208.02 ELECTION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Presidential electors shall be chosen at the general election held in the year preceding the expiration of the term of the president of the United States.

History: 1959 c 675 art 9 s 2

208.03 MS 1957 [Repealed, 1959 c 675 art 13 s 1]

208.03 NOMINATION OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Presidential electors for the several political parties of this state shall be nominated by delegate conventions called and held under the supervision of the respective state central committees of the parties of this state. The names of the persons nominated as presidential electors shall be certified to the secretary of state by the chairperson of the convention for the office of presidential elector.

208.04 PREPARATION OF BALLOTS.

Subdivision 1. When presidential electors are to be voted for, a vote cast for the party candidates for president and vice-president shall be deemed a vote for that party's electors as filed with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall certify the names of all duly nominated presidential and vice-presidential candidates to the county auditors of the counties of the state. Each county auditor, subject to the rules of the secretary of state, shall cause the names of the candidates of each political party and the candidates nominated by petition to be printed in capital letters, set in type of the same size and style as for candidates on the state white ballot, before the party designation. To the left of, and on the same line with the surnames, near the margin, shall be placed a square or box, in which the voters may indicate their choice by marking an "X". A mark opposite the candidate's name of any one party shall be counted as a vote for each elector in the party group on file with the secretary of state.

The form for the presidential ballot and the relative position of the several candidates shall be determined by the rules applicable to other state officers. The state ballot, with the required heading, shall be printed on the same piece of paper and shall be below the presidential ballot with a blank space between one inch in width.

Subd. 2. The rules for preparation and delivery of presidential ballots shall be the same as the rules for white ballots under section 203A.31, subdivision 3a. The state shall reimburse the counties for the cost of the preparation of the presidential ballot.

208.05 STATE CANVASSING BOARD.

The state canvassing board at its meeting on the second Tuesday after each general election shall open and canvass the returns made to the secretary of state for presidential electors, prepare a statement of the number of votes cast for the persons receiving votes for these offices, and declare the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes for each office duly elected. When it appears that more than the number of persons to be elected as presidential electors have the highest and an equal number of votes, the secretary of state, in the presence of the board shall decide by lot which of the persons shall be declared elected. The governor shall transmit to each person declared elected a certificate of election, signed by the governor, sealed with the state seal, and countersigned by the secretary of state. Immediately after the canvass is completed the secretary of state shall cause a statement of their election to be published in one or more of the daily newspapers published in St. Paul and in one or more of the daily newspapers published in Minneapolis.

208.06 ELECTORS TO MEET AT CAPITOL; FILLING OF VACANCIES.

The presidential electors, before 12:00 M. on the day before that fixed by congress for the electors to vote for president and vice president of the United States, shall notify the governor that they are at the state capitol and ready at the proper time to fulfill their duties as electors. The governor shall deliver to the electors present a certificate of the names of all the electors. If any elector named therein fails to appear before 9:00 A.M. on the day, and at the place, fixed for voting for president and vice president of the United States, the electors present shall, in the presence of the governor, immediately elect by ballot a person to fill the vacancy. If more than the number of persons required have the highest and an equal number of votes, the governor, in the presence of the electors attending, shall decide by lot which of those persons shall be elected.
