Every person who, with intent to defraud, shall make a false statement in any such application shall be guilty of a misdemeanor provided, however, that no minor child's name may be changed without both of his parents having notice of the pending of the application for change of name, whenever practicable, as determined by the court.

259.11 ORDER; FILING COPIES.

Upon meeting the requirements of section 259.10, the court shall grant the application unless it finds that there is an intent to defraud or mislead or in the case of the change of a minor child's name, the court finds that such name change is not in the best interests of the child. The court shall set forth in the order the name and age of his spouse and each child of the applicant, if any, and shall state a description of the lands, if any, in which the applicant and his spouse and children, if any, claim to have an interest. The clerk shall file such order, and record the same in the judgment book. If lands be described therein, a certified copy of the order shall be filed for record, by the clerk, with the county recorder of each county wherein any of the same are situated. Before doing so he shall present the same to the county auditor who shall enter the change of name in his official records and note upon the instrument, over his official signature, the words "change of name recorded." Subdivision 1. Any person who has resided in the state for one year or more may petition to adopt a child or an adult, and the same petitioner may petition for the adoption of two or more persons in one petition. The provisions as to length of residence in the state may be waived by the court whenever it appears to be for the best interest of the child.

259.23 JUVENILE COURT, JURISDICTION.

Subdivision 1. Venue. Except as provided in section 260.111, subdivision 2, the juvenile court shall have original jurisdiction in all adoption proceedings. The proper venue for an adoption proceeding shall be the county of the petitioner's residence. However, if the petitioner has acquired a new residence in another county and requests a transfer of the adoption proceeding, the court in which an adoption is initiated may transfer the proceeding to the appropriate court in the new county of residence if the transfer is in the best interests of the person to be adopted. The court transfers the proceeding by ordering a continuance and by forwarding to the clerk of the appropriate court a certified copy of all papers filed, together with an order of transfer. The transferring court also shall forward copies of the order of transfer to the commissioner of public welfare and any agency participating in the proceedings. The judge of the receiving court shall accept the order of the transfer and any other documents transmitted and hear the case; provided, however, the receiving court may in its discretion require the filing of a new petition prior to the hearing.

Subd. 2. Contents of petition. The petition shall be signed by the petitioner and, if married, by his spouse. It shall be verified, and filed in duplicate. The petition shall allege:

(a) The full name, age and place of residence of petitioner, and if married, the date and place of marriage;

(d) The name of the child's parents, if known, and the guardian if there be one;

(e) The actual name of the child, if known, and any known aliases;

(f) The name to be given the child if a change of name is desired;

(g) The description and value of any real or personal property owned by the child;

(h) That the petitioner desires that the relationship of parent and child be established between petitioner and the child, and that it is to the best interests of the child for the child to be adopted by the petitioner.

In agency placements, the information required in clauses (d) and (e) above shall not be required to be alleged in the petition but shall be transmitted to the court by the commissioner of public welfare.

Subd. 3. Court rules. The provisions of subdivision 2 shall be subject to rules of the court made pursuant to section 480.051.

History: 1951 c 508 s 3; 1959 c 685 s 45; 1965 c 558 s 1; 1967 c 45 s 1

259.24 CONSENTS.

Subdivision 1. Exceptions. No child shall be adopted without the consent of the child's parents and the child's guardian, if there be one, except in the following instances:

(a) Consent shall not be required of a parent not entitled to notice of the proceedings.

(b) Consent shall not be required of a parent who has abandoned the child, or of a parent who has lost custody of the child through a divorce decree or a decree of dissolution, and upon whom notice has been served as required by section 259.26.

(c) Consent shall not be required of a parent whose parental rights to the child have been terminated by a juvenile court or who has lost custody of a child through a final commitment of the juvenile court or through a decree in a prior adoption proceeding.

(d) If there be no parent or guardian qualified to consent to the adoption, the consent may be given by the commissioner.

(e) The commissioner or agency having authority to place a child for adoption pursuant to section 259.25, subdivision 1, shall have the exclusive right to consent to the adoption of such child.

Subd. 2. Parents, guardian. If an unmarried parent who consents to the adoption of a child is under 18 years of age, the consent of his parents or guardian, if any, also shall be required; if either or both the parents are disqualified for any of the reasons enumerated in subdivision 1, the consent of such parent shall be waived, and the consent of the guardian only shall be sufficient; and, if there be neither parent nor guardian qualified to give such consent, the consent may be given by the commissioner. The agency overseeing the adoption proceedings shall ensure that the minor parent is offered the opportunity to consult with an attorney, a clergyman or a physician before consenting to adoption of the child. The advice or opinion of the attorney, clergyman or physician shall not be binding on the minor parent. If the minor parent cannot afford the cost of consulting with an attorney, clergyman or physician, the county shall bear that cost.

Subd. 3. Child. When the child to be adopted is over 14 years of age, his written consent also shall be necessary.

Subd. 4. Adult adoptee. In the adoption of an adult, his written consent only shall be required.

Subd. 5. Execution. All consents to an adoption, except those by the commissioner, his agent, a licensed child-placing agency, or the child's parent when that parent is either a co-petitioner in the adoption proceeding or does not have custody of the child, shall be executed before a representative of the commissioner, his agent or a licensed child-placing agency. In addition all consents to an adoption shall be in writing and shall contain notice to the parent of the substance of subdivision 6a, providing for the right to withdraw consent. Consents shall be executed before two competent witnesses and acknowledged by the consenting party. Consents shall be filed in the adoption proceedings at any time before the matter is heard provided, however, that a consent executed and acknowledged outside of this state, either in accordance with the law of this state or in accordance with the law of the place where executed, is valid.

Subd. 6. [Repealed, 1980 c 561 s 14]

Subd. 6a. Withdrawal of consent. A parent's consent to adoption may be withdrawn for any reason within ten working days after the consent is executed and acknowledged. Written notification of withdrawal of consent must be received by the agency to which the child was surrendered no later than the tenth working day after the consent is executed and acknowledged. On the day following the tenth working day after execution and acknowledgement, the consent shall become irrevocable, except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction after written findings that consent was obtained by fraud. In proceedings to determine the existence of fraud, the adoptive parents and the child shall be made parties. The proceedings shall be conducted to preserve the confidentiality of the adoption process. There shall be no presumption in the proceedings favoring the natural parents over the adoptive parents.

Subd. 7. Withholding consent; reason. Consent to an adoption shall not be unreasonably withheld by a guardian, who is not a parent of the child, by the commissioner or by an agency.

Subd. 8. Adoptive parents defined. For the purposes of subdivision 6, and section 259.25, subdivision 2, the term "adoptive parents" shall mean parents who have received a child into their home with the intent to adopt the child.

Subdivision 1. Consents required. The parents and guardian, if there be one, of a child may enter into a written agreement with the commissioner of public welfare or an agency, giving the commissioner or such agency authority to place the child for adoption. If an unmarried parent is under the age of 18 years the written consent of his parents and guardian, if any, also shall be required; if either or both of the parents are disqualified from giving such consent for any of the reasons enumerated in section 259.24, subdivision 1, then the written consent of the guardian shall be required. The agreement and consent shall be in the form prescribed by the commissioner and shall contain notice to the parent of the substance of subdivision 2a providing for the right to revoke the agreement. The agreement shall be executed by the commissioner or agency, or one of their authorized agents, and all other necessary parties, and shall be filed, together with the consent, in the proceedings for the adoption of the child.

Subd. 2. [Repealed, 1980 c 561 s 14]

Subd. 2a. Revocation. A parent's agreement to authorize placing a child for adoption may be revoked for any reason within ten working days after the agreement is executed. Written notification of revocation must be received by the agency which was given authority to place the child no later than the tenth working day after the agreement is executed. On the day following the tenth working day after execution the agreement shall become irrevocable, except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction after written findings that the agreement was obtained by fraud. Proceedings to determine the existence of fraud shall be conducted as provided in section 259.24, subdivision 6a, for proceedings to determine fraud in obtaining consent.

History: 1951 c 508 s 5; 1974 c 66 s 5; 1979 c 138 s 2; 1980 c 561 s 7,8; 1980 c 589 s 34

259.26 NOTICE, HEARING ON PETITION.

Subdivision 1. To whom given. Except as provided in subdivision 3, and subject to section 259.261, notice of the hearing upon a petition to adopt a child shall be given to:

- (1) The guardian, if any, of a child;
- (2) The parent of a child if

(a) The person's name appears on the child's birth certificate, as a parent, or

(b) The person has substantially supported the child, or

(c) The person either was married to the person designated on the birth certificate as the natural mother within the 325 days before the child's birth or married that person within the ten days after the child's birth, or

(d) The person is openly living with the child or the person designated on the birth certificate as the natural mother of the child, or both, or

(e) The person has been adjudicated the child's parent, or

(f) The person has filed an affidavit pursuant to section 259.261.

This notice need not be given to any above named person whose parental rights have been terminated, whose notice of intention to retain parental rights filed pursuant to section 259.261 has been successfully challenged, who has consented to the adoption or who has waived notice of the hearing. The notice of the hearing may be waived by a parent, guardian or other interested party by a writing executed before two competent witnesses and duly acknowledged. The waiver shall be filed in the adoption proceedings at any time before the matter is heard.

Subd. 2. Service. Such notice shall be served, within or without the state, at least 14 days before the date of the hearing, in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a civil action. If personal service cannot be made, the court may order service by publication. The petitioner or his attorneys shall make an affidavit setting forth the effort that was made to locate the parents, and the names and addresses of the known kin of the child. If satisfied that the parents cannot be served personally, the court shall order three weeks published notice to be given, the last publication to be at least ten days before the time set for the hearing. Where service is made by publication the court may cause such further notice to be given as it deems just. If, in the course of the proceedings, the court shall consider that the interests of justice will be promoted it may continue the proceeding and require that such notice as it deems proper shall be served on any person. In the course of proceedings the court may enter reasonable orders for the protection of the child if the court determines that the best interests of the child require such an order.

Subd. 3. Service, guardian only. Where a child is adjudicated a dependent or neglected child and a court of competent jurisdiction has appointed a permanent guardian, or where a juvenile court has appointed a guardian after terminating parental rights, no notice of hearing need be given to the parents.

History: 1951 c 508 s 6; 1959 c 685 s 47; 1965 c 45 s 38; 1965 c 786 s 1; 1974 c 66 s 6,7; 1980 c 589 s 35

259.261 RETENTION OF RIGHTS.

Subdivision 1. Notice by illegitimate parent. Any person not entitled to notice under section 259.26, shall lose his parental rights and not be entitled to notice at termination, adoption, or other proceedings affecting the child, unless within 90 days of the child's birth or within 60 days of the child's placement with prospective adoptive parents, whichever is sooner, that person gives to the division of vital statistics of the Minnesota department of health an affidavit stating his intention to retain parental rights.

Subd. 2. Notice, contents. Such affidavit shall contain the claimant's name and address, the name and the last known address of the other parent of the child and the month and the year of the birth of the child, if known.

Subd. 3. Notice, effect. Upon receipt of the aforementioned affidavit the division of vital statistics of the Minnesota department of health shall notify the other parent of same within seven days. This notice to the parent shall constitute conclusive evidence of parenthood for the purposes of this statute, unless within 60 days of its receipt, either the notified parent or some other interested petitioner denies that claimant is the parent of the child and files a petition pursuant to chapter 260 to challenge such notice of parenthood.

259.27 PETITION; INVESTIGATIONS; REPORTS.

Subdivision 1. Commissioner's duties. Upon the filing of a petition for adoption of a child the clerk of court shall immediately transmit a copy of the petition to the commissioner of public welfare. The commissioner shall verify the allegations of the petition, investigate the conditions and antecedents of the child for the purpose of ascertaining whether he is a proper subject for adoption, and make appropriate inquiry to ascertain whether the proposed foster home and the child are suited to each other. The report of the county welfare board submitted to the commissioner of public welfare bearing on the suitability of the proposed foster home and the child to each other shall be confidential, and the records of the county welfare board or the contents thereof shall not be disclosed either directly or indirectly to any person other than the commissioner of public welfare or a judge of the court having jurisdiction of the matter. Within 90 days after the receipt of said copy of the petition the commissioner shall submit to the court a full report in writing with his recommendations as to the granting of the petition. If such report is not returned within the 90 days, without fault of petitioner, the court may hear the petition upon giving the commissioner five days notice by mail of the time and place of the hearing. If such report disapproves of the adoption of the child, the commissioner may recommend that the court dismiss the petition.

Subd. 2. Adoption agencies. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, if the child to be adopted has been committed to the guardianship of an agency pursuant to section 260.241, or if the child has been surrendered to an agency pursuant to section 259.25 the court, in its discretion, may refer the adoption petition to such agency, or, if the adopting parent has a step-parent relationship to the child, to the county welfare department of the county in which the adoption is pending. The agency or county welfare department, within 90 days of receipt of a copy of the adoption petition, shall file with the court a report of its investigation of the environment and antecedents of the child to be adopted and of the home of the petitioners. If such report disapproves of the adoption of the child, the agency or county welfare department may recommend that the court dismiss the petition.

Subd. 3. Reports and records; confidential. All reports and records of the commissioner of public welfare, county welfare board, or child placing agency bearing on the suitability of the proposed adoptive home and the child to each other shall be confidential, and the contents thereof shall not be disclosed either directly or indirectly to any person other than the commissioner of public welfare or a judge of the court having jurisdiction of the matter, provided, however, that a judge of the court having jurisdiction of the matter may, in his discretion, disclose any such report or record to a party to the proceedings or his counsel when such report or record disapproves the granting of the adoption petition.

Subd. 4. Preadoption residence. No petition shall be granted until the child shall have lived three months in the proposed home, subject to a right of visitation by the commissioner or an agency or their authorized representatives.

Subd. 5. Residence and investigation waived; step-parent. Such investigation and period of residence may be waived by the court when the petition for adoption is submitted by a step-parent or when, upon good cause being shown, the court is satisfied that the proposed adoptive home and the child are suited to each other, but in either event at least ten days notice of the hearing shall be given to the commissioner by certified mail. The reports of investigations shall be a part of the court files in the case, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

259.28 HEARING, DECREE.

Upon the hearing,

(a) if the court shall find that it is in the best interests of the child that the petition be granted, a decree of adoption shall be made and recorded in the office of the clerk of court, ordering that henceforth the child shall be the child of the petitioner. In the decree the court may change the name of the child if desired. After the decree is granted the clerk of court shall immediately mail a copy of the recorded decree to the commissioner of public welfare;

(b) if the court is not satisfied that the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the child, the court shall deny the petition, and shall order the child returned to the custody of the person or agency legally vested with permanent custody or certify the case for appropriate action and disposition to the court having jurisdiction to determine the custody and guardianship of the child.

259.29 EFFECT OF ADOPTION.

Subdivision 1. Upon adoption, the child shall become the legal child of the adopting persons and they shall become the legal parents of the child with all the rights and duties between them of natural parents and legitimate child. By virtue of the adoption the child shall inherit from the adoptive parents or their relatives the same as though the child were the natural child of the parents, and in case of the child's death intestate the adoptive parents and their relatives shall inherit the child's estate as if they had been the child's natural parents and relatives. After a decree of adoption is entered the natural parents of an adopted child shall be relieved of all parental responsibilities for the child, and they shall not exercise or have any rights over the adopted child or the child's property. The child shall not owe the natural parents or their relatives any legal duty nor shall the child inherit from the natural parents or kindred, except as provided in subdivision 1a.

Subd. 1a. Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary in this section, the adoption of a child by a step-parent shall not in any way change the status of the relationship between the child and the child's natural parent who is the spouse of the petitioning step-parent.

If a parent dies and a child is subsequently adopted by a step-parent who is the spouse of a surviving parent, any rights of inheritance of the child or the child's issue from or through the deceased parent of the child which exist at the time of the death of that parent shall not be affected by the adoption.

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, the adoption of a child whose natural parent or parents are enrolled in an American Indian tribe shall not change the child's enrollment in that tribe.

259.40 SUBSIDIZED ADOPTION PROGRAM.

Subdivision 1. Subsidy payments. The commissioner of public welfare may make subsidy payments as he deems necessary to families who adopt a child under state guardianship or a Minnesota resident from a licensed child placing agency after the adoptive placement of the child. The subsidy payments shall be based on the needs of the child.

Subd. 2. Subsidy agreement. The placing agency shall certify a child as eligible for a subsidy according to rules promulgated by the commissioner. When parents are found and approved for placement of a child certified as eligible for a subsidy, and before the final decree of adoption is issued, there must be a written agreement between the parent or parents entering into the subsidized adoption and the placing agency, clearly setting forth the responsibilities of all parties and the duration and the terms of the subsidy agreement. The agreement shall be subject to the commissioner's approval.

The commissioner shall provide adoption subsidies to the adoptive parent or parents according to the terms of the subsidy agreement. The subsidy may include payment for medical, dental, and surgical expenses, psychiatric and psychological expenses, maintenance costs, and other costs necessary for the child's care and well-being. The anticipated duration of the subsidy shall be specified in the agreement. The amount of the subsidy may in no case exceed that which would be allowable for the child under foster family care.

Subd. 3. Annual affidavit. When subsidies are for more than one year, the adoptive parents or guardian or conservator shall annually present an affidavit stating whether the adopted child remains under their care and whether the need for subsidy continues to exist. The commissioner may verify the affidavit. The subsidy agreement shall continue in accordance with its terms as long as the need for subsidy continues and the child remains the legal dependent of the adoptive parent or parents or guardian or conservator. Termination or modification of the subsidy agreement may be requested by the adoptive parents or subsequent guardian or conservator at any time.

Subd. 4. Eligibility conditions. The placing agency shall certify a child as eligible for a subsidy only if the following criteria are met:

(a) A placement agency has made reasonable efforts to place the child for adoption without subsidy, but has been unsuccessful; or

(b) The child's licensed foster parents desire to adopt the child and it is determined by the placing agency that:

(1) The adoption is in the best interest of the child; and,

(2) Due to the child's characteristics or circumstances it would be difficult to provide the child an adoptive home without subsidy; and

(c) The child has been a ward of the commissioner, or licensed child placing agency.

Subd. 5. Determination of residency. A child who is a resident of any county in this state when eligibility for subsidy is certified shall remain eligible and receive the subsidy in accordance with the terms of the subsidy agreement, regardless of the domicile or residence of the adopting parents at the time of application for adoptive placement, legal decree of adoption, or thereafter.

Subd. 6. Right of appeal. The adoptive parents have the right to appeal to the commissioner pursuant to section 256.045, when the commissioner denies, discontinues, or modifies the agreement.

Subd. 7. Reimbursement of costs. Subject to rules of the commissioner, a placing agency shall receive a reimbursement from the commissioner equal to 100 percent of the reasonable and appropriate cost of providing or purchasing adoption services for a child certified as eligible for a subsidy, including adoptive family recruitment, counseling, and special training when needed.

Subd. 8. Indian children. The commissioner is encouraged to work with American Indian organizations to assist in the establishment of American Indian child adoption organizations able to be licensed as child placing agencies. Children certified as eligible for a subsidy under this section who are protected under the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978 should, whenever possible, be served by the tribal governing body, tribal courts, or a licensed Indian child placing agency.

Subd. 9. Effect on other aid. Subsidy payments received under this section shall not affect eligibility for any other financial payments to which a person may otherwise be entitled.

Subd. 10. Rules. The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary rules to implement this section no later than March 15, 1980.

History: 1979 c 256 s 1

259.45 STATE ADOPTION EXCHANGE.

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of public welfare shall establish an adoption exchange, which shall include but not be limited to a book, updated monthly, that contains a photograph and description of each child who has been legally freed for adoption. The exchange service shall be available to all authorized child placing agencies whose purpose is to assist in the adoptive placement of children, and the exchange book shall be distributed to all such agencies.

Subd. 2. All authorized child placing agencies shall send to the state adoption exchange, within 60 days of the time a child becomes free for adoption, a recent photograph and description of each child in its care who has been legally freed for adoption by the termination of parental rights, and for whom no adoptive home has been found.

Subd. 3. Changes in the status of a child listed in the state adoption exchange shall be reported by the authorized child placing agency to the exchange within ten working days after the change occurs.

Subd. 4. Children remaining registered for 12 months shall have their photographs and written descriptions updated by the authorized child placing agency within ten working days of the expiration of the 12 months, and every 12 months thereafter.

Subd. 5. A child's registration shall be withdrawn when the exchange service has been notified in writing by the authorized child placing agency that the child has been adopted, has reached his or her 14th birthday and will not consent to an adoption plan, or has died.

Subd. 6. The exchange service shall semiannually check the status of listed children for whom inquiries have been received. Periodic checks shall be made by the service to determine the progress toward adoption of those children and the status of children registered but never listed in the exchange book because of placement in an adoptive home prior to or at the time of registration.

Subd. 7. An authorized child placing agency may voluntarily refer any child legally freed for adoption to the exchange service; or the exchange service may determine that the recruitment of an adoptive family through the exchange book is appropriate for a child not registered with the service and require the child to be registered with the exchange service within ten working days.

Subd. 8. Deferral of the listing of a child with the state adoption exchange shall be only for one or more of the following reasons: (a) the child is in an adoptive placement but is not legally adopted; (b) the child's foster parents or other individuals are now considering adoption; (c) diagnostic study or testing is required to clarify the child's problem and provide an adequate description; (d) the child is currently in a hospital and continuing need for daily professional care will not permit placement in a family setting; or (e) the child is 14 years of age or older and will not consent to an adoption plan. Approval of a request to defer listing for any of the reasons specified in clause (b) or (c) shall be valid for a period not to exceed 90 days, with no subsequent deferrals for those reasons.

Subd. 9. The commissioner of public welfare shall make rules as necessary to administer this section and shall employ necessary staff to carry out the purposes of this section.
