

CHAPTER 412

STATUTORY CITIES

412.101 Repealed.
 412.153 Housing aid to ensure timely public safety service.

412.222 Public accountants in statutory cities.

412.101 [Repealed; 2001 c 135 s 3]

412.153 HOUSING AID TO ENSURE TIMELY PUBLIC SAFETY SERVICE.

Statutory cities may expend public funds to acquire or lease residential property for housing or otherwise provide housing assistance in the city for one or more volunteer firefighters or ambulance personnel. The expenditure may only be made to attract and retain the qualified personnel necessary to ensure that a city has timely public safety and related service. A city may make the expenditure only after the need for the expenditure has been established and approved at a public hearing.

History: 2001 c 19 s 1

412.222 PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS IN STATUTORY CITIES.

The council of any city may employ public accountants on a monthly or yearly basis for the purpose of auditing, examining, and reporting upon the books and records of account of such city. For the purpose of this section, "public accountant" means a certified public accountant or a certified public accounting firm licensed by the board of accountancy under chapter 326A. All expenditures for these purposes shall be within the statutory limits upon tax levies in such cities.

History: 2001 c 109 art 2 s 7

NOTE: The amendment to this section by Laws 2001, chapter 109, article 2, section 7, is effective January 1, 2003. Laws 2001, chapter 109, article 2, section 10.