308.11 [Repealed, 1989 c 144 art 1 s 44; art 3 s 48]

NOTE: This section was also amended by Laws 1989, chapter 209, article 2, section 34, to read as follows:

"308.11 Directors; officers.

Every cooperative association organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18 shall be governed by a board of not less than five directors, except in the case of a cooperative housing corporation as defined in section 216(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, in which case the number of directors shall not be less than three, who shall be members of the association. If a member of an association is a family farm corporation within the meaning of section 500.24, subdivision 2, clause (c), or an authorized farm corporation within the meaning of section 500.24, subdivision 2, clause (d), the member may elect or appoint a stockholder of the corporation residing on or actively operating the farm who shall be eligible for election to the board of directors. If a member of an association be other than a natural person, family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, and if the bylaws of the association do not provide otherwise, the member may appoint or elect one or, in the case of associations wholly constituted of other cooperative associations, one or more natural persons who shall be eligible for election to the board of directors. Directors shall be elected for the term, at the time, and in the manner provided in sections 308.05 to 308.18 and the bylaws of the association. The directors shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice-presidents. They shall also elect a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be directors or stockholders. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined and when combined the person filling the office shall be termed secretary-treasurer. If the bylaws provide, the board of directors may also elect from their number a chair and one or more vice-chairs, in which case the president and vice-presidents need not be directors or stockholders. The board of directors may also elect additional officers as the articles or bylaws may authorize or require, and unless otherwise required by the articles or bylaws, the additional officers need not be directors or stockholders. The stockholders shall have the power, at any regular or special stockholders' meeting regularly called in the manner above provided, to remove a director or officer for cause and to fill the vacancy caused by the removal."
