Subd. 2. 291.051 MARITAL DEDUCTION.

Subdivision 1. For the purpose of section 291.015, clause (1), and subject to subdivision 2 of this section, the Minnesota taxable estate shall be determined by deducting from the Minnesota gross estate the value of any interest in property other than a terminable interest as defined in section 2056(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, which passes or has passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, but only to the extent that the interest is included in determining the value of the Minnesota gross estate and is not exempt from estate tax under sections 291.05 or 291.065. An interest in property shall be considered as passing from the decedent to his surviving spouse if it is considered as so passing under Section 2056(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 2. The amount of the deduction allowed under this section for a resident decedent shall not exceed the greater of:

(1) $250,000, or

(2) 50 percent of the value of the Minnesota adjusted gross estate as defined in subdivision 3, reduced, but not below zero, by an amount equal to the adjustment made, if any, for federal estate tax purposes with respect to any gift or gifts of property having situs in Minnesota made by the decedent to his spouse after December 31, 1976 under Section 2056(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a nonresident decedent, the amount of the deduction allowed under this section shall be determined without reference to clause (1) of this subdivision.

Subd. 3. For purposes of subdivision 2, clause (2), the Minnesota adjusted gross estate shall be computed by subtracting from the Minnesota gross estate the aggregate amount of deductions allowed, in the case of a resident decedent, by section 291.07, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (7) and (8), and, in the case of a nonresident decedent, by section 291.08, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5).

History: 1976 c 320 s 3; 1978 c 741 s 2; 1979 c 303 art 3 s 6; 1980 c 439 s 9

291.06 CREDIT FOR PREVIOUSLY PAID TAXES.

(1) Where property included in the Minnesota taxable estate of the present decedent can be identified as having been transferred to the decedent from a person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received, a credit for any transfer taxes, exclusive of penalty or interest, paid pursuant to the provisions of chapter 291 upon that property in the previous decedent's estate shall be allowed against, but shall not exceed, the estate tax computed in accordance with section 291.03, subdivision 1, clause (1) attributable to the previously taxed property included in the Minnesota taxable estate of the present decedent. For purposes of this section, transfer taxes shall mean the Minnesota inheritance or estate tax or a Minnesota tax based upon the federal credit allowed for state death taxes. Where a Minnesota credit for gift tax paid was allowed to reduce the transfer taxes in the previous estate for a gift to the present decedent of property which is included in the decedent's Minnesota taxable estate, the "transfer taxes" paid in the previous decedent's estate shall be the transfer taxes actually paid plus the amount of the gift tax credit so allowed.

(2) A credit shall be allowed against the tax computed in accordance with section 291.03, subdivision 1, clause (1) in the amount of any gift tax exclusive of penalty or interest paid pursuant to chapter 292, if that transfer of property is subject to taxation under this chapter. The credit shall not exceed the amount of the estate tax imposed which is attributable to the property included in the Minnesota taxable estate upon which the gift tax was paid.

(3) If both credits under clauses (1) and (2) are allowed against the same asset, the credits, when added together, shall not exceed the Minnesota estate tax attributable to the inclusion of that asset in the Minnesota taxable estate.

(4) The credits allowed under clauses (1) and (2), when added together, shall not exceed the Minnesota estate tax due.

291.065 EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT PLANS, EXEMPTION.

To the extent included in the federal gross estate, the value of an annuity or other payment shall be exempt from estate tax if received under (1) any plan, which at the time of the decedent's separation from employment, whether by death or otherwise, or at the time of termination of the plan if earlier, qualified under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408 or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code; (2) a benefit plan for employees of the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions; or (3) for members of a Minnesota volunteer firefighters' relief association.

291.07 DEDUCTIONS.

Subdivision 1. In determining the tax imposed by section 291.01, the following deductions shall be allowed:

- (1) funeral expenses;
- (2) reasonable legal, accounting, fiduciary and administration expenses and fees with respect to both probate and nonprobate assets, including but not limited to expenses incurred during administration in converting real and personal property held by the estate into cash;
- (3) expenses of last illness unpaid at death;
- (4) valid claims against and debts of the decedent, unpaid at death, which have been properly paid;
- (5) Minnesota and federal income taxes on "income in respect of a decedent," as computed under subdivision 3;

(6) the portion of the federal estate tax allocable to Minnesota, which shall equal the amount obtained by multiplying the federal estate tax due and payable to the United States Treasury by a fraction, the numerator of which shall equal the value of the Minnesota gross estate reduced by: (a) in the case of a resident decedent, the deductions and exemptions allowed by sections 291.05, 291.051, 291.065, 291.07, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (7) and (8); or (b) in the case of a nonresident decedent the deductions and exemptions allowed by sections 291.05, 291.051, 291.065, 291.08, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5), and the denominator of which shall equal the value of the federal taxable estate as defined in section 2051 of the Internal Revenue Code; provided, however, in any case where any property is included in the Minnesota gross estate but incorrectly omitted from the federal gross estate or where any property that is included in both the Minnesota gross estate and the federal gross estate is valued at a higher or lower value in determining the Minnesota gross estate than in determining the federal gross estate, the federal taxable estate shall be recomputed for purposes of this provision and shall be based on a federal gross estate including the value of such omitted property and including or excluding the difference in value of such revalued property, and further provided that the federal estate tax deduction shall not exceed the federal estate tax due and payable to the United States Treasury;

(7) real estate taxes due and payable prior to or in the year of the decedent's death with respect to real estate subject to taxation under this chapter and other taxes which have accrued and are a lien on property in the estate at the time of death;

(8) liens and mortgages on property subject to taxation under this chapter which are not deductible as claims or debts of the decedent.

Subd. 2a. [Repealed, 1979 c 303 art 3 s 41]

Subd. 3. (1) The Minnesota and federal income tax allowed as deductions under subdivision 1, clause (5) shall be computed as follows: The table of rates required to be used by single taxpayers who itemize their allowable deductions shall be applied to the "income in respect of a decedent" as though such "income in respect of a decedent" constituted the entire income of the decedent taxable after giving effect to all allowable deductions. The amount of Minnesota or federal income tax as so computed shall not be diminished by any credits allowable by Minnesota or federal income tax laws.

(2) The deductions allowed herein shall be the only deductions allowed under this chapter for "income in respect of a decedent," without regard to the actual liability for income taxes that may be due and payable subsequently with respect to such "income in respect of a decedent".

291.075 SPECIAL USE VALUATION OF QUALIFIED PROPERTY.

When property subject to the tax imposed by this chapter qualifies for valuation based on its use pursuant to section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code, it shall have the same value for Minnesota estate tax purposes as it has for federal estate tax purposes. If, after the final determination of the tax imposed by this chapter, the property valued pursuant to section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code is disposed of or fails to qualify and an additional tax is imposed pursuant to section 2032A(c), any increase in the credit for state death taxes shall be reported to the commissioner within 90 days after final determination of the increased credit. Upon notification the commissioner may assess an additional tax in accordance with section 291.03, subdivision 1, clause (2). No additional Minnesota estate tax computed in accordance with section 291.03, subdivision 1, clause (1) will be imposed nor will an additional deduction for federal estate taxes paid be allowed under section 291.07 or 291.08.

291.09 DETERMINATION OF TAX.

Subdivision 1. [Repealed, 1979 c 303 art 3 s 41]

Subd. 1a. In all instances in which a decedent dies after December 31, 1979 and before January 1, 1981 leaving a federal gross estate in excess of $161,000 and in all instances in which a decedent dies after December 31, 1980 leaving a federal gross estate in excess of $175,000, and the decedent has an interest in property with a situs in Minnesota, the personal representative shall submit to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a Minnesota estate tax return. The return shall be accompanied by a federal estate tax return and shall contain a computation of the Minnesota estate tax due. The return shall be signed by the personal representative.

Subd. 2. [Repealed, 1979 c 303 art 3 s 41]

Subd. 2a. The commissioner may designate on the return the documents that are required to be filed together with the return in order to determine the proper valuation of assets and computation of tax. The commissioner shall not be bound by any item on the return unless he has received all required documents and unless all items of information on the return have been completed.

Subd. 3. [Repealed, 1979 c 303 art 3 s 41]

Subd. 3a. (1) The commissioner may challenge matters of valuation or taxability of any assets reported on the return, or any deductions claimed, or the computation of tax, only if within 90 days of receipt of the return and all documents required to be filed with the return, the commissioner mails or delivers a written notice to the personal representative objecting to the return as filed and specifying the reasons for the objection.

(2) If the personal representative disagrees with the objection or does not wish to fully comply with the objection, he may request that the commissioner hold a hearing on the objection. Within 30 days of receipt of a request, the commissioner shall set a time and place for hearing. Unless otherwise agreed upon, the hearing date shall not be earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date of the notice setting the hearing. The notice of hearing shall set forth the rights available to the personal representative under chapter 15. Not later than 30 days after the commissioner receives the report and recommendation of the hearing examiner, or a written waiver of his hearing rights by the personal representative, the commissioner shall issue an order determining the tax. Any such determination made by the commissioner may be appealed to the tax court as provided in section 271.09.

(3) At any time together with or after the objection, the commissioner, on his own initiative, may set a time and place for a hearing in accordance with (2) above.

(4) In his objection, or at any time thereafter, the commissioner may assess any additional tax as the facts may warrant, subject to the right of the personal representative to demand a hearing under chapter 15. If the personal representative does not demand a hearing within 90 days of the date of the assessment, the tax so assessed shall be legally due and the commissioner may proceed to collect any unpaid tax after one year from the date of death. If the commissioner later finds the tax assessment to be erroneous, he may adjust the assessment prior to collection.

(5) The commissioner shall not be required to object to any subsequent original, amended or supplemental return in order to preserve his rights. The commissioner shall not be precluded from objecting to a subsequent original, amended or supplemental return even though an original return was accepted as filed. If the commissioner had accepted an original return showing no tax due and a subsequent original, amended or supplemental return discloses additional assets not disclosed on the original return, the commissioner may object to any matter of valuation, taxability, deduction or computation of tax on the original return within 90 days of receipt of the subsequent original, amended or supplemental return.

(6) Subject to the provisions of section 291.11, the Minnesota estate tax liability shall be considered as finally determined on the date notification of acceptance is issued to the personal representative or, if no objection is filed, on the 91st day after the return, together with all other documents required to be filed with the return, is received.

(7) Subject to the time limits imposed elsewhere in this chapter, the commissioner may refund an overpayment of tax penalty or interest even though the personal representative has not made an application for refund.

Subd. 4. [Repealed, 1979 c 303 art 3 s 41]

Subd. 4a. If any estate tax return required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this section has not been filed, the commissioner may make and file a return including a computation of the tax resulting from the transfers therein reported. At the time of the filing the commissioner shall mail copies of the return to the personal representative, if any, and to each person from whom any portion of the tax is due. The return may be objected to by the personal representative and a hearing held on the objections in the manner provided in subdivision 3a.

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, when agreed in writing between the commissioner and the representative, values for purposes of the estate tax on both probate and non probate assets shall be the same as those finally determined for purposes of the federal estate tax on a decedent's estate.

Subd. 6. Except as otherwise provided, the tax as determined and adjusted by the commissioner under the provisions of this chapter shall be the tax legally due and imposed thereunder.

Subd. 7. The estate tax return, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be filed with the commissioner within nine months after the decedent's death.

In lieu of the six month extension, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of the tax, without penalty, for a period not to exceed two years if the payment of the tax would result in an undue hardship on the estate. The written request for the undue hardship extension shall be made to the commissioner no later than nine months after the death of the person from whom the transfer is made. The taxpayer may elect to pay the taxes in installments as specified in section 291.11, subdivision 1, provided that the period of time for the payment of the taxes shall not exceed five years from the expiration of the extension granted by the commissioner. The personal representative of an estate containing such property may elect to pay all or part of the tax imposed by this chapter in one or more, but not to exceed ten, equal installments, provided that the maximum amount of tax which may be paid in installments pursuant to this subdivision shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the estate's tax liability under this chapter as the value of property determined pursuant to section 291.075 and included in the Minnesota taxable estate bears to the amount of the Minnesota taxable estate. The first installment shall be paid on or before the date selected by the personal representative. The date may be no more than five years after the date prescribed by section 291.11, subdivision 1, for payment of the estate tax. Each succeeding installment shall be paid on or before that same date each year. An election under this subdivision shall be made not later than nine months after the decedent's death and shall be made in the manner as the commissioner shall prescribe by rule.

Subd. 3. If the time for payment of estate tax has been extended under subdivision 2, interest shall be payable as provided in this subdivision.

(1) Interest payable under section 291.15 on any unpaid portion of the amount attributable to the first five years after the date prescribed by section 291.11 for payment of the tax shall be paid annually, the first payment being due no later than 21 months after the decedent's death.

(2) Interest payable under section 291.15 on any unpaid portion of the amount attributable to any period after the five year period referred to in clause (1) shall be paid annually at the same time as, and as part of, each installment payment of the tax.

(3) If the executor has selected a period shorter than five years under subdivision 2 the shorter period shall be substituted for five years in clauses (1) and (2).

Subd. 4. (1) If the personal representative fails to pay a tax or interest installment on time, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause, the election is revoked and the entire amount of unpaid tax plus accrued interest is due and payable 90 days after the date on which the installment was payable. The commissioner is not required to notify the personal representative when an installment is due.

(2) In the event of a disposition or cessation of the special use property, as defined under section 2032A (c) (1) and (7) of the Internal Revenue Code, the personal representative shall immediately notify the commissioner of such cessation, and the entire balance of the tax, plus accrued interest, attributable to that property is due and payable 90 days after the disposition or cessation.

In the event a person or corporation upon proper authorization makes a payment to be applied against the tax thereafter, no interest shall accrue on the amount so paid. All payments shall be applied first to penalties, next to interest and then upon principal.

(2) In the event that the amount applied against the tax exceeds the tax as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner shall upon proper application order the refundment without interest. The commissioner of

He may, from time to time, make, publish, and distribute rules and regulations in enforcing its provisions. In his discretion he may make a charge for copies distributed upon request. He shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the returns required by this chapter, but failure to receive or secure them shall not relieve any person or corporation from the obligation of making any return required of him or it under this chapter. The commissioner may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recog-

291.32 REFUNDING OF TAX.

Subdivision 1. Whenever, under the provisions of this chapter any person or corporation shall be entitled to a return of any part of a tax previously paid, he may make application to the commissioner for a determination of the amount which he is entitled to have returned, and on such application shall furnish the commissioner with affidavits and other evidence showing the facts which entitled him to such return and the amount he is entitled to have returned. Upon the filing of such application, the commissioner shall examine the same and shall make a written order thereon denying or allowing the application in whole or in part and shall mail a copy of such order by certified mail to the applicant at the address stated on the application. If such application is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall cause such refund to be paid in the manner provided by law. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay warrants therefor out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. The moneys necessary to pay such warrants are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Subd. 2. If the application is denied in whole or in part the taxpayer may commence an action against the commissioner to recover any overpayments of taxes claimed to be refundable but for which the commissioner has issued no order of refundment. Such action may be brought in the District Court of the district in which lies the county of his residence or principal place of business if an estate or trust, of the principal place of its administration, or in the district court for Ramsey County. Such action may be commenced after the expiration of six months after the application is filed if the commissioner has not taken final action thereon and shall be commenced within 18 months after the date of the order denying the application. If the commissioner has not acted within two years after the application is filed, it shall be considered denied.

291.33 PAYMENTS TO COUNTIES.

Subdivision 1. On or before the first of November in each year the commissioner shall determine the net amount of transfer taxes, penalty and interest collected thereon which has been paid to the commissioner during the fiscal year ending June 30 next preceding from estates in each of the several counties of this state wherein probate proceedings have been had or where, if no probate proceedings have been required, wherein are located the probate courts that would have had venue under the provisions of section 524.3-201, had there been assets of decedents subject to probate.

For purposes of this subdivision net amount shall be the total amount paid from each of the several counties under the provisions of this chapter, during the appropriate fiscal year, reduced by the refunds made by the commissioner applicable to each of the several counties under the provisions of this chapter, during the same fiscal year.

Subd. 2. Ten percent of the amount as determined under the provisions of subdivision 1 shall be paid to each of such counties.

Said payments shall be transmitted to the county auditor of each county, to be placed to the credit of the county revenue fund. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay warrants therefor out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. The moneys necessary to pay such warrants are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Subd. 3. For purposes of this section, transfer taxes shall mean the Minnesota inheritance tax or estate tax, or a Minnesota tax based upon the federal credit allowed for state death taxes.

291.42 ELECTION TO INVOKE.

In any case in which this state and one or more other states each claims that it was the domicile of a decedent at the time of his death, at any time prior to the commencement of legal action for determination of domicile within this state or within 60 days thereafter, any executor, or the taxing official of any such state, may elect to invoke the provisions of sections 291.41 to 291.47. Such executor or taxing official shall send a notice of such election by certified mail, receipt requested, to the taxing official of each such state and to each executor, ancillary administrator, and interested person. Within 40 days after the receipt of such notice of election any executor may reject such election by sending a notice, by certified mail, receipt requested, to the taxing officials involved and to all other executors and to all interested parties. When an election has been rejected no further proceedings shall be had under sections 291.41 to 291.47. If such election is not rejected within the 40-day period, the dispute as to death taxes shall be determined solely in accordance with the provisions of sections 291.41 to 291.47. No other proceedings to determine or assess such death taxes shall thereafter be instituted in any court of this state or otherwise.

291.43 AGREEMENTS AS TO DEATH TAX.

In any case in which an election is made, and not rejected the commissioner of revenue of this state may enter into a written agreement with the other taxing officials involved and with the executors to accept a certain sum in full payment of any death taxes, together with interest and penalties, that may be due this state, provided this agreement fixes the amount to be paid the other states involved in the dispute.

291.44 DETERMINATION OF DOMICILE.

If in any such case it appears that an agreement cannot be reached, as provided in section 291.43, or if one year shall have elapsed from the date of the election without such an agreement having been reached, the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death shall be determined solely for death tax purposes as follows:

(1) Where only this state and one other state are involved, the commissioner of revenue and the taxing official of the other state shall each appoint a member of a board of arbitration, and these members shall appoint the third member of the board. If this state and more than one other state are involved, the taxing officials thereof shall agree upon the authorities charged with the duty of administering death tax laws in three states not involved in the dispute and each of these authorities shall appoint a member of the board of arbitration. The board shall select one of its members as chairman.

(2) Such board shall hold hearing at such places as are deemed necessary, upon reasonable notice to the executors, ancillary administrators, all other interested persons, and to the taxing officials of the states involved, all of whom are entitled to be heard.

(3) Such board may administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena witnesses and require their attendance, require the production of books, papers, and documents, issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be issued by any member of the board. Failure to obey a subpoena may be punished by any court of record in the same manner as if the subpoena had been issued by such court.

(4) Whenever practicable such board shall apply the rules of evidence then prevailing in the federal courts under the federal rules of civil procedure.

(5) Such board shall determine the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death. This determination is final and conclusive and binds this state, and all of its judicial and administrative officials on all questions concerning the domicile of the decedent for death tax purpose.

(6) The reasonable compensation and expenses of the members of the board and its employees shall be agreed upon among such members, the taxing officials involved, and the executors. If an agreement cannot be reached, such compensation and expenses shall be determined by such taxing officials; and, if they cannot agree, by the appropriate probate court of the state determined to be the domicile. Such amount shall be borne by the estate and shall be deemed an administration expense.

(7) The determination of such board and the record of its proceeding shall be filed with the authority having jurisdiction to assess the death tax in the state determined to be the domicile of the decedent and with the authorities which would have had jurisdiction to assess the death tax in each of the other states involved if the decedent had been found to be domiciled therein.

History: 1951 c 247 s 4; 1973 c 582 s 3

291.45 ACCEPTANCE OF AGREED SUM IN FULL PAYMENT.

Notwithstanding the commencement of a legal action for determination of domicile within this state or the commencement of an arbitration proceeding, as provided in section 291.44, the commissioner of revenue of this state may in any case enter into a written agreement with the other taxing officials involved and with the executors to accept a certain sum in full payment of any death tax, together with interest and penalties, that may be due this state, provided this agreement fixes the amount to be paid the other states involved in the dispute, at any time before such proceeding is concluded. Upon the filing of this agreement with the authority which would have jurisdiction to assess the death tax of this state, if the decedent died domiciled in this state, an assessment shall be made as provided in such agreement, and this assessment finally and conclusively fixes the amount of death tax due this state. If the aggregate amount payable under such agreement or under an agreement made in accordance with the provisions of section 291.43 to the states involved is less than the minimum credit allowable to the estate against the United States estate tax imposed with respect thereto, the executor forthwith shall also pay to the commissioner of revenue of this state the same percentage of the difference between such aggregate amount of such credit as the amount payable to such commissioner under such agreement bears to such aggregate amount.

History: 1951 c 247 s 5; 1973 c 582 s 3

291.46 PENALTIES, INTEREST; LIMITATION.

When in any case the board of arbitration determines that a decedent died domiciled in this state, the total amount of interest and penalties for nonpayment of the tax, between the date of the election and the final determination of the board, shall not exceed ten percent of the amount of the taxes per annum.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular property, decedents, heirs, or personal representatives, returns or reports and the contents thereof. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

The return of a decedent or donor shall, upon written request, be open to inspection by or disclosure to (1) the administrator, executor, or trustee of his estate, and (2) any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will of the decedent, and any other person whose basis in property is determined in whole or part by values set forth in the return, or (3) a donee of the property, but only if the commissioner finds that the heir, next of kin, beneficiary or other person or donee has a material interest which will be affected by information contained therein.

For purposes of this section the term public official shall not include judges, officials or employees of a court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings.
