325F.693 FRAUDULENT TELEPHONE SERVICES: SLAMMING.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, a "telephone service subscriber" means a person who contracts with a telephone company for telephone services or a telecommunications company for telecommunications services.

- (b) The definitions contained in chapter 237 apply to this section.
- Subd. 2. Slamming deemed consumer fraud. (a) It is fraud under section 325F.69 to request a change in a telephone service subscriber's local exchange or interexchange carrier without the subscriber's verified consent.
- (b) A telephone service subscriber may employ the remedies provided in section 237.66 for violations of paragraph (a). Section 8.31 may also be employed to remedy violations of paragraph (a).
 - (c) For the purposes of paragraph (a):
- (1) the consent of the telephone service subscriber may be verified utilizing any method that is consistent with federal law or regulation;
- (2) compliance with applicable federal law and regulation, or state law and rule, whichever is more stringent, is a complete defense to an allegation of consumer fraud under paragraph (a); and
- (3) it is the responsibility of the company or carrier requesting a change in a telephone service subscriber's company or carrier to verify that the subscriber has authorized the change. A telephone company or telecommunications carrier providing local exchange service who has been requested by another telephone company or telecommunications carrier to process a change in a subscriber's carrier is only liable under this section if it knowingly participates in processing a requested change that is unauthorized.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to change a telephone company's or telecommunications carrier's obligations under section 237.66.
