

317A.241 COMMITTEES.

Subdivision 1. Generally. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the corporation to the extent provided in the resolution. Committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.

Subd. 2. Membership. Committee members must be natural persons. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a committee must consist of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present.

Subd. 3. Procedure. Sections 317A.231 to 317A.239 apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board.

Subd. 4. Minutes. Minutes, if any, of committee meetings must be made available upon request to members of the committee and to a director.

Subd. 5. Standard of conduct. The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in section 317A.251.

Subd. 6. Committee members considered directors. Committee members are considered to be directors for purposes of sections 317A.251, 317A.255, and 317A.521.

Subd. 7. Subcommittees. Unless otherwise provided in the articles, the bylaws, or the resolution of the board establishing the committee, a committee may create one or more subcommittees and may delegate to a subcommittee any or all of the authority of the committee. In this chapter, unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, any reference to a committee is deemed to include a subcommittee, and any reference to a committee member is deemed to include a subcommittee member.
