of any penalties provided by this section.

During the period after contract expiration and prior to the date when the right to strike matures, and for additional time if agreed, the terms of an existing contract shall continue in effect and shall be enforceable upon both parties.

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any public employee who strikes in violation of the provisions of this section may have his appointment or employment terminated by the employer effective the date the violation first occurs. The termination shall be made by serving written notice upon the employee. Service may be made by certified mail.

Subd. 3. For purposes of this subdivision an employee who is absent from any portion of his work assignment without permission, or who abstains wholly or in part from the full performance of his duties without permission from his employer on the date or dates when a strike not authorized by this section occurs is prima facie presumed to have engaged in an illegal strike on the date or dates involved.

Subd. 4. A public employee who knowingly participates in a strike in violation of the provisions of this section and whose employment has been terminated pursuant to this section may subsequently be appointed or reappointed, employed or reemployed, but the employee shall be on probation for two years with respect to the civil service status, tenure of employment, or contract of employment to which he was previously entitled.

No employee shall be entitled to any daily pay, wages, reimbursement of expenses, or per diem for the days on which he engaged in a strike.

Subd. 5. Any public employee shall be entitled to request the opportunity to establish that he did not violate the provisions of this section. The request shall be filed in writing with the officer or body having the power to remove the employee, within ten days after notice of termination is served upon him. The employing officer or body shall within ten days commence a proceeding at which the employee shall be entitled to be heard for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of this section have been violated by the public employee. If there are contractual grievance procedures, laws or rules establishing proceedings to remove the public employee, the hearing shall be conducted in accordance with whichever procedure the employee elects provided that the election shall be binding and shall terminate any right to the alternative procedures. The same proceeding may include more than one employee's employment status if the employees' defenses are identical, analogous or reasonably similar. The proceedings shall be undertaken without unnecessary delay. Any person whose termination is sustained in the administrative or grievance proceeding may secure a review of his removal by serving a notice of appeal upon the employer removing him within 20 days after the results of the hearing have been announced. This notice, with proof of service thereof, shall be filed within ten days after service, with the clerk of the district court in the county where the employer has its principal office or in the county where the employee last was employed by the employer. The district court shall have jurisdiction to review the matter in the same manner as on appeal from administrative orders and decisions. This hearing shall take precedence over all matters before the court and may be held upon ten days written notice by either party. The court shall make such order as it deems proper. An employer may obtain review of a decision to reinstate an employee in the same manner as provided for appeals by employees in this subdivision. An appeal may be taken from the district court order to the supreme court.

Subd. 6. An employee organization which has been found pursuant to section 179.68 to have violated this section shall upon such finding lose its status, if any, as exclusive representative following such finding; and may not be so certified by the director for a period of two years following such finding; nor may any employer deduct employee payments to any such organization for a period of two years.

Subd. 7. [Repealed, 1980 c 617 s 45]

History: Ex1971 c 33 s 4; 1973 c 635 s 7,8; 1979 c 332 art 1 s 59; 1980 c 617 s 22-26

179.65 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF EMPLOYEES.

Subdivision 1. Nothing contained in sections 179.61 to 179.76 shall be construed to limit, impair or affect the right of any public employee or his representative to the expression or communication of a view, grievance, complaint or opinion on any matter related to the conditions or compensation of public employment or their betterment, so long as the same is not designed to and does not interfere with the full faithful and proper performance of the duties of employment or circumvent the rights of the exclusive representative if there be one; nor shall it be construed to require any public employee to perform labor or services against his will. If no exclusive representative has been certified, any public employee individually, or group of employees through their representative, shall have the right of expression or communication of a view, grievance, complaint or opinion on any matter related to the conditions or compensation of public employment or their betterment, by meeting with their public employer or his representative so long as the same is not designed to and does not interfere with the full, faithful and proper performance of the duties of employment.

Subd. 2. Public employees shall have the right to form and join labor or employee organizations, and shall have the right not to form and join such organizations. Public employees in an appropriate unit shall have the right by secret ballot to designate an exclusive representative for the purpose of negotiating grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of employment for such employees with the employer of such unit. All public employees who are not members of the exclusive representative may be required by said representative to contribute a fair share fee for services rendered by the exclusive representative in an amount equal to the regular membership dues of the exclusive representative, less the cost of benefits financed through the dues and available only to members of the exclusive representative, but in no event shall the fee exceed 85 percent of the regular membership dues. The exclusive representative shall provide advance written notice of the amount of the fair share fee assessment to the director, the employer and to a list furnished by the employer of all employees within the unit. A challenge by an employee or by a person aggrieved by the assessment shall be filed in writing with the director, the public employer, and the exclusive representative within 30 days after receipt of the written notice. All challenges shall specify those portions of the assessment challenged and the reasons therefor but the burden of proof relating to the amount of the fair share fee shall be on the exclusive representative. The employer shall deduct the fee from the earnings of the employee and transmit the fee to the exclusive representative 30 days after the written notice was provided, or, in the event a challenge is filed, the deductions for a fair share fee shall be held in escrow by the employer pending a decision by the director pursuant to section 179.71, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. Public employees who are professional employees as defined by section 179.63, subdivision 10, have the right to meet and confer with public employers regarding policies and matters not included under section 179.63, subdivision 18, pursuant to section 179.73.

Subd. 4. Public employees through their certified exclusive representative have the right and obligation to meet and negotiate in good faith with their employer regarding grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of employment, but such obligation does not compel the exclusive representative to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

Subd. 5. Public employees shall have the right to request and be allowed dues check off for the exclusive representative. In the absence of an exclusive representative, public employees shall have the right to request and be allowed dues check off for the organization of their choice.

Subd. 6. Except for confidential employees excluded from bargaining pursuant to sections 179.74, subdivision 4, and 179.741, supervisory and confidential employees, principals and assistant principals may form their own organizations. An employer shall extend exclusive recognition to a representative of or an organization of supervisory or confidential employees, or principals and assistant principals, for the purpose of negotiating terms or conditions of employment, in accordance with all other provisions of sections 179.61 to 179.76, as though they were essential employees. Supervisory or confidential employee organizations shall not participate in any capacity in any negotiations which involve units of employees other than supervisory or confidential employees. A supervisory or confidential employee organization which is affiliated, either directly or indirectly, with another employee organization which is the exclusive representative of non-supervisory or non-confidential employees of the same public employer or with a federation or other joint body of employee organizations, any one of whose affiliates is the exclusive representative of non-supervisory or non-confidential employees of the same public employer, shall not be certified as, or act as, an exclusive representative pursuant to sections 179.61 to 179.76 or section 179.742, except in the case of organizations of non-state, non-university of Minnesota essential supervisory employees as defined in section 179.63, subdivision 11.

Subd. 7. An exclusive representative shall have the right to petition the director for arbitration under section 179.69, subdivision 3; provided the exclusive representative or the employer has first petitioned the director for mediation services as are available under section 179.69, subdivision 1.

179.66 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF EMPLOYERS.

Subdivision 1. A public employer is not required to meet and negotiate on matters of inherent managerial policy, which include, but are not limited to, such areas of discretion or policy as the functions and programs of the employer, its overall budget, utilization of technology, the organizational structure and selection and direction and number of personnel. No public employer shall sign an agreement which limits the right of the public employer to select persons to serve as supervisory employees or state managers pursuant to section 43.127 or requires the use of seniority in their selection.

Subd. 2. A public employer has an obligation to meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of the public employees in an appropriate unit regarding grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of employment, but such obligation does not compel the public employer or its representative to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

Subd. 3. A public employer has the obligation to meet and confer with professional employees to discuss policies and those matters relating to their employment not included under section 179.63, subdivision 18, pursuant to section 179.73.

Subd. 4. A public employer has the obligation to meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of the supervisory employees, confidential employees, principals and assistant principals, regarding grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of their employment, but such obligation does not compel the public employer or its representative to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

Subd. 5. Any provision of any contract required by section 179.70, which of itself or in its implementation would be in violation of or in conflict with any statute of the state of Minnesota or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder or provision of a municipal home rule charter or ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant thereto, or rule of any state board or agency governing licensure or registration of an employee, provided such rule, regulation, home rule charter, ordinance, or resolution is not in conflict with sections 179.61 to 179.66, shall be returned to the arbitrator for an amendment to make the provision consistent with the statute, rule, regulation, charter, ordinance or resolution.

Subd. 6. Nothing in sections 179.61 to 179.76 shall be construed to impair, modify or otherwise alter, or indicate a policy contrary to the authority of the legislature of the state of Minnesota to establish by law schedules of rates of pay for its employees or the retirement or other fringe benefits related to the compensation of such employees.

Subd. 7. The employer shall not meet and negotiate or meet and confer with any employee or group of employees who are at the time designated as a member or part of an appropriate employee unit except through the exclusive representative if one is certified for that unit or as provided for in section 179.69, subdivision 1.

Subd. 8. An employer shall have the right to petition the director for arbitration under section 179.69, subdivision 3; provided the exclusive representative or the employer has first petitioned the director for mediation services as are available under section 179.69, subdivision 1.

Subd. 9. An employer may hire and pay for arbitrators desired or required by the provisions of sections 179.61 to 179.76.

179.67 EXCLUSIVE REPRESENTATION; ELECTIONS; DECERTIFICATION.

Subdivision 1. Any employee organization holding formal recognition by order of the director or by employer voluntary recognition on the effective date of Extra Session Laws 1971, Chapter 33 under any law that is repealed by Extra Session Laws 1971, Chapter 33 is hereby certified as the exclusive representative until such time as it is decertified or another representative is certified in its place pursuant to sections 179.61 to 179.76. Any teacher organization as defined by section 125.20, subdivision 3 who on the effective date of Extra Session Laws 1971, Chapter 33 has a majority of its members on a teacher's council in a school district as provided in section 125.22 is hereby certified as the exclusive representative of all teachers of that school district until such time as the organization is decertified or another organization is certified in its place pursuant to sections 179.61 to 179.76.

Subd. 2. An employee organization may be certified as the exclusive representative of public employees in an appropriate unit upon complying with and qualifying under the provisions of this section.

Subd. 3. The director may certify an employee organization as an exclusive representative in an appropriate unit upon the joint request of the employer and the organization if, after investigation, he finds that no unfair labor practice was committed in initiating and submitting the joint request and that the employee organization does in fact represent over 50 percent of the employees in the appropriate unit. The provisions of this subdivision shall not in any case reduce the time period or nullify any bar to the employee organization's certification existing at the time of the filing of the joint request.

Subd. 4. Any employee organization may obtain a certification election upon petition to the director wherein it is stated that at least 30 percent of the employees of a proposed employee unit wish to be represented by the petitioner. Any employee organization may obtain a representation election upon petition to the director wherein it is stated that the currently certified representative no longer represents the majority of employees in an established unit and that at least 30 percent of the employees in the established unit wish to be represented by the petitioner rather than by the currently certified representative. An individual employee or group of employees in a unit may obtain a decertification election upon petition to the director wherein it is stated that the certified representative no longer represents the majority of the employees in an established unit and that at least 30 percent of the employees wish to be unrepresented.

Subd. 4a. The director shall not consider a petition for a decertification election during the effective term of a contract covering employees of the executive branch of the state of Minnesota except for a period for not more than 270 to not less than 210 days before its date of termination.

Subd. 5. The director shall, upon receipt of an employee organization's petition to the director wherein it is stated that at least 30 percent of the employees of a proposed employee unit wish to be represented by the petitioner or that the exclusive representative of a unit no longer represents the majority of the employees in the unit, investigate to determine if sufficient evidence of a question of representation exists and hold hearings as necessary to determine the appropriate unit and such other matters as may be necessary to determine the representation rights of the affected employees and employer.

Subd. 6. In determining the numerical status of an employee organization for purposes of subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 8, the director shall require representation authorization signatures of affected employees as verification of the statements contained in the joint request or petitions. Such authorization signatures shall be privileged and confidential information available to the director only and shall be dated.

Subd. 7. An employee organization shall be certified as the exclusive representative of an appropriate unit upon receiving a majority of those votes cast in the appropriate unit at a certification election.

Subd. 8. The director shall issue his order providing for a secret ballot election by the employees in a designated appropriate unit. The election shall be held in the premises where those voting are employed unless the director shall determine that the election cannot be fairly held, in which case it shall be held at such a place as the director shall determine.

Subd. 9. The ballot in a certification election may contain as many names of representative candidates as have demonstrated that the candidate has 30 percent of the employees in the unit desiring it as their exclusive representative. The ballots shall, in every case, contain an appropriate space for employees to indicate that no representation is desired.

Subd. 10. The director shall provide for and count absentee ballots in all elections.

Subd. 11. If no choice on the ballot receives a majority of those votes cast in the unit, the director shall conduct a run off election wherein the ballot shall contain only the two choices receiving the greater number of votes.

Subd. 12. Upon a representative candidate receiving a majority of those votes cast in a unit, the director shall certify that representative candidate as the exclusive representative of all employees in the unit.

Subd. 13. This section does not require employers or employee organizations to negotiate on matters other than terms and conditions of employment as defined in section 179.63, subdivision 18.

Subd. 2. The employer shall implement the terms of the contract in the form of an ordinance or resolution. If the implementation of the terms of the contract require the adoption of a law, ordinance, or charter amendment, the employer shall make every reasonable effort to propose and secure the enactment of such law, ordinance, resolution, or charter amendment.

Subd. 3. In addition, with regard to the inclusion or exclusion of supervisory employees, the director must find that an employee may perform or effectively recommend a majority of those functions referred to in section 179.63, subdivision 9 or 9a, before an employee may be excluded as supervisory. However, in every case the administrative head, and his assistant, of a municipality, municipal utility, police or fire department shall be considered a supervisory employee.

(h) promulgate a grievance procedure to effectuate the purposes of section 179.70, subdivision 1. The grievance procedure shall not provide for the services of the bureau of mediation services. Subd. 6. The director may at the request of a certified exclusive representative or employer who is a party to a labor dispute render assistance in settling the dispute without the necessity of filing the petition referred to in section 179.69, subdivision 1. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor of the state of Minnesota with the advice and consent of the senate. Two members shall be representative of public employees; two shall be representative of public employers; and one shall be representative of the public at large. Public employers and employee organizations representing public employees may submit for consideration names of persons representing their interests to serve as members of the board. The board shall select one of its members to serve as chairman for a term beginning May 1 each year.

Subd. 1a. The membership terms, compensation, removal of members, and filling of vacancies on the board shall be as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 2. The board shall adopt its own rules governing its procedure and shall hold regular and special meetings as are prescribed in such rules. The chairman shall preside at meetings of the board.

Subd. 3. In addition to the other powers and duties given it by law, the board has the following powers and duties:

(a) to hear and decide issues relating to the meaning of the terms "supervisory employee", "confidential employee", "essential employee" or "professional employee", as defined by section 179.63;

(b) to hear and decide appeals from determinations of the director relating to the appropriateness of a unit under section 179.67;

(c) to hear and decide on the record from determinations of the director relating to a fair share fee challenge decided under section 179.71, subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 15 governing the presentation of issues relating to matters included in subdivision 3; and the taking of such appeals. All issues and appeals presented to the board shall be determined upon the record established by the director of mediation, except that the board at its discretion may request additional evidence when necessary or helpful.

Subd. 5. The board shall maintain a list of names of arbitrators qualified by experience and training in the field of labor management negotiations and arbitration. Names on the list may be selected and removed at any time by a majority of the board. In maintaining the list of such persons the board shall, to the maximum extent possible, select persons from varying geographical areas of the state.

Subd. 6. When final positions are certified to the board as provided in section 179.69, the board shall constitute an arbitration panel as follows:

The parties shall, under the direction of the chairman of the board, alternately strike names from a list of seven arbitrators until only three names remain, which three members shall be members of the panel; provided, however, that if either party requests the parties shall select a single arbitrator to hear the dispute. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, the question shall be decided by the flip of a coin. In submitting names of arbitrators to the parties the board shall endeavor whenever possible to include names of persons from the general geographical area in which the public employer is located. The panel shall assume and have jurisdiction over the items of dispute certified to the board for which the panel was constituted. The panel's orders shall be issued upon a majority vote of members considering a given dispute. The members of the panel shall be paid their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties plus a per diem allowance of $180 for each day or part thereof while engaged in the consideration of a dispute. All fees, expenses and costs of the panel shall be shared and assessed equally to the parties to the dispute. In those cases where a single arbitrator is hearing a dispute, the fees, expenses and costs of the arbitrator shall also be shared and assessed equally by the parties to the dispute.

Subd. 7. The arbitration panel or arbitrator selected by the parties shall resolve the issues in dispute between the parties as submitted by the board, and the panel's decision and order shall be final and binding upon the parties. Provided, however, that no decision of the panel which violates any provision of the laws of Minnesota or rules or regulations promulgated thereunder or municipal charters or ordinances or resolutions enacted pursuant thereto, or which causes a penalty to be incurred thereunder, shall have any force or effect. In considering a dispute and issuing its order the panel shall give due consideration to the statutory rights and obligations of public employers to efficiently manage and conduct its operations within the legal limitations surrounding the financing of such operations. The panel's orders shall be issued by a majority vote of its members considering a given dispute. The panel shall have no jurisdiction over nor authority to entertain any matter or issue not within the definition stated in section 179.63, subdivision 18; provided, however, items not within terms and conditions of employment may be included in an arbitration decision if such items are contained in the employer's final position. Any issue or order or part thereof issued by the panel determining any matter not included under section 179.63, subdivision 18 or the employer's final position shall be void and of no effect. The panel shall render its decision within ten days from the date that all arbitration proceedings have been concluded, but in any event must issue its order by the last date the employer is required by statute, charter, ordinance or resolution to submit its tax levy or budget or certify its taxes voted to the appropriate public officer, agency, public body or office, or by November 1, whichever date is earlier. The panel's order shall be for such period as the panel shall direct, except that orders determining contracts for teacher units shall be effective to the end of the contract period as determined by section 179.70, subdivision 1.

The panel may administer oaths and affidavits, and may examine witnesses. Attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence may be required from any place in the state at any designated place of hearing; provided, however, the panel's meeting shall be held in the county in which the principal administrative offices of the employer are located, unless another location is selected by agreement of the parties. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued under this section, the district court of the state for the county where the proceeding is pending or in which the person guilty of such contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business shall on application of the panel have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the panel, there to produce evidence as so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matters in issue, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Subd. 9. Upon issuing its decision and order involving any dispute, the panel shall transmit the order and any written decision explaining the order to the board and to the director and to the appropriate representative or officer of the public employer and the employees. Should any issues submitted to arbitration be settled voluntarily before the arbitrator issues his decision, notice of such settlement shall be made by the arbitrator in a report issued both to the board and to the director.

Subd. 10. At the request of the exclusive representative to a dispute involving any essential employees, the board shall proceed in accordance with this section and the order shall be binding on both parties. The parties may stipulate those agreed upon items to be excluded from arbitration.

Subd. 11. [Repealed, 1973 c 635 s 37]

Subd. 12. The parties shall, if so agreeing and settling, execute a written contract or memorandum of contract pursuant to section 179.70, subdivision 1.
