648.31 STATUTE PUBLICATION.

Subdivision 1. Revisor to prepare copy. Immediately after the end of the regular session of the legislature in 1976 and each regular session thereafter, the revisor of statutes shall prepare printer's copy for a volume to be called "Minnesota Statutes," appending thereto the last year of such session, which shall contain the constitution of the United States, the constitution of this state, all general and permanent statutes in force, an alphabetical index, and such other information as the revisor of statutes deems desirable and practicable. The decimal system of numbering of sections contained in Minnesota Statutes 1945 shall be continued in all future editions of Minnesota Statutes, except that the use of alphabetical letters in addition to the decimal numbers is permitted. The form and style of Minnesota Statutes may be changed in such manner as is necessary to improve its quality and to permit the use of electronic data processing equipment, computer compatible media, and other related equipment in connection with its publication.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1982

Subd. 2. New laws incorporated. The revisor of statutes may, as soon as possible after the adjournment of each session of the legislature, incorporate with the body of the text of the Minnesota Statutes the amendments made to any of the statutes contained therein at such session of the Legislature and at any extra session of the Legislature and omit any sections or statutes expressly repealed.

Subd. 3. Specifications for copy. When printer's copy for any edition of Minnesota Statutes is prepared, the revisor of statutes shall compile and include therein, in an appropriate place and classification, having reference to the arrangement and classification thereof, all laws of a general and permanent nature which were enacted at such regular session and at any extra session held since the last preceding regular session, assigning to such laws such chapter and section identification as is appropriate. After each section so included there shall be placed a source note indicating the chapter and section of the session law from which the same was derived. Chapters and sections so compiled and included shall be prima facie evidence of the law contained therein in all courts and proceedings.

Subd. 4. Minnesota Statutes Supplement. If the legislature meets in regular session in more than one year of a biennium, the revisor of statutes may publish a supplemental edition in the even numbered year of the biennium. The publication authorized by this subdivision shall be identified by the year of publication and to the extent possible shall otherwise comply with the requirements of and be subject to the provisions of this chapter. The sale price of a supplemental edition to Minnesota Statutes shall be fixed by the revisor of statutes with the approval of the commissioner of administration and shall not be subject to section 648.39.

Subd. 5. Negotiated contracts. Notwithstanding any provision in the law to the contrary and in order to provide an adequate statutory service to the people of the state under the program authorized by the Constitution, Article 4, the section governing sessions of the legislature, the revisor of statutes may negotiate for all or part of the editing, indexing, compiling and printing of Minnesota Statutes and contract with a law book publisher therefor. No such contract shall be made until the revisor of statutes has consulted with the committee on rules and legislative administration of the senate and the committee on rules and legislative administration of the house of representatives and such committees have made the recommendation thereon. Such recommendation shall be advisory only. Failure or refusal of the committees to make a recommendation promptly shall be deemed an affirmative recommendation.

Subd. 6. Agency rules. The revisor may integrate agency rules into the Minnesota Statutes, or publish the rules as an adjunct to the Minnesota Statutes, or coordinate publication of the rules with the Minnesota Statutes.

After making the necessary comparison, the revisor shall annex, at the end of one copy of each edition, which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state as a public record, his certificate certifying that each printed section therein has been compared to the original section of the statutes or with the original section contained in the enrolled act from which the section was derived, together with all amendments of such original section and that all sections appear to be correctly printed. All other copies of the edition shall contain a printed copy of such certificate.

History: 1945 c 462 s 3
