

422A.04 EXPENSES; REPORTS; RECORDS; POWERS.

Subdivision 1. Requirements of board members. The members of the retirement board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for any necessary expenditures and no employee shall suffer loss of salary or wages through serving on the board. Every member of the board shall take a similar oath of office as taken by employees of the city and such oath shall be subscribed to by each member and filed with the clerk of the city.

Subd. 2. Actuarial data. The board shall keep in convenient form any data necessary for the preparation of the annual actuarial valuation of the fund created by this chapter. The actuarial valuation of the fund shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 356.

Subd. 3. Experience data and mortality tables. The board shall prepare and keep any needful tables, records, and accounts required for carrying out the provisions of sections 422A.01 to 422A.25, including data showing the mortality and disability experience of the officers and employees of the service and the date of withdrawal from service, and any other information that may serve as a guide for future actuarial valuations and adjustments in the actuarial assumptions for the retirement fund. Mortality tables shall be adopted and may be modified from time to time by the board based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the actuary retained under section 356.214 as a basis of calculation for retirement allowances, with any recommendation by the actuary retained as a part of the permanent records of the board.

Subd. 4. Other powers. The board shall perform such other functions as are required for the execution of the provisions of this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter, the board shall possess the powers and privileges of a corporation, and as such may sue and be sued, and shall have the right to issue subpoenas and to compel the attendance of witnesses.
