Subd. 2. Establishment; administration. The state court administrator shall administer the dispute resolution program.

Subd. 3. Guidelines. The state court administrator shall develop guidelines for use by community dispute resolution programs and training programs for mediators and arbitrators for those community dispute resolution programs. The guidelines shall provide a method for insuring that participation in dispute resolution is voluntary and shall include procedures for case processing and program certification criteria which must be met in order to receive court referrals. The guidelines shall include standards for training mediators and arbitrators to recognize matters involving violence against a person. Any guidelines developed under this subdivision shall be submitted to the chair of the judiciary committees in the house of representatives and senate by February 1, 1985. The guidelines shall not constitute a rule nor shall they be a substantive or procedural law nor shall they take effect until the guidelines are enacted by the legislature. This shall not limit the existing authority of the state court administrator.

Subd. 4. Reports. The state court administrator shall compile statistical data regarding community dispute resolution programs, including the operation budget, the number of referrals, categories or types of cases referred, number of parties served, number of disputes resolved, nature of resolution, amount and type of awards, rate of compliance, returnees to the dispute resolution process, duration and estimated costs of proceedings, and any other pertinent information.

Subd. 5. Guidelines promulgation. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the state court administrator may promulgate the community dispute resolution guidelines.

This shall not restrict the present authority of the court or departments of the court from accepting for resolution a dispute arising under chapters 518, 518A, and 518C, or from referring disputes arising under chapters 518, and 518A to for-profit mediation.
