2.724 CHIEF JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT, DUTIES.

[For text of subd 1, see M.S.1982]

Subd. 2. Procedure. To promote and secure more efficient administration of justice, the chief justice of the supreme court of the state shall supervise and coordinate the work of the courts of the state. The supreme court may provide by rule that the chief justice not be required to write opinions as a member of the supreme court. Its rules may further provide for it to hear and consider cases in divisions. It may by rule assign temporarily any retired justice of the supreme court or one judge of the court of appeals or district court judge at a time to act as a justice of the supreme court or any number of justices or retired justices of the supreme court to act as judges of the court of appeals. Upon the assignment of a court of appeals judge or a district court judge to act as a justice of the supreme court, a judge previously acting as a justice may complete his duties. Any number of justices may disqualify themselves from hearing and considering a case, in which event the supreme court may assign temporarily a retired justice of the supreme court, a court of appeals judge, or a district court judge to hear and consider the case in place of each disqualified justice. At any time that a retired justice is acting as a justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals under this section, he shall receive, in addition to his retirement pay, out of the general fund of the state, an amount to make his total compensation equal to the same salary as a justice or judge of the court on which he is acting.
