GENERAL PROVISIONS

504.01 DISTRESS FOR RENT.

The remedy by distress for rent is abolished.

History: (8186) RL s 3327

504.012 WRITTEN LEASE REQUIRED; PENALTY.

An owner of a multiunit building, with 12 or more residential units, shall have a written lease for each unit rented to a residential tenant. Notwithstanding any other state law or city ordinance to the contrary, a landlord may ask for the tenant's full name and date of birth on the lease and application. An owner who fails to provide a lease, as required under this section, is guilty of a petty misdemeanor. The definitions of "owner," "tenant," and "building" in section 566.18 apply to this section.

History: 1993 c 317 s 1; 1994 c 496 s 1; 1996 c 328 s 3

504.015 TENANT TO BE GIVEN COPY OF LEASE.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, "owner" has the meaning given it in section 566.18, and "tenant" means any person occupying the dwelling unit whose signature appears on the lease agreement.

Subd. 2. Copy of written lease to tenant. An owner shall give a tenant a copy of a written lease. An owner may obtain a signed and dated receipt, either as a separate document or an acknowledgment included in the lease agreement itself, from the tenant acknowledging that the tenant has received a copy of the lease. This signed receipt or acknowledgment is prima facie evidence that the tenant has received a copy of the lease.

Subd. 3. Legal action to enforce lease. In any legal action to enforce a written lease, except for nonpayment of rent, disturbing the peace, malicious destruction of property, or a violation of section 504.181, it is a defense for the tenant to establish that the owner failed to comply with subdivision 2. This defense may be overcome if the owner establishes that the tenant had actual knowledge of the term or terms of the lease upon which any legal action is based.

History: 1993 c 317 s 2

504.02 CANCELLATION OF LEASES IN CERTAIN CASES; ABANDONMENT OR SURRENDER OF POSSESSION.

Subdivision 1. Action to recover. (a) In case of a lease of real property, when the landlord has a subsisting right of reentry for the failure of the tenant to pay rent the landlord may bring an action to recover possession of the property and such action is equivalent to a demand for the rent and a reentry upon the property; but if, at any time before possession has been delivered to the plaintiff on recovery in the action, the lessee or a successor in interest as to the whole or any part of the property pays to the plaintiff or brings into court the amount of the rent then in arrears, with interest and costs of the action, and an attorney fee not exceeding $5, and performs the other covenants on the part of the lessee, the lessee or successor may be restored to the possession and hold the property according to the terms of the original lease unless an action is pending under section 566.03, subdivision 5, for recovery of the property alleging a material violation of the lease.

(b) If the tenant has paid to the plaintiff or brought into court the amount of rent in arrears but is unable to pay the interest, costs of the action, and attorney fees required by this subdivision, the court may permit the defendant to pay these amounts into court and be restored to possession within the same period of time, if any, which the court stays the issuance of the writ of restitution pursuant to section 566.09.

(c) Prior to or after commencement of an action to recover possession for nonpayment of rent, the parties may agree only in writing that partial payment of rent in arrears which is accepted by the landlord prior to issuance of the order granting restitution of the premises pursuant to section 566.09 may be applied to the balance due and does not waive the landlord's action to recover possession of the premises for nonpayment of rent.

(d) Rental payments under this subdivision must first be applied to rent claimed as due in the complaint from prior rental periods before applying any payment toward rent claimed in the complaint for the current rental period, unless the court finds that under the circumstances the claim for rent from prior rental periods has been waived.

Subd. 2. Lease greater than 20 years. (a) If the lease under which the right of reentry is claimed is a lease for a term of more than 20 years, reentry cannot be made into the land or such action commenced by the landlord unless, after default, the landlord shall serve upon the tenant, also upon all creditors having a lien of record legal or equitable upon the leased premises or any part thereof, a written notice that the lease will be canceled and terminated unless the payment or payments in default shall be made and the covenants in default shall be performed within 30 days after the service of such notice, or within such greater period as the lessor shall specify in the notice, and if such default shall not be removed within the period specified within the notice, then the right of reentry shall be complete at the expiration of the period and may be exercised as provided by law. If any such lease shall provide that the landlord, after default, shall give more than 30 days' notice in writing to the tenant of the landlord's intention to terminate the tenancy by reason of default in terms thereof, then the length of the notice to terminate shall be the same as provided for and required by the lease.

(b) As to such leases for a term of more than 20 years, if at any time before the expiration of six months after possession obtained by the plaintiff by abandonment or surrender of possession by the tenant or on recovery in the action, the lessee or a successor in interest as to the whole or part of the property, or any creditor having a lien legal or equitable upon the leased premises or any part thereof, pays to the plaintiff, or brings into court, the amount of rent then in arrears, with interest and the costs of the action, and performs the other covenants on the part of the lessee, the lessee or successor may be restored to the possession and hold the property according to the terms of the original lease. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any action or proceeding now pending in any of the courts of this state.

Subd. 3. Judgment to be recorded. Upon recovery of possession by the landlord in the action a certified copy of the judgment shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the land is situated if unregistered land or in the office of the registrar of titles of such county if registered land and upon recovery of possession by the landlord by abandonment or surrender by the tenant an affidavit by the landlord or the landlord's attorney setting forth such fact shall be recorded in a like manner and such recorded certified copy of such judgment or such recorded affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein in reference to the recovery of possession by such landlord.

History: (8187) RL s 3328; 1917 c 428 s 1; 1923 c 76 s 1; 1937 c 38 s 1; 1976 c 181 s 2; 1986 c 444; 1992 c 376 art 1 s 2; 1992 c 464 art 1 s 46; 1993 c 165 s 1

504.03 TENANT MAY NOT DENY TITLE; EXCEPTION.

When any person enters into the possession of real property under a lawful lease the person shall not while so in possession deny the title of the landlord in an action brought by such landlord, or any person claiming under the landlord, to recover possession of the property; but such estoppel shall not apply to any lessee who, at and prior to the lease, is in possession of the premises under a claim of title adverse or hostile to that of the lessor.

History: (8188) RL s 3329; 1986 c 444

504.04 PERSON IN POSSESSION LIABLE FOR RENT; EVIDENCE.

Every person in possession of land out of which any rent is due, whether it was originally demised in fee, or for any other estate of freehold or for any term of years, shall be liable for the amount or proportion of rent due from the land in possession, although it be only a part of the land originally demised. Such rent may be recovered in a civil action, and the deed, demise, or other instrument showing the provisions of the lease may be used in evidence by either party to prove the amount due from the defendant. Nothing herein contained shall deprive landlords of any other legal remedy for the recovery of rent, whether secured to them by their leases or provided by law.

History: (8189) RL s 3330; 1986 c 444

504.05 RENT LIABILITY; DESTROYED UNTENANTABLE TENEMENTS.

The lessee or occupant of any building which, without the fault or neglect of that lessee or occupant, is destroyed or is so injured by the elements or any other cause as to be untenable or unfit for occupancy, is not liable thereafter to pay rent to the lessor or owner thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided by written agreement; and the lessee or occupant may thereupon quit and surrender possession of such premises.

History: (8190) RL s 3331; 1986 c 444

504.06 ESTATE AT WILL, HOW DETERMINED; NOTICE.

Estates at will may be determined by either party by three months' notice in writing for that purpose given to the other party, and, when the rent reserved is payable at periods of less than three months, the time of such notice shall be sufficient if it be equal to the interval between the times of payment; and, in all cases of neglect or refusal to pay the rent due on a lease at will, 14 days' notice in writing to quit, given by the landlord to the tenant, is sufficient to determine the lease.

History: (8191) RL s 3332

504.07 URBAN REAL ESTATE; HOLDING OVER.

When the lessee or tenant of urban real estate, or any interest therein, holds over and retains possession thereof after expiration of the term of the lease without express contract with the owner, no tenancy for any other period than the shortest interval between the times of payment of rent under the terms of the expired lease shall be implied.

History: (8193) RL s 3333

504.08 NOTICE TO BE GIVEN OF VACATION OF BUILDING.

Every person who shall, between the 15th day of November and the 15th day of April' following, remove from, abandon, or vacate any building, or part thereof, occupied by or in the possession of that person as tenant, except upon the termination of the tenancy, and which contains any plumbing, water, steam, or other pipe liable to injury from freezing, without first giving to the landlord, owner, or agent in charge of such building three days' notice of intention so to remove shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: (8194) 1915 c 213 s 1; 1986 c 444

504.09 NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF LEASES.

When a notice of the cancellation or termination of a lease of real property, or a copy of the notice, with proof of service thereof, and the affidavit of the lessor, or the lessor's agent or attorney, showing that the lessee has not complied with the terms of the notice, shall be presented for recording at the office of the county recorder in which the lease has been duly recorded, it shall be the duty of the county recorder to record the notice, proof of service thereof and affidavit, and the record thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

504.10–504.17 [Obsolete]

504.18 COVENANTS OF LESSOR OR LICENSOR.

Subdivision 1. In every lease or license of residential premises, whether in writing or parol, the lessor or licensor covenants:

- (a) That the premises and all common areas are fit for the use intended by the parties.
- (b) To keep the premises in reasonable repair during the term of the lease or license, except when the disrepair has been caused by the willful, malicious, or irresponsible conduct of the lessee or licensee or a person under the direction or control of the lessee or licensee.
- (c) To maintain the premises in compliance with the applicable health and safety laws of the state, including the weatherstripping, caulking, storm window, and storm door energy efficiency standards for renter-occupied residences prescribed by section 216C.27, subdivisions 1 and 3, and of the local units of government where the premises are located during the term of the lease or license, except when violation of the health and safety laws has been caused by the willful, malicious, or irresponsible conduct of the lessee or licensee or a person under the direction or control of the lessee or licensee.

The parties to a lease or license of residential premises may not waive or modify the covenants imposed by this section.

Subd. 2. The lessor or licensor may agree with the lessee or licensee that the lessee or licensee is to perform specified repairs or maintenance, but only if the agreement is supported by adequate consideration and set forth in a conspicuous writing. No such agreement, however, may waive the provisions of subdivision 1 or relieve the lessor or licensor of the duty to maintain common areas of the premises.

Subd. 3. This section shall be liberally construed, and the opportunity to inspect the premises before concluding a lease or license shall not defeat the covenants established herein.

Subd. 4. The covenants contained herein shall be in addition to any covenants or conditions imposed by law or ordinance or by the terms of the lease or license.

Subd. 5. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to alter the liability of the lessor or licensor of residential premises for injury to third parties.

Subd. 6. The provisions of this section apply only to leases or licenses of residential premises concluded or renewed on or after June 15, 1971. For the purposes of this section estates at will shall be deemed to be renewed at the commencement of each rental period.

History: 1971 c 219 s 1; 1986 c 444; 1992 c 376 art 1 s 3

504.181 COVENANT OF LESSEE NOT TO ALLOW DRUGS.

Subdivision 1. Covenant not to allow drugs. In every lease or license of residential premises, whether in writing or parol, the lessee or licensee covenants that:

- (1) the lessee or licensee will not unlawfully allow controlled substances in those premises; and

(2) the common area and curtilage will not be used by the lessee or licensee or others acting under the lessee's or licensee's control to manufacture, sell, give away, barter, deliver, exchange, distribute, purchase, or possess a controlled substance in violation of any criminal provision of chapter 152.

The covenant is not violated when a person other than the lessee or licensee possesses or allows controlled substances in the premises, common area, or curtilage, unless the lessee or licensee knew or had reason to know of that activity.

Subd. 2. Breach voids right to possession. A breach of the covenant created by subdivision 1 voids the lessee's or licensee's right to possession of the residential premises. All other provisions of the lease or license, including but not limited to the obligation to pay rent, remain in effect until the lease is terminated by the terms of the lease or operation of law.

If the lessor or licensee breaches the covenant created by subdivision 1, the landlord may bring, or assign to the county attorney of the county in which the residential premises are located, the right to bring an unlawful detainer action against the lessee or licensee. The assignment must be in writing on a form provided by the county attorney, and the county attorney may determine whether to accept the assignment. If the county attorney accepts the assignment of the landlord's right to bring an unlawful detainer action:

(1) any court filing fee that would otherwise be required in an unlawful detainer action is waived; and

(2) the landlord retains all the rights and duties, including removal of the lessee's or licensee's personal property, following issuance of the writ of restitution and delivery of the writ to the sheriff for execution.

Subd. 3. Waiver not allowed. The parties to a lease or license of residential premises may not waive or modify the covenant imposed by this section.

History: 1989 c 305 s 1; 1991 c 193 s 1; 1992 c 533 s 1; 1996 c 328 s 4

504.183 TENANT'S RIGHT TO PRIVACY.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Building" has the meaning given in section 566.18, subdivision 7.

(b) "Landlord" means the owner as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 3, the owner's agent, or other person acting under the owner's direction and control.

(c) "Tenant" has the meaning given in section 566.18, subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. Entry by landlord. Except as provided in subdivision 4, a landlord may enter the premises rented by a tenant only for a reasonable business purpose and after making a good faith effort to give the tenant reasonable notice under the circumstances of the intent to enter. A tenant may not waive and the landlord may not require the tenant to waive the tenant's right to prior notice of entry under this section as a condition of entering into or maintaining the lease.

Subd. 3. Reasonable purpose. For purposes of subdivision 2, a reasonable business purpose includes, but is not limited to:

(1) showing the unit to prospective tenants during the notice period before the lease terminates or after the current tenant has given notice to move to the owner or owner's agent;

(2) showing the unit to a prospective buyer or to an insurance representative;

(3) performing maintenance work;

(4) allowing inspections by state, county, or city officials charged in the enforcement of health, housing, building, fire prevention, or housing maintenance codes;

(5) the tenant is causing a disturbance within the unit;

(6) the landlord has a reasonable belief that the tenant is violating the lease within the tenant's unit;

(7) prearranged housekeeping work in senior housing where 80 percent or more of the tenants are age 55 or older;

(8) the landlord has a reasonable belief that the unit is being occupied by an individual without a legal right to occupy it; or

(9) the tenant has vacated the unit.

Subd. 4. Exception to notice requirement. Notwithstanding subdivision 2, a landlord may enter the premises rented by a tenant to inspect or take appropriate action without prior notice to the tenant if the landlord reasonably suspects that:

(1) immediate entry is necessary to prevent injury to persons or property because of conditions relating to maintenance, building security, or law enforcement;

(2) immediate entry is necessary to determine a tenant's safety; or

(3) immediate entry is necessary in order to comply with local ordinances regarding unlawful activity occurring within the tenant's premises.

Subd. 5. Entry without tenant's presence. If the landlord enters when the tenant is not present and prior notice has not been given, the landlord shall disclose the entry by placing a written disclosure of the entry in a conspicuous place in the premises.

Subd. 6. Penalty. If a landlord substantially violates subdivision 2, the tenant is entitled to a penalty which may include a rent reduction up to full rescission of the lease, recovery of any damage deposit less any amount retained under section 504.20, and up to a $100 civil penalty for each violation. If a landlord violates subdivision 5, the tenant is entitled to up to a $100 civil penalty for each violation. A tenant shall follow the procedures in sections 566.18 to 566.33 to enforce the provisions of this section.

Subd. 7. Exemption. This section does not apply to tenants and landlords of manufactured home parks as defined in section 327C.01.

History: 1995 c 226 art 4 s 21; 1996 c 367 s 1

504.185 EMERGENCY CONDITIONS; LOSS OF ESSENTIAL SERVICES.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given to them.

(a) "Owner" has the meaning given to it in section 566.18, subdivision 3.

(b) "Tenant" has the meaning given to it in section 566.18, subdivision 2.

(c) "Building" has the meaning given to it in section 566.18, subdivision 7.

(d) "Single-metered residential building" means a multiunit rental building with one or more separate residential living units where the utility service measured through a single meter provides service to an individual unit and to all or parts of common areas or other units.

Subd. 1a. Single-meter utility service payments. In a residential leasehold contract entered into or renewed on or after August 1, 1995, the owner of a single-metered residential building shall be the bill payer responsible, and shall be the customer of record contracting with the utility for utility services. The owner must advise the utility provider that the utility services apply to a single-metered residential building. A failure by the owner to comply with this subdivision is a violation of sections 504.18, subdivision 1, clause (a), and 504.26. This subdivision may not be waived by contract or otherwise. This subdivision does not require an owner to contract and pay for utility service provided to each residential unit through a separate meter which accurately measures that unit's use only.

Subd. 2. Procedure. When a municipality, utility company, or other company supplying home heating oil, propane, natural gas, electricity, or water to a building has issued a final notice or has posted the building proposing to disconnect or discontinued the service to the building because an owner who has contracted for the service has failed to pay for it or because an owner is required by law or contract to pay for the service and fails to do so, a tenant or group of tenants may pay to have the service continued or reconnected as provided under this section. Before paying for the service, the tenant or group of tenants shall give oral or written notice to the owner of the tenant's intention to pay after 48 hours, or a shorter period that is reasonable under the circumstances, if the owner has not already paid for the service. In the case of oral notification, written notice shall be mailed or delivered to the owner within 24 hours after oral notice is given.

(a) In the case of natural gas, electricity, or water, if the owner has not yet paid the bill by the time of the tenant's intended payment, or if the service remains discontinued, the tenant or tenants may pay the outstanding bill for the most recent billing period, if the utility company or municipality will restore the service for at least one billing period.

(b) In the case of home heating oil or propane, if the owner has not yet paid the bill by the time of the tenant's intended payment, or if the service remains discontinued, the tenant or tenants may order and pay for one month's supply of the proper grade and quality of oil or propane.

After submitting receipts for the payment to the owner, a tenant may deduct the amount of the tenant's payment from the rental payment next paid to the owner. Any amount paid to the municipality, utility company, or other company by a tenant under this subdivision is considered payment of rent to the owner for purposes of section 504.02.

Subd. 3. Limitations; waiver prohibited; rights as additional. The tenant rights under this section:

(1) do not extend to conditions caused by the willful, malicious, or negligent conduct of the tenant or of a person under the tenant's direction or control;

(2) may not be waived or modified; and

(3) are in addition to and do not limit other rights which may be available to the tenant in law or equity, including the right to damages and the right to restoration of possession of the premises under section 504.02.

504.19 [Repealed, 1973 c 561 s 2]

504.20 INTEREST ON SECURITY DEPOSITS; WITHHOLDING SECURITY DEPOSITS; DAMAGES.

Subdivision 1. Any deposit of money, the function of which is to secure the performance of a residential rental agreement or any part of such an agreement, other than a deposit which is exclusively an advance payment of rent, shall be governed by the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. Any deposit of money shall not be considered received in a fiduciary capacity within the meaning of section 82.17, subdivision 7, but shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the agreement and shall bear simple noncompounded interest at the rate of three percent per annum until May 1, 1999, and four percent per annum thereafter, computed from the first day of the next month following the full payment of the deposit to the last day of the month in which the landlord, in good faith, complies with the requirements of subdivision 3 or to the date upon which judgment is entered in any civil action involving the landlord's liability for the deposit, whichever date is earlier. Any interest amount less than $1 shall be excluded from the provisions of this section.

Subd. 3. (a) Every landlord shall:

(1) within three weeks after termination of the tenancy; or

(2) within five days of the date when the tenant leaves the building or dwelling due to the legal condemnation of the building or dwelling in which the tenant lives for reasons not due to willful, malicious, or irresponsible conduct of the tenant, and after receipt of the tenant's mailing address or delivery instructions, return the deposit to the tenant, with interest thereon as above provided, or furnish to the tenant a written statement showing the specific reason for the withholding of the deposit or any portion thereof.

(b) It shall be sufficient compliance with the time requirement of this subdivision if the deposit or written statement required by this subdivision is placed in the United States mail as first class mail, postage prepaid, in an envelope with a proper return address, correctly addressed according to the mailing address or delivery instructions furnished by the tenant, within the time required by this subdivision. The landlord may withhold from the deposit only amounts reasonably necessary:

(1) to remedy tenant defaults in the payment of rent or of other funds due to the landlord pursuant to an agreement; or

(2) to restore the premises to their condition at the commencement of the tenancy, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(c) In any action concerning the deposit, the burden of proving, by a fair preponderance of the evidence, the reason for withholding all or any portion of the deposit shall be on the landlord.

Subd. 4. Any landlord who fails to:

- (1) provide a written statement within three weeks of termination of the tenancy;
- (2) provide a written statement within five days of the date when the tenant leaves the building or dwelling due to the legal condemnation of the building or dwelling in which the tenant lives for reasons not due to willful, malicious, or irresponsible conduct of the tenant; or
- (3) transfer or return a deposit as required by subdivision 5, after receipt of the tenant's mailing address or delivery instructions, as required in subdivision 3, shall be liable to the tenant for damages in an amount equal to the portion of the deposit withheld by the landlord and interest thereon as provided in subdivision 2, as a penalty, in addition to the portion of the deposit wrongfully withheld by the landlord and interest thereon.

Subd. 5. Upon termination of the landlord's interest in the premises, whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of receiver or otherwise, the landlord or the landlord's agent shall, within 60 days of termination of the interest or when the successor in interest is required to return or otherwise account for the deposit to the tenant, whichever occurs first, do one of the following acts, either of which shall relieve the landlord or agent of further liability with respect to such deposit:

(a) transfer such deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions made under subdivision 3, with interest thereon as provided in subdivision 2, to the landlord's successor in interest and thereafter notify the tenant of such transfer and of the transferee's name and address; or

(b) return such deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions made under subdivision 3, with interest thereon as provided in subdivision 2, to the tenant.

Subd. 6. Upon termination of the landlord's interest in the premises, whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of receiver or otherwise, the landlord's successor in interest shall have all of the rights and obligations of the landlord with respect to such deposit, except, that if tenant does not object to the stated amount within 20 days after written notice to tenant of the amount of deposit being transferred or assumed, the obligation of the landlord's successor to return such deposit shall be limited to the amount contained in such notice. Such notice shall contain a stamped envelope addressed to landlord's successor and may be given by mail or by personal service.

Subd. 7. The bad faith retention by a landlord of a deposit, the interest thereon, or any portion thereof, in violation of this section shall subject the landlord to punitive damages not to exceed $200 for each deposit in addition to the damages provided in subdivision 4. If the landlord has failed to comply with the provisions of subdivision 3 or 5, retention of a deposit shall be presumed to be in bad faith unless the landlord returns the deposit within two weeks after the commencement of any action for the recovery of the deposit.

Subd. 7a. No tenant may withhold payment of all or any portion of rent for the last payment period of a residential rental agreement, except an oral or written month to month residential rental agreement concerning which neither the tenant nor landlord has served a notice to quit, on the grounds that the deposit should serve as payment for the rent. Withholding all or any portion of rent for the last payment period of the residential rental agreement creates a rebuttable presumption that the tenant withheld the last payment on the grounds that the deposit should serve as payment for the rent. Any tenant who remains in violation of this subdivision after written demand and notice of this subdivision shall be liable to the landlord for damages in an amount equal to the portion of the deposit which the landlord is entitled to withhold under subdivision 3 other than to remedy the tenant's default in the payment of rent, plus interest on the deposit as provided in subdivision 2, as a penalty, in addition to the amount of rent withheld by the tenant in violation of this subdivision.

Subd. 7b. An action, including an action in conciliation court, for the recovery of a deposit on rental property may be brought in the county where the rental property is located, or at the option of the tenant, in the county of the landlord's residence.

Subd. 8. Any attempted waiver of this section by a landlord and tenant, by contract or otherwise, shall be void and unenforceable.

Subd. 9. The provisions of this section shall apply only to tenancies commencing or renewed on or after July 1, 1973. For the purposes of this section, estates at will shall be deemed to be renewed at the commencement of each rental period.

This subdivision is complied with if notices posted in compliance with other statutes or ordinances contain the information required by subdivision 2 and this section.

Subd. 4. Service of process. If subdivisions 2 and 3, except for the provision requiring posting of a notice stating the availability of a summary of landlord-tenant law provided in subdivision 3, have not been complied with and a person desiring to make service of process upon or give a notice or demand to the owner does not know the name and address of the owner or the owner's agent, as that term is used in subdivision 2, then a caretaker or manager of the premises or an individual to whom rental payments for the premises are made shall be deemed to be an agent authorized to accept service of process and receive and give receipt for notices and demands on behalf of the owner. 504.30 TENANT REPORTS; DISCLOSURE AND CORRECTIONS.

Subdivision 1. Disclosures required. (a) Upon request and proper identification, a tenant screening service must disclose the following information to an individual:

(1) the nature and substance of all information in its files on the individual at the time of the request; and

(2) the sources of the information.

A tenant screening service must make the disclosures to an individual without charge if information in a tenant report has been used within the past 30 days to deny the rental or increase the security deposit or rent of a residential housing unit to the individual. If the tenant report has not been used to deny the rental or increase the rent or security deposit of a residential housing unit within the past 30 days, the tenant screening service may impose a reasonable charge for making the disclosure required under this section. The tenant screening service must notify the tenant of the amount of the charge before furnishing the information. The charge may not exceed the amount that the tenant screening service would impose on each designated recipient of a tenant report, except that no charge may be made for notifying persons of the deletion of information which is found to be inaccurate or which can no longer be verified.

(b) Files maintained on a tenant must be disclosed promptly as established in clauses (1) to (4).

(1) A tenant file must be disclosed in person, during normal business hours, at the location where the tenant screening service maintains its files, if the tenant appears in person and furnishes proper identification at that time.

A disclosure made under this clause shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, within five business days after the written request for disclosure is received by the tenant screening service. A tenant screening service complying with a request for disclosure under this clause shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling mail, provided that the tenant file information is mailed to the address specified by the tenant in the request.

(3) A summary of the information in a tenant file must be disclosed by telephone, if the tenant has made a written request with proper identification for telephone disclosure.

(4) Information in a tenant's file required to be disclosed in writing under this subdivision may be disclosed in any other form including electronic means if authorized by the tenant and available from the tenant screening service.

Subd. 4. Court file information. (a) If a tenant screening service includes information from a court file on an individual in a tenant report, the report must provide the full name and date of birth of the individual in any case where the court file includes the individual's full name and date of birth, and the outcome of the court proceeding must be accurately recorded in the tenant report including the specific basis of the court's decision, when available.

Whenever the court supplies information from a court file on an individual, in whatever form, the court shall include the full name and date of birth of the individual, if that is indicated on the court file or summary and information on the outcome of the court proceeding, including the specific basis of the court's decision, coded as provided in subdivision 4a for the type of action, when it becomes available. The tenant screening service is not liable under section 504.31 if the tenant screening service reports complete and accurate information as provided by the court.

(b) A tenant screening service shall not provide tenant reports containing information on unlawful detainer actions in the second and fourth judicial districts, unless the tenant report accurately records the outcome of the proceeding or other disposition of the unlawful detainer action such as settlement, entry of a judgment, default, or dismissal of the action.

Subd. 4a. Unlawful detainer action coding. The court shall indicate on the court file or any summary of a court file the specific basis of the court's decision in an unlawful detainer action according to codes developed by the court that, at a minimum, indicates if the basis of the court's decision is nonpayment of rent, a violation of the covenants under section 504.18 or 504.181, other breach of a lease agreement, or a counterclaim for possession of the premises under section 566.34.
