128.01 MS 1957 [Repealed, Ex1959 c 71 art 8 s 26]

128.01 COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD; ELECTIONS; TERMS.

The school board of any such county district shall consist of five members, to be elected at the same time and in the same manner as board members in a ten or more townships district, but for a term of four years. The board of county commissioners shall appoint the members of such board within 60 days following the election at which time the question of consolidation was submitted, the length of each term for which they are to be appointed being such as to cause the term of three members of the board to expire on the Sunday preceding the first Monday in January following the next general election and the term for two members to expire two years from the Sunday preceding the first Monday in January following the next general election. The provisions of Laws 1949, Chapter 268, shall not affect the terms of the school boards of county districts now organized. The school board of the county district shall meet within ten days after the appointment by the county board, and thereafter as may be necessary, and organize in the same manner as independent districts and do whatever business is necessary for the best interest of the county district for the ensuing school year and thereafter shall organize at the same time as boards of county commissioners.
